THE CHAIRMAN

IN THE absence of the Chairman and Directors of Hartlepool United who are unable to attend tonight's fixture. I extend a warm welcome back to Kenilworth Stadium to the Manager, players and supporters who have made the long journey for this evening's game.

We are continuing to maintain our momentum at the top of League One, with a very important point away to Tranmere last Saturday. It is not often you see a keeper achieve what Dino Seremet did saving two penalties within minutes, only to be unlucky enough to be ambushed from a rebound on the retake.

On the previous Tuesday we lost away to Swansea in our LDV Vans Trophy match. Michael, whilst disappointed on the result, believed the game gave a good opportunity for our players who have been off first-team duty because of injury, benefited considerably playing in what was a highly charged and competitive match.

It is also good for the Club to have players noticed by their national teams. Kevin Foley will be not be available for selection for tonight's match, as he has been selected for the Republic of Ireland Under-21 squad UEFA Championship qualifying match versus France this evening. We wish him well.

By their invitation I attended the meeting of the Official Supporters Club held on Monday night at Vauxhall. It was very well attended, and the feedback that I have received afterwards has been most encouraging. This was the second of such meetings since the present Board took over the Club. I hope that, as a means of there being a free-ranging two-way communication between the Club and the supporters, there will be more such meetings in due course.

It is vital that we receive constructive comments and ideas from as wide an audience as possible, and that we respond to all questions in an open manner. The media was well represented, by Andy MacKenzie from the Luton News, and the following morning I was guest of Roberto Perrone from BBC Three Counties Radio, on his breakfast programme. Through the Luton News and Three Counties you will have been able to catch up on the salient issues that were aired.

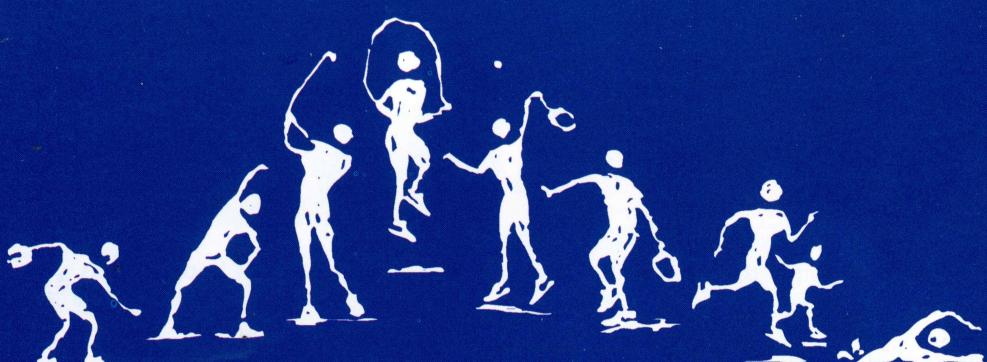

As the custodians of the Club, working towards a solid base for its future security and posterity, we see our supporters as being an important part of the Club's structure.

We are now bedded into the 2004/05 season with an incredible start, which has made everyone connected with the club very proud of our team's achievement, however we continue to go forward under the professional guidance of our manager Mike Newell, Mick Harford and Brian Stein, what they and the players have achieved to date will always be part of our recorded history. Thank you.

As always get behind the team and enjoy the game,

BILL TOMLINS

THE MANAGER

HELLO and welcome to Kenilworth Road for tonight's game against Hartlepool United. Welcome also to Neale Cooper, his staff, players and supporters from Victoria Park.

They had a good season last year, reaching the play-offs and tonight will be another good test for us. The last few weeks has seen us win against Stockport County and Peterborough United and take a point at Tranmere Rovers. Last week's game was probably our sternest test so far against a strong side with a solid home record and the lads came through with flying colours. The second half performance deserved something and some of the individual performances were outstanding.

I don't like singling players out but those of you who were at the game will know who I am talking about. It is becoming more difficult at home with sides now coming here with the intention of not getting beaten as opposed to winning. That is only to be expected considering the position we are in and it is something we will learn to deal with. We believe that sometimes the lads have got more in their locker, another gear as such and if we can get it out of them then heaven help the team they find it against.

Congratulations to Rowan Vine, who was named as Powerade Player of the Month for September in League One. He has settled in well and started to hit the net which is nice but the most important thing is his work ethic and his unselfishness. With Gary McSheffrey back and Howie, Enoch and Blinks we are spoilt for choice at the moment. That is in stark contrast to this time last year and it shows that the club must be moving in the right direction.

