PLEAT'S PERSPECTIVE

HOME WINS CAN SEE US CHALLENGE FOR A PLAY-OFF PLACE

WELCOME to this afternoon's visitors Oldham Athletic. Hopefully the weather will have relented and will be playing in better conditions than when we last met on 12th November.

That game was the first that Graeme Sharp had control over the team and after the drawn game was given the responsibility of taking over from Joe Royle.

Oldham have made good progress since that time and both sides will realise the significance of this afternoon's result. It is really galling that we have such a poor home record compared with our impressive away form. We are confident however, that a couple of home wins can put us in a good position to challenge for a play off place.

Last Saturday's cup tie was a fine advertisement for cohesive and progressive football. Most importantly the supporters of both sides appreciated the efforts and it was rare but pleasing for both sides to be applauded off the field. After the sadness, confusion and publicity of the Cantona sending off, it is vital that everyone takes the game seriously, but does not allow the passion to get out of hand.

We can feel confident when we travel on Wednesday of a cup success. We respected Southampton and some of their players added to their reputations. They played football throughout the game and their goal was brilliantly taken. It was so important that we showed the spirit to fight back and all our players put in an effort deserving of winning at the first attempt. We will be having a chat about the penalty kick responsibilities and hope that should we be given a spot kick shortly, we will get the "missing" sequence out of our systems.

Wayne Biggins' performance in the reserves' win against Crystal Palace at Hitchin persuaded me to alter the formation slightly for the cup tie. With Dwight Marshall showing good pace on the right flank we looked a threat when going forward. Wayne has always been a thorn in our side when playing for Barnsley or Stoke, but it is his all-round understanding of front play which impresses me.

I went to watch a midweek match in Holland recently to look for possible replacements after John Hartson's sale. No moves were made but I was impressed with a couple of young forwards, but surprisingly their current value is beyond what we may be prepared to pay.

Rest assured that we are looking closely at making moves before the transfer deadline, so we can add some strength to our squad. Fortunately injured players Des Linton and Ceri Hughes could be with us within the month but the unlucky twosome from Peterborough Fred Barber and Tony Adcock will have to wait longer. The absence of Fred Barber has pushed Kelvin Davis on to the first team bench - a move I would have contemplated anyway to give him valued experience. Kelvin is likely to be coming to Italy with the football league side which I have been given charge of for the game against the Italian Serie B under 21's side. I would be very surprised if Kelvin, provided he continues working hard and stays with his feet firmly on the ground, doesn't have a very good career in the game. At the other end of the scale, we have agreed to release young Welsh defender Andrew Jukes from his contract. We have several promising young players who have performed well in the right back position. We wish him well in the future.

Ben Chinery is one of those who took a debut in his stride and he was more than unlucky not to play against Southampton on his 18th birthday. Now Julian James has completed his suspension, Ben may have to wait a little longer for further opportunities, but I am sure they will come along.

The AGM has been and gone and maybe this year we should have less difficulties balancing the books, after the sale of John Hartson. I have accepted an invitation to talk to the Luton Town Supporters Club on 9th March and I will be more than happy on that occasion to talk about the present and the future.

It has been a busy time for meetings recently. Unfortunately I could not make the North Beds

Referees Association invite to Kempston last Monday evening. Terry Westley deputised and I am sure he left the officials with much to think about. I have already stated that I have been less than happy with some of the officious officiating in the Avon Insurance reserve league and I have collated a broad view of other managers ideas, whose teams play in this league, to improve the referee/ manager/ player liaison. I hope to be able to enjoy the hospitality of the North Beds Referees Association shortly.

Let us hope that the extra support that was attracted to the cup tie last week remains with us. The players all remarked how much more noise the extra crowd generated.

We all need motivation and it is our hope that we can have a cup run, plus some improved league form and we will once again be running out to full houses at Kenilworth Road.

Enjoy the game and remember the importance of good sportsmanship.

LEADING THE LINE

by TREVOR PEAKE

TODAY we must put all thoughts of the FA Cup out of our minds and concentrate on earning vital league points.

After the busy Christmas and New Year period we have played just once in the league, the defeat at Barnsley, and once again look set to have a busy list of fixtures ahead in the spring - even without a lengthy cup run.

