GRAEME JONES

Good evening and welcome back to Kenilworth Road for this slightly delayed Sky Bet Championship fixture with Derby County.

I extend that welcome to the Derby supporters who have made the journey down the M1, head coach Philip Cocu, his staff and their players.

We felt we played well up at Pride Park earlier in the season and deserved to take something from the game, so we'll be determined to put that right tonight against a club that has added the lasting quality of this country's all-time leading goalscorer to their team since that day.

After the disappointment of the defeat to Birmingham here a fortnight ago, I came away from the City Ground last Sunday buoyed by the huge improvement in the boys' display – especially in the first half – against a Nottingham Forest side with their eyes on automatic promotion to the Premier League.

We were the better team in that opening 45 minutes and created chances that could have seen us more than just the solitary goal in front when we conceded the equaliser shortly before half-time.

We were in control of the game, but a key decision didn't go in our favour as we were on the attack and once again we were punished by the ball being in our net within seconds.

Overall we saw an improvement in our work both on and off the ball and we have players coming back to fitness now at such a key stage of the season, so it's important for all of us to show the belief and positivity that we can get positive results and start to accumulate points once again.

I'd like to welcome young Peter Kioso to the club. Peter's career path is one that is familiar to me, having been in the pro game as an apprentice, being released at 18 and going to play Non-League week in, week out against grown men, then coming back into the full-time game.

He's played 70 times at Hartlepool and impressed a lot of clubs up there. We really believe that we've signed a young, hungry and talented full-back, which we have been looking for since losing Jack Stacey last summer.

Peter is definitely one for the future, but back to the present, we really need your help this evening in ensuring this is as difficult a place as ever for a visiting team to come to. We must do everything we can together to get a positive result to gain some momentum, then anything is possible in this game and this league.

We have three of our next four matches here at Kenilworth Road and together we know we can turn this around.

Enjoy the game. COYH!

STEPHEN BROWNE

Good evening everyone and welcome to this rearranged Championship game due to Derby County getting through to the next round of the Cup last Saturday.

We welcome our guests today

– Phillip Cocu and his staff and players, and the Derby County fans who will no doubt make their voices heard. I know you will too, to welcome home one of our own, Curtis Davies, whose top level career we have followed with pride since he came through our academy before being sold to West Brom in 2005.

CURTIS DAVIES

And of course, Jack Marriott, who flourished here as a young striker after being let go by Ipswich. Both players served us so well and deserve the respect I know you'll show them tonight. As ever, we have so much anticipation about a huge game under floodlights and we just know the atmosphere will be electric – remember the corresponding fixture last year was Portsmouth!

We also offer a huge welcome to Peter Kioso (Pelly's cousin!) who joined us last week from Hartlepool United. He's a young, hungry, and versatile defender, previously at Dunstable Town, and a really exciting prospect that will not only play his part this season, but will also go on to get better and better. We wish Peter all the best.

It was the four-year anniversary for our Club Captain Alan Sheehan last week. Alan has played a huge role, especially in our promotion seasons. On the pitch he has given us moments to savour, but also off the pitch he has been an enormous influence on new arrivals and younger lads feeling their way. Thank you Alan for all you have done for us.

It's that time of the season when a variety of clubs lose track of their senses and we enter the wild west that is the transfer window. However you look at it – anecdotally, statistically or disruption-wise – it's simply not a window that yields rewards for most. For a number of reasons – panic buys where objectives are compromised; the time it can take for players to settle and contribute; rushed and unplanned recruiting focussed on the short term rather than the long term.

As a Board, we want to develop and encourage talent from a young age. Players like Pelly, JJ and Andre are obvious examples, but we also have the academy group that came through just after we got the academy on an even keel, and they are just one or two years away from breaking through. And below that age group in the academy we have some really exciting prospects.

As is well known, we control our budgets very tightly and we will not make knee-jerk reactions. We prefer to 'buy rather than rent' because we want to develop our talent for Luton's reward, not another club. There has been some worry that if we end up in League One next season, we will struggle, financially. The simple fact is that by the way we operate, despite a fall in broadcast income, it is not the case at all. Financially, we will remain stable so there is nothing to worry about wherever we are plying our trade (and it also makes zilch difference to our stadium progress).

Transfer fees are being talked about that makes the eyes water. Some of this is bravado – indeed some clubs need to sell assets in order to meet the Financial Fair Play rules, that you'll read about in the news at the moment. This unjustly increases the cost of all players down the ladder.

However, it is highly unlikely that those clubs that are comfortable with huge debts and wages that exceed their income season after season will curb their habits without some sort of action.

No one at Luton Town thinks that there should be any sort of 'level playing field'. The simple fact is that some clubs get higher attendances, can do better commercial deals, or have an appeal that can generate income. Those clubs - which hopefully will include us in the not too distant future - should be able to spend those extra funds on footballing ambition. That means that some clubs will always have more income, and thereby greater spending power, than others.

In fact, as a club where the heart of our culture is winning against the odds, punching above our weight, the underdog that succeeds, we have no problem with a degree of disparity in spending levels according to a club's natural size. We're confident we can punch above our weight under these circumstances.

What we think breaks the integrity of the game is when values are inflated by clubs spending beyond their regular means, taking it away from being a sporting endeavour towards a competition of brute financial muscle.

We acknowledge that there are clubs in this league and even below who are naturally able to pay double what we would consider sustainably prudent. That is fine and we are happy to compete by doing it the 'Luton Way'. Sadly, we cannot compete against wage bills that are ten or 15 times bigger than ours and much bigger squads or multi-million pound benches - values that are simply unsustainable for the club's natural resting position.

If this skewed situation the game finds itself in continues it will kill football as we know it.

Indeed we are already witnessing it as certain clubs self-combust under impudence - à la Bury or Bolton - but what about those that are following the rules? A senior director of a fellow Championship club remarked recently that a club that disrespects the rules or integrity of the game causes innocent clubs massive issues because supporters become naturally concerned, which will then affect attendances as they become falsely uncompetitive and create false expectations. As it stands innocent clubs that adhere to the rules and integrity are being punished.

More and more clubs are on the brink, bending the rules, or completely reliant on one person for its financial clout. In some cases fans are literally losing their clubs as facilities are sold off in questionable fashion in a final attempt to chase a mythical dream.

