v CREWE ALEXANDRA

Div Two Play-Off Semi-Final 2nd leg
Wednesday, May 14, 1997, ko 7.45pm

From the manager's chair

with LENNIE LAWRENCE

AND so to the next dramatic stage in the battle for promotion.

Tonight's action will hopefully be the second to last act in a play that has been running since last August.

No doubt there will be dramas, fortune and misfortune aplenty, but we can only hope that at the end of it all we move on to the final act on the great stage at Wembley.

Sunday's game at Crewe was a game of wildly contrasting fortunes.

We picked a team to try and win the game, and after David Oldfield's third minute opener, and several other chances in the opening 25 minutes, it looked as though we could achieve just that in spite of the loss of Gary Waddock after 10 minutes through injury, which led to considerable reorganisation in the midfield.

One-nil up at half-time, all things considered, was a satisfactory return from 45 minutes effort, but the second half was to be a different story.

Yet again it illustrated the totally unpredictable nature of this game, as well as the dramatic content of most play-off games.

Crewe equalised; Julian James was sent off for two bookable offences; and Crewe then scored again - all within a 15 minute period which transformed the game completely.

We then had to reorganise once again, and to say our team in the last half hour had an unfamiliar look and shape would easily be the understatement of this season so far.

Nevertheless, a combination of hard work, luck and determination saw us somehow fail to fall further behind in the game, thus leaving us in a situation where we just need to win the game tonight.

At 4.10pm on Sunday things looked bleak. At 4.45pm things looked a lot better. But make no mistake, despite the fact that the shape of the team was totally unfamiliar in the last half hour due to various circumstances, we will not again get away with what occurred in that last half hour.

The fact that we did not fall further behind owed as much to Crewe not turning the screw and, luckily for us, Adebola hitting the post with 10 minutes to go.

Hopefully we will not find ourselves down to 10 men tonight, but we will certainly need to improve on our second half performance at Crewe, regardless of the circumstances in which we find ourselves.

It was a respectable effort for a normal league game with so many players out of position, but not good enough for a play-off game where the stakes are so high and the prize so great.

This evening then we welcome Crewe, their players, officials and supporters, and their long-serving manager Dario Gradi.

Crewe are in a play-off for the fifth time in six years, and their third consecutively in this league.

It is a pity in some ways that the two clubs are not contesting the final at Wembley, as it would certainly be an excellent football match.

Tonight we require a massive physical effort and a belief that we can beat Crewe again, and a mental resolve to make sure that Crewe are tested to the utmost in every respect. Then if they manage to progress to the final we can only say good luck to them.

All the players must do what they can do. The team must pull together physically and mentally. Minor injuries, tiredness, frustration, anger and disappointment must all be overcome and put in their place for us to succeed.

Managers say that the tables do not lie at the completion of a normal league programme, and that is certainly true. But the nature of this competition means it comes down to one game that must be won.

I believe we can do it, the players believe we can do it, and hopefully you the fans believe it also, and will help us cross the threshold.

Thank you for your support this season and we hope to see you at Wembley next Sunday.

Ceri Hughes is ruled out after his hernia operation, and Julian James is now suspended for this match and, at the time of writing, for the final as well. There are other knocks and bruises, but these will have to be coped with.

As I'm sure you will be aware by now, the transfer of Matthew Upson to Arsenal was completed last week, for a fee of £1 million guaranteed, with a further £1 million based on appearances, and other 'add-ons' which will net the club £2-3 million if Matthew fulfils his potential at Premier League level - which I'm sure he is capable of.

Not many years ago, a young player would have played two or three years in the first team to get such a move.

More recently that has become one year to 18 months, and now with the money available to Premier League clubs they will buy players with potential who have not even appeared in league football.

From our point of view two factors affected my decision to recommend a sale to the board of directors.

First was a conversation I had with Matthew and his father where they indicated, quite understandably, that if there was the possibility of a move to a Premier League club, even at this early stage in his career, they would be keen to take it up.

Second was the dictates of our financial situation. The directors have been tremendously supportive of our promotion campaign through the season in that they have not required me to sell a player to offset our losses. I felt this was a good opportunity to remedy that, regardless of our fate in the play-offs.

In a way I would have liked Matthew to have played here for a season, but with the shadow of the Bosman ruling hanging over everybody, I felt it was in everyone's best interests to conclude the deal now.

