STEVE BURR THE MANAGER

From what we saw on the pitch to your support up in the stands, last weekend's game at Mansfield was a very enjoyable afternoon for us.

We've had some good performances away from home this season and some of the football we played at Field Mill was terrific. We went up against a good Mansfield side with a strong squad, and they were buoyant after reaching the Trophy Final at Wembley and winning at Histon in their previous game so we knew it would be a tough task, but the showing on the day was right up there with one of the best of the campaign.

When you have been on a good run of results like we have, having a break in the middle of that can disrupt things and we were cautious of that being the case going into the game and did speak about it. We made sure we used the time off as wisely as possible and went to Mansfield full of confidence.

We created a lot of chances, especially in the first half and if anything we were a bit disappointed to have not scored more than one at the break, because getting that bit of a cushion does cover you in the event of anything happening like a lapse in concentration somewhere. To get the second was important, and we have become resolute defensively over the last few months and we saw the game out well. Looking at that defence, you have to say there is a lot of experience there even though a couple of lads are still relatively young. Mike Williams, Danny Lewis and Lee Vaughan have played a lot of non-league football in their careers now, and the likes of Mark Albrighton and Michael Briscoe have competed at a higher level.

There was a terrific turnout by the Harriers fans at Mansfield and, without a shadow of a doubt, that was noticed by all of us and was very much appreciated. Sometimes an early kick-off can disrupt things, but it goes without saying that the only noise we heard at the ground was that coming from the away end!

Moving on to today, and we can't wait for the game – I know the players are all looking forward to it. I would like to think we're going to see our biggest crowd of the season and kick-off can't come quickly enough. We of course have only played them just recently in the League and, if anything, I have to say I was a bit disappointed with our own performance at Kenilworth Road. I am expecting better from us this afternoon as, although we got a good point there, we didn't play anywhere near as well as we can – Luton certainly didn't see the best of us.

I'd like to extend a warm welcome to everyone connected with Luton to Aggborough today – following Richard Money's departure earlier in the week, Gary Brabin now has the opportunity to work with the squad of players there and I wish him all the very best of luck – after today, of course!

Steve Burr

It may have been a while since our last home game but it certainly now feels like we've moved into the 'business' end of the season.

I'm sure any Harriers fan worth their salt would have snatched your hand off had you offered them this position with just a handful of key games left to play; here's to a successful end to a brilliant term.

We come up against Luton today – for the second time and quite possibly not the last. Mathematicians everywhere would have you believe it's us against the Harriers in a potential play-off semi-final, but there is a long, long way to go before that's nailed down.

Plenty of points to play for; goals to be scored, highs and lows to take in – and the latest instalment gets underway at 3pm today... bring it on!

Injury Time

With GAVIN CROWE

I'd like to start off today's notes by giving you an update on Tom Sharpe's rehabilitation from a dislocated knee.

Tom is progressing quite well as we speak, considering the extent of the injury. There's still quite a bit of swelling just above the knee but, all in all, he is moving on well and is beginning to graduate exercises that are a little bit more exciting. He'll at least have a beach body to die for in the summer once we've got through everything we're doing! Tom is staying plenty positive and is working very hard, his attitude is excellent.

season but this pain is now not at a level that will cause him to miss any game time.

We suffered a few impact injuries from the game at Mansfield and Tom Shaw's was the worst of these. It was an injury to the bottom of his foot following what looked like a pretty nasty challenge and he's also had some pain around the top of his foot as well. An X-ray has confirmed there is no fracture so it is just a matter of working with him. It's going to be tight to get him available for today's game but we're doing as much as we can to get him right.

Cheers,
Gavin

Sean Canham's Achilles problem has proved to be quite a tricky little issue. We believe a bursa that sits just in front of the Achilles has become inflamed and this is what's causing Sean's discomfort. We've been working with him to get through games but we decided to investigate a little further with a change of boots and orthotics. The orthotics have made a difference, and the change in his boost style has been massive. Thanks to Mark Albrighton, he was able to get through 90 minutes last Saturday without any real discomfort. We're confident we've resolved the issue but will obviously manage his pain between now and the end of the

JAMILLE MATT A HAPPY JAMMA...

FOOTBALL IS a wonderful, if strange game. We all know that here at Aggborough this season, but it seems Jamille Matt may realise it more than most.

The young striker is enjoying a fantastic start to life in professional football as part of the squad here at Harriers, but just months ago that would have seemed unimaginable.

The 21 year-old was a prolific striker for Sutton Coldfield Town last season, banging the goals in for fun. However, fresh faces at Town and an injury blip for big Jamma left him on the outside looking in, despite his obvious talent an eye for a strike.

Matt revealed to this week's D&A Interview that he had even considered giving up on the game at one stage - until a call from Aggborough saw his career take a surprise twist.

Steve Burr and Gary Whild threw the Walsall-born player a life-line: first the chance to impress in a closed-doors game against Harriers, then as part of their squad as they took him away from Sutton on non-contract terms.

Clearly he's not looked back since then - his hustle-and-bustle performances and tremendous work-rate have seen him adjust to life in the Blue Square Bet Premier with alarming ease. There was a permanent contract, too, until the end of the current season as the easy-going net-buster continues to progress.

"I'd come back from an injury when I got a phone call saying that Kiddy wanted me to come and train," recalled Jamille, of how his whirlwind move came about.

"I was delighted and just wanted to get things moving as quickly as possible; I played in a friendly game for Sutton at Aggborough and I think within about a week I was in and signed, so it did move pretty fast.

"I was a bit down in the dumps at Sutton to be honest because I wasn't really getting a look in, despite the goals I'd scored there, and it sort of makes you question whether or not you actually have a future in football.

CHANGE

"All of that changed for me and I couldn't wait to get started here. I'm at a great club and I want to give it my best."

Most refreshing of all, though, is that the player is hardly likely to rest on his laurels now he's made the move.

He issued a somewhat chilling warning to Premier defences that there's still a lot more to come from this emerging talent.

For now it's a case of continuing to find his feet, he admits, and getting used to the level - he's happy to be playing a part. But it's hardly a shock to hear he has no plans on that being a bit-part role in the long term.

He went on to comment: "I'd like to think people haven't seen the best of me yet.

"It is a big step up, I know that myself and there is still a lot for me to learn and hopefully that will come over time if I'm given the chance.

"I want to improve and eventually I'm looking to be in the starting eleven week-in, week-out and if the gaffer chooses to sign me again I know I've got a lot still to show him."

