Juergen's sending off: Inconsistencies need to be stamped out

ON THE BALL WITH DAVID PLEAT

Welcome to this evening's game with Middlesbrough. The fixture congestion caused by our cup progress has resulted in a seven games in 21 days spell. This is an important time and we cannot afford to be either casual or unprepared in any way for a game even though we know it is a strain on our resources.

Our visitors tonight are particularly warmly welcomed. We sat alongside each other during our pre-season preparations at Stirling where we both played Scottish teams. We exchanged information and advice and there were some genuine friendships made between players. Lennie Lawrence himself has always been the embodiment of common sense in management. He knows how to look after a club under stressful conditions. But he also knows that when success comes it is always more satisfying.

Our game last Saturday was disappointing. With respect to Forest, I thought they were a little dozy although the wind and pitch were difficult conditions—but we were more dozy and, sadly, Juergen Sommer has to suffer the indignity of missing games after genuinely trying to stop a goal. I quote the respected Peter Schmeichel on the subject: "It's alright if you are outside the box and you bring a player down. You deserve to go. But if you are in the box and the player goes around you and you try to get the ball with your hands, it is so easy to bring a player down by accident as you are trying to get the ball. He can just take a little touch and fall over and then you are off. This is a stupid rule. What it says is 'leave the player and let him score' and I don't think that's fair to the goalkeeper. If you bring a player down down, they'll get a penalty awarded anyway so I think a yellow card is alright." Mr Dilkes was correct in his interpretation of the law, but unfortunately there have been recent similar incidents with different consequences.

At Nottingham, we were disrupted by the absence of Trevor Peake and Scott Oakes and I was delighted to welcome, so that we can take a closer look, Mark Burke on loan from Wolves. Earlier in the week, we had failed to sign a cover forward and we have to bear in mind that March 24 is this season's transfer deadline date. Fortunately, our super run has given us a little breather and although it is unwise to set targets, it looks as if 50 points will be the safety net this season. We would like to achieve it as quickly as possible so I can give some of the promising youngsters a chance to prove they are able to cope with league football.

"MR DILKES WAS CORRECT IN HIS INTERPRETATION OF THE LAW, BUT UNFORTUNATELY THERE HAVE BEEN RECENT SIMILAR INCIDENTS WITH DIFFERENT CONSEQUENCES"

It is to this club's tremendous credit that of the 14 nominated players at Nottingham Forest, only three were bought for a fee—John Dreyer, David Preece and Des Linton. Can any of our supporters recall seeing an earlier Luton side in which so many players were home-produced?

The cup-tie has been on everyone's minds and we trust that you will use your vocal chords to their maximum on Monday evening at Upton Park. It is a big game for us and our only chance of glory this season. It is a reward for some hard work and application on the training ground. Now we must believe not only that we can win, but that we can go to Wembley.

Substitute John Hartson fires in a shot during our 2-1 win against Sunderland on February 26.

Tomorrow evening Ceri Hughes looks like receiving his first full international cap on his home soil for Wales. He will join a list on the honours board in our boardroom. It was my great pleasure in the mid-1980's to see such names as Hill, Walsh, Stein and Harford enscribed there for England. We had others at that time too: Nwajobi (Nigeria), Grealish and Grimes (Republic of Ireland), Aizlewood and Nicholas (Wales) and Donaghy (Northern Ireland). It is my ambition to see more of our present crop gain caps. That would give me immense satisfaction. We will be doing our best tonight to gain a terrific eighth successive home win. You can help us do it. Enjoy the game.

On behalf of all the players and playing staff, a particular thank-you to the friends of the late Mike Wolstenholme, our sponsors tonight. I personally knew Mike, he was a true supporter of our football club. Also to our ball sponsors the Daily Star. We are grateful for your support and wish you all a pleasant evening with us.

Juergen's World Cup ambitions move a step closer

AROUND THE TOWN

BORA KEEPS A WATCHFUL EYE

USA '94 coach Bora Milutinovic was present at the Hatters' game against Sunderland on February 26 to keep a check on Town keeper Juergen Sommer. Bora had a lengthy chat with David Pleat after the game and stated that he has been pleased with Juergen's progress so far. "He told me that there are three goalkeeping places up for grabs, and four goalkeepers in with a shout," said Pleat. "The other three keepers are Freidle (the favourite), Meola and Keller, but Juergen is definitely in the running which will give his confidence a nice boost."

AUNGER TRAINS WITH PLYMOUTH

The Town's Canadian international striker Geoff Aunger spent last week training with Peter Shilton's Plymouth Argyle. The Pilgrims are currently third in the Second Division table, with a definite eye on promotion.

■ Our away game with Bolton Wanderers will be played, on the instruction of the Football League, on Wednesday, March 16, kick-off 7.30 pm. This is just two days after our FA Cup sixth round tie with West Ham United and because of this, we did not initially agree with Bolton to play on this date. However, the decision was made by the League and we have to abide by it. For ticket details, please see page 15 of tonight's match day magazine.