Matthew is an extremely talented player with unlimited potential, as well as being a super lad. One day there is every possibility he could play for England. I would like to take this opportunity to wish him well at Arsenal, and I hope he gains great success and recognition in the game.

ALL six play-off ties are evenly poised going into tonight's second leg matches, writes SIMON OXLEY.

In Division One, Crystal Palace are the best placed side as they take a 3-1 advantage to Molineux for the second leg against Wolves.

Former Barnet striker Dougie Freedman scored two of their goals on Saturday in a dramatic finale at Selhurst Park.

Neil Shipperley had put Palace 1-0 in front, with Freedman's first making it 2-0 on 89 minutes.

Jamie Smith pulled a vital goal back for Wolves, but Freedman scored again in injury time to make Steve Coppell's side favourites to progress to Wembley.

In the other first division match, Ipswich drew 1-1 at Sheffield United, with Mick Stockwell equalising Jan Age Fjortoft's opener.

In Division Two, Brentford continued their excellent away form with a 2-1 win at Bristol City.

Paul Smith put them in front, with Gary Owers equalising for Bristol. But Robert Taylor gave the Bees victory with a 30th minute header.

However, David Webb's side will have to do without the services of leading scorer Carl Asaba in tonight's second leg, as he was sent off five minutes from time on Sunday for a second bookable offence.

Luton's Julian James suffers a similar fate after being shown two yellow cards at Crewe.

The Hatters had taken a third minute lead through David Oldfield, but Mark Rivers equalised and then MITCHELL Thomas joins the attack during Sunday's first leg at Gresty Road. There's more action on pages 16 and 17.

Colin Little put the home side in front midway through the second half.

Inbetween the two goals, James received his marching orders, but Crewe could only score once against the 10 men, and saw a late effort from Dele Adebola hit the post.

In Division Three, Northampton dealt a blow to the prospects of an all-Welsh final with a 1-0 win at Cardiff.

In the other semi-final, Jan Molby's Swansea drew 0-0 at Chester.

TONIGHT'S MATCH

IF THE AGGREGATE SCORES ARE LEVEL AT THE END OF 90 MINUTES, THERE WILL BE 30 MINUTES OF EXTRA-TIME. IF THE AGGREGATE SCORES ARE STILL LEVEL, THE AWAY GOALS RULE WILL COUNT. IF THE SCORES ARE STILL LEVEL THE GAME WILL BE DECIDED BY PENALTIES.

FRONT COVER: I'm sure all Town fans would echo the sentiments on this supporter's rosette at Gresty Road on Sunday.

LEADING THE LINE

by Club Captain
STEVE DAVIS

LEFT: Andrew Fotiadis gets in a second-half shot during Luton's 2-1 defeat at Crewe on Sunday.

DESPITE Sunday's disappointment we still feel we have every chance of making it to Wembley in tonight's second leg.

We were by no means at our best at Gresty Road, and with the various reshuffles that were needed before and during the game, we were probably lucky to only lose by one goal.

David's early goal was a great start, but the injury to Gary Waddock and Julian James's sending off meant a certain amount of chopping and changing.

We kept Crewe at bay for the most part, and might have even snatched an equaliser ourselves, but at the halfway point as it were, we are very much in the game.

But whatever the situation there is always plenty to play for in the second leg.

I know from previous experience that wins can be gained in these semi-finals from unlikely positions. In my Burnley days we went to Plymouth and won 3-1 after being held 0-0 at home, and in this division last season Bradford won 3-0 at Blackpool after losing 2-0 at home. We know we are capable of overturning this deficit, and it promises to be an exciting evening. Crewe have had plenty of play-off experience themselves in recent seasons, and are a good side. But don't forget the pressure is very much on BOTH sides this evening. An early goal would certainly help our cause, and I'm sure we can count on some tremendous vocal support once again.

Thanks for your support throughout this season, and let's hope there is one more game to come!

LEE UNSWORTH - Moved to Crewe from non-league in 1994/95.

PETER BILLING - Now in his second spell with the club, having started at Everton before a first move to Gresty Road. Went on to Coventry, Port Vale and Hartlepool before rejoining Crewe in the summer.

JASON KEARTON - Australian keeper ruled out with an achilles injury in recent weeks. Made his debut in October, after being released by Everton.