It's clear, too, that the duo of Burr and Whild have played a big part in his switch from the Southern League First Division all the way up to the top rung in the non-league ladder.

The gaffer and his right hand man have been commended for how they've handled the trickiest of terms here in DY10, and Matt couldn't praise the influence of his management team enough, adding: "We wouldn't be where we are without them, that's pretty obvious.

"Their preparation is meticulous and training every day is good and keeps you wanting to come in and enjoy yourself.

"You can't single them out enough, they have been absolutely fantastic and any one of the lads would agree that they're the reason we've done so well on the pitch this year."

10 STUPID QUESTIONS FOR: Jamille Matt

Now that's over with... Down to something slightly sillier!

1) Football is no more! You must choose between a career as a PA announcer at a train station or selling parts for toy robots. Which is it to be?

I'd go for the PA announcer. It's always sounded a bit dull at stations so it'd be nice to liven it up a little bit.

2) We've never used the 'Matt Finish' line. How many times have you encountered that in your career?

To be honest I can't say I get that too often at all.

3) You are to take a trip into space and are allowed one travel buddy. Who's it to be?

Hmm, well, it'd have to be someone who is a natural conversationalist.

Maybe Callum Gittings? He's a funny lad.

4) The average Swiss person eats almost 20lbs of chocolate a year. Did you know that?

I didn't know that, to be fair. That's an awful lot of chocolate for one person.

5) Though, come to think of it, it's apparently illegal to slam your car door in Switzerland. How about that?

I best not slam my car door there, then! It would depend on how angry I was...I need to do a bit more research on that one I think.

8) You may invent a crumble of your very own to go alongside the apples and cherries of this world. What would you crumble?

A bit of cheesecake. You can't beat a bit of cheesecake.

7) What's the absolute best dinner, ever?

A home-cooked dinner from my mum.

8) Well all have our own way of eating a creme egg. How about a scotch egg? Ever tried to lick the middle from one of those bad boys?

I can't say I have, you know? I'm not a massive fan of scotch eggs, to be fair, so you're not likely to catch me doing that.

9) Goal celebrations - hugs or high fives?

Hugs, a good bit of affection!

10) Ever seen a penguin fight?

Fight? Nick Wright on a night out, maybe??

That's a massive potential bargain of League football at Conference prices and, at the very least, it gives you more Blue Square Bet Premier action for the excellent value seen since August. For full information and prices of how you can book up, simply check out the local press, club website or the middle of your match programme today. However you do it, get involved and back the reds!

ACCEPTABLE BEHAVIOUR AGREEMENT - ABA

During the 2008/09 season the Club received many complaints about the anti-social behaviour of a small group of our younger supporters at our home and away matches both at the grounds and in the local community.

The activities of this small group have harmed the reputation and good name of the Club and the majority of our supporters who never cause any problems at any of our home or away matches. In order to tackle this problem, in consultation and partnership with West Mercia Police and the club have introduced a procedure known as 'Acceptable Behaviour Agreement' or 'ABA' in short.

The small problem group have been identified and all are being asked to sign the ABA in which they agree that their behaviour at any of our games, either at home or away, will not be such as to damage the good name or reputation of the club or lead to complaints from anyone about their conduct.

If they should breach the agreement then this could lead to them being banned from attending any matches or be used as evidence in any Court proceedings relating to their anti-social behaviour.

The club is confident that the majority of our supporters will welcome this positive move by the Club in taking some pro-active action to prevent the present problem escalating and only further damaging our good name. The agreement is in effect a 'Yellow Card' which hopefully the supporters concerned will respect and comply with. If they are genuine supporters of the Club, the ABA will hopefully encourage them to continue supporting us, but in a positive as distinct from negative manner.

KHIST

It is some 27 years since I last contributed to the match day programme.

Those of you with long memories will remember 'Chambo Chat', the Manager's notes of John Chambers, which I was responsible for writing! You might also remember the other column I wrote, 'Karl's Comments'. This was famous for other reasons! Those of you around at the time will remember it fondly...I hope!

I am writing these notes, having recently been elected as the KHIST representative to the main Board of Directors. Personally this is a proud moment for me. I have supported this unique football club since 1976. I have been extremely lucky to witness some wonderful moments in our club's history in this time. I now feel I can start to give something back to the club I love. After all, it has given me so much.

I joined the Trust last year because I felt it was time for everyone to pull in the right direction. I was impressed by Chairman, Dave Pountney's vision for the Trust and felt this was the right time to get involved. At the time I did not foresee the dark clouds that were to almost engulf the club in just a few short weeks. These were indeed dark days.

However, the true spirit of this football club was shown in our hour of need. In a magnificently-led KHIST media campaign, we brought the plight of our club to a wider audience. With the aid of monies pledged by our magnificent supporters, both through the club and the KHIST campaign we managed to push away those dark clouds and enable the club to continue its push for a play-off position.

This terrible period in the club's history is something I am sure none of us wish to see again. This is why we must now work together as one to ensure the future of our club - we all have a role to play in its future.

It was a long-term aim of the Trust to gain a seat on the Board of Directors. Now we have achieved it we must work hard to maintain this role. I am now the supporter's voice in the Boardroom. I can take ideas and suggestions from the terraces, channelled through the Trust, to the Board. With this position comes a high degree of confidentiality on my part. This I will respect. There is much work to be done off the field. The joint Boards of KHIST and KHFC are anxious to build on the goodwill created since our recent problems.

Finally, as I draw this column to a close, I find myself going back some 30 odd years. I was part of the foundations of KHIST. In those days it was called the Hawks club. We used to meet in the Harriers Social Club and our aim at the time was to find out why we could no longer travel to away games on the players coach! Things have moved on since then!

Before I close I must again mention John Chambers. Not only did he kick-start a new era of exciting football and winning sides, he inadvertently gave me the opportunity to contribute and play a role in the Harriers. We can all make some contribution and be part of this unique institution that is Kidderminster Harriers.

As we head towards the sharp end of the season Harriers further underlined their play-off credentials with yet another fine win as they came away from Mansfield Town with a 2-1 victory in their last outing.

I took a look at the remaining fixtures prior to that game at Field Mill and I was left thinking that potentially the matches at Mansfield and Grimsby were the tricky away fixtures Harriers had left - well, Mansfield didn't prove too much of a problem and so it is on to this afternoon and a home game against a Luton Town side that also has serious play-off aspirations.

