WATFORD DEFEAT RUINED MY WEEKEND

The best laid plans of mice and men go straight out the window when you concede a goal after 12 seconds as we did at Watford on Saturday. It took us a long time to recover and we didn't really settle down and start playing until ten minutes before half-time. We should have equalised then, when Alex hit the bar and Dave Mitchell's effort from the rebound went straight at the keeper, and I feel sure that had we done so we would have gone on to win the game. But that's all pure speculation, it didn't happen and although we were by far the better side in the second-half we didn't get the breaks. We had a good claim for a penalty turned down and in the end got caught out again when we were all pushing forward looking for that equaliser.

I didn't put the two new lads on from the start on Saturday for a couple of reasons. Firstly, with the exception of 45 minutes against Peterborough we had done well in the last half a dozen games and the lads in the side had earned the right to continue. Secondly, I wanted Clive and Greg to have a look at the way we play which is very different from anything they had been used to. When they did come on I thought both of them did well and barring accident or injury they'll be in the starting line-up tonight. Clive might just be perfectly suited to that position behind the front two strikers. Malcolm Allen scored something like twelve goals in the first half of last season so you can get in the box and get on the end of things from there. As I said, Clive hasn't played there a great deal before, but I think it could be made for him.

The defeat at Watford wasn't a disaster - a disaster is when a boat sinks at sea or there's a plane crash - but it certainly made my weekend pretty miserable. I'm a winner, the players are winners, we want to win every game, we want to win the League, although it's looking less likely now with Palace winning at Stoke. But everybody else around us lost and so we've got to forget Watford, put in a good performance tonight and beat Luton.

It won't be an easy game by any means, Luton have had a great run in the Cup and I think the only reason they are struggling in the League is because the club and the team were very unsettled at the start of the season. David Pleat has done very well since then, he's got some good young players playing some excellent football and I'm sure they'll prove a tough nut to crack. We certainly can't rely on them being distracted by a Cup Semi-Final. It's up to us to impose ourselves on them and show them what a good side we are. We're without Alex as well as Pat and Terry of course, but we've strengthened the squad with these sort of problems in mind, and it's up to the players out there tonight to prove that they are worthy of hanging onto their places when those three lads are available again for Saturday's game at Portsmouth.

Thanks for your support.

Riding the luck of the Irish

KENNY Cunningham admits Millwall have enjoyed the luck of the Irish during their last two home games.

But after scraping priceless wins over Charlton and Peterborough, the Republic of Ireland defender is convinced that Millwall can land one of the two automatic promotion places.

"We didn't play particularly well against Charlton or Peterborough, but we got a couple of lucky breaks and managed to come away from those two games with six points.

"With Palace losing to Middlesbrough and Leicester slipping up against Barnsley recently, the situation at the top of the table is getting tighter and tighter.

"We've still got to go to Palace and Forest have got to come here, so I think the whole thing is wide open at the moment."

Cunningham demonstrated his versatility again against Peterborough when he switched from right-back to take over from the suspended Pat Van Den Hauwe at the centre of the Lions defence.

After missing two months through injury, Cunningham has settled back into his right-back slot so well that Lions boss Mick McCarthy was reluctant to move him for the Peterborough game.

But Mick's best laid plans were ruined when Ben Thatcher went down with tonsillitis on the day of the game.

"I do regard myself as a right-back, but I've played in the middle at various times throughout my career and I'm quite happy doing that job," explains Kenny.

"It certainly helps playing alongside someone like Rhino who knows the job inside out."

Kenny has now made over 100 appearances for The Lions since being thrown in at the deep end by former boss Bob Pearson as Millwall fought a futile battle against relegation from the old First Division.

"I made my debut up at Norwich and I remember feeling really sick when Bob told me I was playing," he recalls. "Once I got out on the pitch I was fine, and although we lost I felt I did reasonably well."

Cunningham was in and out of the side during Bruce Rioch's two years in charge, but under McCarthy he's emerged as the club's first choice right-back and won international honours at Under-21 and B level.

Unfortunately for Kenny, his chances of being called up for this summer's World Cup look remote, because Jack Charlton has an embarrassment of riches when it comes to the right-back slot.

