BRABS

Good evening and welcome back to Kenilworth Road for tonight's big game against Cambridge United.

I'd like to give a warm welcome to Jez George, his players and staff plus the directors and supporters of Cambridge.

Our visitors this evening lie only a point behind us following another impressive victory and performance at the weekend when they beat Darlington at the Abbey Stadium.

Jez has worked wonders since he was appointed on a full-time basis and the improvement has been noticeable. We face a difficult task of keeping our good record here at Kenilworth Road intact tonight.

I am writing these notes in a very disappointed mood following Saturday's defeat to York City. It was an unacceptable performance, one we did not deserve to get anything out of. York were quicker, sharper and hungrier than us.

When you play a team of York's quality you need all of your players on your game and that just wasn't the case on Saturday.

The first half was an absolute disaster and while the second performance was an improvement, by then the game was over, we were three goals down and York had shut up shop.

Football is all about reactions and that's something I've asked my players to give me ever since I've been the manager of this Club.

It's important we react in the right way and I'm glad we have a game tonight because it gives us an immediate opportunity to put right the wrongs of Saturday.

After a start to the season that saw us unbeaten in 10 games and top the table it was hugely frustrating that that run came to an end and the manner in which it did so.

However we cannot afford to dwell on the disappointment and instead need to focus on the positives of the opening 11 matches of the season.

Up until Saturday we had performed really well, looked a real threat going forward and had kept an unbeaten record going – no easy feat in such a competitive division.

Only a week ago the mood was much brighter and we'd just seen off Lincoln in what was a fantastic performance having played three-quarters of the game with 10 men following Dean Beckwith's sending off.

Since that victory we have had two indifferent away performances which have put us on the back-foot again and playing catch-up.

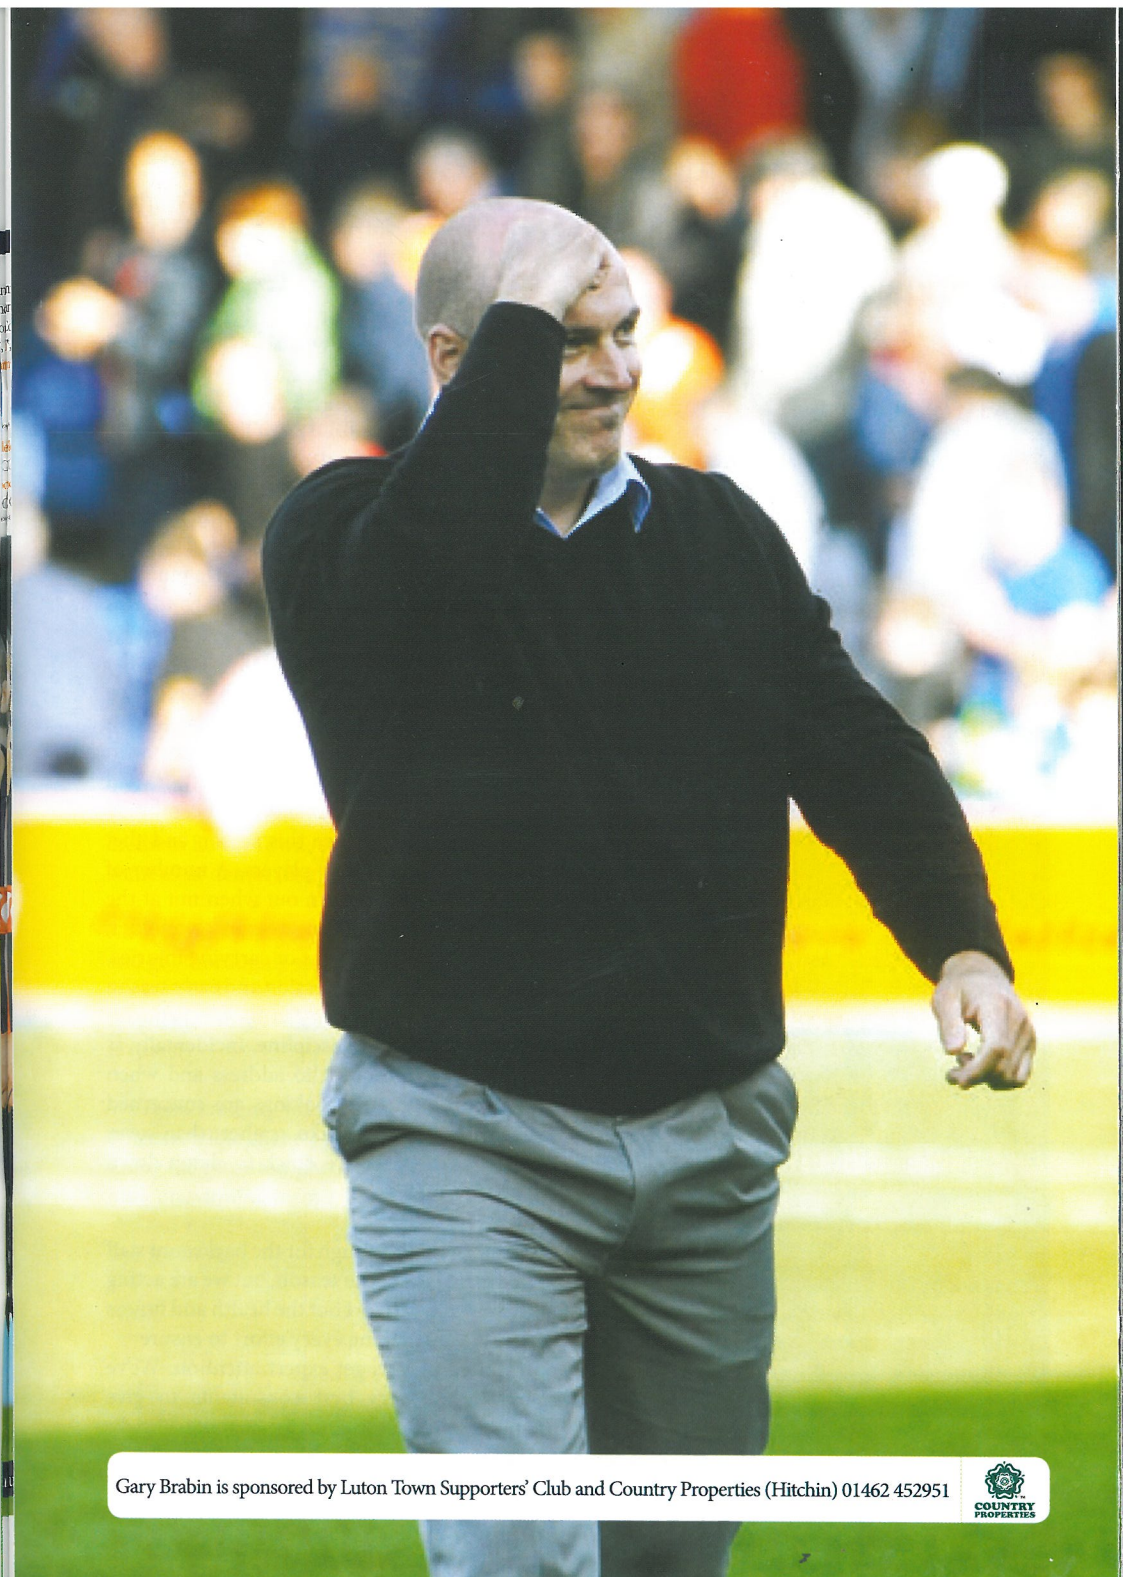

I know that we need to be topping the table and so do the players. It's been a good start to the season but I know we could – and should – have done a lot better than we have done, and I have been disappointed when dropping points from winning positions.

I have told the players that Saturday was not good enough and we must learn from the mistakes that we've made – not only from the York game – but from all the matches in which we've disappointed in so far.

The season is only 11 games old and we currently sit three points off the top of the table. There have been times I have been delighted and at times I have been frustrated but I know from the players we have here at this club that we will be successful.

Finally, thank you for your support so far this season. Thank you to those who braved the elements at Bath City last Tuesday and again to those who made the long trip to York. I really do appreciate it.

Enjoy the game.

FROM THE BOARDROOM

WITH NICK OWEN

Good evening and welcome to Kenilworth Road for our Blue Square Bet Premier match against Cambridge United. A warm welcome to all our visitors from the Abbey Stadium, who are just a point behind us after a good win at home to Darlington on Saturday.

Ah yes. Saturday. What a shocker for Luton Town! I am writing this while I am still shrouded in bewildered gloom, albeit a day later, after we were positively trounced 3-0 by York City. York's goals were excellent, their overall play very good at times and they just seemed far sharper and more up for it than we did. After a fabulous week when we took nine points out of nine, we followed it with a dismal return of one out of six which saw us sit briefly on top and then fall to sixth.