We are grateful for the backing we have received off the pitch and also for the faith that Bill and his board have in us and what we are doing. They have recognised the business that we are in and that football and the supporters are the priority. They therefore leave the football to us. Not everybody has that luxury.

Enjoy the game and get behind the lads,

MIKE NEWELL

CLUB SECRETARY

GOOD EVENING and welcome to our first home evening match of the season, as you know this fixture has been changed to this evening because of England's World Cup Qualifying match tomorrow, which has a 3.00p.m. kick-off, something I still find quite amazing in the football calendar.

Speaking of night matches, I must make a special mention of the 79 supporters who made the long journey and travelled to Swansea for the LDV Vans Trophy match – I think I could name everyone of you. Many thanks for your support.

I have been asked to pass on the thanks of the Royal National Lifeboat Institution to our supporters at the Peterborough match who once again gave generously in the sum of £493.61.

We have over the past weeks had problems with our twenty-four hour Credit Card Hotline, which some supporters have contacted me about. Having tried to use the service myself – and that was not easy, we immediately redirected the service back in house to the ticket office, with a better standard of service already being noticed by supporters. A reminder at this point, to all supporters, that with the success of the team you should, where possible, purchase your tickets early to avoid disappointment. All home league matches are on sale two months in advance of the match.

With Colchester having a first-team match on Tuesday 26th October, we have agreed to put back our Pontin's Holidays Combination League fixture by one week and we will now play at Colchester on Tuesday 3rd November. At the time of writing I have not been able to put in a date for our fixture in the Combination League with Southend United.

The Secretary at Hull City has asked me to advise supporters regarding our match at Hull on Saturday 23rd October that he expects his Safety Officer to request that our supporters have a voluntary ten minute delay in vacating their seats at the end of the match. This will enable home supporters to disperse from the immediate vicinity and enable our supporters to leave the stadium in comfort. Please see the ticket office information on page 29 for details of the discounted price if you pre-purchase your ticket at Kenilworth Road for this match.

With the game this evening, the whole complex will be closed tomorrow and this will give all of us the opportunity to support our national teams and for some of us to put in some retail therapy beforehand!

Enjoy the game,

Cherry

MANAGER

NEALE COOPER

HARTLEPOOL UNITED appointed Neale Cooper in June of 2003 and he made an immediate impact at the Club.

In just his first season at the helm, he guided his new charges into the Division Two play-offs. They were just two minutes away from making the final at the Millennium Stadium before Bristol City struck twice to break the hearts of the Victoria Park outfit.

Cooper made his name as manager in Scotland with Ross County. He guided the Highlands outfit from the Third Division to the First Division in successive seasons and became a hero with the fans at Dingwall.

As a player he appeared for Aberdeen, Aston Villa, Rangers, Reading and Dunfermline, picking several pieces of silverware along the way including a European Cup Winner's Cup winners' medal.

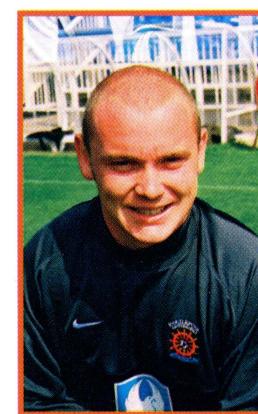

During his twenty year playing career he played under the likes of Sir Alex Ferguson, Graham Taylor, Graeme Souness and Walter Smith and he will be hoping that experience will stand him good stead as he endeavours to follow in their successful footsteps with the Pools, in his first managerial job south of the border, aiming to go one better than last season and achieve promotion from League One this term.

GOALKEEPERS

DIMITRIOS KONSTANTOPOULOS

Arrived on trial initially but did sufficient to impress Neale Cooper and the former Greece Under-21 international signed an extended contract with the Club in late 2003. He has a reputation as a fine shot-stopper and has provided excellent competition for Jim Provett. His physical stature also allows him to command his box very well and his kicking is also a strong area of his game.

JIM PROVETT

Enjoyed a remarkable 2003/04 campaign after emerging as Neale Cooper's first-choice goalkeeper. The 21-year-old was voted both the Supporters' and the Players' Player of the Year in his first full season between the posts. Provett came in to the side at Hillsborough for a Carling Cup tie, secured the man of the match award in a dramatic penalty shootout win and since then he's never looked back. The Trimdon-born youngster pulled off a catalogue of wonderful saves during the campaign and played a major role in pushing Pools into the play-offs.