"There's Dennis Irwin from Manchester United and Leeds' Gary Kelly ahead of me at the moment, so it looks as though I'm going to have to wait my turn," he admitted.

"I'm resigned to watching the boys from the sofa. I'm too old for the Under-21's so my international career is in limbo at the moment.

"Of course I'd love to go to the States, but time is on my side, and right now all I'm interested in is getting my head down and playing as well as I can for Millwall."

Bright future for Pleat's youngsters

SCOTT Oakes' stunning hat-trick during Luton's FA Cup quarter-final triumph over West Ham, underlined his emergence as one of the country's most exciting youngsters.

Oakes' match winning performance also illustrated why David Pleat is renowned as one of the best judges of players in the game.

Booted out by Leicester three years ago, Pleat went back to Filbert Street to sign Oakes and his youth team pal Des Linton.

Pleat set about converting Oakes from an out and out striker into an attacking midfielder - and this season's 13 goal haul is proof of how well he's made the transition.

"Scott's frighteningly good," admitted Pleat after last week's quarter-final triumph. "He had a bit of a torrid time when he first came here because he was asked to play in a new position.

"But he's listened and learned and he has got an exceptionally bright future."

The same applies to quite a few of Pleat's Luton youngsters who now face an FA Cup semi-final clash with Chelsea at Wembley.

Paul Telfer, Julian James, Ceri Hughes, John Hartson and Des Linton have all attracted envious glances from other clubs and Pleat knows that holding on to them will be increasingly difficult.

Telfer, outstanding during that win over West Ham, has fought his way back into the side after an horrific car crash which threatened his career.

James has made nearly 150 appearances for the club and Hughes, another product of Luton's youth development policy, looks like becoming a regular in the Welsh squad.

Hartson, one of the heroes of Luton's fifth round win over Newcastle, had to be content with a place on the substitutes bench against West Ham, but Pleat is confident he'll develop into one of the club's most valuable assets.

With so many youngsters learning their trade, Pleat knew he needed a few experienced heads and they don't come much more experienced than Kerry Dixon, David Preece and Trevor Peake.

No one will be looking forward to that semi-final more than Dixon who scored 147 League goals in 335 appearances for the Stamford Bridge club.

"I've never played in an FA

Cup semi-final before, so what could possibly be better than playing against Chelsea at Wembley?" stressed the former England striker who joined Luton on a free transfer from Southampton during the summer.

"I've still got a lot of friends at Chelsea and it promises to be one of the highlights of my career."

Midfielder Preece, another of those players who always seems to do well against Millwall, has made nearly 300 appearances for the club since moving to Kenilworth Road from Walsall for £150,000 in December 1983.

Pleat demonstrated his team building shrewdness yet again when he persuaded Premiership Everton to let him have Alan Harper on a free transfer.

Harper, who started his career at Liverpool, enjoyed considerable success after moving to Merseyside rivals Everton in the mid 1980s.

He made 127 appearances for Everton and then had spells with Sheffield Wednesday and Manchester City before moving back to Goodison 18 months ago.

"I told Alan that I couldn't guarantee him first team football," explains Pleat. "But his attitude has been fantastic and his influence on the youngsters has been very important to us."

At the back Luton's defence is marshalled by Trevor Peake, an FA Cup winner with Coventry and John Dreyer who joined the Hatters from Oxford and has emerged as one of the First Division's most dependable defenders.

Jurgen Sommer, one of Kasey's rivals for a place in the United States' World Cup squad, has established himself as Luton's first choice keeper after signing a new 12 month contract during the summer.

South London Spoils

When Charlton travelled to Selhurst Park a week ago last Sunday there was a lot more at stake than South London pride. Palace had lost their previous game at Sunderland, and had Forest breathing down their necks, whilst Charlton had seen their League and Cup hopes dive with four consecutive defeats. Despite the fact the match was televised live, over 14,000 attended, and Palace overcame their TV jinx and won convincingly. Chris Armstrong added to his growing reputation with a fine headed goal, and Paul Stewart, on loan from Liverpool, sealed the points for the leaders.

