THE DRAW AT DERBY GAVE ME AS MUCH PLEASURE AS ANY WIN

OUR last two away performances saw us experience contrasting fortunes, starting with a well deserved draw against Derby when our tactical plan worked extremely well and the players worked themselves to a standstill.

Ian Feuer made two or three great saves, and we were able to take advantage of a defensive error by Derby to score the equalising goal.

Nevertheless, Derby are, in my opinion, the best team in the league and as I told the press after the game, the draw gave me as much pleasure as any win thus far.

Derby are physically strong, show good passing and movement between midfield and the front players, and we needed to be at our very best defensively to cope, which we were.

As a result of that draw, we went to Sunderland in good spirits but several pieces of misfortune led to a 1-0 defeat, which was our first in the league in nine games.

Initially, Darren Patterson, one of our most consistent performers recently, suffered a groin strain in training on Friday, and with Steve Davis out through suspension that left us without our most recent central defensive pairing.

Marvin Johnson returned to the side after a three-week absence through injury and did very well considering, whilst Julian James acquitted himself very well to his unaccustomed role at centre-half, apart from an extremely unfortunate own goal.

Sunderland never really looked like scoring, and we restricted them to two or three half chances. With a little more composure in front of goal, and good fortune, in the last five minutes we might have come away with something.

It was a day when fortune did not favour us, and indeed the most obvious illustration of this was the injury to Dwight Marshall which resulted in him having an operation on Sunday afternoon on a broken bone in his leg, and ruptured ankle ligaments.

This will rule him out for the rest of the season and beyond, but he may be fit to resume when we start pre-season training for the 96/97 campaign.

In addition, we lost Ceri Hughes at half-time with a back problem, and Richard Harvey just after the break after a bad blow on the ankle.

Combine these with various other minor knocks and bruises and I thought the players showed great spirit in the latter stages to try and save the game.

My only criticism was that we started too slowly, and possibly this was a result of our efforts at Derby.

But I can certainly say that we have in the last week acquitted ourselves very well against the sides currently first and third in this division, and have not been outplayed or outbattled.

This evening we welcome Reading, their players, officials and supporters.

Reading narrowly missed out on promotion to the Premier League last season, but have found life harder this term and we expect a tight game.

The biggest consideration for us is the number of players unavailable through injury and suspension, and it may be close to kick-off before we can finalise the team.

The depth in our squad will be tested to even greater effect in the next two games, and players who have not featured of late may come in.

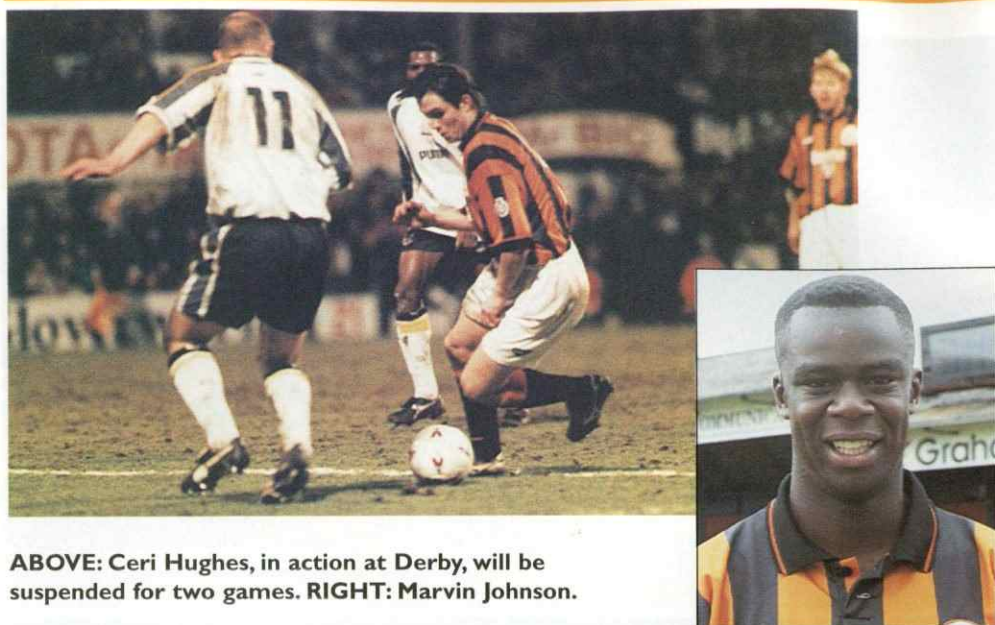

When you lose one game it is important not to lose the next, and if we can get two wins this week from our home games with Reading and Crystal Palace then I believe we will be two-thirds of the way to safety, and the spirit and commitment fostered in recent weeks will hold us in good stead.

The players have shown massive commitment and effort, and in some ways I am not sorry about possible postponements due to the cup commitments of others.