Owners like this are seen in the short term as ambitious and wonderful, but how often have we seen it go sour? Ask Saracens supporters! The Football League has a Golden Share in every member club, so it's time for them to step up to the plate, use the rules to stop this madness, and protect the integrity of the game. Support supporters.

Enjoy the game! Come on, give that extra ten per cent as you always do and sing up for the BOYS!

KIOSO BECOMES A HATTER!

The Hatters made their first signing of the transfer window and the new decade with the arrival of versatile defender Peter Kioso from Hartlepool United for an undisclosed fee last week.

The move marks a return to the area for the 20-year-old right-back, who joined the National League side in the summer of 2018 from our Southern League neighbours Dunstable Town.

Dublin-born Kioso had fallen out of the professional game, but rebuilt his career during a season under former Town youth coach Tony McCool at Creasey Park before impressing on trial at Pools.

He arrives back in Bedfordshire having made 70 appearances and scored four goals for the Victoria Park club, the most recent being his third of this season in his final game for Pools – a 2-2 draw away at promotion-chasing Yeovil.

After signing his contract at Kenilworth Road, Kioso said: “I’m delighted to sign. With all the history that Luton has as a club, I’m just buzzing to get going.

“As a player I take my defending quite seriously – I am a defender first and an attacker after. I am a right-back but I can play along the whole back four, I try to get forward and help the strikers. But most importantly it’s about defending, helping the back four and helping my keeper.

“It’s always been an ambition for me to get back into the Football League and I wouldn’t be one to lie – the two years that I have been at Hartlepool, I’ve been seeing how well Luton have been doing.

“Everyone talks about Luton and they are definitely going to get to the highest stage possible. I want to be there to help. That’s the reason why I came here.

“I’ve seen that they are going to get a big new stadium, the new training ground, everything – the way they produce players is amazing here.”

Two current players Peter knows well are Pelly-Ruddock Mpanzu and Brendan Galloway, adding: “Brendan is a close friend and Pelly is my mum’s nephew. I think his story is amazing and it’s a lot for me to look forward to. He’s a person I look up to, as well as a footballer.

“I saw the stat that he’s scored in every league that he’s played in – Conference, League Two, League One and Champ – and that’s amazing. He’s a great player and I’m just looking forward to playing with the likes of Pelly and everybody else in the team.”

THE LUTON LOANEES

Young Hatters out on loan continue to impress – with Harry Isted, Josh Neufville and Corey Panter gaining valuable experience in Non-League.

Goalkeeper Isted has featured twice for the Hatters first team since joining in 2017 – both of those appearances coming in the Checkatrade Trophy – and has certainly hit the ground running at top of the table Wealdstone, who extended his initial one month loan until the end of the weekend just gone, having joined in November.

The 22-year-old kept an excellent five clean sheets in nine games for the Stones ahead of the weekend's match against Bath City – the last of his current loan spell.

Neufville returned to the Hatters over Christmas after spending the first half of the campaign out at National League Solihull Moors.

He then impressed Woking boss Alan Dowson at the recent Beds FA Senior Cup match against AFC Dunstable, with the 18-year-old making his debut for the Cards as a sub at Wrexham last week.

Sadly for Josh that one ended in a 3-0 defeat, but the forward played the full 90 minutes in Saturday's 1-0 home win over Yeovil.

Finally, Corey Panter had his time at Southern League Premier Division Central side Biggleswade Town extended by another month after an impressive initial stint for Chris Nunn's team.

The 19-year-old has also had a brief spell at Hendon this season, where he netted a long-range strike.

For weekly updates on how all the Town players who are out on loan are getting on, head to the Luton Town official website.

WELL DONE LUTON LAKEVIEW!

Lakeview School from Wixams have won the opportunity out of 100 schools in Bedfordshire to represent Luton Town in the Kids EFL Under 11s Cup.

The eight boys from one class are through to the regional final in Bristol in March and are one tournament win from Wembley, where the overall final will be played before the Championship play-off final in May.

The boys, pictured with Frankie Musonda and Corey Panter after winning the EFL Trust Utilita Kids Cup Bedfordshire final on January 9th, now need to get past the likes of QPR, Reading, Bristol City and Cardiff.

They are (from L to R) Josh Broom-Alexander, Jack Brady (GK), Sonny Finch, Jordan Fridkin, Tyler Vincent-Jones, James Zinonos, Kyle Hill and Reece Kenyon (captain) and they would like to thank Mr Poulson and Mrs Tilley for taking them!

FAREWELL NIGEL – OUR SANTA!

Photograph by Marco Magielse

All at Luton Town are devastated to have learned that one of our most recognised supporters, Nigel Martin, passed away earlier this month at the age of 63.

A retired maths teacher, 'Santa' as he was popularly known among the Hatters fan base was a regular at Kenilworth Road, holding a season ticket in the Kenilworth Road end, and at away games, having supported the club for well over 50 years.

Nigel was a warm, kind and caring man who gave everyone a lift whenever you were in his company, with his positive attitude never failing to put a smile on the face of the many who knew him.

He was a strong charity man, who raised lots of funds for great causes. He became the club's very own 'Santa', often appearing as Father Christmas at Kenilworth Road, bringing joy to all supporters in attendance at our December matches.

That extended to the local hospitals where he often accompanied Town players to visit the children of Luton & Dunstable Hospital and Bedford Hospital at Christmas time, posing as Santa and giving up his time to make others happy, something which was very important to him.

Nigel was recognised for his contribution to the community and the Hatters support in 2015, when the Luton Town Supporters' Trust awarded him their 'Outstanding Contribution Award' for all his charity work.

Their chairman Tony Murray has paid tribute to a man he deeply respected.

"I was absolutely gutted to hear the news that Nigel had passed away," said Tony. "I got to know Nigel well and he was the kindest, warmest, most wonderful man you could ever wish to meet. He never had a bad word to say about anyone and was always positive.

"He was a very popular winner of our award, which was given to him for all the brilliant work he did with a number of charities and in particular the time he gave up to put a smile on the faces of so many children who faced being in hospital at Christmas time. It was a real honour to present him with it.

"He was a true diamond, one in a million and we have lost a fantastic supporter of the club as well as a truly special person."

Our thoughts and prayers go out to Nigel's two sons Sam and Ben and to all of his friends, family and those who knew him.

