PLEAT'S PERSPECTIVE

MILLWALL DRAW NO GOOD TO EITHER SIDE

A WARM welcome to all our friends from Port Vale, particularly to their manager John Rudge, one of the longest serving one-club managers in the league.

They have made excellent strides recently, and only last Saturday got a splendid away point at Sheffield United. They will be difficult opposition, but we are fully capable if we play to our optimum of gaining a result.

A few thank you's I feel are in order. Firstly to all the Millwall supporters last Saturday, who belied any thoughts or suggestions that they could give us a problem on the anniversary of the rather sad night many years ago in the FA Cup. Their team played very competitively on the field, and although Kasey Keller kept them in the game with several important saves, I thought their play in the second half merited some return.

It was very disappointing to concede the goal in the way we did - there was a possibility of off-side - but I have to say they battled back well.

after we played some spiritual and inventive football in the first half.

My comments after the game I think were absolutely correct. A draw was no good to either side. With the teams in the current play-off positions winning, then the chances of Millwall or ourselves overhauling them must come with taking full advantage when we play them, particularly in home games.

I would like to say some further thanks you's. We appreciated the pleasant letter we had from the organisers of the Ten Pin Bowl-In at the Megabowl in Bedford. Our players are always under pressure to go to events, and sometimes they do not get the thanks they deserve.

Also, Tony Adcock attended a function for the Mid Beds Sports Council on Thursday night, and despite getting caught in a blizzard had a very enjoyable evening at which his presence was appreciated.

Thanks also to the Loyal Luton Supporters, who were kind enough to give me such a nice birthday present the day after we allowed John Hartson to leave for Arsenal.

Thank you to Cliff Bassett whose company Universal Salvage sponsor the Luton Town column in the Herald and Post. Once again, we are handing over cheques to charities, where all the money is provided by Cliff's company. In our times of tight budgeting before the Hartson sale, it was Cliff's support that kept this club going.

I would also like to thank all the supporters who did so well on Saturday morning in helping to clear the snow and once again give us a good playing surface.

A warm welcome to Rob Matthews from Notts County. Like Dwight Marshall, who has now scored 12 goals, Rob has an eye for goal and has come into football at a late stage.

As a 21-year-old he scored two goals which defeated our lingering Premiership hopes at Notts County, and since then he has had a career interrupted by all sorts of injuries, and has never been able to get a consistent run together.

All we can do is give him the chance to resurrect his career, and then it is down to his mental strength and his capacity to learn. We wish him every success at the club.

I would also like to say well done to our two youth players Chris Willmott and Stuart Douglas, who were both playing for the FA Under 17 side at Bisham Abbey yesterday afternoon against the Independent Schools. It says much for their attitude that Chris was involved as an over-age player on Sunday, when we played Wimbledon at two age levels at the Electrolux ground, and he had also played the previous day for the youth team in the South East Counties League.

In our recent game against Bristol City, I was very badly misquoted after the game in a local paper, and I have been absolutely delighted that after Joe Jordan's original phone call I have been able to trace and give him an actual recording of my comments at the press conference. I have long campaigned for both managers to go together to press conferences afterwards.

It is the modern trend for the Sports Editors to want some controversial thoughts and quotes, particularly after an ordinary game where they may have decided that the action did not merit too much discussion.

I have always been very wary about criticising or even discussing the other team's play, other than to praise. But I did have a chance at Bristol to suggest the merits of a team of officials working in unison for a period of games.