But the physical effort and commitment must be maintained if we are to show that the defeat at Sunderland was only a minor setback.

Please get behind the team this evening, especially as there may be some relatively new and unfamiliar faces in the team.

Injury agony for Hatters' leading scorer Marshall

LUTON Town's leading scorer Dwight Marshall will miss the rest of the season after suffering a severe ankle injury during Saturday's defeat at Sunderland, writes SIMON OXLEY.

Marshall was stretchered off midway through the second half after falling awkwardly in a tackle by Andy Melville, and had an operation on Sunday on a broken bone in his leg and ruptured ankle ligaments.

The striker was Luton's leading scorer last season with 13 goals, and has also bagged 13 in the current campaign.

The defeat was Luton's first in the league under Lennie Lawrence, with an unfortunate own goal from Julian James after 38 minutes proving decisive. James was playing in the centre of defence, with the injured Darren Patterson joining the suspended Steve Davis on the sidelines.

But Sunderland had on-loan keeper Shay Given to thank for securing them the three points which kept them third in Division One.

Given, on loan from Blackburn, has replaced ex-Hatter Alec Chamberlain in the Sunderland goal, and made key saves from Marshall after six minutes; from David Oldfield just before half-time; and twice from John Taylor with three minutes remaining. Norwegian striker Vidar Riseth, who replaced Marshall, had a chance to equalise in injury-time, but shot wide.

Sunderland: Given, Kubicki, Scott, Bracewell, Ball, Melville, M Gray, Ord, Russell, Howey (Bridges), Cooke. Subs not used: Agnew, Hall.

Luton: Feuer, James, Thomas, Waddock, Oldfield, Johnson, Guentchev, Hughes (Thorpe), Marshall (Riseth), Alexander, Harvey (Taylor).

Action pictures from the game at Sunderland, will appear in Saturday's Crystal Palace programme.

- Luton midfielder Ceri Hughes will be suspended for two matches, starting this Saturday, following his sending off against Millwall.

- Saturday's reserve team game against Ipswich, at Kenilworth Road, was postponed due to a waterlogged pitch.

- Reading were yesterday expected to sign midfielder Darren Caskey from Spurs, for £700,000.

LEADING THE LINE

by Club Captain STEVE DAVIS

A TWO-match suspension means I will be sitting out this evening's game against Reading, having also missed the trip to Sunderland on Saturday.

That was a real disappointment to miss the trip to play my hometown club, and it's the second year in a row I've missed out on Roker Park.

I was suspended last season when Burnley played there, so who says lightning doesn't strike twice!

I watched Sunderland as a schoolboy, and I have always wanted to play at Roker Park. But once again it was a place in the stands, and hopefully the lads continued this excellent run.

These notes are being written after our draw at Derby, which was a result we were all very pleased with. It was another solid defensive display from the whole team, with Ian Feuer making some excellent saves. I think Igor Stimac must still be wondering how Ian kept his header out!

We were disappointed to concede a goal just after half-time, but then Dwight had an opportunity to equalise and took it very well. Derby are a good side, and a draw at the Baseball Ground is no mean feat. They look as though they will go up, but as Lennie Lawrence said when he arrived at the club, we have to show promotion form to lift ourselves away from the bottom.

We are certainly doing that, and the next two games are very important in that process. At the time of writing Reading are below us, and I'm looking forward to getting back on the field against Palace on Saturday.

The spirit in the dressing room is excellent at present. The lads showed great character to beat Millwall after being reduced to 10 men, as we did at Southend earlier this season, and in the draw against Huddersfield after I was shown the red card.

Let's carry on this run and move clear of the danger area. We can't afford to relax for a moment though, and there are plenty of teams still looking anxiously over their shoulders.

Schools test for Euro 96

EURO 96 isn't just going to be a test of football skills, it will also be an examination in geography, history, art and design, music and foreign languages.

At least it will be for schools who have entered their class in a competition to celebrate this summer's European Championships.

The project, initiated by the Football Association and the National Union of Teachers with the support of Euro 96 official sponsors, Canon UK and Phillips Electronics, brings together the football theme with European awareness and will involve thousands of pupils in England and Wales.

The aim of the competition is to help young people develop their interest and understanding of the competing countries and also to create, through cross-curricular work, more positive attitudes towards the people of Europe.

Schools have been invited to enter one class to produce a piece of work on the theme of Euro 96 ranging from written work to design and music which relates to the country of their choice. The winners will receive Final tickets, plus products from Canon and Phillips.

FROM THE SECRETARY'S CHAIR with Cherry Newbery

THE on-going fixture chaos continues to involve Luton Town, with several of our forthcoming opponents involved in rearranged FA Cup and Anglo-Italian Cup games.

The match at Port Vale on Tuesday, March 5, a week tonight, has been postponed because Port Vale will now be playing the second leg of their 'English' Anglo-Italian Cup Final against West Brom.

