The hero returns: Stuart Douglas came back after injury against QPR, scoring five minutes after going on as a sub. Chris Plummer is the Rangers man in close attendance as Stuart controls the ball on his chest.

Inside Forward

WITH at least one team change forced on him this evening, after Petri Helin joined the injury list, Town boss Lil Fuccillo can thank SKY TV for preventing a second. Matthew Taylor, sent off at Bournemouth 13 days ago, has to serve a two-game suspension as punishment. Bans come into effect two weeks after the offences that lead to them, so if the Wycombe game had remained as on the original list, and played tomorrow, the wingback would have missed the match. SKY TV's decision to televise the match live, which entailed the switch to this evening, leaves Taylor free to play against Wycombe, but ruled out of Wednesday's FA Cup replay at Loftus Road and Saturday's trip to Peterborough.

Speaking of the replay, the club apologises to supporters for incorrect information about ticket prices which was published in last week's match-day magazine. QPR got it wrong, but the correct details are on page 10 today.

While mixtures of delight and despair were erupting among rival supporters over the last-minute penalty offence which saved QPR's blushes, the man who converted the award had considerable sympathy for Lee Nogan over his involuntary handball.

It was all the more painful for us to see Gavin Peacock play so well for Rangers after going on as a second-half sub, to make one goal and then net the late penalty equaliser. We thought he had done enough cup damage to us already - Peacock was the man who scored both Chelsea goals in the 2-0 1994 semi-final defeat at Wembley.

He remembered that cup run on Saturday and was asked if he was as surprised as everyone else by the gift penalty.

"I certainly was, but it's the sort of thing that can happen," he said. "I remember during the 1994 cup run I did just the same at Oxford. To this day I don't know why I did it. It's something you cannot explain. Luckily for me, Oxford missed the penalty, and we won the game..."

For what it's worth, he and Rangers manager Gerry Francis expect another hard tussle in the replay on Wednesday. "There will be more pressure on us," said Francis. "We are the home side, and there is pressure on teams expected to beat sides from lower divisions. I thought Luton played exceptionally well, especially in the first half. Our dressing room at half time was not a nice place to be when I said my piece!" Peacock said: "Luton will come to Loftus Road with nothing to lose, but I always fancy us on our own turf."

In the First Division, where Rangers are bottom but one, their home record reads three wins, seven draws and three defeats.

Open Invitation

DIRECTOR Yvonne Fletcher, the fans rep in the boardroom, will be holding another open meeting for supporters on Wednesday week, January 24, to talk about boardroom matters, and to answer questions from the floor. It kicks off in the Eric Morecambe Lounge - entrance from Maple Road - at 7.30pm, and unlike the two previous meetings, you do not need to obtain tickets in advance. Just turn up on the night, but it might be a good idea not to be late, because it will be first come, first served, and accommodation is limited.

Marathon Man

AS WE have reported in previous issues, the Town's representative in the Flora London Marathon in April will be a lady for the first time, Lynda Smith, from Loftus Close, Luton. She is well into her training regime, and we will soon be printing details of how you can back her efforts in the football section of the race by offering donations to her sponsorship charities.

We now know that another keen Town fan will be in the race, and we wish every good luck to John Bartlett, from 124 Westminster Drive, Bletchley, Milton Keynes.

He has been a Hatters supporter for 32 years, and is a season ticket holder along with his elder son.

He has been awarded a gold bond place in the marathon, and will run to raise money for VICTA, Visually Impaired Children Taking Action. It is a national charity based at Milton Keynes, and we are pleased to pass on his plea for sponsorship support. If you would like to help, please contact Mr Bartlett direct.

Value For Money

THE LATEST issue of Programme Monthly and Football Collectable, the specialist magazine for devotees of football programmes, came out this week, and we were pleased to read their critique of our offering. They called our matchday magazine "another substantial issue from Kenilworth Road, from a club who have never been afraid to think big when it comes to match programmes."

They added: "Luton's ambitions have been overtaken by better-resourced clubs, and limited by their own sales, but their programme remains a well-rounded account of club affairs, and includes plenty to read, presented in a pleasant standard design. A good solid value for money programme."

Programme Monthly has a circulation of 2,500 world-wide, and the subscription price is £2.30, including postage, per issue. For more information the publishers can be contacted at 46, Milton Road, Kirkcaldy, Fife, KY1 1TL or by e-mail at progm@hotmail.com.

We have also received a plea from a collector wanting an old programme. L. Naylor, from Melton Mowbray, is trying to obtain a programme from the Leicester City v Luton Town game played in September 1981. We're not sure why - the Town won 2-1 with Steve White scoring twice after Steve Lynex had put the Foxes ahead. Mr Naylor will be pleased to talk business on 01664 812360 any day after 3.30.

The Manager Lil Fuccillo

AFTER the excitement of Saturday's cup-tie, we get back to the more important need to collect league points tonight, and I hope we draw the right lessons from the QPR match.

I was delighted with our performance overall, but gutted by the sting in the tail which robbed us of a 3-2 victory we deserved. Enough has already been said and written about the penalty, and nothing can change things now.

What we do know is this: we were more than a match for a First Division side, and unlucky not to beat them at the first attempt. That knowledge should give us confidence in our fight to stay in the Second Division, and supporters must also have seen that we are capable of better results than we have achieved so far in the league.

I have confidence in our squad to turn things round, despite another blow this week with the loss of Petri Helin. I have been in touch with a couple of clubs about a replacement, but it is not easy to get deals done.

On the question of our chances of climbing away from the relegation zone, let me tell you this. I have worked for a lot of clubs in recent years. At a couple of them I saw how things were, and knew they were going to struggle. You can read the signs when you are inside the club.

Here, I have a completely different feeling, reinforced by the QPR performance. We have enough about us to win games, but it takes a lot of work, and self-belief. We must strive to do better over 90 minutes, and to learn to be mean and horrible when the opposition enjoys the good spell that every team has in every match.