MEET THE MANAGER

DARIO GRADI is now the longest serving manager in either the Premier or the Football League, having taken over at Gresty Road in the summer of 1983, after holding several positions previously.

Started out with Sutton United, alongside Lennie Lawrence in the Surrey Coaches Association, before becoming a coach at Chelsea, later moving to Derby County.

His first managerial appointment was at Wimbledon and he took them to promotion, followed by short spells at Crystal Palace and Orient, before he headed north to Crewe.

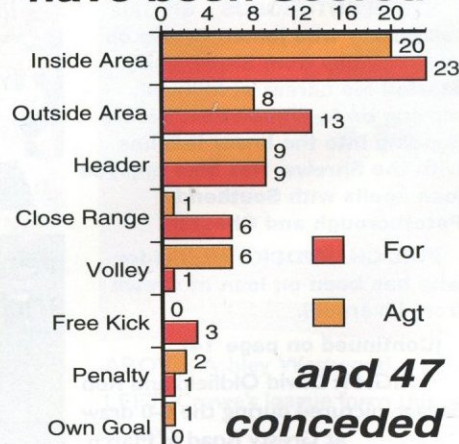

Since his arrival at Gresty Road he has developed a fine youth policy, with a number of players progressing to represent their country.

Former England captain David Platt made his league debut at Crewe; Liverpool defender Rob Jones was a YTS player at Gresty Road, and last season Neil Lennon joined Leicester for a club record £750,000 after becoming a Northern Ireland regular.

NEIL BAKER is Gradi's assistant manager, and is now in his third season in that role.

He was previously manager of Leek Town for eight years, and his extensive knowledge of non-league football has proved a great asset to the club.

How 56 Goals have been Scored

A Hatter and a Railwayman....

TONY POUNDER was turning out for Atlas Sports, a local works side in his native Sheffield, when the Town's scout in the area spotted him, and after a lot of persuasion encouraged him to move south.

He signed professional forms for the Town on Boxing Day 1955.

After a few appearances for both the 'A' team and the reserves he made his first team debut against Portsmouth at Kenilworth Road in April 1956 in a 1-0 win.

A fast, direct right winger he had difficulty in claiming a regular place in the side, and was regarded as third in line behind Mike Cullen and Roy Davies.

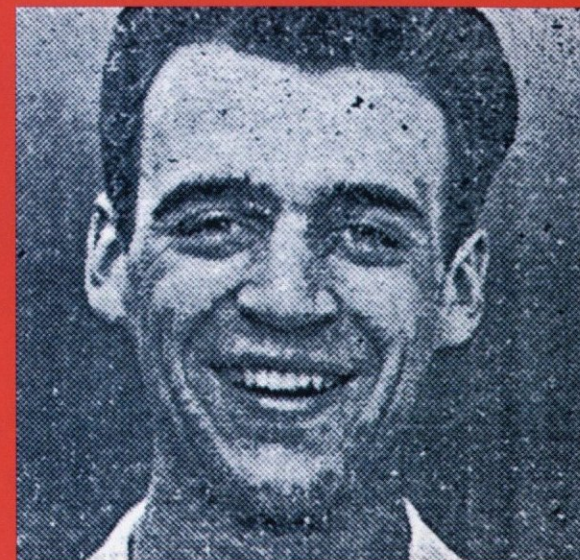

He made two appearances in the first team in 1956/57, and due to the competition was allowed to move to Coventry in June 1957.

After only six months and six appearances at Highfield Road he was on his way again, this time to Crewe where he enjoyed an extended run in the first team over the next 18 months.

Bowing out of the Football League in 1959, Pounder moved to Yeovil where he was a regular for seven years in their Southern League side, and then finished his career at Dorchester in 1966.

His Yeovil-born son, also Tony, turned out many times for Bristol Rovers and more recently Hereford United. - ROGER WASH.

Hatters and Railwaymen are indeed few and far between. In December's home league programme we highlighted the career of striker Mike Newell, who made his league debut for the Gresty Road side after leaving Liverpool where he was on the books as a junior.

He left Crewe on a free transfer to join Wigan, and then moved to Luton in 1986 for £90,000. He has since played for Leicester, Everton, Blackburn and Birmingham, and finished this season at Bradford.

FROM DELIGHT TO DESPAIR

Town stars recall play-off dramas

Two of the current Town squad achieved play-off success in this division last season - helping Bradford City progress into Division One.