Given that most people - including the league's sponsors - pretty much accept that Crawley are home and dry in terms of the title race, the play-off battle is a much more interesting affair. I think we can safely assume that AFC Wimbledon are likely to figure - they would need to implode spectacularly over the closing weeks of the season if they were to miss out while today's opponents, Luton, should also be in there. Not only are they six points better off than sixth-placed Fleetwood Town, they also games in hand over them as a result of their FA Trophy run.

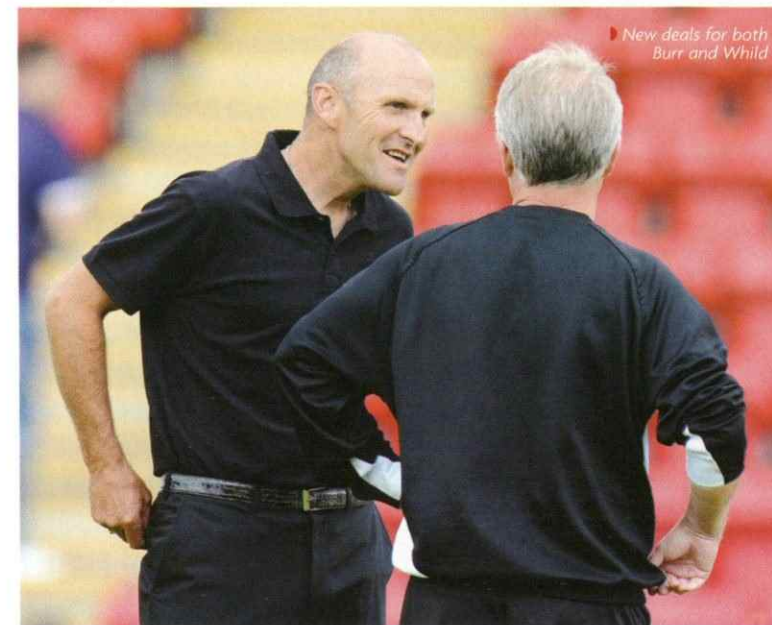

Wrexham and Harriers currently occupy the other play-off berths and their destiny would appear to be in their own hands - after all, fifth-placed Harriers are two points better off than Fleetwood and they have a game in hand.

Realistically, Fleetwood and York City are the only sides who can rain on Harriers and Wrexham's parade over the closing weeks of the season but for Fleetwood, in particular, the games are starting to run out.

"Since the last home game there has been the news of contract extensions for Steve Burr and Gary Whild and this news will surely be welcomed by all Harriers fans."

It is no wonder Premier Sports TV have decided to focus on Harriers' home game against Fleetwood Town which will now be played on Friday 22 April - after all, the result of that one could go a long way towards determining the outcome of the play-off battle. Of course, it could all resolved by then but if it isn't, then that could prove a very entertaining evening - especially if Fleetwood come to Aggborough needing a win to keep their hopes alive.

Many Harriers fans will reflect on what might have been, in the sense of 'What if we hadn't had those five points deducted?', but I am sure Steve Burr will feel there is little point in thinking about what might have been. If Harriers do ultimately make the play-offs having had those five points taken away, then their achievement will be all the more impressive. Since the last home game there has been the news of contract extensions for Steve Burr and Gary Whild and this will surely be welcomed by all Harriers fans. After all, the management duo has produced a highly competitive paying for players, it is gratifying that Harriers have proved you can still be on a limited budget. Of course, the club is still far from out of the woods financially, so there is little likelihood of there being any money to spend to strengthen the squad during the summer, but Steve Burr is well aware of this and he and Gary Whild will again be scouring the feeder leagues for those players they feel can cut it at the higher level.

New deals for both Burr and Whild

Luton Town are among those clubs who probably feel their destiny lies in winning promotion back to the Football League, but similarly they are realistic enough to know they have no divine right to a place in the Football League. For those of use of a certain age, it doesn't seem that long ago since Luton were securing their top-flight status on the final day of the season when their then manager David Pleat was dancing across the pitch in celebration. Sadly, it was actually the 1982-83 season in which Raddy Antic netted the goal four minutes from time that meant Luton stayed up.

Here's hoping this afternoon's game lives up to the billing - two of the league's top clubs meeting head on with play-off points at stake, it certainly has the ingredients.

Enjoy the game, and here's hoping we can celebrate a Harriers win...

The editor of "Programme Monthly & Football Collectable" magazine explains the joys – and financial rewards – of collecting football programmes.

In the last article, we looked at the distinction between commonplace and rare (and therefore more valuable) programmes from a similar era. A classic example of this is programmes from the first ever League Cup competition, in 1960/61. Due to the scarcity of some of these issues, the historical significance of clubs' first ever League Cup ties, and the unusual, abbreviated nature of some of the programmes, this has become a popular set to collect. As a result, prices are higher than for the equivalent League matches from that season, and in cases of genuine scarcity, markedly so.

For more than a decade, the Football League had gazed over the border in envy at the success, and large attendances, of the Scottish League Cup. In 1960, it was decided to introduce a knock-out competition, primarily as a fund-raiser for lower division clubs. The country's top clubs immediately decided not to enter. Champions Burnley did, but the next four highest placed clubs in the previous season's League Championship, Wolves, Spurs, West Brom and Sheffield Wednesday, declined the invitation, as did Arsenal.

Played in midweek, there was an immediately problem with the absence of floodlights at several clubs' grounds, and there was some confusion between first and second round fixtures, some of which were played simultaneously. Nottingham Forest, for instance, described their opening match in the competition, against Halifax Town at The City Ground on 6th October, as a "First Round" tie on the front cover of their programme, but it was in fact a second round match, both clubs having received byes in the first round.

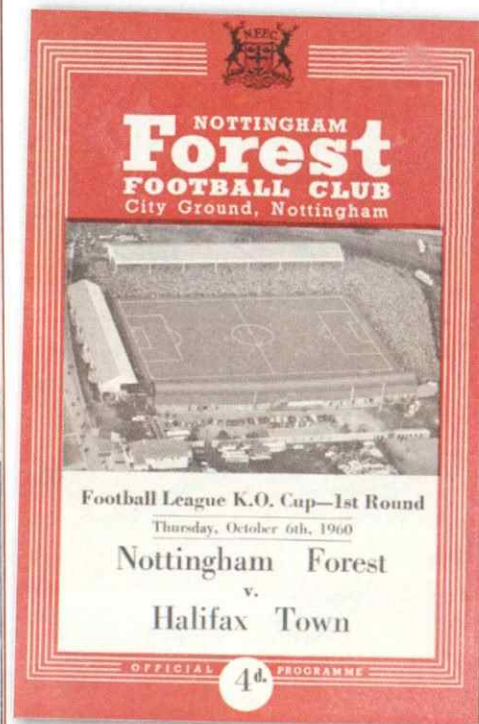

First Division Forest was one of several competing clubs who had yet to install floodlights. However, in an attempt to bring in the crowds, they arranged the match on "Goose Fair Thursday", and were rewarded with a decent crowd, which justified their decision to produce a full-sized, 16 page programme.

