NIALL'S NOTES

Sunderland vs Norwich City
Date: 02.12.2006 Result: 1-0
Daryl Murphy's great goal earns another three points

Last week turned out to be a really good one with the win at QPR being followed up by three more points against Norwich. We didn't move much in the table but we narrowed the points gap to the top six. Certainly if we can get another victory today the chances are we will begin to see progress reflected in our league position.

The games around the Christmas period are always vital and that's certainly the case for us at the moment. We are looking to stamp our authority on games and kick on from here on in. The transfer window is about to open and we're hoping to bring in one or two players to bolster our challenge. The bar is being raised and the current squad have now put together an unbeaten run of five games that we will look to continue. We've a bit of a chance now to get in touch with the leading pack and the forthcoming games are so important for us.

I've said before and I'll keep on saying to supporters that if you are waiting to see what will happen then please come now and make a difference. The better our support the harder it is for visiting teams to cope with a trip to the Stadium of Light and I'd like to say to those who booed at half time last week that while we respect that you have paid good money, and are entitled to your opinions, you should know that booing the team off at half time is detrimental to our chances.

ROLL OF HONOUR

Top Flight Champions: 1892, 1893, 1895, 1902, 1913 & 1936
'Championship' Winners: 1976, 1996, 1999, 2005
'League One' Winners: 1988
F.A. Cup Winners: 1937 & 1973
Top Flight Runners Up: 1894, 1898, 1901, 1923 & 1935
'Championship' Runners Up: 1964 & 1980 (Promoted: 1990)
F.A. Cup Finalists: 1913 & 1992
League Cup Finalists: 1985

With the changing names of the leagues in 1992 and 2004 we refer to the levels of the Football League by their current names, for example Sunderland won the equivalent of what is now 'The Championship' in 1976 when back then it was called The Second Division.

Just as disappointing in my view were the floods of people leaving before the end last week. We were one goal up against Norwich and needed support to help protect that goal. I know it wasn't a pretty performance but do the people leaving early see themselves as fans or customers?

My hope is that we are all fans and that we approach games together as a unit all guns blazing. Naturally this goes back to my comments in last week's programme about opposing teams sniffing that they've a chance to get the crowd on the backs of our players but if we have a gigantic support behind us it has the opposite effect on visiting teams and can make them nervous about playing at Sunderland. If you've been watching the cricket you'll have seen how nerves can play a part in sport. I'm asking for a big effort to make sure any nerves on the pitch at Sunderland belong to the team we are playing against!

This is our last home game before Christmas and I'd like to give my very best wishes to you and your families. Let's work together to make sure our Christmas is a good one.

WE'RE ALL IN THIS TOGETHER:

THE BIGGEST THING FOR ME WHEN I STARTED WORKING WITH THE TEAM WAS TO TRY AND GET THAT SENSE OF TOGETHERNESS.

WIN THE TEAM SHEET

'Red and White' gives you the chance to win a really rare piece of football memorabilia. At every game each team submits a handwritten team sheet. There are only three copies of this. One goes to the referee, one is given to the opposition and the other could be for you. That's our prize if you are our winner.

If you'd like to add the handwritten team sheet to your collection of footballing souvenirs what you have to do to have a chance of winning is correctly predict Sunderland's team. Send what you think will be the Lads' starting eleven to 'Red and White' by the day before each game and if your team matches the team Roy Keane names then you could be a winner. If more than one correct entry is received then a winner will be chosen at random.

Send your entries marked 'Teamsheet' to Red and White, Stadium of Light, Sunderland, SR5 1SU. Or email redandwhite@safc.com

I was absolutely delighted with the team last Saturday.

Sometimes at a football club there are lots of little things that supporters or people outside the club might not see or realise but there were one or two players who were really struggling.

Dean Whitehead for instance hurt himself just before the end of training the day before the game but was prepared to go out and give it a go. We thought he might have to come off fairly early in the game but credit to him he stayed out there for the 90 minutes and did all that was asked of him.

Liam Miller was someone else who really helped us out. He'd been in Ireland for a funeral the day before the game and I was prepared to let him stay there for the weekend if he wasn't right for the match but he wanted to play and had a real influence on the game which helped us towards the three points. We had players out of position and had had a strange few days leading up to the game with lads dropping like flies. Some of that was a knock on from the QPR match the previous Tuesday and I have to say that given the circumstances we faced going into the match I'd have been more than happy with a draw so to win and deserve to win really pleased me.

Clearly we didn't play as well as we can but we did grind out a win which is what matters. Their manager came out and said he felt they should have won the game but I disagree with that one especially as I don't remember our keeper having to make too many saves. It was the sort of game where you want your team to give nothing away, keep trying to get a goal and hope that one of your players produces something and fortunately for us Murph did.

Murph had had a frustrating afternoon because we weren't getting enough people in forward positions. We weren't giving him a chance with the balls we were giving him and the same applied to Grant when he got into advanced positions because the quality of balls up to him wasn't what we wanted. Add to that the facts that the pitch wasn't great and that it's worth remembering that Norwich were ahead of us in the league. Even now looking back at last week's game

"Cup games can be a help or a hindrance to league form but we're hoping to go on a cup run. You have to want that but if you ask me would I swap a cup run for a very good league run then I'll take the very good league run any day of the week."

I'm still delighted with how the players did on the day.

The biggest thing for me when I started working with the team was to try and get that sense of togetherness even though I was chopping and changing the team. It's very hard to do especially with a lot of players going out and six or seven coming in so I'm delighted with that side of things.

Clearly we hope we can play better in other games but you could look and say we went to Norwich a month before last week's return match and played quite well without getting anything out of the game. It all boils down to the players really and they deserve a lot of credit for winning in difficult circumstances last week.

Ask any manager or supporter and you always hope for a home draw in any cup competition. We've been given a tough tie away to Preston who gave us a going over in my first few weeks in the job. They're riding high and I still think they're the best team we have played since I've been here so it's a difficult draw but it's still a game we'll look forward to. We've got them at home in the league a week before the cup tie of course so that will give us – and them – the perfect opportunity to assess form going into the cup game.

It can be argued that cup games can be a help or a hindrance to league form but we're hoping to go on a cup run. You have to want that but if you ask me would I swap a cup run for a very good league run then I'll take the very good league run any day of the week because that is our bread and butter and we want to get back into thought they've tried to be a good footballing team over the years and I like Mike Newell who I think comes across well. He seems to wear his heart on his sleeve. It's not long since they were riding high in the table and people were quick to praise them but that just goes to show how quickly things can change in football and after a really good win over Preston last week it's good to see them back to winning ways for last week but hopefully not this week.

We're hoping to continue our mini run with a good result this afternoon. If we can win we might even get ourselves into the top half of the table for the first time this season. I think we must be the only team to go backwards in the league table after picking up good results! It was certainly an anti climax after winning last week to see we were still 14th but it goes to show that you have to make the most of your opportunities. If we'd put away a couple of the chances we didn't take at QPR we'd be three places higher but the main thing is just to win the game and that's what we'll be trying to do today.

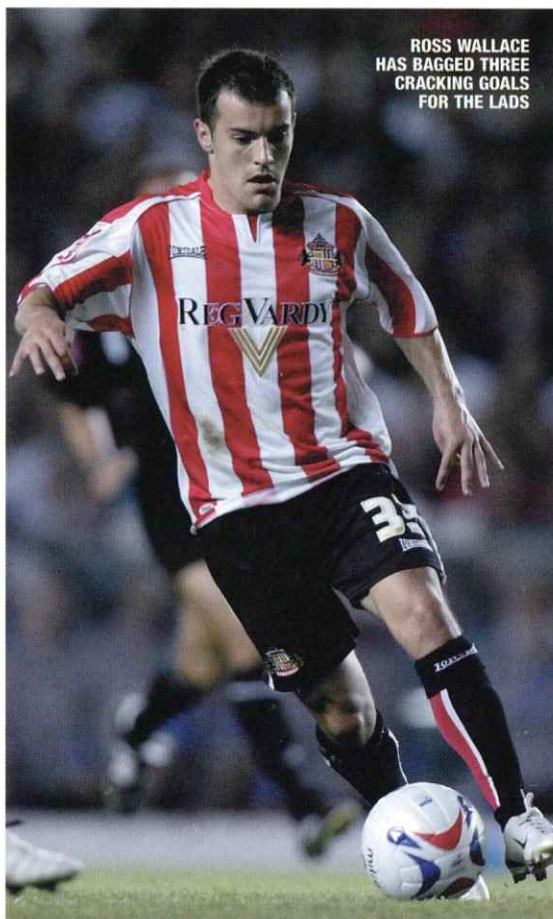

ROSS WALLACE: A WILLINGNESS TO TAKE HIS MAN ON AND A BOX OF TRICKS TO DO IT WITH

BY ROB MASON

Ross Wallace is proving to be a hit on Wearside. The 21 year old left winger signed from Celtic on the eve of the August transfer deadline is a player who makes fans sit up when he gets the ball. With a willingness to take his man on and a box of tricks to do it with, Ross is a player who looks a threat.

So far Ross has chipped in with three cracking goals: a clinically taken winner at Derby, a dramatic last minute winner exquisitely curled past the 'keeper at Hull and a beautifully flighted free kick to beat Kelvin Davis against Southampton. "I only score good goals, I don't score tap ins" jokes Ross who has no difficulty selecting the goal that gave him most satisfaction: "The one that stands out for me the most is the one at Derby because it was my debut and the goal came in front of all the Sunderland fans behind that goal. It was an amazing feeling for me."

Sunderland's record from free kicks during 2006 has not been good with only Neill Collins' headed goal v WBA, an OG at Ipswich and Grant Leadbitter's pre-season effort at Carlisle being converted prior to Wallace beating Davis: "On the day I fancied it and it came off so hopefully I can score more. I'd like to take free kicks that we get around the edge of the box" says Ross.

ROSS WALLACE HAS BAGGED THREE CRACKING GOALS FOR THE LADS

Of course it is making goals rather than scoring them that Wallace is primarily in the team for as he explains: "The most important part of my game is to try and create chances for our strikers. That's my job but if I can score a few goals to add to that then it's good for me and it's good for the team as well."

Sunderland are aiming to have competition for places all over the park and Ross is aware that with Toby Hysen itching for the chance to play he will have to stay at the top of his game to keep his place. With so many games in a short space of time over the Christmas period the manager may decide to rotate the pair occasionally possibly as a way of keeping wingers fresh to come on against tiring defenders but not surprisingly Wallace wants to hold down a first team place on a consistent basis: "Having come here from Celtic I came to play games and of course I want to play in every single one if I can. I certainly don't want to be left out. I'd much rather be playing and scoring."

