WELCOME TO NATHAN JONES, THE PLAYERS, STAFF, DIRECTORS AND FANS OF LUTON TOWN TO THE WHAM STADIUM FOR OUR FINAL HOME GAME OF THE REGULAR SEASON.

I am still gutted about the Newport defeat last week which ended our 15-game unbeaten run. Luck really deserted us on the day as we had some great chances which we just didn't put away.

I couldn't see them scoring and then there were three or four mistakes which, if we had eliminated one of them, their goal wouldn't have happened.

They took their chance and we didn't take ours and then I was disappointed we didn't respond after they scored. We seemed to think it was game over and that's really frustrating.

A 15-game unbeaten run, with nine wins, should have really taken us into the play-offs or even automatic promotion spots but we were starting from a low position we should never have been in. We should have started that run at least nine points better off and the sickening thing is, while we have beaten all of the top three, we have a terrible record against the bottom four. We have only won one of eight games against the bottom four and that's something we have to put right next season. That's really tough to take.

The first objective, at Christmas, was to finish in the top half of the table and that's still the aim to give ourselves a platform for next season.

We know it will be a hard game today, Luton are a good side but we want to put Saturday behind us and do our best to put it right today.

We need to start scoring goals again, we have scored one goal in three games and not scoring is what plagued us in November and December so, while we are making chances, we want to start converting them again.

We were good value for our win against Luton in the FA Cup earlier in the season and we were disappointed to lose at their place so it should be a good game.

They need one point to secure a play-off place and I am sure they will be disappointed they haven't gone up automatically but they will want to finish on a high, as we do.

At least, after it being foggy in the FA Cup match here, we should be able to see the game this time!

A huge thank you to the fans who have supported us this season and beyond – you have made a big difference and we appreciate you spending your hard-earned money to watch us week in, week out.

MANAGING DIRECTOR, ACCRINGTON STANLEY FC

GOOD afternoon and welcome to our visitors from Luton Town for today's final EFL League Two fixture of the season.

A warm welcome to Luton's directors, players, and staff to The Wham Stadium. I hope you enjoy your stay in East Lancashire and a safe journey home.

I will leave the football talk to John (Coleman) and Seamus (Conneely) this week other than saying to lose our unbeaten run at the 16th attempt last weekend at Newport County was really disappointing, but when you put it all in perspective, the lads fully responded to the manager's calls back in January to climb the table and they should be proud of their efforts in the second half of another tough League Two campaign.

While we are still mathematically in with a chance of the play-offs, albeit marginally, I just want to take this opportunity to thank everyone who has attended a game, a few games, or every game at The Wham for the tremendous support you have offered the players and management.

They certainly respond to your support, both home and away, and always comment on how you lift them when it is most needed.

The new facilities behind the Clayton End are a pristine as the day they were built and again, a massive thank you for looking after the FanZone, catering and toilet facilities.

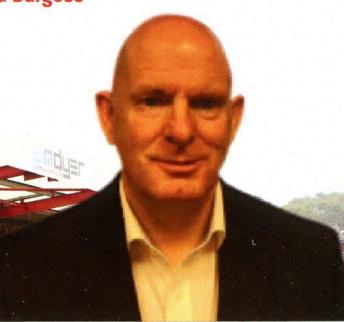

Also, a massive thank you to the stewards, catering staff, bar staff, turnstile operators, ticket sellers, medical teams, room and Director host and hostesses, and the many other volunteers who help out at ASFC – without your support we would not be able to stage a football match.

A huge thank you to the full and part time staff who administer the club on a daily basis. From Buzzer and his apprentice, Bill Holden (ground staff), Naz and George (Kit Staff), Vicki (Accounts), Daniel and Sophie (Commercial), Jess (Office Admin) and Mark Turner (Secretary), Keil and Dan (Retail), Dan and Dany (Media) and no doubt others that I will have missed – thank you.