RIP Santa.

ELEANOR BOSTOCK

Long-time supporter Eleanor Bostock sadly passed away on 3rd January 2020, aged 96.

Eleanor saw her first Luton match away at Fulham in 1946, but having moved to Luton from her beloved Kingston-upon-Thames in 1948, she became an avid Hatter and was a season ticket holder in the Kenilworth Upper with her youngest grandson Steve for many years.

She was also a regular at away games, travelling on Town on Tour, most often accompanied by her son Pete and grandsons Dave and Steve.

Known by many as 'Nanny', Eleanor saw her final Luton match in 2017 when Ipswich visited in the League Cup. She will be sorely missed by many.

WAYNE
ROONEY

After a hugely successful career playing for Everton, Manchester United and England, Wayne Rooney returned to his homeland following a campaign with DC United in the MLS.

Rooney, 34, is United's all-time top goalscorer with 253 goals, and the former England captain leads the way for his country too, with 53 goals in 120 international appearances.

Having started his football career at Goodison Park, Rooney is widely regarded as one of the best players of his generation, making him someone the Hatters will have to pay extra close attention to throughout the 90 minutes.

MANAGER:

PHILLIP COCU

Derby announced the appointment of Phillip Cocu as Frank Lampards replacement in July 2019.

Cocu enjoyed a long, successful career as a player, turning out for the likes of AZ Alkmaar, Vitesse Arnhem, PSV Eindhoven and Spanish giants Barcelona.

The 48-year-old also amassed 101 international appearances for the Netherlands, before retiring from playing and moving into coaching and management.

He guided PSV Eindhoven to three Eredivisie titles during five full seasons in charge between 2013 and 2018, before a brief spell in Turkey with Fenerbahce last season.

Hamer has enjoyed spells with a number of clubs during a career which started with Reading. Though he didn't make a first-team appearance for the Royals, he was getting games for the likes of Crawley, Brentford and Exeter on loan.

He moved permanently to Charlton in 2011 where he made over 100 appearances in three years and helped them achieve promotion into the Championship.

He then moved to Leicester City where he was part of their title-winning squad and Champions League campaign. He left for Huddersfield in 2018, then joined Derby at the start of this campaign.

Clarke began his football career with Ipswich Town in 2002 as an Under-7 and made his debut for the club 12 years later against Crawley Town in the League Cup.

He went on loan to Portsmouth in 2015 originally and impressed with his 29 appearances that season, prompting them to sign him permanently the following summer.

With well over 100 appearances to his name at Pompey, Clarke earned himself a move to Brighton & Hove Albion this summer.

Less than two months later, he agreed to join Derby on a season-long loan and made his debut in the opening game of the season against Huddersfield Town.

The Welsh international was highly-rated from a young age and started his career with Manchester United at the age of eight. After making his way up the age groups, he was unable to become a first-team regular, so he spent time on loan with Carlisle United and Yeovil Town, before signing for Leicester City in 2014.

Once again, his hopes of being involved in the first-team were short-lived and he spent the majority of his time on-loan with Rotherham, Blackburn, Cardiff and Ipswich, before Derby snapped him up in 2017.

In between his success at Pride Park he became a regular in the Welsh national team, and he currently has 20 caps.

Derby's top scorer this season Martyn Waghorn has been on quite the journey in his football career to this date, considering it all started at Sunderland in 1998. He stayed at the Stadium of Light until 2010 in which time he has loan spells with Charlton and Leicester, the latter of which Waghorn signed for permanently.

After more loan spells and a permanent move to Wigan, the now 29-year-old signed for Rangers in 2015 in what was his most successful goalscoring spell to date.

His 44 goals across two seasons made Ipswich bring him back to England where he scored 16 goals in one campaign for them, before moving to Derby in 2018.

DELVES INTO HIS ARCHIVES...

11.05.1991 | LUTON TOWN 2 DERBY COUNTY 0
DIVISION ONE (NOW PREMIER LEAGUE)

On March 9th 1991, the Town won away at Aston Villa to record their third victory in four games and, with ten games to go, were in a comfortable 13th position in the top-flight.

As supporters came away from Villa Park, a fight against relegation was far from their minds and thoughts of a possible top ten position were a realistic objective. Unfortunately, the remainder of the season turned into a nightmare.

From the next seven games only two points were salvaged as the Hatters slipped nearer and nearer to the relegation zone with a young side lacking any real striking power - record signing Lars Elstrup with his mind now set on a return to Denmark, and Iain Dowie having been sold to West Ham meant that goals were hard to come by.

Only two teams were to go down that season as the division was restructured, and immediately below the Hatters were Derby and Sunderland, who had both suffered equally poor runs, and as the fixture list had panned out our last two home games were against these sides.

With three games to go, Sunderland were the visitors to Kenilworth Road and a Luton victory would have gone a long way to easing the fears of a return to Division Two.

Sunderland had won only once away from home that season but they seemed to have more of a will to win that day, and took the lead through Gordon Armstrong after 22 minutes, only for the Town's best attacker, centre-half Graham Rodger, to level the score ten minutes later.

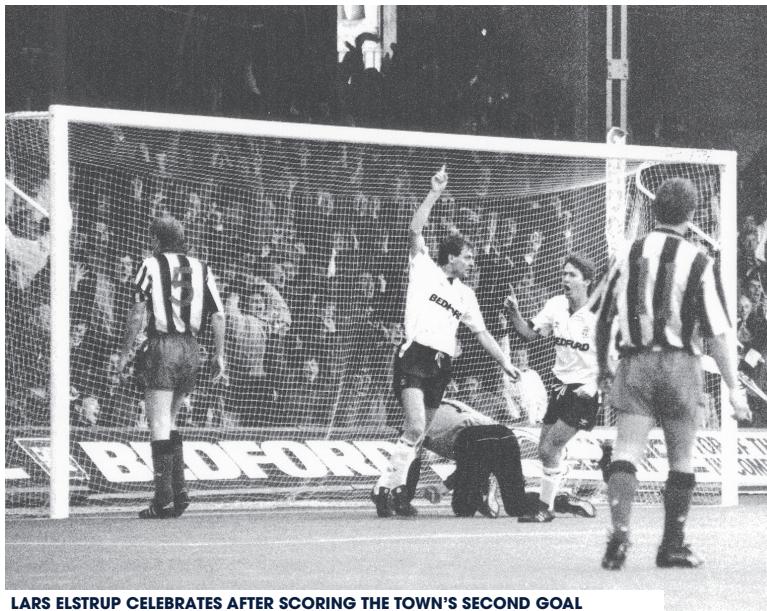

In the second half there was likely only to be one winner and Colin Pascoe duly obliged for the visitors on the hour, catching the Luton defence on the break.