It was very encouraging to see that aspect of the cup-tie performance. I wonder how many supporters watched QPR get their second goal to make it 2-2 and thought, "Oh no, here we go again..." For once, for the first time since I took over, we did not fold up after the disappointment of losing a lead, and weathered the short storm before going ahead again.

Incidentally the second Rangers goal was off-side, because Mark Ovendale was well off his line and only Stuart Fraser was between Peter Crouch and the goal. I am able to tell you that because we have the benefit of the video, which was not available to the assistant referee. It just shows we did not have the best of luck, so perhaps we are due some shortly!

However, I believe you make your own luck, in life and in football, and this evening we must be ready to build on the good things from Saturday's game.

We have watched Wycombe several times, and I like the way they play their football. They are having a better season than us, thanks mainly to a much better defensive record - we have conceded almost twice as many goals as they have.

I am told that Wycombe have never beaten us in a league game, but that will be motivation for them as well as for us, so I don't think that particular statistic has any bearing on tonight's match.

My pre-match chat in the dressing room will be simple: Look at the job you did against QPR. Do at least as well, better if possible, and we will be all right. Be more determined in every area of the pitch, be ruthless in defending and attacking alike, and most important of all, don't give the ball away. Simple, really, isn't it?!

We need to treat every match until the end of the season as though it were a big cup-tie. Results in this busy month of January will play a part in shaping our future, but we know we cannot afford to keep losing at home. A win tonight will put us, perhaps only briefly, up one place in the table, and it would be a nice psychological boost to know we can do that.

Captain's Log

Marvin Johnson

WE WERE a little bit down after the cup-tie with Queens Park

Rangers, knowing that we should have been in the fourth round of the FA Cup without the need to play them again. We couldn't argue about the penalty, and Lee Nogan was very, very upset about it. I know how he felt. A long time ago I did exactly the same thing in a match against Tottenham. It's an instinctive thing, a reaction that happens faster than you can think about it. I suffered twice over - I was sent off, and I got a ban as well.

The dressing room mood was a little sombre for a time on Saturday evening, but then we started to think more deeply about the game, and realised there were a lot of good things we could take from it. For a start, there were spells in which we played Rangers off the park, and they knew it, which was why their manager changed his team at the interval.

Having been second best for so long, QPR must have been lifted when they scored twice in quick succession to level matters, but watching from the stand I felt that was probably the end of their good spell. I even told supporters around me not to worry, because the boss would send on Dougie and he would score the winner... and I thought my crystal ball was spot-on when the third goal duly arrived!

I hope that having played so well in that game, we carry it into the league and to the replay. We all know that preserving our league status is more important than a cup run, but we quite fancy both.

Perhaps it ought not to be so, but for young players a big cup-tie often gives them an extra lift, a bit more spring in the step, and an adrenaline boost in the game. The fact that we will play Arsenal if we win the replay will probably add to that on Wednesday at Loftus Road, where the pressure will be on Rangers far more than on us.

I'll be there cheering the lads on, wishing I was playing, and hoping that we win, then beat Arsenal so that we are still in the cup when I am fit again!

Some of the younger lads would have preferred to play at Highbury, for a rare experience of appearing on one of the world's most famous football stages. Me, I am glad we will be at home if we win the replay - I don't think mighty Arsenal will relish the prospect of playing on our ground, and I am sure we would have a better chance against them here than at Highbury.

It would also be nice for our supporters as well, because I realise there is a generation growing up that doesn't remember when teams like Arsenal, Manchester United, Liverpool and so on came to Kenilworth Road every fortnight for ten seasons.

We have got to earn that fourth round tie, of course, and not much has been said about the replay this week, because we are aware that we have to concentrate on gathering league points, and improving our miserable home record. If we face Wycombe with the same attitude and determination we had in the cup-tie, we will be all right.

And I hope that once more young players will get a bit of a lift about tonight's game, just as they did last Saturday. It's nice to know you are going to perform in front of a much bigger audience than usual, live on TV, and that should motivate players who yearn to be in the spotlight regularly.

What we must take from the past week is the knowledge that we can be a very good footballing side, as Rangers discovered, and that we need fear no-one, especially in this division.

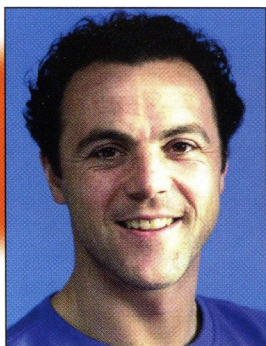

We usually do well against Wycombe, and long may it continue!

Treatment Room

Bruce Sewell

WE HAVE suffered another injury blow this week, with Petri

Helin currently back home in Finland after receiving a serious foot injury during the game with Queens Park Rangers. He was in considerable pain and discomfort when he had to be taken off the pitch, and I am afraid it will be some weeks, a month at least, before we see him playing football again.

He had been playing with a sore heel for some while, but was happy to put up with that. But in the cup-tie he was kicked on the underside of his right foot, and he knew immediately it was serious, having suffered something similar earlier in his career.

He has gone back home for treatment under the care of the Finnish national football team's doctor, who knows him well. A scan has disclosed that Helin has a tear in tissue inside his foot, not too dissimilar to a ligament problem.

We allowed him to go home to give him a lift and get him back into comfortably familiar surroundings, but it will be no holiday for him. He is having one-to-one treatment from an expert medical man who has considerable experience of dealing with sports injuries.

The player will return to Luton in the middle of next week, and faces up to a month of treatment and therapy, and as with so many injuries, time will be the biggest healer. I know that he is like the rest of our playing staff in his readiness to do what work he can to regain fitness, and he is very clued up about what will have to be done. My guess is that we will not have him available for matches again until late next month or March.

The only other knock we collected in the cup-tie was to Andrew Fotiadis, who felt increasing pain from a groin strain during the match when he too was substituted.