Wallace is currently showing Sunderland supporters the qualities he showed Roy Keane when the pair played for the Bhoys last season. In fact the pair only lined up together twice in the SPL, oddly enough both times being home games against Kilmarnock on what were the first and last of Keane's ten SPL appearances, Stan Varga scoring on the latter occasion incidentally. Ross and his new manager also played together in a couple of starkly contrasting cup ties north of the border, firstly in the shock Scottish Cup defeat at Clyde last January and later in the final of the CIS Scottish League Cup when Dunfermline were defeated at Hampden.

At Parkhead, Wallace was mainly used as a left back so the chance to play for Roy Keane and have an opportunity in his much favoured left wing position was one Ross jumped at and clearly it's

e-on

PRESTON IN THE CUP

Sunderland were drawn away to Preston North End in the draw for the third round of the FA Cup. Coincidentally the clubs met in the FA Youth Cup at the Stadium of Light this week and of course PNE are due on Wearside in the Championship seven days before the cup tie.

Cup history between the clubs centres around the 1937 Final when goals from Bobby Gurney, Raich Carter and Eddie Burbanks helped Sunderland to a 3-1 win and a first ever FA Cup triumph. Runners up Preston returned to Wembley a year later to win the cup with a last minute penalty against Huddersfield whose 'keeper Bob Hesford was the father of Iain Hesford who kept goal for Sunderland in the late eighties.

Preston may have inflicted Sunderland's heaviest defeat of the season so far when they won 4-1 at Deepdale in October but Sunderland have a magnificent FA Cup record against them. The clubs have played eight FA Cup ties with Sunderland winning seven and drawing one.

MONTY'S GUEST

At every game Jimmy Montgomery welcomes a former Sunderland player onto his legends table and today Jim's special guest is Billy Bingham.

The outside right in the 'Bank of England' team of the 1950s Billy played 227 games for the Lads scoring 47 goals. His debut came 56 years ago this month after signing from Glentoran for £9,000.

In October 1954 he scored twice in a 4-2 win over Newcastle before over 66,000 at Roker and later that season played in the first of two consecutive but losing FA Cup semi finals for the Lads.

Following the club's first ever relegation in 1958 Bingham was transferred to Luton Town for £15,000 in the July but not before the Northern Ireland international had become the first ever player to play in the World Cup Finals as a Sunderland player. Of course Billy later managed his country in the 1982 World Cup finals when Northern Ireland stunned the world by beating hosts Spain. Four years later he again managed Northern Ireland at the World Cup Finals. Billy also had a couple of years managing Greece in a career that also took in Everton, Port Vale and Southport (then a league side) as a player and managerial posts at Southport, Plymouth, Linfield, four years at Everton, Paok in Greece and Mansfield Town with a spell as Director of Football at Blackpool.

Having won 33 of his 56 caps while with Sunderland where he teamed up with the likes of Len Shackleton, Stan Anderson, Ivor Broadis, Trevor Ford, Billy Elliott and even a veteran Johnny Mapson, Billy Bingham has a special place in the history of SAFC.

DARYL MURPHY: LUTON OLD BOY COULD BE A TOP PLAYER SAYS ROY.

BY ROB MASON

Luton supporters may look at Daryl Murphy today and think the name is familiar.

It's six years since 'Murph' joined Luton as a young striker but he never settled, returned to Ireland and now having scored in both of the last two games since returning from injury drew a warm accolade from Roy Keane last Saturday: "Murph has the potential to be a top, top player but we need consistent performances from him. He's coming back from a niggly injury but he's had a couple of games in a row now and if we keep his body in tip top shape and give him the right exercises then he has the potential. The top players do it week in week out and before the Norwich game we asked him not to rest on his laurels. He most certainly didn't and I thought his work rate was outstanding."

It's not unusual for young players away from home to find it difficult to settle at a club and that was certainly the case for Daryl at Luton. "I went to Luton when I was seventeen but I was homesick" he recalls, "I was there for about eighteen months but I was with my girlfriend at the time and it was hard for me to leave her and my family.

DARYL MURPHY WAS AT LUTON AS YOUNG STRIKER

As a seventeen year old I was in digs on my own and that didn't help at all.

"I moved in with Michael Leary who is still with Luton so it will be nice to see him this week. We still keep in touch and he comes over in the summer and I go over to him so the move to Luton was good for me in that regard but it was a bit too soon for me as a seventeen year old. It was all too much for me at the time and I never made an impact at all because I wasn't happy. Ricky Hill was the manager when I first went to Kenilworth Road. He was followed by Lil Fuccillo and then Joe Kinnear came in. The best thing that ever happened to me was that I went back to Waterford to play for a couple of seasons and gain a bit of experience."

That experience back in Ireland was so successful that Murphy forced his way into the Republic's U21 team and began to attract clubs from England once again. Following 22 goals for Waterford in 2004-05 when he was named Republic of Ireland U21 Player of the Year Sunderland were tempted to part with £100,000 for him.

Used mainly wide on the left last season Daryl applied himself well, top scoring for the reserve team and scoring a well taken equaliser against Spurs in the Premiership. This season he hit the ground running scoring freely in pre-season – his volley at Forest Green Rovers remains the most spectacular goal Sunderland have scored this season – was quick off the mark at Coventry in the opening league game and two games later struck in the first minute of Plymouth's visit with what remains the quickest goal in the Championship this season.

Although troubled by a niggling injury, Murphy has featured in all but four games this season being called upon whenever available. His last couple of outings have seen him employed as a lone striker, a role that daunts some players but which Daryl enjoys: "I don't think it's necessarily harder to play up front on your own but in that role you have to look to hold the ball up and bring others into the game whereas when there's two of you up front you can share the load. I don't mind being up front on my own at all because I've got people like Stephen Elliott and Ross Wallace coming in from the right and left and midfielders getting forward to support as well. I like the formation but so

OPPOSITION EYES: ADAM BOYD

ROB MASON TALKS TO LUTON'S FORMER HARTLEPOOL STRIKER.

Former Hartlepool striker Adam Boyd rejoined his old Victoria Park boss Mike Newell in a reported £500,000 deal in the summer and it is a matter of time before the ex Pool talisman makes his mark on the Championship. The scorer of 29 goals the year before last when Hartlepool reached the League One Play Off final, Boyd is not only capable of finding the net regularly but possesses the skill to unpick the tightest defences.

So far this season Boyd has been playing catch up but he feels he is getting his sharpness back: "I probably didn't have enough minutes under my belt in pre-season when I moved to Luton and I wasn't as sharp as I'd like to be but I've started to get into the team over the last month or so and have been coming off the bench. Things are looking up and hopefully I'll get a regular place in the starting eleven before long."

Things are certainly looking up at Kenilworth Road where The Hatters' dreadful losing run ended dramatically with a 2-0 win over Preston last Saturday: "It would have given everybody a boost to win any game but to beat the league leaders in the fashion that we did has shown everyone what we are capable of" says Adam.

When Boyd was Hartlepool's main man rumours often abounded that Sunderland were interested in him: "Mick McCarthy came to watch me a few times but nothing materialised. A move to Sunderland would have been great for me especially as I'm from the north east." However the Stadium of Light will be familiar territory for Boyd although this is the first time he will have played here: "I was on loan to Boston when Hartlepool played here in the FA Cup but I've been to see a few league games such as the Play Off with Crystal Palace, a match with 'Boro and a few other league games.

"I've a lot of affection still for Hartlepool who are my home town team. I had some great times there such as getting to the Play Off final at Cardiff. It was a shame we went no further because it would have been great for Hartlepool to be in the Championship. It was sad when they got relegated last season but they've a good man in charge now in Danny Wilson and hopefully they'll go up again.

"I'm really looking forward to the game at Sunderland and I'll have a lot of my family at the match. Sunderland have picked up over the last couple of months and it will be hard for us but going to Sunderland is always difficult for visiting teams regardless of what form Sunderland are in. We're under no illusions about how hard the game will be but it was hard last week too and once again we'll be looking to take something from the game."

long as we keep winning then whatever formation we play doesn't really matter."

Murph has found the net in both recent games as a lone front-man, last week's swivel and shot being a beauty you can re-live by flicking the pages of your programme from front to back and looking at the small picture in the top right hand corner of the odd numbered pages.

"I'm very pleased with the way things are going although I'd like to be scoring a few more goals" he says, "You need games to get your match fitness and now I'm looking to kick on and score a few more goals. Goals give you confidence and hopefully if I keep playing I'll keep scoring." Strikers often get goals in batches and if Daryl scores against his old club today it will be a pleasant change for Sunderland supporters more used to seeing Sunderland old boys net against the lads!

ANDY PENN:

KEITH CHAPMAN TALKS WITH THIS AFTERNOON'S MATCH REFEREE ANDY PENN, FROM THE WEST MIDLANDS.

Andy began his career as a referee in 1986 and worked his way up through the ranks in youth football and the West Midlands leagues. In 1996 he progressed to be an assistant referee in the Football League and just six years later to the National List of Referees. In 2004 Andy refereed an FA Vase semi final and the Birmingham Senior Cup Final. This is the first time he has refereed at the Stadium of Light.

Q. How long have you been a referee?

A. I passed my first exam when I was fourteen and started refereeing properly when I was seventeen.

Q. What was the first professional game you refereed?

A. It was on the first day of the season five years ago in the old division three. It was a 2-2 draw between Swansea and Rushden & Diamonds and I had to send two players off.

Q. What are the highlights of your refereeing career so far?

A. I have refereed a semi final of the FA Vase a couple of years ago and a fierce local derby I officiated at was Chester v Wrexham.

Q. Do you have any ambitions you would like to achieve as a referee?

A. I don't have any particular ambition to referee at specific grounds I just enjoy refereeing any game.

Q. What advice would you offer to young referees or to those thinking of becoming a referee?

A. To enjoy every game you are involved in and secondly to always remember that every game you referee is somebody's 'cup final.' There is a lot of advice available to referees from the Referees' Association and from the Football Association.

Q. Do you have any particular memories of either of this afternoon's teams, Sunderland or Luton Town?

A. This is the first time I will have refereed at the Stadium of Light and I'm looking forward to it and to the game. I have refereed Sunderland before in a League Cup tie that went to penalties at Crewe in 2004 when Mick McCarthy was manager. This season I refereed Luton's match away to Norwich city.

