Grimsby Town to back the One Game, One Community message

Grimsby Town is pledging its commitment to equality, diversity and inclusion by backing Kick It Out's One Game, One Community weeks of action this October.

The club will be holding its very own day of action at Blundell Park for the fixture against Luton Town tonight as part of a 12-day, nationwide celebration of diversity.

The fixture is one of 1000 events to take place across the country during the weeks of action, from 16-28 October. All professional clubs will hold activities to support the initiative, alongside schools, universities and community and youth centres.

Kick It Out, the game's equality and inclusion campaign, is co-ordinating the initiative as part of football's ongoing contribution to promote greater inclusion.

Lord Herman Ouseley, Chairman of Kick It Out, today commented, "The One Game, One Community weeks of action provides a focal point for everyone connected to football, from supporters to players to stand up against discrimination in all its forms.

The game flourishes when people from all communities, and from all walks of life, are able to participate in it. Club activity like this reinforces the One Game, One Community ethos and is a vital part of the drive for equality at all levels of the game."

To demonstrate its support of the One Game, One Community message Grimsby Town will be showcasing the following activities:

Players showcasing the One Game, One Community message by wearing special t-shirts during the warm-up, youngsters from Football in the Community displaying a flag before the game and being invited to the game, as well as special content in our Matchday Programme

"It is vitally important that everyone connected with Grimsby Town continues to support the One Game, One Community ethos. As a football club we are owe it to our fans and the community as a whole to ensure that all forms of discrimination are stamped out at our football club." (John Fenty, Chairman)

"There is no place for discrimination in the game as modern day football features players and supporters from all different cultures and backgrounds. At International level it is very high profile, but it is important that we all ensure that discrimination isn't present on the pitch or in the terraces at our level either – it makes the game more enjoyable for everyone." (Matthew Heywood, Captain)

Mike Newell
Manager

Hello and Welcome to tonight's game against Luton Town. Welcome also to Mick Harford, his staff, players, directors and supporters from Kenilworth Road.

Luton will be continuously fighting against the penalties served at the start of this season, but you can be sure that they will do just that, so it will be another tough test for us.

I spent nearly four years as manager there and enjoyed every minute when dealing with the players and staff at the Football Club. I joined at a difficult time and will always be grateful to the supporters for the patience they showed in the first season.

We went on to enjoy enormous success in the following two seasons, especially considering what we were competing against in the Championship.

The ending has been much publicised, but for those who have not yet noticed, not by me. A day will come when I will respond to everything that has been said and written by the people who sacked me and a few others who also threw in their two pence worth.

There is an awful lot that people are not aware of and unfortunately it may take time before they become aware.

You can guarantee very little in football but one thing I am already sure of here is that the people who employed me have the best interests of this football club at heart. That is not something I am used to. It is time to move on, and my only concern now is Grimsby Town.

I was delighted with the way our lads applied themselves against both Wycombe and Exeter. They were two daunting fixtures considering their respective current positions and form, and obviously the fact that we haven't yet won in the league, but the players approached both games with a desire and enthusiasm that will be needed in the weeks and months to come.

I am of course still learning about individuals and their capabilities and some may take longer than others to force their way into my thinking, from what I have seen so far it will not be from a lack of effort if they fail to do so.

Thank you to the fans that made the trip to St James's Park. We appreciate how difficult a trip it is and that is with the luxury of an overnight stop.

It will be a telling week with Luton tonight, Bradford City on Friday, and Dagenham and Redbridge next Tuesday; we will need your help.

Tonight is of course our Kick It Out game, and I am sure you will all join me in backing this tremendous cause.

Before I go I would like to wish a warm welcome to our Match Sponsors who are SCRATCH MATCH and ALBERT DARNELL FISH MERCHANTS, as well as our Associate Match Sponsors who are HARTWELL SUPERCENTRE - I hope you all have a fantastic time at tonight's game.

BUILDING SOCIETY
Local Matters

Good afternoon Ladies and Gentleman and welcome to this evening's game against Luton Town here at Blundell Park.

Before I begin I would like to wish a warm welcome to our Match Sponsors who are SCRATCH MATCH and ALBERT DARNELL FISH MERCHANTS, as well as our Associate Match Sponsors who are HARTWELL SUPERCENTRE – I hope you all have a fantastic time at tonight's game.

I would also like to bid a warm welcome to everyone who has travelled up from Luton for tonight's game and wish you a safe journey home after the match.

The build-up to our last home game with Wycombe was bright and intense. Obviously the new manager came in on the Wednesday and he looked to instil some of his ideas on us in time for the match.

We got off to a dream start with a goal inside the first minute, but we knew that whatever happened that the game was going to be a tough one.

Wycombe are flying at the moment and to be fair to them they put us under a lot of pressure. We defended resolutely as a team though and it was absolutely gutting to let in the equaliser in the last minute, because we are absolutely desperate to break our winning duck.

I felt that we held our own against the league leaders, and we must take nothing away from Wycombe either. I think they will be up there at the end of the season because they have a strong and powerful side.

We will be in the midst of a busy period of matches and last Saturday's game at Exeter will have involved a lot of travelling. We went down on the Friday and trained down there and I will talk more about the game in Friday's notes.

We welcome Luton to Blundell Park tonight and their season has been overshadowed by their 30-point deduction. I feel they have had a decent start to the season, but with Rotherham quickly wiping out their deficit, they may feel that they haven't made up as much ground as they would have liked.

It is a game we have to win really, it is imperative that we pull away from the bottom of the table as soon as possible. The Hatters will be really up for this game though, they will feel they can come here and snatch something, and going up against their former manager.

It is the same for us though, and I'm sure that the lads will want to go out and make their mark tonight.

A quick mention goes to Peter Bore. He came in from the cold a bit against Wycombe and got the goal. The manager has said that everyone starts with a clean slate and Peter has shown glimpses of what he can do in training and grasped his opportunity.

Your support was magnificent against Wycombe, please keep backing the boys and enjoy the game.

MATT HEYWOOD

Introducing Luton Town

Anything above 23rd place in League Two has to be considered a success for Luton Town this season.

The Hatters were hit by an unprecedented 30-point penalty at the start of the 2008/09 season and have seen themselves rooted to the foot of the Football League ever since.

At press time Luton had clawed back 12 points of that deficit, but with Rotherham's sparkling start to the season, they still find themselves 20 points from safety.

Aside from the obvious points penalty, the Hatters have seen their squad decimated over the summer with the departure of several top names – manager Mick Harford, who took the reins earlier this year, has practically had to rebuild the squad from scratch.

The Hatters ins & Outs:

In: Jamie Tolley (Macclesfield Town), Kevin Nicholls (Preston North End), Claude Gnarka (Peterborough United), George Pilkington (Port Vale), Rossi Jarvis (Norwich City), Ian Roper (Walsall), Michael Spillane, Chris Martin (both Norwich City (loan)), Kevin Watson (Colchester United), Tristan Plummer (Bristol City (loan)), Conrad Logan, Harry Worley (both Leicester City (loan)), Gareth O'Connor (Burnley), Marc Pugh (Shrewsbury Town (loan))

Out: Paul Furlong (Southend United), Darren Currie, Alan Goodall (both Chesterfield), Calvin Andrew (Crystal Palace), David Forde (Millwall), David Bell (Norwich City), David Edwards (Wolverhampton Wanderers), Marlon Beresford, Richard Langley, Steve Robinson, Jamie Tolley, Don Hutchison, Paul Peschosolido (all released), Matthew Spring (Sheffield United (loan)), Stephen O'Leary, Richard Jackson (both Hereford United), Dean Morgan (Leyton Orient (loan))

The books show that Kenilworth Road has been a hive of activity over the past six months and Harford has had to bring in players in virtually every position to ensure that the Hatters have a squad that is capable of attempting to overturn the 30-point deduction and ensure the club's Football League survival.

It must have been painful for everyone connected with the club to see their top names depart for derisory sums, especially to clubs at Championship level. Names like David Bell, David Edwards and Matthew Spring are all capable of playing at a much higher level and their departures show what quality the Hatters had at their disposable, and the effect that the off-field turmoil had on the club.

Experienced names like Darren Currie and Paul Furlong also departed the club over the summer, and a host of others were released as the club's new LTFC2020 consortium looked to make ends meet.

Harford moved quickly to plug the gaps though and has used the loan market to his advantage, as well as patiently waiting to snap unattached players up on free transfers.

Goalkeeper Conrad Logan and

Luton Town Factfile:

Nickname: The Hatters

Position 2007/08: 24th (League One)

Ground: Kenilworth Road

defender Harry Worley have both arrived from Leicester; the former helped Stockport win the League Two Play Offs last season, whilst Worley has a Community Shield Runners-Up medal from his time at Chelsea.