Promotion ranks thinning out

This win put a margin of 13 points between the Eagles and the Valiants, and Charlton are starting to see their promotion hopes subside. So too are Tranmere, who have had a dreadful 1994. A 0-1 defeat at relegation-threatened Oxford (the fifth meeting between the clubs this season) was the latest in a run of poor form which has seen Rovers drop from second to eighth, and lose controversially in the Coca Cola Cup semi-final. As if that were not enough, chairman Peter Johnson, who with John King was the architect of the club's rise from the Fourth Division basement, has moved across to Liverpool to take control of Everton.

Managerless Wolves look less and less likely contenders. A disappointing goalless draw at home to Grimsby was their 14th draw in 34 League games, and although they have only lost nine matches this season, they are now in the bottom half of the table. Southend and Stoke, both with play-off aspirations a month ago, look now to be consigned to mid-table. They also fought out a goalless draw, at the Victoria Ground. After a dreadful run in the autumn and winter, Middlesbrough, the lowest placed of the clubs relegated from the Premiership last May, have started to recapture their early season form. A convincing 3-0 home win over West Brom has lifted them into the top half of the table, but they probably have left it too late to make a serious challenge. The one new name to emerge in the play-off frame is Notts County, anxious to prove that there is more than one club on the Trent. Last season was spent largely in the relegation area, which is where this season started. New manager Mick Walker, however, signed striker Gary McSwegan from Rangers, and results started to improve. Almost unnoticed they have climbed to seventh place, and got to the first Wembley final of 1993/94. In front of just 17,188, County went down 0-1 to Brescia in the final of the Anglo-Italian Cup.

In-form Forest

Like a thoroughbred racehorse, Forest have timed their run for an automatic promotion place to perfection. A shaky start left them in the wrong half of the table, but since Christmas they have been grinding out results and gathering points. A 3-2 home win over Bolton gave them second place to themselves, and the match attracted the division's biggest gate of the day, 23,846. Like the Forest of old, they can score from any angle, with defenders Chettle and Pearce getting the first two and Collymore marking his return with the third. The former Palace and Southend striker, however, blotted his copybook when he was sent off for violent conduct, and will now miss three vital games. Manager Frank Clark was honest enough to support the referee's decision, which is a lesson to some of his colleagues in the Premiership, whose silence or criticism of officials seems to condone foul play.

Forest were helped by an unexpected slip-up by neighbours Leicester, beaten 0-1 at home by Barnsley. In each of the last two seasons, Brian Little's men have been the play-off bridesmaids and they are running the risk of getting an unwanted hat-trick.

Perm three from four

Barnsley's win at Filbert Street opened a five point gap between themselves and the four clubs below them. Of the relegation candidates, the most out-of-form are Birmingham and Watford. Barry Fry's side snatched a surprise draw at Luton but are still three points adrift of Watford. The Hornets' miserable run continued with a 0-2 beating at Sunderland, whilst Oxford's win over Tranmere took them above Peterborough. Only one point divides Oxford, Peterborough and Watford, and the fight to avoid the drop will probably go on to the last day.

Managerial new boys

Although it is difficult to separate cause and effect, a common link between the bottom four is that they all have managers in their first season at the club. Barry Fry (Birmingham), Chris Turner (Peterborough) and Denis Smith (Oxford), although experienced managers, only took over when the season was underway, whilst Glenn Roeder (Watford) is in his first full season at Vicarage Road. The same is true of the two clubs above them, Keith Burkinshaw at West Brom and Viv Anderson at Barnsley.

It would be very unfair to blame these individuals for their clubs' plights, but they are obviously having a baptism of fire. The rate of managerial turnover, moreover, seems to be accelerating, for only nine clubs in Division One (Leicester, Millwall, Charlton, Tranmere, Middlesbrough, Grimsby, Bolton, Portsmouth and Luton) have had the same manager for the last 18 months. How many will still be in charge come next August?

THE DEN PROVES POPULAR FIGHT VENUE

The Big Fight night here on March 19th proved two things above all. Firstly, that Herbie Hide may just have what it takes to become the best British World Heavyweight champion in living memory, and secondly that The Den is an ideal venue for staging major events such as this.

