Good evening and welcome back to Kenilworth Road for the second time in four days for tonight's visit of Reading.

Reading made a very good start to the Championship season and although their results have been mixed of late, we have seen enough of them to know they are as tough an opponent as any in this league.

I know Paul Ince well having done our coaching qualifications together and, of course, through Tom, who I managed at both Stoke and here during his loan spell. There are few managers around with the playing pedigree that Paul has, and he's done an excellent job in difficult circumstances to initially keep Reading up, and really kick on this year.

I welcome Paul, his staff, Tom and his team-mates, and everyone who has made the relatively short journey from Berkshire tonight, and wish them a safe trip home after the game.

On Saturday we kicked off the sequence of five matches inside a fortnight leading into the World Cup break, and although we were obviously disappointed not to take all three points having been in front, I was delighted with the response to the previous weekend.

A point was a fair result in the end. In the first half I felt we were the better side and deservedly got the lead on the stroke of half-time through Carlton Morris, but in the second half Sunderland grew into it and got their goal, and we had to defend our box really well.

I felt we maybe lost a bit of control in the game when Henri Lansbury went off, because that natural defensive midfield player gives us that. We could have been a bit more clinical in that initial period when we were on top, but it was important that we showed we had bounced back because last week was hard to take.

After they scored I thought we were the most likely to win the game, but clear-cut chances wise the game was pretty even and we have to respect the point we gained, because every single point in the Championship is vital.

We have a wonderful group here who give the club everything. They have been out-performing teams with four, five, six times our budget for so long now that we maybe sometimes have to take time to reflect on where we've come from, and where we currently are.

We are three points off the play-offs in the Championship, with the possibility of moving back into the top six with a win tonight. I am so proud of my players and staff for consistently getting us into this position.

It was my 300th game in charge on Saturday and when I think back over the course of that time, we've had so much to celebrate together, so many achievements and milestones reached, with players like Pelly, Pottsy, Glen and a few others here throughout.

Other clubs look on enviously at our numbers, loyalty and progress, so be proud, be loud and let's have another memorable night under the lights. Enjoy the game and COYH!

LUTON TOWN SUPPORTERS' TRUST

CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

Hello and welcome to my final message before the season breaks for the World Cup in a couple of weeks.

This was always going to be a tough season with that tournament ridiculously scheduled right in the middle of it, but I think with one obvious exception, by and large we can all agree that it has been a very positive campaign so far, as the boys look to back up that marvellous journey they took us on last term.

We go into this evening's match off the back of one defeat in our last nine matches and just three points off the play-offs, and while none of us enjoyed that loss nine days ago, I'm sure I'm not alone in saying that I would have taken that if offered it at the start of the season.

Including tonight we have four matches before the World Cup begins, so hopefully we can continue our good form and finish the first part of the season in an even better position than we are currently in.

Squads for the World Cup will be announced over the coming days. We have a couple of players who are in contention to represent their country at the tournament. I hope both are selected and get the recognition that their excellent work at the beginning of the season deserves.

Away from the football, I'm delighted to say that your Trust continues to go from strength to strength. Our membership continues to grow and we have great plans for 2023 which will be communicated to our members once they are finalised.

Enjoy the game this evening. Give the lads all the vocal support you can both tonight and the three matches that follow, and let's send them into the break in excellent form.

Tony

AGM

As winter approaches it means that it is time for our Annual General Meeting. Once again this will be held inside the John Moore Lounge at Kenilworth Road. The date for the evening is November 17 with a 7.30pm start. The meeting will also be available on Zoom for those who can't attend in person. All details of how to log onto the meeting will be sent to members in due course.

We are also delighted to announce that our guest for the AGM this year is Academy Director, Paul Hart. He will join our media officer Kevin Harper for a chat once the official business of the meeting has taken place, to give an update on the progression of the academy and also a look back at his fantastic career in football.

PODCAST

Our podcast continues to remain popular. Each month Kev, James, Tony and guests reflect on all things on the Town and discuss some of the wider issues in football as well.

Our latest podcast dropped prior to the Sunderland game last weekend with among the issues discussed being whether the 3pm blackout should be lifted.

Kev also gets the views from inside the camp in separate episodes of the podcast. In the last month he has been joined by Allan Campbell ahead of his 50th game at Hull, and by Tom Lockyer, having previously had Carlton Morris and Sonny Bradley on for a chat. To listen to those episodes, and all of our previous ones, head to our website for all the links to each of them.

SOLYD

As you will now know, SoLYD comes under the umbrella of the Trust. The SoLYD committee continue to remain committed to raising funds to assist the academy in whichever way they can. Earlier this season, SoLYD contributed to a team bonding trip for the Under-18 squad and they are in regular contact with the club for ways which financial support can be offered.

If you would like to donate to SoLYD you can do so either by purchasing one of our wristbands at Trust events, or by heading to the SoLYD section on our website where you can make an online donation. We are also in the process of finalising some events which will raise further funds. They will be communicated on our socials and website when they are confirmed.

