IAIN MCINNES

WELCOME TO YOUR CLUB.

I'd like to kick off by hoping that the Christmas holidays are affording you all a great time and that Santa's sack delivered generously and to your taste. My wish list was admittedly headed by a nine-point haul from three tough fixtures against Northampton, Orient and Luton and, of course, while writing I'm only partially sure whether my request has been granted, with such an impressive and deserved win against the side sitting on top of the tree at the time.

By the time you read these notes clearly, my wish is that another cracker at Orient had produced a similar reward. But whatever the outcome, the challenge today was always going to be notable, rounding off the old year against a side, in many pundits' eyes, among the pre-season favourites for promotion.

Of course, the Hatters have fallen short of those, and likely their own, expectations thus far and have relieved the hugely experienced and much respected John Still of command. Unless a swift appointment of his permanent replacement has transpired, they will be led out here at Fratton by somebody we all know rather well... you couldn't write the book!

We recently had Teddy Sheringham virtually make his managerial bow here with Stevenage and prior to that, another ex-blue, Martin Allen, set us a stiff challenge with his competitive Barnet battlers, but I don't think any of us saw this one coming... including Andy!

Well, at a few minutes before 3pm today, a certain Andy Awford will climb those historic steps for the umpteenth time, but on this occasion will have to remember to turn right into the dugout marked 'away team'. I'm sure that along with me, all those who owe much to Andy will serve up a pre-match reception of genuine warmth and appreciation. That's as it should be, but nobody will be more aware that once that whistle blows, a football battle will commence.

That's football as we all know and love it!

So we welcome chairman Nick Owen, chief executive Gary Sweet, Andy, the officials, players and fans of Luton Town. We would also like to extend our greetings to a Happy New Year.

This afternoon we simply want to continue the run of performances and form that sees us sitting in a very competitive position, with 2016 offering the potential to launch a strike to embed ourselves firmly into those automatic promotion places. With what looks like being a sell-out crowd roaring us on today, we have to be confident in achieving that aim.

Andy will, of course, have little trouble in finding his way to the right areas for a drink among friends after the match.

Have fun and Happy New Year.

PUP.

MICHAEL DOYLE

WELCOME TO FRATTON PARK AS WE LOOK TO END 2015 ON A HIGH BY BEATING LUTON THIS AFTERNOON.

"WE'VE GOT A MASSIVE FOUR MONTHS COMING UP NOW AND WE'RE GOING TO NEED
EVEN MORE OF YOUR INCREDIBLE SUPPORT"

I'm writing this before our match at Leyton Orient on Boxing Day, but we have enjoyed a great run of form in recent weeks. Even the disappointment of only getting a draw at Carlisle last month now looks like it could be a massive point. When you're winning games you just want to keep playing, so they can't come along quickly enough for us.

It was a brilliant result at Northampton that ensured everyone was on a high going into the Christmas period. We're in an important run of games now and looking to pick up as many points as possible to put us in a strong position ahead of the little break we have for the FA Cup. We had to battle from behind at Sixfields Stadium, but we've shown plenty of character all season and whenever sides have gone ahead against us, we always seem to have a response. It's a bit disappointing that we've needed to do that so many times and hopefully that's something we can improve on. We want to control games better, rather than have to chase them.

Conor Chaplin scored the winner after coming off the bench late on and has got that striker's instinct to be in the right place at the right time. He showed plenty of composure to net with his first touch and I'm delighted for him because he's such a great lad. He's still learning the game, but always walks around with a smile on his face and is not afraid of hard work. There are young players at other clubs who might have a bit of an attitude, but he shows a lot of respect for the senior guys and wants to learn from them. He's waited patiently for his chances and makes sure that he takes them.

There was a bit of swelling around my ankle and knee after the game and that took a while to go down. A few things were going through my mind when I hit the turf during the first half because I was in quite a bit of pain and I'm just glad that it wasn't something more serious.

We had a tough game at Luton earlier in the season that could have gone either way – and we were perhaps a bit lucky to get the winner right at the end. Back then a lot of people would probably have expected them to be up near the top of the table and I still think they've got a strong enough squad to put a decent run of results together and get into the play-offs. We know that we're certainly going to have our hands full this afternoon.

I obviously wasn't at Pompey when Andy Awford was manager, but a lot of people here speak very highly of him. They say that he's a great person, as well as being a very good coach. I'm sure that the fans will also welcome him back to Fratton Park, but we'll be doing our best to spoil his return by taking all three points.

This is our final game of 2015, so I'd like to wish everyone a very Happy New Year. We've got a massive four months coming up now and we're going to need even more of your incredible support if we want to achieve our goals.

Play up Pompey!

Michael

HALL OF FAME: FOUR MORE INDUCTED

Three prolific goalscorers and a defensive rock are among the latest inductees into the Pompey Hall of Fame.

Noel Blake, Dave Kemp and Svetoslav Todorov have all been included, while there is a posthumous award for 'Farmer's Boy' Billy Haines.

Bulgarian striker Todorov will be best remembered for scoring the goal that secured promotion to the Premier League in 2003.

In front of a packed crowd, he struck in the 73rd minute against Burnley before disappearing into the Fratton End, where he was mobbed by supporters.

That was one of 26 goals that Toddy – as he was affectionately known – would bag that season to finish as Division One's top scorer.

Unfortunately, a serious knee injury on the eve of the following campaign meant that having done so much to get them to the promised land, he would make just 31 more appearances for Pompey.

Toddy remained a much-loved figure, however, and scored a total of 33 goals in 83 games before leaving for Charlton in 2007.

Jamaica-born centre-back Blake joined Pompey from Birmingham in 1984 and was part of the side, led by Alan Ball, that twice narrowly missed out on promotion to the top flight.

They were denied first on goal difference and then by three points before making it third time lucky in the 1986/87 campaign.

Blake missed just a single game that season and recovered from a knee injury to play 23 times the following year.

He chipped in with 13 goals in his 168 games between 1984 and 1988 – one a towering header in a League Cup tie against Tottenham that was settled at the third time of asking – and was twice voted 'Player of the Year' by supporters.

Despite featuring in a struggling side, Kemp was a phenomenal goalscorer, netting 38 times in 74 games during his two years on the south coast.

A financial crisis saw the side cut to the bone and his 16 league strikes in the 1976/77 season was a major factor in Pompey surviving in Division Three by a single point.

He equalled that tally in the following campaign – which saw the Blues finish bottom of the pile – despite having being sold to Carlisle in March with 12 games remaining.

This year's posthumous award goes to Haines, who struck 43 times in 1926/27 to hold the club record for most goals in a season for more than 60 years. It was finally broken by fellow Hall of Famer Guy Whittingham in 1992/93.

Arguably his most crucial strike came in the dying seconds against Preston at Fratton Park – his fourth of the match – which saw Pompey pip Manchester City to promotion by a goal average of just 0.006. It was one four hat-tricks he claimed that term.

Between 1923 and 1928, Haines found the target 129 times in 179 appearances. In 1960 he was appointed president of Portsmouth Football Supporters Club – a position he held until he passed away in 1974.

The Hall of Fame dinner will be held in the Victory Lounge on Friday, April 1 on the eve of the club's Former Players' Day, when Paul Cook's side will entertain Carlisle.

POMPEY SPREAD FESTIVE CHEER

Pompey spread some Christmas cheer with a recent visit to QA Hospital.

The entire first team squad and coaching staff were on hand to give out presents, sign autographs and pose for photos with patients in the paediatric ward.

There were also selection boxes for the older children, which were kindly provided by 'Touchline' Tony Male.

It was a humbling experience for many of the players, including right-back Ben Davies.

He said: "Some of the stuff you see is heartbreaking – especially at this time of year. But it's nice to come down here and be able to put some smiles on the faces of the children."

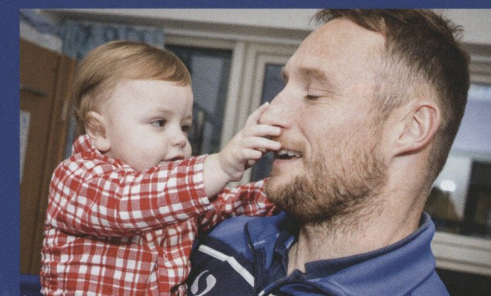

"All the lads came down to give out presents because we wanted to provide some happiness to people who really need it."