DEFENDERS

MICHAEL BARRON

Longest-serving player at Victoria Park, having joined Pools in 1996 from Middlesbrough. Although signed as a central defender, the Chester-le-Street-born defender has captained the side from right-back for the last three seasons. He is a tough-tackling player who leads by example and has now played over 300 games for the Club.

DARREN CRADDOCK

A young defender with bags of potential, the 19-year-old featured in the centre of defence in the early part of last season but it was when he was switched to right-back towards the back end of the campaign that he really showed promise. Craddock kept skipper Micky Barron out of the side for a spell and highlighted why Neale Cooper rates him so highly. He was rewarded for his efforts with a first professional contract at the end of the season.

MICHAEL NELSON

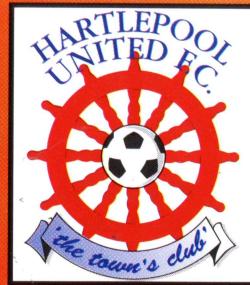

Signed for the Club on the same day that Neale Cooper was appointed manager last summer. The no-nonsense defender arrived from Bury and has been a rock at the heart of the Pools' defence. 'Nelse' moved to Gigg Lane from Bishop Auckland in 2001 after a successful trial period and he was named their Player of the Year in the 2002/03 season - he was a close second to Jim Provett for the award at Pools last term. Aggressive in the tackle and superb in the air, Nelson can also be a threat going forward at set-pieces.

MATTY ROBSON

Promising young player who signed his first professional contract during last season. 'Pop' started last season in the side and was one of four debutants to find the net in Pools' thrilling 4-3 win over Peterborough United on the opening day. He is a left-sided player whom Neale Cooper has employed both at full-back and on the wing. Matty likes to get forward and has a sweet left foot and an eye for goal.

CHRIS WESTWOOD

Joined the Club from Wolves in 1999 and has been a consistent part of the central defence ever since. He forged a superb partnership with

HARTLEPOOL UNITED

Michael Nelson last season which was one of the main factors in Pools' push to the play-offs. 'Westy' is a good reader of the game who prefers to stay on his feet rather than dive in and his classy displays were recognised in 2002/03 season when he was named in the PFA Division Three Team of the Year.

MIDFIELDERS

RITCHIE HUMPHREYS

A favourite amongst fans and players alike at Victoria Park, he arrived at the club in the summer of 2001 as he looked to recover from a broken leg sustained whilst playing for Cambridge United. He can play up front or in central midfield but it is on the left-flank where he feels at his most dangerous. His 11 goals in 49 games during the 2002/03 promotion season earned him a place in the PFA Division Three Team of the Year and also the Supporters' Player of the Year. Ritchie came in to his own as Pools pushed for the play-offs in Division Two last year and led the side as captain on a number of occasions in Micky Barron's absence.

STEVEN ISTEAD

Voted Young Player of the Year last season for his exciting performances on the right wing. 'Icley' is a tenacious player and his pace has caused problems for left-backs throughout the Second Division. Employed mainly as a second-half substitute, his work rate and determination have made him a hit with the fans. Scored at Sheffield Wednesday in the League Cup and also netted the winner at Colchester United – he is certainly one to look out for in the future.

ALAN POUTON

Newcastle-born central midfielder, Pouton signed for the Club on a month's loan from League Championship side Gillingham. The 27-year-old started his career as a trainee with Newcastle before playing for Oxford United, York City and Grimsby. He is seen as a competitive player whose strength and commitment will be invaluable to Neale Cooper's side.

GAVIN STRACHAN

Arrived at the Club during the 2003/04 pre-season for a trial after a brief spell with Sheffield Wednesday in which he played in a friendly against Pools. He signed a deal in time to join with the squad at Peterborough on the opening day and scored a sensational debut goal from a free-kick. His expertise from set-pieces was soon evident as he found the net on a number of occasions - most notably with a dramatic injury-time equaliser at Bournemouth. Having signed on a short-term deal initially, Neale Cooper had no hesitation in offering him a longer contract once he'd seen what he was capable of.

ANTONY SWEENEY

Tony broke in to the side at the end of last season and his form in the centre of midfield helped Pools in to the play-offs. Indeed it was his goal at Bristol City that almost took Pools to the Millennium Stadium but for two late strikes from City. He was handed his debut by Chris Turner against Carlisle on the opening day of the 2002/03 campaign but struggled to hold down a regular place. However, his performances last year secured him a new contract with the Club. He is a whole-hearted competitor with a good engine and the ability to get forward as well as back – his height is also an advantage as he is excellent in the air.

