Everyone connected with Watford FC was deeply saddened to learn of the very sudden death of one of our former stewards, Tim Parker. He joined Watford as an assistant in the Matchday Information Centre in 1986 and later went on to become steward for the Executive Box Areas.

Tim tragically passed away, after suffering a brain haemorrhage on Monday November 22. His funeral was at West Herts Crematorium on November 30 and his friends at Vicarage Road will all greatly miss his cheerful personality and terrific sense of humour.

Attention all Lottery Agents! Watford's lottery operation is moving up to the Hornet Shop, on Vicarage Road, so you can now visit Ian Sewell (the Hornet Shop manager), who is pleased to offer a full lottery service.

If you need to earn some extra cash for Christmas, why not consider becoming a lottery agent for Watford Football Club? The benefits on offer include: commission on all tickets sold; commission on large winners; free match tickets to watch the Hornets; agents' prize draws; special competitions; great social evenings and your own regular newsletters!

If you would like more details about becoming an agent, please call Lisa Goward on 0923 225761.

PETERBOROUGH UNITED

First Division strugglers Peterborough United are our Christmas Holiday visitors at Vicarage Road on December 28. A recent run of six games without a win sent the Posh tumbling to the bottom of the table and they were still looking for their first away win of the season, as we moved into the holiday period.

Even their proven goalscorer Tony Philliskirk has been struggling. He was top-scorer but with a total that is low by his standards of just six goals.

A dramatic dip in form, late last season cost the Posh a place in the play-offs. This season's campaign seems geared more towards survival and three points will be vital to both sides. For our own part, Watford will wish to end a run of three wins in each of Peterborough's last three visits here.

*"I know it's frustrating,
to get behind it"*

Our recent run of poor results is frustrating to everyone connected with Watford - and I realise that arguably the most frustrated set of people are yourselves, the supporters.

From a period where something exciting happened at Vicarage Road for many seasons, the last six years have been something of a vacuum - I appreciate that, especially having played at Newcastle, where the club had 25 years without success. Only now are they seeing some reward, around the side moulded by Kevin Keegan.

He can be judged on that side, and I would like to be judged on a side built by Glenn Roeder. I feel we are four quality, senior players short, and a year too young all round, of having a side that could challenge in this division.

At present, the recent results have to be taken in context - over the last six weeks, we have had up to 15 of the 27 professionals at the club unavailable. That's meant we have had to play youngsters in the first team, who to be frank, do not have the experience yet to play a sustained part at that level. That said, every one of the players who has pulled on a Watford shirt during the current period has given their all - but there is simply no substitute for experience. On the positive side, we had to play a non-contract player, Mark Watson, in the side. He's now earned a full-time contract - and will prove to be an excellent purchase for Watford.

Ultimately, whether it's me saying it, or the England manager, the game is about players. We can get them in the right frame of mind, but on the field, our control is severely limited. So when you're putting 19/20 year-old players against 'men' on a regular basis, you cannot expect to win, unless you're fielding four or five international prodigies.

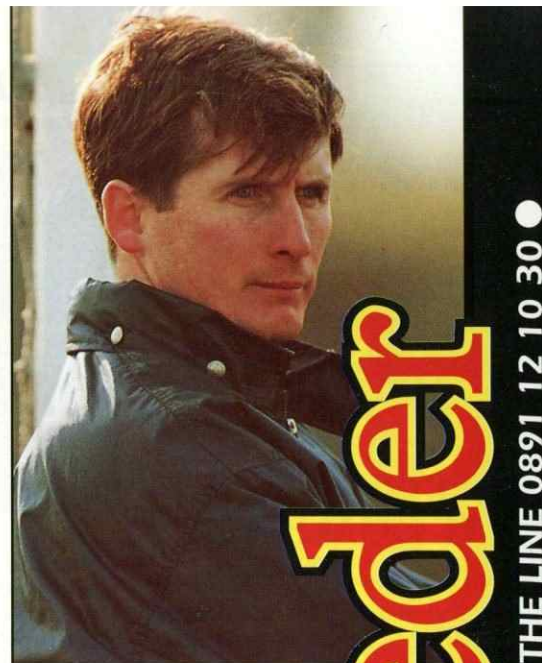

I said at the recent AGM 'don't judge me now, judge me on the team Glenn Roeder builds'. As I said in these notes a few weeks ago, it's very difficult for me to enter the transfer market, but I fully intend to construct a side to represent me and you in the best possible light.