Midfielder Adam Barton added: "It's very important that we do things like this and the lads are only too happy to come down."

"I was in a similar situation with my brother and his child at Christmas a couple of years ago."

"It's a difficult time of year to be in hospital and it's not just the patients that are affected – it's the whole family."

"But everyone seems to be a big Pompey fan and it's great to see the smiles on everyone's face when we go and visit them."

DIRECTORS FOR THE DAY

HARTLEPOOL SPONSORS

NA Curtain Walling were Matchball Sponsors for our last home game against Hartlepool and received a signed ball from Nigel Atangana and Rommy Boco before kick-off.

Blue Monkey Consultancy were Match Sponsors and were presented with a signed shirt, later handing a bottle of champagne to man-of-the-match Enda Stevens.

The champagne was kindly supplied by Gusto Wines – a passion for wine delivered with Gusto! Visit www.gustowines.co.uk for more details.

POMPEY WILL BE LOOKING TO END 2015 ON A HIGH BY COMPLETING THE 'DOUBLE' OVER LUTON AT FRATTON PARK THIS AFTERNOON.

Matt Tubbs came off the bench to grab a late winner at Kenilworth Road back in August after Craig Mackail-Smith's spot-kick had cancelled out Gareth Evans' opener.

John Still was in charge of the Hatters that day, but there is likely to be a more familiar face in the opposition dug-out today.

The 65-year-old was sacked almost two weeks ago, with former Blues player and manager Andy Awford asked to take over on a caretaker basis.

And he led Luton to victory in his first game as boss before Christmas, with Paul Benson – who had a loan spell at Pompey during the 2012/13 campaign – securing all three points at Exeter in the 10th minute of stoppage-time.

That result left them 13th in the table ahead of a Boxing Day clash with Wycombe – 16 points clear of the bottom two and seven adrift of the play-off places.

The Hatters have won more times on the road than they have on their own patch this term, earning victories at Cambridge (3-1), Morecambe (3-1), Hartlepool (4-1), Dagenham (2-0) and then at St James Park nine days ago.

But they have been beaten on each of their last six visits to Fratton Park – a sequence that stretches back to 1987 – and the Blues will be keen to see that barren run extended.

Andy Awford

Former Pompey player, scout, coach, academy head and manager is – at the time of going to print – in caretaker charge of Luton following the dismissal of John Still before Christmas. He spent his entire professional playing career at Fratton Park after signing from Worcester in 1989 and was part of the side that reached the FA Cup semi-finals in 1992 before narrowly missing out on promotion to the Premier League the following season. As boss, the Hall of Fame inductee led the Blues to League Two safety in 2013/14, but departed in April and was later selected by the Hatters to lead their youth set-up.

GK Mark Tyler

Veteran stopper started his career at Peterborough, making his senior debut back in 1996 and amassing almost 500 first team appearances. He was awarded a testimonial match against Liverpool in 2007, but left London Road to sign for the Hatters in 2009 and was part of the side that won promotion back to the Football League in 2014.

Age: 38; Luton apps: 276

DF Scott Cuthbert

Versatile former Scotland under-21 international came through the youth ranks at Celtic, but left the Glasgow giants in 2009 without having made a senior appearance. JOHNNY MOORE ASKS JAMES CUNLIFFE OF LUTON ON SUNDAY
TO RUN THE RULE OVER THE HATTERS

JM HOW WILL LUTON LOOK BACK ON THE FIRST HALF OF THE SEASON?

JC I don't think they'll want to look back on the first half of the season. In fact, the whole of 2015 has been one to forget. Managers don't get sacked when things have gone well, unless you're Real Madrid, but defensive frailties continued from the second half of last term and ultimately cost John Still his job. Conceding decisive last minute goals was a major feature – as Portsmouth fans will remember – and wrecked confidence early on. If there's a positive to be taken, it's that Still added plenty of goals to the team and they smashed last season's entire away tally a couple of months back.

JM WERE SUPPORTERS SURPRISED BY THE RATHER SLUGGISH START TO THE CAMPAIGN?

JC Surprise might be an understatement. With the quality of players that Still brought in during the summer, I think they were expecting fireworks, but rather than explosions they got implosions. Still repeatedly claimed that his teams always start slow, but I don't think that went down well and it seemed to seep into the players' consciousness. That, along with the usual difficulties of integrating 12 new players into a squad, has combined to their detriment. To their credit, players have, in interviews, taken some of the blame for Still getting the axe, so perhaps it can be a catalyst for change.

JM A FEW WINS COULD CHANGE THE LANDSCAPE – ARE FANS STILL HOPEFUL OF MOUNTING A PROMOTION CHALLENGE?

JC I think all bets are off at the moment. They got an immediate victory after John Still's exit, with Andy Awford in temporary charge at Exeter, but they need stability and for the new boss to hit the ground running with a clear philosophy that includes a 'Plan B'. Though it was their goal at the start of the campaign, I think it would be an extremely optimistic fan still harbouring expectations of automatic promotion. I think a top three finish is out of the equation and has been for some time. Reaching the play-offs is achievable – but only if the next manager gets it right straight away.

JM WHO ARE THE IN-FORM LUTON PLAYERS LIKELY TO POSE POMPEY PROBLEMS THIS AFTERNOON?

JC Paul Benson has shown this month that there's still life in his 36-year-old legs, both as a poacher and a target man. He was injured for three months, but had notched five times in 11 appearances before Christmas. Danny Green provides good ammunition for the strikers with tremendous crossing ability and if the winger gets a sniff from 25 yards out then he's pretty accurate. But midfielder Cameron McGeehan is the standout threat for Town because he just has a handy knack of being in the right place at the right time, whether he plays centrally or wider. He set a goal target of between 10 and 15 goals this term and he'd netted nine before Christmas.

"CAMERON MCGEEHAN IS THE STANDOUT THREAT FOR TOWN BECAUSE HE JUST HAS A HANDY KNACK OF BEING IN THE RIGHT PLACE AT THE RIGHT TIME"

JM LUTON'S AWAY RECORD IS IMPRESSIVE THIS SEASON, SO WILL THEY BE LOOKING FOR MAXIMUM POINTS TODAY?

JC They would have gone for all three points under John Still because that was his philosophy, but it will be a while before we get a sense of what Luton's approach will be without him. If they'd employed a bit more pragmatism on occasion, they'd probably be in a better position than they are now. The only thing that Town have come to expect more than last minute drama is that if Matt Tubbs plays, he usually scores, so if he takes a bit longer to recover from his injury then I'm sure there will be a bit more expectancy of another win on the road.

He was twice top scorer, including for their 1969/70 Division Three promotion success when he was also Player of the Year, and netted 49 goals in 88 league games before being sold to Newcastle for £180,000 in May 1971. An FA Cup finalist in 1974 and League Cup finalist in 1976, Macdonald joined Arsenal for £333,333 in the summer of 1976 and was an FA Cup finalist again two years later before injury ended his career. He then managed Fulham and Huddersfield and now works in the media.

CHRIS NICHOLL

Northern Ireland international centre-back Nicholl was the Hatters' Player of the Year in 1970/71. A former Burnley apprentice, he moved, via Witton, to Halifax in June 1968 and starred in their 1968/69 promotion success. He joined Luton in the summer of 1969 and was a promotion winner in 1969/70, netting six goals in 97 league games before joining Aston Villa in March 1972. Helping then win promotion in 1974/75, as well as featuring in two League Cup final triumphs, Nicholl joined Southampton in June 1977 and was a promotion winner again in his first season, then played for Grimsby before managing Pompey's rivals and Walsall.

RICKY HILL

England international midfielder Hill was Player of the Year when Luton won the second division title in 1981/82. Signing professional terms at Kenilworth Road in May 1976, he was also top man in 1980/81 and starred as the Hatters were FA Cup semi-finalists in 1984/85. Hill also featured in two consecutive League Cup finals, including the club's 1988 Wembley triumph, and netted 54 goals in 436 league games before moving to Le Havre in July 1989. Reuniting with David Pleat at Leicester in August 1990 and later as a coach at Sheffield Wednesday and Tottenham, he briefly rejoined Luton as manager in 2000.