Co-promoter Barry Hearn of Matchroom was fulsome in his praise for the organisation of the event, and stated that Millwall would be offered the chance to stage a future Herbie Hide title defence. Should that promise be honoured and an opponent of the calibre of Lennox Lewis be lined up then The Den would surely be packed to the rafters.

Football's biggest fan is its £36m supporter

By next August, standing will be a thing of the past at many of our football grounds as clubs meet the Taylor requirements.

Clubs who choose to retain some standing must make sure that terracing is safe – for many, an expensive commitment.

The Football Trust has an annual income of over £36m – virtually all from the pools companies, Littlewoods, Vernons and Zetters.

Implementing Taylor is a huge undertaking and every club counts on THE FOOTBALL TRUST to help to see the job through.

VIEWPOINT

It's good to be back

says Richard Huxford

It was a strange feeling to play in a winning side last Tuesday night after my month up at Birmingham. The quality of players here at Millwall and the general organisation, with no disrespect to Birmingham, is far superior to that at St Andrews. When you're on a losing streak as they are, there's almost an expectancy that they're going to lose, whereas here we expect to win every game. In all honesty, it's good to be back.

I must admit that my pride was little bit hurt when I was allowed to go out on loan, but you have to take it in your stride, and at least I was playing first team football. I think in a way I will have gained something from the experience of playing in a struggling side, although it's not something I'm hoping to repeat here. It does affect your own confidence when you're playing for a team who are down at the bottom of the League, and I was glad to get straight back into the side against Peterborough and get a win even if we didn't play all that well on the night.

I suppose I could best describe my time up at Birmingham as 'character building'. They are a good bunch of lads and I wish them well, but it was like a breath of fresh air to be back at Millwall. I really like it here, I didn't particularly want to go there in the first place, and I can honestly say that my month at St Andrews only served to emphasise what a good club this is.

Naturally I want to be playing first team football, and the fact that we've got a lot of very good players here makes it difficult to hold down a regular place in the side. It's a tough job for Mick to keep everybody happy and we all know that, so all I can do is my best when I do get the chance. You have to approach the job in a professional manner and accept the manager's decision. I'm as ambitious as anyone else, but I'm part of a happy and successful squad at a good club and that counts for a lot too.

Having played for a struggling side I knew that Peterborough who are in a similar position would be difficult to beat last week. They're fighting for their lives so they tend to battle with everything they've got. In that respect it's often easier playing a mid-table team at this stage of the season. We didn't do ourselves justice particularly in the first-half, but as they began to tire the quality we have become apparent, and despite the fact that we won with an own goal it turned out to be more comfortable than the scoreline suggested in the end. It may not always be pretty to watch from now on, but Palace and Forest will also be facing teams who make life difficult for them, and if they can't grind results out when things are not going well then we'll definitely catch them because we have proved our ability to do that.

AWAY DAY
BLUES

THIS season's promotion and relegation battles will be decided on a Sunday, after the Endsleigh League bowed to pressure from the TV companies and agreed to move the final round of matches back 24 hours.

If you pay the piper you are entitled to call the tune and independent television companies up and down the country are naturally keen to cover the climax of the season.

But what about the fans? Armchair supporters will probably welcome the decision, but if your club is away from home on the final day of the season and you plan to go, you'd better start making your travel plans now.

Certainly, the vagaries of British Rail's Sunday service will make travelling to Grimsby – the season's longest away trip – a slow business for Lions fans.

The journey there and back will take you two-and-a-half hours longer than the same journey on a Saturday – and that's not allowing for essential maintenance on the track.

If you want to stay on in Grimsby to celebrate Millwall's promotion you'd better be prepared for an overnight stop because the last train for London leaves at 7.40pm and doesn't reach Kings Cross until 11.37pm.

Quite apart from that many supporters – brought up on Saturday League games – have other commitments on a Sunday.

Sadly it seems that once again the rank and file supporter has not been taken into consideration.

(The views expressed here are not necessarily those of Millwall Football Club).

LIONESSES

WINNING RUN CONTINUES

Our sequence of victories stretched to six with a floodlit demolition of Mill Hill United by 8-1 and a 3-0 win over Maidstone Tigresses. Both were semi-finals and we now find ourselves in the finals of both the Middlesex and Kent County Cups.