In the meantime, our team needs you to get behind it. You can be worth a goal start to us, so I urge you to encourage, cheer, and get the ball in the net! Best wishes to you and your families over Christmas.

P.S.

If heads have been down a bit at the club recently, I have found the remedy! Just go and spend 15 minutes in the company of John White, our young winger who has recently suffered a second serious knee injury, which will keep him out for a year - having just returned from another bad knee injury, which also kept him out for a year. John is so positive and cheerful, he is an inspiration to everyone at Watford. I know he's going to make it, and nothing is going to give me greater pleasure than giving him his first-team debut.

PLAYER ROUND-UP

LOAN RANGER: After our last programme went to press, 21-year-old QPR defender Alan McCarthy joined the Hornets on a month's loan. We are reliably informed that his mother used to make the half-time teas for the Watford team!

PAUL MOVES ON: The one-month loan period of Notts County midfielder Paul Harding ended recently - he has now moved on to Birmingham City for a further one month's loan.

MARK SIGNS: Canadian international defender Mark Watson has earned himself a full-time contract at Vicarage Road after impressing in recent displays. The voting for Canadian Player of the Year has just happened, and Mark was in the running. We wait to hear where Mark finished in the awards.

• We now have an award-winning photographer on the club's books! Ernie Janes, who takes the club's team shots, is also a wildlife photographer, and recently won a Highly-Commended accolade in the prestigious Wildlife Photographer of the Year competition. It means his study of a brown hare is now on show at the Natural History Museum in London, at a special exhibition, which is on until the end of January.

CUP TIE TICKETS

TICKETS for our FA Cup third round tie at West Ham on Saturday January 8 went on sale at the Watford ticket office last Thursday - but may now all have gone.

That's because we were granted an allocation of just 679 seat tickets - in line with the Hammers' policy towards all visiting clubs.

The policy, supported by the FA, has been dictated by the safety and segregation problems at Upton Park due to redevelopment work.

Because of the limited number of tickets, they initially went on sale to season ticket holders only, as communicated through the local media. Remaining seats can be purchased by season ticket holders after today's game, but you must produce 'Voucher D' from your season ticket books.

Please note - only one ticket per person.

Any unsold tickets will go on general sale to Watford supporters at the ticket office from 9.00 am next Tuesday week, December 28.

Postal applications are currently being accepted from season ticket holders, subject to availability, but no telephone bookings can be made.

Seat ticket prices for the West Ham tie are: £15.00 and £13.00 (adults); juniors/senior citizens: £8.00.

YESTERDAY WAS OUR BIG DAY OUT

Firstly, you'll be reading these programme notes the day after we have had our 'Football in the Community' day out which involved three hours of football fun, a trip to the Pizza Hut in Edgware, and then onto Lea Valley Ice Rink to see Sleeping Beauty on Ice.

We took 45 children to see this and four adults and I hope that each and everyone of you had a great time.

I would also like to say a very big 'thank you' to Watford's vice-presidents club who have kindly donated a £100.00 cheque to the 'Football in the Community' fund.

This cheque will go some way to paying for the coach which was needed to take the children on their day out, so once again, thank you very much vice-presidents.

Don't forget we are also holding a introduction to sport day at Bushey Meads School on Wednesday, December 29, and there are still some places available for this. So if you are interested, not only in football but also in a range of other sports, please contact me at the club and I will give you details.

Have a great Christmas—I hope you all get the things you want from Santa.

Looking forward to your continued support.

Enjoy the game.