ANDY KIWOMYA played in both semi-final matches against Blackpool, and the final win over Notts County, with PAUL SHOWLER also part of the Bantams' squad.

The win over Blackpool was one of the most remarkable in the history of the play-offs, with the Tangerines winning the first leg 2-0 at Valley Parade only to lose 3-0 at home.

For Paul Showler the victory made up for the disappointment of play-off defeat to Blackpool in 1992, in the 'old' Division Four, when his Barnet side lost 2-0 at Blackpool after a 1-0 first leg win at Underhill.

After Blackpool had beaten Barnet in that 1992 competition, they went on to play Scunthorpe in the final at Wembley, thus providing a moment of despair for current Hatter GRAHAM ALEXANDER.

The midfielder was in the Scunthorpe side that had ironically beaten Crewe 4-2 on aggregate in the semi-finals, but against Blackpool the scores were level at 1-1 after extra-time.

And so it went to penalties, with Blackpool winning 4-3, as Graham, who had come on as a substitute, being one of the unfortunate Scunthorpe players to miss.

"Hopefully beating Crewe will prove to be a lucky omen, but it was a terrible feeling to miss a penalty, although it hasn't put me off taking them since," said Graham. "Hopefully we can

The play-offs may be a new experience for Luton Town as a club, but a number of the Hatters players have enjoyed and endured the annual end-of-season dramas, as SIMON OXLEY reports.

get to Wembley again, but let's hope there's no need for penalties."

STEVE DAVIS has much happier memories of the play-offs, but at the expense of his current Luton team-mate DWIGHT MARSHALL.

Their play-off meeting came in the 1994 Division Two semi-finals as Steve's Burnley took on Dwight's Plymouth.

The first leg at Turf Moor ended 0-0, with Plymouth thus going into the second leg at Home Park very much favourites to progress to Wembley.

Dwight put Argyle in front, but Burnley fought back and won 3-1, going on to beat Stockport 2-1 at Wembley.

"We were disappointed to be held at home in the semi-finals, but then in the build up to the second leg we heard the Plymouth chairman on the radio talking about all the coaches that were booked for Wembley, and how they had ordered a new kit, and that really wound us up for the match," said Steve.

Leicester City have been regular play-off contenders in Division One, and last season of course secured promotion to the Premier League with a last minute goal from ex-Hatter Steve Claridge giving them a 1-0 win over Crystal Palace.

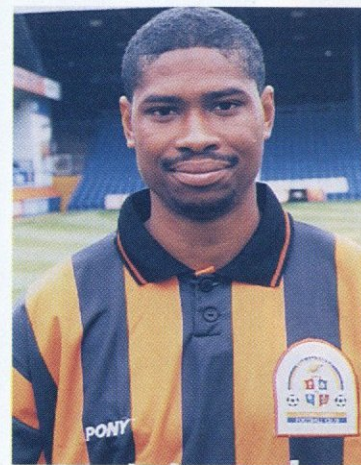

In 1993 they suffered defeat in the final at Wembley, with DAVID OLDFIELD in the Foxes side who went down 4-3 to Glenn Hoddle's Swindon.

David had earlier played in both semi-finals, when Leicester overcame Portsmouth 3-2 on aggregate.

He was on the bench when Leicester lost to Blackburn in the play-off final of 1992. The game was decided by a controversial penalty, ironically converted by another ex-Hatter who had a spell at Filbert Street..... Mike Newell.

Skipper GARY WADDOCK was in the Millwall side that reached the play-offs in the 'old' Division Two in 1991.

The Lions though lost to Brighton, going down 4-1 at the Goldstone Ground and 2-1 at the Den.

DWIGHT MARSHALL was in the Plymouth side who lost in the 1994 play-offs to Burnley.

GRAHAM ALEXANDER was in the Scunthorpe side when they lost on penalties at Wembley in 1992.

The new Mercedes C250 Turbodiesel is the most powerful car in its class.

The Mercedes C250 has a turbo-charged, inter-cooled, 5-cylinder engine. The surprise is that, because it's a diesel, it also gives 53 mpg at 56 mph.

It has 30% more power and 65% more torque than the standard version. Turbo power, diesel economy. Incredible? Why not take a test drive?

Very high torque means very fast, responsive acceleration.

For the C250, it means 0 to 62.5mph in 10.2 seconds.