■ Our opponents in the final of the Bedfordshire Premier Cup will be Bedford Town. This is a two-legged tie, with the first leg due to be played here at Kenilworth Road. As yet, it has not been possible to arrange a date for either leg. Once they have been agreed, an announcement will be made.

■ The reserve game with Brighton and Hove Albion at Borehamwood last Wednesday (March 2), was postponed due to Brighton's involvement in a County Cup match. As a result of losing the game, we were able, at short notice, to rearrange our outstanding away fixture with Ipswich Town, at Bury St Edmunds, for Thursday, March 3.

■ Are you interested in playing womens' football? Harlington Ladies FC are currently looking for players and a goalkeeper to strengthen their squad in the Eastern Region Womens League. The team, based at Lewsey Park in Luton, invite anyone interested to join them for training at 6.45 pm on Tuesday evenings on the all-weather pitch at Lewsey Park - or call Chris on Luton 560795 for further details.

■ Remember, the Bobbers Travel Club are running coaches to our FA Cup sixth round tie at West Ham United on March 14. The cost will be £4.80 for adults and £3.50 for children/OAP's. Coaches depart from Cranfield at 4.00 pm and from Luton at 5.00 pm, with the normal pick-up points en route. For further details, contact Paul Deason on (0234) 750996. Life membership to the Bobbers Travel Club costs £1.50 for adults and 50p children/OAP's.

Keeping our heads down and our minds on the job

CAPTAIN'S COLUMN BY TREVOR PEAKE

With our recent, impressive form, many fans have been talking about a possible play-off place this season. However, the players and staff here are not looking that far ahead and as the old cliché goes, we are taking one game at a time.

Apart from my own silly mistake, which gifted Sunderland their consolation goal last Saturday, I was pleased with yet another dominant performance from the team as we made it three wins in succession. The feeling now is that we have the talent and experience to beat any side in this division and I think that is showing in our play. We seem to be creating chance after chance at the moment and Scott Oakes can't stop scoring!

We have certainly been value for money at Kenilworth Road during the last four months or so, and I am sure you all appreciate the strides we have made since our indifferent start to the season. Although we are only three wins from a play-off place, we must also remember that we are three defeats from the relegation places as well. As the boss says, play-off talk is premature.

These notes are written prior to our game at Forest on Saturday, but we went into the fixture believing we had more than a fighting chance. Middlesbrough will be another stern test for us tonight. After an excellent start, they have fallen away as the season has progressed, but will be looking to make a final push towards the play-off places. I recall, they won at Derby County a couple of weeks ago, so there is no way we will be underestimating them.

The next time I write these notes we will know our FA Cup fate, so if you are going to Upton Park next Monday, enjoy yourselves and make as much noise as humanly possible. We are only two steps away from Wembley. Anything is possible...

Scott Oakes nets another free-kick, and our second, against Sunderland. "He can't stop scoring," says Trevor.

Enjoy the game.

PLAYER INTERVIEW WITH CERI HUGHES

A call-up to the full Wales side has been the icing on the cake for Ceri Hughes, after his best season to date in Town colours. He is looking forward to challenges which lie ahead, and has one eye firmly focused on the European Championships in 1996.

If you spoke to Ceri Hughes last season, he would admit that he had not been the luckiest of players. Serious injury after serious injury, in a nightmare 18-month spell, ensured a long battle back to full fitness and form. However, this season that has all changed. Our midfielder man from the Rhondda Valley has stayed well clear of the attentions of Andy McDade, and that is the reason behind his call-up to John Toshack's first Wales squad, which faces Norway tomorrow.

"Without any injury problems to halt me, I have been able to enjoy a full season in the first-team," he said. "I have therefore reached a peak fitness level and can last the whole 90 minutes, which I struggled to do on my comeback during the back-end of last season. Playing in midfield involves a lot of running and you need to be fit to do an effective job. Being part of a confident team also helps. Then there are players like David Preece and Alan Harper, who are on hand if I want to surge forward and try different things."

Such pulsating runs and strikes at goal have been Ceri's hallmark this season. Who could forget his five-star performance in the 5-0 demolition of Barnsley back in October, or his goals against Crystal Palace, Oxford and Portsmouth? It is such form that has elevated his name back into the spotlight, and he is now ready to make the next step by staking a claim for a regular place in the new-look Wales set-up.

"The first I heard of the call-up was on teletext last week," he recalled. "It came as a bit of a shock, but a very pleasant one. I knew John Toshack's assistant Mike Smith had watched Luton on a couple of occasions, but I had not spoken to him. It is a great feeling to be named again, and I am just hoping I have done enough in recent weeks to warrant a place in the starting line-up."

Ceri's last game for Wales came against Holland, as substitute, two years ago. He admits that experience was 'an overpowering occasion', but he believes he now has the experience and ability to push for a long-term place in the side, starting with this week's game against Norway, and the venue.....Ninian Park.

"I am just hoping the crowd show a bit more compassion than on my last visit there!" he said.