Best wishes,

Turning in

Iwould be interested to know whether the Football League computer will be on the Christmas Card list of either ourselves or Luton this year, having decided the two sides were to meet on day one at Kenilworth Road and the weekend before Christmas here. The debate about when local derbies should be staged is one that will last for years, I assume, but equally so will the debate over Christmas fixtures.

The lads have the prospect of a 'Boxing Day' game at Leicester with an 11.30am start; although the Bank Holiday actually falls on December 27, so it's not so bad. However, may I wish them a very happy New Year, to be spent in a hotel on the costa del Tranmere! David Pleat probably will not be happy about me reminding him of the year Luton had to play at Sunderland on New Year's Eve. The computer has a lot to answer for.

Seriously though, I have to admit to a certain amount of admiration for David Pleat - you have to respect a man who has stuck by his principles, no matter what.

We are delighted to be broadcasting today's game and, of course, Chiltern Radio Supergold will be at all the Holiday fixtures, if you cannot go.

Above all let's hope this Christmas and New Year bring tidings of comfort and joy to all and a stocking full of points to Glenn and the lads.

Happy Christmas to everyone from all of us at Supergold Sport.

EYES FRONT - SMILE PLEASE!

With a new name on the Watford shirts, the time had come for a new team photograph. But taking a team shot during the season means injuries and illness take their toll on those who can appear in the picture. That's why Nigel Gibbs, Jason Drysdale, Andy Hessenthaler, Alex Inglethorpe, John White and Robert Page are missing from the line-up, along with, inevitably, physio Billy Hails. We all hope they'll soon be the picture of health!

Christmas Fun Day

Just over a week ago, on Saturday December 11, the Junior Hornets spent the day at Vicarage Road, taking part in a whole host of activities. During the morning the most popular attractions were pool, snooker and table tennis; while everyone eagerly entered a number of competitions and the high-point of the afternoon, a big Treasure Hunt around the stadium.

A big thank-you to Helen and Chemane who helped to supervise the Junior Hornets throughout the day.

Away travel

Our last away trip was to Stoke City, where the Junior Hornets played in friendly matches against the Junior Potters in the morning. All the matches were very close, with our younger Junior Hornet sides enjoying slightly more success than our older ones.

Results aside, everyone enjoyed the day and we would like to thank Sam and Louis Compton, who gave the Junior Hornets an ideal Christmas present for our future away trips - a quizbook!

Football training

Our weekly Junior Hornet football training sessions finished this week (Thursday December 16) for the Christmas break. It will start again on Thursday January 6 1994, at the Woodside Leisure Centre, from 4.30pm to 5.30pm. See you there!!

I would just like to thank Liz, Lucy, Gemma, Michelle, Gary, Andy and everyone else who has helped with the Junior Hornets so far this season. I wish you all a Merry Christmas and look forward to seeing you all in the New Year.

Best wishes, David Toon.

GEORGE Edmonds was born in Hertford on April 4th 1893 and joined Watford in 1912 making a goalscoring debut for Watford in April 1913 in a 2-1 Southern League defeat at Crystal Palace.

In the last League season before competition was suspended during the First World War George was a regular member of Watford's Southern League Championship side, scoring 17 goals as Watford finished as Southern League Runners-up in the club's last non-League season.

Edmonds' goalscoring feats led to a transfer to Wolves in the Summer of 1920 and he made his debut against Fulham on August 20th of that year, netting his first goal at Molyneux against Barnsley in October.

He appeared in the 1921 FA Cup Final v Spurs with former Watford col-goals in 35 League appearances. During that season Edmonds made a match-winning contribution to an Easter local derby win at Kenilworth Road against the Hatters. Fred Gregory put Watford ahead from Edmonds' pass and the centre forward put the game beyond the Bedfordshire side with a second decisive strike to gain revenge for a 4-2 defeat at Cassio Road three days earlier.

He failed to appear for the Craven Cottage first team and subsequently moved into non-League football before retiring in 1929. George was living in a nursing home on the Isle of Wight well into his nineties.