It felt very tender early this week, but treatment seemed to be working well by Wednesday, when he was able to rejoin the first team training session. I will be keeping a close eye on his progress, but the signs were promising about his availability for this evening's game.

Our other "customers" in the treatment room are all making progress. Mark Stein has had a scan to check on his knee injury, and while it is still causing him some discomfort the scan shows there is nothing to worry about. He is running well, and was back in training by mid-week, but was still not 100 per cent and a decision on whether or not he can play this evening was not going to be taken until yesterday at the earliest.

Julian Watts is still unavailable after his hamstring injury from the match at Bournemouth. He is desperate to get back into the team, but although he is coming on well he needs more time for the injury to heal. I doubt he will be ready for Wednesday's cup replay at QPR, but perhaps, if things go well, we might consider a return for him at Peterborough in eight days' time.

Paul McLaren is choked about missing tonight's match against his home town club, but his knee ligament injury needs at least two more weeks of treatment. He is working well to maintain the strength in his muscles and to keep up his general fitness, but by the time he is ready to play again his match fitness might be in some doubt, necessitating an outing in the reserves before a return to Second Division league duty.

Finally, Marvin Johnson is still having to be very patient as we work on his neck injury. He is due to see the surgeon again within the next few days for another check on his progress, and once we have the consultant's report we will decide the next phase of his treatment.

EVACUATION PROCEDURE

IN THE event of any emergency in the stadium, Luton Town FC and the emergency services have agreed on an evacuation procedure which is designed to ensure the safe and controlled evacuation of the crowd, and to ensure their safe dispersal from the area, to allow the emergency services to carry out their tasks.

In the event of evacuation from all or part of the stadium, you will receive instructions over the public address system on how you should leave. In an evacuation of the main stand you will be instructed to use the pitch. Stewards will direct you to the nearest exit. It may be that your normal exit route will not be available. On leaving the stadium, you will find some roads closed to pedestrians, to enable swift and unobstructed access for the emergency services. Please leave the area of the ground as quickly as possible, by the route directed. Your co-operation will be most appreciated.

Hatters Away

AN extra trip joins the fixtures list on Wednesday, with the FA Cup replay at Loftus Road (8pm). Parking around that area of London is very difficult, but the Bobbers Travel Club and Town on Tour will both be running coach services to the match.

The Bobbers start from Cranfield at 4.15, with various pick-up points en route to Luton, where departure time is 5.15. The fare is £7 for adults, £6 for senior and junior citizens. You can book at the Bobbers kiosk tonight, or by phone to Paul Deason on 01234 750996.

Town on Tour sell through the Luton Town Supporters Club kiosk, or through the club shop, and their fare will be £7 for members, £6 for concessions and £8 for others. They leave Maple Road at 5.15.

If you fancy trusting the trains, two tube stations are convenient, White City (Central Line) and Shepherds Bush (Hammersmith & City line).

DIY travellers

There are various routes to Loftus Road if you want to drive, and our man prefers not to use the shortest in miles, through Watford and Harrow to Shepherds Bush. He uses the motorways.

Go south on the M1, then take the M25 west, before turning left on the M.40 towards west London. This becomes the A40, which is subject to heavy traffic congestion at all times of the day. Fourteen miles after leaving the M25 go off the A40 where it is signposted to Harlesden A404. At the T junction turn right, signposted to Shepherds Bush, and you will see the big BBC White City complex beside the road. Take a right after passing the BBC, into South Africa Road and the ground is ahead of you, on the left. Give yourself plenty of time to find a parking spot - it's not easy!

Mileage from Luton: 38.

A week tomorrow we go back to Peterborough, for the third time this season, an easy journey to a ground with ample parking.

Town on Tour will leave at 12.30, charging £9.50 for LTSC adult members, £8.50 for senior and junior members, and £10.50 for non members.

The Bobbers service will depart Cranfield at 11.15 and Luton an hour later, with fares £7 for adults and £6 for concessions.

The best route is north up the A1, reached by leaving Luton on the A505 east, through Hitchin and then to Baldock to take the A1. A couple of miles beyond Norman Cross junction turn off right on the A1139, which is signposted to Peterborough. This road becomes the Fletton Parkway, which you leave at junction 3 to follow signs towards the city centre. Follow those signs until you run onto the Nene Parkway, and then follow the signs towards Woodston Industry until you find yourself in Shrewsbury Avenue. At the next T-junction turn right onto Oundle Road, and at the next roundabout turn right into London Road and the ground is on your left.

Mileage from Luton: 61

We make our second attempt to play at Oldham on Tuesday week, January 23, after the wash-out in October. Town on Tour will leave Maple Road at 2pm, picking up at Milton Keynes Coachway 20 minutes later. Their fare is £14.50 for members of LTSC, £12 for concessions, or £16 for passengers who are not in the supporters club. The Bobbers will set off from Cranfield at 1pm, with departure from Kenilworth Road at 2. The fare is £13 adults, £11 for children and pensioners.

DIY travellers

THERE is a choice of route to Oldham, and with the M6 becoming ever more congested, our advice is to take the slightly longer route, up the M1 and over the Pennines. The alternative is taking M1 and M6 north, and in Lancashire, after crossing the Thelwall viaduct, take M60 and M62 east, towards Leeds.

Our man will drive up M1 into Yorkshire, to join the M62 heading west.

Either way, leave M62 at junction 20 to follow the signs towards Oldham, and after half a mile, where the road divides, keep to the right, signposted towards Manchester east. After another mile and a half, join the A627, signposted to Oldham and Ashton. At the first roundabout take the second exit, and you will see the ground, and its car park, on your left.

Mileage: Around 200 via M1 and M6, about 220 via M1 and M62.