"Seriously though, with a new manager in charge, places are up for grabs so it is up to me to stake my claim," he continued. "If selected, it is important to make an early impression on John Toshack. I am looking forward to working with him. He has a great track record in the game and has had his fair share of success."

"Norway will be hard test for us all. They proved that by qualifying for the World Cup finals. We have seen them quite a bit on TV in the last year, and we are hoping to succeed where England failed!"

With the likes of Dean Saunders, Gary Speed, Ryan Giggs and Ian Rush in the squad, Ceri believes his country have a great chance of making the finals in England in two years time. He is desperate to be a part of that set-up but he knows that he must sustain his form with the Hatters, helping them to greater heights along the way, to stand a greater chance.

"Luton is my bread and butter and everything counts on how well I play for them. If we continue to be successful, we are kept in the spotlight, which can only help my chances. Our FA Cup run this season has been an added bonus, and the way the team are playing at the moment, I can see us going all the way."

"We fancy our chances against West Ham next week and, after playing at St James' Park and Ninian Park, we have nothing to fear."

I would also like to thank Gary for organising arrangements for our match day visit against Oxford United. All the parents and children were very grateful. We all had a thoroughly enjoyable day which was complemented by the scoreline.

Spotlight on tonight's visitors

MIDDLESBROUGH F.C. 1993-94

■ Following relegation from the Premier League, Middlesbrough made a wonderful start to their 1993-94 First Division programme. Four straight victories elevated the club to the top of the table and a goal ratio of 13:5 pointed towards immediate promotion back into the top flight. Victories over promotion hopefuls Derby County (H, 3-0) and Wolves (A, 3-2) thrust the spotlight on Lennie Lawrence's men.

■ Opposition defences started to pay more attention to the Middlesbrough attack and the goals began to dry up. Allied with injury problems and a lack of confidence, Boro endured a worrying slide which they have failed to halt ever since. Six league games followed without a win and was only halted by an emphatic 4-1 victory over Sunderland in mid-October. That game was seen by the Ayresome Park faithful as the point to kick-start their season back into action. However, such ambitions did not materialise.

■ Four wins in their next 17 league games resulted in a slump to 16th place in the league table. A 1-0 win at Derby County a fortnight ago proved what the side are capable of on their day and Mr Lawrence is hoping his side can repeat that form on a regular basis to stand any chance of making it into the play-offs this season. However, a crazy fixture pile-up is worrying him at the moment and will surely affect his preparations. "Up until last Friday, we had played only three games in 41 days because of postponements of one sort or another. We have now got to play ten games in 31 days! If that is not an advert for a mid-Winter break, then I don't know what is. It has shown the English fixture list to be a complete and utter nonsense."

■ Middlesbrough FC were founded in 1876, although another club from the town - Middlesbrough Ironopolis - enjoyed League status before them. The present club made their Football League bow in 1899 against Lincoln City and came to prominence by finishing third in Division One in 1904. Boro have never won the First Division championship, but they have won the Division Two title on three occasions: in 1927, 1929 and 1974.

VISITORS ON PARADE

STEPHEN PEARS (goalkeeper) - Stephen started his career with Manchester United, before signing for Middlesbrough for £80,000 in 1985. He was ever-present in Boro's promotion seasons of 1986-1988 and was player-of-the-year in 1991/92. Injury ruled him out of an England call-up that season.

CURTIS FLEMING (defender) - Curtis started his career with Irish side St Patrick's, before his transfer to Boro in August 1991. He established himself in the first-team last season, making 27 appearances at full-back.

RICHARD LIBURD (defender) - A player who was rejected by Nottingham Forest, Richard was spotted playing Sunday football by non-league Eastwood Town. He joined them last season and was recommended to Boro. Two trial games were enough to convince Lennie Lawrence of his potential and he joined the club for £20,000.

STEVE VICKERS (defender) - Steve was offered the chance to join Boro as a youngster, but instead signed for Tranmere Rovers. He made nearly 400 league and cup appearances for the Birkenhead club before moving to Ayresome Park for £700,000 in December 1993.

DEREK WHYTE (defender) - Derek joined Celtic from the club's junior side, Celtic Boys Club in 1985. He has represented Scotland at all levels and was a member of the 1992 European Championship Finals squad. He was persuaded south by Lennie Lawrence, joining the club last year.

JAMIE POLLOCK (midfield) - A former club YTS trainee, Jamie made his debut in 1991 at the age of 17. An England youth international, he toured with the national side for last season's Under-18's World Championships in Australia.

ROBBIE MUSTOE (midfield) - Robbie signed for Boro in a £375,000 move from Oxford United in 1990. He emerged through the ranks at the Manor Ground and during his time there, made the England under-21 squad. His appearances last season were limited by injury.

ANDY PEAKE (midfield) - Andy was signed by Lennie Lawrence from their previous club Charlton Athletic for £150,000 in November 1991. His previous clubs include Leicester and Grimsby and he should clock up 500 league and cup appearances by the end of this season.

JOHN HENDRIE (forward) - John joined Boro for £500,000 in 1990 from Leeds United. He started his career with Coventry City and has also served Newcastle United and Bradford City.

