Kevin Blackwell

Kevin Blackwell
Luton Town Manager

Welcome everybody to Kenilworth Road for this important game against Southampton. There's no feeling like going into your first home game as the manager of a football club and today will be a special moment for me.

I have been delighted by the attitude of the players since my arrival last week. Their desire to do well is second to none and like all Luton supporters, they are frustrated by the situation we are currently in.

With have six massive games remaining, but if the players apply the same attitude on a Saturday afternoon as they have in training then we will give ourselves a chance.

The situation is no longer in our own hands, but we can only concentrate on our own performances.

I was pleased with our display at Burnley last week. It would have been nice to come away with a win, but I was delighted by the character shown by the players.

They knuckled down to a shape and system that we wanted them to play and they showed certain things in set-pieces that they had remembered from earlier in the week.

The work-rate, particularly in the second half, was excellent, and we had chances that were more than half-chances and on another day one might have gone in.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you, the supporters, for the many letters I have received since my arrival last week.

I have been on the footballing road for around 20 years now and the support I have received has been fantastic.

I'm delighted to be here at Luton

Town at what looks to be a very exciting time. The board impressed me with their vision and the way they're taking Luton Town forward so I had little hesitation in joining the Club.

This is a big job, but the future looks very bright for Luton. It's a challenge, but I've come for the bigger picture as well. We'll be giving it all we've got to try and stay up because we don't want to spend a year trying to get back to the Championship.

The staff and people around the club have made me settle in extremely quickly.

Sometimes I feel that the staff at football clubs don't get enough praise, but they have made things exceptionally easy for me and I thank them for that.

Finally, I would like to welcome George Burley and his players and staff to Kenilworth Road. They impressed last weekend at Wolves and with them vying for a Play-Off place, we know just how tough this afternoon will be.

Enjoy the game and get behind the lads.

Chris Coyne
Luton Town Captain

on a very good performance at Turf Moor, especially in the second half, and now we go into this busy Easter period full of confidence.

I know that Southampton are coming off the back of a great result after they thumped Wolves 6-0 last Saturday but that can sometimes work against you and make you over-confident. We can't be worried about what they did last week in any case, we just have to focus on what we're doing.

Then it's QPR on Monday and that's a real crunch game. Either we can drag them down into the relegation places or they can put us in more trouble. It's become a bit of a derby game against QPR over recent years so we'll probably take some good support to Loftus Road, especially as it's a Bank Holiday. We're looking

This is a big time of change at the Club with a new manager but it has been very positive since the Gaffer came in. It's a fresh voice, a fresh face, fresh ideas and it's perked the place up. Training has been good with a good tempo and everyone is buzzing.

We're now starting one of the biggest weeks of my career with three massive games in eight days that could make or break our season. But after the match at Burnley we really think that they're all winnable. Before that we were on a real losing streak but we put important for us to pick up points with other teams around us winning.

I remember an important Easter weekend when we were promoted from League Two in 2001-02 and we played Mansfield at home needing points to clinch promotion. We had a great game down here, beat them 5-3 and that just about saw us up. Now we need a big Easter for a different reason.

I'm just so relieved that I'm fit again because I'd have hated to be sitting in the stands this week. It's been a horrible season for me personally with injuries and it's just not something I'm used to because I've been very fortunate so far.

But I suppose that makes it harder to deal with when you have a whole season of missed matches. Now I'm just glad to be back and doing my bit for the team again.

It's great to welcome big clubs like Southampton here. We want to play top clubs and that's why we're so desperate to beat this drop. We still believe that we have it in us.

Get behind the lads and I hope you enjoy the game.

Chri

From the Club Secretary

Cherry Newbery

Good afternoon and welcome to everyone to today's game, I would like to extend a particularly warm welcome to Kevin Blackwell on behalf of everyone at the club for his first home match as Manager.

I can now confirm the dates for our two remaining outstanding Pontin's Holidays Combination League matches. We will play Oxford United here at Kenilworth Road on Tuesday May 1 kick-off 2pm and due to fixture congestion Norwich City have kindly agreed to play our scheduled home match at their training ground at Colney on Thursday May 3 kick-off 2pm.

The outstanding Under-18 Puma Youth Alliance match versus Colchester United will now be played on Saturday April 21 at Luton Rugby Club kick-off 11am.

We have progressed to the final of the Under-18 Beds FA Floodlit Cup, when we be playing AFC Dunstable, but at the time of writing we have no confirmed date for this match.

We are pleased to welcome local poet John Hegley to the match today and also former world karate champion Willie Thomas. We also have as guests of the club and our community department 120 members of SV1932 Wiesbaden – Frauenstein who are on tour from Germany to celebrate their 75th Anniversary. We hope you enjoy your visit to Kenilworth Road.

Congratulations are due to Luton Rugby Club who last Saturday became Midlands One Champions and achieved promotion to National Three – so congratulations to everyone involved at Luton Rugby Club.

We have a pitch presentation today by Bobbers Travel Club representatives to Jon Bowden our Senior Physiotherapist. He will receive a cheque for £1,290 which represents the purchase of four scale 70 exercise bikes. As always we are very grateful for the continued support of the Bobbers Travel Club.

Prices for season tickets next season will be announced shortly, but in the meantime can we advise you the last date for renewal at the discounted price will be close of business on June 4.

Finally, please get behind the team – your support does make a difference.

Enjoy the game

Cherry

Hatters fans experience Wembley thrill

Luton may not have been in action last weekend, but Hatters fans were still out in force.

One lucky Hatters follower was one of the first to witness the new Wembley Stadium. Chris Penniston, who is a season ticket holder at Kenilworth Road, was among the strong 60,000 crowd that witnessed England's Under 21 play their Italy counterparts in a thrilling 3-3 draw.

Chris sent in this photo of a Luton flag in the new Wembley Stadium and admitted that the arena was impressive.

If you are a Luton Town fan who follows England around the world, then why not drop us your pictures.

Welcome to Southampton

Fresh from an impressive 6-0 win against Wolves at the weekend, Southampton will be looking to keep the momentum going this afternoon and make a final push towards the Play-Offs.

JAMES MARSH welcomes today's visitors to Kenilworth Road

After a turbulent few years in which Southampton have had four managers and three chairmen, Saints fans now have genuine hope that this season could see them climb back into the Premiership. After relegation from the top tier in 2005 under Harry Redknapp – and the prolonged saga of the former West Ham boss's return to arch-rivals Portsmouth the same year – manager George Burley now seems to have steadied the ship, and his side lie seventh, just three points off a play-off place.

After Redknapp's departure, and the brief caretaker tenure of Dave Bassett and Dennis Wise, Burley has gradually stamped his mark on the side, even though off-the-pitch distractions have lingered. Under-pressure Chairman Rupert Lowe resigned in the summer of 2006 to be replaced by Jersey businessman Michael Wilde, who himself stepped down in February this year. Current chairman, Leon Crouch, will be hoping that Saints have now recovered from their mid-season dip in form to sneak into the top six.

If the 1976 FA Cup-winners last away match is anything to go by, Saints are certainly a danger team. A 6-0 mauling of sixth-place Wolves at Molineux delighted fans, not least because of a hat-trick from on-loan Polish striker, Marek "Saga" Saganowski. That triple took his total to seven in ten games for Saints since his switch from AC Troyes in January, and his form has been a major factor in Southampton's return to play-off contention. Equally impressive in attack have been the pacy duo of Trinidadian Kenwyn Jones and young Bradley Wright-Phillips, who have netted 14 and ten goals respectively this season. If top-scorer, Grzegorz Rasiak, is back from a virus he picked up on international duty in Poland last week, Burley will have an enviable selection problem to solve.

Yet despite this flourishing strike-force, perhaps the most potent threat comes from midfield in the form of young Welsh wizard Gareth Bale. The 17-year-old is likely to return to the side after scoring for Wales last week, and the attacking left-sided player is one of the most exciting to emerge in British football over the past decade. Bale, who was the subject of a rumoured £10m bid from Spurs in January, is the one to watch as the men from St. Mary's look to secure their seventh away win of the season.

The Southampton players who will be on show at Kenilworth Road today

The Manager

George Burley got his first job as a manager in 1994 at Colchester, where he finished his playing career. However, just six months later he was appointed manager at another former club Ipswich Town.