Bournemouth's 1-1 draw with Crewe Alexandra in the second round had a mid-day kick off and was watched by just 3,208 loyal supporters (less than half their previous average). This programme is harder to obtain than the Gillingham v Preston 1-1 draw, which was also played on a midweek afternoon. Unlike the first match, the replay at Deepdale took place under floodlights. Preston (who won 3-0) issued a single sheet programme, as was their practice for reserve games and the occasional re-arranged League match, and fewer of these single card programmes have survived.

The second round saw the debut of Manchester United in the competition, and the programme for their 1-1 draw at Exeter City is much sought after by United collectors, while Leeds United's 3-1 replay win at Blackpool saw a single sheet produced by the Tangerines. This is now very rare, and fetches a considerable sum when it appears on the market.

"Programme Monthly" is a 160 page magazine, now in its 30th year, and is available for £3.40 (inclusive of postage) or 9 x 1st class stamps from PO Box 3236, Norwich, NR7 7BE. www.pmf.co.uk

Sometimes you just don't know when you're onto a good thing, do you? You tend to think the grass will be greener on the other side but no; this is not always the case.

This leads me to the question of why Ashley Cole keeps thinking he's some kind of 'untouchable' within the world of football? His latest stunt a month or so ago was not only idiotic but dangerous, too.

There's only one kind of shooting practice that footballers should take part in and it doesn't involve an air rifle! What possible reason could there be for a rifle of any kind to be anywhere near a football facility? To get involved in that kind of tomfoolery, you'd have to be extremely stupid or naive and so arrogant that you think you can get away with anything. It's times like this that I'm glad I'm not a supporter of a Premier League side where most of the players think they can act as they please and be forgiven should they ever do any wrong.

They know very well that kids all over the country and the world want to be where they are, playing at the highest level; adored and idolised with their flash lifestyles. Why, then, do these players feel they can act beyond the expectations of the rest of society? They just don't appreciate how fortunate they are and become so arrogant that they feel they can do what they want and expect us to accept it – because they are 'stars' of the game. As a supporter of football, I find it embarrassing when I read about the players sometimes. I know it's not just the Premier League players, it happens right through the footballing pyramid in various degrees.

What I do find quite humbling are those players that simply turn their back on football, not through a career ending-injury but quite simply because they no longer feel comfortable in the football environment for whatever reason. As fans, we look up to our boys and, to us, they are almost god-like. They are the heroes we worship on Saturdays (and mid-week games) they represent our town, city and sometimes country. So why, if they have it all – or so it seems – would any football player simply walk away from the great game?

Back in 2008, LA Galaxy player Ty Harden decided that he could do more than just play soccer (he meant football), so he turned his back on the game to 'help and do things for others'. Sounds strange perhaps but don't most of us get to work some days to think 'there must be more to life'? You'd think making it as a professional football player would be enough for some, wouldn't you? I'd certainly have settled for that career had it not been for the knee twinge which sadly prevented me making it any further than the Sunday morning sides' subs bench (It may well have been that I was rubbish, but I prefer the knee twinge story).

Even stranger than the Ty Harden tale is that of Portsmouth striker Rory Allen, who in 2002 decided that rather than be a Pro footballer, he preferred to hang up his boots and join the 'Barmy Army', following the England cricket team around the world. Perhaps, in both these cases, there was a little more to it than each player let on – who knows why they'd do it?

Let's hope all eleven of our lads are 100% up for it today. Now we need to do our bit and show them that we're 100% behind them!

Over the last decade the Football Foundation has invested in more than 8,000 grass roots sports projects worth £1bn with money provided by the Premier League, The FA and Government.

This means that more clubs, schools and their local communities across the country are enjoying new, state-of-the-art pitches and facilities than ever before.

Steve TAYLOR(not the Cannock postman)*

This Steve Taylor spent the 2006-07 season as a back-up keeper to regular stopper Scott Bevan, having joined Harriers from AFC Telford United. Was part of Harriers' Wembley squad and played in the semi-final second leg, against Steve Burr's Northwich Victoria.

Steve McMAHON(not the former England and Liverpool midfielder)*

Well, nearly, he's his son. Played six games for Harriers during the 2004-05 season, on loan from Blackpool

John McGRATH(the Scottish one)*

This John McGrath joined Harriers in the summer of 1990 from local rivals Worcester City. Spent around three years at Aggborough and played in the 1991 FA Trophy Final.

Ian BRITTON(not the Scottish footballer)*

Brit is best remembered for his spell as Harriers manager between 2002 and 2003. Even then, he was often confused with the former Chelsea star by opponents in programmes and the like. Prior to his spell in the hot-seat, Britton managed Harriers' Reserve and Youth teams and managed Bridgnorth Town.

Mark ALBRIGHTON(not the Villa winger)*

Our current defensive rock shares the name of the young Aston Villa star Marc. However, it must be pointed out that our Albrighton is the original

Colin BRAZIER(not the Sky News reporter)*

Brazier joined Harriers from Walsall in 1986 and was part of the 1987 FA

Trophy winning team. His career also saw him appear for Wolverhampton Wanderers, Birmingham City, Lincoln City and also a spell in the NASL with Jacksonville Teamen.

Steve TAYLOR(not the former Telford keeper)*

Taylor joined Harriers in 1998 and was part of the 1999-2000 Championship squad. Also enjoyed spells with Hednesford Town, and most notably Crystal Palace.

John McGRATH(the Irish one)*

McGrath appeared in Harriers 2004-05 team which lost their League 2 status. Has since returned to the League with Burton Albion.

Dave JONES(not the Cardiff boss)*

This particular Dave Jones enjoyed a brief spell with Harriers towards the end of the 1982-83 season. Jones joined from Cheltenham Town, and helped Harriers to promotion the Conference.

Jesper CHRISTIANSEN(not the Danish goalkeeper)*

Christiansen joined Harriers in 2004 and made his debut in the FA Cup Third Round tie against Wolves. Went on to play for Dunfermline in Scotland and his currently with FC Fredericia in Denmark. His namesake played for Rangers in Scotland and also won 11 full Danish caps.