Finally, we have come a long way both on and off the field of play over the past season – new home supporter facilities, new seats in the main stand, a lick of red paint everywhere – games in the EFL Cup against Premier League sides including a famous win live on Sky against Burnley and a fantastic night out at the Olympic Stadium against West Ham. We reached The FA cup 3rd Round, going out to a single goal at another Premier League side, Middlesbrough and climbed League Two with a run of 15 games unbeaten – this is Accrington Stanley!

WELCOME TO EVERYONE FROM LUTON TOWN FOR THIS AFTERNOON'S GAME.

IT'S been an interesting week for me to say the least. I became a dad on Saturday to Samuel Joseph who weighed in at 6lb 2oz. He has had to stay in hospital in Burnley for a few days but Lauren and I were hoping to have him home by today.

He certainly came at an inconvenient time as I was in Newport and I have to thank our media man Dan Jewell for arriving in Newport and turning straight around to drive to Walsall where I met my father-in-law.

It was a mad dash but Samuel was born at 2am on Saturday morning so I was proud and thankful to be there for his birth.

I listened to the Newport match via BBC Radio Lancashire and we always knew it would be tough. I was gutted for the lads. I knew the pitch wouldn't suit our style of play and it seemed tight with one goal going to settle it - as it proved.

It is still mathematically possible for us to make the play-offs, so we have got all to play for and we want to end the season with two wins, starting today.

Luton will also be after a win so it should make for a good game. We have played two games against them this season, the FA Cup and in the league at Kenilworth Road with one win each, and both have been close, settled by just the one goal.

Luton are a good team, they are in fourth place in the league but we want to keep our unbeaten run at home going in 2017. Then, by a strange quirk of the fixture list, it's Stevenage on the final day of the season.

They came here last season and spoiled our day so, if they still have something to play for, we will be looking for revenge.

Overall, it has really been a season of two halves. The first half was difficult, we couldn't win or score goals despite playing ok.

I think the Crewe win on New Year's Eve was the turning point and we have kicked on from there. We also have had two great cup runs with trips to West Ham and Middlesbrough a highlight of the season although I think the game I will remember most is beating Burnley at the Wham Stadium. That was a special night.

The best goal has to be Sean McConville's from the halfway line against Leyton Orient – although I think that has been given as an own goal!

I would like to say a huge thank you to Naz and George for sorting out the kit all season – they have been great as always and are a big part of the team.

Finally please get behind the fundraising for Charlie Procter, who suffers from cancer and is raising funds to have treatment in America. Having just become a dad myself, it has highlighted even more Charlie's struggle and I urge everyone who can to help him. The club is doing all they can.

Thank you to everyone for your support this season and see you ready for the 2017/8 season.

Enjoy the game today.

STUART MOORE GOALKEEPER

The 22-year-old stopper joined the Hatters on loan from Championship side Reading on deadline day in January 2017. He made his full debut for Luton that evening, in a 3-2 defeat to Cheltenham Town at Kenilworth Road. Having been with the Royals since 2011, he has been on loan to Basingstoke Town where he made 48 appearances, as well as four appearances for Peterborough United last season.

SCOTT CUTHBERT DEFENDER

The defender is capable of playing at either centre-half or right-back. He signed for the Hatters in the summer of 2015 having spent two years at Leyton Orient. He came through the youth ranks at Celtic and has been capped at B level for Scotland. He took over the captaincy at Luton when Steve McNulty left for Tranmere in October 2015. The club captain recently activated a clause in his contract to extend his stay at Kenilworth Road until the summer of 2018.

PELLY RUDDOCK MIDFIELDER

Former West Ham academy graduate Ruddock Mpanzu is a direct, pacey youngster and was an instant hit when signed on-loan by then-boss John Still from the Hammers midway through the Conference title winning campaign of 2013-14. Versatile to play in central defence, midfield or on the wing, Pelly is a real crowd favourite and recently passed the 100 appearance mark for the Hatters. Netted his first goal of this season in the 4-0 win at Yeovil in early March.