Third time lucky for the Railwaymen?

CREWE Alexandra have been losing semi-finalists in the last two Division Two play-offs.

Last season, Dario Gradi's team went out to Notts County, with a 2-2 draw at Gresty Road followed by a 1-0 defeat at Meadow Lane when Gary Martindale's goal clinched the tie for Notts.

The previous season, in 1995, Crewe went out to Bristol Rovers, with a 0-0 draw away followed by a 1-1 draw at Gresty Road - Bristol progressing on the away goals rule.

In all, Crewe have been in the play-offs in four of the last five seasons.

In 1993 in the Division Three Final at Wembley, they lost 5-3 on penalties to York - the game finished 1-1 after extra-time - after overcoming Walsall in the semi-finals.

The previous season, when it was then Division Four, Crewe lost 4-2 on aggregate to Scunthorpe in the semi-finals - a Scunthorpe side containing current Luton player Graham Alexander.

LEFT: Third time lucky for Danny Murphy & Crewe?

Play-Off? Been there, seen it, done it....

TOWN manager Lennie Lawrence (pictured below) knows all about the drama of the play-offs after guiding Charlton to victory against Leeds United in 1987.

The format 10 years ago was different to that used today, with Charlton - 4th from bottom in the 'old' Division One - contesting the play-off with the sides finishing 3rd, 4th and 5th in Division Two. It was also before the 'one-off' Wembley final, with the deciding game being played home and away over two legs.

Charlton saw off Ipswich in the semis, drawing 0-0 at Portman Road, and then winning 2-1 at their then Selhurst Park home.

They faced Leeds in the final and won 1-0 at Selhurst Park, courtesy of a Jim Melrose goal, with Brendan Ormsby then giving Leeds victory in front of 31,000 at Elland Road.

A replay was thus required, at Birmingham's St Andrews ground. Nil-nil after 90 minutes, it went to extra-time, with John Sheridan putting Leeds in front.

But two late goals from Peter Shirliff kept Charlton in the top flight. It was an Addicks side that also included current Brighton manager Steve Gritt, Rob Lee and Garth Crooks.

LUTON Town's youth team skipper Matthew Upson has joined Arsenal in a deal which could be worth in the region of £2 million to the Hatters.

Matthew, 18, joined the Gunners on Friday, after the club had agreed a fee with both Arsenal and Newcastle.

The initial transfer is around £1 million, with further payments based on appearances.

Matthew made just one substitute appearance in Division Two this season, and made just one senior start last season - in the Anglo-Italian Cup at Cesena.

He captained the youth team to the semi-finals of this season's FA Youth Cup.

STEWARDS REQUIRED

WOULD YOU LIKE TO BECOME A MATCHDAY STEWARD AND WORK FOR LUTON TOWN?

If the answer is yes, we would like to hear from you, and from anyone you know who might be interested. For a number of years we have employed an agency to supply our stewarding needs, but from the start of the 1997/98 season we are going to employ our own stewards to look after all home areas. (An agency will still be stewarding the away section). Many of the current stewards live locally and we hope they will come and work for us, but we need more.

IF YOU ARE AGED OVER 18, AND PHYSICALLY FIT, THEN CONTACT ME AT THE CLUB FOR MORE DETAILS, OR COME ALONG TO ONE OF OUR REGISTRATION EVENINGS, ON THE FOLLOWING DATES:

Tuesday, June 3, at 7pm; Thursday, June 12, at 7pm; and Wednesday, June 18, at 7pm.

Over the years stewarding has become more professional and taken on a higher profile with the reduction in police levels. Steward training is also given a high priority, and our training is in line with the national standard and requirement. I look forward to hearing from you.

INJURY UPDATE

GARY WADDOCK hopes to be fit for this evening's game after being forced off through injury after just eight minutes on Sunday. Gary had sustained a deep gash on his shin, with the stud going through the shin-guard, and needed four stitches. The leg has been sore, but the wound can be well protected.

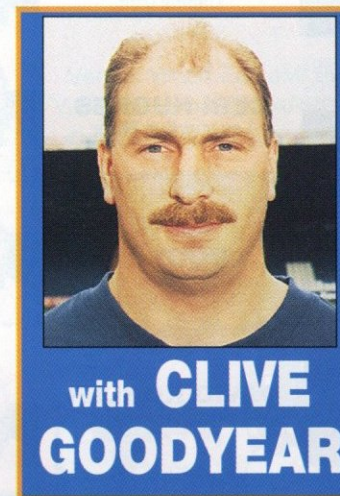

CERI HUGHES was due to go into hospital this week for a hernia operation which will keep him out for the remainder of this season.