PAUL WILKINSON (forward) - A former apprentice with Grimsby Town, Paul's career took him to Everton, Nottingham Forest and Watford, from where Lennie Lawrence bought him in a £500,000 deal in August 1991. In his first season he notched a personal record of 24 goals to finish as Boro's top scorer.

ALAN MOORE (forward) - Alan was spotted playing for his local club Rivermont. A Republic of Ireland schoolboy international, he has since gone on to represent his country at youth and under-21 levels. He scored two goals on his full debut for Boro this season.

CRAIG HIGNETT (forward) - Craig started his career as a trainee with Liverpool. He was released and joined Crewe Alexandra, where he was leading goalscorer last season. Boro signed him for £500,000 in November 1992 after he had scored 15 goals in 19 games.

TOMMY WRIGHT (forward) - A former Scottish youth and under-21 international, Tommy started his career with Leeds United, and has also served Oldham and Leicester City, from where Boro signed him for £650,000 in July 1992.

MEET THE BOSS

Lennie Lawrence joined Boro in July 1991 after the departure of Colin Todd. He had previously spent nine years at Charlton Athletic, where he was the third longest-serving manager behind Brian Clough and Joe Royle.

He took the Addicks into Division One in 1986, after a 29-year absence, which was the icing on the cake after the club had petered on the brink of bankruptcy. However, they were relegated in 1990 and Lennie resigned shortly afterwards.

He started his Boro career in explosive fashion, taking the club into the Premier League in his first season at Ayresome Park and to the semi-finals of the League Cup. A year later the smiles had turned to sadness as Boro were relegated back into Division One, where they have since struggled to recapture former glories.

Lennie is one of the few modern day managers not to have played professional football. The former school master appeared for Croydon, Carshalton and Sutton United in the Isthmian League.

10 YEAR RECORD

THE EVENT

In June 1996 the European Championship Finals will be held in England for the very first time. With sixteen nations competing for the trophy, dramatically won by Denmark in 1992, the tournament will not only be the largest European Championship ever, but will also be the greatest sporting event held in England since the 1966 World Cup. Hosting the tournament is a great honour for the English game after some challenging times and is a great reward for all genuine football fans in this country.

TICKETS

Euro 96 will offer a feast of football from many of the world's best players. The ticketing strategy for Euro 96 breaks new ground in terms of both availability and pricing and provides a great opportunity for football supporters throughout the country. Unusually for a major international football tournament, it will be possible to buy a ticket for an individual match. Previously supporters have had to buy packages of tickets for several matches. However, tickets for the knock-out stages of the tournament (Quarters, Semis and Final) will be allocated on a 'loyalty' basis. This means that priority will be given to fans who have supported Euro 96 in its early stages (by buying tickets to at least three group games).

PRICES

A single match ticket to witness the excitement of Euro 96 can cost as little as £15. It is also possible to see, for example, six matches during Euro 96 (three group games, a Quarter-Final, a Semi-Final and the Final) for just £160. This is good value by any standards and exceptional when compared with a similar package on offer at this year's World Cup currently costing more than £300.

A direct debit scheme specially created for Euro 96 will also enable football fans to spread the cost of tickets over a period of six months.

'FOOTBALL FAMILY'

Euro 96 will capture the imagination of football fans everywhere. To enable as many supporters as possible to be part of the experience, a 'Football Family' has been created. This Football Family includes season ticket holders and members at all FA Premier League and Football League Clubs who will be offered priority to apply for EURO 96 tickets before they go on sale to the general public in the summer of 1994.

APPLICATION FORMS AND INFORMATION

Ticket application forms for Euro 96 are available now from all FA Premier League Club and Football League Club ticket offices for season ticket holders and club members. For further information telephone Euro 96 on 078 274 1996.

JUNIOR HATTERS

Tonight we welcome all young supporters of Middlesbrough who have travelled down to be with us tonight. We hope you enjoy your short stay at Kenilworth Road and have a safe journey home.

If you travelled to Nottingham Forest on Saturday, I hope you had a great time playing the Junior Reds at 5-a-side before the game and watching the first-team in action afterwards. I hear there were a number of budding Kerry Dixons and Scott Oakes' in our side for the 5-a-side games. We always have great days out on our organised trips to opposing grounds and, as you can see below, we will be visiting Barnsley soon, so book your place now by telephoning (0582) 416976.

On Thursday, March 31, Pizza Hut (UK) are holding a national charity evening to raise funds for the 'Whizzkids' charity, who are an organisation which help children with mobility problems. If you buy a meal at any Pizza Hut branch within the UK on that evening, a donation will be made to Whizzkids. At our local Luton and Dunstable Pizza Hut branches, Luton Town players will be present to lend their support, so come along yourself for a fun evening in which you be helping a worthwhile cause at the same time.

Prior to our home game with Birmingham City on Saturday, March 19, we will be holding a soccer skills demonstration on the pitch, in association with Soccer PAL. If you are interested in taking part, we have 12 places on offer for those of you who can answer the following question: Which country won the first World Cup final in 1930? Send your answers to Junior Hatters World Cup Competition, Luton Town FC, 1 Maple Road, Luton, Beds LU4 8AW. Closing date for entry is Monday, March 14.