During an eight-year reign at Portman Road, he won promotion to the Premiership, where he guided the unfancied Ipswich to a remarkable fifth place and into the UEFA Cup. But the dream went sour, the European adventure was over by Christmas and was followed by relegation from the Premiership a few months later. When Ipswich then struggled in the Championship, Burley's time was up.

In 2003, he became interim manager of Derby County while boss John Gregory was suspended. He halted Derby's alarming slide towards relegation from the Championship and was given the Rams job permanently when Gregory was sacked, but the following season was a struggle, with Derby finishing a place lower, even though there were signs of improvement.

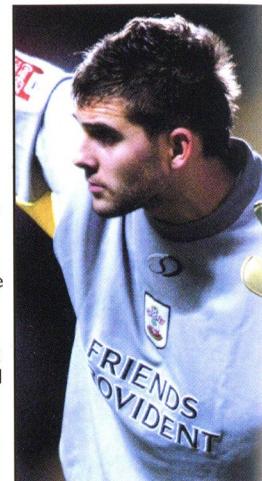

In 2004-05, despite spending no money on new players, Burley transformed Derby from relegation contenders to play-off semi-finalists. However, off-the-field problems led him to quit in June 2005.

He immediately became manager of Hearts and got off to a stunning start as the Edinburgh club topped the Scottish Premier League after ten games, winning eight of them, including a 4-0 trouncing of city rivals Hibernian. However, Burley left the day after major shareholder Vladimir Romanov announced a bid to take private control of Hearts. Burley joined Southampton in December 2005 after the departure of Harry Redknapp, finishing eighth in his first season, 12th in his second and pushing for the play-offs this season.

The Goalkeepers

Southampton have four goalkeepers vying to become No 1. Former Hatter KELVIN DAVIS is the current choice after manager George Burley snapped him up from Sunderland in the summer of 2006. Kelvin made 91 appearances at Kenilworth Road before moves to Wimbledon and Ipswich followed. BARTOSZ BIAŁKOWSKI (pictured) is a Polish Under-21 keeper who has made eight appearances since his move from Gornik Zabrze in January 2006. He caught Burley's eye while on trial at Hearts.

MICHAEL POKE made it to the bench for the final two games of 2003-04 when both Antti Niemi and Paul Smith were ruled out. He has been with Southampton since he was 10, working his way through the youth and reserve teams, and he was recently loaned to Northampton Town. Finally KEVIN MILLER has had spells with Birmingham, Crystal Palace, Barnsley and Watford among others during an 18-year career.

The Defenders

GARETH BALE (pictured) was Southampton's second-youngest player ever when he made his debut against Millwall at the age of 16 years and 275 days. He was also picked for the Welsh Under-21 side against Cyprus in May 2006 then won rapid promotion to the full national squad for two friendlies, coming off the bench against Trinidad & Tobago to become the youngest-ever full Welsh international, and setting up the winning goal. PELE (the nickname for Pedro Miguel Cardoso Monteiro) joined Southampton from Portuguese side Belenenses in the summer of 2006. DARREN POWELL was signed from Crystal Palace a year earlier and quickly became an important part of the team alongside CLAUS LUNDEKVAM in central defence. Lundekvalm is a fans' favourite at St Mary's after he arrived from SK Brann for £400,000 in September 1996. A Norwegian international, he has made 350 appearances for the club and is currently skipper. He was named as Norwegian PFA Player Of The Year in 2003-04 and Southampton Player Of The Season for 2005-06. ALEXANDER OSTLUND joined for a nominal fee from Feyenoord in January 2006 and has become a cult hero at Southampton for his crunching tackles and exciting runs. The 27-year-old has been a regular in the Swedish side since Euro 2004, but was a surprise omission from the Germany 2006 World Cup. George Burley snapped up CHRIS MAKIN from Reading in August 2006. He has made more than 400 senior appearances at the top levels, including a spell under Burley at Ipswich. Makin, who began his career at Oldham, had a year with French club Marseille in 1996 before joining Sunderland. He moved to Ipswich for £1.4 million but then joined Leicester, before helping Reading win promotion to the Premiership last season.

The Midfielders

JERMAINE WRIGHT (pictured) began at Millwall, then went to Wolves, but it wasn't until he moved to Crewe that his career took off. While at Gresty Road, he became an England youth international and Burley, who was Ipswich manager at the time, snapped him up. He passed 200 appearances at Portman Road, then joined Leeds, before rejoining Burley at Southampton in July 2006. RUDI SKACEL blossomed under Burley at Tynecastle and when Burley left, he made it clear he wanted to link up with his old boss again, which he did at the start of 2006-07. A fans' favourite in Scotland, he hit 16 goals from midfield in his first season in the SPL, and a host of Clubs were soon interested in him. DJAMEL BELMADI has twice been named Algerian Footballer Of The Year and has played for Paris St Germain, Martigues, Cannes, Celta Vigo and most recently Al Ittihad. His quick feet and quick thinking have added creativity to Saints' midfield although his early impact in 2005-06 was halted by a thigh injury. NATHAN DYER made a stunning debut against Southend in the First Round of the Carling Cup in 2005, and was then an ever-present in the Academy side that reached the final of the FA Youth Cup in 2005. He continued to build first team experience during 2005-06 with a loan spell at Burnley where he scored on his debut for the second time in a matter of months. Burley snapped up Columbian midfielder JOHN VIAFARA at the start of 2006-07 from Saints' local rivals Portsmouth. Vafara is a winner of the Copa de Libertadores (the South American version of the Champions League) and has impressed Saints fans. MARIO LICKA joined Southampton after a trial in the summer of 2006. He was unlucky to pick up a knock in a pre-season friendly but he had still done enough to secure a three-year deal. The Czech midfielder began at Banik Ostrava before moving on to FC Slovacko in 2003. Just 65 appearances followed in the next three years, though, as he struggled to make an impact but Burley was happy to take him on when his contract

The Strikers

BRADLEY WRIGHT PHILLIPS signed a three-year deal at St Mary's after moving from Manchester City for an undisclosed fee. Phillips, a half brother of Chelsea winger Shaun, is an England Under-20 international, who made a total of 32 Premiership appearances for City – 31 of them from the bench. He scored two goals, including one within three minutes of coming on for his debut against Middlesbrough in December 2004. GRZEGORZ RASIAK (pictured) joined Derby in September 2004 after transfer to Italian Serie A side Siena fell through. He scored 17 goals as Derby reached the play-offs in May 2005. That earned the powerful 6ft 3in striker a £2m move to Spurs. However it did not work out and in February 2006 he joined Saints on loan to the end of the season. That became permanent in May with Saints paying Tottenham £2m for the Pole, who signed a four-year deal before joining the national squad for Germany 2006, where he made one brief substitute appearance. He hit form for Saints this season, with 20 goals by early March. Trinidad & Tobago international KENWYNE JONES was signed from W Connection in May 2004. His athleticism and lightning pace made him a bright prospect for the future but he was widely regarded as a raw talent, yet to find his best position. All that changed with a loan move to Sheffield Wednesday in September 2004. Former Saints boss Paul Sturrock added him to his strike force and, aged just 19 when he moved north, Jones went on to hit seven goals in as many starts for the Yorkshire side. On his return to St Mary's, he was used as a substitute in the 2-0 victory over Liverpool and the 2-1 FA Cup victory over local rivals Portsmouth but was then thrown into the first team in the away defeat to Birmingham. He went on loan to Stoke and in 2006 made the Trinidad & Tobago squad for their first World Cup finals.

Opposition

Southern Daily Echo's Chief Sports Writer
Adam Leitch talks to Chris Rivett

■ How have Southampton found things since the turn of the year?

It's been up and down. Things were up at the start of the year but took a downturn in March. However, last week's 6-0 drubbing of Wolves hopefully signalled the end of a blip in form and Saints will now push on for a place in the top six.

■ What are Southampton's aims for the rest of the season?

They haven't really changed from the beginning of the season - a top six finish. With the parachute payment ending in the summer it's a big season for Saints on and off the pitch and a return to the Premiership would be welcome for many reasons. These things take time and George Burley has built a young squad for the future but this season really is a one-off and a top six finish is what everybody wants and expects.

■ How has George Burley's most recent signing, Danny Guthrie settled in at St Mary's Stadium?