PAUL WALSH

England international striker Walsh was capped five times while with the Hatters. Signing professional terms at Charlton in October 1979, he starred in their 1980/81 promotion success and moved to Luton in July 1982. He was Player of the Year in 1982/83 and leading marksman in 1983/84, netting 24 goals in 80 first division games before joining Liverpool in May 1984. Helping to win the top-flight title in 1985/86, Walsh joined Tottenham in February 1988 and was an FA Cup winner in 1991. He later played for Pompey, Manchester City and the Blues again, until injury curtailed his career.

MAL DONAGHY

Northern Ireland international centre-back Donaghy gained a club record 58 caps while at Luton. He moved to Kenilworth Road from Larne in June 1978 and was ever-present as the Hatters won the second division title in 1981/82 and were FA Cup semi-finalists in 1984/85. Voted Player of the Year in 1985/86, he was an FA Cup semi-finalist again in 1987/88 and starred in that season's League Cup final triumph. Donaghy netted 16 goals in 410 league games prior to joining Manchester United for £650,000 in October 1988, then returned on loan before moving to Chelsea in August 1992 and has since worked for the Irish FA.

BRIAN STEIN

England international striker Stein was the Hatters' Player of the Year in 1987/88, scoring twice in that season's League Cup final triumph against Arsenal. Moving to Kenilworth Road from Edgware Town in October 1977, he was leading marksman when Luton won the Division Two title in 1981/82 and also starred as they were FA Cup semi-finalists in 1984/85 and 1987/88. Stein joined Caen in July 1988 and moved, via Annecy, back to Luton in the summer of 1991. Voted star man again in 1991/92, he netted 130 goals in 427 league games overall before joining Barnet in August 1992, while younger brother Mark also played for Town.

PAUL FUTCHER

Former England under-21 central defender Futchter was named Luton's star man in both 1976/77 and 1977/78. He turned professional with twin brother Ron at hometown club Chester in January 1974, moving to Kenilworth Road in a joint £100,000 deal in June 1974 and scoring once in 131 league outings. Sold to Manchester City for £350,000 in the summer of 1978, he then had spells playing for Oldham and Derby prior to joining Barnsley in March 1984. Futchter starred as they reached the FA Cup sixth round in 1984/85, moving to Halifax in July 1990. Later with Grimsby, he managed Darlington, Gresley and Southport.

KIRK STEPHENS

Attacking right-back Stephens was ever-present as the Hatters claimed the Division Two title in 1981/82. Initially with Nuneaton, he helped them finish Southern League runners-up in 1974/75 and followed boss David Pleat to Kenilworth Road in June 1978. Stephens was voted Luton's Player of the Year in 1978/79 and 1983/84, scoring twice in 227 league games before moving to Coventry in exchange for Ashley Grimes in August 1984. Later rejoining Nuneaton as player/manager after a knee injury ended his top-flight career, he also had a spell at Barnet and has since run the family building firm.

MICK HARFORD

England international striker Harford was named Luton's top player in 1988/89. Initially with Lincoln, he played for Newcastle, Bristol City and Birmingham prior to joining the Hatters in December 1984. He starred as they were League Cup finalists in two successive seasons, including their 1988 Wembley triumph, and also reached the last four of the FA Cup on two occasions. Moving to Derby in January 1990, Harford returned to Kenilworth Road in September 1991. Signing for Chelsea in the summer of 1992, he then appeared for Sunderland, Coventry and Wimbledon and has since been coach and manager of Luton.

DAVID PREECE

England 'B' international midfielder Preece was Player of the Year when the Hatters reached the FA Cup semi-finals in 1993/94. Signing professional terms with Walsall in July 1980, he helped them reach the League Cup semi-finals in 1983/84 before joining Luton for £150,000 in December 1984. Preece appeared in two consecutive League Cup finals, including their 1998 success at Wembley and was also star man in 1991/92, netting 21 goals in 336 league games while at Kenilworth Road prior to signing for Derby in August 1995. Later player/coach at Cambridge and Torquay, he died in July 2007.

GOOD EVANS

WORDS: NEIL WELD

"IT'S GREAT IF YOU CAN COLLECT PLENTY OF POINTS AT THIS TIME, ESPECIALLY WHEN YOU'RE BATTLING IT OUT AT THE TOP OF THE TABLE"

In a few days' time, people around the world will celebrate the end of one year and the beginning of a new one.

Many will set themselves resolutions, seeing January as a chance to make a fresh start by ridding themselves of bad habits.

It is the same for plenty of football fans, who will be hoping to leave a run of bad results or off-field uncertainty back in 2015.

That has certainly been the case for beleaguered Blues fans over the past few seasons, with the Fratton faithful having long grown weary of first relegation battles and then League Two mediocrity.

But there is no need to wish for a vast change of fortunes this term, with Paul Cook's Pompey finally looking capable of mounting a promotion challenge.

Instead, Gareth Evans is hoping that they can take their impressive form from the first half of the campaign into 2016.

"It's been an enjoyable season so far," enthuses the 27-year-old winger. "We've really started to kick into gear the past few weeks and get a good run of results

"The Christmas period is always a crucial one in football and you have those special games on Boxing Day and then at the start of the year.

"It's great if you can collect plenty of points at this time, especially when you're battling it out at the top of the table. We're in a good position now and well placed to mount a promotion challenge."

A six-match unbeaten league run had seen Pompey rise to fourth in the table ahead of their Boxing Day trip to the capital to take on Leyton Orient.

Evans played a key role in that sequence, scoring in the Fratton thumping of Hartlepool earlier this month and then netting again to help secure victory at high-flying Northampton just before Christmas.

"I've got five goals so far, although I would have liked a few more," admits the summer signing from Fleetwood. "I've had quite a few that have been cleared off the line or hit the woodwork, so I'm Official Telecommunications Provider To Portsmouth Football Club.

"It's also pleasing that I've appeared in the majority of the games and my Pompey career got off to the perfect start when I scored against Dagenham on the opening day.

"I got sent off at Cambridge and that was disappointing. It took me a couple of games to get back into the swing of things once I'd returned from the suspension.

"But I've really enjoyed my time here overall and I settled in right away, despite never having lived outside of Manchester before. This is a nice area and, aside from friends and family, there's nothing I miss.

"The weather has also been pretty decent, although there has been quite a bit of rain in recent weeks to remind me of home!"

Pompey's away form has played a big role in their lofty position, with six triumphs and only one defeat prior to their Matchroom Stadium visit, compared to just four Fratton victories.

But the Blues have scored 10 goals in their last two home league fixtures, thrashing York 6-0 before hitting four past Hartlepool.

Now Evans hopes they can continue to reward the large crowds with plenty more wins on their own patch.

"We didn't do anything different against York," he says with a shrug. "We just got the rub of the green when they had a player sent off just before half-time and then the floodgates opened.

"That will hopefully be the catalyst for much better home form from now until the end of the campaign.

"We were playing really well away from home and although we weren't bad at Fratton Park, the results weren't always going our way."

"But we've scored 10 times in the last two matches here, so that tells you that things are going in the right direction and we're starting to find that consistency that we've all been striving for. That's ultimately what will separate the sides that go up from those that just miss out."

Pompey are, unsurprisingly, attracting the largest attendances in League Two for the third season in a row and Evans believes that the supporters deserve to see their side enjoy success.

"It's great playing at this ground," he declares. "We always get really large crowds and the fans are fantastic, but I expected nothing less when I came here."

"When you're walking around the club and the training ground, you get the impression that everything's set for a higher level. I truly believe that if we can get one promotion, we can quickly go on to get another – hopefully that will be the case."

That 'P' word is likely to be on everyone's lips for the remainder of the campaign and that expectancy does not intimidate Evans.

"There was a large contingent of players who arrived at Pompey last summer and we all came for one reason – to win promotion. We're not here for anything else."

"THERE WAS A LARGE CONTINGENT OF PLAYERS WHO ARRIVED AT POMPEY LAST SUMMER AND WE ALL CAME FOR ONE REASON – TO WIN PROMOTION"

"It helps that there is a good number of lads who have already got the experience of going up from League Two because they know what it takes to enjoy success at this level."