Golden Gamble

A RECORD Golden Gamble jackpot has turned into a real mystery. The prize at the QPR cup-tie rose to £615, but for the first time we can remember, it was not claimed at the match. Paul McLaren drew out the winning ticket, and the wad of cash was there waiting to be handed over. We still have it, so if you or anyone you know holds Golden Gamble ticket No. 11905 from the QPR game - we think it was sold in the main stand area - please get in touch with our commercial department as soon as possible. Another jackpot will be on offer this evening, and once again it will be won by a ticket costing only £1. The club is grateful for the support the lottery receives, because the income is split 50-50 between the club and the prize fund. Our missing winner will be the 17th to cash in this season, with a total of £7,750 paid out, an average of £456 each. Our picture is by way of an apology to the Christmas and New Year winners, after we published an incorrect caption in the QPR matchday magazine.

Another jackpot is on offer this evening, and the winner is invited to collect the bundle of readies during the interval.

Town Teaser

We are offering another little prize this evening in our popular Town trivia quiz. At the Queens Park Rangers cup-tie we asked about a defender who began his career with us, and is now at QPR after a spell with West Ham, and the answer was Tim Breacker.

The PA announcer will pose another Town teaser before kick-off this evening, so listen to him before kick-off for your chance to have a go. If you don't already know the answer, you might find it elsewhere in this magazine.

Tonight's Question

Who is the injured Town player who will be very sorry to miss tonight's match, having been born in High Wycombe?

There's a brand new team at the heart of English football.

Football and the Government have teamed up in a new partnership to provide new lifeblood for the grass roots of English football – pumping financial support into the game that's so close to the hearts of so many. From parks pitches to professional football clubs, we'll be there to help everyone who loves football, providing a new generation of facilities for all by pooling resources from The FA Premier League, The Football Association, Sport England and the Government into a single substantial fund for redistribution throughout the game. Together, we intend to ensure that football enjoys a healthy future for many generations to come.

Hatters Abroad

THIS page is open to all Luton Town fans, and the matchday magazine will be pleased to consider for publication photographs from anywhere in the world. All we ask is that the Hatters colours are well to the fore. So if you have an interesting snap of Town kit in far-off places, please send it, with a few details, to the matchday magazine editor at Luton Town FC. Please enclose a stamped envelope if you want the photographs back, but please be aware that with the best will in the world they do sometimes go astray. We are also interested in hearing about our very young fans sporting the Town's colours for our occasional "Mini Hatters" series.

Safety at the death

With only three games to go at the end of the 1989/90 campaign the Town looked certain to lose the top flight place that they had clung on to since winning promotion in glorious style in 1982. With only nine points to play for and six points from the safety spot of fourth from bottom it looked a hopeless task.

The situation had not been helped with points thrown away over a disastrous Easter. Goals from Iain Dowie had secured a comfortable 2-0 half-time lead over Everton at Kenilworth Road, but then the Toffees were allowed back into the game and their eventual leveller with 13 minutes left was a foregone conclusion. On the following Monday the Town completely capitulated to Nottingham Forest at the City Ground going down 0-3 and making the home side, who had gone eight games without a victory, look like Brazil.

Manager Jim Ryan put on a brave face but probably thought, like the rest of us, that our days were numbered. Suddenly presented with the job three months before following the departure of Ray Harford, Ryan's first job was to preside over the sale of terrace hero, Mick Harford, to Derby. This coupled with the earlier sale of Roy Wegerle to Q.P.R. and a cartilage operation for record signing, Lars Elstrup, left the Town mighty short up front. Ryan also had to contend with a jinx on centre-halves that had swept through the club leaving Graham Rodger, Julian James, Marvin Johnson, Darron McDonough and Dave Beaumont absent for large chunks of the season.

Of the three remaining games two were at home with first up previous season's champions, Arsenal. Jim Ryan had a simple message for the players telling them that they must win at all costs and hope that somehow fourth from bottom Sheffield Wednesday would slip up along the way.

Supporters would have expected the players to be jittery but they came out full of self belief and tore into the Gunners from the start and it was no surprise when Dowie fired the Town into the lead after Arsenal full-back, Nigel Winterburn, failed to control a ball in the area.

The Town's second goal came just before the hour and was set up by some brilliant play from Tim Breacker. Surging down the wing, Breacker cleverly beat Arsenal's Tony Adams before playing a wall pass with Danny Wilson and then putting in a low cross that was converted by Kingsley Black.

Although Arsenal, stung by this two goal burst, threatened briefly the Town had learnt from the disappointment of the earlier Everton game and ruthlessly killed the action.

After the players trooped off they learnt that Sheffield Wednesday had lost 0-1 at Q.P.R. and the gap at the bottom had therefore narrowed to three points.

Wednesday were due to be playing already relegated Charlton at Selhurst Park on the following Saturday while the Town were down to meet F.A.Cup finalists Crystal Palace at Kenilworth Road. Charlton manager, Lennie Lawrence, had threatened to play a team of youngsters at Wednesday but following swift objections from the Town to the Football League he confirmed that the strongest side would be played. He put his earlier threat down to frustration at the lack of fight shown by his senior squad!

Palace had just confirmed a safe spot just above Wednesday and with one eye turned towards their forthcoming trip to Wembley decided to close the game down against the Town. To be honest, it was tedious stuff but the Town players, to their credit, refused to panic and kept on trying to football their way through the packed Palace rear-guard.

We all thought that it was not going to be the Town's day when Danny Wilson hit the post with a rocket drive with the rebound falling to Jason Rees whose shot was brilliantly saved by Nigel Martyn. News started to filter through that Wednesday were leading at Selhurst Park and as the final seconds ticked away relegation stared us in the face. The breakthrough goal was timed at 89 minutes 6 seconds and came in true 'Roy of the Rovers' fashion off the shin of Iain Dowie. Wilson had started the move with an excellent cross-field pass to Rees who hammered over a low cross that was met at the far post by Dowie who was instantly submerged by his team-mates.