Danny Guthrie has done excellently since he joined on loan from Liverpool. He's a young lad from Liverpool and it's quite obvious he's been brought up on Anfield's pass-and-move culture. Guthrie gives Saints a little extra quality on the ball in the centre of midfield and George Burley has done well to get him.

■ Who should Luton fans look out for this afternoon in the Saints' squad?

Saints have plenty of good players all through their team. In attack Marek Saganowski has been prolific since his loan signing while Chris Baird has been a rock in defence. Probably the man of the moment is Andrew Surman, a vastly under-rated young midfielder who possesses great quality on the ball.

■ Who do you think will get promoted to the Premiership this season?

Derby, Birmingham and Saints.

Stat Attack

Simon Pitts on stats, players and previous meetings between today's two sides

Luton have entertained Southampton 28 times in the League, with the Hatters winning 11 and the Saints eight. Of those games, Luton have scored 59 goals, and the visitors 46. The clubs have also met in four cup matches at Kenilworth Road, with the Hatters unbeaten, winning two and drawing two.

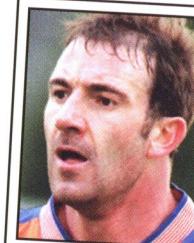

Luton have bought six players from Southampton, with another two – Forbes Phillipson-Masters and Paul Allen – joining on loan. The most recent signings are Kerry Dixon during the 1992-93 season, Richard Dryden 2000-01, and Paul Hughes (pictured) in the summer of 2001. Dixon moved on a free transfer in February 1993, and played 88 times for the Hatters, scoring 20 goals, before he moved to Millwall two years later. Dryden joined on a free transfer in February 2001, and went on to make 26 appearances for Luton before a move to Scarborough following a successful loan spell. Paul Hughes made it a hat-trick of freebies when he made his move from the South Coast to Bedfordshire. Hughes made an immediate impact, scoring on his debut on the opening day of the season at Carlisle, and then following it up with another goal the next week at home to Cheltenham. Hughes made 88 appearances and scored seven times for the Hatters.

Two players have scored hat-tricks against Southampton, and amazingly Hugh Billington did it twice in three days. It hit three in a 6-2 win at Kenilworth Road. He grabbed another in a 2-1 victory against Fulham the following day, Southampton in a 4-0 win at The Dell on Easter Monday. Brian Stein scored a birthday hat-trick in 1985 when the Hatters hit SEVEN against England keeper Peter Shilton.

Both the highest and lowest attendances for this fixture have seen draws. In September 1948, 20,257 fans saw Peter Small score his first goal for the Hatters in a 1-1 draw. Just 6,618 watched the match at Kenilworth Road on December 18, 1987 when the points were shared as were four goals. Colin Clarke twice put the visitors into the lead, but Town McDonough and Mick Harford.

There have been two gaps of 14 years between meetings in the League. Jim Fleming scored only twice in the 1962-63 season, and both goals came against Southampton as the sides met on consecutive Saturdays early in the season. After Luton won 3-2 on August 29, 1962, the sides didn't meet at Kenilworth Road until March 1976, and again the Hatters won, this time with a solitary goal from Jimmy Husband. Luton's first win of the 1991-92 season, their last year in the top flight, came from a long range strike from Richard Harvey. After that, the sides did not meet again in the League until last season, after Southampton were relegated from the Premiership and the Hatters promoted as Champions from League One. Dean Morgan settled the match with a superb effort in injury time – a great first goal for Luton after a summer move from Reading.

Luton have done the double over Southampton three times – in 1938-39, 51-52, and 85-86. As mentioned above, Hugh Billington scored a hat-trick in both matches in 38-39. Bert Mitchell also scored home and away in 51-52 as Luton won 3-2 and 2-1. Amazingly Brian Stein also achieved this hat-trick at Kenilworth Road, he hit a late winner when the sides met at the Dell in February 1986. Southampton have also completed three doubles over Luton – in 1947-48, 61-62, and 76-77.

Five to Remember

Roger Wash remembers five classic encounters between Luton Town and Southampton

December 3, 1960
Luton Town 4 Southampton 1
Attendance: 12,927

After a poor run, the Town's hopes of a quick return to the top flight had taken a tumble but an eye-catching 6-1 home win over Middlesbrough had re-kindled spirits.

Next up at Kenilworth Road were the Saints and on a pitch that would not have passed muster today, George O'Brien scored early on for the away side, stroking the ball home at the end of a mazy dribble.

Showing glimpses of their new-found form, the Hatters fought back and two opportunist efforts from record goalscorer Gordon Turner gave them an interval lead. Luton had much the better of the second half and mastered the gluepot surface far better than Saints, with Mike Tracey and Allan Brown giving the score a more realistic look.

conceded only two goals, but was tested as Town put on as good a show as we had seen at Kenilworth Road for years. All three Town goals were crackers with Trevor Aylott, in for the suspended Paul Walsh, netting two, and Brian Stein scoring the Goal Of The Season at the end of a sweeping move. The Hatters even missed a penalty with David Moss firing over the bar as they went above Saints in the table.

□ David Moss has the beating of Saints' David Armstrong

October 19, 1985
Luton Town 7 Southampton 0
Attendance: 8,876

Luton manager David Pleat was frustrated at the Town's lack of goals given the number of chances that were being created but all came right on an overcast afternoon as the forwards suddenly hit top form.

England goalkeeper Peter Shilton ended up picking the ball out of the net seven times despite bringing off a string of fine saves. He was not helped by his defence with Hatters striker Mick Harford pulling England centre-half Mark Wright out of position all afternoon thus allowing Brian Stein to net a hat-trick to go with singles from Emeka Nwajiobi, Ricky Hill, David Preece and Ray Daniel.

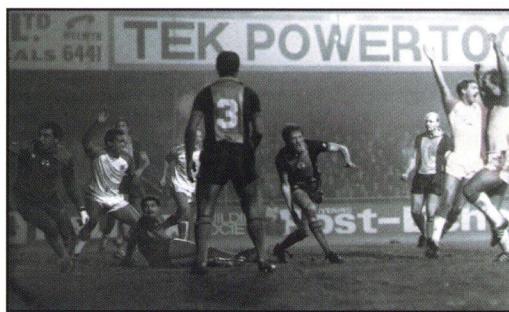

David Pleat was dumbstruck but not as much as his Saints counterpart – ex-Hatters centre-half Chris Nicholl!

January 2, 1989
Luton Town 6 Southampton 1
Attendance: 8,637

Two days before the clash with Southampton, the Town had gone down 0-4 at Wimbledon in a pitiful performance. Despite this, manager Ray Harford made only one change to the side but crucially also asked Mick Harford to play in his favoured striking role rather than in a deep-lying position.

Harford was back to his awesome best, giving Saints defenders Russell Osman and Kevin Moore the runaround while Roy Wegerle gave one of his unplayable-on-the-day performances. Both players scored twice with Kingsley Black and Ricky Hill hitting the others as the Town showed a ruthless touch that had been missing for several weeks.

"The best finishing I have seen since I have been here," said Ray Harford afterwards.

November 27, 1982
Luton Town 3 Southampton 3
Attendance: 11,196

After a number of high-scoring matches, newly-promoted Luton were the darlings of the television cameras and the BBC Match of the Day cameras were at Kenilworth Road to see Danny Wallace fire in a scorcher and then Keith Cassells put the Saints into a commanding half-time lead.

A Luton penalty miss soon after the break seemed to spur on the players and when Ricky Hill and Brian Stein levelled, there seemed only one winner but David Armstrong, against the run of play, put Saints in front with six minutes to go.

Luton would not give up, though, and Clive Goodyear poked in an equaliser at the very end of a breathless game.

October 22, 1983
Luton Town 3 Southampton 1
Attendance: 12,389

The previous season had been a bitter battle to avoid relegation from the top flight, but the new campaign opened brightly and by the time Southampton came to Kenilworth Road, we were still unbeaten at home.

Saints were fourth and England keeper Peter Shilton had

The long road that saw KEVIN BLACKWELL go from a kid playing in the backstreets of Luton, to a qualified bricklayer, to a professional goalkeeper, to an assistant manager, to a Championship boss... and finally come back home to Kenilworth Road

Among Kevin Blackwell's earliest memories are the roars of the Kenilworth Road crowd as the Hatters banged in a goal and the home fans went crazy.