Elsewhere in defence, Harford has plumped for experience. Ian Roper has won League Two with Walsall and George Pilkington played over 250 games for Port Vale. Joining them is Claude Gnarka who appeared to be a victim of the size of the Peterborough United squad, as he came highly recommended by Swindon Town.

The most important signing of the summer was the return of influential midfielder Kevin Nicholls, who has been installed as club captain. Nicholls was with the club as they made the rise from League Two to the Championship, and is relishing the opportunity to be back at Kenilworth Road after spells with Preston and Leeds.

Gareth O'Connor has recently joined the club on a free transfer from Burnley and once match fit the Northern Ireland International should prove to be a shrewd acquisition.

Young utility player Asa Hall is another inspired capture and if the England Under-20 International can recapture the form of his spell at Shrewsbury last season then he should turn some heads.

Crucially, Harford managed to keep two of his key strikers at the club in Sam Parkin and Drew Talbot. Both men have scored goals regularly at a higher level and they will be charged with firing the Hatters up the League Two table. Bloomfield and Gary Holt.

The Hatters have been hit by a slew of injuries to senior players such as Nicholls, Parkin, Pilkington and Kevin Watson in recent weeks and manager Mick Harford has been forced to rely on youngsters and loan signings.

The former Wimbledon star may be tempted to thrust the experience of Roper into the mix, whilst O'Connor is likely to have more minutes under his belt.

Nicholls is back in training and will face a race to be fit in time for the game, as is striker Parkin. Loan signings Tristan Plummer and Marc Pugh have returned to parent clubs Bristol City and Shrewsbury respectively, although there could be another loan forward in the Hatters' ranks by the time they travel to Blundell Park.

Last Five Fixtures

11-Oct-08	H Darlington	L1-2
7-Oct-08	H Brentford	D2-2
4-Oct-08	A Bradford City	D1-1
27-Sep-08	H Chester City	D1-1
20-Sep-08	A Rotherham Utd	Lo-1

The Hatters haven't won in five games, although the Johnstone's Paint Trophy draw with Brentford saw the club advance on penalties. Whilst that run wouldn't normally be too much cause for concern, the fact that Rotherham have overturned their 17-point deduction and Bournemouth are closing in on positive points means that Luton need even more points on the board.

Town have already clawed back 12 points of their 30, but the harsh reality is that they need even more. The Hatters have lost only four of their league games so far but draws have been their undoing – they need to turn one point into three more often, particularly at home where Aldershot are the only team to come away with nothing.

It's no surprise that Harford is looking to dip into the loan market for a striker, particularly as Parkin and Talbot have both been on the injured list this season. The Hatters' manager may also consider a swoop for free agent Wayne Andrews, although a loan move for Peterborough's Scott Rendell fell through at the eleventh hour – rumours persist that Harford may be after a youngster from Premier League side Middlesbrough.

Expected Line-Up (4-4-2)

Last Time Out

Nationwide League Division Two
Tuesday 24th February 2004

The Mariners

Jevons (2 (1 pen)), Ford

Luton Town

Howard (2)

A last-minute header from defender Simon Ford snatched a dramatic win for Grimsby Town in this Division Two fixture.

The Mariners desperately needed the points in their battle against relegation but were made to really dig in as current-Town boss Mike Newell brought his high scoring Hatters to Blundell Park.

Luton had a strong side with a number of players, including goalscorer Steve Howard, who went onto play at a higher level.

Grimsby, under the guidance of caretaker manager Graham Rodger, had come off a woeful seven-week period that had seen them slip down the table and let goals in for fun.

The turning point in the game arguably came on 23 minutes when the Mariners' Iain Anderson limped out of play and was replaced by Phil Jevons.

In the second half it was a different story though, Stuart Campbell saw a volley palmed away by former Mariner Morton Hyldgaard, before Jevons worked his magic.

The Mariners were now fully on top and when Isaiah Rankin was felled by Michael Leary, Jevons stepped up to convert the penalty and put Grimsby in front.

There was still more twists to come though; Howard was afforded space on the edge of the area on 80 minutes to fire home his second of the evening, and with the scores now level it was the visitors who were pushing for the equaliser.

Dramatically, deep into injury time it was Grimsby who snatched the win. Darren Barnard floated in a long free kick and Ford rose highest to head home and send the 3,000 home fans home happy.

THE GAFFER

Mick Harford

Former England International Mick Harford is a Luton Town institution having spent two playing spells at Kenilworth Road, and now he is charged with preserving the Hatters' Football League status.

A robust and highly committed striker, Harford turned out for Lincoln, Newcastle, Bristol City, Birmingham, Luton, Derby, Chelsea, Sunderland, Coventry and Wimbledon in a 21-year playing career that saw him score over 170 league goals and win two England caps.

The 49-year-old took his playing qualities into his management career and he has faced adversity before in spells in charge of Nottingham Forest, Rotherham and QPR.

The Sunderland-born forward has had success off the field at Kenilworth Road before. He worked alongside Joe Kinnear as the Hatters stormed to the Division Three Title in 2001/02, before taking a joint role as Director of Football and First Team Coach as current Mariners boss Mike Newell took the reins. Harford remained at Luton until he rejoined cohort Kinnear at the City Ground.

Mick was installed as manager at Kenilworth Road in January, and despite the club's relegation to League Two and subsequent 30-point deduction, he has announced his commitment to the club's cause.

The Main Men

Programme Editor Jonathan Byrne looks at the six main men in the Luton ranks.

SHOTSTOPPER

Conrad Logan

Leicester City goalkeeper Conrad Logan joined the Hatters on loan at the start of the 2008/09 season in order to compete with Dean Brill for the number one slot, a position he has since made his own.

The 22-year-old Irishman spent last season on loan at Stockport and helped the other Hatters win promotion through the Division Two Play Offs.

Logan joined the Foxes in 2004 and has caught the eye in his league appearances so far, as well as on loan at Boston and Stockport.

He has good agility and offers good distribution from his kicking. If Luton Town are to avoid relegation this season then Conrad Logan could prove to be the key man in the Hatters' squad.

DEFENSIVE ROCK

Ian Roper

Experienced centre half Ian Roper joined the Hatters from League One side Walsall in the summer.

The 31-year-old came through the ranks at the Bescot Stadium and made his debut as far back as 1995, playing alongside current Mariners' assistant Stuart Watkiss.

Ian was a lynchpin at the heart of the Walsall defence and won numerous awards in his time at the club.

He uses his height to great effect and is an excellent reader of the game. His 13 years at Walsall yielded 325 league appearances and he captained the club to their League Two Title success in 2006/07.

His chances have been limited at Kenilworth Road so far, but with a number of youngsters in the Luton ranks his experience both on-and-off the field will be welcome over the course of the season.

MIDFIELD MAESTRO

Gareth O'Connor

Manager Mick Harford pulled off a real coup of a signing when he snapped up Gareth O'Connor on a free transfer in September.

The Irish winger had been available on a free transfer since his release from Burnley in the summer.

Having starred in Irish football with Shamrock and Bohemians, the Dubliner arrived at Bournemouth in 2000.

Gareth spent five successful years with the Cherries, scoring some spectacular goals and setting up chances for the strike duo of James Hayter and Steve Fletcher.

O'Connor moved on a free transfer to Burnley in 2005 but he was limited to a number of substitute appearances at Turf Moor, and returned to Bournemouth on loan in 2007.

If Gareth can rediscover the form that made him such a hit on the South Coast then there he will prove to be a real asset to the Hatters' squad.

YOUNG GUN

Asa Hall

Versatile performer Asa Hall could prove to be one of the captures of the season if he can hit the heights at Luton.

The tall and rangy 21-year-old has been highly thought of since being snapped up by Wolves at the age of 12.

The England Under-20 International signed professional terms with rivals Birmingham City and caught the eye on loan at Ashford Town and Boston United, but it was last season's 15-game spell at Shrewsbury that brought him to many people's attention.

The Sandwell-born player is able to slot in all across the back and the midfield, as well as in the hole behind the striker(s) – he has always had an eye for goal.

Asa has tremendous ability and boundless potential; if he can get a run of games under his belt then he can really establish himself in League Two.

HOT SHOT

Sam Parkin

Tall and powerful striker Sam Parkin has been highly rated since he burst on the scene with Chelsea in 2000.

The 27-year-old spent successful loan spells with Millwall, Wycombe and Northampton before settling at Swindon in 2002.

Sam had a sparkling one-in-two goal ratio at the County Ground and was a scorer of all types of goals, regularly scoring against top opposition.

The former Chelsea man was snapped up by Ipswich in 2005 but failed to settle at Portman Road and was sold to Luton for £340,000 a year later.

Sam's Kenilworth Road career has been hampered by injury but nine strikes in 33 league outings have shown his worth to the side, and he could be the man to fire the Hatters to safety this season.