Our manager Gary Brabin was rightly upset and bitterly disappointed afterwards, but he is not one to make excuses, so I want to try and mitigate a little on his behalf.

As you know, we have suffered a dreadful run of injuries, way beyond the norm, and it seriously affects our form, formation and planning. Just look at the defenders who are missing - George Pilkington, Shane Blackett, Dan Gleeson, Freddie Murray and, most recently, Dean Beckwith through suspension.

If you can't have a settled formation, particularly at the back, it can lead, almost inevitably, to mistakes. George and Shane, I am glad to say, are getting close to full fitness, while Freddie and Dan are still a little way off. Because things became so serious in terms of manpower in the back four, we signed Janos Kovacs on loan from Hereford and I would like to welcome him back to Kenilworth Road. I thought he played well at York.

Just to add injury to injury, we had the bizarre half time incident at Bootham Crescent involving Alex Lawless. Alex, returning to his old club, felt anger and frustration at the way we'd been playing. We'd just suffered a third killer goal in first half injury time. He punched the wall in exasperation and broke his hand. He's out for up to eight weeks. Utterly infuriating for all of us, even if it graphically displays the passion he feels for our football club. Something else I would like to say about Saturday - John Paul Kissock played despite feeling lousy with a bug and, although he gave it his best, he had to come off before half time. We've been hit by a virus in the club twice this season and that inevitably debilitates our players. A number of key men have had to turn out when not at the top of their game, for one reason or another, whether it's through illness or carrying injuries. We missed the pace, aggression and early season form of Amari Morgan-Smith on Saturday through suspension. Discipline, incidentally, is something we are quick to address and when the bulk of a player's bookings are concerned with dissent, or the like, rather than over zealous tackling, we are quick to clamp down on it with a fine.

So, it's been mighty tough for the backroom staff in this early part of the season, but we are acting positively to try to sort out the health and fitness issues. We are making every effort to ensure our injured players get expert attention. We've called in the very best consultants to give them the greatest chance of making a swift but complete recovery. There's no pattern to the injuries. They're all different, so we have to accept we've been extremely unlucky, but I can assure you the players are getting the best treatment.

I'm glad to get that off my chest and I hope it explains why our form's been patchy at times, culminating in our demolition on Saturday. Having said all that, I want to reassure you the players are utterly committed and the defeat hurt them all. Just as it hurt us, the fans. Truly horrible, but the dressing room spirit is good and the desire almost tangible. We are a mere three points from the top, we've had a blip, but we are determined to put it right and kick on towards automatic promotion. We all know we've a talented bunch of players here and let me tell you we are still intending to strengthen the squad.

Thanks to all of you who travelled to York on Saturday - as always, our away support was a credit to Luton Town, even when the match was somewhat demoralising.

Also, thanks to all of you who made it to Bath and got thoroughly showered. The players really appreciate it and, as you know, it is a great magnet for them when asked to join the mighty Hatters!

We've had mighty wake up call, a bad day at the office (terrible cliché!) - now for the response! Enjoy the game tonight and let's hope we can get back on winning form.

Bye for now.

Nick

PILKS

I think I speak on behalf of all the players when I say how disappointing Saturday's 3-0 defeat to York City was.

It's an often used cliché when you lose but the most important thing after such a defeat is how you react and tonight it's absolutely vital we bounce back to form and get a positive result.

Not that that's going to be easy. Cambridge have had an excellent start to the season and we know a number of players in their ranks that can cause us problems tonight.

Our home form has been exceptional so far this season, having won four and drawn one of our five games and we must continue that tonight.

The basis of a good season is built on fortress-like home form and we have played some magnificent attacking football in those matches here at Kenilworth Road.

It might have only been 1-0 last time we played here, against Lincoln, but what a result and performance considering the circumstances.

I'm sure it is well documented throughout other areas of this programme but having played with 10 men for three-quarters of the game to beat a side of Lincoln's quality was a massive boost.

At the final whistle the ground was absolutely rocking and it was the kind of atmosphere we've become accustomed to over the years. There was a sense of injustice about the sending off but having not seen the incident I can't comment.

But the way the lads, and you, the crowd, reacted was brilliant. It was the most one-sided 1-0 victory by 10 men I've ever seen.

Like the players I'm sure you all felt confident going into last Tuesday's match at Bath but it was hugely frustrating to only leave with one point.

This time the boot was on the other foot – Bath were reduced to 10 men just before half-time and they rallied to earn a draw, coming from behind following Amari's first-half strike.

There were a lot of disappointed faces in training the next day but we took the positives: we'd stayed unbeaten and went top of the league.

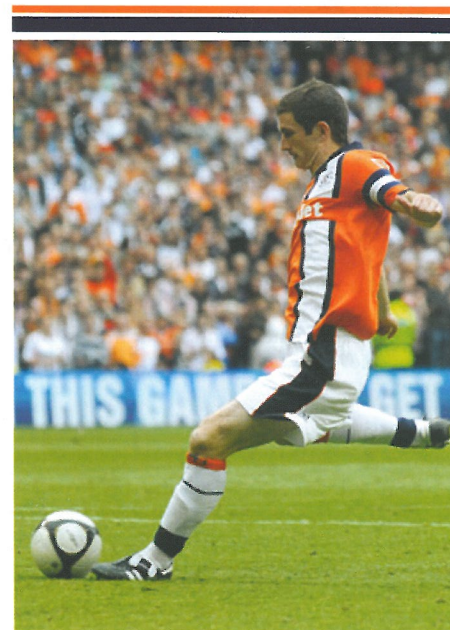

I think the less said about Saturday the better. We know it was an unacceptable result, a bad day at the office but we move on. It's important not to get too down hearted about just one game. We've shown over the past two seasons that we, as a group, have always responded well to set-backs. Therefore it's up the lads tonight to put it right.

Looking at the other results on Saturday and in previous weeks and the current league table it is already looking like this year is the most competitive this league's been since we've been in it. The onus is on us to go and put on another unbeaten run and get ourselves back on the top of the table.

I'm pleased to report I'm back in training. It's going well so far, nothing too strenuous, and I can't wait to get back involved but appreciate it's going to take time.

Thank you, as ever, for your support in recent weeks. Please back the boys once more tonight.

AROUND TOWN

KOVACS BACK

Janos Kovacs

With Gary Brabin short on senior defensive options, the Town were pleased to welcome back centre-half Janos Kovacs on an emergency one month's loan from Hereford United last Friday.

The Hungarian defender first joined the Hatters from Lincoln City in January 2010 - scoring on his debut in a 2-0 win at Histon.

The 26-year-old went onto to make a further 16 appearances in Town colours before he joined Hereford in the summer of 2010.

Previously with MTK in his native Hungary, Janos came to England in 2005 when signing for Chesterfield before his switch to Lincoln.

The defender, who has made 182 appearance in five years in England, brings a wealth of experience to a Town back-line still missing a plethora of players currently injured or suspended. Boss Brabin told Talk of the Town: "It's been well documented that we need more cover in defence and I'm delighted that we've been able to bring in Janos.

"He is a commanding, vocal defender who has vast experience and was the Hereford captain last season.

"Not only is he a great defender but he's a threat in the opponent's penalty area."

WELCOME CAMBRIDGE UNITED

This evening we welcome Cambridge United to Kenilworth Road for a match that will see many familiar faces reunited.

Town players Robbie Willmott and Danny Crow, as well as the injured Dan Gleeson and of course Gary Brabin and Paul Carden, will all have fond memories of playing for or coaching the club from the Abbey stadium.

Meanwhile, former Hatters Rossi Jarvis and Ryan Charles will be in familiar surroundings as they return to Kenilworth Road in Cambridge colours.

Jez George, who looked after the U's academy under Brabin and helped with Willmott's development, is now the manager at United, who are currently sitting comfortably in the top half of the Blue Square Bet Premier.

Like the Town, Cambridge have had a number of draws this season which suggests that this evening's match could be a tight one, and after a convincing win at home over Ebbsfleet the U's have moved to within three points of a Play-Off place before the weekend's fixtures.

After an awkward start in which they lost twice in their first four games, George's side were on the back of a six-game unbeaten run ahead of their home fixture against Darlington on Saturday. Well-earned points have been won on the road at difficult places like Gateshead, Kettering, and Newport, and United fans will be satisfied with the start their new-look side has made.

Along with Jarvis and Charles, several other players have been brought in to George's squad including the experienced striker Michael Gash from York, England C international defender Michael Wylde from Tamworth, Tom Shaw from Kidderminster, and hungry youngsters from the lower leagues such as Bromley's Harrison Dunk and former Ebbsfleet midfielder Ashley Carew.

George's side is young and talented, and the long-suffering fans of the former FA Cup quarter-finalists will be hopeful that their side might just have what it takes to sneak back into the Football League as an outside bet for the Play-Offs this season.