Not that he was standing on the terraces among them in those days. He was too young. But Kevin was born in the town and grew up close enough to hear every goal as he played outside, kicking a ball around and dreaming of being part of it one day.

"Even when we were too young to come to the games, our house was near enough to hear the cheers every time a goal went in. We've still got a house in Luton and my Dad still lives here, so it's a bit like coming home."

"Later I used to stand on the Oak Road and cheer on the likes of Jimmy Ryan. I remember my first game against Halifax – my Dad took me into the Bobbers Stand."

Now the day that young fan dreamed of has arrived and Kevin, 48, is the proud manager of Luton Town Football Club.

But the journey that transformed the schoolboy into a manager over the course of four decades has been long and eventful.

It started when he was a young apprentice keeper at Cambridge United, whose manager at the time was the flamboyant Ron Atkinson. Kevin didn't make it and left the pro game, working as a brickie and playing for non-league Bedford Town.

But the dream of a career in football was still alive as the would-be keeper learned his trade. He moved to Barton Rovers and played in the 1978 FA Vase Final, returning to the same final with Middlesex Wanderers. That led to move to Barnet under Barry Fry – one more giant of the game to learn from – then on to Boston in 1980. He famously saved a penalty at Wembley in the 1985 FA Trophy Final, although in a losing cause.

In 1986, he was signed by Scarborough manager Neil Warnock – the beginning of a relationship that was to see the two work together at Notts County, Torquay, Huddersfield, Plymouth, Bury and Sheffield United. His transition from player to manager had already begun.

Kevin helped Scarborough win promotion to the Football League and he remained at the club for their first two League seasons, making 44 League appearances

When Warnock moved to Notts County in January 1989, he signed Kevin. And it was at Meadow Lane back in 1991 that Kevin decided he wanted a career in management. He ruthlessly set about earning his coaching badges. Sixteen years later, he is one of Britain's most qualified coaches.

"I wanted to know if I could do it and if I would enjoy it," he remembers, "and I did. It seemed to come naturally."

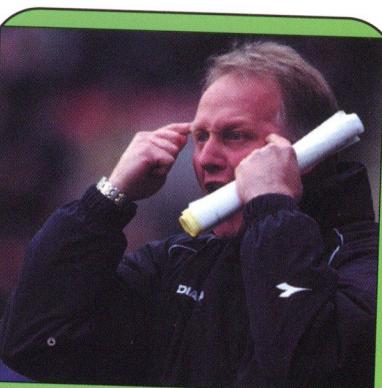

It meant that Kevin has spent nearly every summer hard at work as well as studying during season after season.

First came a coaching certificate in 1991 working with the County Youth Academy. He then took his preliminary Badge in 1992, and his Full Badge in 93-94. That was the highest you could get but a year later UEFA launched Europe-wide qualifications and Kevin was off again.

He took a conversion course in 95-96 to earn his A Licence as an outfield coach, and added a goalkeeping coach qualification in 96-97.

Still not satisfied, he took a Sports Psychology Diploma at Newcastle University in 1999-2001, a Diploma in Sports Management at Warwick University in 2003 and a Pro Licence a year later.

Meanwhile, he followed Warnock to Torquay, helping the Gulls stay in the League, and on to Huddersfield, doubling as a goalkeeping coach – his first step on the managerial ladder.

In 1995, he became Warnock's Youth Coach at Plymouth, then Assistant Manager to Mick Jones at Home Park. When Jones was sacked in June 1998, Warnock was manager of Bury, and Kevin continued his apprenticeship there, first as goalkeeping coach and then as Assistant Manager.

The two had their biggest test when they moved to Sheffield United in 1999. They took the Blades to an FA Cup Semi-Final against Arsenal in 2003, when only a Freddie Ljungberg goal kept them out of the Final.

There was more heartache a month later when they lost to Wolves in the League One Play-Off Final within touching distance of the Premiership.

It was time to branch out and in June

2003, Peter Reid took Kevin to Leeds United as Head Coach. After working under caretaker manager Eddie Gray he was finally given the title of Manager in 2004. With the club in financial crisis, Kevin worked wonders to take his side to 14th in the Championship in his first season and then 5th and a Play-Off spot.

Leeds beat Preston 3-1 in the Semi-Final but then lost to Watford. But after coming so close, a shaky start next season saw him on his way – and ready for his next challenge. The Luton boy – proud of the fact that he is related to the Hatters' all-time goalscoring record holder Gordon Turner – was back.

At a packed press conference in Kenilworth Road, he said: "I'm delighted to be here at what looks to be a very exciting time. The board impressed me with their vision and the way they're taking the club forward.

"This is a big, big job but the future for Luton looks very bright. It's a challenge but I've come for the bigger picture. We'll be giving it all we've got to try to stay up because we don't want to spend a year trying to get back to the Championship. We've got to believe and we're going to give it a good go."

And his eyes are certainly on the big prize.

"We are aiming for the Premiership," he insisted. "If you aim for the brightest star, then you might just achieve something. I've watched Luton four times since Christmas, so I know what most of them are about. Now I'll consider everything – the players, the pitch, the opposition – before we decide tactics for any game.

"Players should be able to change from 4-4-2 to 4-5-1 as the situation requires and it's the coaches' job to work with them to make sure they can switch."

What a job he faced. Ironically, before he took charge of his first game, his old Leeds side won in midweek and sent the Hatters bottom.

Between leaving Leeds and joining Luton, Kevin had taken the opportunity to see how the rest of the world coaches and treats players, spending time at Real Madrid, Inter Milan, Lyon, Le Havre and most recently Sao Paulo, the Brazilian champions.

"I was lucky enough through my connections in the football world to be invited to live and work and train with these teams. They said: 'Come and look at what we do'.

"You can't fail to learn from them and now I want to push back the boundaries. All my coaches will be asked to improve and be the best. You can never stop learning."

It's certainly been an impressive learning curve for Kevin that has taken him from Luton via Bedford, Barnet, Boston, Scarborough, Nottingham, Torquay, Huddersfield, Plymouth, Bury, Sheffield and Leeds right back to Kenilworth Road.

Not listening to the crowd from the outside any more or watching from the stands, but sitting in the Manager's office.

From the Manager

"It would have been nice to come away with a win, but I'm delighted with the attitude of the players. They knuckled down to a shape and system that we wanted them to play and they showed certain things in set-pieces that they had remembered from earlier in the week."

BURNLEY 0 LUTON 0

Kevin Blackwell ended Luton's run of six successive defeats with a precious point at Burnley in his first game in charge of the Hatters.

The former Leeds manager's tactics added strength to Luton's midfield and frustrated the home team throughout the match with resolute defending.

In fact Luton looked the more likely of the two sides to snatch all three points with a number of half chances in the second-half, which was dominated by the Hatters.

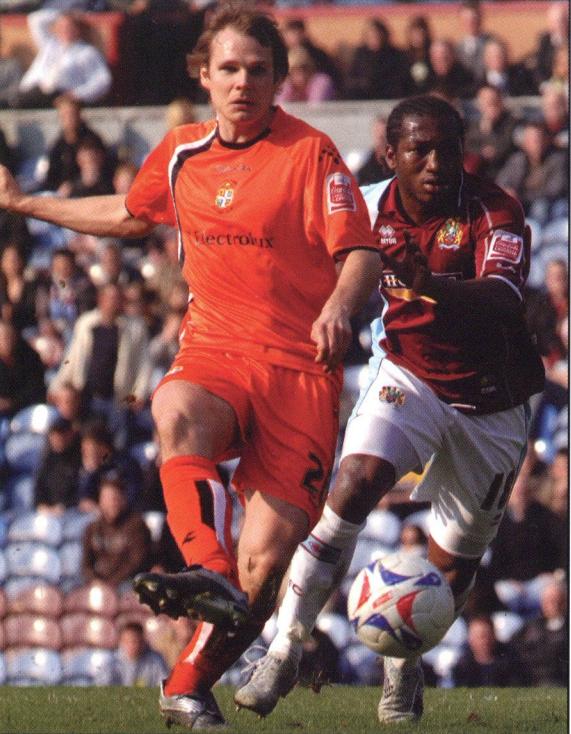

Luton's new look formation saw Drew Talbot play as the lone striker in a 4-1-4-1 formation with Finnish international Markus Heikkinen playing in front of the back four. Burnley had the better of the first half and only some impressive goalkeeping from Dean Brill helped Luton go into break all square.