The youth team's recent match at home to Ipswich Town brought one point much praise from their manager. "I was really pleased with our display, it was probably one of the best of the season," says youth team manager John Waugh. "If it hadn't been for Ipswich's keeper, we would have scored five or six goals. He pulled off a terrific save to keep his side in the game."

"We created lots of chances and our overall play was very good. It can only help to encourage our lads, knowing that they've outplayed a very good Ipswich side for long periods of the match. I was delighted with the team performance, particularly in the second half."

The visitors took an undeserved lead with a 28th-minute strike, following a throw-in on the left. However the expected equaliser wasn't long in coming, after the break. Just six minutes into the second half, good work by Colin Simpson saw him beat two defenders and cut the ball back from the by-line to set up Darran Gould with a close-range shot.

The following week's trip to Millwall brought a hatful of goals but no points for the Hornets, going down 3-4.

"A high-scoring game, but we didn't play as well as we had done the previous week," says Keith. "We scored three good goals to go in at half-time leading 3-2, having conceded two from corner-kicks; the second resulting in a penalty for Millwall."

Having gone a goal down, Watford hit back quickly through Scott Walters, who scored from just outside the box. Millwall's lead was restored following the penalty award, but again the young Hornets levelled when David Connolly beat the 'keeper with a well-worked goal.

Darran Gould then put Watford ahead for the first time, when he curled a shot into the net.

"At half-time I took off Colin Simpson, to rest him for Monday night's FA Youth Cup game, and brought on Matt Vier," adds Keith. "Unfortunately, we just weren't up to scratch in the second half and kept giving away possession too often."

A Lions equaliser came midway through the second half, but the killer blow was their winner, scored by virtually the last kick of the game.

Goalkeeper Trevor Kuntz has joined Watford on trainee forms, having impressed during his loan-spell with the Hornets earlier this season. Like senior defender Mark Watson, Trevor is also Canadian.

Tranmere returned to the top of the table with a 1-0 win at Luton, where John Aldridge tipped the scales with his 12th goal of the season in all matches. The Republic of Ireland international, now recovered from injury, has been back to something like his old form with his sixth goal in as many games.

But Tranmere's manager John King admitted that Luton had more of the play. It was their now-familiar problem of lack of bite in front of goal that cost them the game. Visiting 'keeper Eric Nixon had only one shot to save and he did well to tip a 25-yard drive from David Preece over the bar.

Alex Rae scored his first hat-trick for Millwall, all of his goals coming within the space of 17 minutes, as the Lions won 3-1 at Notts County. It was Rae's best individual performance since scoring four times in Falkirk's 6-0 victory over Albion Rovers in September 1989.

Barry Fry has now managed three clubs in ten months, during which time he saw one of them win promotion and another saved from relegation. He left Barnet last April, as they were poised to win promotion to the Second Division, to take over a Southend side that looked bound for relegation to that same section.

He saved the Shrimpers from the drop and has now taken on another huge challenge at Birmingham. Mr Fry, who paid off the final six months of his Southend contract personally, will earn £100,000 per year with the Blues - with a bonus of £300,000 if he leads them into the Premiership next May!

That looks almost impossible following their 1-2 defeat at Palace last Saturday. It was the Blues' sixth consecutive League defeat and left them 18 points short of the second-placed club, which must be their target if they are to get automatic promotion.

Mr Fry has been succeeded at Southend by former England winger and Watford's former assistant manager Peter Taylor, who has given up a safe job in the insurance business to take on the challenge he has relished ever since he finished playing.

"I began my career here at Southend and it has been my dream to become manager here," admitted the man who made history by winning four England caps as a Third Division player, after moving to Crystal Palace in 1973. He later played for Tottenham, Orient, Oldham, Maidstone and Exeter.

Mr Taylor did not get off to the best of starts. Southend were beaten 0-3 at home by West Brom.

Two more goals from David Speedie, taking his tally to 11, helped to put Leicester City back on promotion course, following a run of five League matches without a win. Julian Joachim also scored in a 3-0 win over Bristol City.

Football's biggest fan is its £36m supporter

By next August, standing will be a thing of the past at many of our football grounds as clubs meet the Taylor requirements.