THE VISITORS

HISTORY

Cambridge United were formed in 1912 as Abbey United with the club's first fixture being a 2-1 friendly victory over MJ Drew's XI which was played on Midsummer Common on 22nd November 1913.

In 1958 the club was accepted into the Southern League after numerous top four finishes in the Eastern Counties League and under player-manager stewardship of Alan Moore in 1961 they clinched promotion to the Southern League Premier by finishing as runners up to Kettering Town

In 1969/70 United retained the title and successfully applied for Football League membership, managing 31 votes to Bradford Park Avenue's 14. United were in the Football League. A club record attendance of 14,000 was set on 1st May 1970 when FA Cup winners Chelsea visited the Abbey, a record which stands to this day.

In 1972/73 United won promotion to Division 3 by finishing third, but coped badly with the higher grade of football and were relegated straight back to Division 4.

By the end of the 1976/77 season United had been crowned Fourth Division champions and they continued their success next season, by finishing runners up to Wrexham and winning promotion to Division 2 despite losing Atkinson to West Brom in January.

In 1985 they found themselves back in Division 4, now under ex-United centre back Chris Turner but a slow start to the 1989/90 season saw Turner resigned after a disagreement with the Board. Under new manager John Beck they ended the season at Wembley, having made the Play-Offs by finishing in sixth place. Chesterfield were seen off 1-0 in the first ever Play-Off final to be held under the old Twin Towers.

The next year saw United make the Play-Offs once more but a 5-1 aggregate defeat to Leicester City prevented them being the first club ever to be promoted from the bottom division to the top in successive seasons.

Another relegation was suffered and it wasn't until the arrival of manager Roy McFarland in 1996 that things started to improve again. By the 1998/99 season he had built another excellent side which eventually won promotion from Division 4, finishing runners up to Brentford.

United again struggled at the higher level and McFarland paid for a slump in 2001/02. He was replaced by the returning John Beck, but after a dreadful run he was replaced by club legend John Taylor. Taylor led United to the LDV Vans Trophy final at the Millennium Stadium, losing 4-1 to Blackpool, but that was merely a diversion as relegation followed at the end of the season. Taylor lasted until March 2004 when he was replaced by Claude Le Roy and was assisted by Herve Renard.

The next season was the worst in United's history, with Renard replaced in December by Steve Thompson. He could do little to prevent United's eventual relegation from the Football League.

Thanks to the hard work and endeavours of both a new Board of Directors and the supporters the club survived the summer and started life in the Conference under Rob Newman.

2006/07 started badly so Newman paid the price and was replaced by Jimmy Quinn. Quinn led the side to safety from relegation on the final day and exceeded expectations the following year by reaching the Play-Off Final at Wembley, where United lost 1-0 to Exeter City.

Quinn left in the Summer – officially because he wouldn't relocate to the area – and was replaced by Southport manager Gary Brabin. Brabin also led United to Wembley but once more all concerned suffered the agony of defeat as they lost 2-0 to Torquay United.

Brabin was replaced by Leyton Orient manager Martin Ling two weeks later. Ling led the U's to a 10th place finish in the Blue Square Premier in his first season, having taken 30 points from the final third of the season, raising hopes for the following year.

However after an inconsistent record during the first half of the 2010/11 season and a dire run of form over Christmas and New Year he was relieved of his duties on 1st February 2011 and Director of Football, Jez George, stepped in to lead the team as Caretaker Manager. After survival was secured, George was offered the manager's role for the foreseeable future during the summer.

MEET THE MANAGER

JEZ GEORGE

Formerly the club's Director of Football, Jez became caretaker boss in February 2011 and guided the club to safety following the sacking of previous incumbent Martin Ling.

As a result of this he was asked to take on the position of manager for the foreseeable future. Since arriving at the club in May 2006 he has been central to resurrecting the club's widely respected youth set-up, which has produced a great number of the current first team squad and players who have gone to further their careers higher up the league pyramid.

IN OPPOSITION

Unbeaten in seven games and fresh from Saturday's 2-0 win over Darlington confidence at the Abbey Stadium is sky-high.

However, despite the U's excellent start to the season, manager Jez George is refusing to get carried away with his side's form.

The boss, who took over full-time in the summer, has guided tonight's visitors to within four points of top spot and a victory tonight could see the U's leapfrog the Hatters in the table.

"We brought in nine players during the summer and we've taken 16 points from 10 games," George said.

"It's given us a foundation for the rest of the season, but the problems start as soon as you begin getting carried away."

"We've just got to keep our feet on the floor and understand where we are. We're a million miles from being the team that's going to win this league."

"But hopefully if we keep working hard and the fans appreciate the passion and commitment the players show each and every game, we can be a team in the future who can challenge for the league."

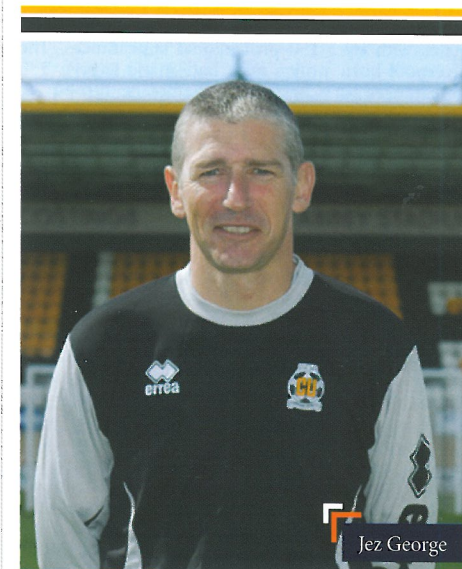

Winning games and picking up points has always been the best recipe for any successful side and George hopes that continues in his team's quest for promotion back to the Football League.

"Belief is something you need to have when you're 2-0 down away from home or if you've had an iffy performance," he said.

"Because the age of the squad is very similar, the players have a similar mindset and ethos."

"When I spoke to them or Nolan Keeley spoke to them, we wanted players who wanted to get better and better and better and who wouldn't see Monday to Friday as a chore, but as something they wanted to do to improve. We've just got to as a group not get too excited when we win and not too distraught when we lose."

Jez George

IN TOWN

GOALKEEPERS

DANNY NAISBITT

Danny joined the U's on a two-year contract in May 2010 from neighbouring Histon via a two month loan spell at League 1 Brighton. After winning Chairman's Player of the Year in 2008/09 for the Stutes, Danny forced his way into the U's squad in October of his first season before ending as number one for the last three matches of the campaign, bringing his tally to 20 appearances.

SIMON BROWN

Joining the club on a short-term deal towards the end of the 2009/10 season, in which he saved penalties against both Histon and Altrincham, veteran Simon penned a two-year deal shortly afterwards. Starting as an apprentice at Tottenham, the Chelmsford born stopper made over 140 appearances for Colchester from 1999 before representing Hibs in the SPL. Prior to making 32 appearances last season he enjoyed spells at Brentford, Darlington and Northampton.

DEFENDERS

KEVIN ROBERTS

Kevin is virtually a veteran among his teammates with over 150 professional appearances. The Liverpool-born utility man had made over a 100 appearances for Chester City before he turned 20, before being snapped up by the U's soon after the Cheshire club's demise. He made the right-back slot his own last season despite also being able to appear in midfield, making 42 appearances and subsequently signing a one year contract extension in May 2011.

JAMES JENNINGS

Left-back JJ made 43 starts in his first season at the R Costings Abbey after signing a two-year contract upon arriving from Kettering. A left-back who gets forward on a regular basis, the former Macclesfield and Altrincham player's combative nature was demonstrated by his three red cards, while he also scored his fourth career goal with a free-kick against Eastbourne.

JOSH COULSON

One of many first-team players to have progressed through the United's well-regarded youth system, Josh is the club's longest serving player despite only being 21 at the start of this season. The local boy and childhood U's fan made his debut under Jimmy Quinn during the 2007/08 season and had gone on to play over 90 games for the club by the time 2011/12 came around. A virtual ever present in the last year-and-a-half.

RORY MCAULEY

The most versatile member of the squad, Blackpool-born Rory has played in central midfield and all across the defence during his 60-plus games for the club. More recently seen in central midfield, he broke into the team as a right back in 2008 while still a teenager after his release by Norwich as a 14-year-old.

MICHAEL WYLDE

Left-footed centre-half Michael became the club's second summer signing, agreeing a two year contract following three years at Tamworth. Michael represented England C on three occasions during the 2010/11 season and amassed over seventy appearances during his time with the Lambs. The defender began his career with Cheltenham and also made a handful of appearances on loan at Kidderminster in April 2008.

MIDFIELDERS

ADAM MILLER

Turning down Football League interest to join the club in the summer of 2010, the former Ipswich trainee had his season ruined in only his fifth appearance. Injury against Eastbourne in August was his last outing of the campaign, and he is still completing rehabilitation with two years still remaining on his contract. Counts QPR, Peterborough, Gillingham and Dagenham as his former League employers, while he excelled at Stevenage and has also turned out for Canvey Island, Grays, Gravesend and Aldershot.