"That will really start to come into play when we reach March or April and you've got really important games where three points are vital."

Getting out of the fourth tier of English football is Pompey's priority, but they also have an FA Cup third round tie at Ipswich fast approaching.

"We're just looking at it as another game," Evans insists. "It might be different if we'd have drawn Manchester United or Arsenal. It will, however, be a good test and give us an idea of where we are as a club and a team."

"They're doing well in the Championship and will want to win promotion themselves, so we know it will be difficult. But we've played sides at their level already this season and did well against Derby and Reading in the League Cup, so we certainly shouldn't fear Ipswich."

"Those games were at the start of the season and we've improved since then, so hopefully we can give a good account of ourselves and progress to the fourth round."

What was your first Pompey game?

My first ever Pompey match was Morecambe at home on November 22 2014. I know it wasn't that long ago, but I really wanted to go to a game. We won 3-0, with Craig Westcarr scoring in the first half and Jed Wallace adding two in the second. After that match, I got a half-season ticket. I renewed it and still sit in the North Stand – the block before the Milton End.

What is your favourite Pompey game?

It is either the FA Cup final in 2008 or the York match earlier this season. I watched the final on TV and remember King Kanu's goal. It was amazing to watch and we won 1-0, so it was good to see us lift the cup again. I was at the York game on November 24 and we beat them 6-0 – with all the goals arriving in the second half!

What is your worst moment as a Pompey fan?

My worst moment was probably when we lost the FA Cup final against Chelsea in 2010. I knew we weren't going to beat them, but it would have been nice to have won it again. It was a tough game, though, and it was good to watch on television.

Who is your favourite current Pompey player?

I have a few favourite players this season, but if I had to choose it would be Ben Tollitt, Conor Chaplin or Gary Roberts. They are great at football – as are all the players. It is just something about those three that I like a bit more.

Blue Army / 39

BLUE ARMY

I have met all of them a few times and they are really nice people, so I suppose that helps.

Who is your favourite past Pompey player?

Again, I have a few favourite past players. If I had to choose between three it would be Jed Wallace, Sylvain Distin and Lassana Diarra, as they were hard-working, have all progressed to higher clubs and are great players now.

What is your favourite away ground to visit?

I have only been to three away games. I know it's not a lot, but I prefer home matches. If I need to choose from the three grounds I have visited, it would have to be Adams Park, Wycombe. It is a nice stadium to go to in my opinion.

What are your matchday superstitions or routines?

I don't really have any superstitions. I usually meet the players before home matches then when the turnstiles open, I watch them train. Before the game starts, my cousin, foster dad and I usually predict what the score is and we have a selfie before the game.

Why do you support Pompey?

I support Pompey for loads of reasons, including the fans, the atmosphere we create, the fact the players are all nice – just everything about the club. I know we have been relegated three times and been in administration twice, but that will never change my opinion. We have saved our club and now are fan-owned. We have been in League Two for a few years, but I believe we will go up this season.

A KNIGHT'S TALE

ALAN KNIGHT MADE
801 APPEARANCES FOR
POMPEY AND IS NOW CLUB
AMBASSADOR

It is at this time of year that I find my role as a club ambassador really comes into its own. I was recently called upon to switch on the Christmas lights in both Paulsgrove and Portchester on the same day. Fortunately, this is something I have gained plenty of experience in down the years - so much so that I used to have mates asking me to pop round to turn on their tree lights - a request I would politely decline!

The Portchester event was organised by the community association in the precinct. After opening proceedings and doing the big switch on, the Reverend Ian Meredith made an address and the occasion was made all the more seasonal by local schoolchildren singing carols and performing dances.

You would think that a relatively simple task like turning some lights on would not cause too much in the way of stage fright. But, with so many people present, there is always a slight concern that nothing happens when you press the button or that a fuse blows a few seconds later. It's completely different to doing the same thing in your living room with only a couple of other people present! The high winds - which cancelled an event in Portsmouth - added another risk factor. But, as it happened, both events ran very smoothly and the people of Paulsgrove and Portchester were given some Christmas cheer. My thanks goes to all those who organised and attended to help make it a special night.

Of course, it wouldn't be Christmas without our annual visit to QA Hospital in Cosham to visit some less fortunate children. Managers and players have come and gone over the years, but these trips are a constant and we all went along on December 15. I know that anyone who represents the club is extremely touched by this occasion and this time was no exception, with Paul Cook and the squad happy to turn up and spread a little festive happiness to those who really deserve it. It makes you realise how lucky you are to be healthy - especially at this time of year - when you see people who, for whatever reason, are unable to be at home with their friends and families. I hope that we were able to help cheer some of them up.

I hope you all enjoyed a peaceful and merry

SUPPORTERS CLUBS

LONDON SUPPORTERS' CLUB

This year marks the 64th anniversary of the Portsmouth FC Supporters' Club in London - 1951 being the year the original committee first met on the terraces at Fratton Cottage for a Blues away game.

We are essentially a group of like-minded souls who, although exiled from Portsmouth, like to feel attached to Pompey and their fans in some way. It doesn't matter where you live now.

Here are a few things that we do...

We run a regular draw for two free tickets to each home match, while members vote for our own Player of the Year and we run a 100 Club. We are also represented at the Conference and if you look further on in this programme you will see that we are sponsoring Kyle Bennett.

An excellent dinner is held annually at Fratton Park, where players, board members and other club staff join us at our tables and enjoy an informal meal together at a very reasonable price. Our award for the best player is presented at this event and there are always fantastic prizes to be won in the raffle.

And oh yes, £6,000 worth of shares are held in our name with the Trust and we have also just helped Pompey's Community with a donation towards their classroom.

With all that in mind, we think it's pretty safe to say we are working to keep the London Supporters' Club moving in the right direction - supporting Pompey.

Like other groups, we get a ticket allocation for away matches which are local to us and these are distributed through our own internal system.

Our AGM is held in London, again with the Blues players and staff coming along. It's a very short AGM but a long evening of fun!

Do you fancy joining us and getting your free Portsmouth and Pompey keyring? Then please get in touch by email to londonpompeymembership@hotmail.co.uk assisted with the raffle and auction, as well as John PFC Westwood. The latter was asked to shave off the hair of cancer sufferer 'Aussie Dave', who offered his locks in exchange for an additional whip-round.

Keith Thripp came up with the idea for the event and helped bring it to life, while items for the auction were donated by Warrior Clothing, C Brewer & Sons, Brittany Ferries and The House of Commons. There were also personal donations from skinheads based in America and France. Meanwhile, Southampton lads Barrie Short and Tony Gailor brought loads of prizes with them and filled up two minibuses with supporters.

Entertainment was provided for free by The Aim – consisting of Andrew Hollins (vocals), Paul Gardner (lead guitar), Mark Skidmore (rhythm guitar/vocals), Andrew Hedger (bass/vocals) and Rob Dillan (Drums) – and DJ Zoe Snook.

The Froddington Arms – run by Arron and Natasha – was packed with Pompey and Southampton fans, as well as people from as far afield as Walsall and Essex. They raised a grand total of £2,225, which was divided equally between both charities.

Keith and his gang of helpers – including Jayne Dixon, Karen Thripp, Pete Gover and Martin Fowler – worked very hard to organise the event and are now looking forward to planning their next one in the new year.

Rival supporters from Pompey and Southampton came together at The Froddington Arms earlier this month to raise money for children's charities Lennon's Goal/Vision and Doing It For The Kids.

The evening was organised by the Hampshire Skinhead Association under the banner 'Chop-Vember'. Participants were sponsored to grow their side-burns and have them waxed off. Steve Newman raised the most individually, while Colin Micklewhite had the best-kept chops.

I was joined by Pompey legend Alan Knight, who

NON-LEAGUE SCENE

with Robert Cusack

The festive period is set to be an exciting one for our non-league neighbours, with local derbies galore at various levels of the semi-professional game.

Gosport and Havant & Waterlooville met at Privett Park on Boxing Day, with the return fixture at Westleigh Park taking place on Saturday.

