THE MANAGER

GARY BOWYER

WELCOME TO BLOOMFIELD ROAD FOR OUR SKY BET LEAGUE TWO PLAY-OFF SEMI-FINAL FIRST LEG TIE AGAINST LUTON TOWN.

We've shown a resilience both at home and away to do what's required and conceded the fewest goals a Blackpool side has for 20 years in the process.

We've worked hard throughout the season to reach this stage of the campaign, and I know there is plenty more to come from this group in the matches ahead. The players are committed to showing that.

Our recruitment in the summer and January window was geared to bringing in strong characters, players who have winning mentalities and have experienced the challenges of league, cup and play-off football.

The way we've gone about our business has highlighted that, we've shown a resilience both at home and away to do what's required and conceded the fewest goals a Blackpool side has for 20 years in the process.

We know that we will always create chances and have goalscorers all over the pitch. We had 23 shots in our last game against Leyton Orient, though we've stressed to the players the improvement that needs to come from that.

Our focus is now on these two play-off games against Luton Town, and I'd like to take the opportunity of welcoming manager Nathan Jones, his staff and players to Bloomfield Road this evening.

We've recovered well throughout the week and continue to monitor one or two players with a view to having them involved at some stage in these ties. These are the games you want to play in.

Off the pitch, we held our awards night last Sunday, which allowed the efforts of the players to be recognised. The variety of winners, as well as those nominated, highlighted the achievements of the squad as a whole. We defend, attack and win as a team.

Away from first-team matters, I would like to wish Ciaran Donnelly all the very best in his new role and thank him for his overall work in the academy. Ciaran is someone I've known ever since my days at Blackburn Rovers and, alongside John Murphy this season, has done a terrific job in developing our under-18s and guiding them to a league and cup double.

Finally, our supporters have had an important role to play in previous matches and another big effort will be required from you, both tonight and on Thursday. Do your bit and keep urging the players on.

Thanks for your continued support throughout the season here at home. We really do appreciate it.

Gary Bowyer

CLUB NEWS

LATEST FROM BLOOMFIELD ROAD

OSAYI-SAMUEL COLLECTS EFL YOUNG PLAYER OF THE MONTH GONG

Blackpool's Bright Osayi-Samuel recently received the EFL Young Player of the Month award for March.

The winger, 19, has made more than 70 appearances for the club since making his debut against Birmingham City in 2015, including 40 this season.

In March he netted three goals in four matches, with two of them coming against Newport County in a 3-1 victory. The latter of those efforts also saw him pick up the club's Goal of the Season award on the weekend.

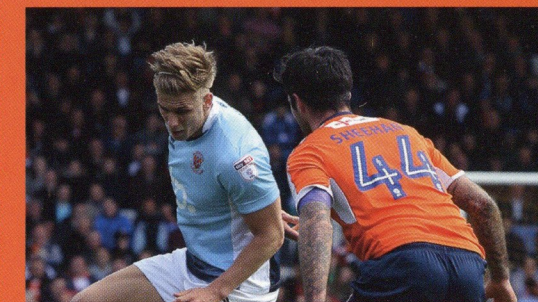

Nigerian born Osayi-Samuel, who moved to England when he was 10-years-old, was brought to Blackpool by current first-team coach Richie Kyle, who oversaw his progress in the youth team from the age of 16.

On winning the EFL Young Player of the Month award, he said: "It feels great. I don't win that many awards but I'm glad to win this one. Hopefully I can kick on from here."

Each season EFL Clubs invest more than £60m on identifying, training and educating the next generation of football talent. There are 8,500 young players between the ages of eight and 18 registered with EFL Clubs, making EFL Youth Development the largest centrally coordinated young player programme in world football.

INTRODUCING LUTON TOWN

A fourth place finish in Sky Bet League Two ensured that Luton Town would face an away trip to Blackpool in the first of two play-off semi-final legs.

The Hatters, having challenged the top seven spots consistently throughout the season, arrive at Bloomfield Road on the back of strong end to the 46-game league campaign.

A disappointing month of March set the club back in its hopes to seal promotion automatically, though Nathan Jones will be happy with the way his side has responded.

By now participating in the play-offs Luton will be aiming to banish a hoodoo that has seen the club unsuccessful in the last four attempts to achieve success via this format.