CONAL PLATT

Exciting winger Conal made over 30 appearances in his debut season for the U's after joining from fellow Conference outfit Forest Green, for whom he had featured over 70 times. After a promising start he sat out almost two months through injury. He returned to form in the closing weeks of the season and will be hoping to build on that in his second season at The R Costings Abbey.

CAMBRIDGE UNITED

LUKE BERRY

This box-to-box midfielder has been nurtured by Jez George since the pair first worked together when Luke was only 11. After excelling with his creative running and outstanding work-rate since he signed a scholarship in 2008, Jez's first act in caretaker charge was to bring Luke into the first-team. Ending last season with 14 appearances, all from the start of February, he was awarded Young Player of the Season by the U's fans. Signed a three-year professional contract at the end of last season.

TOM SHAW

Tom became the U's first signing after the conclusion of last season when he agreed a two-year contract and arrived from Kidderminster, for whom he had appeared regularly last season. Has considerable experience at Conference level, counting Tamworth and Mansfield among his former clubs after starting his professional career with over 50 games for Rushden.

HARRISON DUNK

Left-sided Harrison followed Tom Shaw and Michael Wylde in being an early-summer signing for Jez George, who beat off League competition to capture the signature of this highly-rated midfielder. Harrison won Player of the Season in consecutive seasons as left back for Bromley, although George announced upon signing him that he had been signed primarily with a more attacking role in mind.

ASHLEY CAREW

Ashley became the club's eighth and final summer signing at start of July 2011, agreeing a one-year deal after impressing during Ebbsfleet United's promotion season from the Conference South. The 25-year-old wide right player made his name at Barnet in 2007, making over 50 appearances for the London club before having his contract cancelled in 2009.

KEIRAN MURTAGH

This creative midfielder appeared at League 1 level for Yeovil at a young age, making over 50 league appearances after making his debut while still a teenager. Turning down a new deal in favour of a move to Wycombe in summer 2010 he made only seven league appearances before coming to Jez George's attention with an eye-catching loan spell at Woking. Released by Wycombe he soon signed for the U's, agreeing a one year deal in June 2011.

ROSSI JARVIS

Former Town midfielder and a product of Norwich's youth academy, Jarvis impressed in pre-season enough to convince Jez George to offer a one month contract at the beginning of the campaign. After appearing in each of his new side's first six games he was rewarded with a contract to the end of the season.

STRIKERS

MICHAEL GASH

Michael was not a new name to United fans when his one-year contract was penned at the end of June, having made 15 appearances for the club in the 2006/07 season. Despite only scoring twice he moved on to score prolifically at Cambridge City and Ebbsfleet, prompting York to splash out £55,000 in June 2009. Only seven goals later he moved to Rushden on loan during 2010/11, during which time he netted four goals in a game against Bath. After being released by York during the summer he was quick to be reunited with Jez George.

RYAN CHARLES

A former Young Player of the Season here at Kenilworth Road, Ryan was snapped up by Jez George on a free transfer due to Rushden & Diamonds' expulsion from the Conference in the summer of 2011. Released by Luton in May 2010, Rushden were quick to benefit and he went on to make almost 40 league appearances, proving a valuable asset due to his ability to use his pace and strength as a wide midfielder as well as up front, before penning a one year deal for the U's.

LIAM HUGHES

After making his first-team debut as a sub against Grimsby in October 2010 he would make his first start against the same opposition four months later, eventually making 18 appearances, including eight from the bench, before being offered a one year professional contract. The former Scunthorpe schoolboy found the net twice, against York and at Altrincham.

WITH DAVID HOSKINS

A warm welcome to our corporate guests and sponsors this afternoon for our sixth home match of the season.

It's certainly been a busy and exciting start to the season on and off-the-pitch with the commercial department launching a number of new projects.

One of which was our Hatters Business Breakfast Club - a linking tool for local businesses to meet and establish lasting relationships.

The meetings are held on a monthly basis in the newly refurbished Eric Morecambe Lounge. They have a wide variety of benefits and are a great way to enhance and promote business to other local establishments.

Summer seems as though it's been and gone and while it may only be September, soon it will be Christmas.

We're in the midst of planning our Christmas celebration evening - where our current management team will be joined by David Moss who will be reminiscing about his time with the Town. The event will be held at the Luton Hoo and further information will be released in the Barrow programme.

Once again we have the pleasure of welcoming a match sponsor and mascot to this afternoon's game and I hope you have a fantastic time.

TOWN 1 - 0 LINCOLN 10 MEN VICTORIOUS

Town boss Gary Brabin hailed his 10 men after Stuart Fleetwood's goal six minutes from time gave his side a huge three points against Lincoln City.

With the Hatters a man down following Dean Beckwith's 23rd-minute dismissal, Fleetwood popped up to net from close range after John Paul Kissock's moment of magic from a short corner to send the biggest Kenilworth Road crowd of the season into raptures.

"It's a fantastic win," Brabin said afterwards. "The thing is we've deserved it. We've won 1-0 and on another day it could have been two or three and it's all been done with 10 men."

"We've had chances and I'm delighted with that - I said before Lincoln are a good side with a good manager and good players."

"I said to the players we didn't want it to be the turning point in Lincoln's season."

Beaming following the win that lifted the Town in to second and a point behind leaders Gateshead, Brabin, however revealed he was less than happy with his side's first half showing.

"We didn't start as well as we have done in recent games," he said. "At half-time I said to the players 'it's easy to hide behind the fact we're down to 10 men'."

"We weren't defending well and weren't bright enough but I told the players to believe in themselves and if we defended properly we'd win the game."

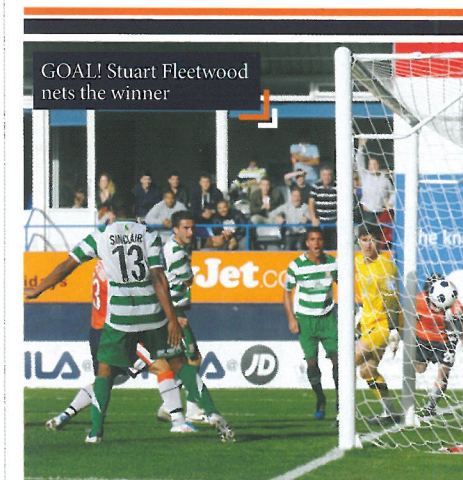

"Every 10 men on the pitch - including the subs - were absolutely fantastic in the second half. We've gone down to 10 men early on and I've recently talked about us showing character recently - and we certainly showed that."

Striker Fleetwood was delighted to score the all-important winner. "It was a massive three points for us," he said. "The lads kept going and we've been rewarded."

"We dominated from start to finish and showed greater character. I was disappointed I missed a few chances before and after the goal but I don't let it affect me."

"The way we play I know I know there will be chances for me and I'm just glad we got the win because I thought the fans deserved it because they were brilliant."

BATH 1-1 TOWN ALL SQUARE

Town boss Gary Brabin said the draw with bottom-of-the-table Bath City felt like a defeat.

The Hatters had to settle for a point despite playing 50 minutes with a man advantage when Lee Phillips equalised Amari Morgan-Smith's first-half opener.

And while the point kept up the Town's unbeaten start and lifted them to the top of the Blue Square Bet Premier, Brabin was hugely disappointed with the 1-1 draw.

"We feel like we've been beaten," he said afterwards. "It kills me to say it but Bath were down to 10 men and they worked harder than us in the second half.

"The one thing I was worried about was us taking our foot off the gas. They were going to roll their sleeves up and fight ten times as hard and that was the case.

"We played some really good football in the second half but we didn't have any cutting edge. To be fair to Bath, they battled their socks off and it's disappointing that we conceded a goal in the manner that we did.

"We gave the ball away sloppily in the middle of the pitch and they've gone and scored from it.

"Possession-wise I think we've probably had 70 per cent of it but they fought, scrapped and defended like their lives depended on it. We gave the ball away sloppily in the middle of the pitch and they've gone and scored from it.

"In the last three matches we've shown a lot of character as well as playing some good football.

Whether we thought, as individuals, that we didn't need that much character because they are bottom of the league, I certainly hope not."

The draw at Twerton Park marked the return of centre-half Janos Kovacs and the Hungarian defender was pleased to be back in Town colours.

"It's great to be back," he said. "It's a little bit disappointing that we haven't won because we were in front and had a man advantage for over half of the game. We know we should have done better.

"I had good memories of my time and I'm hoping I can help the team continue its fine start to the season."

We beat Charlton 3-0 at home on 29th August 1981. My dad used to bring a wooden crate along so I could see over the wall in the Main Stand enclosure.

FIRST MEMORY:

One of my earliest memories is a home game against Newcastle in 1981/82 where we found ourselves 2-0 down at half-time but went on to win 3-2 thanks to a Brian Stein hat-trick.