Manager Jim Ryan kept the players locked in the changing room for 80 minutes after the game and emerged a bitterly disappointed man due to the fact that the Town had blown their chances of avoiding a last match of the season showdown once again.

The penultimate game of the campaign was away at Everton, and the Hatters put on an ultra-defensive performance but still lost out to a second-half strike from Tony Cottee.

Injury problems and suspensions had meant that no recognised central attacker was included in the line-up, while Ryan was forced to call up and use the previously untried Paul Telfer as substitute.

Since beating the Town, Sunderland had drawn two home games and were now level on points, with the same goal difference, although the Hatters had scored more goals.

LARS ELSTRUP CELEBRATES AFTER SCORING THE TOWN'S SECOND GOAL

The situation was now simple. The Town had to beat already relegated Derby at Kenilworth Road and hope that Sunderland did not run up a cricket score in their final game at Manchester City.

All very well, but the team had got out of the habit of winning and it was over two months since they had last picked up three points.

Also, although Derby were already relegated, no-one could expect them to roll over, especially with the likes of Peter Shilton, Mark Wright, Dean Saunders and old Town favourite Mick Harford in their side.

A best of the season crowd of 12,889 turned up to see if another 'great escape' could be engineered, and they were delighted to see that nerves were not a part of the Town's make-up that afternoon as good football flowed.

A great roar went up when it was learned that Sunderland had gone behind, then the euphoria died when news came through that the Wearsiders were now 2-1 ahead.

A win was now vital and the breakthrough came just before half-time when a perfectly flighted free-kick from Jason Rees skimmed off the top of Mick Harford's head into the net.

What turned out to be the deciding goal came almost immediately after the start of the second half when a clever passing movement ended with a corner which was taken by David Preece.

His accurate cross found John Dreyer, who headed the ball across the box to Kingsley Black, who headed it back the opposite way to Elstrup, who scored with Shilton wrong-footed.

Derby had a couple of chances after this but the clearer opportunities came the way of the Town and a 2-0 win was sufficient to ensure top-flight football for another season.

Sunderland, incidentally, ended up losing 3-2!

All in all, a good day for the Town which also marked the end of an era as this was to be the final game on the artificial pitch, the final game where away supporters were not officially allowed in and the final game where supporters could watch from the Maple Road 'triangle' with the New (now David Preece) Stand to be erected.

RUSS PERRETT TAKES ON THE DERBY DEFENCE

After reaching the heady heights of fifth spot in the Championship following a 5-1 home thumping of Leeds in October 2006, the wheels came off and four straight defeats later (plus a 4-0 hammering at Everton in the League Cup) the Town were plummeting down the Championship table.

Heavy defeats at Ipswich and Preston were bad enough, but home losses to Burnley and QPR set the alarm bells ringing.

The games did not get any easier as next up were promotion-chasing Derby, and the first return to Kenilworth Road of popular striker Steve Howard who had been top scorer at the club every season since joining the Hatters in 2001.

The Hatters welcomed back Marlon Beresford in goal following a suspension, while centre-back Russ Perrett made his first start of the season leaving Marcus Heikkinen to play in midfield replacing David Bell. Midfield was Heikkinen's position for the Finland international side.

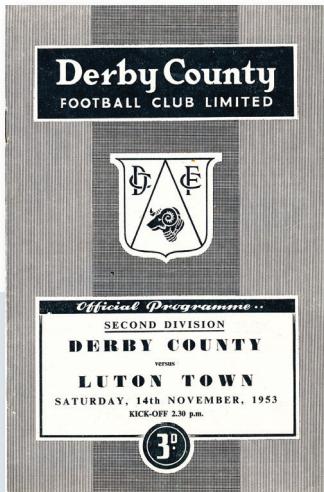

The Rams had most of the play in the first half but were wasteful in front of goal with Morten Bisgaard spurning the best opportunity when blazing over the bar from ten yards. They were almost made to pay at the other end when Leon Barnett's header forced a great save from Derby goalkeeper Stephen Bywater.

In the second period Derby kept up the pressure with Jonathan Stead hitting a post before netting a brilliant solo effort to give the away side a deserved lead. The game was made safe on 76 minutes when a clever free-kick routine between Seth Johnson and Marc Edworthy saw a shot from the latter cannon off a post into the path of ace poacher Howard, who volleyed in the rebound.

At least his celebration was muted!

JANUARY 1994

With the score locked at 1-1 and the Town down to ten men, Scott Oakes beats seven men in a mazy run from his own half before slamming the ball past Martin Taylor in the Rams' goal.

DECEMBER 1988

A long range strike into the top corner from Mick Harford is enough to bring the points back to Kenilworth Road. This is only the Town's second victory at the Baseball Ground.

MARCH 2006

The Hatters end a three game losing streak when beating relegation threatened Derby 1-0. Future Ram Steve Howard slides in the only goal.

JAMES COLLINS

CENTRE SPOT

Last week we asked on social media for fans' questions for the reigning League One player of the year and Golden Boot winner.

It's fair to say there were many more than the 25 goals he managed last season, so we popped down to The Brache after training on Wednesday to put the Hatters' nine-goal top scorer James Collins on The Centre Spot...

Twitter @emmaorch What game did you feel most proud to wear a Luton shirt in?

Sunderland away last season. Nathan Jones had just left and it was Mick's first game. We had Sunderland away and everyone thought we'd cave and go under. There were over 3,000 fans there and we decided as a group that after the warm-up, we'd go all the way over to the other end of the pitch and clap them. The hairs stand on the back of your neck just thinking about it – it was quite a tear-jerking moment, because it was some reaction from the fans and we went into the game determined to get a good result. We played well and I scored, so it was a brilliant day.

Instagram @a1.realist3k What was your favourite goal you have scored at Luton Town?