Given the club's final league position, however, The Hatters start out as favourites in the four-team battle to reach League One.

26-goal striker Danny Hylton will no doubt continue to prove crucial to Luton's hopes, while Isaac Vassell and Jack Marriott are also in double figures having finished with a flourish in recent weeks.

The overall squad has a youthful look to it, with the visitors averaging the youngest side in the division based on league minutes.

Both clubs competing this evening will be aiming to give themselves enough of an advantage for the second leg, or at least a fighting chance of getting to Wembley.

The two fixtures in the regular season were edged by tonight's visitors, though it took a 90th minute winner to separate the sides last month.

LUTON LOWDOWN

Words: Mark Ridgway

THE GAFFER NATHAN JONES

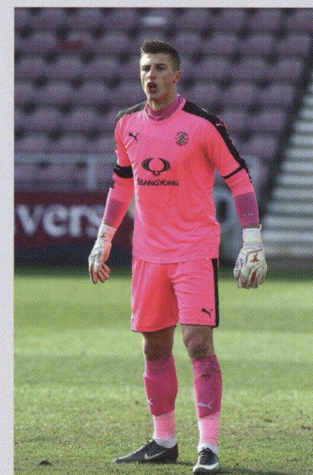

Nathan Jones capped his first full season as a manager by guiding Luton Town to the League Two play-offs. The 43-year-old, who learnt his trade in various coaching roles at Brighton & Hove Albion, took over the hot seat at Kenilworth Road in January 2016. Having guided the club to safety last season, Jones' Hatters have spent just one week of the current campaign outside of the top seven.

GOALKEEPER STUART MOORE

APPS: 8

CLEAN SHEETS: 1

A deadline day loan signing from Reading, Stuart Moore has come to the fore following the recall of Matt Macey to Arsenal. The stopper, who spent time at Peterborough United last season, kept his first professional clean sheet against Barnet last month and finished the campaign with a regular run of games.

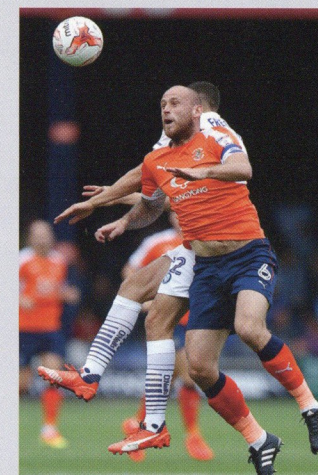

MIDFIELDER PELLEY RUDDOCK

GOALS: 2

Pelly Ruddock has started the last 25 consecutive matches and has been Luton's driving force in the midfield. The 23-year-old recently surpassed 100 appearances for The Hatters, in what has been another productive season. Ruddock has chipped in with two goals so far, against Yeovil Town and Notts County.

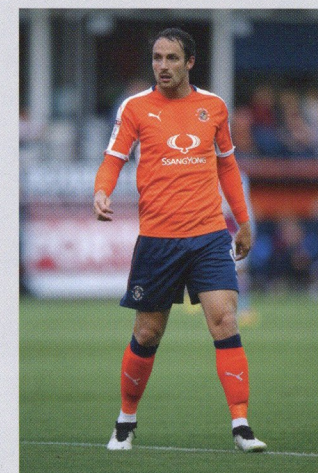

DEFENDER SCOTT CUTHBERT

GOALS: 1

Skipper Scott Cuthbert has led by example this season, proving an ever-present as part of a back two or three. This is the Scot's second season at Kenilworth Road, where he moved to from Leyton Orient. His only goal of the campaign so far earned Luton a draw at Wycombe Wanderers in January.

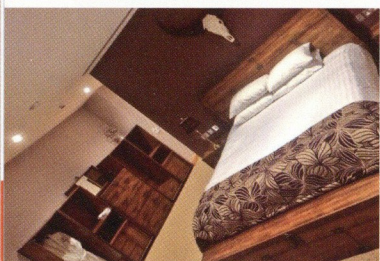

STRIKER DANNY HYLTON

APPS: 45

GOALS: 26

26-goal Danny Hylton capped a fine season by being named in the League Two PFA Team of the Year. The striker is the third highest scorer in the division and returns from a two-match suspension for the play-offs. It's been a fine first season at Kenilworth Road for Hylton, who joined on a free transfer from Oxford United.