The sides go into those games in differing form, with Alex Pike's Borough side having won four National League South fixtures in succession prior to their 1-0 defeat at Margate before Christmas. That left them sixth in the table, with only goal difference keeping them behind Whitehawk and outside of the play-off places.

Lee Bradbury's Hawks, meanwhile, were victorious for the first time in four league fixtures on December 19, with Scott Donnelly's brace securing a 2-1 triumph over Concord Rangers. They are still in the relegation places, although it is just goal difference that is preventing them from leapfrogging Weston-super-Mare.

Bognor Regis Town hosted bottom-of-the-table Sussex rivals Lewes on Boxing Day, hoping to earn a first Ryman Premier Division win in six attempts and close the gap on the top five. The Rocks will now travel to Burgess Hill on Saturday for their first game of 2016.

No games were played in the Wessex League Premier Division on Saturday, but Fareham Town and AFC Portchester meet at Cams Alders tomorrow, while Moneyfields' trip to Horndean has been postponed to make way for their twice-rearranged FA Vase replay at Brimscombe & Thrupp.

POMPEY 4-0 HARTLEPOOL

Lavery 33, Jackson 37 (og), Evans 61, McNulty 90

December 12 2015 / Fratton Park / Attendance: 15,610

Pompey gave the Fratton faithful a welcome early Christmas present with a comfortable victory over Hartlepool.

After a slow start, it was Caolan Lavery who broke the deadlock with a fine effort from outside the box that left former Blues keeper Trevor Carson with no chance.

The hosts were then gifted a second goal moments later when Adam Jackson inadvertently turned Ben Davies' cross into his own net.

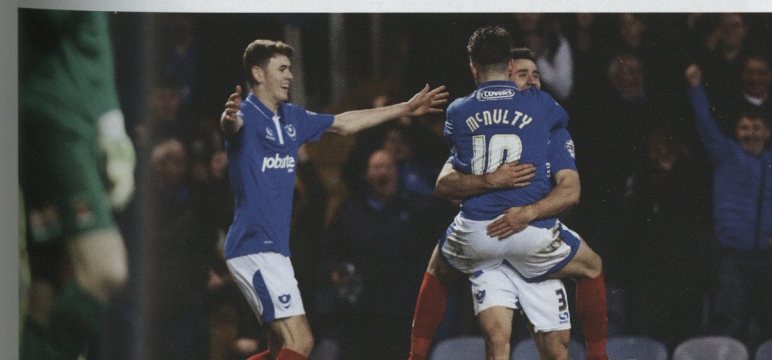

Brian Murphy had been enjoying a quiet afternoon, but was called into action just before the break with a diving save to keep out Scott Fenwick's sweetly-struck shot.

The Blues made sure of the three points just past the hour mark when Gareth Evans was on hand to slot home after Carson had done well to deny Marc McNulty.

McNulty then latched onto Enda Stevens' threaded pass and coolly found the target late on to wrap up a resounding triumph.

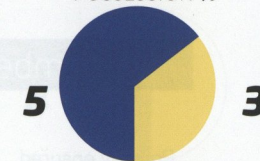

"WHEN I FIRST CAME HERE THERE WAS A LOT OF TALK ABOUT HOW WE'VE BEEN STRUGGLING AT HOME, BUT NOW WE'VE GOT PLENTY OF BELIEF" CAOLAN LAVERY

NORTHAMPTON 1-2 POMPEY

Cresswell 17

Evans 32, Chaplin 86

December 19 2015 / Sixfields Stadium / Attendance: 5,859

Pompey ensured it would be a very Merry Christmas by battling from behind to win at table-topping Northampton.

The hosts broke the deadlock when Ryan Cresswell rose highest in the box to head home Joel Byrom's corner.

But the Blues levelled following good work from Marc McNulty, who shook off a challenge and stood up a fine cross that Gareth Evans expertly guided into the top corner.

They immediately set about trying to find another goal, with Cobblers keeper Adam Smith denying both Caolan Lavery and McNulty before the interval.

Pompey did forge ahead late in the second half, however, when substitute Conor Chaplin slotted home with his first touch after Smith could only parry Ben Tollitt's drive.

Dominic Calvert-Lewin almost snatched an equaliser with a header that left the crossbar shaking, but the Blues held on to secure all three points.

"IT'S ALWAYS A GREAT FEELING TO SCORE – AND IT'S EVEN BETTER WHEN IT'S A LATE WINNER"

TEAM-MATES

WITH BRIAN MURPHY

MOST SKILFUL
Ben Tollitt looks very good in training, so I'll give it to him over Gary Roberts.

BIGGEST JOKER
I'd say that Christian Burgess is a joke, so I'll give that to him.

MOST VAIN
Christian Burgess by a mile, although he's trying to be something he's not.

WORST DRESSER
Rommy Boco. He tells people his clothes cost a bit, but he just gets it all wrong.

QUICKEST
I haven't seen everyone in a race yet, but I think that's probably Ben Tollitt again.

CLEVEREST
That's a tough one. Christian appears to be clever, but he's not. Danny Hollands has got a bit about him, though.

HARDEST WORKING
All of the goalkeepers.

MOST LIKELY TO MANAGE
Michael Doyle. He's angry all the time, so you can see him becoming a manager.

STRONGEST
I think everyone would agree that's Ben Davies - he seems to be in the gym a lot.

LEAST INTELLIGENT
Christian Burgess is just daft. He's the loudest and sometimes that also means the weakest.

LAZIEST
Enda Stevens. I see him floating around the place, but he doesn't seem to do anything.

POMPEY GOLD

JOHNNY MOORE LOOKS BACK AT SOME MEMORABLE
SEASONS FROM POMPEY'S PAST

It was a season that provided a fantastic Christmas cracker.

With the big day fast approaching, Santa took time off from his busy schedule in Lapland to delight Pompey fans.

Leading Fulham 4-0 after 39 minutes – courtesy of Alan Biley's brace and goals from Neil Webb and Malcolm Waldron – Alan Ball's side contrived to concede four times in the second half as the game ended 4-4 before a disbelieving Fratton crowd.

He made his entrance late in a top-of-the-table Fratton clash with Oxford and with the hosts trailing by a single goal, running onto the pitch to take his bow.

In the time added on for the delay in proceedings, Alan Biley twice popped up to nod home in a dramatic finale and take home the valuable present of all three points.

While Blues fans lapped up this display of festive spirit, opposing manager Jim Smith resembled a modern-day Ebenezer Scrooge as he stood frosty-faced on the touchline at the end, awaiting referee Martin Bodenham as if he were Bob Cratchit sneaking into the office late on Boxing Day. His parting shot on leaving the ground was: "Bloody Father Christmas."

But it was Smith who had the last laugh – while Oxford were promoted as Division Two champions, Pompey cruelly missed out on promotion on goal difference.

When the going got tough, the Blues ran out of fire and successive home defeats in April to Birmingham and Manchester City sealed their fate. The former went up in second place, while it was the latter who grabbed that crucial final spot.

Success in the final three games against Blackburn (1-0), Carlisle (3-1) and Huddersfield (2-0) merely served to add the pain, pointing out just how significant that City loss had been.

It had all looked so bright at the start of the season as Pompey went the first 10 games unbeaten, winning seven of them – including consecutive away wins at Leeds and Birmingham.

And as the campaign progressed, there was little to suggest they would flounder. Their four away defeats was the fewest in the division, but losing the same number at home was the worst record among the promotion-chasing pack.

It was this, along with 14 draws, that proved their undoing – if just one of these had been converted into a victory then Pompey would have been catapulted above Manchester City in the final standings.

The costliest of these stalemates came on New Year's Day in what must surely go down as one of the most Indeed, it was a massively wind-assisted contest and it appeared to blow Pompey completely off course, with draws at Middlesbrough and Barnsley and a home defeat by Charlton following.

Along with the Fulham fiasco, those home losses to Birmingham and Manchester City – with a 2-1 reverse at Crystal Palace sandwiched in between – proved costly.

Pompey won 2-0 at Huddersfield on the final day – a game that saw Kevin O'Callaghan dribble from the halfway line to score a wonder goal – but City's emphatic 5-1 victory over Charlton meant there was no reprieve.

