WELCOME TO FAMILY NIGHT FOOTBALL!

As part of the EFL's 'Family Night Football' and #EveryGameMatters campaign for the Checktrade Trophy this season, we have invited our Junior Supporters Liaison Officer JAMES WHITEHEAD to fill in for the manager Nathan Jones to pen the welcome notes ahead of tonight's second round tie against Southend United, who we wish an enjoyable second visit to Kenilworth Road this season (but not too much!) and most importantly a safe journey home to Essex afterwards. Take it away, James...

Hi, my name is James Whitehead. I am 14 years old and live in Wingrave near Aylesbury and I have been attending Luton matches since I was one year old! Just under a year ago, I saw an advertisement on the club website for a new role the club were creating for a Junior Supporters Liaison Officer and I decided to apply.

Having been interviewed by John Miller, the club's Supporters Liaison Officer, I then met Gary Sweet and was lucky enough to be offered the role. I believe Luton may be the first club to have such a role, so I feel very privileged to be the first holder of the position. Over recent years the club has made great strides in trying to promote itself as both a family club and also one which the local community can relate to. My role is to try to offer the perspective of the junior supporters and suggest things that the club can do which will appeal to all junior hatters and also to be able to act as a link between the club and our junior fans.

Recently I, along with many people connected with the club, have been working with the supporters' charity of the year, NICU, This is the neonatal intensive care unit at the L&D Hospital where they help to treat premature babies. They had a charity match day recently on the 11th November, which was also World Prematurity Day, where many helpful volunteers from the hospital and club, along with myself, carried collection buckets around the ground and lots of generous supporters from both Luton and Plymouth donated to help boost the funds. I also took part in the unit's 'keepy uppy' challenge to help raise funds. This can be found on their Facebook page, anyone can enter, just upload a video of yourselves doing keepy uppy's.

We have recently re-launched the family fun room as Harry's Hideout, which was a great success with some lucky fans getting to play FIFA 19 and table football with some of the players. The Family fun days have also been a great success, along with flag waving and the dugout experience. As a result of all these efforts plus others, the club were awarded the League Two 2 Family Club of the Year award and I was lucky enough to be invited to attend the awards ceremony at the London Park Lane Hilton as part of the end of season EFL Awards evening, and go up on stage with Stuart and Kevan to accept the award. I also got to meet a number of well-known players – and even Adebayo 'The Beast' Akinfenwa from Wycombe!

The interest in the role has been amazing and I have been interviewed by Nick Coffey on BBC 3 Counties radio, The Luton News and best of all I was asked to take part in a feature in the first ever publication of Kickaround, a footie magazine for kids from the people who produce the long running When Saturday Comes magazine. I was invited to the training ground where I interviewed James Justin (he's one of our own you know!) and also compete against him in a number of football-based skills out on the training ground.

Going forward, we are looking to start hosting a fans forum specifically for the Junior Hatters where you can come and find out more about our great club, what's going on and to be able to ask those questions you have always wanted to know about the club which your Mum, Dad and Wikipedia can't tell you. We are hoping to hold the first one in the New Year, possibly in the February half-term. Also, I would really like to hear from any Junior Hatters with suggestions as to what you would like to see the club do to make the club even better than it already is. I would be happy to receive emails from you, or come and speak to me at the matches. My email is Juniorslo@lutontown.co.uk.

Enjoy tonight's game!

James

Aaron Jarvis opened the scoring just five minutes in with a lovely volley after a brilliant move from the hosts, before the Hatters went onto dominate the affair, creating 29 chances. They finally got their second 80 minutes in, when Jorge Grant's strike deflected past Jason Steele – the stopper putting in a spirited display to keep the Hatters at bay for so long.

Jorge Grant grabbed the Town's third as he nodded in after Aaron Jarvis' effort was saved.

With Peterborough losing on penalties to Brighton & Hove Albion Under-21s, Town are already guaranteed to finish top of the group and play at home in the next phase of the competition.

STORY OF THE MATCH

The Hatters fell to a defeat in their final Checkatrade Trophy group stage game as Peterborough ran out 2-1 winners at the ABAX Stadium.

Colin Daniel opened the scoring in the 19th minute when he fired into the bottom right corner from Marcus Maddison's right-wing cross.

Ivan Toney doubled their advantage with nine minutes of the first half to go when he was tripped by Alan McCormack 20 yards from goal – the former Newcastle United forward bending the resulting free-kick into the top right corner.

Town looked much improved in the second half and got a goal back in the 73rd minute when Conor O'Malley – who had pulled off a number of fine saves for the hosts – spilled Matty Pearson's cross into the back of his own net to give the Hatters hope of a late equaliser, but it wasn't to be as Peterborough held on for the win.