He scored his first goal of the season in Crawley's recent 2-1 loss to Plymouth.

CHARLIE HAS WON OVER STANLEY HEARTS

FUNDRAISING FOR FOUR-YEAR-OLD'S CANCER BATTLE

BRAVE cancer sufferer Charlie Procter will be cheering on Accrington Stanley today.

Charlie, who celebrated his fourth birthday on Monday, was diagnosed with Hepatoblastoma, a rare form of liver cancer in 2016.

He first led Stanley out before the 1-0 victory over Crawley Town on Easter Monday to a rapturous ovation by both home and away supporters.

Now, brave Charlie will be on the pitch at half-time at today's game against promotion-chasing Luton Town - after leading the teams out at Blackburn Rovers - with Stanley helping for a big push for funds by holding a bucket collection to help the family achieve their goal to send him to America for specialist treatment.

Stanley Managing Director David

Burgess, said: "We've seen such a groundswell of support for Charlie in the local community and beyond since he led us out before our win over Crawley.

"We thought it was our duty to keep the momentum going and get this wonderful young boy the money that he needs to get better. It will be another wonderful occasion today at the Wham Stadium and I just hope we can raise some more money to get him on that plane."

One person who was deeply touched by Charlie's story was Stanley midfielder and fans' favourite Matty Pearson who was instrumental in encouraging owner, Andy Holt, to pledge 50p (up to £25,000) for every retweet he received from a post highlighting Charlie's cause.

Charlie's mother, Amber, said of the continued support: "It really has been overwhelming the amount of support and kind words we have received, and the help from the club has been unbelievable.

"I'd obviously like to thank Andy for his incredibly generous offer after the last game and everyone else at the club who has supported us. I hope we can put a bit more money in the kitty today to help my little boy. I really have no doubt that we will – considering how generous strangers have been so far."

The family is attempting to raise £315,000 to fly Charlie to the USA, where innovative treatments not available in the UK could significantly improve his chances of survival.

If you would like to contribute to Charlie's treatment visit <http://bit.ly/CharliesMemories> or for more information visit <https://www.facebook.com/charlieschapter/>

EFL 'DAY OF ACTION'

LAST Tuesday was the Football League's 'Community Day of Action' of which Accrington Stanley were delighted to be a part of. The EFL Trust took the opportunity to showcase the work its members do in their communities.

More than one million people are now participating in football-led community programmes and activities every season.

EFL clubs use the power of football to have a positive effect on thousands of people's lives in the UK every day, helping participants to improve their lives with programmes focused on health and wellbeing.

education, community outreach and much more.

Accrington Stanley Community Trust had lots going on throughout the day with 13 community sessions in total, one of which included Stanley youngster Jack Burgess visiting St Mary's Primary school in Oswaldtwistle to take part in a Q&A with the Year 5 class. They grilled him about his diet, exercise routine and what his favourite car was!

The EFL's Community Day of Action presents a unique opportunity for all EFL clubs to simultaneously raise awareness of the impact they are having by creating a national platform to highlight the community work that happens across 72 towns and cities, 365 days a year, seven days a week.

Approximately £50m is being invested every season by the EFL Trust and Club Community Trusts into key areas, using the power of football to help people in need across sport, education, health and community engagement programmes.

The work is having a significant impact in communities up and down the country.

Shaun Harvey, EFL Chief Executive, said: "EFL clubs play a pivotal role in their communities and what our inaugural Day of Action makes abundantly clear is how this work is having a significant impact, not just on match days but seven days a week, 365 days a year.