Tony ROBINSON(not the bloke who played Baldrick in Blackadder)*

Robinson appeared for Harriers between 1997 and 1999. Since leaving Aggborough he has enjoyed a nomadic career at the likes of Kettering Town, Mansfield Town and Worcester City.

The BENCH

And just missing out on my namesakes team are two of our current squad in Danny Lewis and Jack Byrne. If Danny's middle name was 'Day', then he would have made it. As for Jack, if it was 'Byrnes' and not 'Byrne' then he would share Robert De Niro's character name from, 'Meet The Fockers'.

As we move into the last part of the season, I think it's pretty clear who will be joining the Football League next season as BSBP Champions.

Crawley have made the most of their games in hand and built up a healthy lead at the top of the table. 13 points clear of AFC Wimbledon in second; it seems the chasers have given up the chase. A 2-0 win in midweek, including a 31st league goal of the season for Matt Tubbs, underlined their ambition to get promoted in the most fashionable sense possible.

But, who is going to join them? There are a host of teams still hopeful they can be victorious in the play-offs, but they have to qualify for them first. AFC Wimbledon, who looked like gaining automatic promotion for so long, should be in the final four. A Danny Kedwell goal saw off Rushden and Diamonds 1-0 last Saturday, keeping them firmly in the play-off places.

Today's opponents Luton, who were always expected to challenge, are also confident of holding on to their play-off place. However, a defeat to Southport last Saturday, followed by a disappointing goalless draw with Barrow in midweek, has seen confidence hit in the Luton camp. Manager Gary Brabin will be keen to remind his side there is plenty more to fight for and they must keep their concentration if they are to gain promotion.

Financially-troubled Wrexham have had a hard time recently, with a transfer embargo still holding the club back. But, they are still in the play-offs and could really benefit from promotion if they did manage it. Dean Saunders has admitted that the transfer embargo could halt the progress of his side at this vital time of the season. Obviously, our own Harriers are in with a good shout of promotion. However, Fleetwood and York are just a handful of point behind and will sure to be put under plenty of pressure between now and the end of the season.

At the other end of the table, things look very bleak for Histon. 13 points from safety at the bottom, it looks like their Blue Square Bet Premier adventure could be at an end come the tail of April. Without a win since mid-February, even the most optimistic fans must be starting to accept relegation.

Eastbourne are in just as much trouble as Histon. Just two points better off; they have only managed one win in March. Despite a mini-revival during the start of 2011, it looks like they could be exiting the division the wrong way this year. After battling so hard to stay up last year, it looks as if they will be unable to complete the feat this time around.

As for who could join them, who knows?! Forest Green and Hayes and Yeading are the current occupiers of the rest of the relegation zone, but there are several teams that are looking nervously over their shoulder.

Alton, Southport, Tamworth, Barrow and Cambridge are all in danger of slipping down. They will have to find some good form before the end of the season if they are to avoid the dreaded drop.

There seems to be a lot of things unsolved at this late point of the term. One thing that is for sure, though: we are still in for plenty of twists and turns before this unpredictable season is finished. Let the games begin!

SEASON TICKETS 2011/12

Kidderminster Harriers Football Club have launched a major offer to all supporters to take up the opportunity of possibly watching Football League action at Football Conference prices in 2011/12 through the sale of EarlyBird Season Tickets.

Fantastic results on the pitch mean Harriers have a real shout for promotion up to League 2 at the end of this term. Support has been on the increase, too; after averaging just 1,300 for much of 2010/11 the club's last three home fixtures have seen a lowest of 1,800 with the highest topping 3,000.

With this in mind, the club has taken the step of putting next season's Season Tickets on sale NOW, and at the same price level paid by fans for this Blue Square Bet Premier campaign. Quite simply that means that fans purchasing theirs between now and the cut-off point of Saturday, 23 April 2011 could land a massive bargain of League 2 Football at Bet Premier prices.

Harriers have also introduced further value into the mix - the previous concessionary age of over 65 has now been lowered to include anyone over the age of 60, whilst a price bracket has also been included to cater for young persons whose next step after school is away from the education system - between the ages of 16 to 18, these individuals will only pay a student price.

What's more, the popular three-month instalment plan that allowed Season Ticket buyers to spread the cost of their purchase has now been extended to four months, spanning April to July 2011.

For example, an adult, North Stand Season Ticket for 2011/12, if purchased between the above dates, will cost just £57 per-month in instalments, working out at less than £10 per League match.

Harriers are setting an ambitious target of 1,000 Season Tickets to be sold for 2011/12 - Chairman Mark Serrell making it perfectly clear that such an achievement would enable the Board to equip boss Burr with his 'dream team' for the new term - and let's hope that's a League 2 campaign. The support of Harriers fans everywhere can make that happen!

Serrell commented: "We have been overwhelmed by the support the local community has shown the club over the last few months and this is a fantastic chance for us to carry that into the new season.

"The results on the pitch have been magnificent and I think fans can see that we are pushing hard for the Football League this year - we want them to stick with us for the run-in and beyond and this is the perfect way for them to do that."

Season Tickets are on sale from the Aggborough Ticket office immediately - supporters can purchase by completing the form to the left and returning it to the Office or by calling 01562 823 931 for more details, or to buy by phone.

YOUTHS THUMP MALVERN MALVERN 0-3 HARRIERS

Harriers picked up all three points on the road at Malvern recently with a comfortable 3-0 win.

Redd Savage grabbed a brace for the Reds whilst Jack Moore also got himself on the score sheet as Harriers racked up their ninth win of the Midland Floodlit Youth League Premier South campaign.

Coach Nick Griffiths spoke following the victory and said: "The goals came about largely due to mistakes Malvern made defensively but credit to the players for taking advantage and putting them away."

"It's fair to say we were by far the better side, though we played well without truly dominating as we'd like. We played some great football at times but didn't really break them down enough."

Griffiths also confirmed that Harriers lost Harvey Parkes to injury during the game.

DAN SIGNED UP

Harriers last week signed a hugely promising member of the Youth Team squad to first-team forms.

17 year-old central midfielder player Dan Taylor, who has spent time training with the squad this season, is now registered to feature in Blue Square Bet Premier action if selected.

Boss Steve Burr told harriers.co.uk: "Dan is a lad we've had training with us and he's someone we're very keen to keep an eye on."

"He's versatile and can play in a number of positions and, whilst he's probably going to get more opportunities around pre-season time in the summer, we'd have no hesitation in getting him involved sooner if need be."

KEEP UP WITH THE YOUNG GUNS

Wright held off the attentions of his marker before lashing one past goalkeeper Brown and off the foot of the post.