But as the thousands of Blues fans started their journey home, news was beginning to filter through about a fire at nearby Bradford City, which served to put everything firmly into context.

PAST PROGRAMMES

WE DELVE INTO SOME OF THE PROGRAMMES
FROM PAST CLASHES WITH LUTON

Luton 2
Pompey 0
FA Cup third round
January 6 1951

Pompey were still basking in the glory of being crowned champions of England for a second season in succession when they began their FA Cup campaign at second tier Luton.

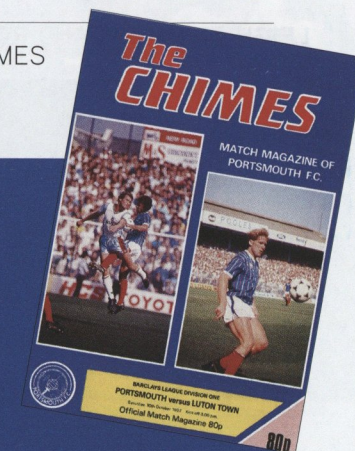

But Kenilworth Road was also where the adventure ended for Bob Jackson's side, as they crashed to a 2-0 defeat.

The home side certainly built up the tie in the programme, which contained adverts for JW
Green's Quality Ales & Stouts and Randall & Whiting Lid Milk Distributors.

In the club notes, they wrote: "Pompey celebrated their Golden Jubilee year of 1948 by winning the first division championship at the end of that season and not being content with that, they repeated the performance last season, a splendid and unique achievement.

"The greatest day in all their 50 years of history was when, after beating Wolverhampton Wanderers in the FA Cup final by four goals to one, Guthrie received the cup from His Majesty King George VI on Saturday, April 29 1939.

"Much could be written of one of the foremost clubs in the country and we are very pleased to receive them here today."

Pompey 3
(Dillon 2, Mariner)
Luton 1 (Harford)
Division One
October 10 1987

Pompey's return to the top tier of English football was destined to last for just a solitary season.

But they rose to 11th in the Division One table
— their highest position of the whole campaign — with a 3-1 triumph over Luton at Fratton Park.

Kevin Dillon opened the scoring with a long-range strike and then added a penalty before Paul Mariner headed home a third, while Mick Harford grabbed a late consolation from the spot.

Alan Ball previewed the clash in his programme notes, saying: "They're a side who have established themselves in the first division over the past few years, building a reputation for playing good football — and I know that their new manager Ray Harford, an old friend of mine, is looking to develop that."

Elsewhere in the publication, a 'stylish' looking Mick Quinn posed for a photo and answered some quick-fire questions.

The striker revealed that he likes eating pasta, drinking Perrier water and reading Stephen King books, while looking to play international football for whatever country will have him!

ON THIS DAY

LEIGH EDWARDS AND ROGER HOLMES LOOK BACK AT DECEMBER 28 DOWN THE YEARS

Pompey 0 Preston North End 2
Division One

Former England Schoolboy and Youth international Colin Osmond made his debut in Pompey's defeat by Preston, watched by 31,735 at Fratton Park. The opening goal came after 19 minutes when Tommy Docherty (left) sent the ball into the middle, Phil Gunter only made a half-hearted clearance and Tommy Thompson raced in to slam home. The Blues made a spirited attempt to get back on terms after the break, but Derek Myers doubled the visitors' lead with the softest of touches in the 57th minute. Preston should even have gone further ahead as Thompson, with the goal at his mercy, blazed over from eight yards.

Pompey: Norman Uprichard, Phil Gunter, Alex Wilson, Johnny Phillips, Colin Osmond, Jimmy Dickinson, Peter Harris, Johnny Gordon, Derek Dougan, Mike Barnard, Ron Newman

Preston: Fred Else, Willie Cunningham, Joe Walton, Tommy Docherty, Joe Dunn, Frank O'Farrell, Derek Mayers, Tommy Thompson, Dennis Hatsell, Jimmy Baxter, Sammy Taylor

Allan Brown's hat-trick plus a goal from John Groves gave the following Luton side a 4-0 first division victory over Arsenal in front of 27,493 at Kenilworth Road: Ron Baynham, Shay Dunne, Ken Hawkes, Bob Morton, Syd Owen, Reg Pearce, Jimmy Adam, Gordon Turner, Allan Brown, John Groves, George McLeod.

Pompey 3 Charlton Athletic 1
Division Two

An early own-goal set Pompey on the way to victory against Charlton in front of 14,746 at Fratton Park. With only 25 seconds gone, Billy Bonds headed back to debut-making goalkeeper Les Surman, but the teenager allowed the ball to roll into the net. The hosts piled on the pressure and Albert McCann doubled the lead in the 41st minute with a thundering left-foot shot into the top corner, then former Addicks forward Dennis Edwards nodded home a third moments later. Mike Kenning pulled reduced the deficit on the stroke of half-time, but a Blues victory never looked in doubt throughout a goalless second half.

Pompey: John Milkins, Alex Wilson, Ron Tindall, Johnny Gordon, Frank Haydock, Brian Lewis, Tony Barton, Cliff Portwood, Dennis Edwards, Albert McCann, Ray Hiron

Charlton: Les Surman, Billy Bonds, Peter Jenkins, Mike Bailey, John Hewie, Brian Tocknell, Mike Kenning, Roy Matthews, Ron Saunders, Peter Burridge, Len Glover

1974

Division Two

Pompey's final match of 1974 was a goalless stalemate with Millwall at The Den in front of 8,116. Ian St John's side, helped on by a strong wind during the first half, pounded forward time and again, with Lions goalkeeper Bryan King saving superbly from both Micky Mellows and Billy Wilson (right). The hosts also had their chances and Phil Summerill blasted a close-range volley over the bar before Barry Kitchener's header was brilliantly kept out by David Best. The Blues produced the best move of the match in the second half, as Wilson's defence-splitting pass sent Norman Piper away and the midfielder's shot was just off target.

Ron Fletcher grabbed a hat-trick as the following struggling Luton side gained a 3-2 first division victory over Wolves, watched by 19,642 at Kenilworth Road: Graham Horn, John Ryan, Steve Buckley, Peter Anderson, John Faulkner, Paul Fletcher, Jimmy Ryan, Jimmy Husband, Ron Fletcher, Alan West, John Aston.

1991

Division Two

Pompey thrashed promotion favourites Middlesbrough with a devastating performance before a crowd of 12,324 at Fratton Park. They took an early lead when Guy Whittingham spun round to hammer a left-foot shot into the top corner and, on 34 minutes, Darryl Powell cut inside and buried his first goal of the season. Darren Anderton was fouled by Stephen Pears just before half-time and John Beresford ripped the penalty into the roof of the net then, after 68 minutes, Martin Kuhl rounded things off with a right-foot drive following a shuttle of passes between Chris Burns, Warren Aspinall and Mark Chamberlain.

Middlesbrough: Stephen Pears, Curtis Fleming (Mark Proctor), Jimmy Phillips, Alan Kernaghan, Nicky Mohan, Robbie Mustoe, Bernie Slaven, Andy Payton, Paul Wilkinson, Jamie Pollock (Gary Parkinson), Andy Peake

Mick Harford's goal and a John Dreyer penalty gave struggling Luton a 2-0 Division One win over Chelsea at Kenilworth Road. The team was: Steve Sutton, Julian James, Richard Harvey, Chris Kamara, John Dreyer, Trevor Peake, Paul Telfer, Brian Stein (Jamie Campbell), Mick Harford, Mark Pembridge, David Preece (Scott Oakes).

2002

Division One

"AS A TRADITIONALIST,
IT IS STRANGE
THAT I FEEL FAIRLY
APATHETIC ABOUT FOOTBALL THIS TIME OF YEAR"

MOORE'S MEMORIES

IT IS THAT TIME OF THE YEAR WHEN WE ARE ONCE AGAIN IN THE MIDST OF ABNORMALITY AND I'M NOT EVEN SURE WHAT DAY OF THE WEEK IT IS.

There will be those who have already returned to work and many more who have not, television is still churning out festive specials and we are all gripped in this post-yuletide hiatus, with the New Year celebrations still to come.

It was no less strange when I experienced my first ever football programme at Christmas, as Pompey played away at Crystal Palace on Boxing Day in 1967 and then hosted them four days later.