Port Vale's position has been complicated by their FA Cup run, which has also involved a number of replays.

At the time of writing we were trying to organise a new date, and I will also remind you that if Port Vale reach the final at Wembley, then our home game against them on March 16 will also be postponed.

Tomorrow, Huddersfield play their FA Cup fifth round replay against Wimbledon at Selhurst Park. If Huddersfield progress to the sixth round, then our trip to Yorkshire on March 9 will be postponed.

I appreciate there is relatively short notice for many of these postponements, but we will do our best to keep you informed of any new dates via the local newspapers, radio stations and on our own ClubCall service.

Reserve team games are now back at Kenilworth Road until further notice, and there are still several Avon Insurance Combination games to be rearranged.

The youth team will finally play their Eastern Junior Floodlit Cup game against Cambridge City on Tuesday, March 26, kick-off 7.30pm here at Kenilworth Road.

LTFC require a matchday car park supervisor to start work as soon as possible. For further details, please contact Cherry Newbery, here at the club, on (01582) 411622.

Come on you Hatters, we need you to get behind LES MILLER, our club runner for the Flora London Marathon's Football Challenge on April 21.

Les will be lining up on the startline with runners from 100 other football clubs from the FA Carling Premiership, Endsleigh and Scottish Premier leagues to tackle the 26.2 mile course.

The Flora London Marathon will award a prize to the winning runner from each football league and to the club runner who raises the most for charity.

Can you help Les in his fundraising efforts? Please contact Simon Oxley, at Luton Town Football Club.

If you are a Milton Keynes-based Hatters fan who finds difficulty in travelling to home games then the Bletchley Hatters Club could be the answer to your problems.

They can offer coach travel to all Luton Town home matches from various pick-up points in Bletchley, Bow Brickhill, Woburn Sands and Aspley Guise.

For further information, and bookings, please telephone Milton Keynes (01908) 377750.

OFFERS are invited for an autographed football, signed by Luton's Littlewoods Cup winning squad of 1988 - a special memento of a memorable day for Hatters fans.

And it's all for a good cause, as the money received from the highest bidder will go towards fundraising for St Mary's Church, at Walkern, near Stevenage.

Bids should be made by contacting Nancy Soames on 01438 861217.

A Hatter and a Royal.....

KERRY DIXON was probably destined to turn out for the Hatters at some time in his career, but he certainly went on a circuitous route before ending up at Kenilworth Road.

Born in the town and with an ex-Luton pro as a father we were given every chance to snap him up as a schoolboy, but he slipped through the net and after further trials at Tottenham ended up at Southern League Dunstable where he blossomed into a deadly striker.

Although slightly disillusioned with league football, Dixon went out to prove people wrong joining Reading in 1980, and in three years at Elm Park averaged almost a goal every two games which, of course, brought the big clubs sniffing around.

The big move eventually came in 1983 when a cheque for £175,000 changed hands as Dixon joined Chelsea, to enjoy almost nine years of almost unbroken success.

A cult hero at Stamford Bridge he scored 147 league goals, earned eight England caps, as well as other representative honours during his time there.

It was a surprise when he was allowed to join Southampton for £575,000 in 1992, and he never settled on the south coast.

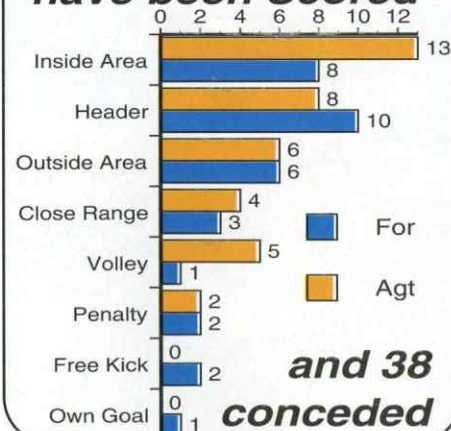

Instead he came back to his spiritual home of Kenilworth Road a few months later - initially on loan.

In 75 league appearances for the Town he notched 19 goals before being allowed to join Millwall a year ago for a fee of £5,000. Recently transferred again to Watford, we will doubtless see him again at Kenilworth Road shortly! - ROGER WASH.

DWIGHT Marshall fires home the equaliser in Wednesday's 1-1 draw at Derby - his 13th goal of the season.
Picture: ANDY HANDLEY

Time to close the gap with the man in black!

PERHAPS the saddest aspect of the scene this season is the credibility gap which appears to have grown - and even widened as the months go by - between the professional game on one hand and referees on the other.

It seems that not a week elapses without a manager or player criticising, usually in strong terms, either individual decisions, aspects of consistency, or the ability or fitness of the men in green and black.

Sometimes there is a repost, either officially, or more modestly in columns like this, but not a lot is done to bring the two sides together.

Indeed, mention of sides brings me to the whole point at issue, which is that everyone in the game should be on the same side.