However, it was a different story after the interval with Luton creating plenty of chances.

On 58 minutes, Dean Morgan got in front of his marker to send a six-yard header over the crossbar after Matthew Spring floated over a cross from the right.

Morgan then hit the side netting three minutes later before Matthew Spring twice saw sight of goal, but was unable to work Burnley goalkeeper Brian Jensen.

a relief in a sense. I kind of felt shoved out of Sheffield Wednesday.

"I never actually got my chance there.

"Brian Laws, the new manager, came in and I'd been fit for three or four months without really playing, so they sent me out on loan to Scunthorpe to get a few games under my belt.

"There were rumours linking me with Luton but Laws said: 'He's not for sale'. Then he rang me up and said I could go.

"So when I scored the goal it was a relief to myself that I could still play because it did put a doubt in my mind when he let me go after saying he wanted to keep me.

"When I've been fit I was scoring regularly for the Reserves.

"The lads in front of me were playing really well so I understood that. But when the chance came to put me in or put me on the bench it never really happened.

"I'm not going to hold any grudges because that's football and that's the way it works.

"Although some of the Sheffield lads have still not spoken to me!"

Finally, the breaks are starting to be positive rather than negative, and his abbreviated career thus far has still had its spectacular moments.

Drew had already introduced himself to Wednesday fans by scoring in a local derby against Doncaster Rovers in March 2005, and he greedily helped himself to a match-winning brace in his next outing against Blackpool.

His finest hour, however, was to come in Wednesday's last game of that season – the League One Play-Off Final at the Millennium Stadium, Cardiff.

To set the scene, Wednesday were 2-1 down against Hartlepool United, deep into the second half.

With just 13 minutes of normal time remaining, Owls boss Paul Sturrock made a triple substitution that included sending on Drew with the huge burden of turning the critical situation around.

We'll let Drew talk you through the rest. "I had only been on the field for

Did you know?

Drew was on the receiving end of a Wayne Rooney hat-trick in a 3-2 defeat to Everton during his academy days at Barnsley. Rooney was aged just 12 at the time!

30 seconds and I got pulled down for a penalty, which got us back into the game.

"The guy got sent off as well so they started cracking up. We knew if we played the right way in extra time then the game was ours."

Glenn Whelan then fired Wednesday 3-2 in front during the first period of extra time, and as ten-man Hartlepool pushed forward in search of an equaliser, Drew was lurking at the other end of the pitch waiting for an opportunity to pounce.

And that opportunity came with a long ball out of defence.

"I won my header and managed to run through from the halfway line.

"Everything seemed to slow down and it went quiet. I can't remember anything between winning the header and putting the ball in the net. I just went blank. I rounded the goalkeeper and managed to put it in and the place erupted. I remember the relief of seeing the ball go into the net."

Drew's face was a joy to behold as he relived his emotions from that sunny afternoon in May. His eyes welled up, his blood was pumping, there was a huge grin on his face.

"There won't be many days that top that for me. It will always have a special place in my heart.

"I have the DVD at home and now and again I watch it as it's one of those things that might never happen to me again. I cherish every moment of it."

However, what goes up must come down, and for Drew another set-back was just around the corner.

A stress fracture of the vertebra sustained in the following pre-season

Question Time

Which current Hatters forward played on the opposing side against Drew in the 2005 Play-Off Final?

had Drew in despair once again. He missed the entire 2005-06 campaign.

"It was tough. There was so much expectation on me after that goal to go on and be a regular figure.

"But I managed to get back and repay the trust that people put in me.

"Now that's all in the past and I haven't had a problem with my back for nearly a year, so I'm hoping that I'll be able to play out the rest of my career without having any more injuries."

So what next for the man with the Scottish name?

A late surge into Alex McLeish's Euro 2008 qualifying squad? Apparently not, say Drew.

"I'm not even Scottish. My name's Andrew but my dad changed it..."

Drew's opinion on...

England's poor form under manager Steve McClaren

I don't think it's anything to do with McClaren, it's more down to the players. You see them doing so well every week in the Premiership so I don't know why they aren't motivated. There's just so much expectation. I wouldn't take the manager's job as the pressure from the Press makes your life hell. Although I'd snap your arm off to play for England...

Who is the best player in the Premiership?

I'd go for Wayne Rooney. People talk about Ronaldo and Drogba but Rooney's hunger and work rate are there to be seen. He gets wound up but he just wants to win so much, which you don't always see in other players. He can do everything – he loves mixing it and he's got a great football brain. People have to realise that he's still only 21.

Penalty shoot-outs to decide drawn games?

I don't think it will work, to be honest. I never class it as losing a game just because you've lost a penalty shoot-out. Although I do when I've won them! Personally, I've never had trouble taking penalties. I was down to take one in the Play-Off Final if we needed them so I'd take one for Luton any day.

Barry HAWKES

Barry followed big brother Ken down from the north-east, signing on for Luton in 1955 but then had to wait almost four years, with National Service getting in the way, before winning his first team debut on the left wing against Manchester United in 1959. Better known as a ball-playing inside forward, Barry managed eight first team starts before being allowed to move to Darlington in 1960 and then to Hartlepools a year later.

After a broken leg ended his professional career, he worked for a wholesale greengrocery company for many years. Now retired, Barry lives in Peterlee.

Kenneth (Ken) Kilby HAWKES

Spotted by Luton's north-east scout Dick Trembath while playing for Shotton Colliery Welfare, Ken joined the Hatters in 1951 but his career at Kenilworth Road was put on hold when he was called up for National Service.

Ken finally broke into the Luton first team in 1957 and was then almost ever-present until the relegation season of 1959-60 and played for the Hatters in the 1959 FA Cup final. A rugged left-back, Ken was part of new manager Sam Bartram's cull in 1961 and he moved on to Peterborough, and then to Bedford and St Neots.

When he finished playing, Ken worked for Walter Clarke and Co for 28 years and received a whole bottle of sherry on retirement! Ken is still a welcome regular at Kenilworth Road.

Ian Michael HILLIER

Welsh Under-21 international Ian signed on as a youth trainee at Tottenham but could not make the breakthrough into the first team in three years at White Hart Lane. Joe Kinnear brought him to Luton in 2001 and in his first campaign at Kenilworth Road he enjoyed an extended run and scored one of the goals of the season during a 2-1 win at York.

Extremely versatile, Ian could play almost anywhere in defence or midfield, which became his undoing as he could not nail down a regular place in a set position after his bright start.

Following a loan spell at Chester, Ian joined Newport County in 2005 and is now in his second season in Nationwide Conference South.

Gordon HINDSON

Gordon was a player who had all the attributes necessary to become a top quality midfielder or winger, possessing speed, ball control and a fierce shot but he rarely grabbed a game by the scruff of the neck.

Allowed to leave by first club Newcastle, Gordon signed for Luton in 1971 for £27,500 but was never a true regular at Kenilworth Road despite making 68 League appearances in just under four years.

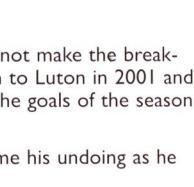

After a loan spell at Carlisle, Gordon signed for Blackburn but a broken ankle ended his League career and he returned to the north-east where he played for and coached a variety of non-League clubs while embarking on a career in Sports and Leisure Centre management.

Lars HIRSCHFELD

Canadian international goalkeeper Lars started his career playing indoor football with Edmonton Drillers before having a spell in Germany.

While playing for his country, he was spotted by Tottenham and he moved to north London in 2002 but found it difficult to win a first team spot and gladly accepted a loan move to Luton, playing five League games for the Hatters in February and March 2003.

Moves to Dundee United and Leicester followed before he threw in his lot with Norwegian side Tromso, where he was quickly voted the best goalkeeper in their history. Moving to Rosenborg in 2005, Lars helped his new side to the championship the following year.

Luton Town

war player to have appeared for Luton Town

William (Billy) Gerald HOLMES

Balham-born Billy played almost ten seasons in the Football League but managed only 63 appearances.

In three years at first club Millwall, Billy made only one substitute appearance, and then repeated that at Luton, coming on in a 3-0 home win over Blackpool in 1973. A move to Barnet followed and then on to Wimbledon, where his goals helped fire them into the Football League in 1977 but he then swiftly left in an £8,000 transfer to Hereford. Billy's League career finished at Brentford before he spent time at Aylesbury. He sadly died at the tragically young age of 37 in 1988.