P42-43: THE STORY SO FAR
P44: THE PLAYERS
P45: LEADING LIGHTS
P46: FLASHBACKS

SO underrated were his side by some back in the summer, Steve Burr has made it clear there is no pressure on his squad as they battle for the play-offs. Over at Luton Town, things aren't as relaxed.

Such is the club's illustrious history and large fan base, an immediate return to the Football League was expected of the Hatters when they came down to non-league football last term. It looked less than a nailed on certainty for then-boss Mick Harford, and he paid the price.

"Such is the club's illustrious history and large fan base, an immediate return to the Football League was expected of the Hatters when they came down to non-league football last term."

In came ex-Walsall Chief Richard Money — he took Town to the play-off semi-finals last term but was denied at the death. He was, you always thought, on borrowed time going into this very campaign. The start was good — but in recent weeks things had faltered slightly from the unbelievably high expectations set at the club. A 2-1 defeat at Southport last weekend was the final straw; Money is now searching for a new job, and it's up to his former number two, Gary Brabin to make sure the Hatters achieve what they feel they're entitled to.

Brabin may not have time on his side, but experience is at least with him. He knows all about the play-offs, with a semi-final and final defeat on his record as boss at Cambridge. It may be that Luton feel that if any man can do it, it's him.

Fair play to the new boss himself, who presided over a 0-0 draw at home to Barrow in midweek — he knows his remit. He told the official Luton Town website: "I think the most important thing at the moment is getting this good group of players performing to the best of their ability — that's my main aim."

"I've got ten games now to get all those players firing on all cylinders and get the best XI in my head for the play-offs to hopefully win promotion."

Brabin at least has another ally in the battle to satiate crushing expectation — the omens. Harford's departure left the Hatters with upheaval in the management office when they came to Aggborough last season. A 2-1 win that day contributed to a run of just one defeat in eleven games — a similar return following this afternoon's encounter would go some way to putting on course.

Luton surprisingly parted company with Richard Money earlier this week, as they set assistant Gary Brabin a ten match task to deliver promotion, although, in reality, there seems too much ground to make up on Crawley at the summit, and they will hope that the play-offs offer better fortune than last season.

Back in the close season, the side which reached the play-off semi-final was refreshed with a number of new additions.

Kevin Pilkington added competition in goal following his arrival from Notts County, whilst Dan Gleeson switched from Cambridge United alongside Zdenek Kroca who arrived from Tescoma Zlin in the Czech Republic. In midfield, Andy Drury made the short journey from Stevenage, but was sold on to Ipswich at the end of the transfer window. The array of attacking talent was augmented by Cambridge United's Danny Crow and Bedford Town's Dan Walker.

With the season underway, former Ilkeston striker Amari Morgan-Smith signed for the club, whilst midfielders Alex Lawless and Charlie Henry joined on loan from York and Newport County respectively ahead of a full-time move in January, as well as Barrow forward Jason Walker. In the New Year, defender Luke Graham signed on loan from Kettering, whilst winger Robbie Willmott made a permanent move from Cambridge United, and subsequently fellow midfielder Paul Carden has signed temporarily from the Abbey Stadium club. Lloyd Owusu provided yet another option in attack following his return to England from Australia.

It was a good start to the season, with three straight wins. Kroca and Matthew Barnes-Homer produced a 2-1 home win over Altrincham, whilst Barnes-Homer scored in an excellent 3-1 win at Kettering, and Town hit three more goals away from home as Barnes-Homer, Claude Gnaka and Tom Craddock secured a 3-0 victory at Fleetwood. Kroca secured a 1-1 home draw with Newport County, but a surprise 1-1 reverse at Tamworth was followed by a 1-1 home draw with Hayes & Yeading United, in which Drury equalised.

September started with a 2-0 loss at Grimsby, but the rest of the month was positive as Drury and George Pilkington set up a 2-0 home success over Cambridge United, which Pilkington, Kroca and Barnes-Homer earned an important 3-0 home win against AFC Wimbledon. Gnaka and Jake Howells claimed a 2-2 draw at Darlington, before a 1-0 defeat at Gateshead. However, a debut goal from Morgan-Smith, alongside Crow meant the slide was halted as Town stood in sixth spot.

October got underway with a 1-0 victory at Barrow through Barnes-Homer, ahead of a significant 2-1 home defeat to Crawley, but the trip to Eastbourne Borough yielded a 4-2 win through Crow's brace, as well as Pilkington and Barnes-Homer. Back at Kenilworth Road, Forest Green Rovers were humbled 6-1 with two more from Crow, and contributions from Drury, Morgan-Smith, Barnes-Homer and Walker. In the FA Cup, a local derby with St Albans was won 4-0 through Morgan-Smith's treble and one from Crow, and the month was rounded off by a 3-1 home victory against Bath, as Crow, Pilkington and Taiwo Atieno scored.

Moving into November, and Barnes-Homer's equaliser prevented an upset in the 1-1 FA Cup draw at Corby, but a 1-0 Blue Square Premier defeat followed at Wrexham, corrected by a 1-0 success at Altrincham, secured by Lawless. Progress was earned in the Cup as Corby were beaten 4-2 through Barnes-Homer, Atieno and Gnaka. The goals continued to flow as Histon were seen off 5-1 by Gnaka, Howells, Walker, Drury and Atieno, whilst Drury levelled twice in an impressive 2-2 FA Cup draw at Charlton. The replay was lost 3-1, before the Trophy opened with a 0-0 home draw with Welling and a 2-1 away win, thanks to Walker and Lawless in the closing minutes.

An undefeated January saw the Bedfordshire side move to within two points of the top, although Crawley had two games in hand. Barnes-Homer scored twice, alongside Gnaka in the 3-0 home success over Rushden, with the latter netting the winner in the 1-0 success at Hayes. 0-0 draws were collected at Bath and AFC Wimbledon, with advancement in the Trophy through a 4-0 home victory against Uxbridge in which Atieno and Adam Watkins both scored twice. They hit five without reply against York, as Drury, Gnaka, Owusu, Kroca and Atieno scored, whilst Crow and Gnaka brought a recovery from two goals down in the 2-2 home draw with Gateshead. Gnaka continued his fine form by scoring the winner in the 1-0 home victory against Grimsby.