CAPTAIN: STEVE CALDWELL

IT'S ALWAYS GREAT TO WIN GAMES AND THERE'S A PARTICULAR KIND OF SATISFACTION FROM WINNING A GAME WHEN YOU HAVEN'T PLAYED WELL.

That was the case last Saturday against Norwich although there's no doubt that we deserved to win the game even though we didn't play as well as we are capable of. You always want to play good football but not even the greatest teams in the land play great every week. What they do manage is to still win even if they're not firing on all cylinders and they say the sign of a good team is that they win even when not at the top of their game.

Sometimes you just have to grind out a result and we looked resolute at the back against Norwich and had by far the more efforts on goal. Murphy came up with a terrific winner and it was a special goal that made sure we got three points instead of one. In fact we had the better of both recent games against Norwich and three points out of the two fixtures was the very least we warranted.

In all the years I've been playing I don't think I've ever caught anybody hard with my elbow and then it happens to one of my best mates! I saw Robbo [Carl Robinson] coming towards me last week and turned my body thinking he was coming through alongside me only to catch him full on with my elbow. I didn't realise how much I'd hurt him at first and was telling him to get up but he had four stitches and when we went out together with our wives on Saturday night he gave me stick about it all night. Still he's got a lovely scar now so he'll always have something to remember me by!

Last Sunday's FA Cup draw has given us a tough tie away to Preston. I was injured when we played there this season but I've seen the goals and I know they are a quality side. We've got them here in the league the week before of course so that's a tough double header with a trip to Leicester in between but we feel that we're capable of getting a result against them.

Recognising that Preston are a very good side puts into perspective the task we face this afternoon as by all accounts Luton sent them packing when deservedly beating Preston 2-0 last weekend. Regardless of that result though we already knew that Luton would give us a stern test because whenever teams come to the Stadium of Light they are always determined to give a good account of themselves.

We're on a nice little run now and know how important it is to keep it going. So far the league table hasn't really reflected the progress we've been making but that doesn't matter because as long as we keep getting results the table will look after itself. Hopefully a win today will take us into the top half of the league for the first time this season and then we can take getting into the top six as the next step.

We're not at home again until Boxing Day so can I offer you all my best wishes on behalf of the lads, rest assured we'll be doing all we can to make it a good Christmas.

Cheers

Steve

SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS FOR BUYING TICKETS FOR THE BOXING DAY VISIT OF LEEDS

Playing Leeds United is always a big game for Sunderland supporters and with Dennis Wise's team here on Boxing Day there is every chance that it will be a big game.

The visitors' ticket allocation for this game has been reduced by the Safety Advisory Group as Leeds United fans have been identified as causing a safety risk by persistently standing in seated areas of grounds whilst attending away matches.

SAFC Head of Safety and Security John Davidson said: "Failure to control persistent standing could result in the Safety Advisory Group revoking the Club's safety certificate and without this certificate the Stadium of Light could not stage football matches. We respect the decision of the Safety Advisory Group and must abide by it as the safety of all supporters must be our priority."

In order to ensure the safety of all supporters the Club, in association with Safety Advisory Group and Northumbria Police, will be implementing measures to ensure that visiting supporters cannot purchase tickets in home sections of the Stadium of Light.

SAFC is advising all supporters wishing to attend the fixture to purchase their tickets in advance as soon as possible.

Tickets are on sale now but are not available on-line or via Ticketmaster and can only be purchased from the Stadium of Light ticket office or on the ticket hotline, 0845 671 1973.

All supporters are urged to buy their tickets in advance of the match avoid any potential queues or delays on the day.

Sunderland's best performance of the season so far was at Leeds when the Lads handed out a comprehensive 3-0 defeat to go with a stunning performance. This will be the third time five years that Leeds have been Boxing Day visitors to Wearside and they've won on their last two visits. In total this will be the seventh Boxing Day clash between the clubs. There have been two draws at Elland Road and two wins for Sunderland back at Roker Park, the last in 1957 when future Leeds manager Don Revie got one of Sunderland's goals.

EXTRA BUS SERVICES ON
BOXING DAY

Nexus has secured 17 Boxing Day bus services on Wearside, which should prove a big help in getting Sunderland fans to the home game against Leeds United.

Commercial bus companies have been contracted out by Nexus to provide reduced network coverage on December 26, from 9am until 7pm, across Sunderland, with stops close the Stadium of Light.

The services, 17 in total and four more than last year, would have otherwise been withdrawn on a day that sees thousands of people using the bus network to visit family and friends.

Chairman of the Tyne and Wear Passenger Transport Authority, Cllr David Wood, said: "Sunderland's Boxing Day game against Leeds should attract a huge crowd so we felt it was only correct to secure extra bus routes across the city.

"Boxing Day is a time when lots of people come to rely on public transport to visit family and friends and these services make this possible for thousands of people who don't have a car or don't wish to drive.

The Metro will also be operating on Boxing Day on a 15 minute service from 10am until 7pm.

For further information on Christmas public transport options passengers should call Traveline on 0870 608 2 608

LATE START FOR BURNLEY PUBS

We have been asked to inform supporters travelling to Turf Moor for next Saturday's match at Burnley that pubs in Burnley will not be opening until 12.30 on the day of the game.

Sunderland sold out their extended allocation of 5,747 tickets at nearby Preston in October and no doubt another big following will head across the Pennines next week to face Burnley.

The red and white army traditionally turn out in force at Turf Moor, never more so than for a crucial game in Peter Reid's early days when a result was needed to stave off relegation to what is now League One, and for a much postponed cup tie in 1979. Earlier that season Sunderland won at Turf Moor despite going in at half time with the score goalless but the side down to nine men against Burnley's eleven. Gary Rowell scored twice that day and no doubt fans will be reminding the locals next week that we all still live in a Gary Rowell world!

STADIUM OF

Gift vouchers are now available at club shops and from the tours office.

SIMON CRABTREE

HELLO AGAIN!

I'm in something of a state of shock at the moment. I can't remember it ever happening before.

No, I'm not talking about Lord Rowell buying a drink. We've got the charity bet right on Magic 1152 - THREE MATCHES RUNNING!

I can't believe it! Every week, Pagebet give us a £25 bet each. We then have to use our football knowledge to predict the outcome of the match.

As you know, in the Championship, that's never easy. I regularly drop my shoulder and get a "celebrity" bet instead.

This season, amongst others, Rod Stewart has tried but failed. Gary Barlow came close but didn't have a cigar to show for it. Louise Redknapp also had a go but to no success. Although to be fair we didn't hold it against her. As much as we would have liked to.

But we've now managed to get it spot on the last three games! Roweldinho predicted a 1-1 draw at Wolves (11/2), he thought it would be a 2-1 win at QPR (9/1) and then I plumped for Daryl Murphy to grab the first last Saturday against Norwich (6/1). All spot on!

That's nearly £600 raised for the Magic 1152 children's charity Just For Kids in the space of a week. Excellent!

But that means the pressure's on this afternoon!

Cross your fingers and listen to the build up before the game to see if we can do it again!

Finally, just in case I don't see you before... HAVE A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS! I hope Santa brings you everything you want! Enjoy the match,

Crabbers

LUTON TOWN: ONWARDS AND UPWARDS!

LUTON'S LEADING SCORER ROWAN
VINE AND (INSET)
MARKUS HEIKKINEN

For more than three years there was only one way for Mike Newell – onwards and upwards. Luton walked off with the League One crown, advanced into the Championship play-off zone before finishing 10th last season and re-appeared in the top six this autumn.

And then everything changed. In October striker Rowan Vine scored his sixth goal in six games as The Hatters reached fifth place with a 5-1 rout of Leeds United. Seven weeks later they were in the bottom five, fighting to escape a run of eight consecutive defeats, which included a 4-0 loss to Everton at Goodison Park in the Carling Cup.

Mr Newell had known nothing like this in more than two decades. "It's the worst run I've had as a manager or player," he said of a career spanning 512 league games before he went into management in a promotion-winning season for Hartlepool United.

Searching for reasons for Luton's headlong plunge, he could not avoid reference to the list of absentees. Sol Davis, Chris Coyne and Paul Underwood were cornerstones in the rise from League One but this season they have started only a dozen Championship games between them. Add in the loss of new signing Sam Parkin and it was not surprising that the manager said: "We've hit a very hard part of the season and we haven't got the squad or bodies to cope with what we've been hit with in terms of injuries."

The loan transfer market provided some assistance with the signing of Dean Kiely but the nosedive continued with further defeats at Southampton and Plymouth. The team shipped 22 goals in the losing run before Kiely, on his third appearance, kept a clean sheet against Preston. Two goals at the other end brought welcome relief to Luton - and knocked North End off the top of the table.

With "a horrible month" at last behind Luton, the manager talked of the "feel good" factor in bringing down the leaders. "I said before the game I'd rather be playing the top team than the bottom team. We needed to get ourselves ahead in a game... we needed something to hang on to and give us belief."

Over the years, since David Pleat established top-flight status in the 1980s, Luton consistently performed above their resources. The average attendance for Pleat's team in the old First Division peaked at 13,500 and the club have long had plans to leave Kenilworth Road and relocate to a new stadium.

Having missed the Premiership boat by only two points when relegated in 1992, the Hatters tumbled to the basement by 2001. Happily, the recovery was swift with promotion under Joe Kinnear and then sustained by Mike Newell until the recent blip.

JOE HINNIGAN:

BORN: LIVERPOOL 3 DECEMBER 1955

HARRY BARRETT RECALLS ONE OF THE LADS, AND THEIR FIRST OUTING FOR SUNDERLAND WHEN LUTON PROVIDED THE OPPOSITION.

Joe Hinnigan was a lucky talisman as Sunderland stormed to promotion in the spring of 1980. For when the Merseysider played at left back The Lads did not lose.

Mind it was a desperately close thing when the 24 year old made his Roker debut. Luton, top of the table, bossed much of the game and but for some inspired keeping by Chris Turner, would have remained in pole position. Sunderland's last line of defence made three point blank saves from David Moss, Brian Stein and Kirk Stephens.

The win proved to be the watershed in Sunderland's season. There or thereabouts, inconsistent away form threatened to marginalize the promotion challenge. Going into the Luton fixture, Ken Knighton's team were off the pace in eighth spot. But that win over the leaders triggered an unbeaten 14 games sequence to the season end and runners up spot.