The situation was now set for a final day show down. The Town were to play at Derby while Sheffield Wednesday were at home to Nottingham Forest. We had to win and Wednesday had to lose, it was as simple as that!

Throughout the week leading up to the game many thoughts went through the minds of the average Luton supporter. Would the Town be able to win at Derby having won only once away all season? The Rams were safe but they still boasted Peter Shilton, Mark Wright, Dean Saunders and a certain Mick Harford in their side who certainly did not know how to take things easy. Sheffield Wednesday had a good home record but would Forest manager, Brian Clough, allow any of his players to roll over and die.

Despite the agonising over 5,000 sleepless Luton supporters converged on the Baseball Ground on a glorious sunny day to see the Town take the lead in sensational fashion after only 66 seconds.

Ignoring all the set piece routines drummed into him, full-back Tim Breacker cracked the ball into the net from a free-kick taken fully 30 yards out. This was followed by a cool Kingsley Black finish to a Wilson cross after 18 minutes and with news filtering through that Forest were winning at Hillsborough the Baseball Ground became the place to be.

Unfortunately this feeling of euphoria was not allowed to last as by half-time Derby had pulled back the two goal deficit through goals from Wright and Paul Williams and only brilliant goal-keeping from Alec Chamberlain prevented the Rams from moving into the lead.

We all feared that the Town would cave in but to our surprise completely dominated the second half with a brand of attacking football that had Derby on the back foot throughout. Despite all the attacking the winning goal would not come and with the minutes ticking away those on the terraces were chewing their fingernails down to the knuckle.

The winner finally came from local boy Kingsley Black with 16 minutes remaining after his shot rebounded off a wall of defenders back to him when he gratefully thumped the ball home with his 'wrong' foot.

The players then sensibly shut up shop and my abiding memory is of hard man midfielder, Mick Kennedy, setting off on a tremendous jinking run to nowhere in particular and eventually ending up at the corner flag where his bulk shielded the ball for a few more valuable seconds.

By the time of the final whistle we all knew that Wednesday had lost 0-3 to Forest and after the most improbable and impossible of escapes the celebrations went on long into the night.

Community & Schools Football Programme

ntl: NTL Schools Visit Project ntl:

Yes 20,000 is the incredible number of local schoolchildren who have received free coaching from the Hatters since our School Visits project began in January 1999, almost two years ago.

During that time we have visited over 100 individual schools covering over 70,000 miles throughout Beds, Herts and Bucks. Our total number of visits has just passed the 650 mark.

All in all that's an awful lot of footballs that have been kicked, thrown, headed and occasionally passed by an awful lot of children - all with Luton Town Football Club.

Much of the schemes popularity goes down to the quality of our full time Football Development Officers, Ben Smith and Simon King and the coaching they deliver. We doubt there are two more in demand coaches than these two at any Club in the Country - shame they can't play!

And of course what can we say about our sponsors NTL. Well quite simply guys - we could not have done it without you, your support has been fantastic. Special mention should go to both Richard Pettifer and Andy Jones in particular for their support. Tonight we are pleased to welcome Andy and Alan Baker from NTL for a special presentation. As a Club having NTL involved with our Community scheme has been of immeasurable importance - without them this scheme would not exist.

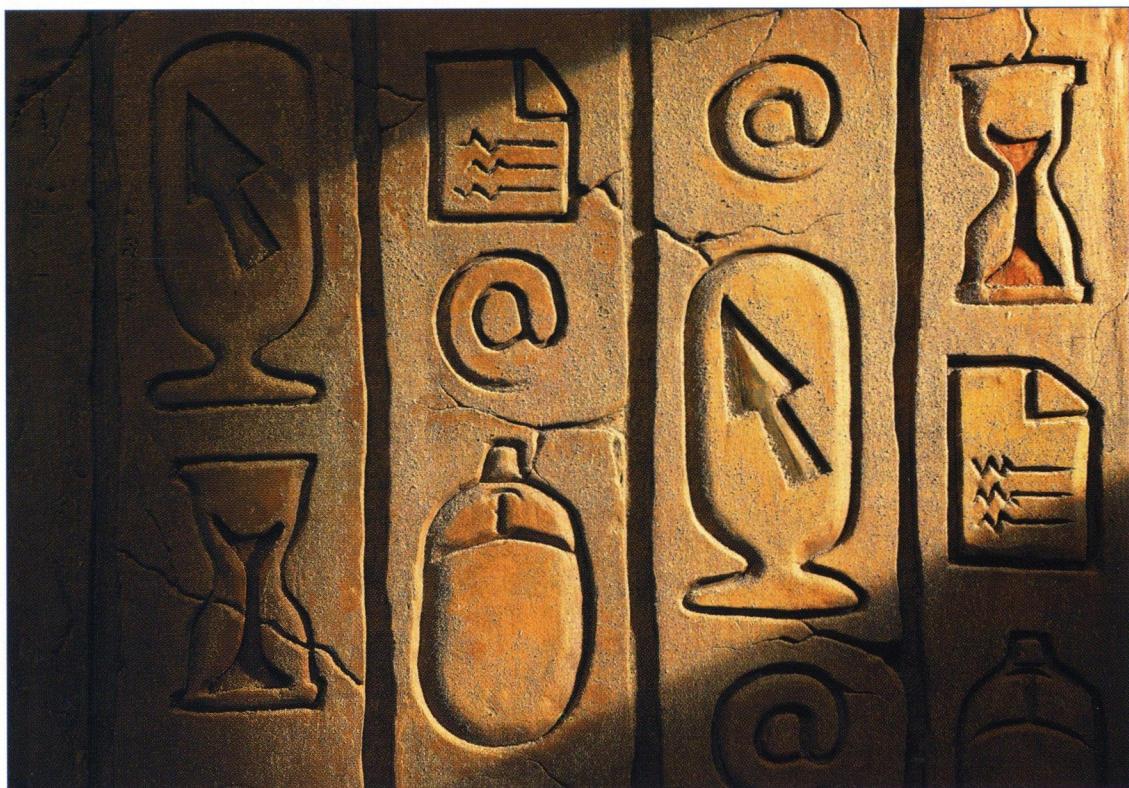

Finally, thanks to all those schools who have taken part we hope you have enjoyed the addition to your curriculum. To find out more about the Schools Visit Project simply ring the Club on 01582 411622.