I enjoyed the Boxing Day goal at Swindon in League Two when we won 5-0 – that was a good day going back to my old club – or my two goals away at Coventry. None of them have been worldies, have they, so it's hard to pick. I'd probably say the two scoring in successive years at the Ricoh against my home team.

Twitter @snaptucker Favourite goal in a Luton shirt, that was not scored by yourself?

Last year I'd say Moncs' free-kick against Portsmouth, because it was such a big game, and in my first season I've got to include Olly Lee's goal up at Carlisle – the League Two promotion clincher.

Twitter @ZarBeck26 If you could choose the ideal strike partner, from any era, who would it be and why?

My idol growing up was Alan Shearer. I used to love watching him and loved the way he played. I tried to be like him when I was younger. He probably wouldn't suit me the best, because – and I'm not trying to say I'm anywhere near as good as him – we play like each other. But I'd say he would be my favourite strike partner.

Twitter @LutonTownExile How much verballs goes on between you and a set of defenders in a game and what's the best put down you've had? Second. What's the hardest finish for a striker? One on one, header, volley, sidefoot, other?

CELEBRATING HIS EQUALISER AT THE STADIUM OF LIGHT LAST SEASON, THE PROUDEST COLLO'S BEEN IN A LUTON SHIRT

Loads! I have verbals with probably every defender I play against. Me and Hytts used to have a bad reputation in League Two. We'd get hated – Hytts used to bring me down to be fair, because I used to see him do it and think 'I want a bit of that!' It's usually just putting each other down, nothing specific, but I do have verbals with a lot of defenders. As for the second part of the question, I've always found the hardest finish is the one where you've got too much time to think about it. You've got a one-on-one, say, because you're running at goal and you've got time to think about it, or a ball gets squared to you and you've got loads of time to put it in, they're the hardest ones. The ones that are more instinctive are the easiest because you just do it without thinking.

Twitter @liamrowlands94 Do you have any superstitions before games?

Not really. I try to keep my routine quite similar. I always try and have a nap on a Friday afternoon and eat well. I have my porridge before I go to bed on a Friday night, and I always have a coffee on the way to the game – on the bus or in the car on the way over to the ground, but I wouldn't say it's a superstition. Just a habit.

Twitter @ppglobalmedia What advice would you give your 16-year-old self?

I tell you what, I'd love to be 16 again knowing what I know now! I'd just say work hard, keep your head down. I was always told as a kid to make sure you're seen but not heard, so make sure people notice you for what you are doing on the pitch and not talking rubbish off the pitch about how good you are. I'd also say to enjoy it, because you never know if it's going to last very long, but you've got to get lucky as well. If you keep working hard you'll make your own luck in the game.

Twitter @flipperprawn Favourite TV show and character?

I watch a bit of everything. I like reality TV – Love Island and things like that – and at the minute I really like the SAS: Who Dares Wins, so I'll say Ant Middleton because I've read his book. I like him.

I always say to my missus that I think I'd have a go at it and I could complete that. I think I'd be all right at it. It's just the sleep that would do me, getting you up at all hours, but I'd have a go.

 @gompstomp78 If you could replay any game again, which one would it be and why?

I didn't play in this game, but I'll go with the match against Denmark for Ireland because if we could replay it again and win, we'd have qualified for the Euros. But we drew 1-1 and now we've got to do it the hard way with the play-offs.

 @DarraghMc7 How does it feel to represent your country? And what Irish roots do you have in your family?

My Irish roots come from my mum, Rose, who was born in Mullingar but moved over here with her family when she was four years old. Representing my country is amazing, especially at first team. I'd done it at U19s and then 21s, so to do it at senior level now is probably the biggest achievement of my career.

 @1CoryDavison What is your biggest achievement/ proudest moment in your football career so far?

Probably making my Ireland debut. I've been really lucky to have some good achievements in my career. I've had five promotions and last year getting promoted to the Championship comes a close second, but making my Ireland debut has been the highlight of my career so far.

 @dicreamio Who do you get on best with when you're away with the Ireland team?

I'd played with a lot of them in the Under-21s, so I knew a lot of faces, but my best mate is Ciaran Clark, who I came through with at Villa. I've known him since I was 11, so I'd probably say Ciaran. When he's in the squad, me and him room together and I still see him all the time, but there are a load of lads over there that I mix with because we've known each other since we were kids in the age groups.

 Stuart Phillips Who has been the biggest influence on your career, particularly as your parents travel to a lot of your games?

I would say my dad, Steve. Ever since I started playing Sunday League football he's come to every game, wherever I've been playing, whether it's in this country or abroad. He's been everywhere. He used to come up to Scotland, he's been to my Ireland games. I was on trial at Bolton when I was 11 and he used to drive me up there to train with them. He's done everything for me. My mum has started coming more with him now since I moved out and it's close, but definitely my dad - he's not missed many games at all over the years.

Sheez and Cranes. I drive in with Cranes every day and I've been really close with Sheez ever since I signed here. I was close to Alan McCormack as well when he was here, but I get on with all the lads.

© thicc_chungles How does it feel to be with this squad from League Two to Championship in such a short period of time?

It's great. That was the aim when I signed. When I first spoke to Nathan and Gary Sweet, the aim was to be a Championship team and to do it within two seasons is surreal, I suppose, but that's why I signed for this club – because I knew it had ambitions to go higher and they matched mine. We achieved it really quick and I just want it to last now. That's the aim of the season. I just want it to last.

© mk_luca08 How did you feel when you won the League One Golden Boot last season?

It was fantastic because in my career, I've always been there or thereabouts – I've got double figures but I've never quite won it. Always been pipped by a few goals. But to actually get it last year and win it by a good distance was a great moment for me, but we did create some chances last year as a team, didn't we, so it was just lucky for me that I was the one on the end of them.

© rugfoot Do you have a focus word in your head when you take a penalty?

I don't have a word, but I always practise the day before a game. I always do three or four penalties and I pick a way that I'm going to go the following day, then just keep practising hitting the same spot.

DANNY HYLTON HELPS COLLO AND JAMES SHEA CELEBRATE THEIR LEAGUE ONE AWARDS IN STYLE

© \_lewis\_.b Emotions when you score?