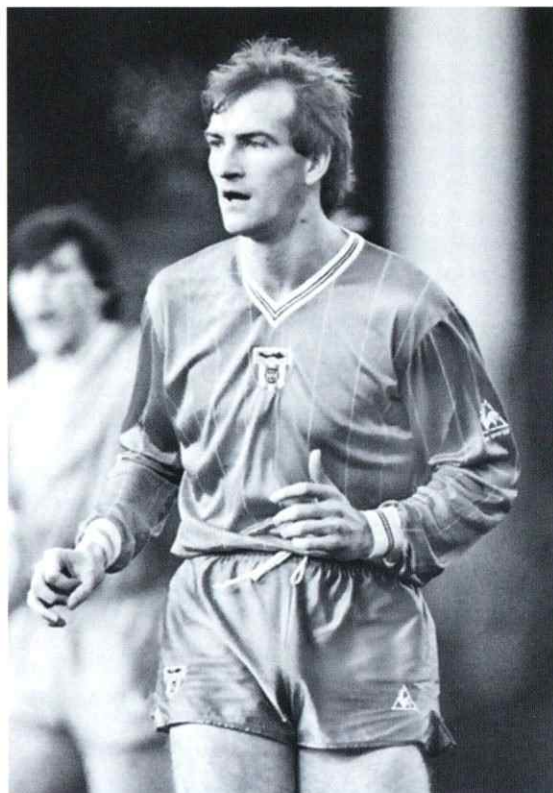

Joe played in every match and Argus in the Echo's summary of his debut, "did all that was required of him," could have described his form in those final vital weeks. Steady and dependable, Hinnigan slotted in to the back four as if he had been at the club for years rather than weeks.

The newcomer benefited from an injury at Preston sustained by another Joe – the stalwart Joe Bolton. The hard tackling Birtley defender had made the number three shirt his own until a clumsy challenge at Deepdale, ended his season. Manager Ken Knighton moved quickly to replace a crowd favourite.

Within days Hinnigan had been signed from Wigan for £135,000, then a record transfer fee for a Fourth Division footballer. A quick return on his investment resulted, as top flight returned to Roker.

Hinnigan had played in Wigan's first Football League game in August 1978, after joining the club in their Northern Premier days from South Liverpool. Solid and with an eye for goal at set pieces, his form quickly attracted attention. Even so a few eyebrows were raised at the money Sunderland paid for the relatively inexperienced full back.

But Joe's display on a wintery February afternoon dispelled any worries about his ability to move up a couple of Divisions. Correspondents to the Echo were debating the relative merits of socialism and Marxism, at a time when unemployment on Wearside was approaching 15%. Given such weighty topics of concern, it was hardly surprising little attention was paid to a new full back, even if the transfer fee was so hefty.

Indeed the football talk of Wearside that month was about 17 year old striker John Cooke, Salford born and still at the club now as kit man, who in second first team start scored the winner against Luton. On the hour, Kevin Arnott, man of the match, delivered an inswinging corner and the youngster netted with aplomb.

John had come in for the injured John Hawley and was somewhat unlucky to lose his place when the more physical frontman regained fitness.

And the debutant full back Hinnigan suffered a similar fate the following August. Joe Bolton returned to the number three berth with the Merseysider now an understudy as Sunderland struggled in the top flight. Indeed Joe H made just 16 appearances, filling in on either defensive flank when needed. Even so Joe made a significant contribution to the successful battle against relegation. In early March he netted four goals in three successive games, two of which were won. In the last season a victory brought two points, The Lads escaped the drop by just one win.

At a time when the Rubik cube was the popular craze, for many Sunderland supporters it remained a mystery why Joe Hinnigan did not enjoy a longer career on Wearside.

● In addition goalkeepers Andy Dibble and Bob Bolder swapped clubs between 20/02/86 and 05/05/86; Dibble at Roker Park and Bolder going to Kenilworth Road. Gerry Harrison also spent a couple of months at Luton (23/12/98 – 23/02/99)

● Both Mick McGiven (1995) and Mick Harford (around 2003) have been assistant managers for The Hatters; Harford also had a spell as first team coach as well.

THE FOLLOWING PLAYERS HAVE ALSO PLAYED FOR BOTH CLUBS DURING THEIR CAREER:

● Sunderland met The Hatters in the 4th round of the FA Cup on their way to the 1937 final. In the replay Jimmy Connor damaged cruciate ligaments in his knee. This injury effectively ended Connor's outstanding Sunderland career. Only thirteen of his 283 appearances and two of his 61 goals were added after this injury.

● Ex-Luton Town assistant manager Mick McGiven also suffered a serious injury playing for Sunderland against his future employers. The Newcastle born midfielder broke his right leg at Kenilworth Road on 31st October 1970. Ritchie Pitt's career was ended in a game with Luton in September 1973.

● Sunderland also met Luton on the way to their second Wembley triumph. Second half goals from Dave Watson and Ron Guthrie in front of the last Roker Park crowd in excess of 53,000 saw the Lads through to the 1973 FA Cup Final against Arsenal.

● Sunderland's first visit to Kenilworth Road in the League coincided with the Lads heading the top flight of English football. They were also leading scorers in the division yet twelfth placed Luton rapidly halted their progress going in 4-0 up at half time and eventually running out 8-2 winners. Ted Purdon got Sunderland's two consolation goals. The next two visits were not much better as Sunderland lost 6-2 and 7-1.

● The visit of Luton to Roker Park on 20th October 1993 saw the first occasion, since shirt numbering became compulsory in 1939, that Sunderland players wore squad numbers on their shirts instead of the traditional one to eleven. Martin Smith became the first Sunderland scorer with a shirt number in excess of twenty; he was wearing the number 22 on his back.

● The last meeting between the two clubs was in the 2000-01 season League Cup. This two legged tie saw the last appearances in Red & White of Carsten Fredgaard, Darren Holloway, Brendan McGill, Mark Maley, Milton Nunez, Eric Roy and Neil Wainwright.

● Only Ian Lawther has gone home with the match ball for The Lads in these encounters. His hat trick on the last day of 1960 helped Sunderland record their highest victory over The Hatters; 7-1. Two of his goals, and six in total, came during the second half.

LUTON TOWN: THE HATTERS

FOOTBALL HISTORIAN LEIGH EDWARDS SELECTS
LUTON TOWN'S POST WAR 'CLASSIC CAMPAIGNS'

2004/05

Mike Newell managed Luton to the League One title. The Hatters stormed to the top of the table, winning 10 of their first 12 games before three successive defeats. They beat Bradford City 4-0 and Wrexham 5-1, then Steve Howard netted a hat-trick in a 4-1 win at MK Dons. The 1-0 victory over Port Vale in December heralded a 14 match unbeaten run and Luton bounced back from a 3-1 defeat in the return fixture to hammer Bristol City 5-0. Briefly displaced as leaders by Hull, they triumphed 4-1 at Torquay and secured promotion with four games remaining, winning the title with 98 points.

2001/02

Steve Howard scored 24 times as Luton won promotion. Joe Kinnear's side were early leaders after winning their opening matches and newcomer Carl Griffiths netted a hat-trick in a 5-1 win over Torquay. The Hatters briefly regained pole position after beating Darlington 5-2 in October, signing Chris Coyne from Dundee, Jean-Louis Valois from Lille, Dean Crowe from Stoke, Ahmet Brkovic from Orient and Dave Bayliss from Rochdale. A run of 12 successive wins, slamming five goals past Halifax and Mansfield, took Luton back to the top with two games remaining but they finished runners-up to Plymouth.

1987/88

Ray Harford plotted Luton's Littlewoods (League) Cup final triumph. Danny Wilson replaced Peter Nicholas in midfield, while Micky Weir arrived from Hibernian and Mike Newell moved to Leicester. The Hatters won

5-2 at Oxford and Ian Allinson was signed from Stoke in October, with Luton losing just twice in 12 matches including a 7-4 win in the return match against Oxford, finishing ninth in the top-flight. They defeated Wigan, Coventry, Ipswich, Bradford

City and Oxford in the Littlewoods Cup before beating Arsenal 3-2 in the final. Luton were also FA Cup semi-finalists and Simod Cup finalists. A year later they again reached the League Cup final.

1981/82

David Pleat guided Luton Town to the Second Division title. The Hatters had narrowly missed promotion in the previous two years and Tony Grealish was swapped for Brighton's Brian Horton. They raced to the top by winning their first three games and hammered rivals Watford 4-1, then Steve White scored four times in a 6-0 demolition of Grimsby. Richard Money arrived from Liverpool and was an influential figure as Luton were unbeaten in their last 14 matches. Leading marksman Brian Stein, Mal Donaghy, Kirk Stephens and Steve White were all ever-present as Luton won the title with 88 points.

1973/74

Luton Town regained top-flight status after an absence of 14 years in 1973/74. The Hatters recovered from a 4-0 defeat at Nottingham Forest on the opening day to hammer Carlisle 6-1, embarking on an eight-match unbeaten run. Harry Haslam signed Alan West from Burnley and Jimmy Husband from Everton as Luton maintained their promotion challenge.

Husband netted a hat-trick in a 3-1 victory over rivals Orient, then leading marksman Barry Butlin scored three in a 4-2 win over Preston. Alan Garner and Bobby Thomson were ever-present and other stars included Peter Anderson and John Ryan as Luton finished runners-up.