Junior Hatters

THE Junior Hatters will be going to Peterborough next Saturday to meet our old friends there, but because pitches have been hammered by the weather we will not be able to play football with the young Posh fans. However it will be a good trip, and we will enjoy ourselves on the coach journey as well, with the usual mix of games and a quiz on the way home, with various prizes on offer.

We will be taking Happy Harry with us, and Peterborough have invited us to send a mascot out with him before kick-off. The choice will be made on the coach, so if you want to be considered book a seat and bring your Luton kit with you.

We will leave Luton at 12.30 and the price is £10 for Junior Hatters and £13 for guests, and you can book at the club shop.

Today's Mascot

EIGHT-year-old Yasmin Hickling, from Fallowfield, Luton, usually watches games sitting in the Kenilworth with her dad, but this evening she has an important part to play in proceedings, because she has been chosen to be the Junior Hatters mascot.

She goes to William Austin Junior School, and as well as watching the Town she likes swimming. As mascot, she will meet the players before the game, and join them on the pitch before kick-off. She is hoping that Mark Stein is fit again and able to play, because he is her favourite.

We also have two ball boys on duty, Christopher Johnson, 14, from Home Farm Way, Westoning, and Mark Pearson, 12, from Benson Close, Luton.

At the Peterborough game Gary Winsor, from New Road, Drayton Parslow, was a ball boy, and we were delighted to receive a letter from him this week.

"Thank you very much for giving me the opportunity to be a ball boy," he wrote. "I really enjoyed myself even though it was very cold and I only touched the ball a few times. It was an amazing experience which I could never forget."

Like the mascot, ball boys and girls are chosen at random from the Junior Hatters membership list, although for safety reasons ball boys and girls must be at least ten years old. If you want to be chosen you need do no more than join the Junior Hatters.

Hatters on Card

Alan Robinson

AFTER seven years without league football the sporting public was more than ready for the 1946-47 season, even if many of the war-time rationing and restrictions were still in force. This made the winter a bleak time, even before the blizzards that came later in February and March.

Prior to that, on this corresponding weekend 54 years ago, Luton Town brought some cheer to their fans by trouncing Notts County 6-0 in the FA Cup third round. The star of the show was centre-forward Hughie Billington, who scored five of the goals, but also doing his bit, keeping a clean sheet at the other end, was goalkeeper Les Bywater.

Rather surprisingly, when confectionery firm Barratt's resumed issuing football cards with their products the following season, it was Bywater, and not leading scorer Billington, who was the Town's representative in their 50-strong series. The firm had produced annual football sets during the 1930s, and this practice was to continue until 1967. Indeed, after a short break their successors, Sheffield-based Bassetts, carried on this tradition, and continued to give away soccer cards with what we now have to call candy sticks. They were sweet cigarettes in those days.

Bywater, whose first Christian name was Noel, was born in Lichfield, Staffs, on February 8, 1920. After showing promise as a schoolboy, he joined Huddersfield Town during the war. However, he found his opportunities limited there, and managed only two first-team outings in his time at Leeds Road.

During the transitional 1945-46 season, when "guesting" for other clubs was still common, Bywater came to Luton and played in a dozen or so senior games. He must have impressed, because in the following September he joined the Town on a permanent basis after the two clubs had agreed on what was said at the time to be a modest fee.

At the time Luton already had two professional keepers on the books - George Duke, who had signed in 1938, and Murdo Morrison, a Scot from Clydebank.

Duke was first choice at the start of the season, but Bywater was soon given his chance because Duke was still on Army service. After making a debut at Chesterfield in a 2-1 reverse on October 12, Bywater enjoyed a first-team run which lasted until mid-February, including four FA Cup ties. According to reports at the time he played blinders in the away matches at Burnley and West

Brom, which resulted in a 1-1 draw and a 2-1 win respectively. However, by the time of Luton's cup exit that season, also at Burnley, they had snapped up one of the leading amateur keepers in the game, Shrewsbury's Bernard Streten. Once he got into the team he performed so well that Bywater was to play only three more first-team matches for the Town.

Curiously, at the end of a season extended to the last day of May because of the winter snows, the last five games saw a goalkeeping change each time. Even Morrison got a look-in, his only appearance of the season in a 4-0 defeat at Barnsley.

What proved to be Bywater's last match for the Town was in a 3-0 triumph over Bradford Park Avenue at Kenilworth Road on May 24, in front of a crowd of 10,805.

The following season saw Streten ever-present and showing the form that would earn him an England cap and Bywater was allowed to join Rochdale in December 1947, where he played 33 more league games before going out of the game.

Not so long ago Barratt's cards from this era were relatively easy to obtain and could be found for about £1 each. Now they are becoming as sought-after as some of the pre-war cigarette cards, and I recently saw this Bywater example on a dealer's list at £10.

Hatters Chatter Fan in the boardroom

SUPPORTERS have another chance later this month to find out at first hand the latest news from the boardroom. Yvonne Fletcher, co-opted onto the board when Mike Watson-Challis took control of the club in the summer, will be the main speaker at an open meeting on January 24 (7.30pm) in the Eric Morecambe lounge.

Former chair of Luton Town Supporters Club, and now a director of FLAG, she has been mad about football in general and Luton Town in particular since she was a ten-year-old girl, 30 years ago. "I grew up in Stanton Road, Luton, a street full of boys who used to play football, and I joined in," she said. "I loved football then, and still do. My dad took me to my first match in 1970, standing on the Kenilworth Road terrace to see the Town beat Portsmouth 2-1, and I was hooked.