He scored for the fourth game in a row in a 4-0 home win over Darlington, alongside Owusu's brace and Lawless' goal, whilst Graham scored in the 1-0 home victory against Gloucester City in the Trophy. As the Hatters closed in on Wembley, league results slipped as a 3-1 home defeat was suffered to Fleetwood, whilst Willmott scored in a 1-1 draw at Newport. However, a 1-0 win at Guiseley, thanks to Barnes-Homer, put the Bedfordshire club into the Trophy semi-final.

Moving into March, Owusu was on target as Luton won 1-0 at Forest Green, but a lead provided by Barnes-Homer was lost in the 1-1 home draw with Kidderminster. Owusu and Barnes-Homer combined in the 2-0 home success against Tamworth; however, the first leg of the Trophy semi-final brought a 1-0 reverse at Mansfield. A 0-0 draw at Cambridge United divided the two legs, with Owusu levelling the tie at Kenilworth Road, but a late extra time leveller denied the Hatters a penalty shoot-out. Back in the Blue Square Premier, Willmott netted the winner as they won 1-0 at Rushden, but a shock 2-1 loss at Southport ended Money's spell at the club.

THE MANAGER

GARY BRABIN

Brabin took up the reins as Manager of Luton Town on Monday of this week following the departure of Richard Money by mutual consent.

Originally brought to the club as Chief Scout at the time Money was appointed manager in October 2009, Brabin was reassigned in the new role as assistant manager in the summer of 2010 before making the step up.

After playing over 275 times in League football as a tough-tackling midfielder, Brabin moved into management firstly with Southport - guiding them to the Conference North Play-offs - before moving south to manage Cambridge United in 2008.

In his first - and eventually only - season at the Abbey Stadium he guided the U's to the Blue Square Premier Play-off final after finishing runners-up to champions Burton Albion, but lost to Torquay United at Wembley.

Despite that set-back Brabin was awarded the BSP Manager of the Year award before behind the scenes differences at the Abbey led to him leaving the club in July 2009 before arriving at Kenilworth Road.

His first game in charge was a 0-0 draw with Barrow at Kenilworth Road on Tuesday night.

We take a check on those who could be among the starters at Aggborough tonight.

Zdenek KROCA

Centre-half who impressed in assured display alongside George Pilkington in two pre-season fixtures in 2010 to earn a one-year contract. Kroca made 169 league appearances belt in 10 years with hometown club Tescoma Zlin in his native Czech Republic. Last season the imposing 6ft 5in defender was in fine, commanding form, scoring four times in 27 league appearances.

Keith KEANE

Having made his debut as a 16-year-old in November 2003, Keane is another product of the youth system who regularly appeared for the Republic of Ireland at schoolboy level. He joined the Hatters at the age of nine, and made a rapid progression through the club's centre of excellence and youth teams. Truly versatile, he's quickly racked up around 200 games for the club.

Matthew BARNES-HOMER

A familiar face in the Hatters' ranks, Barnes-Homer joined Luton from Aggborough last season, going on to make an instant impression. Had joined Harriers in 2007 as something of a raw product; honing his skills in front of goal to become one of non-league's top marksmen. Currently Luton's leading goal scorer and an England C International.

Mark TYLER

Tyler is a hugely experienced goalkeeper who signed a two-year contract at Kenilworth Road in June 2009 after leaving Peterborough. Mark made 483 appearances in 15 years at London Road and was rewarded for his loyalty with a testimonial against Liverpool in 2007. The former Bury man is an ex-England Youth International.

Jake HOWELLS

The young winger, who can also play at left-back, came through the ranks at Kenilworth Road and made his first team debut in May 2008. In his first season as a pro, Howells made huge strides with impressive performances on the left-side of midfield, ending the 2009/10 campaign with six goals, including his first senior goal in the incredible 4-3 win over Cambridge in September.

Alex LAWLESS

A former Wales Under-21 midfielder who signed in November 2010 initially on-loan from York before a permanent deal went through in January. He only joined York at the start of last season, impressing then boss Martin Foyle enough to prise the 25-year-old away from Forest Green where performances in a variety of positions had also caught the eye of League scouts.

Lloyd OWUSU

The Ghanaian international arrived at Kenilworth Road after a spell in Australia with Adelaide United and signed a deal with the Town until the end of the season. The front-man enjoyed a prolific career in England prior to his move Down Under having netted 144 times in 350 starts for a number of Football League clubs.

George PILKINGTON

Having began his career as an Everton trainee, Pilkington joined Port Vale in June 2003 and went on to make more than 200 appearances for the club before joining Luton in 2008, an injury-hit first season still ending with a Johnstone's Paint Trophy winners' medal. His impeccable form on the pitch last term led to him winning a string of end-of-season awards.

Dan GLEESON

Tall and athletic defender, primarily a right-back, Gleeson signed for the Hatters in the summer of 2010 from his home town club Cambridge United. A product of the U's academy, Gleeson made his debut at 18 and soon became a regular at the Abbey Stadium. One of the best right-backs outside the Football League, Gleeson's performances have seen him rewarded with seven England C caps.

Robbie WILLMOTT

Robbie is a Harlow-born winger who penned an 18-month contract with the Hatters in January 2011 after hitting ten goals for Cambridge United, for whom he made a senior debut at just 17. Capable of playing on either wing or behind the front two, Willmott came through the ranks at the Abbey Stadium and wowed the home faithful with his pace, dribbling, close control and eye for goal.

Claude GNAKPA

A defender capable of playing centre back or full back, who joined on a free transfer in August 2008, Claude plied his trade across Europe with Montpellier HSC, Racing de Santander, Deportivo Alaves and FC Vaduz of Liechtenstein before spells in England with Swindon, and Peterborough, winning promotion with the latter. A favourite with the Kenilworth Road crowd.

CLASSIC CAMPAIGN 1987-88

Ray Harford plotted Luton Town's 1988 Littlewoods Cup final triumph. Danny Wilson replaced Peter Nicholas in midfield, while Micky Weir arrived from Hibernian and Mike Newell moved to Leicester. The Hatters won 5-2 at Oxford and Ian Allinson was signed from Stoke in October, with Luton losing just twice in 12 matches including a 7-4 win the return match against Oxford, finishing ninth in the top-flight. They defeated Wigan 5-2, Coventry 3-1, Ipswich 1-0, Bradford City 2-0 and Oxford 3-1 in the Littlewoods Cup before beating Arsenal 3-2 in the final. Luton were also FA Cup semi-finalists and Simod Cup finalists.