MARK TINKLER

Combative midfielder who joined the club in 2000 from Southend United. He likes to get stuck in but also has a good eye for a pass and can also chip in with goals. He was the Club's second highest scorer in the promotion season of 2002/03 and likes to have a crack from distance. 'Tinks' helped out in the centre of defence towards the end of last season and many have tipped him to become a regular defender later in his career - for now though, he is happy to patrol the middle of the park.

MARTIN WOODS

Promising left-sided midfielder who has joined Pools on month's loan from Leeds United. The 18-year-old has joined Neale Cooper's side to gain some invaluable first-team experience away from Elland Road, so he will be looking to impress during his stay. Woods has also represented Scotland at Under-19 level so this youngster will be a welcome addition to Pools' depleted squad at the moment.

STRIKERS

ADAM BOYD

Played a major role in guiding Pools in to the play-offs last season despite earlier looking like heading for a Victoria Park exit. He was on the verge of a move to Boston before being recalled to the starting line-up where he netted twelve times including the vital strike at Swindon Town on the final day. A player with undoubtedly skill, Adam will be hoping that Neale Cooper can continue to bring the best out of him during the current campaign.

JOEL PORTER

Initially arrived at the Club on a short-term contract but soon did enough to persuade Neale Cooper he was worthy of an extended deal. The Australian striker is a hard-working and unselfish player with an immaculate first touch. Porter scored his first goal for Pools in the televised FA Cup tie at Burton last season and also found the net most notably in the first leg of the play-off semi-final against Bristol City.

EIFION WILLIAMS

The Club's top scorer for two consecutive seasons, he handled the step up to Division Two well last term and his thirteen goals were a vital factor in Pools' push towards the play-offs last term. His consistent performances were recognised with a call-up to the Wales set-up late last season - unfortunately injury meant he had to withdraw from Mark Hughes' international squad. Eifion, who played up front and wide on the right, signed a new deal with the club during last season.

CLUB CAPTAIN

THE WIN over Peterborough was another good home performance, they deserve credit though because they gave it a good shot and they came at us in the second half. We did not get that second goal we needed and they pulled level early into the second period but thankfully for us Unders took his goal really well after a good move and a good ball from Robbo and we were able to pick up another three points at home.

Barry Fry's teams are always gung-ho and you know what you are going to get from them, they really go for it and it was probably the best game for supporters to watch so far this season because other teams have come here and sat behind the ball but they tried to beat us.

Although I didn't travel to Swansea, I understand that the lads turned in a good performance and regrettably for Leon, I don't believe that he deserved a red card; most people I have spoken to felt it was a booking at best. We then lost Dave Bayliss, which is unfortunate for him because he has just come back from a serious injury and he has been looking fit and sharp in training. It was a good work out for the other lads, they played nearly eighty minutes with ten men and were about to take the game into extra-time when Swansea scored so they did well because for a lot of them it was their first competitive game this season. We have probably got everyone in the squad fit now - with the exception of Bayliss and Marlon Beresford - everyone is pushing for a place, keeping those of us who are playing on our toes.

We did a good job up at Tranmere on Saturday, it was a physical game and I thought that Coyney was a monster at the back, he had a great game and he took his goal well. When we scored I really thought that we were going to go on and win the game, we felt confident and Viney and McSheffrey were full of running and their back four looked as though they were tiring but we had to settle for the point. We have gone away from home and they have thrown everything at us but we were strong and we have come away with a point. It was another good performance and we are still unbeaten, we can't do any more than that.

October is a big month for us, we have got three massive games coming up against sides in the top ten, starting tonight against Hartlepool, then we play Huddersfield and Hull. Hartlepool will be another tough test for us but we are confident and looking forward to every game. We have had a week to prepare for this, with no fresh injury worries and boosted by the return of Howie.

When you are top of the league, every game is a big game, everyone wants to beat us. We know some people expect us to slide down the table and not be capable of sustaining this but we want to win this league, we want to stay unbeaten throughout this season.

Enjoy the game,

HATTERS HISTORY

WHEN the Town were relegated in 2001 they found themselves back in the basement division for the first time since 1968. Determined to make the stay as short as possible, manager Joe Kinnear boosted his squad with the type of player who could compete at this level and beyond and brought in battlers with big hearts and no mean skill.