BEST GOAL SEEN:

Scott Oakes' goal against Derby. He scored some wonderful goals for Luton but this sticks in the memory as one of the best.

BEST MATCH WITNESSED:

Witnessed Apart from our victories at Wembley, our 7-0 win over Southampton was fantastic – any time your team puts seven past the England goalkeeper is a great day.

WORST MATCH:

If you were to ask my wife she would say any time we lose, but I'll plump for our defeat to Ebbsfleet during our first season in the Conference, it was a real low.

BEST INDIVIDUAL PERFORMANCE SEEN BY A PLAYER:

The debut of a certain Jean-Louis Valois against Torquay capped by a fantastic goal always comes to mind.

FAVOURITE HATTERS KIT:

The 1982-84 white shirts with orange sleeves adidas kit has always been my favourite kit and was the one I wore when I was a mascot in 1984 during a Milk Cup game against Rotherham, which we unfortunately lost.

Hatters Player subscribers had plenty to sit back and watch since we were last at Kenilworth Road.

The Town saw off Lincoln 1-0 after playing three-quarters of the game with 10 men – Stuart Fleetwood grabbing the all-important goal six minutes from time.

Hatters Player was there to get the reaction and a delighted Gary Brabin spoke to the cameras giving subscribers his account of what he thought was a deserved display.

The manager thought it was an excellent performance considering the loss of Dean Beckwith in the first half.

Goalscorer Fleetwood was obviously delighted to grab the winner – tapping home John Paul Kissock's cross but the striker was disappointed he couldn't score more given the number of chances he created.

Player also caught up with James Dance after his excellent performance at right-back and Alex Lawless who was skipper for the day.

The victory saw plenty of incident and on Sunday subscribers to Player saw eight minutes of exclusive highlights.

It was a different story at Bath on Tuesday night with Brabin hugely frustrated with the 1-1 draw against the league's bottom club.

Amari Morgan-Smith's goal a minute before half-time wasn't enough as the hosts came back to level.

Player caught up with new loan signing Janos Kovacs as the Hungarian centre-back made his second debut in Town colours.

He explained his love for the club and his disappointment at having to settle for a point against the Romans.

Collin Samuel made his first appearance for the Hatters, coming on as a second half substitute and the forward was pleased to get some minutes under his belt in his quest to break into his manager's first XI.

Remember it will be the same once again after this evening's game when we'll have video reaction from all concerned from the dressing room.

FLAWLESS LAWLESS

The Hatters' victory last time at Kenilworth Road against Lincoln City saw midfielder Alex Lawless named skipper in the absence of the a number of senior players who have worn the armband.

With Club captain George Pilkington already on the sidelines and Keith Keane also out boss Gary Brabin handed Lawless the captaincy and the 26-year-old responded by helping the Hatters to a crucial 1-0 victory over Steve Tilson's Imps.

"I was surprised," Lawless told Talk of the Town. "It's the first time I've been named as captain and I was chuffed to bits.

"It was a massive win against Lincoln. We'd gone down to 10 men and we've won, it was a perfect day really: three points and a clean sheet and the crowd were great.

"They knew that we were up against it being a man light and we responded, it gave us a real lift.

"It was a kind of backs to the wall mentality but we got through it."

Lawless, who has scored once this season so far – a superb 25-yard strike at Stockport – believed the win was a huge test of the Town's mental and physical strength.

"It was a huge result," he said. "We've shown that we have got great character – we're able to go down to 10 men and still win.

"We played really well and we've got goals in us."

Lawless, together with new signing Stuart Fleetwood, have been the butt of jokes from their team-mates believing they look identical.

But the midfielder knows with the chances that the Town create his lookalike will get plenty of chances to score.

"I've taken a bit of stick for looking like him, but that's normal!" he jokes. "I played with Stuart together at Forest Green and that one season he scored 36 goals.

"It's no surprise he's started his career here well and I'm sure they will keep coming.

"We're capable of scoring goals all over the pitch which is great for the manager and for competition for places."

With right-back Ed Asafu-Adjaye banned for the Lincoln game and with Keane already out, you could argue that Lawless could have slotted it at right-back, where he has played before.

"To be honest when the gaffer told me I was going to be captain I thought I was going to be playing at right-back," he said.

"But James Dance has been doing really well there, and has played there before too.

"I think Keane said recently it doesn't matter where you play you've just got to get on with it. We have a number of players that can play in a variety of positions which will stand us in good stead throughout the season."

"We've played the same amount of games as everyone else and we're not too many points of the top two teams."

It was another fine display from the Hatters who kept their second successive clean sheet following last Saturday's 2-0 win over Darlington.

And Keane believes the confidence taken from the two shutouts can only enhance the Town's chances of success this season.

"It gives everyone confidence," he said.

"We've got a lot of good players; the goalkeeper, defence, midfielders and attackers can all gain confidence from a solid defence.

"The most momentum has come from the fact we've kept two clean sheets – it gives everyone that belief.

"The Telford game was massive – we knew we had to win because it was our game in hand and we were very happy to come away with all three points.

"We can take the positives from the last two games into the Lincoln match. As for me, with Jamie Hand back and maybe Curtis Osano back I'm not sure where I'll be playing!

"I'm just happy to be here and to help the team out, as long as we're doing well I don't care where I play."

His boss, Brabin, praised the vice-captain for his commitment and loyalty to the club after reaching his milestone.

"It's not often you get players who reach this kind of appearance tally for one club," he said.

"Keith is a credit to the club and a vitally important player for us. He's played in three positions for us in the past three matches which demonstrates his ability and versatility and he just gets on with it."

DREAM TEAM

Midfielder Alex Lawless chooses his favourite XI made up for players he's played with in his football career

GOALKEEPER

Edwin van der Sar (retired) – Arguably the best player I've ever played with, when I was a youngster at Fulham I used to stay and watch him because he was extraordinary. His distribution and kicking was first class and not only was he a great goalkeeper but a true professional.

RIGHT-BACK

Ben Purkiss (Oxford United – on-loan at Darlington) – Comfortable on the ball and capable of carrying the ball forward, Ben was a vital component of the success I had with York.

CENTRE-BACKS

George Pilkington (Luton Town) – Pilks hardly puts a foot wrong, he's Mr Consistent.

Liam Fontaine (Bristol City) – He was my best mate when I was at Fulham, a great player and a defender who I'd always want on my side.

LEFT-BACK

Anthony Tonkin (Oxford United) – A very determined, hard-working defender who I played with at Forest Green. He's very difficult to get past.

RIGHT MIDFIELD

Steed Malbranque (unattached) – His quick feet left you open-mouthed, his technique was that good. It seemed in training when I was at Fulham that he never lost the ball – even when it seemed he'd been dispossessed. A greater passer too.

CENTRAL MIDFIELDERS

Darren Pratley (Bolton Wanderers) – Full of energy in the centre of midfield he was also a great scorer of goals.

Mark Pembroke (retired) – As a midfielder I learn so much from Mark who was still playing at the age of 36 when I was at Fulham. Mark was the most professional footballer I've ever met.

LEFT MIDFIELD

Martin Phillips (retired) – 'Buster' as he was known was a terrific winger I played with whilst I was with Torquay United. He was two-footed and could turn people inside-out.

STRIKER

Stuart Fleetwood (Luton Town) – When I was a Forest Green he scored 36 goals in one season – a goal machine.

Andy Cole (retired) – This guy absolutely oozed class. He was a great pro who practised his finishing – it certainly paid off, a terrific striker who I learned a lot from.

GETTING TO KNOW...

ALEX LAWLESS

WHO IS YOUR BEST FRIEND IN FOOTBALL?

Liam Fontaine at Bristol City, who I played with at Fulham. I was his best man last year.

WHO DID YOU SUPPORT AS A BOY?

Manchester United. I loved Eric Cantona.

WHAT'S THE BEST THING ABOUT PLAYING FOR LUTON TOWN?

The massive expectation is a challenge. It's the most expectation I've ever experienced – all clubs' fans expect a lot and get frustrated, but this club has been so high so recently you can understand the desperation to get back up there quickly. I thrive on that atmosphere.

WHAT AMBITIONS DO YOU HAVE IN FOOTBALL?

To play at as high a level as possible. I'm 26 now so I'm not sure what will happen in the future, I just hope for the best.

WHAT HAS BEEN YOUR BIGGEST ACHIEVEMENT IN FOOTBALL?

Signing a professional contract at Fulham. It was nice to play in two Play-Off finals but I lost both of those so that spoiled it.

WHO IS YOUR FUNNIEST TEAM MATE?

Freddie Murray. Some of the things he comes out with... I don't know how to describe it, he's just very funny.

WHO IS THE WORST-DRESSED PLAYER AT THE CLUB?

Is everyone saying George Pilkington? I know, Jake Howells! When he reads this he'll be furious! We went out one night and he wasn't allowed in somewhere because they said he was 'under-dressed'.