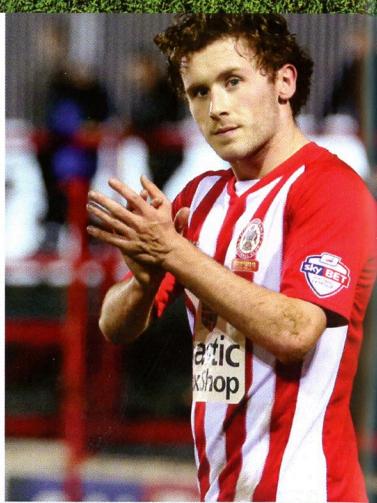

"The power of football continues to be used to improve people's health and wellbeing and provide increased opportunities to develop individuals' education and career prospects.

"Such important work should be commended and clearly illustrates how EFL clubs and their Trusts are contributing to society outside of the game, achieving tangible results and lasting change."

United (whatever happened to them) out of the 22-team First Division in 1922, little did anyone realise it would take seven decades to slog their way back. So severely did fortunes slump that City were twice forced to seek re-election to the Football League before Paul Jewell eventually hauled them back to the Premier League in 1999. The dream lasted two seasons before crushing debts sank them back to the basement.

2. OLDHAM ATHLETIC 69 YEARS

Rocked by the departure of long-serving manager Herbert Bamlett - who also refereed the 1914 FA Cup final aged 32 - the Latics were relegated a year after Bradford.

But after a storming season capped by victory at Wigan on Easter Monday, the Seagulls are returning to the summit for the first time in 34 years.

For those who remember - and those who don't - it's been a hell of a wait. Yet Brighton are only seventh on the list when it comes to waiting for another shot at the top flight - here are the sides who eclipse them.

1. BRADFORD CITY 77 YEARS

When the Bantams followed bottom-of-the-table Manchester nobody could remember the last such moment in 1906, when the Robins had fought off the likes of Leicester Fosse, Glossop and... Manchester United.

4. NOTTS COUNTY 55 YEARS

County - who had last played a top flight match in 1926 - were at a low ebb in the summer of 1980. Rivals Forest had just won the European Cup and a limp 17th place finish saw bookies offer odds of 66-1 on the Magpies winning the Second Division.

But with a young Howard Wilkinson pulling the strings behind manager Jimmy Sirrel, County's revolutionary passing game secured the title with a game to spare - and ended half a century outside the top flight.

5. CARDIFF CITY 51 YEARS

Cardiff's return to the top flight in 2013 was like waiting years for your favourite band to release a new album only to hit play and discover it's earache. Two generations starved of top-flight football were forced to endure managerial upheaval, stodgy football and finally relegation at the hands of an overpromoted Ole Gunnar Solskjaer. Hopefully they won't be forced to wait 51 years for another shot.

A GLIMPSE OF THINGS TO COME

SEAN MCCONVILLE BELIEVES THE REDS HAVE SHOWN WHAT LEAGUE TWO CAN EXPECT IN 2017/18 WITH THEIR STRONG FINISH TO THE CURRENT CAMPAIGN.

WINGER Sean McConville has been around for plenty of Stanley's recent history and thinks the current crop of Reds have a bright future ahead of them regardless of how the current season ends.

The Reds play their final home game of 16/17 this afternoon before the trip to Stevenage in a week's time and though defeat at Newport was a big blow to play-off hopes John Coleman's side remain in contention in the top half of League Two.

As one of the most experienced players in the squad McConville is keen to stress that the important thing is to go out on a high, even if the chances of a top seven finish look slim.

"Stranger things have happened but it looks a long shot," he said. "We just have to play the game today, take the three points and then I'm sure lads will be in the changing rooms after the game looking at their phones and looking at what's happened. Either we'll have a little sneak of a chance going to Stevenage or we won't. Even if that's the case everyone remembers last season and what Stevenage did to us. They came here and inevitably stopped us from going up. Maybe we'll end up going there and spoiling it for them?

"When we had our bad spell, a couple of months without winning, we played the four teams who are now down at the bottom and we didn't win.