The Middlesex Cup is a trophy we currently hold, but the Kent tournament is in its first season.

The match against a young up-and-coming Mill Hill side was on the excellent Surrey Docks Stadium pitch and we served up some great football for the spectators, who included quite a few first-timers. Tracey DiMillo, deputising for Lou Waller scored a superb hat-trick, Pru Buckley hit two, and Tina Lindsay and Adel Hinder one each. Our fourth goal was scored by Heidi Dickson, her first for the first team, deputising for rested Mary Phillip. Mill Hill played their part, and Shelley Ovenden scored for them, but we played well enough to impress all those present, including Jamie Moralee and John Kerr.

Last Sunday week we faced National League Division One outfit Maidstone at Corinthian FC in Dartford. We recalled Lou and Mary and also Abbie Walsh at right-back, and second-half goals from Pru and Tina plus one from Frances Carroll gave us a comfortable win. This Easter Sunday we travel to Leasowe, who play outside Liverpool, an important game if we are to reach our target of fourth place.

DOWSON GETS BUBBLY

Alan Dowson's hopes of a Manager of the Month accolade must surely have been realised in March. Having won cup matches and lost by the odd goal on a few occasions, our young reserve side were down in the dumps at the wrong end of Division One of the strong Greater London League. Two victories over Basildon lifted us off the bottom and a 5-4 nail-biter over a good Enfield side took us out of the relegation zone with four matches to play (see table). These include home showdowns with Pinewood and Ealing.

In the 5-4 win, Jenny Mapp made it eight goals in the month with four super strikes and striking partner Kelly Peck hit the other. The side included six under-15s and two under-16s, plus a few grannies in their early twenties! Team v. Enfield. Sandra Jones, Charlene Watts, Lou Lynch, Kate Cooney, Pemi Jhooti, Claire DeHara, Lou Cummins, Cecilia Nevstad, Kris Glyde, Jenny Mapp, Kelly Peck. Subs: Lorraine Grinyer, Kelly Barton.

ENFIELD 5-A-SIDE
LEAGUE

On 12th March, our youngsters wrapped up a successful season in the Enfield League. Our Under 11 squad – Margaret Barber, Leanne Champ, Gemma Foley, Jessica Smith, Jane Simpson and Louisa Cambridge – added the League Cup to their runners-up League medals. En route they knocked out League champions Watford before defeating Mill Hill in the final 4-0. Our Under-12 squad – Gemma and Carly Hunt, Katy and Sophie Chapman, Joanna Morley-Clarke, Jessica Mordue and Emma Warran – reached the League Cup final before going down 1-0 to double winners Enfield.

Heidi Dickson

RACE NIGHT RE-ARRANGED

The Executive Club at The Den will host Millwall players and supporters in a Race Night for the benefit of Millwall Lionesses. The new date for this is Thursday, 21st April.

There will be a free buffet and a programme of horse races on video, each of which will be sponsored to provide prizes. A similar event was held last November for the Millwall Youth team and was a great success. More details will appear in the Sunderland and Forest programmes.

ON THE TREATMENT TABLE

Spare a thought for physio's Pete Melville and Keith Johnstone. Whilst Mick has been deprived of the services of Andy May on the field, they have had to spend much of the last year cooped up in a small room with the motormouth they call 'Ted'. There is most certainly no subject on God's earth on which Ted is not prepared to voice his opinion, at length! Pete has maintained a degree of sanity by developing selective deafness syndrome whilst Keith sadly appears near to a breakdown.