MANAGING TO SUCCEED DAVID PLEAT

Articulate manager David Pleat guided Luton Town to the Second Division title in 1981-82. A former winger, he played for Nottingham Forest, Luton, Shrewsbury, Exeter and Peterborough before becoming Nuneaton's player-boss. He rejoined Luton as coach in July 1972 and became manager in January 1978, guiding the Hatters to the FA Cup semi-finals in 1984-85. Taking charge of Spurs in May 1986, he led them to the 1987 FA Cup final, then managed Leicester City before rejoining Luton in June 1991. He took the Hatters to the FA Cup semi-finals again in 1993-94, leaving in June 1995. Now working in the media.

FAB FOUR BRUCE RIOCH

Influential midfielder Bruce Rioch was capped 24 times by Scotland after leaving Luton Town. Signing professional for Luton in September 1964, he starred in the 1967-68 Fourth Division title triumph and netted 46 goals in 149 League games prior to joining Aston Villa for £100,000 in July 1969. He was a key figure in their 1971-72 Third Division title success and moved to Derby County in February 1974, helping to win the League Championship in 1974-75. He played for Everton, Derby again and Torquay, since managing Middlesbrough, Millwall, Bolton Wanderers, Arsenal, Norwich City and Wigan Athletic.

RICKY HILL

England international midfielder Ricky Hill was 'Player of the Year' when Luton Town won the Second Division title in 1981-82. Signing professional at Kenilworth Road in May 1976, he was 'Player of the Year' again in 1982-83 and starred as Luton were FA Cup semi-finalists in 1984-85. He featured in two consecutive Littlewoods Cup finals including the 1988 Wembley triumph and netted 54 goals in 436 League games before moving to Le Havre in July 1989. Reuniting with David Pleat at Leicester City in August 1990 and later as a coach at Sheffield Wednesday and Spurs, he briefly rejoined Luton as manager.

BRIAN STEIN

England international striker Brian Stein scored twice in Luton Town's 1988 Littlewoods Cup final triumph. Moving to Kenilworth Road from Edgware Town in October 1977, he was leading marksman in Luton's 1981-82 Second Division success and also starred as they were FA Cup semi-finalists in 1984-85 and 1987-88. He joined French side Caen in July 1988 and moved via Annecy back to Luton in July 1991. Voted 'Player of the Year' for the second time in 1991-92, he netted 130 goals in 427 League games overall for the Hatters before joining Barnet in August 1992. His younger brother Mark also played for Luton.

MALCOLM MACDONALD

Ace marksman Malcolm Macdonald was capped 14 times by England after leaving Luton Town. Initially with Tonbridge, he joined Fulham in August 1968 and moved to Kenilworth Road in July 1969. He was Luton's top scorer in two consecutive seasons including the 1969-70 promotion success and netted 49 goals in 88 League games before being sold to Newcastle United for £180,000 in May 1971. An FA Cup finalist in 1974, he joined Arsenal for £333,000 in August 1976 and was an FA Cup finalist again in 1978 before injury ended his career. He managed Fulham and Huddersfield Town and has since worked in the media.

Ex-Harrier Matty Barnes-Homer fires home against his now current employers

Saturday, 10 October, 2009

HARRIERS 1-2 LUTON TOWN

Harriers were defeated by two Luton goals in the last fifteen minutes, including a last-minute winner, that left them rueing missed chances in a dramatic and controversial first half.

The first half was initially good for Harriers, the visitors allowing them plenty of time and space to knock the ball around. It was Luton, however, who had the first good chance to open the scoring: Chris McPhee, still in the heart of the defence in an unchanged Harriers side, made a poor clearance that was played back in to Ben Wright who hit his shot on the turn over the bar.

A minute later Harriers were ahead: Duane Courtney's cross from the right found Matt Barnes-Homer at the near post on the edge of the penalty area, he chested the ball down and spun and hit a low shot across Mark Tyler in The Hatters' goal to record his seventh goal of the season.

Harriers should have built upon their lead, and could have had the game wrapped up long before the drama kicked-off; Lee Baker's cross from the left was flicked on by Barnes-Homer just out of the reach of Robbie Matthews shortly after the goal. On the half-hour Barnes-Homer's cross from the right picked out Brian Smikle whose goal bound header was well saved by Tyler and when Barnes-Homer fired the loose ball back across goal there was nobody there to apply the finishing touch. Five minutes before the interval Baker's corner from the right was not cleared and McPhee saw his shot cleared off the line.

Moments later the game was turned upon its head. Luton midfielder Rossi Jarvis made a needless, reckless, challenge on McPhee on the touchline near midfield and was shown the red card. McPhee hobbled on for a short while but had to be substituted by Gavin Caines. In stoppage time at the end of the half Harriers themselves were reduced to ten men when Matthews was adjudged to have stamped on Tyler as he leapt over him as the keeper saved at his feet, the referee possibly influenced by the reaction of Tyler and the baying Luton fans just a few yards away behind the goal.

After the interval Luton began to take control of the game and kept Harriers penned back inside their own half for extended periods of the game. Ten minutes in, Adam Newton's cross from the right was headed wide of the far post by Asa Hall. At the other end Smikle had a great chance to double the lead on the hour, set up by Dean Bennett he lashed at his shot and blasted it over the bar from a narrow angle.

Freddie Murray set up another chance for Luton as the visitors continued to press but his cross from the left was headed weakly at Dean Coleman by substitute Ryan Charles. It was no surprise, then, when Town drew level with fifteen minutes still to play; a cross from the left was not cleared properly and fell to Newton who hit a blistering volley that gave Coleman no chance before going in off the bar.

Despite being pegged back for most of the half it seemed that Harriers would at least hold on to take a point but in the last minute they were sunk when Charles met Newton's cross from the right and lifted it past Coleman to send the visiting support into raptures.

Following a huge response from YOU, the Harriers fans, to our slashing of Away Travel prices for the game against Mansfield....we've decided to do it all again!

Hundreds of you took up the chance to travel for a tenner as the club, in conjunction with KHIST, made it just £10 across the board to hop on one of the official travel coaches to Field Mill to take in our fantastic 2-1 win.

With three further, huge Blue Square Bet Premier away games still left to come Harriers have decided to keep the cuts coming, by taking a huge chunk out of the prices you'd pay to travel to Grimsby Town, Eastbourne Borough and Rushden & Diamonds during April.

We're delighted to confirm that the following, universal prices will now apply to official travel coaches for those games.

Again, these are huge reductions to standard prices - we want as many of you as possible to take in that away day experience and back the boys on the road.

Each and every game is crucial beyond belief between now and the end of the season, so be sure to do all you can to back the team every step of the way.

You can book up for official travel by heading to the Aggborough ticket office or by calling 01562 823 931.