Although it took a little while to adjust to the rigours of their new environment the Hatters were soon challenging for promotion at the top of the table until a poor run in November set the alarm bells ringing. Three defeats from four matches, culminating in a terrible 4-1 thrashing at Macclesfield, had Kinnear threatening to cancel all rest days for the players but he was then forced to backtrack when a flu bug swept through the club leading to the enforced postponement of the next league game at Kidderminster.

The next outing took the side to Hartlepool where we had returned pointless from four previous visits. Boosted by the signing of tough centre-half Dave Bayliss and a determination to put the bad run behind them the Hatters attacked with a will and were rewarded for a steely display by going in two up at the interval.

Fussy referee Tony Leake had booked five Luton players in the first-half and Kinnear's team talk consisted of telling the players to stay on their feet and not dive in to challenges. It, however, seemed inevitable that someone would have to go and when Ian Hillier was dismissed for a clumsy lunge, Hartlepool's efforts redoubled and they almost immediately pulled a goal back through Ritchie Humphreys.

It was then back to the wall for the Town, but on the few occasions that the rearguard was breached the Hartlepool forwards found Mark Ovendale in inspirational form and a vital and confidence boosting three points were finally earned. Due to a fixture list quirk the return was played two weeks later. Sandwiched in between we had seen off Rushden at Kenilworth Road and were back up to second spot in the table.

Both sides showed three changes from their previous encounter and a dull first-half was enlivened by Howard's firm header from a Jean-Louis Valois corner after 35 minutes. Hartlepool had shown little attacking threat but surprisingly levelled on the stroke of half-time when Darrell Clarke shot into an empty net – their first attempt on target. Pools started the second half as more of an attacking force and took the lead with a fluke when Clarke's right wing cross sailed over Ovendale's head into the top corner.

It was now the Town's turn to batter away and a flurry of substitutions sent on Andrew Fotiadis and Adrian Forbes to bolster the attack. It was left, though, to veteran Marvin Johnson to side-foot his first goal in over three years on 84 minutes to earn a share of the spoils.

■ Chris Coyne receiving the man of match award on behalf of Paul Underwood at the post-match celebrations.

Finally, we wish to welcome back into the commercial department, Gary Hooper. Gary, whose Luton Town association started as a Schoolboy at 14, progressed through apprenticeship into professional papers and subsequently moved into two years spent in our football in the community and commercial departments. Since leaving Luton Town in 1994 Gary has had spells with Crystal Palace, Cambridge United, Oxford United and Northampton. With the objectives and development plans that we have for the commercial development of the club, Gary's experience will be invaluable. We all wish him well in his new role.

Enjoy the game and thank you for your support.

HATTERS RESERVES

THE RESERVES have been without a league fixture in the Pontin's Holiday Combination since the start of September which has meant that Brian Stein's side have played a couple of friendly games to keep the players not involved with the first-team match fit.

The Town recently followed up a 2-2 draw with Portsmouth by sharing four goals at Oxford United in a behind closed doors friendly on Tuesday 21st September. The match marked the first full game of Gary McSheffrey's second loan spell at the Hatters after he played the whole ninety minutes, partnered in equal measures by Enoch Showunmi and Matthew Blinkhorn, who both played a half each.

Chris Hackett claimed a brace for the home side to give the U's a two-goal advantage, although on both occasions a Luton Town defender got the decisive touch however the Hatters hit back in the second-half through a Peter Holmes free-kick and a goal from Blackpool loanee Blinkhorn.

"It was a game we should have won comfortably," stated Stein. "Gary McSheffrey would have scored four or five another day, he hit the post and the bar and forced some good saves from their goalkeeper.

"We ended up scoring all four goals, we fell behind to two disappointing goals, two crosses whizzed across the box and Alan Neilson and David Bayliss both ended up getting the final touch and scoring in their own net although there was little they could do about it.

"We created chance after chance and we looked very good going forward, McSheffrey looked sharp but we were left to rue some missed chances."

The Hatters second string returned to league action on Tuesday of this week with a 3 - 0 win over Northampton Town and we will reflect on that match in more detail in the next home programme against Huddersfield Town.

AWAY TRIPS

We had an almost full coach to Tranmere Rovers last weekend where we watched an exiting and hard fought game. We were invited to take a Junior Mascot and this time the honour fell to 12-year-old Reece Carrigan who was on his first trip with us

Our next away trip will be to Bristol City on December 18th and we will give out details nearer to the time. This is likely to be a very popular trip as the Junior Robins have been excellent hosts in the past. We have also been invited to Chesterfield on Boxing Day.