But, because there is a perception that the three teams on the field (two sets of players, plus the referee and linesmen and the fourth official) are in competition, whatever goes wrong must be the fault of the smaller group.

In the same way that players make mistakes on the field, and managers and coaches make errors of judgement in tactics off it, so the referee and linesmen will also err.

We are told that to err is human, but the way some verbal attacks are made on officials casts doubt in that direction and it is made to look as if some zombie has got hold of a whistle or a flag with the intent of ruining the match.

It is interesting that most of the people questioned after such verbal attacks - when it is put to them - indicate that they themselves would not do the referee's job. So where does all this lead us?

Surely the answer should be that everyone must get closer together, so that respect and confidence can be achieved.

There are certain small ways in which this can be done, with a little alteration in administrative rules and some humility on all sides.

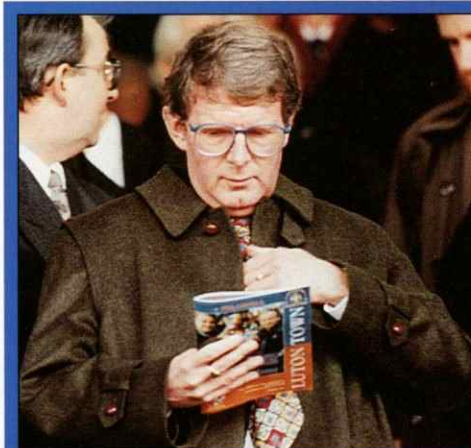

For example, managers could make a greater effort to attend monthly referees' society meetings, to talk to them, and to encourage players to similarly attend.

Then there is the question of consistency of decision, which, as has been previously mentioned, has been the subject over the last two seasons for get-togethers of Premiership referees on the Saturday before an international, when there are no league matches.

Why can't managers and coaches be invited along so that they can see filmed incidents and vote on whether a particular incident was a foul - and if so, what kind of foul and what should be the punishment?

Finally, since most YTS and trainee players have to study and presumably pass 'Laws of the Game' tests in their formative years, it would be helpful if they were given refresher courses, perhaps once a season.

Rapport is an over-used word, but it is one which will have to be constantly in the minds of all sections of the game if we are to close the gap rather than see it further widened.

BBC commentator JOHN MOTSON was a guest at the recent home game with Millwall, and is pictured catching up with all the news from Kenilworth Road in the LTFC match programme.

INJURY UPDATE.....

with LTFC physio Clive Goodyear

A RELATIVELY quiet week in the treatment room, with Scott Oakes our major absentee although he has resumed full training after a back injury.

In fact Scott was hoping to play for the reserve side at Kenilworth Road on Saturday against Ipswich, weather permitting, in a bid to regain match fitness and he could come into consideration for tonight's game, and/or Saturday's home match against Crystal Palace.

Marvin Johnson has shown no ill effects following his return to full training after a hamstring injury, and was due to play at Sunderland.

Aaron Skelton is close to resuming full training after severe bruising to his left knee.

Other than that it is just the usual bumps and bruises, which augurs well for the busy schedule ahead.

A KEEN Tranmere Rovers supporter seeks programmes for any first/reserve/youth team games plus cuppies, testimonials and friendlies home and away (in good condition) played between Luton and Tranmere between 1960/61 and the present day. Will pay reasonable prices. Please write, enclosing full list of items available for sale to: Miss A Carrington, 31 Highfield Crescent, Rock Ferry, Birkenhead, Merseyside, L42 2DP.

SCOTT OAKES was hoping to play for the reserves on Saturday.

LEARNING THROUGH FOOTBALL

HALFWAY through the 1995/96 academic year, approximately 750 Bedfordshire schoolchildren have so far enjoyed a day at Kenilworth Road, becoming involved in the 'Learning through Football' project currently sponsored by the Daily Star, writes scheme co-ordinator MAURICE DAWSON.

The 9-11 year olds have come from Hillborough, Norton Road, Tennyson Road, Foxdell, Beechwood Road, St Josephs, Icknield, Farley, Dallow, Beech Hill, Winlock, Sacred Heart and Waulud Junior Schools in Luton, but Middle Schools have also been well represented with groups attending from Woodside School at Bedford, Burgoyne at Potton, Parkfields at Toddington, Brewers Hill and Mill Vale at Dunstable, and Arnold from Barton.

The 'Learning through Football' project has proved very popular with schools throughout the county. Every available Tuesday and Thursday up to the Easter holiday has been booked by other schools, but there are many vacancies right through the summer term, and consequently it is hoped that no schools wishing to become involved need be disappointed.

All enquiries should be made by letter or telephone to Maurice at 27 Pegsdon Close, Luton, LU3 2LG, telephone (01582) 654145.

We aim to provide all children who visit

Kenilworth Road with an enjoyable and educational day, during which they will learn the history of the club from its formation in 1885, tackle mathematical assignments relating to football, and write about their experiences.