Over the season we've taken no points from Newport, one point from Hartlepool, three points from Orient and one point of Cheltenham. That has cost us. Our failure against the teams lower down has probably cost us this season. The players will know that come the end of the season.

"We can't forget that we lost nine or ten big players in the summer and we've still had two great cup runs and finished the season strongly but we'll all look back at this season and wonder what if. There's quality in this squad and we wouldn't be out of place in those play-offs."

It's that quality that McConville is hoping will stay at the Wham Stadium for 2017.

The wide man has experienced two play-off campaigns with the club, last season and in 2010-11 and is confident that this group of players can achieve something this time next year. With only a few players with deals which expire in the summer McConville is hopeful that the fine run of form in March and April can be replicated in August.

"It's probably the first year that the gaffer might not be stressed out on his summer holidays trying to sort contracts out," he smiled. "I think there are only a few out of contract this time. Hopefully he'll be able to enjoy his summer rather than worrying about whether lads with sign again or whatever. The only thing to worry about is teams coming in to buy people because there are lads who can play higher and kick on and would command a fee. That's probably the only decision to make in the summer, whether we decide to sell or keep everyone together. With the core of this squad there's no reason why we can't challenge for promotion for next season.

"If we can finish this season strongly and take it into next season with the bulk of the personnel I'm certain we can be successful. We've been consistent (during the recent run) and I don't think there have been many changes to the team in that time, probably 14 or 15 players involved regularly. Earlier in the season we were chopping and changing trying to find the right formula and once you get it you tend to stick with it.

"A repeat of the last time we played Luton would be more than welcome today. A nice three points to send the home fans into the summer happy and a nice goal for me to top what's been a good season."

On a personal note McConville admits he's well aware he's not been a favourite among fans at times during his two spells with Stanley but after topping the League Two assists charts this season and weighing in with some important goals he's seeing a bit of a change in that regard.

"Hopefully it's turned a little," he concluded. "It's about performances. I understand it. I'm a fan myself and when you see someone not playing well then it's something that you do as a fan to be unhappy or maybe get on their back. But when that player is playing well they'll support you."

"This has probably been one of my most consistent seasons to be honest. Looking back I can say I've enjoyed it and just want to finish it off well in the last couple of games."

"I think my performances overall have been really good this season and I've definitely seen and appreciated that support from everyone."

#TARGET1000

ACCRINGTON Stanley are targeting 1,000 season ticket holders for the 2017/18 campaign after announcing prices for early bird and standard deals.

Early bird season tickets are available to buy now and cost less than £10 a game for adults, with concessions paying less than £8 per match, under 18's (a newly created category for fans of the future) just over £6 and under 12's just £1 a game.

Standard season tickets, purchased from May until the start of the new campaign, have been frozen.

The Reds have launched the #Target1000 campaign to add extra numbers to the existing crowds at the Wham Stadium. They aim to add just under 200 new season ticket holders to move over the milestone figure for the first time.

"The people who come are brilliant," said Stanley manager John Coleman. "They support us so well and the appetite they show for the game is fantastic. The players certainly do respond to them, we just need more of them.

"We need more supporters so that we can compete with teams when we're trying to sign players. The harsh reality is that the best supported teams generally have the best budgets. We want to be able to improve our budget by getting more bums on seats.

"I think we offer something different. For people rebelling against the ludicrous prices in the Premier League and the ludicrous wages being dished out there's no better place to see the antithesis of that than what you get here."

YOUTH TEAM

BUSY SUMMER

THIS summer is a busy one for Accrington Stanley's Academy especially the Under 16s who have been invited again to enter the number one elite professional football tournament in the UK, The Youdan Trophy.

The Youdan Trophy is in its third year and is held in Sheffield and features some of the top teams from across the globe including this year teams from UK, USA, Japan, Asia to name a few destinations.

The teams spend a week in top class accommodation playing on superb pitches and part of the challenging week is for the teams to immerse themselves in a real-life football environment.