WHO IS THE HARDEST WORKER AT THE CLUB?

Keano. More on the pitch than anything, but that's where it matters.

WHAT'S YOUR EARLIEST FOOTBALL MEMORY?

Just playing over the park with my mates in Rhondda in South Wales.

WHO HAS BEEN YOUR MOST DIFFICULT OPPONENT?

I played against Birmingham's David Dunn when I was at Torquay, and I couldn't get the ball off him. They won 2-0.

WHAT ARE YOUR PLANS FOR LIFE AFTER FOOTBALL?

Coaching I'd imagine, at as high a level as possible.

WHO IS YOUR FOOTBALL IDOL?

David Beckham. His work rate is great and I respect the way he has come back from setbacks over his career.

AND YOUR NON-PLAYING HERO?

Jack Bauer from 24! My missus won't like that! She doesn't like the show, she'll say, "oh why didn't you say something serious?" but I'm sticking with that, I love 24.

THE PAST

WITH CLUB HISTORIAN ROGER WASH

After the traumas of 1978/79 when the Hatters narrowly avoided relegation from the old Division Two (now the Championship), manager David Pleat, now in his second full season in charge, hoped to push on and prayed for an injury free campaign unlike the previous one.

During the summer of 1979 Pleat paid out £200,000 to Mansfield for centre-back Mike Saxby and then, in one of the early transfer tribunals, managed to secure midfielder Tony Grealish from Orient for £150,000 which was less than half the London club wanted for him. Pleat had been a quick learner and was able to exploit the tribunal system to his own advantage many times over subsequent years!

The new season started sluggishly but when the Hatters won 3-1 at Leicester in a televised game supporters sat up and took notice. This victory was followed by a 5-0 home thrashing of newly promoted Swansea and with it top position in the table for the first time since January 1971.

By the time of the visit to Cambridge in early November the Town were still in pole position and many Luton supporters made the short trip to the Abbey to swell the crowd to 8,104.

The Hatters team had remained virtually unchanged throughout the season, with mercurial

Bob Hatton nets the Town's first in the 2-1 win at Cambridge in November 1979 winger David Moss on fire, thus vindicating Pleat who had pleaded with the Luton fans to judge him when he could put out a settled side.

Cambridge, on the other hand, were beset with injuries and had not won for seven games although they were quickest out of the blocks with ex-Hatter Alan Biley missing a sitter in the opening minutes.

Gradually the Town took control with Bob Hatton, Ricky Hill and Kirk Stephens all shooting narrowly wide. Moss was well shackled with defenders doubling up on him which left gaps for the Luton midfielders to run into and it was Alan West who provided a slide rule pass for Hatton to run on to and curl a shot past Malcolm Webster in the Cambridge goal on 58 minutes.

The game was as good as over three minutes later when Moss arrowed a 60-yard pass over to the right wing where Brian Stein anticipated it and, leaving his opponents trailing, was upended by Webster as he went for goal. Moss stepped up to score from the spot with ease, his sixth of the season and his 12th goal overall.

Biley halved the deficit in the 87th minute but it was too little too late as the Town held on to the end.

THE CAMERA NEVER LIES

BY CLUB HISTORIAN ROGER WASH

Raddy Antic looks delighted after putting the Hatters ahead at Norwich on 28th December 1981

After two near misses at promotion from the old Division Two (now the Championship) the Town seemed set fair to make it third time lucky as Christmas 1981 approached.

Several points in front of the second placed club and with games in hand caused by postponements, it was a confident squad that travelled to newly relegated Norwich in search of their seventh away victory of the season.

A best of the season crowd of 19,348 turned out at Carrow Road, not expecting the amazing display of football put on by the Town as they took a 3-0 lead in the opening 15 minutes.

Raddy Antic was first off the mark when he hit a 30-yard, dipping and bending shot into the top corner in the third minute then he provided a superb defence splitting pass on ten minutes to enable Steve White to double the scoreline.

To complete the rout, defender Mal Donaghy placed an inch perfect pass over the Norwich defence for Brian Stein to run through and slot home.

Perhaps feeling that the job was done, the Town eased off slightly leaving the Canaries to put on some pressure which eventually resulted in Norwich loanee John Deehan, on his debut, pulling a goal back shortly before the interval.

Luton manager David Pleat gave his men a roasting at half-time for letting Norwich back into the game and the Town certainly controlled the second period allowing the Canaries to attack then attempting to catch them on the break.

The woodwork prevented both Brian Horton and David Moss from adding to the score and when White went on a mazy run from deep inside his own half into the opposing penalty area he seemed odds on the find the net but dragged his shot agonisingly wide of the far post.

By this time the Norwich fire had burned out and their manager Ken Brown had to admit that, "Luton looked a very good side."

David Pleat was not so impressed but took comfort in the fact that the Hatters were now seven points ahead of the second placed club and a massive eleven clear of QPR, in fourth spot, with a game in hand.

THE PSYCHOLOGY OF LUTON

HATTERS STAR TURNED PSYCHOLOGIST JOHN FAULKNER TALKS ABOUT THE SPECIAL MENTALITY OF KENILWORTH ROAD

From playing part-time for a non-league club and working as a building site surveyor in Sutton, to being catapulted into a "fairytale" move to one of Europe's biggest clubs, suffering a cruel injury, and winning promotion with Luton Town before enjoying the special "boot room" atmosphere of Kenilworth Road for a number of years as a coach, John Faulkner has seen so many different sides of the game.

But the footballer-turned-psychology consultant, who went on a famous FA Cup run with semi-professional Sutton United and was part of

Leeds United's glory-chasing squad of the early 1970s, has the professional knowledge to analyse his personal football journey, and it is the dressing room psychology of one club that sticks most prominently in his mind. "I'm very much a Luton man," says the defender who made over 200 appearances for the Town in a successful six-year spell. "It was the happy club. The manager, Harry Haslam, would always have a joke in his team talk, Eric Morecambe would come in the dressing room before the game and have a laugh – but that belied how serious it all was. Haslam had huge standards but made it relaxed. In any club the manager always dictates the atmosphere – he got it right and he played the right way."

The psychology behind Haslam's approach went further than merely creating a jovial atmosphere, as he worked to import a winning mentality to the club. As Faulkner explains, "His policy was to get players from big clubs who weren't quite getting in the first team – John Aston [from Manchester United], Brian Chambers [Arsenal] – players who knew how big clubs worked and what standards are demanded, and that would make us a big club."

"Happy Harry' had a shrewd brain behind it all!"

That is praise indeed from a man who played under the great Don Revie at Leeds, one of the best managers in British history, and someone who in Faulkner's words "did everything with a lot of class."

Released from Charlton Athletic as a teenager, Faulkner was working on a Wates building site and playing for semi-pro Sutton United when he impressed in a 6-0 FA Cup Fourth Round defeat to Revie's side in 1970. The young centre-back was catapulted into the position of being one of the country's hottest prospects, drawing the attention of Tottenham, Crystal Palace, and Faulkner's boyhood favourites Arsenal. But it was Revie's personal touch that persuaded the Kent-born defender to move with his young family to Yorkshire.

"He came down to London and said he was impressed with me and thought I could replace Jack Charlton. So that was a fairytale for me, Leeds were one of the biggest clubs at that time, with 13 internationals in the squad. So there I was all of a sudden, from Wates to Leeds!"

Faulkner never quite made the breakthrough at Elland Road, making early appearances in the 1969/70 season run-in but suffering a broken kneecap in only his second appearance for the club. The injury came close to finishing his career at one stage, but after a full recovery and a couple of games in Europe for the Whites, he was offered the opportunity to join the Luton revolution underway with chief scout and soon-to-be manager Haslam, signing a contract in 1972.

After a moderately successful first season with Hatters, Faulkner was a key part of the side that won promotion to the old Division One in the 1974/75 season, playing all but two games as the Town hit the big time by finishing as runners-up behind Middlesbrough.

Looking back on that period in the top flight, Faulkner says: "Winning promotion with Luton was my first big success on the pitch. We got relegated the following season because we started terribly and couldn't win a game. But we hit a spell around Christmas where we beat Arsenal, Leeds and Birmingham and really hit a good patch of form – if we'd have started like that we'd have been fine, but we went down on the last day of the season when Spurs beat a Leeds reserve side. We were fuming."

"But we knew we could beat any team on our day. I think because of the state of the stadium – we were a big club and the stadium didn't reflect that – other clubs hated playing there and it had a great atmosphere."

"We liked playing at home – some players are frightened of their crowds getting on their backs but that never happened at Luton, we always had full support from the fans."

Faulkner says he loved every minute of his time with Luton, and was "totally settled" in the town where he brought up a family and returned to work as a coach after a spell playing in the USA. His coaching career with the club was every bit as successful as his playing career, as the tight-knit backroom team of David Pleat, John Moore, Jim Ryan and himself established one of England's top outfits in the 1980s with a team that, in his words, "could beat anybody and bloody well did!"