The Talent Scout takes a look at Luton's star performer, veteran midfielder Kevin Nicholls

Teamwork:

FA Cup Third Round - Saturday 6th January 1996

Blundell Park was in the midst of Bonetti fever as the Mariners welcomed Division One rivals Luton Town for this FA Cup Third Round tie.

The mercurial Italian was wowing the fans with his silky wing play and stealing the headlines as Town found themselves firmly in the public eye.

Although not the plum draw that many were hoping for, the match against Luton was set to be a tough test for Brian Laws' men, particularly as the Hatters had drafted in former Ipswich man Bontcho Guentchev, who had scored a hat trick against Town in the same competition in 1993.

Laws' only injury doubt was that of centre half Mark Lever, who was replaced by former Hatter Graham Rodger. The Mariners had arguably their strongest side at their disposal; even without long term absentee Clive Mendonca.

The visitors had future Town boss Lennie Lawrence at the helm, and he also found himself with a strong squad to pick from. Another Blundell Park connection was the presence of Tony Thorpe on the Luton bench, the striker would enjoy a loan spell at Grimsby in 2006/07.

The Mariners usually saved their best for Luton, having registered 4-1 and 5-0 victories over the Hatters in previous seasons, and this game was no exception.

Town raced out of the blocks and player/manager Laws was booked inside the opening minute. It took less than 15 minutes for the home side to open the scoring.

Bonetti curled a delightful long ball forward to Jamie Forrester on the left hand side of the penalty area. The former Leeds man cut inside before lobbing 6'7" goalkeeper Ian Feuer with an exquisite finish.

It was almost two just minutes later when Paul Groves played in Bonetti, the Italian seeing his shot saved at the second attempt by Feuer. The Hatters responded well and were inches from an equaliser when Scott Oakes cut in from the left hand side and saw his shot whistle past the post with goalkeeper Paul Crichton beaten.

Town were not to be outdone and Steve Livingstone saw a stinging drive palmed away by Feuer on 22 minutes. The former Blackburn and Chelsea star did get on the scoresheet the resulting corner. Gary Childs' set piece drifted beyond the far post to Forrester who fired in a low left foot cross that was diverted in by the outstretched foot of Livingstone to double the Mariners' advantage.

The hosts were fully on top now and both Forrester and Livingstone came close to adding to their lead before the third arrived on 32 minutes. Bonetti again had a part to play as he linked up with Gary Croft on the left wing. The former Juventus star saw his cross swept home by Forrester for his second of the afternoon.

Luton were in desperate need of something to get them back into the game and it came their way on 38 minutes. Guentchev's long cross into the Town box saw Dwight Marshall nip in between Croft and Crichton to reduce the arrears.

The Hatters threatened to storm back into the game, but it was the Mariners who restored their three-goal advantage before the break and fittingly it was Bonetti who got the goal. Forrester broke free on the right wing and his cross was missed by Feuer and Groves, allowing Bonetti to steal in at the far post for Town's fourth.

Laws' men were fully in control of the game and further underlined their superiority after the break. Bonetti was pulling the strings, ably assisted by Groves and Jim Dobbin in the centre, whilst the flourishing partnership of Forrester and Livingstone was causing the Hatters' defence all sorts of problems.

Bonetti, Dobbin and Childs all had chances to increase the lead before the fifth Town goal arrived on 72 minutes. Childs was the provider with a clever flick behind the defence and Livingstone turned smartly to smash the ball home from 18 yards.

With the match sewn up, manager Laws made a triple substitution on 77 minutes as Nicky Southall, Craig Shakespeare and Neil Woods replaced Childs, Dobbin and Livingstone - all three substitutes would have time to make their mark as the floodgates opened.

Southall's first touch saw the sixth Town goal fly in as the midfielder emphatically volleyed home Woods' cross. The roles were reversed with time ticking away as Woods netted the Mariners' seventh of the afternoon. Southall whipped in a cross and the current Grimsby Head of Youth saw his scuffed shot creep past Feuer to complete a miserable afternoon for the Hatters.

A Right Lottery

Today's 'Mariners Memorabilia' offering could take the form of a quiz question.

What, in relatively recent times was sold in their millions, but few examples survive today? The answer is lottery tickets, for who other than a collector would keep a non-winning ticket?

Grimsby's own commercial ventures took-off in the late-1960s with 'Black & White Bingo' tickets (sales at one time reaching 15,000 a week) and the 'Beat the Clock' tickets, based on goal times. However, it was the inflationary 1970s that saw Town (under the direction of Alec King) begin its own 'Mariners Lottery' during 1977/78, the venture soon proving both popular and profitable.

In 1978 the club boasted more than 500 agents, while for season 1979/80 (Town's Third Division title campaign) a lottery profit of just over £100,000 was announced. Such income was invaluable, providing timely revenue for transfers and ground improvements.

Apart from draw tickets there was also an array offering instant wins, with our examples dating from the early/mid-1980s. All produced by Leeds' company Norton & Wright Ltd., the 'Pontoon' ticket (1983) cost 10p, with a top prize of £10 for a score of 21. The 1984 'Mariners Armchair Bingo' was double the price, but more enticing with a £1,000 jackpot for a full house. And finally, the 'Mariners Lottery' ticket (1985) was of the scratch card type with three amounts the same winning that value. For those who can remember, this latter card was similar in format to the green Great Grimsby Borough Council lottery ticket of the same period, though featured the Dock Tower instead of footballers.

In February 1985, Alec King announced that GTFC had sold an impressive TEN MILLION lottery tickets in just seven years. Despite their rarity though, those illustrated have only nominal values – probably no more than what they originally cost to buy!

COMPETITION: Johnstone's Paint Trophy Northern Section Second Round

VENUE: Glanford Park | DATE: Tuesday 7th October 2008 | ATTENDANCE: 4,844

If there was a game the Mariners did not deserve to lose then it was this one. They more than matched League One high fliers Scunthorpe, but two goals in four first half minutes would eventually prove their undoing.

It was a shaky start from the visitors and Liam Trotter and Danny Boshell had to be alert to clear headers off the line as the Iron threatened in the opening minutes.

Town, backed by nearly 1000 vociferous fans who had made the short trip down the A180, rallied and played their way back into the game.

Their best opportunity of the half fell to Nathan Jarman on 19 minutes. Peter Till embarked upon a trademark mazy run and his clipped cross was headed against the bar by the ex-Barnsley striker.

The game turned on its head shortly before the break though. James Hunt was booked for a foul and from the resulting free kick, Sam Togwell was

Within four minutes the Iron had doubled their lead. Ian Morris was afforded space on the edge of the area and he buried a 25-yard drive in the bottom left-hand corner.

The Mariners responded after the break and pulled a goal back on 49 minutes. There was hesitancy in the Scunthorpe backline and Nick Hegarty was quickest to react, taking a touch before firing beyond Josh Lillis.

Town really gained the upper hand and when Boshell was felled on the edge of the area it was Jamie Clarke who saw his wonderful curling free kick crash against the bar.

The Mariners continued to pour forward, whilst Phil Barnes remained resolute in goal, but there would be no way through. Town's luck deserting them as they hit the woodwork for a third time through a Ryan Bennett header on 79 minutes.

A Day in the life of...

Rae Walker (Club Secretary)

9.00am

Rae arrives at Blundell Park for another hectic Matchday. The computers are switched on and it's time to sift through the countless e-mails that have arrived overnight.

9.15am

There is always plenty of paperwork connected with the football club and Rae can use this opportunity to catch up with various documents. Usually there are team sheets from various midweek games that need completing and sending to the correct authorities. It is vitally important that all the information is correct on these, otherwise the club could face a penalty.

9.35am

Rae has a hand in the club's fruitful Club Shop, and with the changeover to Errea there are plenty of new ideas floating around. One such idea is to make t-shirts of replica Grimsby shirts available to the fans.

Accompanying these is a classic game on DVD, Rae labels up these DVDs and makes sure all the details are correct – Matchdays are the most profitable time for these items.

10.00am

In conjunction with Ticket Office Manager Lisa Piggott, Rae makes sure that all the Matchday Staff are sufficiently briefed and in the correct positions.

10.25am

Chief Executive Ian Fleming has some important documents that need completing before the Matchday rush begins. In her role as Club Secretary, Rae is also the Chief Executive's PA and this is a vital role in terms of getting paperwork for players etc. completed.

11.00am

Before every game the Mariners' fans are treated to music etc. on the PA system. Rae makes sure that the laptop for the PA box is in working order with the correct songs and all the necessary jingles on there.

11.35am

It's not just the fans that need tickets on Matchdays, the players' families will also require tickets and Rae has to make sure that all requests are looked after and sent to the Players' Entrance. The visiting side will also have their requests and these tickets need to be organised, placed in an envelope and sent over to the Away Team dressing room where the players can place them on the Players' Entrance at the Main Stand gate.