Helping the most important people in football

Football is much more than a game of 90 minutes. Every day clubs throughout Britain are providing recreational and sporting opportunities for their local communities.

Much of this has been achieved with the help of the Football Trust. As part of its commitment to Football, The Trust has granted £4M to set up the National Football and Community Development Scheme.

Bringing club and community together, Trust-backed initiatives have provided a variety of local amenities, including:

- Artificial pitches for local teams

OUR PULSATING SHOW IN THE SNOW

Town fans who managed to beat the bitter weather conditions were treated to a goal feast against Portsmouth at Kenilworth Road on February 22. An opening header by Paul Telfer was only the start as David Preece, Scott Oakes and Ceri Hughes sent the Town on their way to an emphatic 4-1 win. Preece (above) is pictured netting his 20-yard effort, while Oakes (below) shoots narrowly wide.

RESERVES

TURNER'S MEN FALL TO SUCKER PUNCH

Ipswich Town 3
Luton Town 2
Neville Ovenden
Football Combination,
Thursday, March 3, 1994.

In a closely-fought game against a very strong and experienced Ipswich Town outfit, Wayne Turner's reserve side were narrowly defeated at Bury St Edmunds last Thursday. In a high quality game which was dominated by crisp, sharp, passing movement, the Town looked well beaten as they trailed 2-0 after half-an-hour. However, the sending-off of Ipswich's Steve Whitton turned events upside down and the Town battled back. "The dismissal proved to be the turning point," said Wayne. "We came into the game then and the pressure paid off as we scored two brilliant goals. The first came from Tony Thorpe, who took on four players before beating the keeper, and the second was a curling effort from Scott Houghton.

"To our credit, we kept the pressure on and looked the more likely to score a winner."

The Ipswich line-up included

Tony Thorpe . . . an excellent finish.

Guentchev, Yallop, Goddard, Gregory and Johnson. They made it extremely difficult for the young Hatters - which included a complete back four of under-19 players - to net a winner. Then disaster struck. As both sides looked likely to pick up a point each, Ipswich crashed home a 25-yard shot which had Andy Petterson well beaten. It was a disappointing end to an otherwise entertaining game for Wayne. "It was sickening to lose so late into the game, especially after we had done so well to get back on equal terms," he added. "I think a draw would have been a fair result, and talking to the Ipswich staff afterwards, they agreed, we put up a good fight against a team who had the best movement I have seen in the Combination this season."

Team: Petterson, Maskell, Rioch, Thorpe 1, Greene, Philp, Williams, Campbell, Hartson, Auger, Houghton 1. Subs: Ryan, Gentle.

Youth forward Jamie Woodsford is out of action for seven weeks after damaging ankle ligaments for a second time this season. The injury happened during a 5-a-side training session last week and he therefore missed, along with Paul McLaren, the England under-17 game at Marlow yesterday. Goalkeeper Kelvin Davis was due to play in the game.

. . . likewise Scott Houghton.

YOUNG TEAM BATTLE AGAINST THE ODDS Southampton 2 Luton Town 1 South East Counties League Division Two, Saturday, February 26, 1994.

With a view to next season, Terry Westley continued to pack his side with schoolboys for the game with Southampton last week. In the absence of injured centre-half Paul McLaren, Terry was able to give trialist Ben Maskell a run-out in the side and he was pleased with his progress. "I saw Ben play for an England representative side last season, although at the time he was on Brentford's books. He then picked up a serious groin injury and was released. We thought we would put him in our side to see how he would get on, and I must say he did quite well. We will now have a look to see how he handles playing in our reserve side." The young Hatters faced an uphill struggle after leaking two goals in two minutes in the first-half. The manner in which the goals were conceded disappointed Terry. "Both goals were identical," he added. "They came from long throws into our box we we failed to deal with them. "We woke up after that and clawed our way back into the game. A superb Matthew Woolgar strike from outside the box kept us in with a shouting chance at half-time, but a second goal just did not materialise. We had Kelvin Davis to thank in the second-half on a couple of occasions, so I suppose the scoreline was a fair reflection on how things went." Terry's man-of-the-match was young Danny Power, who he singled out for special praise. "Danny was our best player last Saturday," he stated. "He competed well and passed the ball quickly and effectively. He is a quiet lad, but we are hoping he is starting to come out of his shell now."

Jamie Woodsford.....out for seven weeks.

Danny Power.....impressive display.

Team: Davis, Jukes, Maskell, Simpson, Chenery, Palmer, Woolgar 1, Power, Goodridge, Issott, Woodsford. Subs: Turner, Wilmott.

Alan Harper: Luck and confidence goes a long, long way

PLAYER INTERVIEW

The pitch of the voice and the look in his eyes tell you that Alan Harper is a happy man. And so he should be. In 29 appearances for the Hatters, since joining the club in September, he has been on the losing side only nine times and has played a big part in the consistent run since December....