It only takes a couple of postponements to create congestion when you have 46 league games to play, and it will be a test of our resources.

Hopefully though we are becoming equipped to deal with that, as injuries are beginning to clear. Also the manager has talked about new arrivals which always serves as a boost, and keeps everyone on their toes.

Wayne Biggins certainly made his mark last week, with a goal which I thought was the least we deserved against Southampton.

After so much pressure, and the penalty disappointment, it looked as though it might not be our day. But we persevered well, with some tremendous vocal support I might add, and Wayne's goal was just reward.

Now we can look forward with confidence to Wednesday's replay, and then hopefully the chance to take on Tottenham at White Hart Lane.

Having said that it was time to put the FA Cup to the back of our minds, perhaps that is easier said than done!

Of course we must concentrate on the league, but we can draw upon some aspects of the cup to help us.

The determination, good football and tremendous atmosphere around the ground certainly rubbed off from cup to league last season, and must do so again if we are to challenge for a play-off place.

Oldham, after a brave display at Leeds in the cup last week, are hoping to return to the Premiership at the first attempt.

Since we were there in November, Graeme Sharp has been appointed manager, and having played against him a number of times, I can vouch for his will to win and the enthusiasm he generates.

Summer changes bewilder Oldham

WHEN David Pleat was elevated to the manager's chair in the early part of 1978 it soon became obvious to him that a complete squad change would be required if there was to be a realistic tilt at the Second Division title.

Out, more or less straightaway, went centre-half John Faulkner who joined Memphis in the North American Soccer League - teaming up with ex-Town star Jimmy Husband. With the money raised, Pleat signed Terry Hayes from Linfield for £15,000 and, more importantly, from under the noses of a host of First Division scout, 18-year-old Mark Aizlewood from Newport.

The real fun however came in the close season, when England Under-21 international Paul Fuchter was reluctantly sold to Manchester City for £350,000, a record fee for both sides. Pleat now had some money to wheel and deal in the transfer market.

Firstly the Town entered into a battle with Stoke City over the signature of highly-rated Swindon winger David Moss, with the result that the bid had to be increased from £90,000 to £110,000 to enable Pleat to get his man. At the same time, highly-rated junior players

John Lucas and Steve Sherlock were signed from Manchester United and Manchester City respectively, with again Pleat winning out after seeing off the competition.

Additional forward strength was now a priority and names such as Steve Finnieston of Chelsea and John Duncan of Tottenham were bandied about, but it was to Blackpool's Bob Hatton that Pleat eventually turned. Hatton had seen his side relegated to Division Three and wanted a higher grade of football as well as a move of house back to the Midlands.

David Pleat was able to satisfy both demands and paid out £50,000 for the services of this proven goalscorer after the offer of Ron Fuchter in part exchange fell through. Fuchter, who was spending the summer in the States with Minnesota Kicks, did not want to drop a division and by waiting realised a dream by joining his brother at Maine Road in a £75,000 deal.

Next on the list was Mal Donaghy of Larne, who was being chased by a host of clubs including QPR, Wolves and Celtic. Larne manager Dave Halliday knew that he had a jewel on his hands and so Pleat waited until his counterpart was on holiday before approaching the Northern Irish club's directors and picking up Donaghy for a bargain £15,000.

"This man will play for his country for many years to come," predicted Pleat.

After fullback Kirk Stephens was picked up from one of David Pleat's old clubs, Nuneaton, for £5,000, a centre-half to replace the transferred Faulkner was seen to be the final piece of the jigsaw.

Pleat had his eye on Peterborough's Chris Turner, but he also knew that Norwich were interested. Without further ado he skipped across the Atlantic to talk to Turner, who was turning out for New England Teamen, and clinched the deal that would bring him to Kenilworth Road for £100,000.

Pleat now believed he had a squad to take on the best in the division, but the acid test would come when the league season started.

Oldham were the visitors to Kenilworth Road on the opening day of the campaign, and a bemused crowd of 8,043 turned up to see if they could recognise anyone as no fewer than seven players were making their first appearance in the league in Luton colours, a record apart from the opening game of the first post-war season.