1967/68

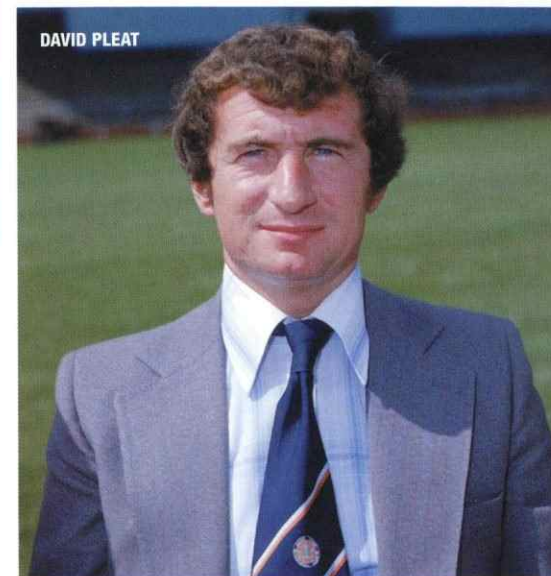

Bruce Rioch netted 24 goals as Luton Town won the Fourth Division title. New captain Terry Branston made his debut as the Hatters kicked off with a 1-1 draw at Wrexham and Ian Buxton arrived from Derby in September. Luton lost just two of their first 18 matches and beat Charlton in the League Cup first round, scoring 27 goals in a run of eight successive wins. Allan unbeaten in their opening ten First Division games. They recovered from a subsequent lean spell to beat Arsenal 6-3 and Burnley 6-2, then top scorer Allan Brown netted four goals in a 5-1 demolition of Nottingham Forest but poor results over the closing weeks saw them finish below mid-table. Luton Town were FA Cup finalists for the first and only time. The Hatters were Gordon Turner scored 32 goals as Luton Town won promotion to the top-flight for the first time. The Hatters began with a 3-0 victory at home to Nottingham Forest and soared up the Second Division table with six straight wins. Gordon Turner grabbed a hat-trick as Luton trounced Blackburn 7-3 and they triumphed 5-1 at Nottingham Forest. Dally Duncan's side maintained their challenge, slamming four goals past Hull City, Rotherham, Liverpool and Port Vale. Tom Aherne and Shay Dunne were ever-present as Luton pipped Rotherham to the runners-up slot on goal average with a 3-0 win at Doncaster.

DOUG WEATHERALL: MULHALL'S PERFECT PITCH... INSIDE A TAXI!

Sunderland vs Norwich City

THE VIEWS IN THIS COLUMN DO NOT NECESSARILY REFLECT THE OFFICIAL
VIEWS OF SUNDERLAND AFC.

I don't recall finer in-taxi singing. We were in a great mood. Earlier that Monday night Sunderland had won 3-0 at Luton and were now within 90 minutes of promotion to the top division.

My companions, the Sunderland left-wing partnership, Johnny Crossan and George Mulhall, hadn't had a lot to drink. Having bussed to London after the season's penultimate match, we hadn't had much time to party, but we were flying on adrenalin as we returned to our hotel, the Great Northern beside King's Cross station.

"The Northern Lights of Aberdeen" was probably our most hearty and most word-perfect rendering. Winger Mulhall, of course, though born in Stirling and brought up in the Falkirk area, had been with Aberdeen almost nine years before Sunderland manager Alan Brown bought him for £23,000 in September 1962. He'd also married a lovely Aberdonian, Betts. I'd learned the song's words while doing National Service basic training with the Highland Brigade at Fort George, near Inverness.

Inside-left Crossan, the Londonderry lad manager Brown had bought from Belgian club Standard Liege for £27,000 in October 1962, remembered well the libretti of most popular songs.

If Mulhall and Crossan could be accused of perhaps celebrating prematurely, they were not alone. Sunderland now needed only one point from their season's final match to clinch promotion to the First Division. Even the stern disciplinarian, Mr. Brown, hardly one to take a thing for granted, advised his team before the game not to overdo the revelry when the prize was won.

The final opponents were Chelsea, managed by the effervescent Tommy Docherty. For Chelsea to retain an interest in promotion the Doc knew they had to win at Roker on Saturday, May 18, 1963, and then have a high-scoring Stamford Bridge victory in their last match, with Portsmouth.

Until Sunderland achieved their fabulous FA Cup win over Leeds United in 1973, Wearside, in anticipation of the Chelsea game, was never so adorned with bunting. The town and villages were awash with red and white. My dad had known Sunderland's League and FA Cup wins of the Thirties and, as lads, we had experienced the street-party joys at the end of World War II. But even the oldest hadn't seen such colour.

Yet, only five days after that smashing night in London, we were in despair as tiny Tommy Harmer, former Spurs inside-forward, with his only goal of the season, won the match for Chelsea. It was a fluke, the ball entering the net via Harmer's private parts.

Thousands of Sunderland fans wept. For the first time I saw tears from Alan Brown. He and I had our ups and downs, but I could not have felt for him more that night. He and I expected Chelsea to win their final game. And the Doc's men went up after a 7-0 victory.

These days George Mulhall lives in Yorkshire. He gets a mention when I address gatherings at, say, retirement clubs. He is the left-winger when I am asked to name the Sunderland team from all the players I have seen.

Johnny Crossan, back in his native Londonderry, doesn't make my selection. Unfortunately for him, I saw Raich Carter and Len Shackleton...

AWAY FANZONE:

WITH KEITH CHAPMAN

This afternoon we welcome all Luton Town supporters who make the long trip to the Stadium of Light for the first time for a league visit although some were here for a League Cup tie six years ago. Before the game we grabbed a chat with Hatters fan for over 25 years, Norman Johnston.

Who are the Luton Town players to watch out for?

Rowan Vine has already scored 10 goals this season and will pose a big threat this afternoon. We've also signed Dean Kiely on loan from Portsmouth and he's a goalkeeper I've always rated very highly from his Charlton days.

How do you assess your season so far?

Our defeat at Plymouth in our last away game ensured we suffered our worst set of results in more than 100 years - eight consecutive league and cup defeats - but thankfully we ended that run with an improved performance against Preston last weekend. It's been a struggle this season but hopefully the win against Preston would have boosted morale enough to start climbing up the league.

Which teams do you think will be challenging for promotion at the end of the season?

It's a tough one to call, as the league is so tight at the moment. I think it will all start to take shape over the Christmas period as squads are tested to the limit in terms of the number of games they have to play. Birmingham look strong and if Preston keep hold of Nugent then they will be there or thereabouts. As for the rest, I think you can pick as many as 10-12 sides that have a chance of the play offs.

Do you have any memories of games between Sunderland and Luton Town?

Not too many happy memories of the North East as in the last two occasions I've watched us in cup games at the Stadium of Light you've beat us 3-0 so hopefully we can do much better this time!

What are your thoughts on today's game?

We are under no illusions how tough it's going to be today and I'd be extremely happy with a draw. We are capable of beating anyone on our day as we proved last weekend against Preston but we've got to sort out our away form. We've already lost seven on the road but if we can keep it tight in the first half then we stand a chance. Roy Keane looks as though he's getting it together at Sunderland now and they've got some talented players such as Graham Kavanagh and Stephen Elliott. If we keep them quiet we can come away with a point.

What is your best-ever game following Luton Town?

The 1988 Littlewoods Cup final at Wembley when we beat Arsenal 3-2. We were losing 2-1 with 10 minutes to go and Arsenal were given a penalty. However, Nigel Winterburn's penalty was brilliantly saved by Town keeper Andy Dibble. Just two minutes later Danny Wilson levelled and in almost the last kick of the game Stein touched in Ashley Grimes' cross to win us the cup.

DARYL MURPHY:

IT IS OFTEN SAID THAT FOOTBALLERS ARE A VERY SUPERSTITIOUS BUNCH AND THEIR MATCHDAY ROUTINE IS FULL OF RITUALS. THIS YEAR WE'RE FINDING OUT...

FULL OF BEANS...
THAT'S DARYL MURPHY

Q. What time do you usually get up?

A. Around half past nine.

Q. What is your morning routine?

A. I tend to potter around the house for a while before I have my breakfast.

Q. Do you watch Sky Sports, read previews in the papers or avoid all match previews?

A. I try and watch a bit of Soccer AM before my daughter Caitlin gets up but after that it's CBeebies! I don't read the papers at all.

Q. What time do you usually get to the ground?

A. I leave my house around quarter to one and get to the ground just after one.

Q. What do you have to eat before the game?

A. Beans on toast usually.

Q. Once you are at the stadium what is your routine?

A. I usually go in and get a stretch off the physio's just to loosen me off. After that I'll normally have a massage. Then I get ready and just have a little kick-a-bout.

Q. After the game do you like to socialise or get home as soon as possible?

A. If I've got family over I go up to the players' lounge and have a drink but other than that I just go home, have something to eat and stay in with my family.

Q. Do you make an effort to catch the highlights of the game on TV or read the match reports in the papers?

A. I never watch them to be honest - they're on too early on a Sunday morning! I don't like watching it again other than on the DVD I get from the club.

Q. How does your routine differ when it is an away game?

A. It's usually the same in that I get a stretch and a rub off the physio's before the game although there's nowhere to have a kick-a-bout before you go out onto the pitch whereas we have our warm up room just off our dressing room at our stadium. I used to room with Liam Lawrence all the time and on the last away trip at QPR it was Robbie Elliott.

MARTIN FOSTER, STEVE HAY, CHRIS HERRIOTT, RICH HERRIOTT AND PAUL WALSH:

AGES: MARTIN, 30s, STEVE, 30, PAUL, 43, CHRIS, 48, RICH, 41

ORIGINALLY FROM: MARTIN - BLACKHALL, STEVE - DURHAM, RICH - MIDLANDS, CHRIS - MIDLANDS AND PAUL - SUNDERLAND.

HOME: NOW ALL LIVE IN THE BIRMINGHAM AREA.

In March 2003, five members of the Heart of England Sunderland Supporters' branch set off on an epic journey to the Stadium of Light.

Martin Forster, Steve Hay, Chris Herriott, Rich Herriott and Paul Walsh left Coventry's Highfield Road ground on Wednesday March 12 2003 to get to the Sunderland versus Bolton match on the following Saturday.

In between Coventry and Sunderland, they visited the other 90 Premiership and Football League grounds and arrived in time for the match.

They would spend 78 hours between setting off and kicking off on the 2,500 mile journey.

After a photo session with the local press the lads finally set off at 9.10am.

On the second leg of the journey between Rushden and Northampton a bizarre thing happened when Chris's phone rang. It was ITN News asking him to do an on air interview about the appointment of Mick McCarthy as manager.

Everything went well on the first day until they arrived in Sheffield in the evening rush hour. This put them back a little but due to some speedy driving through East Anglia from Martin they were soon back on schedule. The second morning saw them in London, arriving at Millwall at around 6.00am.

It was after 2.00pm by the time they left Crystal Palace heading off to Gillingham. Again they were behind by almost four hours and matters did not improve much during the night.

Dawn on day three saw them at Wycombe with the prospect of heading back to the Midlands and familiar territory.

By lunch time they had made their way to Birmingham where they were met by fellow members Alan Graham and Jeanette Sutton who brought a welcome food parcel with her. It was then off again heading for the North West and a quick change of route as Tranmere were to kick off an hour after the group were due to arrive.

By this stage they were over three hours behind schedule but due to Paul's local knowledge of Manchester they made up another hour. Back on the motorways time was being made up rapidly and things were looking good.

Preston was followed by Blackpool, Carlisle, then across the A69, and just the five North East Clubs to go. By now they were ahead of schedule by five hours arriving at the Stadium of Light at 6.50am.