Ceri had been feeling the stomach injury for a while, and after testing his fitness in training last week, it was felt that it would be better to get the operation done and concentrate on his being fit for the start of next season.

PAUL SHOWLER came through last week's reserve game with no ill effects. It was his first match after a knee operation, and he could be considered for this evening's game.

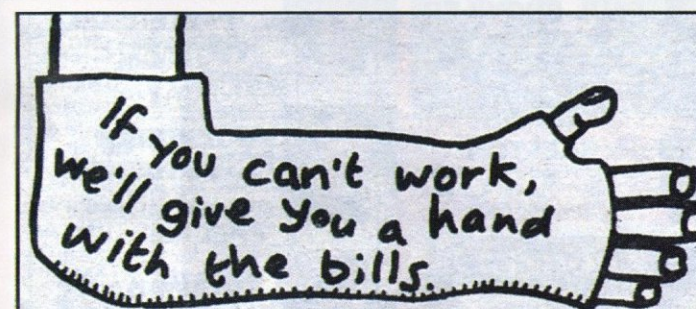

MARVIN JOHNSON missed the match at Crewe after a recurrence of an achilles injury, and has been receiving treatment this week in a bid to get him fit. ANDY KIWOMYA is still receiving treatment for his hamstring injury.

RIGHT: Ceri Hughes - a hernia operation has ruled him out for the rest of the season.

If you have an accident or you're too ill to work, the Foresters can help. For a modest weekly outlay, you'll receive a very healthy income. For more information call or write free.

LC - Avon Insurance Combination League Cup.

THE Reserves complete their Avon Insurance Combination League fixtures with a re-arranged game at Norwich tomorrow afternoon.

Kick-off is 2pm, with the game being played at the Canaries' training ground.

In their final two home matches, the reserves drew 1-1 against Brighton, and beat Chelsea 5-2.

The draw against Brighton, in a game played at Hitchin Town FC, saw Sean Evers put the Hatters in front in the first-half, with the visitors equalising midway through the second period.

Team: Davis, Lawes, Fraser (McIndoe), Evers, Skelton, Upson, Kean, Cox, Doherty, Jones, Sweeney (Scarlett).

Sub not used: Boyce.

Against a Chelsea side including the likes of Kevin Hitchcock, David Rocastle, Jody Morris and Mark Stein, the Hatters raced into a 4-0 interval lead at Kenilworth Road last Wednesday.

Dwight Marshall opened the scoring, with Kim Grant then netting a hat-trick inside 25 minutes.

Ex-Hatter Stein was denied by Kelvin Davis and then the crossbar after the break, but Bontcho Guentchev netted number five after 67 minutes.

Chelsea, coached by former Town assistant manager Mick McGiven, pulled a couple of goals back in the closing minutes.

Team: Davis, Jones, Harvey, Evers, Skelton, Boyce, Guentchev, Kean, Showler, Grant, Marshall.

Subs not used: Scarlett, Fraser, Lawes.

Having completed their South East Counties League fixtures, and finishing as champions, the youth

They entertained Ipswich at Kenilworth Road, but the long season took its toll and the Hatters youngsters went down 5-0.

Youth team striker Gary Doherty was in action for the Eire youth team in Norway last Wednesday, playing at centre-half in a 2-1 victory.

The Hatters were due to play Leighton Town in the final of the Beds Premier Cup, at Bell Close, on Monday evening.

This season the final is just being contested over one leg, rather than the usual two.

Those were the days

WITH Tony Thorpe breaking the 30-goal barrier in a league season for the first time by a Town player since 1971, he joins a relatively short list of players achieving this feat while at Kenilworth Road.

The first to write his name on the 'Roll of Honour' was Ernie Simms in the 1920/21 season.

Simms had been signed from Barnsley in 1913 with the firm instruction to score the goals necessary to win the Town promotion back to the Southern League Division One.

This he did and he became a prolific goalscorer in the period leading up to World War One, as well as scoring over 40 goals in a season for the Town in the London Combination during the War.