FIRST LEG ADVANTAGE KEY

SIMMONDS LOOKING FOR LUTON TO TAKE A LEAD HOME

Words: Mark Ridgway

Luton News reporter Mike Simmonds believes Luton Town's confidence from recent results will see them take a lead to Kenilworth Road on Thursday and lift any potential nerves.

The Hatters completed the season in fourth and in good shape for the play-offs, and they'll look to continue the feel-good factor by continuing their strong away form at Bloomfield Road.

Having covered Luton home and away this season, Simmonds is confident Luton can get off to a good start and head home with an advantage this evening.

Mike, how much of a boost would a lead be for Luton heading into the second leg?

They'll be positive away from home, their away record is good and they've won at Blackpool already. The home leg will be the bigger game because they tend to get nervy and they've not been amazing at home in terms of results. I think the players know the tricky game is the home one so a win at Bloomfield Road would be a massive boost.

How high is confidence in the Luton camp going into the play-offs?

I'm confident because they've been playing much better recently. It's been the strong end to the season the manager had been asking for. Too many draws scuppered their hopes of automatic promotion really and they had a bad March, but beating Blackpool in April kick-started a good end to the season.

Luton's strikers have come to the fore in Danny Hylton's absence, how beneficial has that been?

A lot of the strikers have been scoring recently, with Danny Hylton out through suspension. Jack Marriott and Isaac Vassell have been scoring, and Ollie Palmer's been playing well so there's confidence. Hylton will definitely come back in however, he's been the star player for them this season.

How much of a blow will missing James Justin and potentially Alan Sheehan be?

Alan Sheehan just rolled his ankle so there's definitely a chance he'll be available. I'd be surprised if James Justin was fit because he was stretchered off. He'll be a blow because he won Young Player of the Season, he's had an excellent year and has been in good form.

Having finished fourth in the table, how much pressure does that add to Luton?

I don't think the favourites tag will put them under too much pressure because Blackpool are a very decent side, and a big club. If they were playing Accrington or Morecambe there'd be even more pressure because they'd definitely be expected to win. They know they've beaten Blackpool twice this season but I don't think it will have any bearing on the actual matches because a lot more's at stake.

What were your thoughts when Luton were drawn against Blackpool?

Blackpool were one of the teams to avoid, coming in late on. They've got some good forward players so I don't know if they'd have preferred a different tie because Blackpool are the hardest team they could have got over two legs. Mark Cullen is ex Luton so he'll want to put one over on them a little bit. They've got good forward players and are an impressive team for this level.

I don't think the favourites tag will put them under too much pressure because Blackpool are a very decent side, and a big club.

YOUTH TEAM

Words: Stewart Hudson

MURPHY: DEVELOPING PLAYERS STILL THE MAIN AIM

John Murphy says the youth team's recent league and cup double is a fantastic achievement for the squad, though stressed that the overall aim is to still reach the first-team.

The 40-year-old has been part of the coaching team guiding the under-18s to success this season and is determined to see them develop further.

"It's a fantastic achievement for the players," Murphy said of winning the North West Youth Alliance and Lancashire FA Youth Cup. "Our job is not to win trophies, it's to develop players, but if you're winning trophies then you're doing something right. Hopefully these players will do well from that."

"The ultimate goal is for them to earn professional contracts and first-team appearances, really."

"We won one trophy the other week but this one feels better because it's the league, and most leagues are determined by the best team over eight months. We've played 28 games and managed to win it with our points, rather than goal difference as we thought it may be a few weeks ago."

Three players within the youth setup will now step up to the first-team next season having signed professional contracts. Goalkeeper Jack Sims, captain Caleb Richards and defender Denzel Williams will aim to bridge the gap into men's football and achieve their goals.

"It's great for them and obviously pleasing for us, but this is a very small step in anyone's career. You have two years and if you get a pro contract, you've really got to kick on because a lot of people still see under-18s as not playing men's football," Murphy admitted.

"They're now in the professional game where they could play someone who is 35, instead of someone who might be 15 or 16. They've got to grow up quickly."

Murphy, a former Blackpool striker, has been quite open in passing on his own experiences as a professional and hopes the players in question take the advice on board.