Clubs who choose to retain some standing must make sure that terracing is safe – for many, an expensive commitment.

The Football Trust has an annual income of over £36m – virtually all from the pools companies, Littlewoods, Vernons and Zettlers.

Implementing Taylor is a huge undertaking and every club counts on THE FOOTBALL TRUST to help to see the job through.

THE FOOTBALL TRUST
Helping the game

Luton have been pulling away from the First Division's relegation zone, largely due to outstanding home form.

The Hatters defeated leaders Charlton Athletic by 1-0 at Kenilworth Road, then thrashed Stoke City 6-2. But away form has continued to disappoint. Their only away win so far came at Oxford United (1-0) in October. Though the Hatters have collected other away points from Middlesbrough (0-0) and Birmingham City (1-1); all their other away matches have ended in defeat.

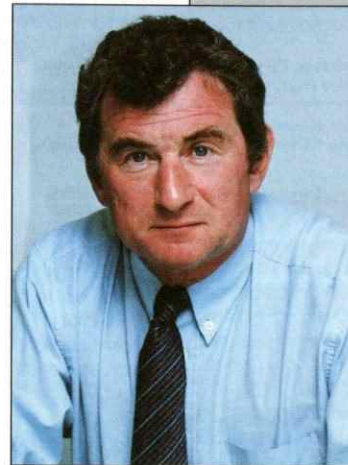

Luton were beaten in League encounters at Portsmouth (0-1), Tranmere Rovers (1-4), Derby County (1-2), Sunderland (0-2), Crystal Palace (2-3), Southend United (1-2) and Charlton Athletic (0-1).

The Hatters also went down at Cambridge United (0-1) in the Coca-Cola Cup and here at Vicarage Road in the Anglo-Italian Cup. Goals from Bruce Dyer and Alex Inglethorpe gave us a 2-1 victory back in August.

Financial problems have forced Luton to sell many of their best players in recent seasons and it is not easy to replace such successful goalscorers as Roy Wegerle, Iain Dowie, Mick Harford and Phil Gray, last season's top-scorer with 20 goals.

So Mr Pleat has turned to inexperienced players in an area where experience, really, is the key factor. John Hartson and Martin Williams were given runs in attack, and the Luton manager also signed Paul Dickov on loan from Arsenal, but in the end it was his most experienced striker who came up trumps.

Former England forward Kerry Dixon, signed on a free transfer from Southampton, has been back to his old form with a flurry of goals - including a hat-trick against Stoke.

BOSSMAN DAVID PLEAT

It was at Kenilworth Road that Mr Pleat made his name both as player and manager. His playing days began at Nottingham Forest, later moving to Luton in 1964. In 1967 he was transferred to Shrewsbury Town and subsequently played for Exeter City and Peterborough United, before retiring in 1971.

In 1974 he returned to Luton as reserve team coach, after a spell in charge at non-League Nuneaton Borough. He was promoted to first-team coach in 1977 and appointed manager in 1978, in succession to Harry Haslam. Four years later, Mr Pleat guided the Hatters into Division One - promoted alongside Watford.

In 1986 he joined Tottenham Hotspur, leading them to an FA Cup Final appearance, before moving to Leicester City in December 1987. His third spell at Luton commenced in June 1991, following his departure from Filbert Street in January of that year.

PREVIOUS MEETINGS

While our local rivals can justly claim that it is more than six years since we scored against Luton in a League match at Vicarage Road, it should be remembered that between 1988 and 1992 we did not meet in League competition.

Our last League victory here came in April 1987, when Worrell Sterling and John Barnes were our marksmen in a 2-0 defeat of the Hatters. For John Barnes it proved to be his last strike for the Hornets, before his departure to Liverpool in the summer.

The 1986/87 season saw Watford record an all too rare League 'double' over the Hatters; our first since the 1964/65 season. The April victory had been preceded by another 2-0 win, at Kenilworth Road on Boxing Day 1986, thanks to goals from Gary Porter and Kevin Richardson.