"My first game for the club was the away match at Tranmere Rovers. We lost 4-1 and afterwards I wondered how. I just could not believe it. We never deserved to lose the game, let alone 4-1. So, I just put it down to luck. We had no luck then. Now we have and the change in our fortunes has given everyone a lot of confidence."

So said Alan Harper, the man whose consistency in a holding job in midfield has helped transform all that early season promise into a series of good results. Modest, as he is, he deflects all praise for his own contribution to the group of men around him.

"I am just enjoying playing with such a talented group of youngsters," he said. "I am the old man now at 33 and I am happy to leave them to do the running. It suits me. Just like the club suits me. I can honestly say I am enjoying my football more than at any time in my career since the days when we had a successful side at Everton."

"It is not just that we have a talented group of players. It is that they are a confident bunch of lads. They have been that way all the way through. I am glad for them because they had no luck at all in those early games when I first came down."

But surely it is not all down to luck? "No, not at all," agrees Alan, who has kept a home on Merseyside and travels down to be with the team two days before each match. "It is all sorts of things. But sometimes a team can get into a run and it is difficult to break out of it."

"You can see that in cup competitions. Some teams seem to have things going their way. But if you get a good run going, it is because of talent and consistency. You don't go 14 games with only one defeat unless the quality is there. It speaks for itself really."

"We have got a system here which suits me. Everyone around me seems to love to go forward — David Preece, Paul Telfer, Scott Oakes and Ceri Hughes — so it suits me to be the man left behind at my age! After all, I was brought up at Liverpool and Everton to get hold of the ball and to pass it straight-away. If you didn't you got clobbered."

"People ask me about the differences between the big clubs in Liverpool and playing here and it feels much the same really. The only difference is the size of the ground. The club is very close and friendly with a good family atmosphere and I like that."

"I am relishing the recent run of form and success because I know how well the team is playing and I can enjoy that."

Alan's career has seen him playing in many different positions. He started as a centre-back at Everton, but was moved to right-back and has played all over the defensive and midfield positions, including a successful role as sweeper. He said he likes his current position the best.

"I am enjoying centre-midfield. It is my favourite position and I feel it suits me well. I can see the game and read it and it gives me a chance to pace myself a little. But I have to say that if we are thinking about age, then only one man really deserves a tribute and that is Trevor Peake."

"He has been the most consistent player in the team in my time here. He is a magnificent player and a great example to everyone else. And he makes me feel young too!"

For Alan, who is married and has three children, it has been a strange season. Unwanted at first, after being released by Everton, he was approached by Stoke and Sunderland without any offer resulting before his arrival at Kenilworth Road. "It was a really pleasant surprise," he recalled. "I saw the team's league position and expected the worst but everything was much better than I anticipated. I was right too. Just look at the results."

"Now I think we have every chance of more success. Anything can happen in the Cup and after going to Newcastle and Cardiff, we have no reason to be worried about West Ham. It will be nice to be the underdogs again too!"

Gordon Turner: Scourge of the 'Boro

BACK TRACKING BY ROGER WASH

Considering the respective histories of the Town and Middlesbrough, it is surprising that the teams have not met frequently over the years. Indeed, until the early 1960's, we had crossed paths only four times.

Season 1960/61 saw the Town back in Division Two after suffering relegation. By the time of the visit of Middlesbrough on November 19, we had hardly set the league alight and were holding a mid-table position.

Manager Sam Bartram decided to recall Allan Brown to the side and it was the ex-Scotland international who laid on goals for Les Spencer and Mike Tracey, and then scored himself, in the first 15 minutes.

Record Town marksman Gordon Turner then scored two, and missed a penalty, as the Middlesbrough defence was given a complete runaround. Brown was on target again for number six with Ben Waldock scoring a consolation for Boro with just about their only telling shot of the afternoon.

In the return - a meaningless end-of-season fixture Brian Clough, who was well looked after by John Groves at Kenilworth Road, netted twice to counter a solitary strike from Roland Legate. The scoreline could have been graver, but for the goalkeeper exploits of veteran Ron Baynham.

Thankfully, by the time of the next meeting, Clough had been transferred to Sunderland. At Ayresome Park on September 20, 1961 it was the Town who looked more likely to score in the early stages, with Harry Walden and Jim Fleming missing early opportunities. It was, therefore, against the run of play when Alan Peacock put Boro into the lead in the seventh minute, but justice was done when Turner equalised with a delicate shot shortly afterwards.

Arthur Kaye beat Baynham with ease to give Boro an interval lead, but the Town fought back in the second period and scored three goals without reply, to complete an emphatic and unexpected victory: Tom McKenchie hit two - one a mis-hit and the other a bullet header - while Turner smacked home the other from the penalty spot for his 200th goal in league football.

In the return the following week, Boro defender Mick McNeil was absent on England duty, and his place was taken by 17-year-old debutant Bill Gates whose job was to mark Turner. The Town went in at the interval 3-0 up after a sparkling performance, and goal, by Turner. Alec Ashcroft and McKenchie were also on target. Unfortunately, the Town relaxed a little too much in the second-half and Peacock hit two opportunist efforts just before the end to give the scoreline an unrealistic look.