Apart from seeing your kids being born, there is no better feeling in the world! But in football terms, scoring goals is the best feeling in the game, so to be able to do it a lot of the time is really good for me. I always remember someone saying to me when I was younger, 'If you can score 200 goals in your career, it's 20 goals a season for ten years - then you've had a good career'. That's always stuck in my head so if I can get anywhere near that, I'll be proud. I think I'm on 163 now, so not too far away. I love scoring goals and getting that feeling when I see the ball hit the back of the net.

© james.senior31 At what time did you think of getting a career in football and what was your favourite year at school?

Ever since I was a young kid I wanted to play football, because I never any good at school really. I wasn't naughty, I was just never academically great. I used to only go to school three times a week because I was in at Villa twice a week, so I suppose it started to get realistic when I was about 14, in Year 9. I started missing school to go into training. I'd see the scholars and the youth team and wanted to be in with them. So I'd say that was probably my favourite year in school - because I never used to go in a lot after that!

Our Town What is your most vivid football memory of your childhood?

Michael Owen scoring against Argentina in France '98, because I would have been eight-years-old. I was born in 1990 so I missed Italia '90 and the '94 World Cup. I had a video of Michael Owen doing a soccer camp at Stoke's ground with Neville Southall, and used to watch it all the time - but I'll always remember him scoring THAT goal!

© David Bradford Do you have a roast dinner on a Sunday?

Sometimes, when I go around my mum and dad's or my in-laws'. We'll take the kids over to either one on a Sunday and have a roast there, but we never really cook them at home.

© @Pete\_LTFC Bacon roll or sausage sandwich?

Bacon roll.

© Duane Anstey Wotsits or skips?

Neither really. My missus eats Wotsits all the time and I used to as a kid, so I'll go with Wotsits. Skips are pointless!

STORY OF THE MATCH

Town were left frustrated as they were defeated 2-1 by Birmingham City at Kenilworth Road.

Lukas Jutkiewicz nodded in after just four minutes when he met Jeremie Bela's left-wing cross to give the visitors the lead.

Town pulled one back from the penalty spot midway through the second half after Harlee Dean dragged Matty Pearson to the ground - James Collins notched his ninth of the campaign from 12 yards as he sent Lee Camp the wrong way.

The Blues immediately responded though as Gary Gardner pinched the ball in midfield, before playing a one-two with Jacques Maghoma and finding the bottom left corner from inside the box.

Dean would go onto receive a red card late on - two yellow cards, the latter of which for a foul on Collins - but it wouldn't influence the score-line in the end as a late effort from Sonny Bradley was kept out by Camp and Birmingham took all three points.

HARRY CORNICK IS ALL SMILES AFTER HIS GOAL PUT THE TOWN IN FRONT AT THE CITY GROUND

STORY OF THE MATCH

The Town fell to another away defeat as they let a one-goal lead slip at Nottingham Forest in their last Sky Bet Championship outing.

Graeme Jones' side started brightly at the City Ground and should have taken the lead when Dan Potts got on the end of his own knock-down in the Forest box, but blazed over from six yards.

Harry Cornick would make amends though as he converted from the left-back's low ball, after the attack started with Simon Sluga in what was a fantastic team goal from the Hatters.

The hosts responded though as Joe Lolley fired past Sluga to bring the score level, before notching his second 12 minutes after the restart with a tremendous effort into the top right corner.

Lewis Grabban wrapped up the scoring with a last-minute penalty after Sonny Bradley was penalised for a handball.

A REA OF LIGHT!

GLEN IS BACK AFTER 13 MONTHS OF INJURY HELL

Glen Rea returned to the starting line-up in a league game for the first time since suffering his serious knee injury 13 months ago at Nottingham Forest last week – and the Town midfielder is adamant that a winning run is just around the corner for the Hatters.

The 25-year-old appeared as a substitute at Stoke in December before starting the Emirates FA Cup third round tie at Bournemouth three weeks ago.

He played the first hour of last Sunday's 3-1 loss at the City Ground and was part of an impressive first-half display that saw Graeme Jones' side lead 1-0 shortly before the interval.

"On a personal note it was good to be back, but we are all gutted in there," said Rea. "It was never a three goals against game. I don't think anyone here could say they deserved to score three goals.

"They are a very good team, don't get me wrong, but we've come here and felt like we've given it everything. First half I felt we were right in the game and there were two bits of magic from their lad, but it's never a three-goals against game."

Town remain at the foot of the Championship table, four points behind 21st-placed Stoke City, who travel to West Brom tonight.

"There's a run coming, I'm telling you," Glen continued. "There is a positive run coming because everyone in there is on the same page and there is a positive run coming. The fans have been excellent again, travelling every week, so if we all stay together as a club we'll be fine, I'm sure of it."

Asked whether the dressing room is still confident, Rea interrupted emphatically with: "One hundred per cent. I'm telling you there is a positive run coming. Bad times don't last, do they? We are going through a bad time and we've been through a bad time this season, but I'm sure there is a run coming, a positive run. We'll get out of this."

On his own return to action, the former Republic of Ireland Under-21 international – who spent a month on loan at National League side Woking in November to gain valuable game time – said: "It's been a very long time. It's been a journey, but it was excellent to be back out there.

"I've been chomping at the bit to get back in, get my chance again. I got my chance today and hopefully it can continue. I feel fit. I'm ready to play and I felt I did all right. Hopefully it continues."

ACADEMY UPDATE

WITH ANDY AWFORD

Good evening everyone and welcome to tonight's game versus Derby County.

U9s Tour to Germany

Huge congratulations to our U9 players, staff and parents as they returned home from their recent tour to Germany with the winners' medals.

Group victories over Hannover, Southend Utd, Borussia, Leverkusen and Rapid Vienna saw us progress to the final to face German giants Bayern Munich.

A hard-fought final saw us win deservedly 2-1 with both goals coming from Austen Ball. Another fantastic experience for the players, staff and parents - well done to all!

U10s Victorious

The U10s followed the U9s in bringing a trophy back to base with a terrific performance in an indoor tournament hosted by Norwich City FC. After the group games v Southend, Norwich and Lincoln, we progressed to a tense final against Watford.

With the scores all level at the final whistle, the game went to penalties which I am delighted to say we won. A great day, some amazing skill on show and another valuable learning experience for all involved - well done everyone!

U18s

The Youth Team have a period without league fixtures now as they head into the Merit League fixtures which start on Saturday February 15th.