There is a disaster in the Club Shop. One of the club's replica kit display models has fallen to bits. Rae and Commercial Assistant Lucie Ramsden complete a salvage job on the model whilst Study Support Centre Manager Oliver Cowling unhelpfully looks on. Commercial Manager Dave Smith is last seen scuttling off in the direction of McMenemy's.

12.30pm

The Match Officials arrive at Blundell Park and Rae and Chief Executive Ian Fleming greet them, making sure that everything is catered for and that they know their way to the Blundell Park dressing rooms.

1.00pm

There is a quick trip to the Boardroom to meet Chairman John Fenty and his fellow directors; Rae enquires if anyone needs anything from the main office.

1.20pm

Manager Mike Newell arrives at Blundell Park ready for the game. Rae greets the new manager and ensures everything is in order for him. Usually there is some paperwork, memos and post for the Town boss.

1.45pm

The Blundell Park ticket office is really getting busy and Rae takes time out to help the Matchday staff serve the fans.

2.10pm

Rae ensures that Club Shop Manager Fiona Fenty has sufficient numbers of staff and that the Club Shop is safely stewarded. Rae sometimes liaises with Ground Safety Officer Terry Rudrum to ensure that a steward is in place.

2.20pm

The teams are in! Arguably the most important job on a Matchday is the completion of the teamsheets. Press, the PA Box, VIPs and the club's bars all require the teamsheets a good 15 minutes before kick-off. Rae has to make sure that the sheets are filled in quickly and accurately, and printed on the correct paper.

2.45pm

Representatives from the away team come to reception to pick up tickets that have been left, these tickets have all been sent to the Main Stand side of the ground though, and Rae has to instruct the visitors where to pick up their tickets in time for kick-off.

3.10pm

With the game underway, Rae helps the Ticket Office staff count the tickets from all the turnstiles – this is a long and arduous job.

4.15pm

The second half is well underway but Rae has more which has slowly accrued through the day, to complete.

4.50pm

The game is over and win, lose or draw all staff are on hand to reopen the Ticket Office and Club Shop.

5.15pm

In the digital age there is little respite and within minutes of the match ending fans and other interested parties are on the phone and e-mail enquiring about the next game, and incidents that may have happened on the day. Rae mans the phones and completes anymore paperwork before the office closes at roughly 5.45pm.

Football Fortunes

This season's Players' Quiz has a little bit of a retro flavour to it as we play Football Fortunes. The rules are simple; each week a Grimsby Town star will take part in two rounds answering questions that have been put to a poll of 50 random people. The first is one question with the aim to get as many answers as possible without losing the three lives. A full set of answers means double points! The second round features five questions with the aim to get as many top answers as possible – top answers mean double points! The points are tallied up at the end and added to our leaderboard.

Out on the Town

Rotherham United v Grimsby Town

Saturday 4th October | Don Valley Stadium

The Journey

After the much documented engineering works between Grimsby and Sheffield, it was with much smugness that I found a train to take the strain on the first leg of our journey to Rotherham – although in hindsight I wish I hadn't.

Yes folks, the 11.13 from Cleethorpes is right up there with the 4.50 from Paddington for comfort and safety. A charabanc of the lowest order, it's a wonder this train got past Blundell Park, never mind the Don Valley! However, here it was rocking and swaying like a demented Janis Joplin in full swing, cutting a route through the Lincolnshire, Nottinghamshire and Yorkshire countryside. For the football purists amongst us this is non-league country; Brigg Town, Gainsborough Trinity, Retford United, Worksop Town and Sheffield United (perhaps not the last one) – they are all on the list.

We crawl into Sheffield some two hours-plus later and I make a mental note to personally thank the On The Road scribe for mentioning this alternative route next time I see them (nothing to do with me – Ed). A short tram ride later and it is time for a well-earned pre-match pint. 2/10

Pubs

Two words: Valley Centretainment. If our proposed ground at Great Coates ever comes to fruition then a Humber version of this is a necessity!

Bowling, cinema, bars, restaurants and much, much more – Nando's and Frankie and Benny's are the venues of choice.

These may like the traditional tendencies of some other trips but in terms of wetness and sustenance then it ticks all boxes, even if it is a little overpriced. 7/10

The Ground

Well...it's a bigger version of the Withdean/King George V Stadium and it brings nothing to a football match apart from novelty value. The ticket office is a fair old trek from the away end and the match has kicked off by the time we take our seat. The view is clear but the distance from the pitch rekindles memories of long forgotten trips to Molineux and Stamford Bridge, i.e. light years! Thankfully the half time facilities are excellent. The large concourse area means fans can mingle with a pie and a pint and the queues are kept to a minimum. However, the openness of the ground means that you are open to the elements, and to compound matters – it rained! 3/10

The Match

I viewed this match as a must-win heading into the game and my views have not changed since. Forget the fact that Rotherham have had a fantastic start to the season, it was imperative that we kept them negative figures as long as possible. For 45 minutes everything was going to plan. Danny Boshell let fly with a screamer and Town were in full control. There was an air of nervousness at half time though, and those fears were confirmed as Town capitulated in the second half. More fun was had trying to catch a glimpse of our prospective new manager in the crowd. 2/10

The Journey Home

Talk about long-winded – the journey home from Rotherham takes roughly an hour and a half, unless you are with Mumby and his detour via Berwick-on-Tweed adding an extra three-and-a-half hours to proceedings. I digress though, as it took us until eleven o'clock for this weary body to hit the bed – all of a sudden the Mumbymobile looked like a viable option. There was a stop for watering at Old Orleans in the Valley Centretainment before dinner, but even departing at 7.30pm from Meadowhall, it took an astonishing three hours and more to get to Cleethorpes, thanks to replacement bus services and the general inconvenience that is Scunthorpe. 1/10

COMPETITION: Coca-Cola League Two | VENUE: Blundell Park
DATE: Saturday 11th October 2008 | ATTENDANCE: 4562

New Grimsby Town manager Mike Newell was denied a victory in his first game in charge thanks to Leon Johnson's goth-minute header for League Two leaders Wycombe Wanderers.

The Mariners got off to the perfect start with a goal inside the opening minute. Nathan Jarman used his strength and played in Nick Hegarty. The Town winger managed to get a shot in on goal that squirmed underneath goalkeeper Scott Shearer with Bore sliding in to add the finishing touch.

As would be expected from Wanderers they pushed Town back for long periods but were regularly thwarted by the in-form Phil Barnes who twice denied Chris Zebroski and former Mariner Matt Harrold.

In the second half the visitors really penned the Mariners back but found Barnes and his back four in a mean mood.

Town did have their opportunities going forward as well; Shearer snuffed our James Hunt's low cross with Jarman looking to pounce, and the Scottish stopper then acrobatically tipped away a 25-yard effort by Hegarty.

It looked as if Town had the three points secured as first Barnes somehow clawed away a Zebroski header and then Wycombe midfielder Tommy Doherty was dismissed after a late challenge on Hunt.

The visitors had one last push though and got their equaliser in stoppage time. A left wing free kick was deflected off Harrold and Johnson was on hand to plant the header into the Osmond goal.

MATCH FACTS:

Town: Barnes, Clarke, Bennett, Heywood, Newey, Till (Kamara 60), Hunt, Trotter, Hegarty, Bore (Heslop 60), Jarman Subs not used: Montgomery, Taylor, Stockdale.

MARINERS' MAN OF THE MATCH:

Phil Barnes.

An inspirational performance from the Town stopper as he kept the league leaders frustrated.

WHAT THEY SAID: "It was a dream start for us - you could not have wished for anything more." (Mike Newell)

Tomi to you

It is hard for a younger sibling to step out of their illustrious relative's shadow, but on loan striker Tomi Ameobi, brother of Newcastle star Shola, is aiming to do just that.

The Doncaster forward can meet his aim by taking in loan spells like the month he is currently spending at Blundell Park.

The 20-year-old, whose full name is Oluwatomiwo, was on the books of Newcastle United as a youngster but it was at a more grass roots level that he was snapped up by Leeds United, he recalled:

"I was playing Sunday League and was picked up by Leeds United who had some scouts watching the game. I joined them the season before they got relegated so it was actually the season they made into the Play Offs."

After falling at the final hurdle with a return to the Premier League, expectations were high at Elland Road for the following season. The 3-0 defeat to Watford in Cardiff had taken more out of the club than anyone could imagine though, and when manager Kevin Blackwell was dismissed halfway through the season then the odds really began to stack up against the Whites:

"Obviously everyone was expecting us to do really well after getting to the Play Off Final," said Tomi, "but things just didn't work out. It was a bit of a shock finding ourselves in the position that we did and that went against us because we found it harder and harder to pull ourselves clear."

After relegation, disaster followed for Leeds with a 15-point deduction and the club realistically looking at dropping all the way through to League Two. Ameobi was just starting to make a mark on the first team.