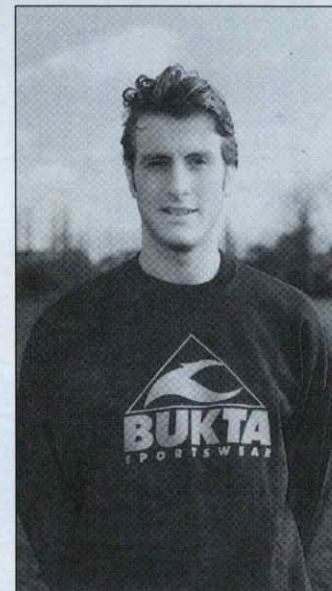

Meanwhile there is a ray of hope on the horizon. Both Andy and Jon Goodman, whose arrival alongside Ted in the treatment room has coincided with a worrying outbreak of kleptomania, went for pressure tests last Friday and if successful could be back in full training shortly. Meanwhile, another 'Ted victim' Neil Emblen is already on the way back to full fitness after suffering a setback a fortnight ago when he tweaked a hamstring in training.

INTRODUCING GREG BERRY

Nobody was more pleased than Mick McCarthy when 5.00pm arrived last Thursday. Mick had been keeping B.T. in business for another year with numerous phone calls over the previous couple of weeks, attempting to set up transfer deals before the deadline. His first major success was in bringing 23 year old mid-fielder Greg Berry to The Den, the deal finally being agreed late on Wednesday evening. Greg scored 14 goals in 80 League appearances for Leyton Orient before joining Wimbledon last season. His opportunities at Selhurst Park were limited to just 7 appearances and 1 goal, so he had little hesitation in accepting Mick's offer.

"It didn't take me long to make up my mind. I like Millwall's style of play, which is very different to Wimbledon's and I thought I would fit in well here. I've no regrets about having joined Wimbledon, but I'm pleased to have got this move and I'm now looking forward to getting straight back into the Premier League. I am basically a left sided player, but I'll play anywhere so long as I get a game. I've signed a three year deal here, and as I've said, I expect to be spending most of that time in the Premiership. Naturally it will take me a little while to settle down, but I'm already aware of the fixtures between now and the end of the season and what we have to do to gain promotion."

CLUBCALL

DIARY

Transfer deadline day was certainly hectic here at The Den and Mick did his best to inform us of developments in order that MILLWALL CLUBCALL could keep fans right up to date. A phone call on Wednesday night meant that we were able to warn you to expect Greg Berry to sign for us on Thursday morning and that further activity was likely to take place. In the event, the Clive Allen deal wasn't completed until mid-afternoon, and whilst rumours began to emerge from Upton Park, Clubcall was unable to confirm these until the ink was dry. As with Greg in the morning though, Clive was immediately on the line talking to Millwall fans about signing for his new Club.

Once again the virtue of MILLWALL CLUBCALL was emphasised. We bring you this service DIRECT FROM THE DEN and it receives the exclusive backing from Mick and the players so that we can bring you the news and views as they happen.

FAN FILE

The series in which Phil Lee gets the views of the fans.

21 years.
- Q2. Who is your favourite player?
Kasey Keller, his prowess in goal is unequalled for many a year.
- Q3. What do you think of the new stadium?
Er, its a nice stadium, but its like playing away every week, what they need is a few hanging baskets.
- Q4. What do you think of this years kit?
Horrible, too much like Leicester's kit.
- Q5. Best memory of Millwall.
When we beat Bradford at home 4-0 in a promotion year, and we locked ourselves in the bar afterwards and drank ourselves silly.
- Q6. Do you attend all home games? Yes.
- Q7. What about away games? 60%.
- Q8. Who, in your opinion was the best player ever to play for Millwall.
Anton Outalowski, he had so much skill on the ball he was the Ryan Giggs of Millwall.

- Q10. What was the best match involving MFC that you ever saw?
The 3-2 Cup win at Chelsea will always stay in my memory.

MILLWALL IN THE COMMUNITY

Training Courses

Throughout the year, the Football in the Community scheme organises and runs training courses for local people. Many of the courses are heavily subsidised to make them available to as many people as possible and with the new facility available at The Den we can now offer not only a better range of course but also are able to run them on site.

The courses we have run this year are:

- * The F.A. Football Leaders Award (women only and mixed courses)
- * The F.A. Preliminary Award
- * Basic Treatment of Injury Course
- * Opportunity & Challenge - teaching football to people with learning difficulties
- * Teachers & Youth Workers football course - designed by Millwall F.C. this course helps teachers and youth workers to coach football in a fun environment in schools and play centres.