The 'lessons' are interspersed with visits to many parts of the club not normally seen by visitors, whereby children discover just what makes a football club tick.

Not least in importance is the likelihood of the children meeting players and other staff, all of whom make them very welcome.

A high percentage of our local children seem to support league clubs other than Luton Town when they arrive at the ground, but by the time they leave some are swearing allegiance to their new found club!

Time will tell whether they become loyal supporters of the Hatters.

A BIG thank-you to everyone who has attended the Half-Term coaching courses which, despite the weather, have proved popular, with schools from across the region hosting one and two-day sessions.

We will shortly be announcing details of our Easter Holiday courses, so look out for those dates and venues in forthcoming programmes.

AT half-time in the game against Southend, we introduced the Luton Town FC Penalty Challenge as part of your half-time entertainment - a competition organised in conjunction with The Windowcraft Chiltern Youth Football League.

The clubs in the competition, which covers the age groups of Under 10, Under 11 and Under 12, have held their own penalty shoot-outs to select their champion to represent them here at Kenilworth Road.

The penalty competition will resume at half-time on Saturday during the game against Crystal Palace.

For details of community events, or for details about a coaching course at your school, contact: Football in the Community, LTFC, Kenilworth Road Stadium, 1 Maple Road, Luton, Beds, LU4 8AW, or telephone on (01582) 411622.

RESERVES & YOUTH ROUND-UP

WITH TREVOR PEAKE AND JOHN MOORE

THE Town's reserve side has enjoyed mixed fortunes in the last week, with a home win over Brighton, at Hitchin, and an away defeat to Charlton - a game played at Welling.

Against Brighton, Dwight Marshall gave the Hatters a 1-0 interval lead, with Norwegian striker Vidar Riseth sealing the game in the final minute.

Team: Davis, Linton (Woodsford), Harvey, Power, Simpson, Peake, Chenery, Oldfield, Riseth, Marshall (Kean), Vilstrup.

Sub not used: Willmott.

The reserves travelled to Welling last Wednesday to encounter Charlton, and a frostbound pitch, with the home side winning 2-0.

Team: Davis, Linton, Chenery, Power, Simpson, Peake, McLaren, Kean, Douglas, J Thomas, Vilstrup.

Subs not used: Turner, Willmott, Evers.

The reserves were due to entertain Ipswich at Kenilworth Road on Saturday, and return to action at home to Wimbledon next week.

The youth team beat Wimbledon 3-2 last Saturday, with goals from Steve Augustine, Robert Kean and Stuart Douglas.

Team: Abbey, Turner, Sweeney, Evers, Willmott, Upson, Augustine, Kean, Fotiadis, Douglas, Spring.

Subs: Smith, Barr, Doherty.

But the youngsters went down 4-1 at Oxford in Monday's rearranged league game - Andrew Barr getting the only Luton goal.

Team: Webb, Lawes, Smith, Sweeney, Boyce, Upson, Augustine, Bryson, Barr, George, Cox.

Subs: Peterkin, Doherty, Cornwall.

THEY SAID IT!

on LUTON TOWN CLUBCALL

"MILLWALL have a new manager and obviously their players will be keen to impress.

"This is a different game to last week when in truth Grimsby were halfway through an epic cup tie as it turned out, so it was not a bad time to play them.

"I don't know whether it's a good time to play Millwall or not because a new manager will effect a change, but all we can do is set our stall out, get our game right, and go from there." LENNIE LAWRENCE

speaking before the game against Millwall.

"MARVIN will come in for Steve Davis at Sunderland, and I said at the start when I came here that we were going to need them all and we will now. Basically we have been playing one game a week, and now we are going to be playing four out of the next five midweek games, as well as Saturdays.

"Now is the test, now is the time and we are going to need everyone. It will start with suspensions like Steve's, then we'll get a couple of injuries and you'll be surprised how many you will use. We will have to juggle." LENNIE LAWRENCE on the benefits of a large squad ahead of a busy schedule.

SAFETY NOTE

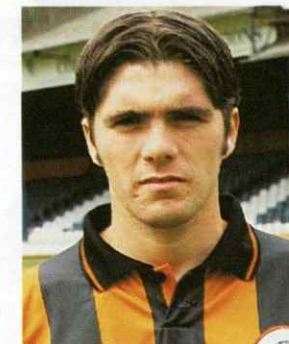

The Chairman and Directors of Luton Town Football Club undertake to ensure as far as humanly possible that all activities that take place at the Kenilworth Stadium are conducted in such a way that, as far as is reasonably practicable, the safety of everyone working at or attending that stadium is assured.

The club's primary responsibility through the Safety Officer, Officials, Staff and Stewards will be to ensure the reasonable safety of those attending the stadium.

In the interests of public safety, the safety authority (Beds County Council) have imposed a NO SMOKING restriction in and beneath our main stand. Your co-operation is appreciated.