Now for a few of my Vision Express observations..... A welcome visitor last Saturday was Paul Elliott, our ex-player now doing some radio commentary and still keeping his links with this area..... The word from Millwall is that Ron Howard, who I brought here from Cambridge several years ago, and who did an excellent job, may be retiring from a full-time position at the end of the season..... Trevor Hartley's brother-in-law Bobby Howe was a welcome guest at last Saturday's game on behalf of the USA Federation. Bobby is in charge of the USA Under 21's, and he was probably casting an eye over the two keepers..... Another guest last Saturday was Thomas Moller and friends, over from Norway where we have a flourishing Supporters Club..... The players enjoyed a two-day break last week in Bournemouth, where they played golf, swam, and generally had a welcome rest from the rigours of the muddy grounds..... Did a spot on Alan Green's Radio Five programme last Friday, and met presenter Bill Hamilton who was refereeing at Shillington the following day..... Highly impressed with Watford's new stadium, it is a credit to them..... Interesting transfer to Sheffield United of Kingsley Black on loan. Only two weeks ago I saw Kingsley play in a reserve team game, and it seems his Forest days may be limited..... Mark Pembridge was back in Derby colours after a couple of months out with injury, but no such luck for Matthew Jackson, now looking out of the Everton reckoning..... Thank you to all those who attended the 'Bootroom' forum last Thursday at the club. It was a fascinating evening, and hopefully the forerunner of many more..... Juergen Sommer has been notified that he will be the first selection against Uruguay on March 25, and we will be keeping in touch with the US Federation, and will decide later whether we will be prepared to allow him to leave for that game..... Nice to have a release from the football field; was speaking to the local Rotary Clubs last night, and the club have arranged a Sportsman's Evening shortly.

There is much to play for this season. Players have between now and the end of the season to make a strong case for their claims for next season positions, and justify contract discussions.

We still have everything to play, and a good run can race you up the table several places.

It is to our disappointment that we have led in the each of the last three games, and scored in all of them, but lack of concentration and the odd mistake has cost us dearly.

I am pleased though with our discipline this season, and we currently have the best record in the division. Now that is something to be quietly pleased with!

Of course I would swap that for a place in the play-offs, but if we can get our game together between now and the end of the season that is also possible.

Enjoy the game,

AROUND THE TOWN

LEFT: Dwight Marshall scored his 12th goal of the season against Millwall, but was thwarted by Lions' keeper Kasey Keller in his efforts to net a second -half winner.

Matthews debut in Millwall draw

DAVID Pleat completed the £80,000 signing of 24-year-old striker Rob Matthews from Notts County, in time for him to make his debut against Millwall in Saturday's 1-1 draw.

Matthews was a 79th minute substitute for Gary Waddock as the Hatters were frustrated by a fine display from Kasey Keller in the Millwall goal.

Dwight Marshall had given Luton the lead after 33 minutes, with Dave Mitchell equalising after the break.

The arrival of Matthews gives the manager further options up front.

Three years ago, Matthews scored twice in a 2-1 win for County over the Hatters on the final day of the season - a result that relegated David Pleat's side from the old Division One.

LEADING THE LINE

by TREVOR PEAKE

LEFT: Trevor lines up with the mascots, match officials and Bristol City captain Brian Tinnion, before the 2-2 draw at Ashton Gate.

THE first-team squad enjoyed a few days off last week with a mini-break in Bournemouth, in a bid to recharge batteries for the final two months of the season.

Sea air hasn't been that great a recipe for success so far this season, but it was a good break and the players certainly enjoyed it.

Like many of you I'm sure, we sat through Wednesday night's television coverage of Southampton v Spurs enthralled.

Southampton could have been 5-0 up just after half-time, as they were in the last round, but managed only two and then got a dose of their own medicine.

I suppose it goes to show that you can play well and still get a hiding!

We must now concentrate our minds on league action, and what will be a busy end of season. Despite only a brief cup run and a relatively kind winter we always seem to have plenty of fixtures in the final weeks.

The fixture computer has already given us a midweek trip to Burnley, and if Bolton win their League Cup semi-final then our match on April 1 will be delayed, and another midweek trip to the north-west beckons.

These though can be important games for us if we can start another good run.

Assuming a good result against Millwall last Saturday, we must also look for three points this evening against Port Vale.

It seems a long time ago since that wet September afternoon, but our first win of the season was achieved at Vale Park, when Dwight Marshall's goal proved decisive.

They have a steady record though, and some talented players, two of whom we know quite well. Lee Glover and Mark Burke both played here on loan in recent seasons.

Our midweek home record hasn't been good in the current campaign, as we have gone down to Bolton, Grimsby and Charlton.

Judging by the great cup nights last year we should revel in the atmosphere of a night game, and hopefully that will be the case tonight.

There is still plenty to play for, and let's hope for a good win. Thank you for your continued support, and we look forward to seeing you at Southend on Saturday.