We will be participating in Merit League 2 after narrowly missing out on League 1. A last game defeat at Southend United ensured that unfortunately we finished one place below the cut-off line, which was a tad harsh on the boys.

However, every negative presents the opportunity to be turned into a positive, and therefore we will reset new goals and challenges and look to finish the season off well.

Bedfordshire Senior Cup

Following the recent 2-0 victory away at AFC Dunstable we have been drawn away at Potton United in the semi-final. This game will take place on Tuesday February 18th (7.45pm kick off). Your support as always is greatly appreciated and will be worth its weight in gold as our young players attempt to reach the final.

Enjoy tonight's game...

COYH!

THE SHARED LEARNING TRUST FOOTBALL ACADEMY UNDER-18 EDUCATION & FOOTBALL DEVELOPMENT

2020-21 trials on Saturday 8th February for Year 11 leavers
BTEC Sport + full time training and games programme in the EFL

We've already played over 20 games in the first season of this exciting partnership between The Shared Learning Trust and our Community Trust, allowing students to study in Luton for a BTEC Sport qualification which is the equivalent of three A-Levels, whilst having the opportunity to play for the Hatters in the EFL Education National League as well as the local Southern Counties Floodlit Youth League.

The Shared Learning Trust (TSLT) operate two Academy sites in Luton at Chalk Hills and Stockwood Park, and both opened brand new sixth form blocks and newly surfaced astro pitches last September following a multi-million pound investment programme.

Both sixth forms received Ofsted rated 'Good' post-16 provision across both sites, with excellent exam results.

The TSLT Football Academy boys' programme is designed for those Year 11 leavers who want to take a sports qualification whilst receiving a full-time football training programme. Additional GCSE support is available in Maths and English.

Football training will work around your study on a daily basis with two full-time Luton Town FC coaching staff from the club's Community Trust.

This gives players the opportunity to progress into the professional or semi-professional game, as well as preparing them to move onto university or USA Scholarships. The scheme is open to students who are Year 11 leavers from September 2020 at schools all around the region and beyond.

Head of Trust Kevin Thoburn said: "It's an exciting addition to post-16 education opportunities in Luton for local boys, and one we hope will lead to further opportunities for girls also in 2020-21.

"This season already we've played all over the south of England, from Bristol Rovers to Southend United, and narrowly missed out on a national cup quarter-final appearance following an away defeat at Newport County AFC.

"Our young team of first years have really done well facing older boys, which at times has been a challenge, but we're excited for next season and building on the solid platforms from this first season."

If you are a Year 11 leaver and wonder - Is this for me? - if you meet one of the following this course could be for you:

- I have played a good standard of competitive football
- I am keen to study sport and achieve a qualification
- I want to start a career in football, sport or leisure management
- I want to continue my education blending football and sport

Our next trial will be on the morning of Saturday 8th February at Chalk Hills Academy, Leagrave High Street, Luton LU1 1ONE. To register your interest in the trial email BTEC@lutontown.co.uk or follow us via Instagram @lutontownbtec for regular updates.

AFC DUNSTABLE 1-2 LUTON TOWN

A superb goal from 16-year-old Ellie Sargeant and a clever finish from Jess McKay put Luton Town Ladies into the Beds County cup final once more.

In recent years the Hatters have struggled to retain the cup but now have another chance to win it back after beating local side AFC Dunstable in the semi-final.

It was a scrappy game played on a heavy pitch, but Luton started well, moving the ball into good areas and carving out chances early on.

Funmi Babalola should have put her side 1-0 up but her shot from close range flew over the bar. McKay had a string of chances but the ball wouldn't fall for her.

At the break it was all even. In the second half the Hatters continued to dominate possession but couldn't find a way through.

Eventually youngster Sargeant found herself a bit of space out wide and hit an arrowed shot goalwards. The keeper could do nothing but watch it fly past her into the top far corner.

ELLIE SARGEANT

Town had chances to double their lead but a McKay header was well saved, and Babalola saw another chance go wide.

A defensive mix-up then ended in a Dunstable corner and a back post scramble saw it poked into the net for the equaliser.

Soon after McKay put her side back ahead as she faced the oncoming keeper and slotted it into the bottom corner.

For the final ten minutes it was a hard-fought battle but the Hatters managed to see it out and win the tie.

Manager Nikki Baker was delighted to get into the final, saying: "We played some good football at times on a difficult pitch and battled well. We scored two good goals and dominated possession, but Dunstable made us work for it. We want to go on and win the cup now, as the last two seasons have been a disaster for us."

OUR NEXT OPPONITION

WEST BROMWICH ALBION | 01.02.20 | KO 3PM

FORMED: 1878 | NICKNAME: THE BAGGIES | LAST SEASON: 4TH IN THE CHAMPIONSHIP | FOLLOW THEM ON TWITTER: @WBA | COLOURS: BLUE & WHITE STRIPES | GROUND: THE HAWTHORNS | MANAGER: SLAVEN BILIC

WHO?

Now in their second season back in the Championship after an eight year stay in the Premier League, the Baggies have appointed former Croatia and West Ham United manager Slaven Bilic as the man to get them back up to the top tier, replacing Jimmy Shan. Town boss Graeme Jones was assistant manager to Darren Moore at The Hawthorns last season, but parted ways with the Baggies in March. Now in the top two, the Baggies are very much one of the favourites for promotion.

STADIUM - THE HAWTHORNS

One of the few stadiums that can claim to be older than ours - The Hawthorns has five years on Kenilworth Road - although you probably wouldn't be able to tell! Built in 1900, the ground's record attendance came in 1937, when 64,815 crammed in for an FA Cup sixth round tie against Arsenal. Since the introduction of all-seater stadiums, the ground can now fit just over 27,000 in.

HAVEN'T WE MET BEFORE?

Town took on the Albion earlier on this season, losing 2-1 at Kenilworth Road. Of our 46 meetings, Town have won 11 drawn nine and lost 25.

KNOWING ME, KNOWING YOU

Curtis Davies joined West Brom in a £3 million deal in August 2005 - which at the time was a club record fee received for the Town. Curtis made 62 appearances in a Hatters shirt and will be returning to Kenilworth Road with Derby County tonight. Davies' current team mate George Thorne has also played for Luton and the Baggies - the 26-year-old came through the academy at the Hawthorns, before joining Derby County in 2014. He signed on loan for the second half of last season, making three appearances.