The pictures show the club physiotherapist Keith Johnstone running a Basic Treatment of Injuries course in the conference room at the new stadium. The course which attracted 20 participants looks at the main injuries incurred at local youth matches and the ways coaches and team leaders can best treat those injuries.

For further information on courses run by the scheme please contact the community office on 071-231 0379.

Mick lands Clive

Who has played for more London clubs than any other player? If the answer's not Clive Allen then I'd be very surprised. On a journey which has taken him from Q.P.R. via Arsenal (briefly), Palace, Q.P.R. again, Spurs, Bordeaux, Manchester City, Chelsea and West Ham there has been a common denominator – goals. Allen has always had that knack of being in the right place at the right time, a genuine goal poacher, and Mick McCarthy stepped in on Thursday afternoon to bring his talents to The Den as The Lions step up their promotion push.

"It's been a hectic day for me" commented Clive after signing at The Den on Thursday, "but after talking to Mick I was very keen to sign for Millwall and I'm looking forward to a successful time here. I believe that the Club has real promotion potential and my immediate aim is to get amongst the goals and help achieve that. I'm still ambitious to play Premier League football and I'm hopeful that I'll be doing that here next season. I know that I'll be under a little bit of pressure because expectations will be high, but I'm sure the fans will be keen for me to do well, and I can assure them that I will give them 100% commitment."

I may have been at West Ham but I'm now a Millwall player and so this is the most important club to me."

FROM THE ARCHIVES

MILLWALL v LUTON TOWN

By Ted Wilding

Like Millwall, Luton Town were formed in 1885, and were also to become founder members of the Southern League in 1894. Millwall's association with Luton first began in 1888 when the clubs met in a friendly at Luton on December 1st 1888. Luton were the winners by three to nil. The second meeting in January 1889 was won by Millwall 4-2 at their ground situated behind the 'Lord Nelson' public house on the Isle of Dogs.

The following season (1889/90) Millwall were beaten at home 1-2 by Luton. The clubs met regularly up until the formation of the Southern League, the results were as follows: (Millwall score first) 2-5 (A), 5-1 (H), 3-2 (A), 1-0 (H), 2-0 (H) and 2-3 (A).

STORMED BACK

The first meeting between the clubs in the Southern League was played at Dallow Lane. Losing one nil at half-time the 'Dockers' stormed back to take both points in a 4-3 victory. The return fixture at East Ferry Road ended 2-2.

Between 1894-1897 and 1900-1920 Millwall's record against the Bedfordshire side in the Southern League reads: P32, W14, D9, L9, F49, A43, Pts37.

SEVEN UP

In 1920-21 both clubs entered the Football League by way of the newly formed Third Division. The first two encounters ended goalless.

It wasn't until the eleventh meeting that the "Lions" recorded their first League victory over the "Hatters" and they did it in style, winning 7-0 at The Den on December 19th 1925.

Landells (2), Amos (2) (both penalties), Gore, Moule and Dillimore were the scorers.

Alf Wood (dark shirt) in action against Luton at Kenilworth Road during 1972-73.

The next season saw a bizarre turn around in results. On Christmas Day 1926 The Lions lost to Luton at Kenilworth Road by six goals to nil, and yet twenty four hours later at The Den Millwall thrashed the "Town" seven nil.

The best attended Millwall/Luton match was that on November 21st 1936 when 32,504 saw The Lions go down 0-2.

CUP COMPETITIONS

In the F.A. Cup Millwall and Luton have met on five occasions, Millwall have been victorious four times 1903 - 3-0 (H), 1908 - 2-1 (A), 1978 - 4-0 (H), 1989 - 3-2 (H). The one defeat was at Luton (0-1) in 1985.

In the Football League Cup honours are even with one win each.

Luton won 1-0 on their own ground after a 2-2 draw at The Den in 1969. The Lions won 3-1 at The Den in 1973.

PAPER TALK

ions ride their ick

NS manager Mick McCarthy admitted that his : were desperately lucky to get three points n last Tuesday's clash with struggling rborough.

re Sun's headline writer hit the nail on the head i 'Lions Get The Chris Of Life'.