VALE SEARCH FOR FIRST WIN AT KENILWORTH ROAD

PORT Vale visit Kenilworth Road this evening looking for their first win in what will be their eighth visit.

Five of their seven visits have ended in defeat, and you can read about the 1966 reversal in greater details on pages 30 and 31 of today's match programme.

Their one success in Luton territory occurred at Dunstable Road in November 1898, when Evans was the lone goalscorer.

This evening, John Rudge's side will also be looking to avenge September's 1-0 defeat by the Hatters at Vale Park, when Dwight Marshall's second-half goal gave Luton their first win of the season.

Vale were due to play at Sheffield United on Saturday, with their previous game being a 4-2 home defeat by Wolves last weekend. On that occasion they were on the receiving end of a hat-trick from Dutchman John de Wolf, with the Vale goals coming from Tony Naylor and Kevin Kent.

Vale's own Dutchman Robin Van Der Laan was full of praise for his countryman, whom he used to watch on the terraces at Rotterdam.

"He has great leadership and stands out from the rest," said Van Der Laan. "He's good in the air too and, on that performance, he can certainly score goals."

Luton will have De Wolf to contend with early next month as Graham Taylor's promotion chasers come to Kenilworth Road, but it's the other end of the table that concerns Rudge's team.

Before Saturday's games, they were just three points above the relegation zone, but have games in hand on the majority of sides around them.

with the club's new 'Football in the Community' officer
COLWYN ROWE - (0582) 411622

OVER 600 youngsters took part in the February half-term courses, and another packed programme is planned for Easter.

Football in the Community Officer Colwyn Rowe said there had been a tremendous response, and has urged people to book early when the next course details are announced.

"I was very pleased with the numbers attending, and everyone enjoyed themselves which is our main objective," said Colwyn.

"Schools in the region have been very helpful, and the youngsters have certainly enjoyed meeting the Luton Town players who have come along to help."

Matthew Woolgar, Martin Williams, Jamie Campbell, Des Linton, Tony Adcock, Ceri Hughes, Kelvin Davis, David Greene and Tony Thorpe were among the Hatters stars taking part, as the courses took place in Bedford, Leighton Buzzard, Dunstable Flitwick, Luton, Shefford and Milton Keynes.

And the 60 youngsters on the goalkeeping course had the extra bonus of a visit from former England keeper Peter Bonetti, who is a regular instructor for the Town's senior keepers.

More courses are planned for the Easter holidays, with the majority being three-day courses. There will also be a course for adults, aimed at junior managers, senior managers, preliminary and full badge holders.

We will be announcing full details in the matchday programme and the local press as soon as the courses are finalised.

RESERVES AND YOUTH

WITH WAYNE TURNER AND TERRY WESTLEY

IN David Pleat's programme notes on Saturday, we announced the names of seven boys offered places on the YTS scheme for the start of next season.

They are: Steve Augustine - a forward from Middlesex; Andrew Barr - a forward from Leighton Buzzard; Liam George - the only local boy, who has been plagued by injury for 12 months, and faces an operation on his knee; Ian Jones - who played for Wales schoolboys last year, and comes recommended by Cyril Beech our Welsh scout; Terry Sweeney - a young midfield player from Plymouth; Matthew Upson - a left-sided midfield player from Diss; and Nicholas Webb - a goalkeeper from Stevenage.

It may only be March, but already the club are thinking ahead in months and years, and as youth team coach Terry Westley explains there is a set procedure to follow.

"By March the 1st you have to give associated schoolboys who are with your club, by recorded delivery, a decision on whether you will be offering them a two-year apprenticeship, or releasing them," said Terry.

"Seven letters have gone out and they are the lucky ones, and unfortunately we have had to turn away a number of boys who have been with us a number of years which is the really disappointing part.

"There is a mix of players who have been with the club through the junior sides from Under 11, and others who for one reason or another haven't got on at other clubs, and we have picked up late."

As you can see from the list the potential new arrivals are from a wide area, with Cyril Beech, who has sent the town Pembridge, Nogan, Hughes and Hartson in the past, hopefully coming up trumps again.