THE LAST WORD

BY DYLAN BHUNDIA - 18-YEAR-OLD HATTER WHO WRITES ABOUT ALL THINGS LUTON TOWN ON LTFCANALYSIS.WORDPRESS.COM

It's amazing how quickly football changes. Not long ago, we were fighting to survive as a club.

The recent situations at Bury and Bolton brought back all too familiar dark memories for all of us. It reminded us of the madness that is football finance. A madness that not long ago, we were a part of. But, unlike them, we were saved by our own fans.

We've been on an incredible journey over the last decade, and as we're in the midst of a relegation battle, it's a good time to reflect on our path, to remind ourselves of what we used to be. From freezing cold treks up to Hyde and Gateshead, to going toe to toe with fallen giants at the City Ground and Ewood Park, all in the space of seven short years, we really should appreciate just how incredible our rise has been.

When you compare it to the numerous clubs that stagnate in League One and League Two, to compete in the second tier of English football just six years after re-entering the Football League, is nothing short of remarkable.

I think we can look at our current difficult situation on the pitch in a similar way that we can think about life. Ever since our back-to-back relegations, the mantra around the club has always been about 'getting back to where we belong'. So, every one of us should ask ourselves the question: if we don't enjoy the result of the last ten years of long away trips in divisions that we don't want to be in, then what was the point of all those hours and hours of travelling and those long nights in damp motel rooms?

It's tough leaving almost every game with an empty feeling in the pit of our stomach; another missed opportunity, another what could have been, but we are in the promised land that we've dreamed of since the day we almost died away. We must relish it. Because what we have achieved as a club is amazing.

We all recognise that, right now, we have hit our financial ceiling in terms of being competitive. But the encouraging thing is, with our new home on the way, that will all change. I don't mean to say we shouldn't be giving our all to compete this season. Absolutely not. It's that we, as fans, have to view what has happened this season through the lens of how quickly we've risen up the football pyramid over the last few years.

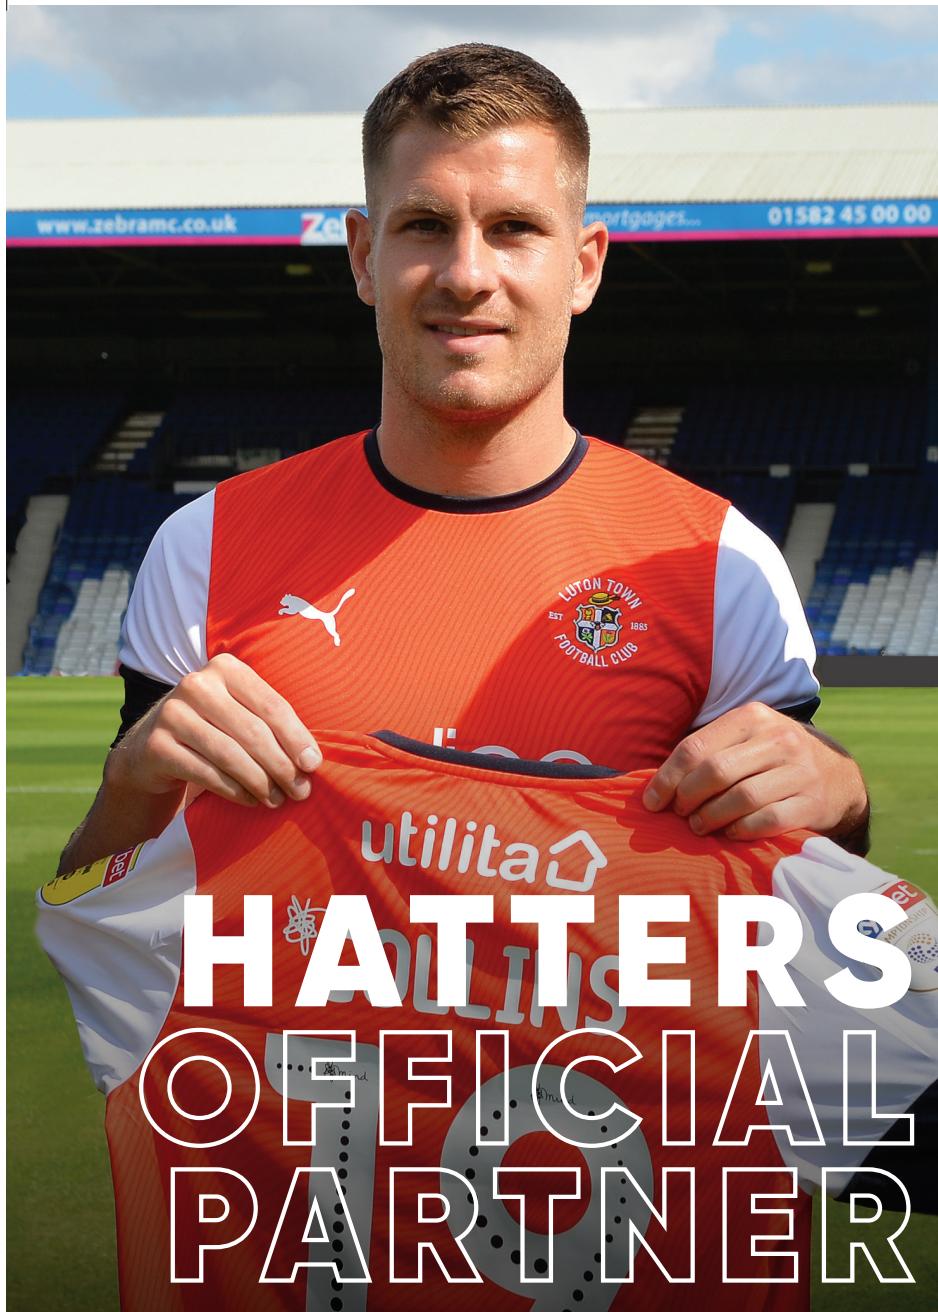

Football is about ups and downs. The highs of promotion and lows of relegation battles. That's what we sign up for, the bumpy road. We all right now must recognise how far we've come, and the scale of what we're up against, and stick with each other through these difficult times, because that is football.

As the great Sir John Still often said - 'never too high, never too low'.

Keep the faith, the future is bright.