"THE lads showed great spirit after going down to 10 men, and over the 90 minutes we created the best chances.

"When the penalty came I was quite confident about taking it because I take them for the reserves, but it was still a relief to see it go in." TONY THORPE
after the win against Millwall.

"IT was a solid performance because although Millwall had plenty of possession they didn't create many chances and our defence is looking stronger.

Players have been missing at various times, but others have slotted in, like Darren moving across into the centre of the defence with Marvin injured." MITCHELL THOMAS
after the win against Millwall.

"DERBY represent the ultimate test this league can offer, a difficult test but one which I am looking forward to. I want to see what our players can come up with individually and as a team to combat Derby." LENNIE LAWRENCE

Ten-man Royals pressure promoted Town

by ROGER WASH

5 YEARS AGO

2/3/91: It was now two wins in a row as a goal from Iain Dowie saw off Nottingham Forest at Kenilworth Road, in front of a crowd of 9,577. We were now up to the heady heights of 14th position in Division One.

10 YEARS AGO

22/2/86: With his third goal in five appearances for the Town, since his signing from Wigan, Mike Newell enabled us to gain another priceless point in a 1-1 draw at QPR.

15 YEARS AGO

1/3/81: The first ever Sunday fixture for the Town ended in a 0-0 draw at Orient, watched by an above average, but bored, crowd of 8,074.

20 YEARS AGO

28/2/76: After a month without a home game, the Town entertained league leaders Sunderland at Kenilworth Road. A crowd of 15,338 saw a famous Luton victory courtesy of a strike from Ron Fletcher, and an own goal from Bob Moncur.

LEFT: Injury-prone winger Mike Harrison was forced to leave the field against Reading in 1968.

FOLLOWING promotion from Division Four in 1968, the Town started off the new campaign like a train and were unbeaten in their first eight games as they emerged as early leaders of the table.

In that golden autumn the die was cast for a tremendous home record with Oldham, Rotherham, Barnsley, Tranmere and Mansfield all leaving Kenilworth Road following heavy defeats in front of increasingly larger crowds. It is difficult to imagine now that a crowd of below 15,000 was regarded as small, and that was in Division Three!

After the first defeat of the season, at Brighton, the early promise started to fall apart as, although the home record was still excellent, the away form was abysmal with defeat after defeat putting pressure on the players to perform at Kenilworth Road.

After seven straight away defeats the gloom was lifted slightly when the first visit to Northampton for league points since 1936/37, saw a couple of goals from Bruce Rioch earn us a well deserved 2-0 win. The crowd of 15,161 included a mass of scouts looking at the sharp shooting inside forward.

Unfortunately Rioch's and the Town's season took another turn for the worse when the player was badly injured in the next home game, against Walsall, with the result that the customary away defeat the following week at lowly Crewe was seen as the end to any promotion aspirations the team may have had.

Reading were the next visitors to Kenilworth Road and a crowd of 'only' 11,871 turned up on a cold February day to see if the Town could at least maintain their unbeaten home record. Ian Buxton continued to deputise for the injured Rioch, while Graham French returned to the side at the expense of new signing from QPR, Mike Keen.

As it turned out, the Town got off to a flying start when Alan Slough put us into the lead in the third minute with a great drive after his first attempt had been blocked, and had bounced straight back to him. The joy of the crowd was soon stilled however, when the injury prone winger Mike Harrison had to leave the field after 10 minutes, with yet another pulled muscle.

French on the other wing though was having a field day, beating the Reading fullback Alan Hitchcock, who was making only his second league appearance, at will, and putting over a string of teasing crosses for Brian Lewis and Keith Allen in the box.

The Town increased their lead just before half-time when Allen was brought down in the area by Ernie Yard, and Lewis made no mistake from the spot.

The second period saw Reading rely on spoiling tactics and physical play, and Dave Bacuzzi was lucky to receive only a booking for a foul on Buxton. The Town were not entirely blameless however, with Lewis antagonising defenders as only he could.

Dick Spiers had been with Reading since the mid-1950s and had never been sent off, but all that changed when he brought down Lewis, and in all honesty the retaliation was understandable.

As so often happens, the 10 men fought like 12, and Reading pulled a goal back just before the end, and the Town were lucky to hold on to take both points.

Although we did not know it at the time, this game was a turning point in the season, and by the time of the return, six weeks later, we had moved up to third place in the table following four straight wins, including two away from home, at Bournemouth and Oldham.

The game at Reading was played on a miserable March evening with thick fog shrouding Elm Park, and thick mud underfoot, and although I was there it was difficult to see much of what was going on, and if the ball was over on the far side of the pitch reliance had to be made on the shouts of the unseen spectators.

It was a night for the brave and both sides showed great determination with a reshuffled Luton defence ably marshalled by Max Dougan, deputising as captain for Terry Branston, making sure that the Reading forwards did not pass.