With the Town entering the Football League in 1920, Simms had the honour of scoring our first goal at this level (in a 9-1 defeat at Swindon!) and went on to bag 29 in the competition as well as five in the FA Cup.

In the following season, his first for the club, he was not so prolific in front of goal but did manage to win an England cap in opposition to fellow Town players Allan Mathieson and Louis Bookman of Northern Ireland.

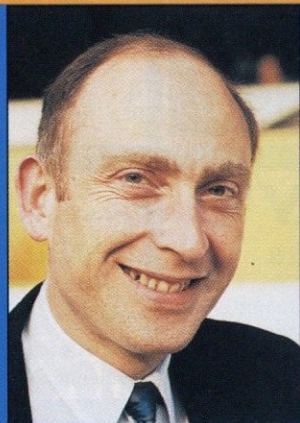

After leaving the club in 1922, Simms was never able to repeat his Kenilworth Road successes when turning out for South Shields, Stockport, Scunthorpe and York.

The next to appear on the list was Andy Rennie who hit an amazing 43 league goals in 1928/29 (including five in an 8-0 thumping of Gillingham) plus five in the FA Cup.

Glasgow-born Rennie was originally brought to the club as a centre-half and it was two years before it was discovered that he was rather more effective in the forward line, and in 10 years he knocked in 147 league goals for the Town to become a firm favourite.

Renowned for his fierce shooting - my grandfather maintained that he used to swing his leg from the hip - and quick temper, Rennie often took the back seat to other sharp-shooters at Kenilworth Road during his 10 year stay, but they all came and went!

Towards the end of Andy Rennie's stay at Luton we signed a forward from Huddersfield who everyone

by ROGER WASH

thought was approaching the twilight of his career. Although he had been a prolific scorer at Sheffield

Wednesday, Jack Ball had then moved in quick succession to Manchester United and Huddersfield before coming to Kenilworth Road three months into the 1934/35 season. He turned out to be a revelation, scoring 30 league goals in only 31 games that season, but was never as successful again, taking on a bit part during his three year stay here as others gradually stole the limelight. It is at this stage that the amazing Joe Payne entered the frame. Signed from Bolsover Colliery as a forward it was soon reckoned that he was a better defender and his few first team outings over the next two seasons did not encourage him to cross the halfway line.

No one is quite sure who was responsible for giving Joe a game in the forward line over Easter 1936, but several dozen have since claimed responsibility! History was made that Easter Monday afternoon when Payne scored 10 against luckless Bristol Rovers in a feat that is unlikely to be matched.

Also unlikely to be matched is Payne's 55 goals the following season as the Town won promotion to the old Division Two. Three goals in the Cup were also scored by Payne that campaign as he became the darling of the Kenilworth Road terraces.

Payne did not stay long at Luton, being transferred to Chelsea in 1938, but the next goalscoring hero was at Kenilworth Road for 15 years, and scored 243 league goals to create a record for the club.

Gordon Turner came to Kenilworth Road as an amateur wing-half after leaving the Royal Navy in 1949, but it was soon recognised that he was a natural goalscorer and he topped the goalscoring charts just about every season he was here, and cracked the 30-goal barrier on three occasions.

When it is remembered that the majority of Turner's goals were scored in the old Division One against the best defences in the land, his feat probably overshadows that of Payne.

Just as Turner was reaching the end of his career up popped another goalscorer in the shape of John O'Rourke. Signed from Chelsea on a free transfer in 1963, O'Rourke was an instant success banging in 22 goals in only 23 appearances as the Town avoided relegation from the old Division Three at the death.

A serious injury the following season meant that he was powerless to prevent the inevitable relegation, but he was back to his best in 1965/66 scoring 34 goals as the Town narrowly failed to win promotion at the first attempt.

O'Rourke left for the richer pastures of Middlesbrough at the end of that season, but it was to be only a couple of years before the next 30-goal king arrived at Kenilworth Road in the shape of Malcolm Macdonald.

Macdonald was signed from Fulham by Alec Stock as a fullback for the princely sum of £17,500, but a pre-season injury crisis led to him moving to the forward line and from that point his career really took off.

He top scored as the Town were promoted from the old Division Three in 1970 and then cracked the 30-goal barrier in the following season as we took Division Two by storm. In a fairy tale end to the season, Macdonald was stuck on 27 goals while we needed three to qualify for the Watney Cup. Cardiff were seen off 3-0 at Kenilworth Road in the final game, with Macdonald scoring the lot and this feat was said to have added £30,000 to the price when he transferred to Newcastle that summer.