Peter James HOLMES

A product of the FA School of Excellence as well as an England schoolboy and Youth international, Peter was snapped up by Sheffield Wednesday where he was coached by ex-Luton hero Ricky Hill.

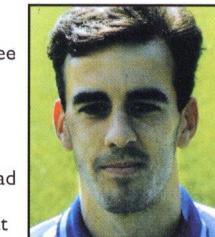

When Hill became manager of the Hatters in 2000, Peter was one of his first signings and the talented midfielder has now become the longest-serving player at Kenilworth Road, although never being able to carve a regular place in the side.

Never letting the side down and banging in some vital goals in more than 100 League appearances for the Town, Peter was allowed to go to Chesterfield on loan earlier this season and is currently loaned to Lincoln.

Paul HOLSGROVE

Son of the Wolves and Sheffield Wednesday stalwart John, Paul started as a youth trainee at Aldershot but after only three substitute appearances in two years moved to non-League Wokingham, where he started to make a name for himself.

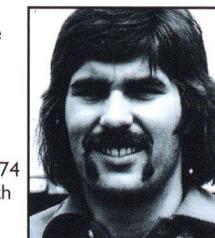

Paul then famously became Luton manager Jimmy Ryan's only purchase during his 16 months in charge at Kenilworth Road, but the tall, elegant midfielder turned out only twice for the Hatters before moving on to Heracles in Holland. Back in the UK, Paul had some success at Reading before continuing his nomadic existence through six further League clubs in England and Scotland and then on to non-League Hayes. Paul was last at Windsor and Eton but went back to Hayes as assistant manager last season.

Graham Roy HORN

Giant goalkeeper Graham was another nomadic footballer who played for eight League clubs as well as enjoying a long stay with LA Aztecs in the USA.

Joining Arsenal from school, Graham found it impossible to break through at Highbury and so went on a year-long loan to Portsmouth but mid-way through his time there Luton put in a straight bid for him which Pompey could not match.

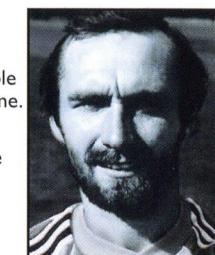

At Kenilworth Road, Graham helped the Hatters win promotion to the top flight in 1974 with a series of brave displays but was always competing for a first team spot with Keith Barber and eventually lost out.

Graham finished his League career with Torquay and settled in the West Country, where he still plays village cricket.

Brian HORTON

Hednesford-born Brian was a late starter in League football and was 21 before making his debut for Port Vale. Making up for lost time, Brian went on to make more than 200 appearances for Vale before moving to Brighton in 1976, where he also broke the double century barrier at the same time helping the Seagulls into Division One for the first time.

Brian was 32 when he moved to Luton in exchange for Tony Greaves in 1981 but he proved to be David Pleat's final piece in the jigsaw and oversaw the Hatters' rise to the top flight as an inspirational skipper and combative midfielder.

After retiring from the playing side, Brian has become a high profile manager at Manchester City among others and is awaiting a return to the game after leaving Macclesfield earlier in the season.

From the Manager

"We lacked quality in the real dangerous areas. First half we did OK but we let in an awful goal in an ugly game. I thought the fans would have given the lads a chance. A lot of them are very young and they've never been in this position before. It's not fair on them. It shouldn't affect them but it has done. As soon as they misplace a pass the fans are straight on their backs."

□ Warren Feeney shields the ball and takes it round Fabian Wilnis

LUTON 0 IPSWICH 2

Caretaker Manager Brian Stein's first game in charge ended in a 2-0 defeat to Ipswich Town with a goal in each half from Alan Lee and Matt Richards.

Stein gave a debut to highly-recommended loan signing Besian Idrizaj, but took the Austrian striker from Liverpool off at half time to bring on Warren Feeney. The Hatters showed plenty of passion and energy, but struggled to make a real impact on an uneven pitch.

A 30-yard drive from Keith Keane in the first half was comfortable for Ipswich keeper Lewis Price, but then he had to pull off a brilliant save to tip over a Clarke Carlisle drive. Luton did have the ball in the back on 53 minutes when Bell's free-kick was finally finished off by Feeney, but referee Andy D'Urso had stopped the game for a foul by Drew Talbot on Price.

Meanwhile, Alex Bruce hooked a cross onto the bar and Lee headed in the rebound from four yards six minutes before the break.

And just after the hour, Richards calmly side-footed home a Fabian Wilnis cross from the right from close range.

Bell tried his luck on 86 minutes, but his 25-yard effort was comfortably saved by Price. To their credit, Luton came forward until the end, but they never really looked as though they were going to make the breakthrough.

(Andrew 45 & 75, Boyd 87)

Calvin Andrew continued his comeback from injury in some style as he bagged a brace in a win over MK Dons.

The young striker has been out with an injury since the start of the season, but his performance was the highlight of a comfortable win for the Hatters.

He scored either side of the break with two headers, firstly connecting with Dean Morgan's corner from the left just moments before half-time.

His second came in the 75th minute when Danny Stevens swung over a corner from the right and the striker came charging into the box to give the MK Dons goalkeeper no chance.

Luton added a third through Adam Boyd in the 87th minute as he tapped home from close range after good work down the flank from Stevens.

Good news for Luton continued with Ahmet Brkovic playing 71 minutes, his first taste of action since damaging his ankle in the FA Cup replay against QPR at Kenilworth Road in January.

Luton played a 3-5-2 formation, with Richard Langley, Russell Perrett, Stephen O'Leary and Chris Coyne getting some much-needed match practice. The game also saw youth player Ben Strang put in an impressive performance in defence.

LUTON TEAM: Dean Brill, Ben Strang, Chris Coyne, Russell Perrett, Ahmet Brkovic (Danny Stevens 71), Peter Holmes, Richard Langley, Stephen O'Leary (Shaun Ross 82), Dean Morgan, Calvin Andrew, Adam Boyd

Subs not used: Zac Barrett, Stuart Sinclair, George Beavan.

Pontin's Holidays Combination: East Division
Luton Town Reserves 2 v (Stevens 39, Ross 75)
Southend Reserves 0

A mix of youth and experience produced a solid display against a lively Southend at Kenilworth Road.

The Hatters included Matthew Spring, (first appearance after missing three games), Ahmet Brkovic (adding to his 70 minutes for the Reserves last week after two months out), Adam Boyd and Richard Langley.

But with Kevin Blackwell watching from the stands on the day he was appointed manager, some of the youngsters also got a chance to impress, with defenders Shaun Ross, George Bevan and Ben Strang lining up with midfielder Danny Stevens.

Coach Marvin Johnson sprang a surprise by starting Langley as a central defender – and the midfielder looked more than comfortable, winning everything at the back and having the class and time to set up some of Luton's better moves.

But it was Stevens who broke the deadlock after 39 minutes. Boyd found Spring, who laid the ball into Stevens's path and his side-footed finish from 15 yards was so precise Southend keeper Collis didn't move.

After the break, Brkovic missed a chance to increase the lead with a shot from eight yards out after good work from Spring and Stevens.

But Southend were always dangerous and Belgian midfielder Moussa jinked his way through and hit a fierce shot from 12 yards that Luton's young keeper Zac Barrett somehow stopped with an outstretched hand. Luton sealed the win on 75 minutes when Boyd turned neatly outside the box and slipped a fine through ball to Shaun Ross, who confidently toe-poked home from 14 yards.

LUTON TEAM: Zac Barrett, Shaun Ross, George Beavan, Matthew Spring, Ben Strang, Richard Langley, Ahmet Brkovic (Joe Selby 57), Stephen O'Leary (Dean Hamilton 57), Calvin Andrew, Adam Boyd, Danny Stevens

Subs not used: Ross Faulds, Dwayne Artry, Ashley Harrison-Barker

TRAVEL GUIDE

By Car: From the M1 take the M40 towards London then take the A40 towards Central London. At the point where the A40 becomes the A40(M), turn off onto the A40 towards White City/Shepherds Bush and turn right into Wood Lane. Turn right into South Africa Road for the ground.

By Car: From the M1 exit at Junction 25 and take the A52 towards Derby. The ground is signposted off the A52 after about seven miles.