Season 1962/63, which eventually saw the Town suffer further relegation, opened with only one win in 13 games. A visit to Ayresome Park on October 27 was not looked on as a game to break this sequence, but a 2-0 victory was a pleasing shock result.

In truth, it was a 'smash and grab' raid by the Town. Alwyn McGuffie set the tone by scoring from 35 yards and the second was scored by that man Turner who pounced on a through ball from man-of-the-match McGuffie.

By the time of the return, we were dead and buried in the league. However, it was clear that the Town and in particular Turner, enjoyed playing Boro. In a rip-roaring display we were 3-0 up at half-time, cheered on by a 6,431 crowd.

Walden was in top form, setting up goals for Jim Goldie, Jack Lornie and Turner before having to leave the field after a clash with uncompromising Boro defender Ray Yeoman. Against ten men, Middlesbrough took the upper hand to equalise through Bryan Orritt and Peacock (2), only for Turner to score an unlikely winner with an unstoppable winner just before the end.

How Boro must have enjoyed the Town's relegation!

Gordon Turner: a handful for any defence, particularly Middlesbrough's.

DOWN THE YEARS

5 A second-half penalty converted by Danny Wilson was not enough as the Town went down 2-1 to Millwall at Kenilworth Road. (11.3.89).

10 On a bitterly cold night, two goals from Trevor Aylott saw off a disinterested Ipswich Town at Kenilworth Road. (13.3.84)

15 Goals from Chris Turner and Ricky Hill ensured the customary home victory over Orient, in front of a crowd of 6,003. (10.3.79).

20 Another cold day and another victory, this time at Hull. The Luton goalscorers in a 3-1 win were Alan West, Peter Anderson and John Aston. (9/3/74).

Offside or onside? Not an easy decision...

TALKING POINT – BY TIM COLLINGS

Have you ever been a linesman? Standing on the touchline, trying to read the play, one eye on the last defender, one on the centre-forward and trying to concentrate while all around are doing their best to distract you? Easy? No way....

I know. I have been there. Done it. Heard it all before. 'Make sure you raise your flag when the ball is played forward,' the referee said. Well, it is easy for him to say that, but out there on the touchline, with the sun in your eyes, or someone barracking behind your back, or the defence and the forwards switching positions like dancers at an old-fashioned party, it is very difficult.

I know. I have done it. In fact, a few weeks ago, while officiating at a local district clubs' league match, on a Saturday morning, I even managed to point my flag in the wrong direction when a throw-in had to be awarded. I was lucky. The biggest player on the losing team was only 11 years old! But I learned my lesson — do not coach, wave to a friend and talk to the supporters all at the same time.

Luckily, of course, my attempts at masquerading as a man in black (or green) are only voluntary, strictly amateur and just for pleasure. (Exactly whose pleasure I shall leave open to doubt — no suggestions this week, thanks). But if I were doing it seriously.... Well, that is another matter, isn't it? As those two incidents a couple of weeks ago showed us.

One came at Selhurst Park where Manchester United imperiously hammered Wimbledon out of the FA Cup and the other at Ninian Park, where David Preece's outstanding, near-telepathic reading of the game and athletic surge of pace and skill and silky left foot and (...that's enough of that, Ed.) ...created our winner against Cardiff.

Both were said to be controversial goals. At least, that is what some of the television pundits believed — and talked about — and, of course, some of the losing players, managers and chairmen. Well, I've got news for them all....Both goals were okay and legal. And everyone would know they were too if they had read the latest circulars from the Football Association.

To re-cap, briefly. When Eric Cantona volleyed his goal for United, Andrei Kanchelskis had moved into an offside position — but was adjudged not to be interfering with the play. (Much to the chagrin of the home supporters, the linesman, poor chap, did not flag). And when Minnie skipped clear to slide his little beauty into the net, Ceri Hughes was running in the opposite direction from an offside position — again without interfering or seeking to gain an advantage.

So what did the circular from Ken Ridden at the F.A. actually say (the one these linesmen had read)? The relevant passage said: "To contribute fully to the enjoyment of all games by spectators and players alike, referees and linesmen are expected to co-operate fully to consistently apply this law so that unnecessary halts and unfair punishments are avoided. Recently, referees have been reminded to insist that their linesmen should indicate with the flag only for offside offences and linesmen themselves have been reminded not to raise the flag merely because a player is located in an offside position."

"Their rules are not easy ones. They have the onerous responsibility of deciding quickly and fairly whether a player is interfering with play or with an opponent or is seeking to gain an advantage, specifically at the precise moment the ball is passed to a colleague of the attacker. They therefore have to read the pattern of play, follow players' movements and remember the Law's requirements, all at the same time. It is not an easy task!"

Too right, Ken. I think I'll take up something else on Saturday mornings....