However, we have not fared so well since, having picked up just one League point from five subsequent League games - this from a goalless draw at Vicarage Road last season.

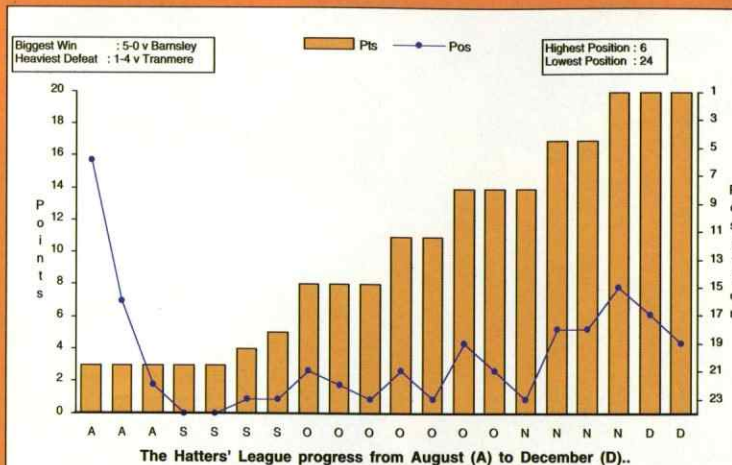

Our opening day clash this season resulted in a hard-fought 2-1 victory for Luton. Paul Furlong scoring the Hornets' reply to earlier goals from Paul Telfer and Kerry Dixon.

A NEW HOME & AWAY TALE WITH THE NEIGHBOURS!

So far has been the introduction into the first team of 18-year-old right winger Bruce Dyer - although it was somebody else's misfortune that gave him his break.

"Darren Bazeley's knee injury in the first game of the season gave me my chance," he recalls. "I thought before the season that I'd have a chance of getting in the team at some point - but not as early."

"But I've got confidence in my ability, and that has undoubtedly helped me - as has all the work I've done with Kenny Jackett over the years."

"The crowd have been very supportive too, and when I get the ball, the cheers I've had have given me an extra boost."

Another boost for Bruce and the team has been his five goals thus far. "I was hoping that if I got a run in the side this season, I'd get five goals by the end of the campaign - to get them before Christmas has been very welcome."

So what now for Bruce and Watford before the end of the season?

"I'd hope we can turn the tide, get up the table, get in the play-offs and get promoted," he says. "People are writing us off and that's very dangerous. I know what this team is capable of - so stick with us!"

Q & A

Bruce's answers to 10 questions we're putting to every Watford player this season:

1. Who's the best footballer you've ever seen?

A: Pele.

2. Why?

A: Because of his ability and the amount of World Cups he played in the game's top competition.

3. Who's your favourite non-football sporting personality?

A: Tessa Sanderson.

4. Why?

A: Partly because I know her - I'm great friends with her nephew, Ian Evans. But also because she won the top accolade in her sport - an Olympic gold medal.

5. Do you play other sports?

A: A little bit of pool and table tennis.

6. Which football team did you support as a boy?

A: I followed two teams - Spurs and West Ham.

7. If you could choose any other profession, except the one you're in, what would you like to be?

A: A professional disc jockey.

8. What would you have become if you hadn't been a professional footballer?

A: I'd have gone all out to become a disc jockey, as above - either in clubs or on radio.

9. What's been your biggest disappointment so far in football?

A: To be honest, I haven't had any.

10. What advice would you give a young boy wanting to become a professional footballer?

A: Knuckle down, train hard, listen and have confidence in your ability.

Treatment Table

It seems this space may soon have to be extended, as will physio Billy Hails' treatment room! As this programme went to press, Watford had no fewer than 12 professionals and three trainees sidelined.

Barry Ashby is making very good progress, from a thigh strain he sustained in training. He's now cycling and jogging his way back to fitness. Darren Bazeley is another Hornet regularly seen getting on his bike and his knee has recovered sufficiently for him to resume training with the rest of the squad (the five who aren't injured!), as has Jason Drysdale. Nigel Gibbs has progressed to running in his recovery programme. Alex Inglethorpe has seen a specialist and will be undergoing a scan to his lower abdomen. Meanwhile John White's injured knee remains in plaster, but Robert Page had his stitches removed last week and made a start on rehabilitation work earlier this week.