They had completed the trip in 69 hours 40 minutes and were all completely exhausted. Seven and a half hours later they were presented to the crowd at the SOL and given a signed shirt by Kevin Ball.

The main reason for the trip was to raise money for the British Heart Foundation. All the lads were sponsored and around a third of the clubs made donations of various kinds which were auctioned at a later date. The project raised around £4000.

The only downside was Sunderland lost 2-0 and ended up getting relegated at the end of the season!

THEIR GARDEN SHED

You could not have picked a worse time to be heading for the most difficult journey of the season, just three days before Christmas – and on a Friday night. Selhurst Park has witnessed better days with facilities for away fans basic to say the least. The overall look of the ground has improved since the introduction of the Holmesdale Road stand where the more vocal Palace fans sit behind the goal. It's our first trip since the nightmare Play Off game down there a few seasons ago.

SELHURST PARK

OUR END

Once more, we're in The Arthur Wait Stand, which is shared with the home supporters. Around 3,000 away supporters can be housed here so it should be more than enough room. Can't see too many people from the North East making the trip but we should be well supported by fans located in the South, as proved by the excellent turnout at QPR.

THE OPPO

Now managed by Peter Taylor and currently sitting in the bottom half of the table, Palace convincingly beat QPR 3-0 at home last weekend to extend their unbeaten run to four games.

DID YOU KNOW?

Palace have had seven managers in the past six years under Chairman Simon Jordan.

FANCY A PINT?

Last time we went to the Weatherspoons opposite Thornton Heath Railway Station but following the well-publicised trouble at the play off game it's best to exercise caution around the ground.

TRAIN

Nearest railway stations are Selhurst or Thornton Heath, served by London Victoria main line station, Clapham Junction, London Bridge, and East Croydon.

SUNDERLAND HOUSING GROUP

A warm welcome to everyone this afternoon as Luton Town make the journey north from Bedfordshire.

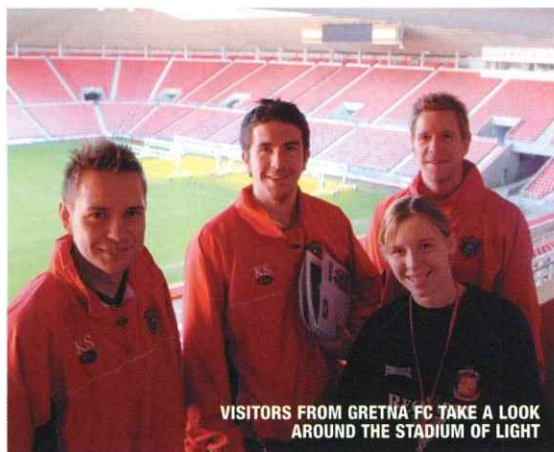

GRETNA GREEN WITH ENVY

We had three visitors recently from Gretna FC, currently joint top of the Scottish 1st Division. They were Community Education Officers, Kevin 'silver-haired' Somerville and Darren Edmundson, and Shaun 'The Shadow' Milligan, a university student on work placement (all pictured here with Amy).

The purpose of their visit was to view our highly successful programmes run from the Centre of Light. In return they brought information of projects they organise in Dumfries and Galloway and Cumbria.

Kevin and Shaun spent time with various members of staff and commented that: "The programmes that SAFC Foundation run are a great advertisement for how football clubs should interact with their local communities, giving something back to the supporters."

After seeing one of the sessions delivered at the Centre for Light by the very talented Phil 'The Prowler' Cowler, Kevin came out (of the closet) and said: "That was magnificent!

VISITORS FROM GRETNA FC TAKE A LOOK AROUND THE STADIUM OF LIGHT

The content was pitched at the appropriate levels, allowing interaction and open learning. Phil had excellent delivery skills and was a joy to watch."

In the future it is hoped that the community teams will share more good practice to the benefit of their respective local communities. Thanks for travelling down from Scotland boys and have a safe journey home.

TWEBLO IN THE LAST MINUTE

At the Southampton game a month ago we were pleased to welcome, as our special guests, representatives from one region can benefit from an education visit to the stadium, like the children here from Barmston Village Primary in Washington.

Thanks to Graeme Miller and Paul Casson from TWEBLO and guests for joining us and witnessing a stunning free kick from Ross Wallace before a shattering last minute equaliser.

STADIUM CAROL SERVICE

A special carol service will be taking place at the Stadium of Light on Sunday 17th December. It is being held in the Banqueting Suite by the Bethany City Church from Houghton-le-Spring and is open to all. The event starts at 6pm and entry is free but any donations will be in aid of SAFC Foundation.

a Washington based company we are proud to sponsor SAFC 24-7 Panthers football team who are all local lads and wish them all the best."

Here are the youngsters in their sparkling new kit.

MURRAY CHEQUES IN AT THE FOUNDATION

Former SAFC chairman Bob Murray and his family have donated £50,000 to SAFC Foundation. Sue and Nicole Murray presented the cheque to us at the recent Colchester game.

Mr Murray was a founder of the Foundation in November 2001 and is still an active trustee. He said: "My family truly believes in the ethos of the Foundation and its ground-breaking initiatives and we are delighted to be able to help their tremendous work continue."

WARREN G REGULATES

The Foundation has a new Football Development Coordinator in the form of Warren 'Wozza' Green (above) who has joined us from Chelsea FC.

Warren (32) has experience of coaching at numerous professional clubs including Blackpool, York, Leeds and Southampton but never at his beloved Tottenham Hotspur.

In his spare time Warren likes to drive around in his 1973 (good year) Volkswagen bay window campervan shouting "Hello Treacle!" at any given opportunity.

FINALLY

Today's game is the last at home before Christmas so everyone here at SAFC Foundation would like to wish all supporters a very Merry Christmas! Enjoy the game and...

Be loud and proud!

VIC HALOM:

EDITOR ROB MASON ONCE AGAIN GOES IN SEARCH OF A PLAYER TO HAVE GRACED THE FAMOUS RED AND WHITES STRIPES OF SUNDERLAND AFC.

Vic Halom played in this fixture for both clubs. Indeed he did so on Wearside for each side in the same season.

The 1972-73 campaign saw Sunderland win the FA Cup and centre forward Halom was a key member of that side. However Halom's first goal on Wearside that year was scored against Sunderland when he played for Luton who won 2-0 in October. By the time the Hatters returned to Roker for a cup quarter final in March though, Halom was well on the way to becoming the darling of the crowd not least as a result of scoring one of the best goals you could ever see in the previous round against Manchester City, a game voted Roker's best ever when the stadium closed a quarter of a century later.

It wasn't just goals that endeared Burton-born Halom to the crowd. Vic led the line magnificently and in the 1970s when the game's hatchet men were able to hack down forwards often without so much as a booking, Halom took an awful lot of stick but dished out at least twice as much. Not only that but Halom invariably played with a huge grin on his face and loved nothing better than playing to the crowd: "There was a classic one when we played Luton at Roker Park" recalls Halom. "There was Keith Barber, the Luton goalkeeper and myself head to head. He had the ball in his hands about to clear it but I had my back to the ref and my hand on top of the ball. The fans behind the goal could see but the ref couldn't and I'm laughing at him saying 'What're you going to do now Keith?'

"He went to go left, tried to kick it but stepped outside the box and we got a free kick. He called me a few choice words I can tell you but I was pg myself."

Typical Vic. To this day like the rest of Stokoe's Stars he retains a deep affection for the club and his former team mates but he almost didn't get off to the best of starts with 'keeper Montgomery: "I remember playing against Sunderland for Luton and Jim Montgomery pulling off this wonder save and I could have smacked him. I'm not kidding - I was never one for pulling out - the goalie's job was to come out to collect the ball, my job was to go in. I'd spun off to get into the box and knocked this ball down, and Jim had audacity to put his hand on it and stop it - and I went in, he nearly lost his head - I nearly put his head in the back of the net."

Sunderland have had one or two truly great centre forwards since Halom left thirty years ago and hopefully will have more greats in the future but you can guarantee you will never see Vic's like again. The game has moved on and modern players would never get away with the sort of heavy challenges that were routine for Vic, dig out your cup final video and take a look at him barging Leeds 'keeper David Harvey over the line!

The sanitized modern game where physical contact is largely marginalized and some players habitually dive leave Vic cold: "I watched a game the other night on Sky and loads of fans were saying things like 'whack him, go and sort him out.' In the game now of course they can't do it but when I played that was exactly the way I played!

played five out of six games,

Right back Michael Kay is one of the young hopefuls playing regularly for the table topping under 18 side. An England international, Michael has played in the last two reserve team games and has not looked out of place even when up against experienced quality opponents.

"The start of the season was a big learning curve for Michael" says Kevin Ball, "We look to see how quickly young players can take new ideas on board.
With Michael we told him
what we wanted from him, put sessions on for him and he's done well so we're pleased with him so far."

A first year Academy player who only left school this Summer, Michael is getting to grips with being a full time footballer. "At first it was hard to adjust but now that I have adjusted I'm enjoying it and feel that I'm a lot fitter. I'd say stamina is one of my strengths, both in terms of getting forward and being able to get back again. At first I wasn't getting forward as much as I do now. Tackling and reading of the game are other things I'm good at while to improve the thing I need to improve on most is my crossing. When I do get into that final third the quality of my crosses has to be better although I do feel as if I'm improving in that area. At the end of a session on a Friday Kevin Ball will ask if there's anything anyone else wants to do and I'll stay behind and work on my crossing ahead of the following day's game. The coaching staff tell us how we can improve as a team and from time to time they'll take people aside to give some individual advice which is always helpful. I have also been doing extra weights to strengthen my upper body."

Michael has been with the club since 1997: "I've been here since I was eight and I'm seventeen now.
When I first came I was training at Pallion and later at the old Charlie Hurley Centre. There were many nights when my mam and dad, Colin and Susan would bring me down and then have to wait for me. They've had a lot of sacrifices to make to help me and they saw me play for England when I played in Northern Ireland. I've played four times for England so far, once for the Under 16s against Northern Ireland in the Victory Shield and I played three times at U17 level in Reykjavik in Iceland in the Nordic Cup last season when we played Iceland, The Faroes Islands and the Republic of Ireland"

UPTO AND INCLUDING DECEMBER 8TH

With the confidence gained from playing international football, allied to now being full time, Michael is looking forward having started to get an opportunity in the reserves: "I was happy with how I did against Boro reserves in my first game especially as I was up against quality experienced players such as Arca and Mendieta.
The tempo was quite high but the step up wasn't as big as I thought it would be.
In fact the defence probably got more time because the forwards tended to drop off so I was able to get my head up. A lot of players have left so when reserve games are played some of us will have to step up and I hope there'll be space for me. Last season I never expected to have played for the reserves so soon and I'd like to think that I could progress to the first team perhaps before some people expect it too."