SQUAD NUMBER MATHS

Test your maths skills to find the name of the players whose squad numbers make the answers to these sums. Here's an easy one for younger members:

Q1

$$\begin{array}{ccc} \text{Player 1} & + & \text{Player 2} \\ \text{Player 3} & \div & \text{Player 4} \end{array} = ?$$

Now a harder question: Q2

$$\begin{array}{ccc} \text{Player 5} & \times & \text{Player 6} \\ \text{Player 7} & - & \text{Player 8} \end{array} = ?$$

The first two members to call the Community Office with the correct answers will be sent a prize (8 years and under question 1, over 8's question 2). Remember to give your name and membership number too.

HATTERS YOUTH

SINCE the first-team was last at home we have played two matches at Under-18 level, one in the League and the other in the Youth Alliance Cup.

Overall, I was happy with a point in the end against Oxford but they will be a bit more disappointed than I was because I think that they had a lot more of the game and created clearer cut chances. We didn't really get the ball down and play as much as I would have liked to have done because they put pressure on us all over the field and all credit to them because they worked hard.

Oxford were top going into the game, I knew it would be a tough game and it had the added bit of rivalry between myself and Darren Patterson going back to when we used to play for Luton together, so I was very pleased to keep the unbeaten run going.

On Saturday we played Rushden & Diamonds in the first round of the Youth Alliance Cup and although we beat them last month in the league, the cup is a different competition and that result meant nothing. We started quite well but they came into the game as the first half progressed and again it was quite tight, we managed to nick a goal just before half-time and that managed to settle us down. We dominated the second half and moved the ball around well, we added two more goals and I was very pleased with the performance.

Finally, a word of congratulations for Leon Barnett and Calvin Andrew, who last week signed contracts with the club until 2007. They are still eligible for Under-18 matches which is good for me but hopefully they can go on from here to the next level and get themselves regular reserve team football.

It is a brilliant plus for the Club to see two more young players sign pro. contracts, in the last year Kevin Foley, Robert Beckwith, Curtis Davies, Stephen O'Leary and Keith Keane have all signed professional terms. It is good for the other scholars to see that if you work hard and you do the right thing you will be rewarded.

KEITH KEANE

AT THE start of the week, Keith Keane was named in the Republic of Ireland Under-19 squad for a forthcoming international tournament with Cyprus, Andorra and Russia. His selection in the travelling party caps a remarkable eight months that has seen him make his league debut for the Hatters, as well as make his international bow at Under-19 level and sign a professional contract that will tie him to the club until 2007, all while only seventeen-years-old.

The versatile youngster explained his surprise at being offered terms whilst still a scholar: "It was a big shock because I know that not many people get offered professional terms after a three year scholarship so for me to get one now is a real surprise for me. I couldn't believe it when the gaffer called me in to the office to tell me, I was very happy.

"I came back in the summer determined to work as hard as last season because I thought I would be training with the youth team. I expected I would have to work my way back up but when I was given the chance to train with the first-team I saw an opportunity. They obviously felt that I had shown them something to keep me in there and I didn't want to let them down, I wanted to prove I was good enough."

"It is great for me that they have the belief that I can play at this level. At the moment all I am trying to do is to do well in training and for the reserves and keep the pressure on Kevin Foley. Now I have got my contract I have got to get my head down and try and establish myself, that is my next target. If there is competition for a position in the team it is good for all of the players because it means that we have to work hard to try and get better."

His progress on the club front hasn't gone unnoticed by international scouts and although an injury ruled him out of an earlier appearance at schoolboy level for the Republic of Ireland last season, he grabbed his opportunity against England at the beginning of September.

Keane explained: "Two years ago I went away with Ireland when I played in midfield and I didn't get a look in, however since I've changed position and moved up an age group to a different manager, I was fortunate enough to be put straight into the team.

"I found out I was in the starting line-up the morning before the game, I thought I had done well enough in training to be in with a chance of starting but when I found out the team I was happy but nervous at the same time.

"I was up against a player called Lee Holmes from Derby and he was a very good player, quick and comfortable on both feet so he kept me busy but I was pleased with my debut and hopefully I can do well in Cyprus and take it from there."

their skills through active involvement in football."

As you may remember Hillborough School excelled last year and were only a hairs breadth from reaching the Grand Final after a superb string of performances at Swindon.

Can your school better this performance and make it all the way to the Millennium Stadium?