Previous Club:

Newcastle United, Leeds United, Scunthorpe United (L), Doncaster Rovers

The 6'3" striker made his United debut in a Carling Cup tie at Portsmouth in August 2007, partnering Tresor Kandol in attack, he admits that he remembers little of the game that gallant Leeds lost 3-0, he said:

"The one thing I remember about the game was that it was a fantastic atmosphere even though it was only a cup game. I only got on for the final few minutes but it was a great experience for me."

The Whites looked set to complete a remarkable turnaround and clinch promotion despite their initial 15-point deficit but then manager Dennis Wise left for a role at Newcastle and the Yorkshire club suffered a dip in form. Tomi feels that Wise's departure didn't affect the side that much though:

"They couldn't be expected to win every game so I don't think it affected them that much. They had done well to get where they were and they will be looking to go one step further this season."

"They've gone onto do well. I think the new manager (Gary McAllister) has installed a lot of confidence in the players and I wish them all the luck."

Only one more appearance for Leeds followed in the Johnstone's Paint Trophy at Darlington before Tomi embarked upon a two-month loan spell at Scunthorpe, he recalled:

"It was a first for me and it was the first club I had been to on loan. It was an up and down period because sometimes I was in the squad and sometimes I wasn't."

With Leeds pushing for promotion from League One, it was a completely different experience to go to North Lincolnshire and battle against relegation. Although the Iron eventually dropped into League One themselves, he admits that he is pleased to see the club doing well now:

"They were a good set of lads though and they've got a good manager there and I think they are proving their worth this season."

There was more Play Off heartbreak for United at the end of the season as they lost out to Yorkshire rivals Doncaster at Wembley, just a few weeks later and Tomi was heading to the Championship with Rovers, he explained the move:

"I thought my days at Leeds were numbered and I had a sit down with my agent and we talked about it. Doncaster had shown some interest in me and I jumped at the chance to join them really.

To continue his learning curve, Tomi sought a loan move away from the Keepmoat Stadium and that brought him to Cleethorpes. Halfway through his loan spell new manager Mike Newell arrived at the club and Tomi feels he has already had an impact on the squad:

"It has been really positive," he declared, "and I think that you could see that in the performance against Wycombe. He knows what he wants out of players and he has the man management skills to get that.

"He has told us to be positive in every game we are playing in and hopefully that will get us out of the predicament we are in.

"I've not been involved against Wycombe but I have enjoyed the three games I have played in, and when the lads play like that you can't be too disappointed."

Elsewhere in the Ameobi family, brother Shola is fighting his way back to fitness at Newcastle, with younger sibling Sammiusto coming through the St. James Park ranks:

"He (Shola) is doing well," stated Tomi,

"although I don't get much chance to keep in touch with him. He is still at Newcastle and looking to work his way back into the first team picture.

"There is a lot going on up there but I am sure that over time it will get better."

League Two Review

Shrewsbury

Shrewsbury Town have opted not to extend Sean Thornton's loan spell, despite a plea from the player wanting to stay at the club. Sean has been sent back to Leyton Orient as his wage demands were deemed too expensive for Shrewsbury Town. Marc Pugh has returned to the league two side from Luton and may become more of a fixture in the starting eleven. Shrewsbury have said they will keep tabs on Thornton incase the situation changes.

Barnet

A 19-year-old winger who agreed to a short term contract with League One side Cheltenham has joined Barnet on loan until January. Ryan Burge only agreed his contract just last month but has opted to take a trip to the club he supported as a boy. Burge was released by Birmingham City earlier in the year but has an impressive CV, as he has spent time at West Brom, Ajax, Manchester United, Hereford and Coventry City.

Chesterfield

Defender Alan Goodall has been suspended for one match after receiving his fifth yellow card of the season. Alan was given the card in the game against Chester.

Bournemouth

Jimmy Quinn has this week given his comments about a regional restructure of the football league. The Bournemouth manager feels that a total restructure of League One and Two would have a positive impact on the football in this country. Jimmy thinks that the move will help both fans and clubs alike. From a financial point of view midweek games would be played closer to home and means that more fans would be able to get there. They would not have to pay out for travel and hotels and they would have time to get to the match after work. If this was to happen Bournemouth alone would reduce their mileage from 7000 to 4300 a season.

Port Vale

Paul Edwards has this week put himself forward to be the inspiration to help the club climb the League Two table. Paul made his first appearance in a Port Vale shirt for seven months in the club's 2-1 defeat at Notts County. The 28-year-old is so happy to be back in the team and fit that he hopes to pass on his enthusiasm to his fellow team mates. Despite joining the club in 2007 Edwards has only made 17 starts due to time out with a knee injury - Port Vale currently sit 19th in League two.

Chester City

Simon Davies has this week expressed his disappointment at Paul Taylor's lack of effort since his loan spell at the club started. The 20-year-old did not appear at the game against Chesterfield or Grimsby. Taylor is on loan from Vauxhall Motors and has been warned and fined by the club for his lack of effort and appearance. The former Manchester City player has played just four times for Chester this season.

On the Road

v Dagenham & Redbridge

Tuesday 28th October 2008 | KO: 19.45

The Mariners return to London for this League Two fixture with Dagenham & Redbridge. The Daggers have had a fine start to the season with a number of impressive wins under their belt. Town will be looking to fare better than August's 4-0 loss at Brentford.

How to get there:

Leave the M25 at Junction 27 and take the M11 towards London. At the end of the M11 continue onto the A406 towards Docklands (A13) and London City Airport. At the intersection with the A13, turn onto this road towards Dagenham/Dartford Tunnel. As you near Dagenham, you will see a cinema complex on your left. At this point you leave the A13 and join the A1306 towards Dagenham. At the third set of traffic lights turn left at the McDonalds into Ballards Road. At the end of this road you will come to a large roundabout, (known as the Bull roundabout, after the public house of the same name) at which you turn left, into Rainham Road. Proceed up Rainham Road passing Dagenham East tube station on the left and Victoria Road is a quarter of a mile further on, on the same side of the road.

Parking:

There is a fair sized car park at the ground which is free, but is normally full 45 minutes ahead of kick off. Otherwise street parking.

Rail:

Take the District Line to Dagenham East (and not Dagenham Heathway). Turn left as you come out of the station and the ground is clearly sign posted and only five minutes walk away. Please note that the journey by tube from Central London can take around 45 minutes.

Eating & Drinking:

There is a fair sized social club at the ground, which allows in away supporters for a nominal fee. Otherwise there are three pubs in walking distance of the ground. The nearest is The Eastbrook, which down the hill towards Golds Gym. There is also The Railway which is down the road beside the station. A ten minute walk away is the Bull, which is down Rainham Road (going past the Jet Garage), by a large roundabout.

The Ground:

The majority of away fans are housed in the Pondfield Road terrace at one end of the ground. This area accommodates 1,200 fans. It is a small terrace, being around 10 rows high and is open to the elements, so be prepared to get wet. However, the view from this part of the ground isn't bad and the refreshments are excellent. A small section of seats is also allocated, in a small stand adjacent to the Carling Stand. Although this stand does have cover, it does have a number of supporting pillars that may impede your view. There is normally a good atmosphere within the ground and there are normally no problems for visiting fans.

Staying Over:

For fans wishing to stay over then the nearest hotel is the Express by Holiday Inn in nearby Newbury Park, Redbridge. Room rates start at £69.00 and the hotel is well served by the Tube. For football fanatics, the West Ham United Hotel, set within Upton Park, is less than 10km away with rooms starting at just £40.00.

One to Watch:

Paul Benson

The Dagenham striker has been amongst the goals this season after an injury-hit first campaign in League football. Benson has formed a great partnership with Ben Strevens and the duo will be looking to fire the Daggers to victory.

Last Time Out:

Dagenham 0 Grimsby Town 0

Saturday 19th January 2008 | League Two
The Mariners' first trip to Victoria Road ended in a stalemate with neither side creating many clear cut chances. The Daggers were looking to pull away from the drop zone, whilst Town were in the middle of a ten-game unbeaten run. Town were dealt a blow when they lost centre half Nick Fenton to injury before half time, but teenager Ryan Bennett stepped in admirably. The visitors' best chance fell to James Hunt, but he saw his close range effort blocked. Meanwhile Phil Barnes was largely untroubled in the Town goal.

Dagenham & Redbridge: Thompson, Foster, Uddin, Boardman, Griffiths, Saunders, Southam, Huke, Sloma, Nurse (Taylor 71), Strevens. Subs not used: Hogan, Smith, Taiwo, Hall.

Grimsby Town: Barnes, Hird, Atkinson, Fenton (Bennett 40), Newey, Hegarty, Bolland, Hunt, Clarke (Boshell 84), North, Taylor (82), Jones. Subs not used: Montgomery, Till.