SUNDERLAND 2 SHEFFIELD UNITED 0 December 2nd 2006

Jack Colback's first goal at this level secured another good win that kept Sunderland at the top of their group in the FA

Premier Academy League.
The Killingworth
midfielder showed the killer touch after 51 minutes, cleverly beating his man before gleefully beating
'keeper Stephen Hernandez to get his name on the goalscoring charts. Colback has been a driving force in the Sunderland midfield
this season and created the opening goal mid way through the first half when his corner was glanced home by Nathan Luscombe.

Luscombe and Robbie Weir had other good chances to extend the lead but a first home clean sheet of the season and another three points was a satisfactory outcome on a day when the wind made good football difficult.
There was a first start for Jordan Cook after his two goals as a sub at Barnsley last time out.

Two of Sunderland's goalscorers had decidedly mixed nights, Nathan Luscombe scoring an own goal just four minutes after the delight of scoring at the right end but that disappointment was nothing compared to that of England midfielder Jamie Chandler who 22 minutes after his 11th minute opener found himself being stretchered off and whisked straight to hospital for an X Ray which revealed a fractured tibia.

Thankfully no misfortune visited the Wearsiders' skipper Robbie Weir who also got on the scoresheet. Sunderland only showed glimpses of the passing game that has taken them to the top of their league but the lads made progress despite a spirited effort from PNE.

Dave Dowson created the first two goals as Sunderland took a 2-0 half time lead. One of Sunderland's trio of England internationals, Dowson robbed Mark Bloxham on the goal line and when his cross was knocked back into the danger area by PNE defender Dylan Adams, Chandler had already detected the danger and swooped to score.

Just past the half hour mark Dowson's persistence on the right saw him hit a low cross for Weir to steer home but moments later Chandler's injury disturbed Sunderland's rhythm.

North End captain Chris McGrail reduced the deficit in the 62nd minute and twelve minutes later Preston had loud appeals for a penalty for handball by Weir turned down as they pressed for an equaliser. Five minutes from time Luscombe looked to have eased Sunderland through with a well taken goal only to head into his own net to keep a close contest alive until the final whistle.

"The main thing was that we scored three good goals and got through to the next round and I'm pleased for the lads but the injury to Jamie Chandler is a real sickener for us all" said Kevin Ball.

DECISIVE DOZEN STARTS WITH THE NEXT HOME GAME

There is never any love lost when Sunderland play Leeds or any team Dennis Wise is involved with and with the visitors looking to atone for a heavy home defeat against the lads earlier in the season a pulsating match is in prospect. With Christmas fast approaching we are steaming towards the business end of the season, the time when the league table really counts. A bad start means that the Lads have given Preston

With the transfer window opening in January hopefully Santa will stay in red and white for a few days after Christmas and help with Keane's shopping list so by the time Ipswich arrive on Wearside in mid-January there might be a debut or two in the offing. As Sunderland supporters know only too well after controversially losing to them in the Play Offs three seasons ago, Crystal Palace have shown that promotion can be won on the back of a great second half of the season and when the Londoners come north at the end of January all being well Sunderland's surge will be well under way.

Coventry (Clarke), Southend (Arnau), Derby (Stead) and Stoke (Lawrence and the injured Delap) all presently have Sunderland players on loan. They are the next four home games on the horizon through February and March and by then quite possibly some of those players will have joined Kevin Kyle (Coventry) in making their moves permanent and will be keenly anticipating their Stadium of Light returns.

The visit of Hull and Michael Bridges then precedes the Wolves game that quite apart from bringing Messrs McCarthy, Evans, Bowman, Breen, (maybe Neill Collins) and Craddock back to Sunderland could be a crunch game between sides battling for precious points in the promotion race. QPR are next up before Steve Cotterill's Burnley with their leading scorer Andy Gray bring the curtain down on the home league programme.

Clearly the 'decisive dozen' games are going to be vitally important and as Niall Quinn has made clear a stadium bouncing with Sunderland fans can frighten the life out of visiting teams and play a huge psychological role. Together with his Drumaville colleagues, Niall is doing what Sunderland fans have wanted in trying to get the club back to the top along with Roy Keane and his squad. Sunderland's gates are already the biggest in the Championship but you all know that with the return of supporters browned off by the disappointments of the last two Premiership campaigns, gates at the Stadium of Light can soar and the momentum gained from that would help massively in taking the Lads back to the top flight only this time with a different approach.

Be at the Leeds game as a season ticket holder knowing that you are up for the second half of the season as part of the red and white army and don't forget that as a season

MATCH FACTS

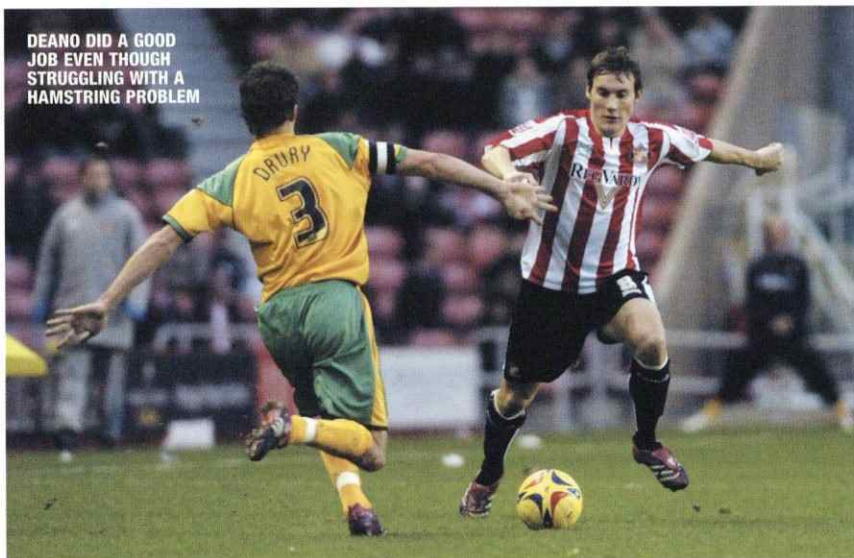

- Of the last thirteen games between the clubs ten have been settled by one goal with the others being draws.
- A first clean sheet in seven games was achieved.
- The unbeaten run stretched to five games, the best of the season.
- The win kept the Lads in 14th place, the bottom of four sides on 30 points and below Sheffield Wednesday only on alphabetical order, the clubs sharing goal difference and number of goals scored.
- Carl Robinson was injured on his return to the Stadium of Light.
- Marton Fulp was on the bench for the first time at the Stadium of Light.

Daryl Murphy's all important goal thirteen minutes from time separated the sides in what was a hard fought contest.

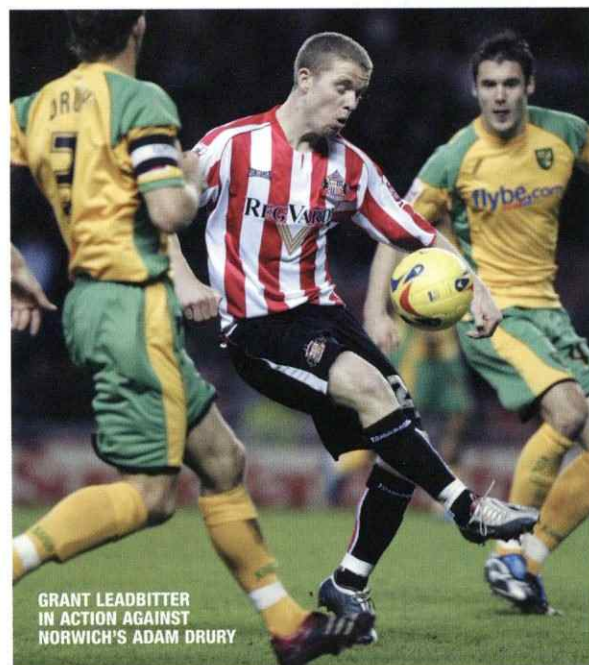

Murphy almost beat his own record for the Championship's quickest goal of the season when he brought a save out of Lee Camp in the first few seconds but despite the bright start the game largely lacked incident.

Sunderland though dug in and worked hard to make sure they won the game even if it had to be achieved with graft rather than grace.

KILLA ON THE MEND

Matthew Kilgallon is working hard on his fitness ahead of the glut of festive fixtures, including the trip to Sunderland on Boxing Day. The United defender suffered an ankle injury during the 2-1 win at Plymouth last month and sat out the games against Burnley and Barnsley. He said: "It's getting better everyday, but it's just not strong enough at the moment. I watched the game on Saturday, but they can be long days when you are not training and in the physio room so I've been grumpy of late!"

Date: 02/12/2009 Result: 1-0
Daryl Murphy's great goal earns another three points

STATS STORY:

OUR RESIDENT STATISTICIAN DIPS INTO HIS ARCHIVES TO FIND THE STORIES BEHIND THE FACTS AND FIGURES. TODAY BARRY TELLS THE TALE OF THE TAPE BEHIND PLAYERS MAKING CONSECUTIVE APPEARANCES AWAY FROM HOME.

CONSECUTIVE APPEARANCES

Dean Whitehead's run of 46 consecutive starts in first team away matches came to an end at Loftus Road but his second half substitute appearance ensured that he kept his record of playing some part in every away game since his debut for Sunderland at Coventry in August 2004.

This run of 56 games puts him joint sixth in the all-time list for consecutive away appearances for the Black Cats. Whitehead has missed only five of 113 games since joining Sunderland, all home fixtures.