In this embryonic stage of life as a supporter, I had got used to seeing them face different sides each week. So I could not quite get my head around us taking on the same team twice in quick succession and was even more flummoxed by the fact that they both ended 2-2 draws.

As a traditionalist, it is strange that I feel fairly apathetic about football this time of year – perhaps because I typically feel apathetic about this time of year.

It might also have been fuelled a few years later in 1970 when after playing Bolton on December 19, the next game did not take place until January 2, when the Blues entertained Sheffield United in the FA Cup.

Even for a kid who craved football, this two-week break – necessitated, I believe, by the postponement of a Boxing Day clash with Bristol City – provided welcome relief from the sport in this nq-man's land period.

Moving forward, I can vividly remember the December 26 home match against Southampton in 1974, which given there had been no competitive derby at Fratton Park for almost 10 years, had the most surreal of atmospheres.

It was as if everyone had been caught in Boxing Day limbo, resulting in a bit of a damp squib. I'm certain that would not have been the case had the game been played on a traditional Saturday afternoon, even accounting for the visitors' 2-1 triumph.

For some, Christmas is still the most memorable time of year for football. But how many recall a goalless draw at Gillingham on December 26 in 1997 or a 2-2 home draw with Cambridge the following day?

Or who remembers a couple of festive goalless draws against Reading and Millwall on successive days in 1980? Then there was the Fratton stalemate with Bristol Rovers a year later.

Of course, in the interests of fairness, there have also been some Christmas crackers for Pompey, with the 1-0 victory over Brighton in 1976, a 4-2 win at Wimbledon in 1978, the 6-1 demolition of Northampton in 1979 and a 2-2 draw at Chelsea in 1983 all springing to mind.

But even these classic encounters seemed to have a major ingredient missing at this strange time of year. I could not quite get my head around the different atmosphere – and still can't to this day.

Maybe it's just a massive bout of the post-Christmas blues.

VIEW FROM THE NORTH STAND

Everyone likes a Christmas countdown and mine is so epic it comes in two parts. What started out as my attempt to find your top 50 stories of players being spotted in non-football situations has taken on a life of its own.

So many people have come up with more than one sighting of more than one player, I have turned it into a top 50 list of spotters, with each person's sightings grouped together. And it has spread to include managers and chairman.

Here's 50 to 21 – top 20 to come in Saturday's Crawley programme...

50 GD Hawkes: Dejan Stefanovic in the Slug & Lettuce at Gunwharf, Arjan de Zeeuw in The Talisman. 49 Mark Hammond: Pedro in the queue at Chiquito, Gunwharf, and Micky Quinn and Noel Blake in Martines Bar. 48 Brian Towner: Trevor Brooking in the Little Chef at Fontwell; Garth Crooks in Cassons at Tangmere. 47 Dan Brett: Once saw Nicky Shorey exiting Tesco, North Harbour. Looked like he'd been dropped for next game. Had been. 46 Bob Beech: Used to see most of the 1987-era team regularly in Ellie Jays in Guildhall Walk. Oh and Yakubu at Gunwharf.

45 Mary Williams: I saw Guy Whittingham at Sainsbury's, Commercial Road; fruit and veg aisle. 44 Dave Loren: Bumped into Steve Claridge and (separately) Mike Panopoulos in the Grosvenor Casino, Southsea. And saw Lee Sharpe, Shaun DeFry and Rory Allen (together) at Watermark, Port Solent. 43 Laurie Jones: Ricardo Rocha in Tesco, North Harbour. He introduced his family to my missus. 42 Adrian Thompson: Having dinner at Wagamama in Gunwharf at the same time as Kyle Bennett, Adam McGurk and Adam Barton. Previously, saw Diomansy Kamara trying to drive out of Gunwharf car park – he had a challenge at the ticket barrier because of left-hand drive. 41 Mike Fulcher: Alan Ball walked into my pub and bought everyone a drink. Steve Aizlewood did as well.

40 Andy PO16: Sat on a table next to Milan and Tony Pulis in the Indian Cottage in Port Solent and met Milan Baros in Vienna Airport. 39 Colin Channon: Arjan de Zeeuw and footballer... (text cut off)

38 Steve Franklin: Saw Bobby Zamora in Canary Wharf Waitrose, slumped over his trolley as he pushed it, grey hood up. Had a right face on him. 37 Blaise Tapp: Saw Whitts in the food hall at Gatwick Airport wearing a Wycombe tracksuit circa 2001. 36 Gareth Bridges: Kyle Bennett in Asda at Leigh Park. He was putting his trolley away!

35 James Knibbs: Sammy Igoe in the Harvester, Eastern Road, when at Pompey and at Clacket Lane services two years ago. 34 Tom '@Sprints4Signs': Danny Hollands and Johnny Ertl at my work (HomeSense, Chichester), two days apart. 33 Paul Nelson (reported by Claire Perry): Aaron Mokoena in Albert Road Tesco in 2010. 32 John Tucker: Had a chat with Guy Whittingham on Tuesday in John Lewis, Southampton. 31 Anthony Hesse: Met Stephen Henderson in the gents' toilet of the Harvester on Eastern Road before the game in which we beat Forest 3-0.

30 Dave Hartley: The entire Pompey squad outside HMS Victory – at this season's team photo. 29 Dave Tiller: I took a 17-day cruise only to find on board Mr Le Tissier. My Pompey shirt was worn a fair bit for those 17 days. 28 Brendon Bone: Stumbled upon Arjen Robben at a hotel in Madrid and had dinner with him and his wife. He'd just signed for Real Madrid and was living in the hotel I was staying at. 27 Josh Coles: Wes Fogden in Churchill Square in Brighton. Paul Cook released him the next day. 26 James de Mellow: Niko Kranjcar at the BP near Guildford on the A3 just after we beat Everton in spring 2009. And Kit Symons at Southsea Castle in the 1990s.

25 Alan Pryke: Saw Fabio Capello during his England manager days at Warwick Services on the M40. 24 Jamie Fellows: Marlon Harewood in a club in Las Vegas in 2012. 23 Ryan G Watkin: Jed Wallace in Tru nightclub in Camberley. 22 Albie Somerset: Saw Nigel Quashie at Eastleigh Airport then shared a flight to Guernsey with Matt Le Tissier. 21 Pam Wilkins: Noe Pamarot in Marmion Road Waitrose.

The top 20 to come, then, on Saturday – I doubt if you can wait...

FAREWELL, KIRSTY

Kirsty McGee has been a permanent member of staff at Pompey in the Community (PitC) for the past 10 years.

But now she is moving on to pursue her career as a professional footballer with Reading, having been offered a full-time playing contract.

PitC have benefitted greatly from Kirsty's knowledge and skills during her time here and she will be greatly missed by colleagues, school children and club members alike.

She has always been a popular coach with the children and has inspired many young girls in the Portsmouth area to keep on playing football.

Kirsty has also been instrumental in the delivery of the Premier League Girls Football programme and represented PitC and the Premier Skills programme on a visit to China in 2012, passing on her knowledge and expertise to budding coaches.

She came to football quite late at the age of 16, but represented Pompey Ladies for 10 years, winning promotion and the Hampshire Cup with the team. She says that one of her career highlights was being voted the Southern Premier Managers' and Players' Player of the Season.

But a new highlight will surely be playing in the Women's Super League One - alongside the likes of Chelsea, Manchester City and Arsenal - having skipped Reading to promotion in October. Kirsty was an ever-present for the Royals last season, making 24 appearances and scoring twice.

Everyone at Pompey in the Community would like to thank Kirsty for all her hard work and we would like wish her all the best for her career in the top-flight.

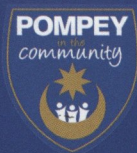

Good luck, Kirsty!

BRAVE BLUES EXIT FA YOUTH CUP

Pompey exited the FA Youth Cup with their heads held high following a narrow defeat to Manchester City at Fratton Park.

Watched by first team manager Paul Cook, a host of senior players and a healthy number of fans, they more than played their part in the third round tie.

The visitors took an early lead through Lukas Nmecha, but anyone expecting an avalanche of goals was to be disappointed.