Hat Trick Heroes

Paul Groves

Luton Town Grimsby Town

Barclays League Division One | 07.11.92

Hat tricks are a rare enough occurrence in modern football with even top strikers struggling to snag the match ball. For a midfielder to net a treble in a game is therefore quite the feat, and inspirational Grimsby midfielder Paul Groves managed that twice in the 1992/93 season.

Groves' capture was another piece of shrewd business by manager Alan Buckley, who had seen star man Shaun Cunningham leave Blundell Park for Sunderland in a £625,000 deal. The Town chief had a ready-made replacement up his sleeve in Blackpool midfielder Groves, and save for a season at West Brom in the mid-90s, he would be a regular in the Town side for the next ten years - combined transfer fees of £400,000 meaning he was an absolute snip.

The Mariners travelled to Kenilworth Road for this league fixture in the midst of a fantastic run of results, including a 1-0 win at Champions-elect Newcastle, which saw the club storm into the Division One Play-Off zone.

The talk going into the game was of two Chelsea goalkeepers; the Mariners had ex-England International Dave Beasant between the sticks as he continued his month's loan from Stamford Bridge, meanwhile the home side had recalled their goalkeeper Alec Chamberlain from the same location.

It was Groves and Grimsby's all-round play as a whole that would steal the headlines though. The Mariners started in confident fashion spraying the ball around the lush Kenilworth Road surface in Buckley's tried and tested style. Dave Gilbert, Tony Rees and Tommy Watson all tried their luck in the opening quarter of an hour, before Town took the lead on 18 minutes.

Watson found some space on the right and his low cross was hammered goalwards by Groves with Chamberlain pulling off a fantastic reaction save. The ball fell kindly for the Town midfielder though, and he made no mistake in prodding the ball home from six yards. The Mariners were rampant and Watson was inches from adding a second just moments later.

A long cross from Gilbert was volleyed goalwards by his wing partner, Chamberlain doing well to tip the ball onto the bar. Town's second did arrive on 22 minutes and it was a real poacher's effort from Tony Rees.

John McDermott played a long ball down the touchline and after Trevor Peake had glanced the ball backwards it was Rees who reacted quickest to lob Chamberlain from 20 yards.

Every time Town crossed the halfway line they looked like scoring, and Buckley's men were really putting on a clinic of fast, flowing, attacking football. The third goal arrived with just 27 minutes on the clock. Gary Croft took a quick free kick, and with the hapless Hatters' defence appealing in vain for offside, Groves bore down on goal.

The former Blackpool man cleverly played in Gilbert and continued his run into the box. The diminutive winger picked out team mate Groves with the cross and he smashed his header beyond Chamberlain in the Hatters' goal.

Town were relentless and Mendonca went close to a fourth when his volley flashed into the side netting on 35 minutes. The Mariners went into the half time break fully in control and there was no let-up after the break.

On 48 minutes Jim Dobbin saw his goalbound effort deflected wide, whilst Mendonca, Watson and Rees all had chances to increase the lead. The home supporters' biggest cheers were reserved for former Hatter Graham Rodger, who replaced Mark Lever on 50 minutes.

The Hatters did pull a goal back when Phil Gray looped a header over Beasant with 20 minutes remaining. In truth though, the Mariners never looked in any real danger, and were well on their way to quashing memories of their last trip to Luton, a 6-0 trouncing in 1981/82.

It was left to Groves to put the icing on the cake as he completed his hat trick on 82 minutes. Gilbert switched to the right and once more crossed into the danger zone. The centre was half-cleared to Groves, who had time to steady himself before slamming the ball beyond Chamberlain to complete a good afternoon's work for the men from South Humberside.

The Town midfielder would add another treble to his collection with all three in a 3-3 draw against Notts County on 27 February 1993. The two trios were part of a haul of 12 goals that meant Groves topped the goalscoring charts at Blundell Park in a successful first season at the club; Groves would also go onto be top scorer in 1995/96 and 1998/99.

GTST

A look at the various unofficial Grimsby Town websites and forums will invariably provide a daily handful of postings that are critical of the way the club is run. From comments about the quality of Matchday pies, to dietary guidance for playing staff and advice on club communications, as fans we're experts on anything and everything.

Whilst I'm not claiming that everything GTFC does is perfect, when you look at the trials and tribulations that Hatters supporters have endured since October 2006, these criticisms start to look a little trivial.

Two years ago, things looked rosy for Luton Town. With a promising young manager in Mike Newell at the helm, the team well positioned near the top of the Championship and funds from the sale of two key players re-invested in the squad, the supporters were looking forward to a successful season. Trust in Luton (TiL), formed in 2003 when the club first suffered financial hardship, had board representation and a hard earned 10% shareholding in the club. But a run of poor results combined with sales of other key players saw the club slipping towards the dreaded relegation places by February 2007.

If that wasn't depressing enough, worse was to come. Following public criticism of the board (including suggestions of transfer irregularities), Mike Newell was sacked in March 2007. The undemocratic manner of the dismissal led to the resignation of two board members, including the TiL representative. Arguably supporter representation was more important than ever given the looming crisis, but TiL rightly felt it was inappropriate to be closely linked to the club given the nature of the allegations. A financial report published in April 2007 allayed no-one's fears about the state of LTFC's finances and an FA investigation sparked the resignation of the chairman and admissions of illegal payments to agents. The season ended in relegation, albeit with another promising young manager at the helm.

The 2007/8 season failed to live up to supporters' expectations, with Matchday attendances down by 25%. An extended League Cup run brought some respite, but it was too little too late and in November 2007 the administrators were called in. I'm sure we all recall the plight of the unpaid Luton players and management, but have probably forgotten that this situation remained for three months. Eventually something had to give. Two more key players were sold for a combined fee of just over £1-million and the management team departed.

At around the same time the LTFC2020 consortium, made up of lifelong Hatters fans including two TiL board members (who subsequently resigned from the TiL board to avoid a conflict of interests) and headed by local celebrity Nick Owen, were awarded 'preferred bidder' status. What's that they say about silver linings?

LTFC2020 completed its takeover of the club this April, and duly gifted a 1% shareholding to TiL, their previous 10% shareholding having been lost to administration. A 1% shareholding may seem like a step backwards, but TiL's level of influence remains much the same as before. For this reason, they have opted to invest funds in other areas such as Football in the Community and sponsorship of the Girls' Centre of Excellence and player kit rather than purchase more shares.

Sadly, the LTFC2020 takeover didn't herald a turnaround in fortunes. The eventual consequence of administration was a second successive relegation (not a pleasant experience, as we know). Those connected with the Bedfordshire club were resigned to a 15-point penalty, as was handed out to Rotherham and Bournemouth for exiting administration without fulfilling certain conditions. However the reality was a far more severe double-whammy. In June 2008, the FA handed Luton a ten-point penalty and a £50,000 fine relating to 15 misconduct charges between 2004 and 2007. Shortly after, the Football League handed out a 20 point penalty and an order to pay back £500,000 to creditors. Luton unsuccessfully appealed the latter and had to accept the penalty in order to receive back the 'golden share' that would allow them to compete in the League. It's an unprecedented situation - never before has a club started the season with such a huge points gap to bridge.

So to summarise, in the last 24 months, Hatters fans have witnessed one administration, two owners, three managers and 40 deducted points. As a supporter of another lower league team, it doesn't bear thinking about and it's easy to see why some fans might find other Saturday pursuits more appealing.

TiL played an instrumental role throughout proceedings, both in providing regular and insightful updates via their website (www.trustinluton.co.uk) and in rallying support when the club needed it most. The average attendance this season is only 300 lower than last season, which maybe shows that the fans are responding to TiL and sticking with their team in these difficult times.

Grimsby fans may not always like the way their club does things, but perhaps we should be thankful that we have a football club to be critical of - I'm sure the Luton fans are.

Creative Fun

This week we have all been having some creative fun at the Grimsby Town FC Learn GTI Study Support Centre. The young people who have visited the Centre during the 'Playing for Success' sessions have created some magnificent cubism GTFC team portraits.

The young people have used a range of computer skills to be able to create these fabulous portraits. I'm sure you will agree that they have done a great job and have managed to capture the real team.

We will be show casing some more portraits over the next few weeks, so watch this space. It might be your favourite players in the next programme.

I just want to take this opportunity to thank all the young people we have been working with this term for all they energy, enthusiasm and hard work. Well done to you all.

If you would like to see all of the cubism portraits created this term you can find them on the LearnGTI Blog Site over the next few weeks.

Fresh Start in Autumn

It's not all fun and games at Study Support.

Learn GTI has embarked on a new course in partnership with the Learner Engagement Team. We now provide GCSE education for pupils who do not currently have any school provision.

Every Tuesday, pupils attend the centre in Grant Thorold library to undertake maths and English lessons. Delivered by fully qualified teachers, these sessions compliment the vocational work that the pupils do during the rest of the week.