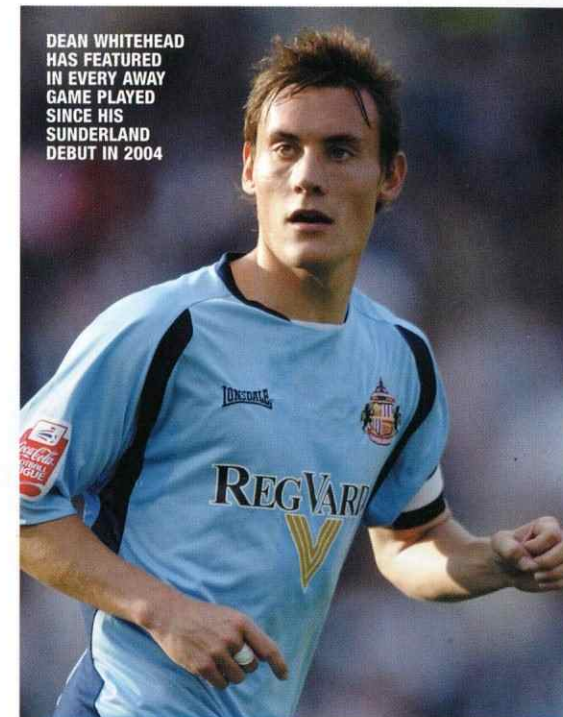

As you can see from the table, provided he plays some part in next week's game at Burnley, Whitehead will move ahead of the trio of players he currently is tied with on 56 successive away games. Providing he then plays at Crystal Palace Deano will overtake 1973 FA Cup winner Dick Malone.

- The record for consecutive home appearances is held by legendary goalkeeper Ted Doig who didn't miss a match at Newcastle Road or Roker Park between October 18th 1890 and April 1st 1899, a run of 142 games.

- Cup-winning captain Bobby Kerr holds the ground record for Roker Park with 114 consecutive home appearances in the mid 1970s.

- Sunderland's record holder for consecutive appearances in all matches is held by Glaswegian right-half Charlie Thomson who racked up an unbroken sequence of 147 games in the 1930s.

MATCH OF MY LIFE

Have you got your copy of 'Match of My Life' yet? We're sorry supplies ran out if you tried to buy a copy in Debenhams last weekend but stocks have been replaced and 'Match of My Life' is on sale now at the stadium shop and Sainsburys, Washington as well as Debenhams in Sunderland City centre. You can also order online at safc.com/shop/publications.

"I especially loved reading the Bobby Gurney chapter" said Len Ashurst who was back in the stadium shop signing copies prior to last week's match with Norwich. "It surprised me to learn how similar some things were in Bobby's day to mine. I can remember waiting with all of the other players to see which team you were in, be it the first team, reserves, third, fourth or fifth team. Whichever team you were in you just went with that team there was no arguing about it." SAFC all time record scorer Gurney, all time highest outfield appearance maker Ashurst, all time highest appearance maker

Jim Montgomery, player of the century Charlie Hurley, chairman Niall Quinn, as well as Stan Anderson, Gary Bennett, Kevin Ball, Tony Norman and goalscoring heroes Gary Rowell, Marco Gabbiadini, Nick Sharkey all contributed to 'Match of My Life' which costs £16.99 in hardback.

WISE MEN SAY: FOOTBALLING BAIRNS USED TO BE STREETS AHEAD

THE VIEWS IN THIS COLUMN DO NOT NECESSARILY REFLECT THE OFFICIAL VIEWS OF SUNDERLAND AFC.

"If we'd been youngsters nowadays, we'd all have been given ASBO's."

Jack Snowdon, still as sharp as when keeping goal for his home town club Willington in the 1950 Amateur Cup Final, probably made the most pertinent comment in years about the general decline in fitness levels of modern day teenagers.

age,' gathered to share reminiscences and view with an audience of over 100, Pathe News footage of a period when the ball had a lace and goalies were fair game for a robust shoulder charge.

Why Crook and the reference to anti social behaviour orders? Well between the 1935 action from Bishop Auckland's win over Wimbledon recorded on celluloid and on social issues was between the sticks.

Of the 24 finals played during those three decades (the second world war caused five fallow years) teams from Wear Valley took 14 of the available places.

And the ASBO's? Questions poured in as to why so much success came to a few parishes in County Durham, at a time when the Amateur Cup was second only to the FA Cup Auckland in the 1954 Final, which went to three games.

Jack Snowdon reckoned and with some justification, that youngsters in the 1940s learnt the game on the street. Few youth centres or coaching clinics in those days. But now in a more affluent yet less tolerant era, bairns will be chased if a ball is seen bouncing in the roadway. Everything in life has to be organised. Facilities must be tiptop, and even the tiniest tackler has to have all the latest gear before being allowed to kick a ball, following of course obligatory CRB checks and safety risk assessments.

So woe betide any group of ten year olds, particularly if wearing hoods, having an impromptu game on some convenient green space. They will be held responsible for all the ills of the world and clearly conspiring to bring death and destruction to this green and pleasant land. Far better to slap an ASBO on them, so they are confined to the couch viewing DVD's showing good wholesome techno violence. Then citizens can rest easy in their conservatories knowing the streets are safe.

Of course decline in Wear Valley's footballing achievements and the challenge of low participation levels in sport of any description – the north east has the poorest figures in the country – is far more complicated.

But often a word spoken in jest gets you thinking.

Almost 57 years ago, Jack's reflexes were finely tuned in front of 88,000 at Wembley, when Willington overcame their southwest Durham neighbours Bishop Auckland on amateur football's showpiece occasion. By all accounts the young Snowdon "had a magnificent match."

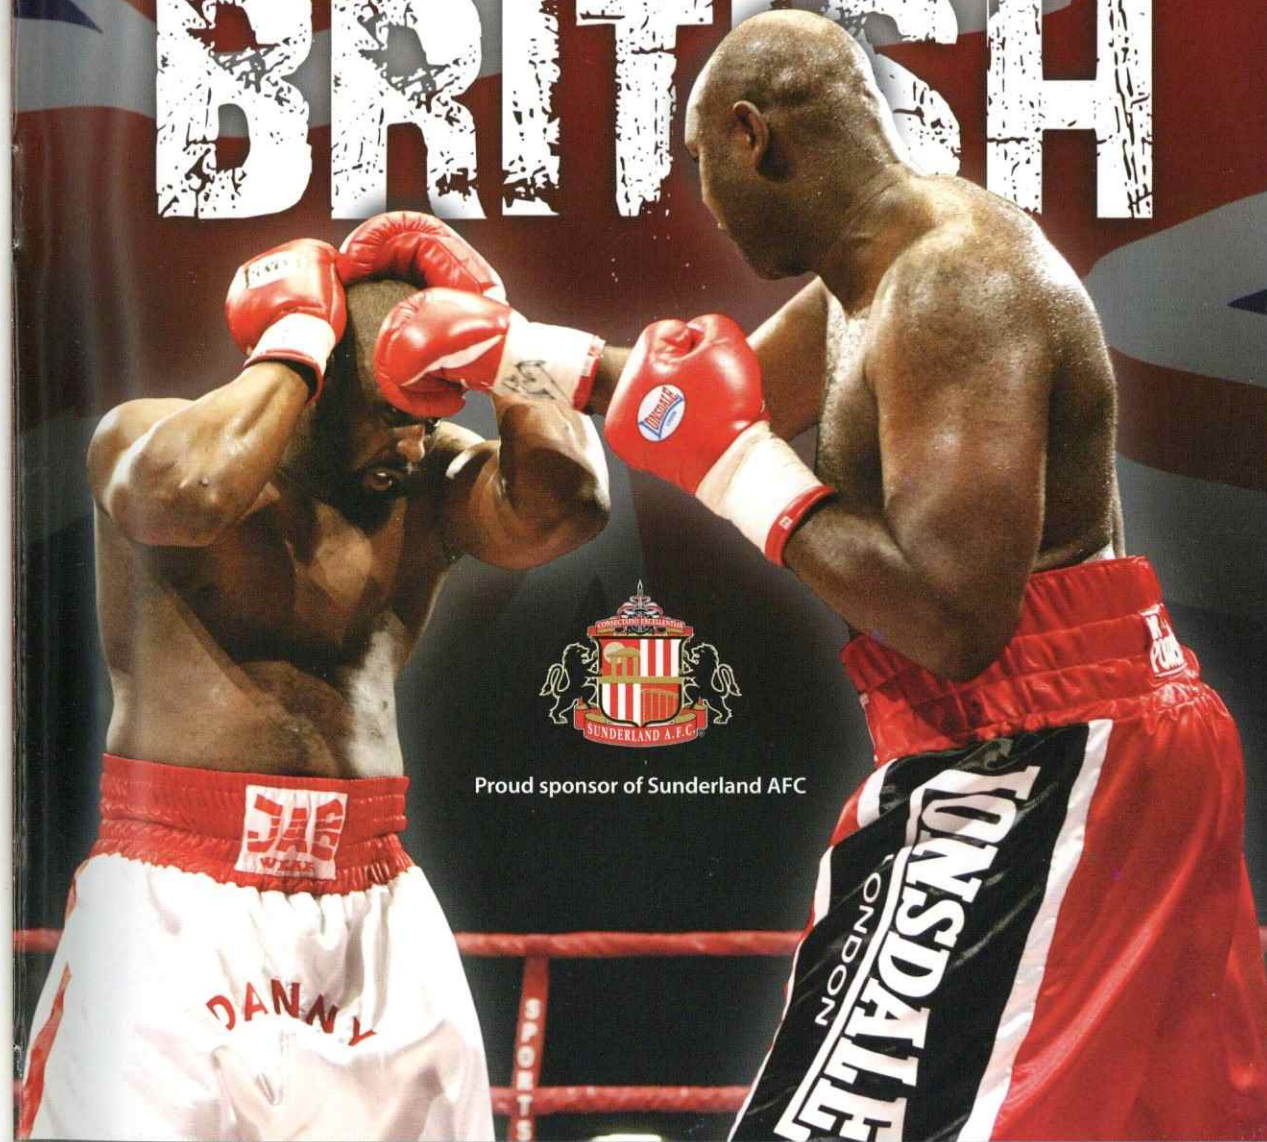

Last month at Crook Library, Jack and several other local heroes of the Northern League's 'golden 1964, the FA Amateur Cup was triumphantly held aloft ten times in three Durham towns, barely six miles apart.

Bishops led the way with five victories, fielding a host of household names, including Bob Paisley later to win a trophy or several with Liverpool. Crook themselves had four successes in ten years, and Willington just the one when a future commentator in terms of prestige and media attention. Crowds of ten thousand plus were common at Bishop's Kingsway enclosure, Millfield in Crook and Hall Lane home of Willington, when crack southern amateurs from Leytonstone, Hendon and Bromley and future league clubs Wycombe and Barnet, were vanquished. Over 200,000 witnessed Crook's eventual victory over Bobby Hardisty's Bishop