Kellogg's Frosties, of course sponsored last season's hugely successful competition, which attracted over 3,000 school teams. Football in the Community Schemes at professional Football Clubs all over the country will shortly be starting this year's local tournaments looking to find the school that will represent their Club at the eight area finals that will take place around the country in January 2005.

The area finals will be followed by two regional finals that will, in turn, produce the two school teams to take part in the grand final, which will be held at the Millennium Stadium in Cardiff in April 2005, prior to The Football League's LDV Vans Trophy Final match.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Who is the toughest opponent Peter Holmes has ever faced?

LUTON TOWN BELLES

RESERVES

THE Reserves continue to be involved in high scoring exchanges which saw them rise to the top of their league defeating Hampstead based Joybabe by 8-2. Luton quickly established a winning lead and were 5-0 up at the break through goals from Vicky Moody, Shelley Miller, Sam Mather, Aimee Barrable and the pick of the goals from Fay Rolls, who converted a cross after a surging run from Natalie Forbes had ran half the length of the field to deliver. Further goals from strike duo Miller and Rolls and a goal direct from a Moody corner completed the Town's tally, although the away side did net two consolation goals.

That win brought together the top two for an early season top of the league battle at East Barnet. Town found themselves 2-0 down in the first ten minutes and things got worse just before half time when Barnet increased their lead. Belles began the second half a much improved side after a half time reorganisation and fought their way back into the game when a cross shot from Fay Rolls squirmed into the net and Aimee Barrable reduced the deficit further converting a Gemma Vale cross on the far post.

Town continued to press and looked like they would grab a point but fell further behind when the home side grabbed another two goals on the counter as they pressed for the equaliser. Shelley Miller then made it 5-3 with a shot in off the inside of the post and with fifteen minutes left Belles still looked like they might secure a vital point but Barnet held on for what may turn out to be a vital win as the season unfolds.

YOUTH

The youth squads have all had solid starts to the season with the Under 11's, 12's and 13's already setting the pace in their divisions with 100% records.

The Under 11's latest away win came at the expense of Enfield Town. A brace from captain Maisie Wyatt scored twice and Katie Davis completed a fine 3-0 win. The real surprise package are the Under 12's who were trailing 1-0 at half time to Hemel Hempstead. The second half was a completely different story after Ashleigh Best ran from half way to equalise and three long range shots from Kate Harte and two from Serena Lawrence saw the Belles run out 4-1 winners. Last weekend's 2-0 win over St Albans sees Luton in a healthy position at the top of their table.

The Under 13's made light work of Denham United, who had previously only lost two league matches, storming into a 4-0 half time lead courtesy of a hat trick from Chloe Barnes and an individual goal from Lauren Bruton. Bruton was again on target in the second half and Jade McEntaggart wrapped up a 6-0 win converting a penalty in the last minute.

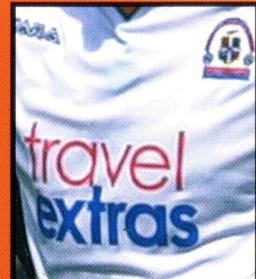

The oldest youth squad at Under 15 have perhaps the toughest task in a strong league but they too have notched up three wins from four with the latest win also over Denham United by 6-2. Nina Hale was again in good form in front of goal firing five of the goals.

SUPPORTERS PAGE

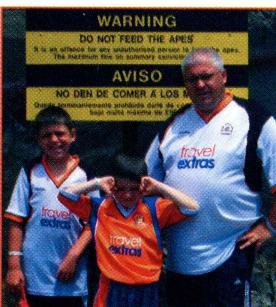

SINCE the season started we have been inundated with contributions from supporters for the programme and in particular photographs of you all proudly wearing your Luton Town merchandise at famous landmarks and sporting arenas around the world. Here are just a selection of some of the photos we have received.

Season ticket holder Guy Mutton will be celebrating his 40th birthday on 11th October and he is pictured with his wife Louise, at the European Championship quarter-final between England and Portugal in Lisbon during the summer.

Although it wasn't the result that they were looking for on the day, the Hatters start to the season has more than made up for the disappointment of that evening. We all hope you have an enjoyable day on Monday Guy.

Following on the European theme, Chris Boyton has sent us in a photograph from his summer holiday in Spain. He is pictured with his two sons, Craig and Ashley, visiting the monkeys in Gibraltar.