MEMBERSHIP

Our membership continues to grow and grow and as it does so, we are able to present more benefits for being a Trust member. These benefits will continue to grow as we are able to secure them as we strive to increase the value of our annual membership.

Membership for this season is still available at £10 for adults and £5 for concessions, so if you are looking for something to get a fellow Town fan for Christmas, why not sign him or her up to be a member of the Trust!? You can join online on our website, or you can download and print off a membership form and send it back to us.

If you have previously been a member but haven't got round to renewing, head to our website to renew now. It can be done in a couple of very easy steps. If you wish, you can also sign up to paying for your membership via direct debit so you do not need to keep remembering each season!

PELLEY-RUDDOCK MPANZU

Words: Dan Briard

Pelly-Ruddock Mpanzu reiterated his desire to put injury disappointment behind him in a bid to help the team as much as possible for the remainder of the campaign.

The bubbly, confident midfielder faced another injury setback after his return from knee surgery was cut short, which meant Mpanzu was unavailable for the three previous league matches.

But in typical Pelly style, he was quickly back involved in the heart of the midfield battle against Sunderland, looking his energetic self - and he vows that he's ready whenever gaffer Nathan Jones needs him.

"If the manager needs me to start, I will be in a good frame of mind to say yes," said Pelly. "Whether it's 45 minutes, 60, 80 minutes, I'm sure my body is ready enough to handle that. It is the manager's choice to decide how many minutes you play."

"He has been great. He has put me in a position where I can play a lot of games. Unfortunately I got injured against Huddersfield, so that put me out, but I've been here throughout his whole time at the club."

"He has been a great manager, and he is one of the best managers in the league which is why he got the Manager of the Year award last season. He's putting in the work and he's put the club in a great position."

SUNDERLAND REACTION

It has been a long road to recovery for the 28-year-old, made worse by the recent set-back, but he thanked the club staff for their support during his operation and rehabilitation process.

"Injuries are part and parcel of the game so hopefully I'm doing everything right. It was a muscle injury, but hopefully I'm back fully fit and I can push on and contribute towards the season."

"It was my first operation so I wanted to take it slow, wanted to make sure all the muscles around my knee are all okay and that I'm fighting fit, so I've taken a bit longer than usual but hopefully now I can have a run of games."

"The support from the staff throughout my rehab has been great to be honest. Si (Simon Parsell), Chris (Phillips), Daz (Darren Cook) and the S&C boys have been working very hard with me, so hats off to them for putting me back in a position where I can play week-in, week-out in the Championship. Hopefully I can push the team on."

Continuing, Mpanzu added: "The more games you play, the more comfortable you feel. The more games I can play, the more I can get into the rhythm of the game and hopefully put in performances that will justify me starting, not coming off the bench."

"The league is so tight, one win can push you up four or five places, so we have to keep our heads down, our heads strong and keep trying to put in performances and get points on the board."

LUTON TOWN v READING
TUESDAY NOVEMBER 1ST 2022 | KENILWORTH ROAD

After feeling as if the Hatters dropped two points at home to Sunderland, the former West Ham man is looking to help put Town's home record back on the track for tonight's visit of Paul Ince's Reading.

"We felt like we dropped two points but you never know, that point may prove very, very strong at the end of the season. As long as we're not losing games, a point is a point, but today we felt like we dropped two considering how well we defended up until the goal and we had a lot more chances to put the game to bed."

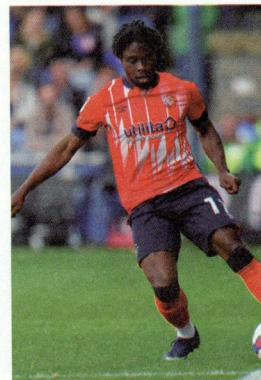

"We have to try and put this game (Sunderland) behind us. Hopefully we can pick up another three points, and then go away to Blackpool which is a tough game, so hopefully we will have a good week."

"We know at home we're a really good side, so us not winning at home is frustrating, but we have to dust ourselves down."

"The games are coming thick and fast before the World Cup. We've got four more games - Saturday, Tuesday, Saturday, Tuesday - so we're going to have to use the squad. I know we have a good squad here so hopefully everyone gets used and we get as many points as we can before the break."

With Carlton Morris now the joint-second highest goalscorer in the division, Pelly is counting on him and the other attackers to ensure the team go into the World Cup break with as many points as possible.

"We have three, four, five fantastic strikers all chipping in. Whoever scores, whether it's Carlton, Eli, Cornick, Cameron Jerome, Cauley Woodrow is unfortunately injured right now, but we have top strikers in this club and in the league. Whoever scores, we have to get round them and hopefully they are going to fire us towards the play-offs, and at the end of the season we will see where we finish."