Ashley Westerman – a keen footballer himself – is in year 11, and attends Trinity Youth Centre in Cleethorpes for most of the week. With the Learn GTI team, he has just begun his first piece of coursework, in the hopes that he can be prepared for the exam in May.

Jowell Hutton, year 10, is a fitness fanatic who spends some time working in the fitness suite of a local college. He hopes one day to join the army, but also likes the idea of working in the leisure and fitness industry. He too has begun his English coursework.

As a start to their maths programme, the boys began to look at how to calculate area and perimeter. We thought we'd try to make this as interesting as possible, so armed with clipboards and trundle wheels, we headed for Blundell Park. The boys marched and measured around the outside of the pitch, and then completed the calculations. They were then treated to a tour around the whole ground, including the players gym, where Jowell demonstrated his knowledge of physiology and how to safely use different machines.

Next week, we expect to have a few more pupils joining us at the centre – but I think you'll agree, they probably missed the best bit!

Fitc Half Time Tournament Knockout Stage

The third game of the half time tournament knockout stage took place with Healing hotspurs taking on Atlantic (A).

The game started with both teams trying to play football but under a big crowd looked nervous. The ball was in the middle of the pitch for much of the game with the defenders from both teams winning every tackle and ball.

As the game was going to be decided by a penalty shootout some neat passes on the right hand side by Healing opened up a goal scoring chance in which Pete Ball rifled in the top corner leaving the Atlantic goalkeeper no chance.

Atlantic never gave up and tried to force their way back in the game but its Healing who progress into the league stages.

Stuart Watkiss
Reserve Team Manager

Assistant Manager Stuart Watkiss bemoaned the cancellation of the Mariners' latest reserve game as it left several first team players without the opportunity to gain some vital match fitness.

Town's trip to Hartlepool United on Wednesday 15th October was postponed after the hosts Durham County Cup match against Ryton clashed with the fixture:

"They (Hartlepool) had a cup game on the same day and that took precedent," explained Watkiss, "it's deeply frustrating for us though because we really need a reserve fixture at this time – it will mean there won't have been a league fixture for nearly four weeks."

New manager Mike Newell has arrived at Blundell Park and is desperate to see all the members of his first team squad in match action, and Watkiss feels the fixture would have been the perfect opportunity to:

"If the game had gone ahead then we I feel we would have had the strongest reserve side out since I've been at the club," he declared, "we had almost a clean bill of health and with a couple of the loan lads involved we would have put out a really strong team."

Watkiss pointed to several members of the first team squad who are working their way back to full fitness and would have benefited from the 90 minutes, Richard Hope has recovered from injury, and Danny North, who has come in for some undue criticism in recent weeks, is looking to get back involved in first team matters, Stuart continued:

"Richard Hope is in desperate need of some football, he's been really unfortunate with injury since he arrived here, and he needs games now to get him back on track.

"Northy (Danny North) has been working hard on his fitness in recent weeks, and full credit to the lad, he has really knuckled down, he needs match fitness though, and the game would have been ideal.

"With the new manager coming in, it's even more important than ever that the players take their opportunity when given to them.

"If that means turning out for the reserves and playing the full 90 minutes then so be it, it's all about showing the new manager what you are capable of, and it is part of every footballer's career."

Aside from the first team 'fringe' players, Watkiss also pointed to the youngsters that are coming up through the ranks at Blundell Park, he said:

"We can talk about the first team players, but it's also frustrating for the young lads as well because it's part of their development.

"We would like to get the balance right with five or six first team players and the pick of the young lads. That way everyone is getting something from the game."

With the postponement of the Hartlepool fixture, the club have taken measures to get a game in and have organised a friendly at Mansfield tomorrow afternoon at 2pm, Watkiss said:

"We travel down to Field Mill in a friendly and hopefully that will get the lads some minutes. It's a busy time for the first team and the players could be called upon at any time."

Neil Woods
Youth Team Manager

The Mariners edged a dramatic Puma Youth Alliance Cup First Round tie on penalties to knock out the holders Hull City at Cheapside on Saturday 11th October.

Goalkeeper Leigh Overton was the hero with some key saves in the shoot-out as the Mariners finally got one over their North Bank rivals.

The Tigers were hit by injuries going into the game, but were still able to name a strong side. Town welcomed first team pro Matthew Bird back into the side and were immediately on the offensive.

Kiel Thompson, playing at left wing, roamed forward and crossed for Danny Freeman who saw his effort drift just wide.

There was a blow for the Mariners on five minutes when influential midfielder Drew Rhoades was taken off with a knock to be replaced by Danny Brittle.

The visitors gradually worked their way into the game and forged a good opening on the half hour. Tom Cairney and Dean Deagle linked up on the right, but the dangerous Freddie Rawson saw his header go over.

Grimsby Town YA 1 Hull City YA 1

Grimsby win 8-7 on penalties

Town then put the cup holders under pressure and Thompson came close with a 25-yard effort. Midfielder Jamie Steel was next to try his luck but his long range effort drifted harmlessly over.

City regrouped at half time and had two chances to take the lead after the break. Danny Wilkinson's free kick was deflected into the path of French striker Jan Ekra but the goalbound effort was deflected wide for a corner.

Overton was then at his best to tip Cairney's free kick around the post as the Tigers kept knocking at the door. Mark Cullen was next to glimpse an opening but he dragged his shot well wide when well placed.

The home side had to dig deep now and Sam Woods forced Ben Hallam into a save from a corner. Substitute Tom Corner then flashed a header over and it was the Mariners who looked like breaking the deadlock.

The opener came in 88 minutes – Freeman flicked the ball on and strike partner Corner raced away to score, despite the Tigers' vein appeals for offside.

Town must have thought that was the winner, but Hull put on relentless pressure for an equaliser, which arrived three minutes into injury time.

Joe Fox floated in a cross and Cairney rose highest to head beyond Overton. Incredibly there was still time for Town to search for a winner, but Corner saw his shot blocked.

With no extra time, the tie moved straight to penalties. The scores were level at 3-2 when substitute Bradley Wood saw his penalty saved by Hallam. The referee ordered a retake though and this time Wood made no mistake.

Overton then saved Ekra's penalty to give Town the advantage at 4-3, but Liam Davis missed to level things up again. It was sudden death and with the scores at 7-7 Overton saved from Danny East, with Corner netting the winner.

Linby Colliery 3
Grimsby Town 10

Grimsby Town Ladies swept to the top of Division One North of the East Midlands Women's Football League in style when they put bottom-of-the-table Linby Colliery to the sword in a 10-3 scoreline.

Gemma Hopkin scored five while Emily Mumby notched a hat-trick.

Manager Paul Farbrace said: "We still aren't at the top of our game and failed to really click in first half.

"However, our superiority in skill and fitness showed in the second half.

"I am naturally pleased with 12 points from four games and our position at the top of the league."

On a sunny day, on a rather less than even pitch, Town Ladies tried to get the ball down and play early on.

With just three minutes on the clock, a through-ball from captain Ruth Ashton was flicked round Linby's centre-back by Mumby and into the path of her strike-partner Hopkin, who wrong-footed the keeper as she took the ball around her and placed the ball into an empty net.

Town's and Hopkin's second followed quickly when play was taken down the left.

Esther Farrow, at left back, nudged the ball around the oncoming striker and played the ball up the wing to Lindsey Dye.

Quick feet and vision by Dye released Hopkin on the left and she immediately cut in and side-footed the ball into the bottom left-hand corner, beating the keeper at her near post.

To Linby's credit they kept their composure, despite Grimsby's two goals in five minutes, and gradually built pressure in the middle of the park.

They closed down Town with determination and were rewarded with a goal when Town keeper Beth French was beaten by a deflection.

Linby equalised when Town centre-back Kylie Farbrace was penalised for a soft foul on the edge of the box. A well-taken free-kick was flicked past the keeper at the back post.

French denied Linby a third goal when she rushed out of her box to meet a 50-50 ball with a striker.

Despite Town's commitment, they were unable to take full control in the central areas and struggled to play free-flowing football.

Sophie Madsen relieved the pressure with a run down the right and then curved the ball onto Linby's penalty spot, where Hopkin arrived to flick it past the oncoming goalkeeper.

Five minutes before half-time, a throw near the corner flag was trapped by Hopkin, who passed the ball back to Dye on the left-hand corner of the 18-yard box and a first-time wonder strike saw the ball sail into the top right-hand corner and Town to go to the changing rooms 4-2 up.

Town came out the second half a completely different side. There was much more composure in the middle and some great one-touch football to release the strikers.

Grimsby's midfield supported higher up the pitch and impressive performances by Laura Ibbett and Ashton solidified them in the middle, with Dye and Madsen giving Town width.

The goals started to flow free and fast. Hopkin, released down the right by Ibbett, crossed the ball to Mumby, who slotted the ball home with her left foot.

Another ball over Linby's back four allowed Mumby to show her pace and she made her chip of the goalkeeper look effortless, placing the ball in the top left of the goal.