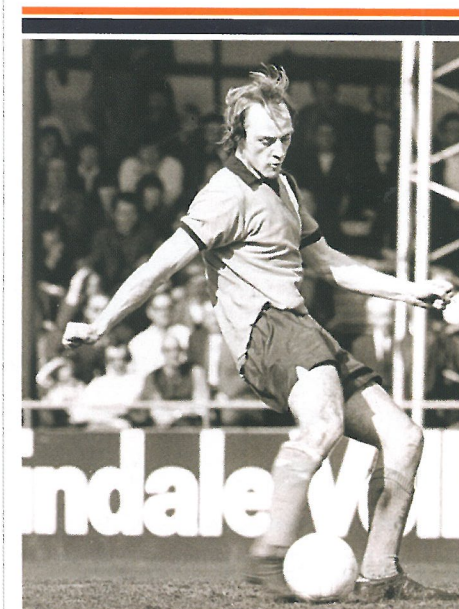

When John Moore was promoted to first team manager, Faulkner took over the youth team and helped develop players of the calibre of Julian James, Kingsley Black, Marvin Johnson and John Hartson, and again he stresses that the psychology and atmosphere around the club was key to the quality set-up. "All the coaches were ex-players with a love and appreciation for the history of the club, and we had a plastic pitch so the youth and reserves all trained and played at the ground," he explains.

"Young kids would be in professional dressing rooms and around pro players, so there was a shared spirit throughout the club. The set-up was so good we were getting the best kids in the country ahead of the biggest clubs – everyone was after Hartson and Paul Telfer, Darren Salton was the captain of Scotland boys and all the top sides were after him, but we were getting them all because of our Premier League set-up."

Drawing upon such experiences of being in dressing rooms with a positive, shared sports psychology, Faulkner retrained later in life as a business coach and psychology consultant, and has worked with the likes of Sir Alex Ferguson and Manchester United, as well as Cranfield University and business leaders – and of course Luton Town, who he continues to work with intermittently.

But there is one chapter of Faulkner's professional life that will always remain dearest in his memory, and has influenced his later work in coaching and psychology. "Luton was my career," he says, "It's such a special club."

YOUNG HATTERS YOUNGSTERS CRUSH CORINTHIANS

The future looks bright for the Town, as the youth team got their FA Youth Cup campaign underway with an 11-1 win over Rothwell Corinthians at Kenilworth Road last Wednesday.

Victory never looked in doubt for Paul Driver's side, who were inspired by a hat-trick from Charlie Smith.

The young Hatters dominated the opening exchanges, with defender Ben Ekins going close with an early header from a corner.

And Driver's side opened the scoring on 14 minutes when Jake Woolley coolly flicked past the Corinthians goalkeeper after being played through by his strike partner Charlie Smith.

Smith put the Town two up three minutes later with a neat lob, Newman Carney having set him up with a chip forward from the back.

The visitors' Callum Plowright then attempted a speculative effort from range that sailed over the bar, before Woolley scored his second from a rebound after Chisom Amadi forced a good save out of the 'keeper.

Carney had an effort cleared off the line and Amadi had another effort well saved, before Ian Rees twisted and turned inside the box on the way to finishing a neat solo goal to put the hosts 4-0 up on the half-hour mark.

Despite the goals flying in at the away end, Rothwell were gamely giving a good impression of themselves, and the visitors' midfielder Oak Mapson scored a sublime goal from 25 yards that left the Town's Ben Barnes with no chance as it flew into the back of the net via the post.

Woolley should have sealed his hat-trick just before half-time but could only head wide from six yards following Jordan Davis's right wing cross.

And he forced a terrific save out of the visitors' 'keeper Alex Forward just after the restart, shooting low from ten yards only for Forward to show great reflexes to get down to his right to flick the ball away.

But Smith made it 5-1 with a cool finish inside the area, finding space in the box after a fine run and pass from Amadi.

On 55 minutes, the Hatters winger broke into the box and was fouled, leaving Carney to make it six from the penalty spot with a low effort to the 'keeper's left.

It was 7-1 moments later thanks to another fine effort from Rees, who beat several Corinthians players before lifting the ball over Forward and into the net for his second of the game.

Captain Zak Stephens made it 8-1 with a close-range effort following a corner, before Amadi netted to make it nine.

Smith capped a fine performance with a deserved hat-trick after rounding the goalkeeper on 85 minutes, and Davis scored a excellent solo effort in the last minute to make the final score 11-1.

Town: Barnes, Longden, Carney, Burtenshaw, Ekins, Stephens, Davies, Rees, Woolley, Smith, Amadi. Subs: Ann, Jibodu, Johnson, McAdams, Nash.

ACADEMY UPDATE

Last Tuesday the Hatters confirmed that Michael Cain had joined Leicester City for a significant five-figure fee.

The transfer fee will increase to six figures if Michael achieves significant career milestones, including becoming a Premier League footballer with the Foxes and achieving senior international recognition. The Hatters have also secured a significant sell-on clause to cover future transfers.

Michael was due to join the Hatters as a scholar this summer but requested a transfer following the club's failure to win promotion to the Football League.

The player and his family have worked closely with the Club over the summer to ensure that the Town received compensation for the development Michael received since joining the club at the age of 12.

Youth Development Officer, Gregg Broughton told Talk of the Town: "We never like to lose young, talented players, but once a player expresses a desire to leave the club, despite all efforts to keep him here, it then becomes a case of ensuring that the club is properly rewarded for its work in identifying and developing him.

"We would thank Michael and his father Mark who made sure that this process was done amicably and transparently.

"We had developed a good relationship with Leicester, it is good to see that they have recognised the FA's ruling to protect our player's registrations and thank them for ensuring that the matter was resolved quickly.

"Our Youth Team has had a great start to the season, with eight Under-18s having appeared in the reserves already along with six Under-16s appearing in the Youth Team.

"Along with these successes, Michael's transfer will reassure our directors that their investment is being spent sensibly to ensure the long-term future of the Football Club is very positive."

Cain, who was an unused substitute for the Town first team in last season's FA Trophy second round tie against Uxbridge paid tribute to the Hatters' youth department.

"I am obviously delighted to be moving to an ambitious Championship club in Leicester City, whose Academy has a fantastic record of developing players that have gone on to have highly successful careers.

"However I am leaving Luton Town with a heavy heart. I'd like to express my thanks to all of the coaches, staff and team-mates I have worked with during my four years with the club. Each of them I learned from and I am very grateful to all of them for believing in me.

"I would like to wish everyone at the club the best of luck in taking Luton Town back to the Football League."

IN THE COMMUNITY

THE FOOTBALL CONFERENCE COMMUNITY CLUB DEVELOPMENT FUND SUPPORTED BY THE PREMIER LEAGUE AND THE PROFESSIONAL FOOTBALLERS' ASSOCIATION.

Luton Town and the Club's Community Trust are pleased to welcome Lord Faulkner of Worcester to tonight's game to present the Trust with a grant cheque of £12,000 from the the Football Conference Community Club Development Fund supported by the Premier League and the Professional Footballers' Association.

The grant will be 'matched' by our main Club sponsor, Easyjet and McDonalds and will be used to fund the Club's recently launched Schools Visit project which aims to provide free curriculum time Football coaching and PE lessons to all primary schools within Luton, Bedfordshire and North Hertfordshire.

The Football Conference Community Club Development Fund was launched earlier this year for member Clubs of the Blue Square Bet Premier and Blue Square Bet North and South and involves both the Premier league and Professional Footballers' Association committing up to £400,000 each for the next three years and is designed to encourage member Clubs to develop their work in their local communities.

Each member Club can apply for a maximum grant per season of £12,000 and Lord Faulkner, who has been associated with many football clubs and organisations, as well as serving on committees, panels and working groups connected with the game throughout his career, is here to present the maximum grant funding available.

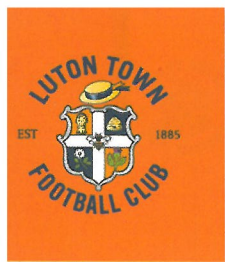

With the backing of the Conference Development fund the Club's community department have already contacted almost 100 schools in our catchment area since the start of the term last month with the offer of free coaching and already almost 20 schools are now receiving visits from our coaching staff.

Our Football Development Officer, James Hatch, who runs the Schools Visit project on behalf of the Community Trust told Talk of the Town: "We have already had a great response from local schools who have asked us to come in and help with all kinds of requests from running lunch time clubs to coaching the schools' football teams.

"The funding is great because for the first time in quite a while we can now get all of our local schools involved with the Club at no cost to them. We hope this project will not only help schools with providing quality PE lessons but also by getting the children involved with Luton Town FC future supporters of the Club."