"Cyril has sent us Ian Jones, a centre-back who is a Welsh

The next reserve team game is on Wednesday, March 8, when Luton entertain Southampton, kick-off 2pm. See local press for details.

WILL the new YTS arrivals follow in John Hartson's footsteps

Under 15 and Under 16 international," said Terry, "and although he hasn't yet played for the youth team because of international commitments, he has impressed us, and he was told some time ago he would get an apprenticeship.

"Locally there is Liam George, who is an interesting signing. He was playing at the end of the season in a school match at Electrolux as an Under 13, and although we knew all the players in the schools finals it was a lovely night so I went along to the game.

"I saw this boy up front control the ball and volley it into the top corner, and I thought he must be at the Centre of Excellence.

"But it turned out that he wasn't, because he had just started playing again after a broken leg.

"He has done very well in the Under 15 and Under 16 sides, but unfortunately he has suffered injuries in both knees and is now waiting for another operation.

"But he should be fit to start the season and we have stuck by him, and are pleased he is coming to the club."

The club now wait for replies from the youngsters, and there could be an eighth place up for grabs. Terry and the coaches will hold trial matches to look at players recommended to them by other clubs who couldn't fit them into their intake.

This system has produced many, many players for Luton over the years, and this season perhaps more than any has shown what a lifeline the juniors can provide, with the sale of 19-year-old John Hartson for £2.5 million.

"That was a huge sum of money, which obviously the club needs," said Terry. "And as well as the financial aspect, we are expected to produce players for the first team very quickly. Four players currently qualified for the youth team have figured in first-team squads this season - Davis, McLaren, Chenery and Woodsford."

LUTON Town has helped to set up a multi-racial soccer scheme for the town's youngsters, using sport to promote harmony between all ethnic groups.

Hatters chairman David Kohler is supporting the project, which was officially launched recently.

It is being organised by the One Nation Sports and Leisure Association, based at the Bury Park Community Centre.

The project was launched at Norton Road Junior School, where boys and girls received coaching on the day from Colwyn Rowe, the Town's Community Officer, and at the end of the day the youngsters were presented with special certificates.

Later, at the Raj restaurant in Marsh Road, a £1,500 cheque from the restaurant management was presented to One Nation. The Institute of Sports Sponsorship matched this with funding arranged by Luton Council under the Sportsmatch scheme.

Eventually, it is hoped One Nation will run two soccer teams and there will be a number of soccer clinics. The aim is to train as many youngsters as possible to play football.

Bush-whacked but the Wanderers are winners!

BUSHMEAD Wanderers B Under 13 FC are the second winners of the club's Team of the Month Award, run in conjunction with the Loyal Luton Supporters Club.

The fans have successfully applied for a grant from the National Westminster Bank, as part of the bank's community programme, and, supported by the Football Club, wish to donate tickets for youngsters in the area to try and attract new supporters to Kenilworth Road.

The Bushmead side have not won a match, but team manager William Aitken says that the youngsters deserve reward for their hard work and enthusiasm in turning up for training every Friday throughout the wet, freezing winter.

Managers or parents should write in telling us why your team should be the Team of the Month. It may be that you are unbeaten, have won a trophy, or that you recorded a first win, or only lost narrowly to the top side in your league.

Nominations should be sent in to: Junior Team Award, c/o Simon Oxley, LTFC, Kenilworth Road Stadium, 1 Maple Road, Luton, Beds, LU4 8AW.

The February winners receive tickets for the home game against Tranmere on March 16.

LOOKING TO BETTER LAST SEASON'S MARK

Two-goal hero SCOTT OAKES reflects on the 2-2 draw against Bristol City.... as told to CLUBCALL 0891 121 123

Q: Two cracking goals but in the end not enough to secure victory.

A: No, that was definitely two points thrown away as far as we were concerned, but credit to Bristol City for their fightback.

Of course I was pleased to score, and especially the first one which I caught really well. I got the ball from Gary Waddock, went forward a few yards and as they backed off a bit I just hit it.

It certainly swerved a lot which deceived the keeper; maybe the wind caught it!

Q: Looking at the pitch, it obviously was very heavy, and did that take too much of a toll on the players late on?