Parking: There is not a great deal of parking available around the stadium so it may be an idea to park in the centre of town and then walk out to the ground.

SUPPORTERS CLUBS

Town on Tour will be leaving Maple Road at 4pm. The fare for LTSC members is £14, £12 concessions and £16 non-members. To book seats for this trip, visit the supporters kiosk or phone 07960 567465. Supporters wishing to book their place for this trip should visit the Bobbers Travel Kiosk at the back of the Kenilworth Road end of the ground, or telephone 01234 856542.

By Car: From Luton, take the M1 southbound to the M25. On the M25, take the turning for the Dartford crossing, exiting the motorway at Junction 29. Follow the A127 to Southend and continue towards the town centre, through the lights near to the Bell Pub. At the next roundabout turn right (3rd turning), continuing on the A127. The ground is on the right just past the next traffic lights.

Parking: If you turn right as you reach the ground, this will put you behind the away end where there is plenty of street parking to be found. Otherwise there is a car park at the ground, behind the Main Stand which costs £5.

SUPPORTERS CLUBS

Marvin Johnson on a defeat for the young Hatters against Brentford

Saturday March 31
Football League Youth Alliance
South East Division
Luton Town Youth 0 v
Brentford Youth 3

Marvin Johnson had mixed feelings on his side's 3-0 defeat at the hands of Brentford last weekend.

The Hatters Youth Coach watched his side enjoy the majority of the game, but concede three sloppy goals to condemn themselves to a third straight defeat.

"It was a strange game really," admitted Marvin. "We didn't really play as well as I know we can play but I actually thought we were the better side.

"We had most of the possession without really creating any clear cut chances.

"Jamie McGuinness had a good chance when he went through one-on-one with the goalkeeper, but that was probably the only real chance we created throughout the first half.

"All three goals Brentford scored were poorly-conceded on our part. They came through individual mistakes.

"Speaking to the lads at the end of the game, we talked about how we could have eradicated the goals we have conceded.

"Even though we were beaten 3-0, the goals we have conceded were a bit of a disappointment and it's something we need to look at in training."

Johnson handed a debut to goalkeeper Jorden Gibson, who has been impressing the Luton coaching staff at schoolboy level.

"We handed a debut to Jorden Gibson. He was very nervous. He made a couple of errors and of course they are highlighted when you are a goalkeeper.

"I spoke to Jorden after the game and told him that he would not be judged on just one game.

"I will be looking at using a few more schoolboys in the last three games of the season. These players need a chance so we can see what they can do.

"It will give us a chance to try some new things, but there is still plenty for the lads to play for and we want a strong finish to the season."

The first of three remaining games is an away trip to Rushden & Diamonds next Saturday morning.

The lads then finish the campaign with two home games against Colchester United and Portsmouth. Both matches will be played at Newlands Road with an 11am kick-off.

Meanwhile, the youth team have planned an end-of-season tour to Germany, which will take place on May 23.

Luton: Gibson, Selbey, Beaven, Hamilton, Maitland, Strang, Salapatas, Howells, Harrison-Barker, McGuinness, Osborne-Ricketts

Commercial news with Peter Davis

Peter Davis on the latest news from the Commercial Department

Good afternoon and welcome to all of our commercial partners and executive members to the first home game for our new manager Kevin Blackwell against Southampton. A good point taken against Burnley last Saturday has kept everything in contention and with 18 points still available to the close of the season, we are all extremely confident and positive of the right result being achieved by May 6.

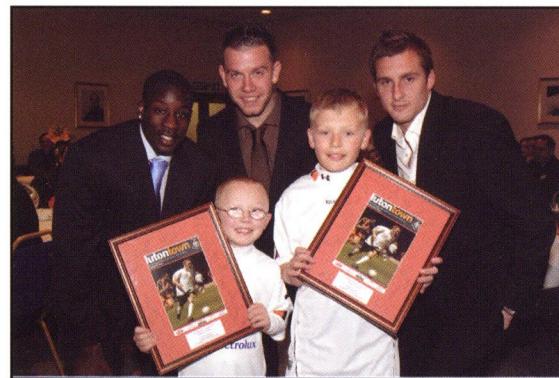

Get behind Kevin and the lads and enjoy the game.

As always thank you for your support,

Peter

F.O.X RC &A SPORTS

It is with a warm welcome to Kenilworth Road that we say good afternoon to FOX RC&A Sports, who join us as today's match sponsors. FOX RC&A Sports are a wholly-owned subsidiary of the SPORTFIVE group, Europe's leading sports marketing agency. They boast a portfolio of services which include a full range of sports rights business opportunities covering stadium advertising, hospitality, programmes, shirt sponsorships, stadium consultation, plus international TV rights. Football is the primary business focus of SPORTFIVE, with the group marketing the rights of more than 250 clubs, 30 football associations and several international leagues. We are delighted to be in partnership with FOX& RCA Sports as the Luton Town's Official Perimeter advertising contractor. Their sponsorship reflects their similar trading relationships with the Premiership together with the vast majority of the Football League, as well as Rugby League and Union Clubs. We hope that their management and guests enjoy the match and their time spent with us today.

Commercial Mascot:
Callum Parks

We welcome today as one of our two commercial mascots 12-year-old Callum Parks, who has travelled with his family all the way from Melksham in Wiltshire. Callum is a regular visitor to Kenilworth Road with his Mum and Dad. Attending George Ward School, his hobbies include football and basketball. Callum's favourite Luton players are Sol Davis, who just happens to be his cousin, and Warren Feeney, currently out on loan to Cardiff City. Callum will meet squad members today, as well as being part of the pre-match warm up. Everyone at the Club hopes that the Parks family have a great time with us this afternoon.

Commercial Mascot:
Jonathan Janes

Jonathan Janes is the second of today's mascots, and he has travelled a slightly shorter distance than the Parks family to be with us today, as he lives in Greenfield in Bedfordshire. Jonathan, 10, who attends Bedford School, has a vast number of hobbies to occupy his spare time. These include horse riding, cross country running, cricket, rugby and of course his beloved football. Amhet Brkovic is his favourite Club player, who he will meet today, together with the rest of the squad when he joins them for the pre-match warm up. All of us at the Club hope that Jonathan and his family enjoy a memorable time with us today.

HATTERS BET'S WHERE THE ACTION IS

April is a great month for having a flutter. There's the Grand National, the FA Cup Semi-Finals, the Cricket World Cup, the golf Masters, plus more Champions League, UEFA Cup, Premiership and lots, lots more.

And whether you're a seasoned punter or in for a once-a-year £1 each way, there's no better place to go than our very own Hatters Bet. You get great odds, plenty of choice. AND your favourite club earns money from every bet you place – money that the High Street bookies would otherwise get.

And if you're a new punter, then we have a fantastic offer for you. Open a Hatters Bet account in April you can pick up £100 in free bets. Hatters Bet will match your first bet with a free bet up to £25, with another £75 in free bets to come.

There are other promotions on offer throughout the month, if you place a winning correct score bet on a Hatters Bet Big Match this month we'll give you a free correct score bet to the same stake on the next Hatters Bet Big Match. Details of the weekend's Big Matches are featured regularly on www.lutontown.co.uk.

This is a great month to try your luck. The Grand National is the major race fifth green jacket. Placing a bet couldn't be easier, you can either bet online at www.hattersbet.co.uk or by ringing the Hatters Bet hotline on 0800 0323 365.

If you are betting online, you can log into your account if you already have one, if not, click the button that says: "Click here to join bet365 now" underneath the link to Luton's next game (at the top of the third column on the right). This will take you through the registration stage and get your account up and running.

Then once you have signed into www.hattersbet.co.uk, you will see a list of sports on the left hand side of the Hatters Bet homepage. From here you can narrow down the markets to the event you would like to bet on. Once you have found it you can look at all the odds available and place your bet.

If you would like to place a bet, for example on Luton winning, click on "BET" and a separate slip will appear on the right of the screen where you can type your stake and find out what you could win. When you are ready to place your bet, click "Place a Bet >>" – then enjoy the excitement.

 REMEMBER: Having a bet should be fun. NEVER bet with money you can't afford to lose, and NEVER have another bet to try to win back money you have lost.