"I try to tell them about my experiences and what you need to, whether they choose to listen or not is down to them. It has to come from them. We've laid all the foundations and given them the advice. They need to do what's required to make it in this game."

YOUTH TEAM ADD NORTH WEST YOUTH ALLIANCE TITLE TO LFA CUP SUCCESS

Words: Karan Gadhia

The youth team sealed the North West Youth Alliance league title in style with a 3-0 win against Morecambe last Saturday.

Will Dunne broke the deadlock in the first-half before a quick-fire double from Ben Jacobson and Ewan Bange, just after the interval, secured the win.

However, it wasn't all one-way traffic for Blackpool, with Jack Sims saving an early penalty whilst the score was 0-0.

The victory meant that the under-18s finished the league season two points ahead of second-placed Burnley.

Despite a late change to the starting line-up after Denzel Williams injured himself in the warm-up, The Seaside's dominated the early possession.

Shortly after the quarter-hour mark, The Seaside's suffered a scare as Sebastien Des Pres was dispossessed and the midfielder gave away a penalty when trying to win the ball back.

Luke Fairclough stepped up to take the spot-kick but Jack Sims dived the right way and saved it.

At the other end, Bange poked the ball just wide of the post.

The deadlock was broken in the first-half after a cross was cleared as far as Dunne, who scored with a close-range volley.

Half-Time: Blackpool 1 Morecambe 0

Within minutes of the second half, The Tangerines scored twice in as many minutes.

Jacobson doubled the lead with a header at the back post, before Bange pounced on the rebound of Dylan

Sumner's shot to add gloss to the scoreline.

Fin Sinclair-Smith tested Ollie Jumeau with a low shot that the goalkeeper managed to parry behind his goal for a corner.

Shortly after, Dunne curled a shot just off target before Sinclair-Smith hit the side-netting with a volley.

Blackpool then hit the side-netting again, as Dunne volleyed just inches wide of the goal from Sinclair-Smith's cross.

As the final whistle blew, the celebrations started as the under-18s won the North West Youth Alliance League title for the first time since 2014.

ADDED MOTIVATION

TAYLOR DETERMINED TO SUCCEED IN PLAY-OFFS

Words:
Mark Ridgway

Skipper Andy Taylor is hoping to use his bleak play-off history as motivation as Blackpool look to cap an impressive season by achieving promotion come the end of May.

The full-back has lost out in the play-offs with Sheffield United and Walsall previously, but is now hoping it's third time luckily as he attempts to guide Pool to Wembley.

The Seasiders face two legs with Luton Town and Taylor is relishing the opportunity to write personal wrongs, with promotion always alluding him to date.

"My experience isn't good in the play-offs and it haunts me," he admitted. "It's time to put that right now. Losing makes you even more determined to succeed.

"It always helps if you've been there and experienced these situations before. They're big, pressure games that, as a footballer, you want to be involved in.

"You've got to show patience. It's 180 minutes of football, which is a long, long time. You can't get too up or too down, throughout the semi-final there's always going to be twists and turns."

Taylor may have failed to earn promotion, but a glut of his team mates previously have, with the likes of Kelvin Mellor and Jamille Matt winning the League Two play-offs in recent years.

Mellor succeed with Crewe Alexandra in 2012, before Matt followed suit two years on with Fleetwood Town, and that exact experience could prove invaluable, according to Taylor.

"Winning's a habit and if you get used to winning games you go in full of belief. We've got quite a few lads who've experienced the play-offs before and experienced winning promotion before.

"A lot of these lads have played in big games previously. The little ingredients will help us along the way in achieving our goal of winning the semis and final and getting promoted.

"As a footballer you want to be involved in these type of games, it's horrible when you get to the final few games of the season with nothing to play for, so everyone's buzzing," he said.

Onlookers may have doubted Blackpool's capabilities of finishing in the play-offs, with the club sat in 15th in February, but the noises in-camp remained a constant positive.

"Nobody in that dressing room doubted us. There may have been doubts elsewhere but we've never let it affect us. We've always been full of belief in what we have in that dressing room.

"We've done that and we've worked hard to be here, but we need to make sure we do part two and part three, which will see us promoted."