Millwall are hammering on the door of the niership - thanks to a blunder by Posh nder Chris Greenman," wrote Sun reporter Neil tis.

"He put through his own goal to stretch the is' unbeaten run to six and Mick McCarthy's : are now only four points off an automatic motion place with a game in hand.

Manager McCarthy admitted: 'We were dead y but I don't care because that's another three its and we are aiming for top spot.

We're as good as Crystal Palace - but we got of jail tonight'".

Greenman will have nightmares about this ie. Not only did he throw away a precious point he missed a golden chance that could have ded Posh victory.

t came five minutes before the break when he put through by Tony Adcock, but he tamely the ball into the arms of the advancing Kasey er."

IN THE WINGS

TAKING THE ROUGH WITH THE SMOOTH

Last Wednesday's 2-0 reverse at Luton made it three consecutive defeats for the Reserves, something of an unwanted new experience for coach Ian McDonald since he came to The Den. Not surprisingly, Ian has made it plain to the players in his charge that he expects to see some improvement and quickly.

"I'm prepared to take the rough with the smooth. Last year we won the Combination title and this time round we're not having things our own way. But I expect us to at least relinquish the title with a bit of pride and passion in our performances, and I've felt that has been lacking of late. I had a word with the lads before the Luton game and to be fair there was an improvement in the overall performance, but we gave away two shocking goals and that did for us.

I can't complain that the side keeps changing because that was even more the case last year when we won the League. We have been a bit lightweight up front, and as a whole we have quite a young team, but the real problem has been that we've not been competing and playing as we can and as a result players have not been enjoying their football. I've told them that the summer holidays are still a long way off and that they still have plenty to play for both individually and collectively. Maybe some of them feel that they don't have a future here, and if that's the case the best way to find themselves another club is to knuckle down and look impressive in reserve games. I want us to win every game between now and the end of the season, but more than that I want to see us perform with pride and commitment."

Millwall v Crystal Palace: Carter, Beard, Harle, Maguire, McCarthy, Middleton, Chapman, Morgan, Kennedy, Kerr, Holsgrove. Subs: Mulraney, Hatcher.

Millwall v Luton: Carter, Beard, Harle, Maguire, McCarthy, Middleton, Chapman, Kangaskorpi, Kennedy, Kerr, Connor. Subs: Morgan, Holsgrove. (Finnish international Jokke Kangaskorpi joined the club last week on a trial basis and played at Luton.)

DOUBLE COMEBACK SETS UP FINAL CHANCE

The Millwall Youth side came back twice from a goal down at Middlesbrough last week to give themselves a real chance of reaching the F.A. Youth Cup Final when the teams meet here for the second leg of their semi-final on April 12th. Coach Tom Walley, whilst pleased with his team's performance sounded a typical note of caution afterwards.

It was a good result, but it's not all over yet. They've got a few good forwards, as have we, so it's still a very open tie. We're hoping to have Ben Thatcher fit for the return game and that it's us who perform on the night.

At Ayresome Park we started off a bit shakily and of course they had the crowd behind them. They took the lead after about half-an-hour and at that stage I thought we've got to peg them back straight away and quieten the crowd down. We did just that with a good move, Neville Gordon hooked it across the goal, Mark Kennedy sidefooted it back and Geoff Pitcher put it in. We then missed a couple of chances to go in front.

In the second-half we went behind again when Adrian Cronin failed to hold a shot and Dean Francis put the ball into his own net. Again we got straight back into it with Mark Mulraney volleying a good equaliser for us. After that Mark Kennedy and Geoff Pitcher had a couple of good chances each but Middlesbrough also had their opportunities so at the end we were quite happy with the result.

We'll now get at them at our place in a couple of weeks time. We'll play with plenty of passion and give it our best shot. Between now and then I'll probably give one or two players a rest and give some of the schoolboys a game. We still have a chance in the League and it would be nice to win that, but we'll have to see how things go. My boys have done very well, they've played a lot of games already this season and it would be nice to go all the way in the Cup."

Millwall v Middlesbrough: Cronin, Irving, Luckett, Mulraney, Aris, Francis, Pitcher, Gordon, Kennedy, Williams, Wright. Subs: Morgan, Walley.