"I switched to standing in the enclosure so that I could be near the tunnel and collect autographs, and a little group of us became friends then, and still are. Now we all sit in that area as season ticket holders." Yvonne became a member of the Supporters Club soon after it was founded in its present form in 1988, eventually joining the committee and then having four years in the chair.

The receivership chapter 18 months ago saw her join FLAG when various supporting groups got together to form the Fans of Luton Action Group. She gave up the LTSC chairmanship, but still serves on the committee.

When FLAG came into being, it hoped to follow the example set by supporters of AFC Bournemouth when their club was in financial trouble. It is now a community-owned club, and the fans who organised that transformation became closely linked with FLAG, offering their experience and legal help.

The first public meeting of FLAG, at a packed canteen at Vauxhall Toddington, resulted in £10,000 being donated on the night, and eventually FLAG raised £40,000. With various backers giving support, FLAG made a bid of £2.1million for the club.

The receivers chose instead to accept the offer from Mike Watson-Challis, and a new board of directors was put in place. One of his first decisions was to offer FLAG a seat on the board.

After much consideration, FLAG accepted the offer, and a secret ballot nominated Yvonne to become the Town's first-ever supporter-director.

"In some ways it has been a little strange," she said. "There is such a wide range of activity going on day by day within a football club which fans never think about."

As sports desk manager at The Guardian, Yvonne is used to quick actions and responses in her daily job, and has found the pace of progress through board meetings much slower, with more thought needed, particularly on long-term planning.

"We meet formally as a board every four to six weeks, but talk to each other regularly, on the phone and at games," said Yvonne. "I have been impressed by what a good balance we have on the board - no ego-trippers, but a good mix of experience. Just about every decision is made by consensus, and that unity is one of our strengths.

"I suppose that I have to prove myself twice over - as a woman in what is traditionally a man's game, and as a supporter in an environment where few fans go. It has been something of an eye-opener for me, but I have found the job very rewarding."

She is still much involved with FLAG, which has about £22,000 in the bank. With the community ownership idea kicked into touch, FLAG is now looking at how to put that money into the football club. "We don't want it to drop into a black hole in the accounts," she said. "We want to see the money spent wisely, serving football and the community, and we hope to set up something that will run on in perpetuity, for instance something involving youth development."

Fans might have a lot of questions to ask. If so, you are invited to turn up on the night, and put them to Yvonne, to take advantage of the link between supporters and club.

Action Replay

Luton Town 3 Queens Park Rangers 3 (HT 2-0)

A MEMORABLE cup-tie which thrilled the biggest crowd of the season gave supporters of both sides the complete range of emotions before a final cruel twist denied the Town victory, pegged back by a last-minute penalty. Lee Nogan was reported by his manager to be in tears after the needless handball that gave First Division strugglers a draw after a match of swaying fortunes in which the Town led by two goals, lost the lead, then regained it with 15 minutes to go.

Gavin Peacock was the man who came back to haunt us. His two goals for Chelsea flattened us in the 1994 semi-final at Wembley, and he was influential in giving Rangers their streaky draw this time, setting up their first goal, and netting their face-saver from the spot.

It was a marvellous cup contest, full of good things, spoiled only for home supporters by the numbing shock of the last-minute drama.

Emmerson Boyce returned in place of injured Julian Watts, and Liam George was back to play behind the front two of Nogan and Andrew Fotiadis, with Peter Holmes transferred from midfield to the bench. The attacking formation worked a treat, as the Town hit the heights in a scintillating first half. Beanpole striker Peter Crouch missed two good early chances for Rangers before they were hit by two goals in eight minutes, by George and Fotiadis.

Rangers looked demoralised, every inch First Division strugglers yet to win away from home this season. But manager Gerry Francis tore into his team during the interval, and shook it up with the introduction of two subs to field a three-man attack to counter-balance the Town's.

Peacock, now 33 and a little chubbier and slower than in his Chelsea days, evened up the midfield contest, and when Crouch netted twice in the first seven minutes of the second half we feared the worst. We remembered the Town have shown several times this season that they have to score three goals to win. Miraculously, they refused to buckle as the pendulum seemed to have swung towards Rangers, and Stuart Douglas made a hero's return after injury, knocking in that third goal five minutes after going on as sub.

"Over the 90 minutes, we deserved to win 3-2," said Lil Fuccillo. "That late penalty was a real blow - the player still can't understand why he did it, and has apologised for it."

Francis saw it a little differently, pointing out that Rangers picked themselves up for a second time after conceding the third goal, with Sammy Koejoe shooting wide from a decent chance, and Jude Stirling clearing off the line from Karl Connolly. The draw was about right, he thought. Nearly 7,000 Town supporters at the game will disagree.

THE RESULT, in the Avon Insurance Combination League Cup was not the most important thing on our minds at Carrow Road, in a game mainly needed to enable Stuart Douglas and Liam George to confirm their return to fitness after injuries. Both did so, and got their rewards by scoring in the FA Cup tie against QPR a couple of days later. Those two apart, we fielded a comparatively inexperienced team against a home side which included several with a lot of first team experience.

It was a good work-out, but we were second best by a long way in the first half. We started with three at the back, with wingbacks, and Norwich found it easy to cope with that, so after about 25 minutes we changed to 5-2-3, and looked better for it.

We rode our luck, and I was pleased to get to the interval with the scoreline still blank. At that stage the game was perhaps 80/20 in Norwich's favour, but we had a much better second half when it came down to 60/40 to them. I thought we might nick a draw, but ten minutes after the break James Ayres was sent off for his second yellow card, a needless case of kicking the ball away. His first had been for a foul. As often happens, the ten men responded well and we had a good spell, but we had to disrupt the pattern to take Douglas and George off so as to leave something in the tank for them for the cup-tie.