Perry Suckling might well be glad to see the back of 1993. Having recovered from a broken wrist, he suffered a nasty shoulder injury, during the Hornets' recent reserve team game at Arsenal. He's expected to be out of action for a couple of weeks. James Meara has exchanged his plaster cast for a more slim-line version, as his broken arm heals. The new cast should come off in two weeks.

Moving into the trainee camp, Terry Birch is still resting under specialist instructions and will have his thigh injury re-assessed in a few weeks' time. Matt Vier has similar problems to Alex Inglethorpe and young 'keeper Lee Ward had sustained a hand injury in training, which could require an x-ray.

Dressing Room

Despite the result, one Watford man who was all smiles after the recent visit of Crystal Palace was winger Bruce Dyer.

The game was our first following the sponsorship agreement completed with international car hi-fi manufacturers Blaupunkt. As well as adding their company name to the Hornets' famous yellow shirts, Watford's new club sponsors also provided the Man of the Match award of a brand new car stereo radio/cassette player.

For Bruce, winner of the award, it couldn't have been better timed, for he had unfortunately had his own car radio stolen just recently! He's pictured here, gratefully receiving his prize from Mike Browne, national sales manager for Blaupunkt.

If you like the look of Bruce's radio, you can now find a range of top Blaupunkt equipment available to buy at the Hornet Shop (see page 21).

SORROW AT

by Watford Supporter

GAIL BYRNES

My first thoughts when perusing the new fixture list, way back in July, were not as you might expect, when do we play 'them' but when our mighty Hornets would travel to Bolton and Stoke - the only two grounds in this season's First Division I had yet to visit.

And so it was that I looked forward to my first-ever trip to the Victoria Ground. My usual scan of the Friday night Evening Standard guide to the London clubs' matches (and Watford's!) brought a certain amount of shock and amusement. While the analysis detailed our lamented injury/illness/suspension list and how poor our recent results were, the actual result prediction read: "Watford to win at last". Surely some mistake here. Even under normal circumstances, I tend to take the usual Hornets' view of media predictions and feel far happier when we're expected to fail. Reading this, let's face it, slightly ridiculous prediction gave me a very uneasy feeling!

Arriving at the Potteries, we were made to feel most welcome. The club coach was shown where to park and then charged for the privilege and the happy band of intrepid Hornets fans left to run the gauntlet of a pot-holed, water-filled 'car park' (I use the term in the loosest possible sense). One ambitious programme seller, obviously eager to make a fast and sizeable profit (the whole of the Watford supporters coach) was ready at the coach door, before we'd even disembarked.

A happy discovery, possibly unique to Stoke, was made during our ritual hunt for food, prior to the game. Walking around the Victoria Ground, we passed the usual succession of burger vans, but as if in a desert of greasy burgers and hot-dogs, this little oasis dared to offer a wonderful alternative of either roast beef or pork in a bun, plus apple sauce or stuffing. A whole new football-supporting experience and one we thoroughly enjoyed (Watford caterers take note!).

The Victoria Ground itself was pleasant enough; at least we were kept dry. The Hornets' side had a very makeshift appearance and once again I felt compelled to question the wisdom of the Evening Standard comment.

Early concerns looked to have been ill-founded, however, when Bruce Dyer cashed in on a poor back-pass to send a looping shot over the oncoming 'keeper. The incident seemed to switch to slow-motion as we watched, willing the ball to just slip delicately into the net but instead it rolled wide. From my viewpoint, at the opposite end, I couldn't help thinking that if Ken Charlery, following in, had put on a burst of speed and slid in to meet the ball, he might have connected.