We have waited a long time for someone else to hit 30 in a season and at the time of writing I reckon that Gordon Turner's record of 37 achieved in 1954/55 is achievable, which would leave Tony Thorpe third in the all-time table. Over to you Tony!

5 YEARS AGO

2/5/92: The season ended with a 2-1 defeat at Notts County which had consigned us to relegation from the old Division One to the new Division One! The defeat marked a sad end to 20 years at the top.

10 YEARS AGO

9/5/87: We suffered a 3-1 defeat at champions elect Everton, in front of a Goodison Park crowd of 44,092. Although this setback pushed us down to seventh position, this remains our highest ever place in the top flight.

15 YEARS AGO

17/5/82: Although we had already been crowned as champions of the old Division Two, winning was a habit and we returned from Cardiff with all three points following a 3-2 victory. The defeat pushed the Bluebirds through the relegation trapdoor.

20 YEARS AGO

14/5/77: David Carr made his debut for the Town in a 2-1 victory at Oldham, where the goalscorers were Lil Fuccillo and John Aston. The win meant we finished in a respectable sixth position in the old Division Two.

Heads it's a draw! Town scorer Andrew Fotiadis challenges for possession.

THE Football League's Playing Surfaces Committee has announced the winners in the divisional Nationwide Football League Groundsman of the Year Awards.

In the Nationwide Football League, first division Grimsby Town's groundsman Mike Phillips has picked up the award for his surface, while John Huxley of Crewe Alexandra will receive the second division accolade for the Greysty Road pitch.

In the third division of the Nationwide League, Mark Harrison of Hull City is the top groundsman, with Blackburn Rovers' Steve Patrick securing the title in the Premier League.

The three Nationwide Football League winners will receive one of the crystal trophies specially produced by sponsors Nationwide, plus a £250 prize which will be placed in a nationwide Building Society account.

Nominations were once again sought from clubs and referees regarding the best playing surface encountered during the course of the season.

However, the judges, who include Dr Steve Baker from the Sports Turf Research Institute, also considered fully the resources available to the groundsmen and actual construction of pitches at the 92 professional clubs before making their final decisions.

Barnsley, Wolves, Bristol City, Wycombe, Carlisle, Wigan, Arsenal and Sheffield Wednesday were highly commended for their pitches.

League launches marketing project

THE Football League have linked up with De Montfort University's School of Business to carry out the first comprehensive examination of marketing and promotional activities within Football League clubs.

The aim is to develop a representation of marketing activities within the industry and to determine the extent to which various marketing techniques are used by football clubs. Strategic marketing implications will be drawn for both the clubs and the industry as a whole.

A postal questionnaire has been sent out to senior marketing and commercial managers at all 72 Football League clubs. The study is completely confidential and all clubs will have an opportunity to receive a copy of the aggregate results.

David Hudson, Senior Lecturer in Marketing and Research at De Montfort School of Business, said: "This is the first study of its kind and will hopefully provide an opportunity for clubs to consider the role that marketing can play in helping them meet the challenges up to and beyond the Millennium."

Marketing Executive at The Football League, Steve Sutherland, strongly endorsed this project and commented: "It will be most interesting to see how far clubs have developed in a marketing sense and to what extent the clubs' marketing practices compare - both within our industry and with other leisure organisations."

"Obviously the support of all clubs is essential to the success of the study and I'm sure all our member clubs will react positively to this exciting initiative."

LTFC EVACUATION PROCEDURE

IN the event of any emergencies at Luton Town Football Club, the emergency services and the club have agreed on an evacuation policy which is designed to:

- Ensure the safe and controlled evacuation of the ground.
- Ensure the dispersal of the crowd from the area to allow the emergency services to carry out their tasks.

In the event on an evacuation of all or part of the stadium, you will receive instructions over the public address system on how you should leave the stadium. Stewards will direct you to the nearest exit. It may be that your normal exit route will not be available. On leaving the stadium, you will find some roads closed to pedestrian traffic, to enable swift and unobstructed arrival of the emergency services.

Please leave the area of the ground as quickly as possible by the route directed. Your co-operation will be most appreciated.
GEOFF LOVELL, Safety Manager.