Reading did though open the scoring on the hour, with a soft header from John Sainty that skidded under Luton goalkeeper Sandie Davie.

The Town fought back however, and a minute later Laurie Sheffield took advantage of a loose ball in the box and ended up firing home into an empty net.

Despite some scares at both ends and some fine saves from Davie, the game finished all square with another point in the bag as the Town closed on the leaders.

For the record, we went another eight games unbeaten but were unable to overtake the top two, Swindon and Watford.

The early away form had cost us dear, and promotion would have to wait until the following season!

Luton (first game): Davie, Dougan, Bannister, Slough, Branston, Moore, French, Buxton, Allen, Lewis, Harrison (McDerment).

(second game): Davie, Dougan, Bannister, McDerment, Slough, Moore, French, Allen, Sheffield, Lewis, Jardine.

Reading (first game): Brown, Bacuzzi, Spiers, Thornhill, Hitchcock, Yard, Allen, Collins, Sainty, Silvester, Harris.

(second game): Brown, Bacuzzi, Meldrum, Yard, Spiers, Thornhill, Docherty, Sainty, Silvester, Collins, Harris.

ENDSLEIGH LEAGUE NEWS ROUND-UP

Endsleigh clubs get 'Fair Play' incentive

THE Football Association will once again this season put forward a £30,000 incentive for clubs across the three divisions of the Endsleigh Insurance League to reward attractive play and discourage misconduct on the field.

Introduced in season 1993/94, the FA Fair Play Awards scheme incorporates the principle of a fair play league - reflecting the conduct of players - and combines this with the more positive aspects of a team's performance - scoring goals.

Points are awarded on a debit and credit basis with the FA Fair Play awards going to the club in each division of the Football League who finishes the season with the highest credit balance.

The divisional winners of the FA Fair Play Awards will be determined by who finishes at the top of a series of merit tables, with £10,000 going to each of the three successful clubs.

Sides will be credited with points by virtue of goals scored - two points for goals scored at home and four points for away goals. However, points will be deducted for players either cautioned (one point) or dismissed (two points).

The merit order in the three FA Fair Play tables will then be determined by the balance of points for each club. Only regular Endsleigh League matches will be taken into consideration, to ensure that clubs' playing records are based on an equal number of games.

If clubs finish level on points, the following criteria determine the winners: 1) The club with fewer players sent off. 2) The club with the fewer players cautioned. 3) The club who has scored the highest number of goals (home and away).

Prior to the matches on February 10, the top five clubs in Division One were Ipswich, Norwich, Leicester, Derby and Stoke, with balances ranging from +94 to +79.

Genoa book Wembley final place

ITALIAN giants Genoa secured their passage through to the Anglo-Italian Cup Final last week at their Italia '90 Luigi Ferraris Stadium thanks to a 5-0 Italian Final aggregate victory over Serie B counterparts Cesena.

Genoa's 1-0 win at home last Thursday built on their 4-0 advantage from the first leg in Cesena a week before, and they now prepare for an encounter at Wembley Stadium on March 16 or 17 with the winners of the English Final between West Brom and Port Vale.

The Baggies and Vale were due to play the first leg of that final at The Hawthorns on Saturday, following a number of earlier postponements.

A reminder to Luton fans that if Port Vale reach the Wembley final it will mean the postponement of the Hatters' home league game against John Rudge's side on March 16.

It's Serie un-Believable! And you thought Div I was close!

THE four teams we encountered earlier this season in the Anglo-Italian Cup are all bidding for promotion from Italy's Serie B to the top flight Serie A.

Yet it could also be argued that all four could still be relegated as just six points separates the promotion places from the drop into Serie C.

Cesena, who beat the Hatters 2-1 in Italy in November, currently head Serie B, with Ancona, beaten 5-0 here at Kenilworth Road a month later, also in a promotion place.

Behind them on goal difference are Perugia, who won here 4-1 in September, with Genoa eighth.

The latter, on the basis of the 4-0 victory against Luton in October, would be regarded by the many Hatters fans who were in the magnificent Luigi Ferraris stadium that night as surely favourites to reclaim their place alongside the likes of Milan, Inter, Lazio and company at the first attempt.

But while Genoa are eighth, they are just four points

Luton's opponents in this season's Anglo-Italian Cup - Cesena, Ancona, Perugia and Genoa - are among the teams contesting Italy's Serie B, where nine points separate 19 of the 20 teams, as SIMON OXLEY reports.

behind leaders Cesena, although Luton fans may also be surprised to learn that the Czech international Tomas Skuhravy, who scored the opener in that 4-0 triumph, has been released by the club.

Genoa have though won through to the final of the Anglo-Italian Cup, to be played at Wembley next month (see left for details), although they slipped up in their first league game of this month with a 0-0 draw at bottom club Pistoiese, probably the only team ruled out of the promotion picture!