There was only one further highlight for Watford's jaded supporters. Midway through the first half, Richard Johnson ran full-frontally into his opposite number; the pair tumbling like a felled tree. An amusing collision, which rapidly became hilarious for the Hornets' fans, as the referee Mr Lloyd waved 'play on'. In light of the numerous questionable decisions given against our players, it was nice to get one back - even if the furious City fans didn't quite appreciate the irony!

Watford should take some credit for a hard-working first-half, but City's second-half goals had a touch of inevitability about them. The second, a superb strike by Regis, deserved to be on the winning side.

So Watford moved on, defeated but not broken (we hope). Surely things can only get better ....can't they?

LET'S KICK RACISM OUT OF FOOTBALL

Racial discrimination is wrong! It's also against the law. Can you imagine how it feels to be abused simply because of the colour of your skin or your race? It hurts. It's unfair and degrading.

If you are discriminating against someone, or abusing them because of their race and colour, you bring shame upon yourself. You're the real loser.

Fortunately, soccer is showing the way. There are multi-racial teams, playing to multi-racial crowds.

Here in Britain, our players, their management and their supporters reject racism and intolerance. Like the Commission for Racial Equality, they are working for a society in which everyone has a fair chance to enjoy themselves free from discrimination and prejudice, and free from the fear of racial harassment, abuse and violence.

You can help too.

STUART REFLECTS ON THE GAME OF A 1,000 CHANCES'

WET and windy day in north London is not everyone's idea of an afternoon out, but anyone who watched the Arsenal v. Watford reserve game 11 days ago was keenly entertained.

ended 4-3 to the Gunners, but it was a game of a 1,000 chances," said reserve team coach Stuart Doch. "Both sides continually looked for openings, and for an hour we held our own, and had a 2-1 lead. We fell away for about 20 minutes before reviving ourselves right at the end of the match.

Ken Charlery put us ahead after a great skill by Kevin Slinn to get into the box and the ball across, but Ray Parlour levelled it up before we broke.

On the basis of chances, we

(Pic: Alan Cozzi)

He's being manhandled here by Palace's Eric Young, but Harry Willis bounced back to net our second in the 4-3 reserves' defeat at Highbury 11 days ago.

could have been 3-0 up in the first half hour, but equally, they had some good opportunities.

"After the break, they came at us for the first 10 minutes, but we broke away, with Martin Carter getting free to cross for Harry Willis to restore our lead.

"Out of nothing in the 70th minute Kevin Campbell found the top corner to equalise and to be fair, they then seized the initiative and scored two more, the second from the penalty spot. In the interim, Perry Suckling had been on the receiving end of a bad challenge, when he went down, only to collect a boot in the face.

"Ten minutes from time Julian Alsford grabbed one back following a corner, but we left Highbury without a point, although having put in a sterling performance which deserved more.

"On the plus side, young David Connolly tested Andy Linighan on a few occasions, taking him on and getting shots on target.

"On the curio side, we had our Football in the Community officer and youth development officer on the bench, in the shapes of Jimmy Gilligan and John McDermott. Injuries necessitated us calling on them, and they both got on in the latter stages of the game.

"Overall, we've played well in recent games, and it's important that we don't start to 'accept' that we're not going to win games. A few of the injured should be back among us soon, and the aim is to start collecting points and getting off the foot of the table."

Team: Suckling, McIntosh, Nwaokolo, Willis, Alsford, Dublin, Connolly, Slinn, Charlery, Carter, Lee. Subs: Gilligan for Connolly (70 mins), McDermott for Lee (80 mins).

TODAY'S MASCOT

A very warm Watford welcome to this afternoon's mascot, five-year-old William Martin. He lives in Watford and at present he's attending Orchard Infant and Junior School. When he's at home, William enjoys colouring and playing computer games, as well as the odd game of football in the local park with his uncle Charles and cousin Natalie! William is following in a line of mascots in his family, as his brother and sister have also helped to lead out the Hornets. The Martins have been supporting Watford for around 17 years and no doubt, William (and his brother and sister) will keep that going for a lot longer! We wish William and his family a very enjoyable afternoon at Vicarage Road and a Happy Christmas.