For any schools looking to be involved in the project you can contact James Hatch at the Club on 01582 583618 or via email on james.luton@live.co.uk.

LUTON LADIES

The Town completed a winless September with a 3-1 reverse at Norwich City at the weekend.

The past month has been littered with a run of bad fortune with injuries decimating the squad allied with little luck on the field.

A strong Norwich squad were confident of maintaining their strong start to the season but were reduced to speculative long shots which were comfortably dealt with by Town goalkeeper Randi Reynolds.

With the game goal-less, another cruel twist of luck gave the Canaries the lead. A relatively straightforward shot took a wicked deflection off of Rachel Spendalov and found the bottom corner of the Town net.

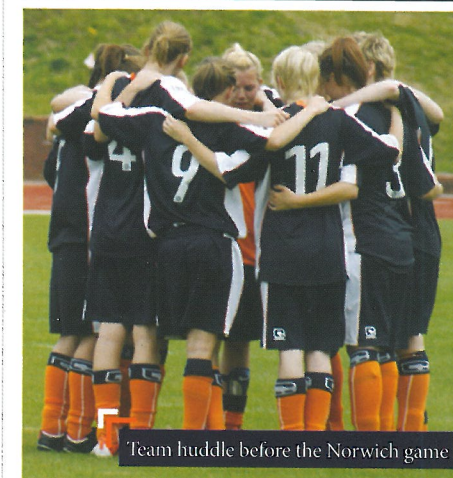

The Hatters responded with a Jess McKay shot that rolled narrowly wide and an Amy Summerfield strike that forced a diving save from the goalkeeper. From the resulting corner Michelle Byrne headed narrowly over.

Norwich made it 2-0 midway through the second half but the Town soon pulled a goal back when Rebecca Kane was sent sprawling in the area by the City centre back with the offending player reprieved a sending-off by the referee.

Nicola Henman stepped up to convert the spot kick and put the Town back in contention.

However, in another cruel twist of fate the very same City player who conceded the earlier penalty popped up at the far post with a header to score the clinching goal.

Meanwhile the Under-12s have stepped up their game this season winning all three of their opening fixtures. The latest victory was a very good 2-0 away win at Bedford. Molly McClelland scored both goals.

SIMON PITTS LOOKS BACK ON GAMES PLAYED AT HOME ON THIS DAY

The number of home games previously played on this date, with Luton winning nine and drawing four. The Hatters have scored 32 goals and conceded just nine.

The first game, back in 1902, ended in a 1-0 win for the Hatters with a solitary goal from Leon Gall settling a Southern League game against Kettering Town.

The number of goals scored against Treharris in 1913 as the Hatters found themselves in the second division of the Southern League. There was a brace apiece for Ernie Simms, Frank Rollinson and Arthur Wileman.

The third home game on this day, in 1919 saw Luton net three goals they beat visitors Swindon Town 3-1. Ernie Simms followed up on his brace six years earlier with another double and John Rutherford was also on the scoresheet.

Notts County were beaten 5-1 when they came to Kenilworth Road in 1952 with Bernard Moore and Jesse Pye both scoring twice. Bert Mitchell also scored for the Hatters.

A First division match in 1958 saw the highest recorded attendance for a home fixture on this date as 23,056 watched the Town beat Preston North End 4-1. Jimmy Adam netted twice with George Cummins and Billy Bingham adding further goals.

The only cup game came in 1988 as Luton were defending their League Cup win against Arsenal five months previously. Rob Johnson netted his first goal for the Hatters against Burnley but the visitors equalised from the spot after Johnson fouled a visiting player inside the area.

The number of goals scored, and points gained, from a 3-0 victory over Preston. Warren Feeney, Ahmet Brkovic and Steve Howard were all on target in this Championship victory in 2005.

2008

It's three years since the last match on this date at Kenilworth Road, and it ended in a 1-1 draw with Chester City. Asa Hall opened the scoring with his second goal of the season, having also netted in the previous home game against Aldershot, but Paul McManus equalised for the visitors in the second half.

NLP VIEW

WITH SAM ELLIOTT

It was a routine telephone call that we expected would confirm the inevitable, the regrettable administration error from a red faced and sorry secretary.

We're duty bound to follow-up when a side are removed from a big competition so when Mangotsfield United were told they could no longer compete in the FA Cup, naturally we picked up the phone.

Straight away it was clear that there was more to this one than met the eye.

This wasn't a club official on the go slow, allowing a suspended player to pull on the shirt without checking first. This was a player thinking only with his feet, and not with his head. Dean Griffiths declined to tell the Mangos he was playing Sunday League football last season, and his club folded owing the County FA money.

Now for those not up to speed with FA protocol, in this situation the debt is not forgotten about. Every player registered to that club is then saddled with a percentage of what is owed. When they pay, they can play.

In Griffiths' case, it was simply £16 outstanding. A quick phone call with his debit card at the ready and he's a free man.

Problem is, he didn't bother. And sadly no-one bothered telling his Saturday club.

His Sine Die blanket ban kicked in a matter of hours before the 3rd September FA Cup game with Hallen but the club didn't receive any correspondence alerting them to the impending ban.

Few would predict little Mangotsfield, currently jostling for a Play-Off place in the Southern League South & West, will be this year's Crawley. But the point of the FA Cup is that they could have been – as they say, it could have been their year!

Chairman Mike Richardson said: "We dream like all the others, but it's not just the lure of a big club in future rounds – it's the prize money that keeps us going.

"We had to hand back a cheque for £1,500 that we won after beating Hallen – all because he didn't pay up his fine. We hadn't received any notification – so you have got to blame the player.

"They asked us why we didn't go on their website the night before the match and look at who is suspended, but who is going to do that late on a Friday night?"

They have since kicked Griffiths out of the club following his costly lack of consideration.

But perhaps it's high time the brainless got their comeuppance, and that they be the ones punished by the Football Association for their lack of thoughtfulness, instead of the clubs?

The FA have to rule with an iron fist and we respect why, but the brick wall response when circumstances are clearly mitigating helps nobody. What if this hadn't been spotted until November?

Had things been different then perhaps angotsfield wouldn't have spent last Saturday going down a 95th minute defeat to Thatcham in the league but instead be on the march to Old Trafford!

LAST WORD

WITH THE LUTON & DUNSTABLE EXPRESS' JAMES CUNLIFFE

Since my last entry on this page Luton on Sunday has gone and joined the Twittersverse, or Tworld, or whatever it is called today. For the uninitiated that's Twitter – an internet social networking site.

Already, thanks to the World Wide Web I can get almost any information at the click of a button and I can do wonderful things like buy my food shopping without having to suffer queues or struggle with a wobbly shopping trolley.

It also gives me something to do when I'm at work (don't tell the boss) and because I've got a smartphone that, by law, must be looked at every five nanoseconds, I can instantly vent my spleen at the slightest imperfection of my club.

Let's face it though, if I had to write a letter, I'd probably develop some perspective in between the final whistle and popping it in the post box and think better of it. But even before a game has finished I can be bashing out a 140 character tirade against my team.

Of course, it's built into my British DNA to have a right good moan, so the internet would seem custom built for my gripes.

But when it comes to the beautiful game, going online just seems to enhance and speed up my powers of overreaction.

And it's endemic, I would suggest, like the web acts as a common sense filter.

No sooner had Luton lost their first game of the season on Saturday than some people – a minority it must be said – were calling for the head of boss Gary Brabin.

That's not to say there shouldn't be concerns over the manner of the 3-0 defeat at York but it should be tempered with the fact that Town's defence changes almost daily and still contains none of last term's Steady Eddies.

Top scorer Amari Morgan-Smith was also absent through suspension. A bad day alright, but a bit too premature to call for heads to roll.

At almost a quarter of the way through the campaign the Hatters are one league position higher and two points better off than at this stage last season, despite injuries and suspensions galore.

In press conferences Brabin has frequently said that the league table means little until the 12 game mark, but truly starts to provide a guide around Christmas time.

Well, the first of those milestones will be up when the final whistle blows tonight. And with Town currently only three points behind joint leaders Wrexham and Gateshead, there's every possibility, that with a win against Cambridge United, they could be back at the top of the table again.

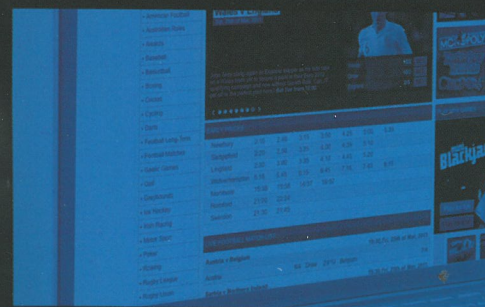

So, it's not all bad and while they are still in the promotion mix then perhaps it's a tad too early to crank up the computers and turn on the phones.

We all know that won't happen because they both make it so easy to have a good old rant. And, let's be truthful, as football fans we love it, don't we?