Johnson joins Wigan after two-month loan

DEFENDER Gavin Johnson has completed a £30,000 move to Division Three side Wigan Athletic, after a two-month loan spell at Springfield Park.

The 25-year-old joined Luton Town in the summer, after being given a free transfer by Ipswich Town at the end of last season.

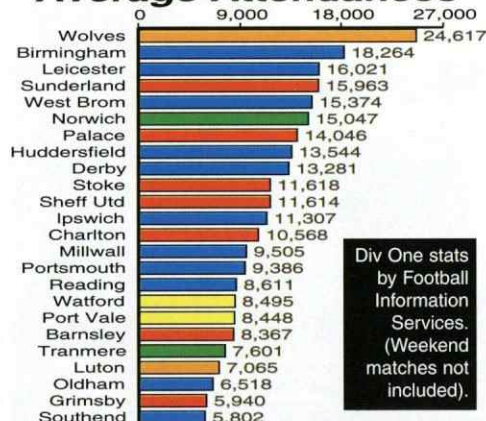

He had been at Portman Road since leaving school, and made 160 first-team appearances for Ipswich, including 20 in the Premier League last term.

Gavin scored the goal which sealed the Division Two championship for Ipswich in May 1992, and then bagged their first goal in the new Premier League in August of that year.

After moving to Kenilworth Road he played just five full league games, with two substitute appearances.

WIN TICKETS FOR YOUR JUNIOR TEAM

ACD HORNETS, our January Junior Team of the Month award winners, were our guests at last Saturday's game against Millwall, and are pictured below.

And in this Saturday's match programme we will be announcing our winners for February.

The Loyal Luton Supporters Club have once again teamed up with Luton Town to offer junior teams in the area the chance to watch a Hatters home match absolutely free.

The fans have successfully applied for a grant from the National Westminster Bank, as part of the bank's community programme, and, supported by the Football Club, wish to donate tickets for youngsters in the area to try and attract new supporters to Kenilworth Road.

The winning team will be selected from nominations, and is not just aimed at the teams at the top of the leagues.

Managers or parents should write to the club telling them why their team should be the Team of the Month. It may be that you recorded a first win, or only lost narrowly to the top side in your league. Nominations should be sent to: Junior Team Award, c/o Simon Oxley, LTFC, Kenilworth Stadium, 1 Maple Road, Luton, Beds.

LTFC EVACUATION PROCEDURE

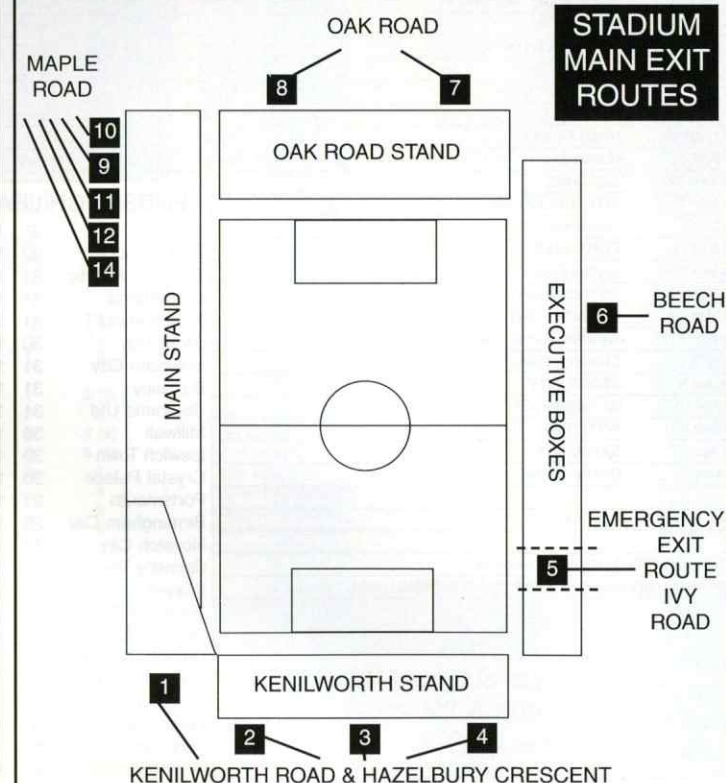

IN the event of any emergencies at Luton Town Football Club, the emergency services and the club have agreed on an evacuation policy which is designed to:

- Ensure the safe and controlled evacuation of the ground.
- Ensure the dispersal of the crowd from the area to allow the emergency services to carry out their tasks.

In the event on an evacuation of all or part of the stadium, you will receive instructions over the public address system on how you should leave the stadium. Stewards will direct you to the nearest exit. It may be that your normal exit route will not be available.

On leaving the stadium, you will find some roads closed to pedestrian traffic, to enable swift and unobstructed arrival of the emergency services.

Please leave the area of the ground as quickly as possible by the route directed. Your co-operation will be most appreciated.
GEOFF LOVELL,
Safety Manager.