At half-time that day we were wondering if the money had been spent wisely, as the Latics had taken the lead through Ian Wood early on and were comfortably in control. What was said at the interval we can only surmise, however, as just 15 seconds after the restart Hatton latched onto a long ball from Turner to level the score and then Moss put the Town in front a minute later.

This amazing turnaround drained the Latics enthusiasm and a further three-goal salvo midway through the half killed the game.

Firstly Brian Stein netted from close in after a shot came back off the post, followed by a Lil Fuccillo penalty, and then Moss hammering in a long cross from Donaghy.

Bob Hatton headed his second and Luton's sixth in the final minute. An amazing game and an amazing scoreline. At half-time did we ever doubt David Pleat's expertise in the transfer market? No, not us!

5 YEARS AGO

14/2/90 - After a three-week lay-off the Town were back in action and came back from Wimbledon with three points following a 2-1 victory. Kurt Nogan and Iain Dowie were the Luton scorers for the first away win of the season.

10 YEARS AGO

2/2/85 - Following the mid-season foray into the transfer market we now looked a strong unit again, and were a shade unfortunate to allow Tottenham to escape with a point from a 2-2 draw at Kenilworth Road. Emeka Nwajiobi and Brian Stein were on target for the Town in front of a crowd of 17,511.

15 YEARS AGO

2/2/80 - Goals from Mike Saxby and Bob Hatton enabled the Town to come from behind and secure a 2-1 home win over Notts County. A crowd of 9,007 saw the Hatters maintain third position in Division Two.

20 YEARS AGO

8/2/75 - A fine strike from Ron Fuchter earned both points in a 1-0 win over Newcastle at Kenilworth Road in front of a crowd of 18,019. This win finally lifted us off the bottom of Division One.

Donaghy, Turner, Aizlewood, Hill, Fuccillo, Stein, Hatton, Moss.

Oldham: McDonnell, Wood, Edwards, Blair, Holt, Hurst, Gardner, Taylor, Young, Halom, Chapman.

COMMERCIAL CORNER with Kathy Leather

A warm welcome to Kenilworth Road to today's match and matchball sponsors

TODAY'S match sponsor is the LUTON AND DUNSTABLE LEADER, your local newspaper, as part of its third birthday celebrations.

Following in the tradition of its 103-year-old sister paper, the Luton News, the Leader has gone from strength to strength.

The unique partnership with the established paid-for Luton News and Dunstable Gazette, provides the very best local news coverage for the town, whilst also giving local advertisers the large circulation they need with the response that they want.

Look under your matchday seat to see if you have won a voucher for a FREE motorbox to sell your car, worth £20.00!!!

Our matchball sponsor today is MR RONALD EDWARD POULTON. Luton born and bred, Ron left school to join the motor trade. He saw service in Burma during his five years in the army.

While working for J.W. Greens Brewery, Ron was secretary of their football club and played for the team from 1950-1960, retiring from Whitbreads in 1981.

A supporter of Luton Town since 1948, Ron has been a season ticket holder for the past fourteen years.

We would also like to thank SGC Scaffoldine for being one of our joint match sponsors for last week's FA Cup fourth round game against Southampton - arrangements for which were made after the programme print deadline for that match.

LUTON TOWN FC ....Listening to YOU!

Luton Town Football Club are to pioneer a unique Football Supporters Panel, where we ask the views of YOU the fans.

Luton Town are genuinely concerned to listen to the views of their supporters, and together with Critical Research Ltd, a Luton-based, independent professional market research company, we are planning to regularly canvass the views of Town fans.

Starting this weekend, following the home game against Oldham Athletic (and for a five-match trial period) a sample of members will be telephoned on Sunday by Critical Research's trained interviewers to get their views on all aspects of the previous day's game, Luton Town Football Club, and the football world in general.

You might be asked about the best players, the ground or facilities. And if there's any other issue you want to raise, please don't hesitate to do so.

The results of these interviews will be compiled to give a unique cross-section of what you the supporters want to see at Kenilworth Road, and a summary of the results will be forwarded to the club, and published in future match programmes.

Each interview will take less than 10 minutes, so if you get the call please tell us what you think.... We're listening.