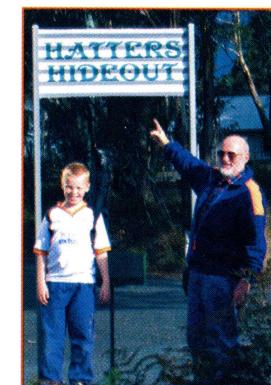

They watch the home matches from the Main Stand and Chris recently took the two boys to their first away match against Sheffield

Wednesday, an experience that they enjoyed and hopefully they can look forward to many more successful away days following the Town this season and in years to come.

Claire Abbot has provided us with this photograph her two sons, Dominic and Alexander, pictured at the Col de Tourmalet, a famous mountain that forms part of the Tour de France course. The youngsters are regular visitors to Kenilworth Road, where they sit with their father and grandfather who have had the same seats for over thirty years.

The photograph was taken during their holiday in France, when they were travelling from Biarritz to visit friends in Perignan, via a detour up the Pyrenees.

During the summer the Willmott family enjoyed a trip to the Blue Mountains in Australia and keen eyed Matthew spotted the sign that can be seen in the photograph and promptly dragged his grandad along to be photographed. Not long after this picture was taken they were snowed in.

COMING NEXT

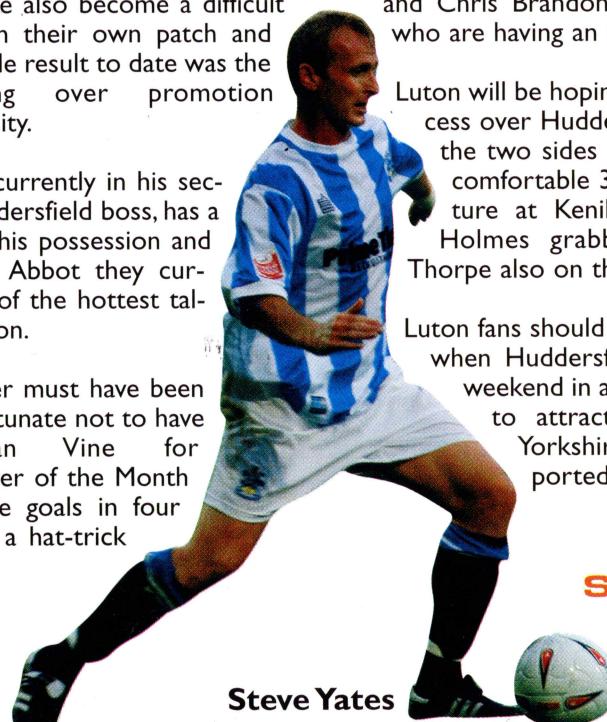

HUDDERSFIELD TOWN provide the next test for Mike Newell's men at Kenilworth Road with the Terriers currently experiencing a rich run of form. Peter Jackson's side, who won promotion to League One via the play-offs last season, are probably seen by many as the surprise team in the top half of the table.

Huddersfield have certainly found their feet in this division after a poor start to the campaign and have collected ten points from their last five games. And it has been a combination of hard earned victories not only at their impressive Galpham Stadium but also on their travels.

On the road, the Terriers have notched up wins over Port Vale and Stockport County as well as a hard-earned point over Bristol City. Huddersfield have also become a difficult team to beat on their own patch and their most notable result to date was the 4-0 hammering over promotion favourites Hull City.

Jackson, who is currently in his second stint as Huddersfield boss, has a strong squad at his possession and in striker Pawel Abbot they currently have one of the hottest talents in the division.

The Polish striker must have been somewhat unfortunate not to have pipped Rowan Vine for September's Player of the Month after scoring five goals in four games, including a hat-trick over Port Vale.

Steve Yates

STEVEN DOVE

One Huddersfield player who will need no introduction to the Kenilworth Road faithful is bandanna wearing Efetobore Sodje.

The Nigerian defender moved to Kenilworth Road after a successful spell at Macclesfield Town but made only five league appearances for the Hatters before being transferred to Crewe.

Fellow defender Steve Yates, who joined from Sheffield United two season's ago, provides a wealth of experience and versatility at the back.

And Jackson improved on his already impressive outfit during the close season by capturing the services of Junior Mendes from Mansfield and Chris Brandon from Chesterfield, both who are having an impact this campaign.

Luton will be hoping to repeat the same success over Huddersfield from the last time the two sides met. The Hatters ran out comfortable 3-0 winners in the last fixture at Kenilworth Road with Peter Holmes grabbing a brace and Tony Thorpe also on the scoresheet.

Luton fans should expect a close encounter when Huddersfield come to town next weekend in a fixture which is expected to attract a high gate with the Yorkshire club who are well supported on their travels.