Five minutes later, a hand-ball led to a Town penalty and Mumby hit the ball hard into the bottom-left corner to claim her hat-trick.

Midfielder Madsen got in on the act when she picked up the ball just into Linby's half.

She ran 50 yards, holding off the defender, and then attempted to chip the keeper, who got her fingertips to it. However, Madsen following in was able to side-foot home from a yard.

With 20 minutes to go, a first-team debut was given to Nikki Wright. Having been injured in the early part of the season, her strength and ability to pinpoint crosses showed she will be an asset to Town's squad.

One of her first touches was a powerful shot from wide right which beat the keeper but hit the crossbar.

Linby scored a third against the run of play with an incredibly powerful strike from a free-kick that swerved past the Town keeper.

As Linby tired, Town took full control and Hopkin converted the pressure into two further goals.

Sophie Burns was voted Town's player of the match for a comprehensive and solid performance at the centre of the back four.

As part of our Specialism (Sport and Health) we have just started an "enrichment" programme on Wednesday and Friday afternoons for all our students. On Wednesday afternoon ALL our students and staff participate in the enrichment programme, on Friday afternoon the programme is optional and occurs after the end of our school day. The programme is designed around the wealth of knowledge and expertise of our staff.

Having identified all the possible opportunities available to students and staff, our students choose which activities they would like to participate in, and then are engaged in a programme that runs for at least a half-term. The list below shows the different components of the current programme. Some of these activities are seasonal but by the end of this term, we will have weekly clubs running in at least 48 of these activities on Wednesdays or Fridays.

The aims of the programme include:

Enjoyment and having fun, leading to healthy minds, healthy bodies or both.

Provision of learning currently not always present within our curricular programme.

Providing our students and staff an opportunity to try something new and maybe find something they would wish to continue in their own time.

Engaging with the local community and agencies.

Allowing teaching staff and support staff to exchange roles, as the expertise of the support staff is developed through new activities.

Enhancing the learning of all our students.

Motivating students to learn more.

Fostering very positive relationships between staff and student.

We are always looking for new ideas, opportunities and activities for our students and staff to take part in. Maybe you have something you would like to offer to our students during "enrichment" time, which we could support you in delivering on a Wednesday or Friday? If so please contact Trevor Bailey at Oasis Academy Wintringham (01472 871811) or Trevor.Bailey@oasiswintringham.org

Pure Excellence

Jack Barlow and Dayle Southwell scored a brace apiece as Grimsby Town's Under-15s thumped Chesterfield 6-0.

On a relatively hot day, the game started very evenly, with Town's defence playing well to keep out the Spireites.

The Mariners gradually got on top and took the lead when good play set Jack Barlow free and he calmly slotted past the keeper.

Town then won a penalty, but Dayle Southwell's shot hit the post and rebounded to safety.

Southwell quickly made up for this when he latched on to a great ball from Curtis Allenby and flighted a cross to the far post where Barlow placed a good header past the keeper.

Ricky Smith and Jordan Ramsden completely controlled the midfield and good play from them set up Southwell, who hit a great shot from 25 yards into the bottom corner.

The same player then scored his second and Town's fourth after Josh Freeman's shot had been well saved.

Soon after, Allenby scored the goal of the game when he drove an unstoppable shot into the top corner from fully 30 yards.

Town were in full flow now and making chances galore with some excellent football. In the end they had to settle for just one more goal, a header from Freeman after good work by Hendy.

It was a super team performance from start to finish and saw a welcome return for Matty Walker after a lengthy spell out with a broken toe.

With four games gone, spectators and parents are used to seeing Grimsby Town's Under-9s start well and against Chesterfield was no exception.

Applying early pressure and playing with a high tempo resulted in two quick goals, the first from Nicholas Keast - a sweet half-volley from a good cross from Jack Stephenson.

The second was made by Reece York, who went past two players before sliding a pass to Stephenson who finished coolly.

Town were having it all their own way and before the quarter was over they scored another, this time from York. As the second quarter got underway, Town seemed to be taking it easy and allowed Chesterfield to build up some pressure of their own.

A quick goal from their forward and neat play from their midfielders forced some fine goalkeeping from Adam Nadin and excellent defending from Keelan Taylor and Kai Morris.

It seemed to kick-start Town and they were soon back to their best thanks to some great tackles and pressure from Harrison Read, Daniel Bristow and Leo Kilday.

Three more goals ensued, two from Lawrence Burchell and another from Read helped produce a fine scoreline.

In perfect conditions, the Under-10s started brightly and played some of their best football of the season against a very capable and well-organised Chesterfield side.

The midfield quartet of Callum Lovett, JJ Smith, Tom Sawyer and Kyle Howitt controlled play superbly and the excellent forward play of Reece Moody ensured the Chesterfield side were unable to settle.

Unfortunately for Town, they found the Spireites keeper at the top of his game as he thwarted attack after attack.

The Mariners' defensive pairing of Lewis Hoad and Billy Merrison ensured Chesterfield's goalscoring opportunities were kept to a minimum and the pair continually brought the ball out of defence starting many attacks.

As the match continued evenly it was the young Mariners who eventually took a deserved lead when Sawyer hit a fantastic free-kick into the roof of the net.

Sawyer doubled the lead a few minutes later after a goalmouth scramble when brave play from Joey Finnegan saw the ball fall to the Town scorer who finished well.

The Fizz

Good evening Ladies and Gentleman and welcome to tonight's game against Luton Town here at Blundell Park.

I'm pleased to report that we have a near full bill of health for tonight's game and I'm sure that will please our new manager Mike Newell.

Richard Hope has recovered from his groin strain, and as Stuart touched on, he is in need of some games under his belt in order to gain full fitness.

The same can be said of Danny North who has really knuckled down in training over the past month. Danny has shown what he can do with his two goals already and I'm sure we are all eager to see him back in action.

It was nice to see Bolly at the last home game, even if he was on crutches! Paul is a great lad to have around the place, and I'm sure that his presence gave all the lads a lift. He was full of smiles and was straight in cracking the jokes with the lads – all the best Bolly!

Enjoy the game everyone and please keep up your magnificent support.

The Burning Issue

with Jonathan Byrne

If you are a striker reading this then you might want to look away now because if the tacticians at the top of the game have their way then the art of the goalscorer may become a dying breed.

Italian football has always been noted for its defensive stringency and its cautious approach to play. However, Roma's adoption of a 4-6-0 formation may be even too much for some football purists to bear.

Deprived of an out-and-out goalscorer in the giallorossi squad, Coach Luciano Spalletti did the unthinkable and created a formation bereft of strikers.

The 49-year-old Italian had favoured the 4-2-3-1 system at former club Udinese, a formation that had been popularised by Portugal's much-vaunted 'Golden Generation' of the mid-90s.

However, arriving at the Olympic Stadium in 2005, Spalletti found a club in disarray, lagging well behind Italian superpowers Juventus and the Milans. Roma had slipped to 15th place in Serie A and were looking nervously over their shoulders.

In a side struggling for points, other coaches may have been tempted to go for broke and throw more attackers into the fray.

Spalletti did exactly the opposite and opted to play to the squad's strengths. Looking around the training ground, and seeing no recognisable striker, he decided to drop them altogether and play with six midfielders.

The former Udinese coach's plan was simple: a flat back four had two holding midfielders in front of it. In front of them lay three deep-lying attacking midfielders with a fourth attacking midfielder in the 'hole' behind a non-existent front line – hence the 4-6-0 – the fourth midfielder dropping deep to receive the ball whilst the other three advance beyond him.

The radical change immediately paid dividends as Roma embarked upon an 11-game winning streak, a Serie A record. Roma ended the season in fifth-place, but thanks to the punishments handed out to Juventus, AC Milan and Fiorentina for irregularities, the club ended up qualifying for the Champions League.

Spalletti's first full season in charge, 2006/07, was to be even better. Harshly remembered for a 7-1 humiliation at Old Trafford in the Champions League Quarter Final, Roma's season had so much more to it as they became the only team capable of challenging Roberto Mancini's all-conquering Internazionale side.

Runners-up in Serie A and Coppa Italia winners, Spalletti's 4-6-0 formation was receiving plaudits. Critics may say that the striker-less option is a negative approach to football, but Roma produced some exciting attacking football throughout the season.

Proof of this came with the fact that Francesco Totti, the club's talismanic playmaker won the European Golden Boot with an astonishing 26 goals in 34 league outings. Totti played in the 'hole' and it appeared that the formation was built for him, and he thrived in it.

Roma repeated their cup-winning feat last season and Totti's impressive strike rate continued with 14 goals in just 24 games. Spalletti's tactics appeared to have even rubbed off on Sir Alex Ferguson as the Manchester United boss adopted the formation last season, with Wayne Rooney in the Totti role – perhaps a striker-less world is the way forward.