Stanley's Academy Under 16s have been drawn in a tough Group B with last year's runners up from Switzerland FC Basel, Premier League side Crystal Palace, local favourites Sheffield Wednesday and Championship title-chasers Newcastle United.

"Tournament football is one where we learn more about the players," said Head of Academy Recruitment Dave Bailey. "It's not only the usual football attributes like the technical game but more the psychological side - their mental strength such as can they cope with such things as needing a point in a match, needing a clean sheet and also, if they win the game, the feelings and emotions that comes with a very challenging tournament environment.

"Last year we saw players take it on board and it gave them a real kick start to the season. It's also an opportunity to see them away with us for a full week - how they mix, how they are as a team and who stand out as the leaders. Again we were so pleased to be invited into this fantastic tournament and we know our players and staff are already excited about the challenge ahead."

MATCH SPONSORS: LUTON TOWN AWAY DAYS IN AID OF JUVENILE IDIOPATHIC ARTHRITIS AND GREAT ORMOND STREET HOSPITAL

TYLER Cremin, son of one of our match sponsors today, suffers from a condition known as juvenile idiopathic arthritis, a condition that effects your joints, in Tyler's case it was his legs.

By his second birthday he was in so much pain he just would not get out of bed and when he was up would crawl around due to the pain.

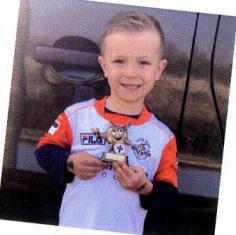

Without the help of Great Ormond Street Hospital and the drugs that he has to take every week, things would not have improved for Tyler.

The drugs alone cost £100,000 a year for one child, there are currently around 15,000 sufferers of this condition in the UK.

We would like to raise money on behalf of this condition and for all the good work that Great Ormond Street Hospital do for the children of this country.

Please see the just giving link

Any donation would be greatly appreciated.

Tyler is now five-years-old and things are improving for him, here he is picking up a man of the match award recently, in his favourite Luton Town kit!

OFFICIAL ACCRINGTON STANLEY SUPPORTERS CLUB

AS another season nears its end its time to reflect on the past few months which has seen continued progress both on and off the field.

After a slow start to the season which resulted in the team occupying a perilous position at the turn of the year, a superb unbeaten run which ran from early February to late April has seen Stanley surge up the League table and into the fringes of the Play-Offs.

There will be many "what ifs" and "if only's" when we come to reflect on the season's campaign. Although playing aspirations remain high it's tempered by a restricted playing budget governed by our finances generated by match day attendances. Hopefully the #target1000 in terms of season tickets will be both achieved and surpassed.

The major plus is that, unlike previous seasons, the majority of players are under contract and will only depart if its right for both the player and the club so, hopefully, no repeats of the "theft" of key players from north of the border.

Behind the scenes we have a revised commercial department which can only enhance the revenues generated through this key channel and hopefully we will see full lounges and increased support from local business.

SCREEN

The Crawley game saw the introduction of our new large screen facility and whilst it was a million times better than the nothing we had before it will really be next season before we see the full extent of the possibilities it offers. All credit goes to our young operator, Sam Pratt, who will be joining us full time next season and relinquishing his similar role at Blackpool FC whilst studying at UCLAN. Sam literally had a few hours to get to grips with the operating system and get our content UpInLights.

AWARDS

Tonight sees the presentation of the end of season player awards and thanks to the 700 of you that voted at the last game for your Player and favourite goal of the season. In addition to these two awards we will also be presenting the Golden Boot to our top goal scorer and the Players' Player award.

In addition we are making a special presentation to our Supporter of the Year for a tremendous effort in attending every first team fixture this season and travelling nearly 9500 miles in the course of the season, this will go to Adam Houlden who has been accompanied by his mother Julie to the majority of fixtures.

We are also presenting prior to kick off to our April Player of month Mark Hughes, well deserved by one of our unsung heroes.