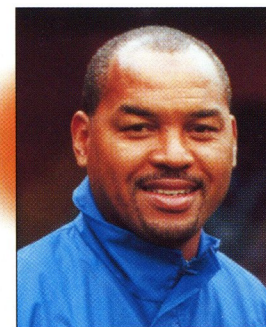

A deflected shot which Nathan Abbey let slip under his body gave Norwich the lead, and they added a good goal two minutes from time. We didn't deserve to win the game, but I had hoped we might be able to grind out a 0-0 draw, an ability all teams must strive for when they are not in command of games. With more application we might have done that, but overall our performance was not too bad. Young Lee Mansell acquitted himself well, as did Tresor Kandol and Andre Scarlett.

Luton Town: Abbey, Scarlett, James-Barriteau (Bruce 75 mins), Stirling, Karlson, Ayres, Breitenfelder, Mansell, Kandol, Douglas (Thomson 60 mins), George (Standen 55 mins).

Youth Soccer

Brian Stein

AFTER the holiday break, we are back in action in the Football League Youth Alliance tomorrow, and then face our biggest test of the season so far on Tuesday when we take on Manchester City in the FA Youth Cup fourth round at Kenilworth Road (7pm). I trust we will be in the right mood to face that challenge, but the cup-tie must be forgotten tomorrow, when we entertain Barnet in the Alliance. Kick-off at Luton RFC, Newlands Road, is at 11 am, and spectators are welcome. I hope we will have a good crowd on Tuesday night, and if you can come to the game your support will be appreciated.

I have been pleased with the efforts made by the boys since I took over as youth coach, and as usual we are a younger squad than most. We have six first-year YTS boys and six second-years, which means that for matches we have to augment the team with school-boys. It is common for us to field four under-16s in an under-19 league. Some take to it better than others, and we are careful not to ask too much of youngsters. It all underlines the need for us to find the best young prospects, and we have three 15-year-olds coming through nicely, and looking set to become YTS players when they leave school in the summer, if they maintain their progress and continue to prove they have the right attitude.

Kevin Foley, Parys Okai, both local, and Stephen O'Leary, from Harlesden in London, have all done well recently.

We recruited O'Leary from under the noses of other clubs in London when he was 13, playing for Barnet schools. Our scouting targets under-13 schools soccer because at that age you can make a good judgement on players. Wait till they are in under-14 schools football, and they are playing for counties rather than districts, and almost certain to be signed up elsewhere. O'Leary is a very determined central midfielder, and has already done well in our Alliance games.

Kevin Foley can play in midfield or as a right wing-back. He comes from Farley Hill, and we have had him under our wing since he was ten. He has some pedigree already, having been captain of the Cardinal Newman School team which won the under-14 Heinz Cup 18 months ago, making it the best football team in the country at that age level. He is a bright lad, self-disciplined and we have great hopes for him.

Parys Okai is another local boy who has been with us since he was ten. He is potentially another Liam George, which is apt because like Liam he hails from Marsh Farm. Liam is his hero, and he wants to follow in his footsteps, and for his part Liam has been a great help and encouragement to the lad. Boys see players like Liam George, and know that all things are possible if you have the will and willingness to work.

We will certainly need that on Tuesday night. We know Manchester City's youth squad is a lot bigger than ours, and has had a lot of money invested in it. On the night, it will still be about players and attitudes, and I believe we can win. As coach, I will do all I can to make sure that the team wearing Luton Town's colours gives everything it can, and doesn't let anyone down.

Second Division Scene Brian Swain

TWO managers will doubtless tell their teams in the Kenilworth

Road dressing rooms this evening to forget about the FA Cup and concentrate on important league points. Wycombe have a replay at Grimsby on Tuesday evening with the winners at home to Wolves in the fourth round, while our lads are dreaming of a crack at the Arsenal if we can sort out QPR on Wednesday. While the Town need league points to try to escape the relegation trapdoor, Wycombe's target is a six-point gap between them and the play-off places. When defender Paul McCarthy netted Wycombe's 73rd-minute equaliser against Lennie Lawrence's men on Saturday it was Wycombe's first-ever goal in the third round of the FA Cup. A win at Blundell Park will put them into the fourth round for the first time in their history. They beat Millwall after a replay in the second round after Harrow Borough in the first. Wycombe's away record need not frighten the Town, any more than our home record will scare the Chairboys. One other stat can be taken as you please, either as a sequence due to end, or one sure to be continued: the Town have never lost a league match against Wycombe.

A home win this evening will, if only for a few hours, put the Town level on points, but well below on goal difference, with 22nd-placed Port Vale, and will cut the gap between us and the current safety mark to two points. But the teams immediately above the Town have games in hand, so if Wycombe achieve their third league away win of the season the survival scrap will become considerably more difficult. Wycombe's two successes on their travels were at Millwall, 2-1 in August, and at Port Vale, 1-0 in late September. Away draws were chalked up at Stoke, Brentford, Wrexham, Swindon, Colchester and Northampton. Four of the six were goalless. Defeats were suffered at Rotherham, Reading, Oldham, Wigan and Cambridge.

Wycombe added another away win to their list on Tuesday, 2-0 at Orient in the LDV Vans Trophy. While the FA Cup provided a respite from the league for many clubs, the Town's situation in Division Two was not hit as hard as it might have been on Saturday. Port Vale were held 0-0 at home by Oldham, and Swansea were beaten at Wigan. It meant that there are six clubs adrift of the rest at the bottom of the table, with Bristol Rovers only one point ahead of Swindon, and still the only club in the league without a home win to their name this season. They try again tomorrow, against Brentford. At least one of the strugglers will collect a point or three tomorrow, because Swindon are at home to Port Vale.

Hopefully Barry Fry's Peterborough will shake off the after-effects of a 5-0 cup mauling at Chelsea by doing the business at The Vetch against Swansea.

Brian Swain