A: It was like running up against an escalator, but we were still disappointed. We couldn't believe their first goal wasn't given offside, but the second was down to us.

On the plus side we had to play a slightly different game at Bristol because of the conditions. That was going very well, we had to battle and we did, and we were very pleased at half-time especially after Juergen's penalty save.

Q: Your position has also changed, a more central role, and one which seems to give you more freedom.

A: I'm enjoying playing in the middle alongside Gary Waddock and that is working well. It's no secret that I like to go forward, and with Dwight up front as well we certainly have plenty of pace on attack.

Q: And more goals to come?

A: I certainly hope so. It was 13 last year, and now I've notched up nine so far this season. I'm certainly hoping to better that 13 mark.

Did you know that you can sponsor a Luton Town game at Kenilworth Road, and entertain clients, friends or family?

You could also sponsor the matchball, or hire an executive box for the afternoon/evening

And facilities are also available on non-matchdays for business and conference use

Vale suffer Saturday night fever

WE have not often crossed paths in the past with Port Vale, and tonight's game will be only our ninth meeting in Luton. Of the previous eight, by far the most exciting took place shortly before the end of 1965/66 when the Town were making a bold attempt to climb out of Division Four at the first time of asking.

Relegated to the basement at the end of the previous season we had pushed our way up to the promotion places on the back of a good home record and the goalscoring feats of a young striker, signed on a free transfer from Chelsea, John O'Rourke.

With five games left to play, O'Rourke had scored 29 times in 36 outings, including four hat-tricks, and was being watched with envy by a good many clubs from the top three divisions. He was the fulcrum of a free scoring forward line that was to hit the back of the net 90 times by the end of a campaign that promised so much but ended, eventually, in disappointment.

In a bid to be different, the Town decided to play the home game against Port Vale on the Saturday evening of May 14, a couple of hours after the end of the Cup Final. Probably mindful of the number of people who emerge from an afternoon in front of the television and fill the local parks with a heaving mass of bodies trying to emulate the players they had just seen in action, the Board obviously thought a real live game would pull in the crowds.

As it turned out, 12,054, the second highest crowd of the season, were present to vindicate the Directors' optimism and, with appetites whetted by an afternoon of Everton v Sheffield Wednesday, they settled down to a further helping of good football.

The Town were sitting in sixth position but had at least three games in hand on most of the clubs above them. The fixture backlog had increased the previous Wednesday when, two goals ahead in an away game at Chester, the heavy rain that had been falling since the start, turned into a downpour leaving the referee little option but to abandon the match.

Still smarting from this disappointment, the Town players set about Port Vale with a will and tore great holes in their defence right from the start. After only seven minutes we were two up with goals from Gordon Riddick and Ray Whittaker, and after 18 minutes we had doubled the score with O'Rourke netting twice in the space of 60 seconds.

Vale player-manager Jackie Mudie switched his young wing-halves James and Boulton to inside forward, and pulled back old hands Poole and Miles in an attempt to stem the flow. But Riddick headed his second and Luton's fifth after 23 minutes.

With the knowledge that a hard game faced them on the following Monday evening at Halifax, the players were not inclined to take risks after having attained such an impregnable position, with the result that the rest of the game was a bit of an anti-climax.

In the second period what little Vale had to offer up front was easily dealt with by Luton goalkeeper Tony Read, who was making only his second appearance of the season between the sticks after 27 outings wearing the number eight shirt - during which time he added 12 goals to the cause!

The game ended with O'Rourke shooting straight at Vale keeper Sharratt from the penalty spot, thus denying himself hat-trick number five of the season, but the crowd went home happy having witnessed Everton 3 Sheffield Wednesday 2 on the television, and Luton 5 Port Vale 0 in the flesh.

Luton: Read: Thomson, Slough, Riddick, Woods, Moore, French, Reid, O'Rourke, Riach, Whittaker.

Port Vale: Sharratt, Ritchie, Sproson, James, Alcock, Boulton, Donald, Johnson, Mudie, Miles, Rowland.

HATTERS FANS WORLDWIDE!

CONTINUING our series of Luton Town fans pictured in various locations around the world, we come a little closer to home this week. After Tenerife, Chicago, Rome and Sydney, Simon Pitts has sent in a picture of himself on a wet night in Falkirk, Scotland.