Rovers' cup dream ends in tears

NEWS ON ONE BY TIM COLLINGS

It may have ended in tears at Villa Park, but didn't Tranmere Rovers do the Endsleigh League Division One proud? You simply could not have asked for a more entertaining or dramatic cup-tie than their Coca-Cola Cup semi-final second leg meeting with Aston Villa. It had just about everything....

"We should have had it all sewn up in the first quarter of an hour," said John King, the dignified Tranmere manager, after the game. "We opened them up like a tin of sardines and a goal then would have killed them off."

"My boys battled and they did me proud. But unfortunately, you get nothing for that. We were just one kick from Wembley. Instead, all we've got is big men crying...It is a real tear job. It is almost as if someone has died. It is very hard to say the right things when your boys are in tears."

Mr King was even fair and reasonable when it came to reflecting on the first-half decision when Villa goalkeeper Mark Bosnich brought down John Aldridge. "Everyone in our dugout thought the keeper would be sent off."

"But I am not complaining. The referee made his decision and we will abide by it. I am not going to call anyone a cheat. I've not asked the referee for an explanation. I was more concerned with looking after my players — they were in tears afterwards. It was a brilliant cup-tie but it really hurts."

So, Merseyside's team-of-the-season failed to make it to Wembley and it is now down to those us left carrying the Endsleigh League flag to make the most of our turn in next weekend's FA Cup quarter-finals. And, after seeing West Ham's performance against Manchester United, we know it will not be easy.

But enough of idle cup chatter. Let us concentrate on what has been happening in this tightest of tight and unpredictable leagues with some special mentions for Oxford United, West Bromwich Albion and Birmingham City.

All three had been struggling until the Saturday before last when they surprised most observers with their results. Birmingham, Barry Fry's sleeping giant, stirred themselves to take a point off Derby at the Baseball Ground with a goal from Steve Claridge which, in one newspaper I read, seemed sufficient to elevate the former Hatters' striker into the £1 million class.

West Brom succeeded with something just as unlikely in travelling to the wonderful new Molineux and winning 2-1 against Wolves in front of a 28,039 crowd. Yes, 28,000 to see the Black Country derby between two traditional big clubs now fallen on hard times.

The result was good for West Brom, helping them climb away from the relegation zone while for Wolves it was their third defeat in a revival run of 26 games. Wolves boss Graham Turner was not too happy. "We've got to make up for this defeat by beating Ipswich and then finishing in the top six," he said.

And Oxford? Having shaken Leeds United and then so nearly repeating the treatment for Chelsea, after which their league form plummeted, they recovered to beat much-fancied Nottingham Forest 1-0. (Yes, I tipped Forest, didn't I, a couple of weeks ago; definitely the kiss of death).

A goal from unsung makeshift full-back Alex Dyer did the trick, two minutes from time, leaving even Stuart Pearce admitting that the Nottingham team deserved their defeat and the barracking they were given by their own fans.

"We let the fans down," he said. "But there is still a long way to go and all the players feel we will be playing Premiership football again next season."

Oxford, by contrast, are working simply at staying in the First Division, but are enjoying it. "Our recent FA Cup run against Leeds and Chelsea has created a buzz," said winger Chris Allen, a player tipped for the top. "We're starting to have confidence in ourselves." He could say the same for a lot of teams moving upwards in our highly-competitive division this year.

John King - in a consoling mood.

New ventures: the way ahead for local businesses

COMMERCIAL FOCUS BY KATHY LEATHER

Over the past few weeks, we have introduced new faces into our department who have brought new ideas and a fresh outlook to the commercial activities at the club.

We intend to be more forward planning for future events, especially in today's market when competition is high for new business.

Luton Town, like any other business, need to compete in the commercial world and are currently looking at new and exciting ventures to be held at the various hospitality suites at Kenilworth Road.

We are currently looking at holding business luncheons at the club, with a variety of speakers from sports personalities to local business celebrities.

We envisage these to be held every two or three months and will enable local businesses to make new contacts and witness the excellent facilities on offer for conferences and seminars at Kenilworth Road.

We currently have a few executive boxes available between now and the end of the current season. For further details, please contact the commercial department on (0582) 411622.

In box 11 today we are pleased to welcome five visitors from Queensland, Australia: John Davies, Donna Luxton, Catherine Oxenham, Malcolm Pollock and Steven Wallace. They are in the Luton area on a Rotary International Educational Exchange, and are being looked after by the Luton North Rotary Club.

Mike Wolstenholme was born on April 23, 1926 in Sheffield - a born and bred Sheffield Wednesday fan. However, he later moved to the Rectory Farm in St Neots, where he farmed for 40 years. His great interests were his family, football and farming.

Although born in the north, Mike succumbed to the attractions of Luton Town, a side he liked for their style and imagination.

Mike was a constant companion of Richard Banks (a former Luton Town director) at nearly all away games as well as being a Century Club member. Richard and Mike shared many memorable moments, with the victory at Maine Road in 1983 most notable.

Mike continued to support Luton with a passion tempered with intelligence until his death last year. He is missed by all those who knew him and who watch our wonderful game.