Taylor's goal against Leyton Orient helped set up this evening's Luton Town tie and the 31-year-old, being deployed as a wing-back, was happy to contribute with his second goal of the season.

On his goal, he said: "It's always nice to chip in with a goal, it doesn't happen often. It was a lovely little pass from 'Cully' (Mark Cullen) and it's about time he gave me one for a change," he joked.

Luton finished in fourth and will host the second-leg at Kenilworth Road on Thursday – something which doesn't faze the experienced Taylor.

"For me, it doesn't matter where you finish in the play-offs. It's a new, four-team competition. You've seen teams finish in any of the positions and win.

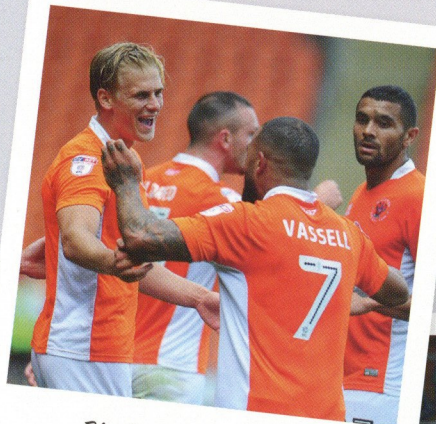

"Luton are a good team, they finished fourth in the league for a reason, but so are we, the past couple of months we've been playing really well and picking up good results."

The Seasiders have beaten five of the other six sides in the top seven of League Two, three of them away from home, and Taylor reveals his determination to add Luton to that list.

"We don't fear anyone in this league. We've beaten some of the so-called top teams in this division away from home and we know if we're at our best we've got a really good chance of winning the tie.

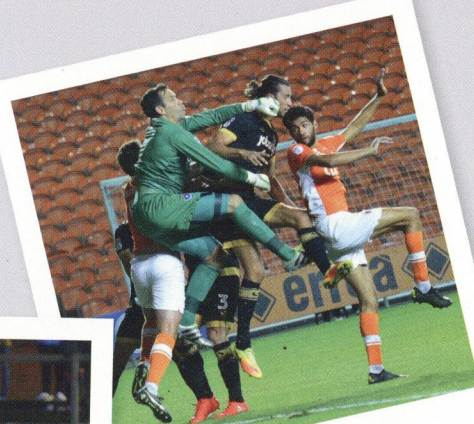

"It would be nice to take a lead to Luton but it's a long time 180 minutes and there's going to be a lot of twists and turns and we're excited to give it a good crack," he said.

Slocombe: Experience Counts

BLACKPOOL WELL EQUIPPED, SAYS GOALKEEPER

Words: Stewart Hudson

Sam Slocombe says Blackpool can draw from plenty of dressing room experience when it comes to handling these two play-off matches against Luton Town.

The goalkeeper is one of several players at Bloomfield Road who has gone through the grind of a league campaign and been successful at the end of it.

The 28-year-old, promoted with Scunthorpe United and Oxford United, believes some clever recruitment from manager Gary Bowyer has ensured that the side is well positioned to deal with this situation.

"Anything can happen in the play-offs, and we've got a few players in the squad that have had experience of that, and I think that will stand us in good stead," said Slocombe, who is joined by the likes of Kelvin Mellor, Jamille Matt, Neil Danns and Ian Black in achieving career promotions.

"The manager brought in some good experience in January and even looking at the recruitment in the summer, it kind of appears that he's looked at players that have had promotion before and had to deal with those pressure situations. The make-up of the squad is fantastic, especially with the young talent at the club already."

Experience of knock-out football with Blackpool came earlier this season in the EFL Cup and Emirates FA Cup, with The Seaside's achieving victories against recently promoted League One side Bolton Wanderers and Championship outfit Barnsley.

From a defensive point of view, Slocombe has also played his part in the team keeping 15 clean sheets this season and conceding the fewest goals a Blackpool side has for many a year.

"One of the big things for me is that we've done it with a lot more players than I've had in the past," he admitted. "I think the season I went up with Scunthorpe we had maybe 20 clean sheets for the season and joint-most in the league, but we had the same two centre-halves and myself all season. I think the centre-halves missed one game each and the two full-backs near enough the same for 30 or 40 of the games."