News from

Kenilworth Road

A round-up of the latest from around the Club

Luton's newest Youth

Hatters scouts like to keep tabs on young talent coming through, so they might like to know about Talya Yasmin Underwood.

At only six months, she's already an ace dribbler and wears her Luton shirt with pride.

The youngster from Dunstable has some good pedigree, too, with two Hatters Season Ticket holders in the family – Nan Christine Underwood and Granddad Paul Clark. Clearly one for the future...

The future's orange for six-month-old Talya Underwood

Latest from the Ladies

Having performed so consistently well for the past six months Town were entitled to an off day and the performance away to Oxford City was far below the recent standards they have set themselves.

Trailing 1-0 playing into a strong wind Tanya Blacksley equalised with a left foot volley from a corner but any hopes of a comeback were dashed with some poor defending as Oxford twice reacted first to loose balls to take a 3-1 lead. Michelle Byrne chased down an impossible ball in the final minute to leave Nina Hale with a tap in for a late consolation.

The shortest trip in the league to Chesham United saw a far improved performance from the Town as they had much the better of the first half forcing the home keeper into a number of vital stops including a point blank stop from Micky Taylor when she seemed destined to score.

As often happens United took the lead when an over hit free kick sailed in at the far post. The setback spurred on the Luton Ladies who continued to play good football and this finally paid dividends with 15 minutes to go.

Defending from a corner Tamzine Neale stormed out down the right and an excellent passing counter attack saw her slide in a perfect near post cross for Kaylee Owen to fire in a one touch finish.

A 1-1 draw was a solid result against an established side at this level. A top half finish is within sight although that will require a huge effort as we play the top three clubs who are all in contention for promotion.

A League Cup semi final against QPR will be a welcome distraction.

The reserves are still in contention for promotion after completing the league double over Hampton & Richmond with a 4-0 away win.

This weekend brings another cup tie when Town entertain Corinthian Casuals in their quarter final

The youth teams have also been in cup action as the Under-15s and Under-14s reached their semi finals. Under-14s crushed Hemel Hempstead 9-0 with Leah Maddix scoring five, Leanne Lizaitis notching a hat trick and Clare Howe completing the scoring.

Norwich sweat on Chadwick injury

Norwich midfielder Luke Chadwick may face a spell on the sidelines with a suspected torn thigh muscle.

The former Manchester United winger has only recently returned to the side.

He had a four-month spell on the sidelines with a gashed knee and is set to have a scan to confirm the extent of his latest setback.

Canaries boss Peter Grant said: "He has had a bit of a blow. We think he's torn a muscle in his thigh. We don't know that so we'll get it scanned."

Chadwick arrived at Carrow Road from Stoke City earlier in the season.

Jeffers to end season at Ipswich

Blackburn striker Francis Jeffers has agreed to stay on loan at Ipswich until the end of the season.

The 26-year-old is set to return to training after recovering from a hamstring tear, which had threatened to bring an early end to his loan.

Jeffers told Ipswich's website: "I was disappointed when the hamstring went, but it has cleared up quicker than everyone thought.

"It is great to be back here and I can't wait to get going again."

Meanwhile, Darlington have lost the services of on-loan defender Ian Miller after he was recalled by Ipswich Town to cover for injuries.

ALSO... Southampton report half-year losses of £2.5m for the six months ended December 31..... Stoke City midfielder Rob Garrett extends his loan spell with Wrexham until 31 May.

SUNDAY

Wise faces second charge from FA

Leeds boss Dennis Wise has been charged with misconduct by the Football Association for the second time in just two months.

Wise was ordered from the dugout during their 1-1 draw at Southend on Saturday after venting his fury when a late penalty appeal was turned away.

He has 14 days to respond to the charges that have been brought.

Wise is already due to answer a similar charge relating to Leeds' 3-2 home defeat to West Brom on January 20.

Meanwhile, Wolves' striker Jemal Johnson's loan spell at Leeds has been extended until the end of the season.

ALSO... Coventry City's Ricoh Arena is chosen to host a top class European rugby union match..... Sheffield Wednesday agree to extend the loan spell of Everton's highly-rated goalkeeper Iain Turner for another month..... West Bromwich Albion sign Bury's David Worrall for a £50,000 fee.

Eagle signs new deal at Norwich

Norwich winger Robert Eagle has signed a new one-year deal at the club.

Manager Peter Grant said he had been pleased with the 20-year-old's progress, telling the Norwich website: "He helped give us a balance.

"His overall performance, whether that be in the reserve team or in training, has been first class. I'm very pleased to give him his just rewards."

Eagle said: "It's very pleasing. It is another year at Norwich. I am going to try next to get more regular starts."

He added: "I've been in the squad quite a lot this season but only on the fringes. I want to be a bigger part of the team."

ALSO... Southend are dealt a blow in their plans for a new 22,000 stadium after the Government called in their application for a public inquiry..... Brighton extend the loan deal of Crystal Palace goalkeeper Scott Flinders for a further month.

TUESDAY

Chopra agrees contract extension

Cardiff City striker Michael Chopra has pledged his future to the club by agreeing to sign a contract extension.

The 23-year-old, who has scored 21 Championship goals this season, joined Cardiff from Newcastle United on a three-year deal in June.

"I'm going to sign an extension because I believe the club is going places," he said. "I'm doing well for myself this season and the team's doing well."

Chopra alarmed Cardiff fans earlier this season by claiming he could leave if the Bluebirds failed to win promotion to the Premiership.

ALSO... Norwich City teenage striker Chris Martin signs a professional deal which will keep him at the club until the summer of 2010..... Cambridge United boss Jimmy Quinn signs Colchester winger Craig Hughes on a month's loan

WEDNESDAY

Forlan rejects Sunderland move

Villarreal's former Manchester United striker Diego Forlan claims he has turned down an offer from Sunderland boss Roy Keane to join the Black Cats.

Forlan, 27, played alongside Keane at Old Trafford between 2002 and 2004 before moving to Spain with Villarreal.

"Roy called me to explain his project at Sunderland and offered me the chance to play there as one of the main signings for next season," said Forlan. "I am very honoured he called but I am happy here."

The Uruguayan striker, who was top scorer in the Primera Liga in 2004/05, is under contract with Villarreal until 2010.

ALSO... On-loan Derby winger Darren Currie hopes to earn a permanent deal at Pride Park when his Ipswich contract ends this summer..... Barnsley give an extended trial to midfielder Peter Simek as they start to make plans for next season.

Luton Town v Plymouth

Saturday April 14, 2007, Kick-Off 3pm

By Steven Dove

The penultimate home fixture of the season sees Luton take on a Plymouth side who have enjoyed a creditable season.

A place in the quarter-finals of the FA Cup combined with a possible top half finish in the Championship means Argyle boss Ian Holloway has plenty to build on for the new campaign.

There hasn't been much for Argyle fans to cheer about in recent seasons.

However the Club are now looking forward with optimism as Holloway goes about establishing a team with a real chance of challenging for promotion.

Barry Hayles, the former Bristol Rovers and Fulham striker, is likely to be a key part of the Argyle side next season. He has rediscovered his form this year with ten goals this season after struggling to find the net for Millwall in the previous campaign.

Holloway has already gone about strengthening his squad for next season.

The signing of striker Rory Fallon from Swansea will certainly add competition to the Argyle forward line, which also includes Kevin Gallon, who arrived on-loan from Holloway's former club QPR.

Dutch defender Marcel Seip is likely to go down as one of the transfers of the season after he arrived on a free from Heerenveen. Seip has gone on to play a major part in Holloway's team this season and looks to be one for the future.

However, despite Plymouth's challenge fading, Holloway insists that his players still have plenty to play for next season. A 4-0 defeat away to Burnley in midweek led to the Argyle boss reminding his squad that their future was on the line.

"There are some massive decisions to be made involving the whole squad," Holloway said. "The only ones exempt from either the kindness or the wrath of Ian Holloway are those contracted until 2009."

"Everybody else is fighting for their long-term future here and that is exactly how it should be."

Luton's recent record against Plymouth at Kenilworth Road is very encouraging. You have to go all the way back to 1970 to find Argyle's last win in Bedfordshire.

Since then Luton have won three of the previous nine games, including a memorable 3-0 win back in 1997 which saw Tony Thorpe twice on the scoresheet.

With Luton in need of the points, they will be hoping that impressive record continues at the weekend.