He was on holiday with his parents, and the trip coincided with the Hatters' tour of Scotland where he attended all three pre-season games.

Simon has also asked us to print an appeal for a match programme he requires - the Luton v West Ham programme from the 1992/93 season.

You can contact Simon c/o Programme Editor, LTFC.

A NUMBER of former Luton Town players have been involved in transfer deals in the last week.

David Oldfield has moved to Millwall on loan from Leicester, and was due to play here on Saturday, while Kingsley Black has joined Sheffield United on a month's loan from Nottingham Forest - with a view to a permanent deal.

And two former Town players have joined Division One Burnley.

Welsh striker Kurt Nogan, who scored for Luton on his debut at Liverpool, has moved to Turf Moor for £300,000 from Brighton, where he will be joined by Steve Thompson, a £200,000 signing from Leicester. Thompson left Luton for Leicester, in the deal that saw Scott Oakes and Des Linton arrive at Kenilworth Road.

League launch the groundsman awards

WILKINSON Sword will sponsor this year's Groundsman of the Year Awards as part of their ongoing relationship with the Football League.

The awards are presented each year to recognise the tremendous efforts made by the many unsung heroes on the groundstaff at professional clubs.

Nominations will again be sought from both clubs and referees regarding the best surfaces encountered during the course of the season but, in a new departure, the judges will also consider fully the resources available to groundsmen and actual construction of pitches, before making their final decisions.

The awards are open to clubs in all three divisions of the Endsleigh League, together with those in the Premiership.

Wilkinson Sword, of course, already sponsor the 'Protector Award' which was introduced this season to recognise the goalkeeper with the best record in the Endsleigh league for each month during the campaign.

THERE are many 'ground-hoppers' who can lay claim to have visited every league stadium in the country, but there aren't many who can boast to have completed this achievement following the fortunes of just one team.

One such supporter is Blackpool Football Club's official statistician Roger Harrison, whose recent visit to second division Cambridge United's Abbey Stadium last weekend completed his trek around all 92 professional football grounds watching the Seasiders. Blackpool's flirtation with all four professional divisions in the country over the last 25 years has enabled Mr Harrison to achieve this rare feat.

THE appeal of playing at Wembley, which has been offered to fans of all Football League club through the Endsleigh Supporters' Challenge, has spread beyond these shores as evidenced by an application received last week at Lytham St Annes.

Writing from Bulawayo in Zimbabwe, Mlungisi Masuku declared his availability to play for the Charlton Athletic team in the competition. Unfortunately for Mr Masuku, his entry form was received after the representation for each club had been decided.

MATCHDAY catering staff Donna Faux and Rachel Owen certainly know their onions when it comes to the Duke of Edinburgh's Award Scheme.

Donna has successfully gained her bronze award, while Rachel gained gold in work experience as she works towards the bronze award.

Both girls attend Stopsley High School.

A warm welcome to Kenilworth Road to today's match and matchball sponsors

WELCOME to this evening's match sponsors THE ROTARY CLUB OF LUTON, and tonight's matchball sponsors THE LUTON NEWS AND LUTON LEADER NEWSPAPERS.

The Rotary Club of Luton has been serving the local community for 65 years.

It is made up of professional and business people who give their time voluntarily.

This year they are providing a van for the Luton Day Centre for the Homeless, and many other local charities and individuals in need.

The club have two chalets which can be booked for respite holidays, and organise an activity weekend for young people.

Luton Town have always been pleased to support these activities. A bucket collection made each year helps the Mayor's Christmas Appeal, and this year it raised £564.44 at the home game against Derby County in December.

Tonight the club have agreed a collection to support the Luton Signpost Projects for Homeless Adults.

The Luton News and Luton Leader are your local newspapers, with the Luton News now 103 years old, and the Leader having just celebrated its third birthday.

Both are going from strength to strength. The unique partnership between paid-for and free titles provides the very best local news coverage for Luton and Dunstable, whilst also giving local advertisers the large circulation they need with the response they want.

We thank all our sponsors for their support, and trust that they and their guests have an enjoyable evening.