That mean attitude at the back will be required in the play-off matches ahead, with Slocombe expecting tight affairs across the board.

"In those kind of big games it takes a little bit of magic to win it. Teams can be cautious and want to stay in the game. Over the two games if you can stay within touching distance, you give yourself a chance of getting to Wembley and then it's a one-off game and anything can happen."

"I think all four teams are coming into the play-offs with reasonably good form but all we'll do is concentrate on ourselves. The spirit within the squad's high and I'm hoping that over the two games we can give it a real, good go," he added.

BLACKPOOL FC GIRLS AND LADIES

UNDER-13s

BLACKPOOL 3 WIGAN ATHLETIC 0

Tyra Vickers, Emily Slater and Emily Webster were all on target as Blackpool's under-13 girls recorded a 3-0 victory over Wigan Athletic in the Lancashire County Cup final.

The match, played at the Lancashire FA headquarters in Leyland, was keenly contested and there was nothing to separate the sides at half-time.

However, after the interval Blackpool came out of the blocks quickly and opened the scoring when Vickers bundled the ball home.

It was a goal that provided plenty of confidence, with The Seaside's going close to finding the net once again with a couple of efforts.

The second goal came courtesy of Slater, who swivelled into a good position and struck a crisp shot into the back of the net. The Blackpool defence stood firm as Wigan pushed for a way back into the encounter, prior to Webster wrapping up the scoring with the third of the game.

UNDER-16s

BLACKPOOL 2 PRESTON NORTH END 1

Goals from Ellie Spooner and Nyah Cartwright helped Blackpool's under-16 girls beat Preston North End 2-1 in the Lancashire County Cup final.

The Seaside's started the game brightly and took the lead from the penalty spot, with captain Spooner slotting calmly into the bottom corner.

That lead was doubled prior to half-time when Cartwright looped the 'keeper from a tight angle to put the team in a strong position.

Preston hit back after the interval though and pulled a goal back on 47 minutes, before the bar denied them an equaliser in the 70th minute.

However, Blackpool dug deep in the closing stages to see the result out and lift the trophy.

COMMUNITY TRUST

KICKSTART PROGRAMME RETURNS IN JUNE

Blackpool FC Community Trust will be once again delivering its Kickstart employability programme at the end of June following a very successful first course.

Kickstart is a free programme for young adults and it offers them a pathway back into education or employment. The programme is for 16-24 year olds and lasts 15 weeks, which is delivered three times a week.

The first Kickstart programme saw participants do a variety of courses including Sports Leaders Award,

First Aid at Work and NCFE Level 2 in employability. The students gained accredited qualifications and enhanced their CV and employability status.

From the first course, four students have successfully got back into full-time employment and two have applied for a place on the BTEC Level 3 in Coaching, Fitness and Development course, which is delivered by Blackpool FC Community Trust.

Senior Employability Officer Rick Bryan for Blackpool FC Community Trust, believes the programme has been a success and is looking forward to delivering it once again.

Rick said: "Our first programme has gone brilliantly. I'm delighted that six out of 12 students have found exit routes back into employment or education from the partnership links created through attending the Kickstart programme."

For more information on the programme, please contact Rick on 01253 348691 or rickct@blackpoolfc.co.uk

THE LAST WORD

BBC RADIO LANCASHIRE'S IAN CHISNALL

The lads clearly enjoy each other's company and there was genuine warmth displayed towards the winners on the night.

Ma n y congratulations to all involved in clinching that play-off place. Great credit must go to The Gaffer and his staff for assembling a squad capable of such an achievement from the situation he came into last June.

Everybody wants to finish the job in style of course, but to be still in with a chance of a return to League One at the first time of asking is testimony to nine months of hard work. Welcome to opponents Luton Town, a strong and competitive squad who will doubtless provide the stiffest hurdle possible to Pool's aspirations. But they will know all about Blackpool's recent record in the play offs - let's hope our boys can lift themselves again when it matters.

Last Sunday's Awards Night provided further evidence of the togetherness within Gary's group of players. The lads clearly enjoy each other's company and there was genuine warmth displayed towards the winners on the night. Tom, Kelvin, Pottsy and Bright all managed to withstand the mickey taking whilst on stage, picking up their gongs to make it a real good night.

Do your bit in supporting the lads in these two games.