Instead, the Blues were rewarded for a battling display when Harvey Bradbury came off the bench to draw them level.

But, with extra-time approaching, Brahim Abdelkadel Diaz's impressive solo goal ensured it was City who would progress.

Mikey Harris kept faith with the same side that beat Plymouth and Bristol Rovers to reach this stage of the competition.

And they kept their illustrious opponents at bay in the opening stages, with Blues keeper Alex Bass not being over-worked.

They even had a good chance on the break on nine minutes, but Jez Bedford's effort drifted wide of the post.

But the hosts fell behind moments later when Nmecha latched onto Rodney Kongolo's through ball and fired home from the edge of the box.

Diaz should have doubled the advantage, only to somehow turn Javairo Dilrosun's cross wide at the far post. Aaron Nemeane then flashed a dangerous ball across the face of goal that none of his team-mates could connect with.

The visitors were, unsurprisingly, looking more dangerous going forward, but Pompey did have their moments.

They enjoyed a bright attacking move midway through the first half, but Brandon Joseph-Buadi delayed his pass and Bedford's shot was blocked.

Bass did well at the other end, diving to his left to push clear a curling effort from Dilrosun that was heading for the corner. The keeper then came bursting from his line to deny Nmecha after the striker had burst through on goal.

Pompey's best chance of the half arrived on 36 minutes when, following good work from Calvin Davies down the right, Bedford's shot was smartly pushed over by Daniel Grimshaw.

Bass' impressive evening continued early in the second half when he reacted quickly after Nmecha's strike had taken a deflection off Kyle McDowell.

Diaz then did well to beat Theo Widdrington inside the box, only to curl his effort wide of the post on 56 minutes.

There was a nervy moment just past the hour mark when referee Graham Kane pointed to the spot following a challenge by Bass on Nmecha, but he had not noticed assistant David Ellis' raised flag. And the linesman rescued Pompey again moments later, with Nmecha given offside as he slotted the ball home.

The hosts had struggled since the restart, but levelled with their first decent chance of the half on 70 minutes.

It was substitute Bradbury who made the packed South Stand roar with delight when he steered home Bedford's low cross.

The Blues' confidence was now soaring and a crunching – but fair – challenge from skipper Davies roused the crowd further.

Dilrosun had a chance to restore City's advantage on 80 minutes, however, cutting inside and hitting a low shot that was smothered by Bass.

But the Pompey keeper was beaten soon after by a fine individual effort from Diaz, who burst past a couple of challenges before finding the target.

Bedford had a shot saved by Grimshaw as the Blues sought another equaliser, but they were unable to breach the City defence for a second time.

Academy coach Mikey Harris said: "I'm extremely proud of the boys because we faced one of the best – if not the best – academy sides in the country.

"We matched them from minute one and had a right go, although unfortunately not quite got the result we wanted.

"But we have to put things into perspective – they're a category one academy who have invested a lot of money into their youth set-up.

"They showed the talent they have by scoring two excellent goals, but we can be very proud of our performance.

"I believe that Manchester City will go on to win the competition, but we've pushed them all the way.

"The commitment and desire we displayed was excellent and I think our fans appreciated that. To have almost 2,000 people come out for an FA Youth Cup match is incredible – especially with the traffic, the weather and the delayed kick-off.

"They really got behind the lads and to hear the Pompey Chimes ringing out will have done wonders for their confidence.

"Playing at Fratton Park against a top side, can only benefit them going forward and we have to perform to that level consistently for the rest of the season."

MIXED FORTUNES FOR BLUES

Pompey ended 2015 with mixed emotions, beating Tottenham before losing a seven-goal thriller at Basildon.

It was Spurs who broke the deadlock at Furze Lane on 18 minutes when a free-kick looped over Courtney Trodd and into the net.

Ini Umotong levelled with her 20th goal of the season before the break, although the messy finish will not be up there with her favourites.

Then, after a period of Pompey pressure, Lucy Quinn fired the hosts ahead with a fine strike late in the contest.

There was still time for them to extend their advantage further, with Sarah Kempson's strike taking a wicked deflection to deceive goalkeeper Chloe Morgan.

That was enough to secure victory, but Tottenham did grab a stoppage-time consolation when a corner flew straight into the net.

But the Blues were beaten 4-3 in their final match of the year, falling behind when Amy Nash collected a cross and slotted home.

Umotong drew them level five minutes before the break, latching onto Molly Clark's pass and chipping the keeper before nodding into the net.

And there was still time for both sides to add to the scoring before the half-time whistle. First Umotong converted Katie George's cross with a diving header, only for Basildon to hit back through Karissa Rodney.

Zoe Rushen then fired the visitors ahead from the penalty spot just past the hour mark after Trodd was penalised for a foul in the box.

The goals kept coming and this time it was Pompey who were on target, as Quinn's opportunistic effort from 35 yards sailed over the keeper. But it was Basildon who secured victory on 77 minutes when Maegan Doyle fed Rodney, who calmly slotted home her second of the afternoon.

Blues boss Perry Northeast said: "It was tough against Tottenham, who wanted the win as much as we did" and put us under plenty of pressure.

"I was pleased with our response to falling behind and the only complaint was that the man in the middle was frustrating both sides by constantly breaking up the play.

"It was an end-to-end game at Basildon and any watching neutrals would have enjoyed themselves.

"Unfortunately, it wasn't quite as fun looking on from the dug-outs and we haven't been able to get the result we all wanted. It's disappointing to end the year with a defeat after a positive run of results in recent weeks.

"Not enough of the performances from our players reached the standard that is required for this level.

There are no easy games in this division these days and we have to perform better than that if we want to

"I ORGANISED AN INTERVIEW WITH THE MIDFIELDER SO MEMORABLY COMPARED TO FRANZ BECKENBAUER BY HARRY REDKNAPP DURING A 42-GAME SPELL"

NEIL ALLEN
THE NEWS

THE LAST WORD

IT WAS THE RECENT IMAGE OF DAVID BECKHAM WILLINGLY POSING FOR A SNAP WITH POMPEY'S UNDER-11 SIDE WHICH STIRRED THE MEMORY.

Although my account involves the former England captain wearing only his white underpants.

Admittedly he was in the privacy of a football dressing room when the moment arose, although invited guests were also present.

Perfectly innocent, of course, and Beckham was ever the gent.

It was back in November 2009, when a friend of mine was getting married in Las Vegas and, being the best man, I opted to extend my stay and spend additional time in Los Angeles.

The wedding proved to be timely, as I had been banned from Fratton Park by then-manager Paul Hart.

Hart took exception to a match report I had written centring on a goalless draw at Hull and how Avram Grant was ready to take over as boss.

And so began a 46-day ban which ended shortly before Christmas in the B&Q cafe at Fratton. But that's another story.

Still, in the middle of that period in cold storage, I gratefully jetted off to America to take in the sights, including an LA Galaxy fixture.

Bruce Arena's team were taking on Chivas USA in the Major League Soccer Western Conference semi-final at the Home Depot Stadium, a fixture attracting a capacity crowd of 27,000.

Among those players on display for the Galaxy was Not that I was particularly interested in a player who went on to make 115 appearances for England, my attention was instead focused on his team-mate Stefani Miglioranza.

Sensing the opportunity to use my time in America constructively, I organised an interview with the midfielder so memorably compared to Franz Beckenbauer by Harry Redknapp during a 42-game spell.

I may have been persona non grata at Fratton Park, yet LA Galaxy welcomed me with a warm embrace, laying on free match tickets, a pass to attend the post-match press conference and the prized chance to meet Miglioranza.

So having sat through both managers' thoughts on the result – Chivas' boss being Preki Radosavljevic for another Pompey link – the procession of media were led through into the LA Galaxy locker room.

It was a free-for-all, unfettered and unrestricted access. Speak to whoever you like, we were told.

Miglioranza was a charming interviewee, recounting Fratton days under Alan Ball and Steve Claridge and revealing how he kept in touch with former colleagues Robert Prosinecki and Milan Rudnjak.

Of course, the bulk of the media swarmed around Beckham, still getting changed having had a shower, but politely addressing a barrage of questions while stood in his underpants.

And me, I had Miglioranza to myself, a one-on-one exclusive.