THE GROUP IS QUALITY. THERE IS A REAL TOGETHERNESS

"It has been a bit of a frustrating start," the former Stoke City admitted during his interview with the local press before Saturday's game against Sunderland. "Pre-season was going so well and then two days before the start of the season, I pull up with a hamstring injury. You can't help it but I'm back now and I'm very happy.

"I did have six weeks of pre-season with the boys and it did help. It's probably more to do with the fans, they watched a bit of me, but it wasn't anywhere near what I can actually produce."

Suffering a recurring hamstring injury was far from ideal for the pacey winger, who had impressed in his early matches upon joining the club this summer. But with the full support of the physio staff at Luton Town, Doughty has since played a part in three Championship matches, providing the assist for Carlton Morris to open the scoring against Sunderland.

"Luckily the physio team just helped me out with it and now it feels back to normality. That is why we took a bit more time than it would have just to make sure it was ready, because of how quick I am, sometimes I'm more prone to getting injuries than any other.

"I have just played 70 minutes against Norwich and then 90 against Watford, so it seems to be okay."

Support from manager Nathan Jones and his team-mates has also provided the number 45 with a big boost, and now he intends to give repay the faith shown in him.

"If a manager wants to sign you it is always a positive. They see something in you and I appreciate it. He has proved everything he said to me really, he believes in me so I just have to give that trust back now.

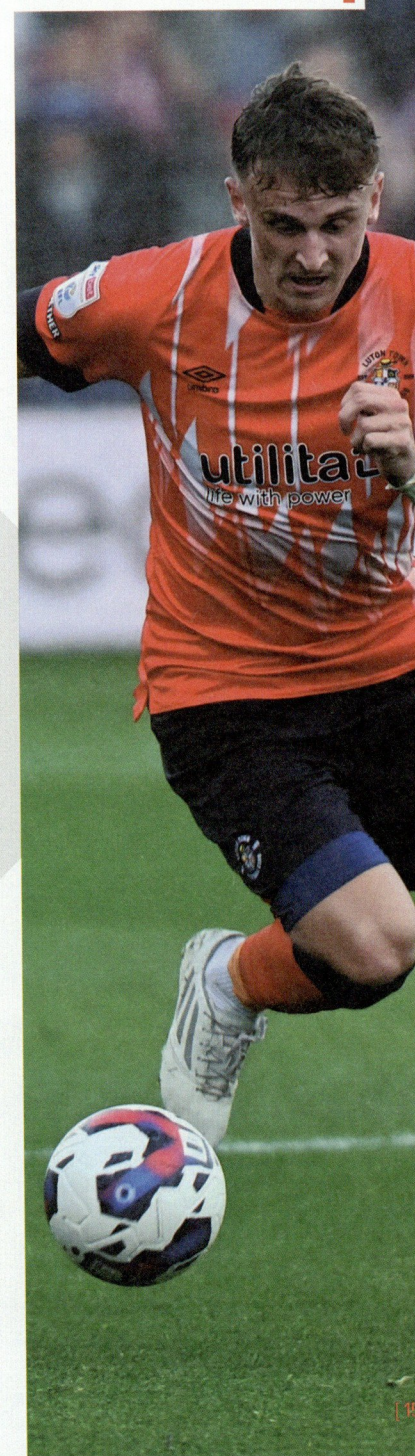

"The group is quality. There is a real togetherness in this group and I think you can tell by the performances and the games we have played, how well we perform as a team. There are no individuals, it's team collectiveness."

INTERVIEW: ALFIE DOUGHTY

Words: Dan Briard

Alfie Doughty is looking to put injury woes behind him and show the Luton Town faithful what he is capable of.

After getting a glimpse of the 22-year-old in pre-season and following two three starts in a Luton shirt in the Sky Bet Championship, Doughty wants to make a real impact on the team going forward.

THEIR TOWN

By Zac Neal

Today's visitors are Berkshire-based side Reading. Founded in 1871, the Royals play at the Select Car Leasing Stadium and sit 11th in the Championship table, two places below the Hatters but only on goal difference, with both on 25 points.

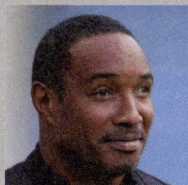

Managed by Paul Ince, the Royals had a decent start to the season, although they do lack consistency with eight wins, one draw and eight defeats from their 17 games. They are currently on a run of just one win in six matches, losing four. Most recently they lost 2-1 at Vincent Kompany's Burnley after conceding a last-minute goal, despite going 1-0 up thanks to former Town loanee Tom Ince, their top scorer with four.

Reading fans have some great memories in the Championship, in particular the 2005/06 season when the Royals won the league with a record-breaking 106 points under another ex-Manchester United player, Steve Coppell. This success saw Reading play in the Premier League for the first time. They were last there in the 2012/13 campaign after once again winning the second tier title under Brian McDermott.

They were relegated back to the Championship at the end of that season, and their best finish since the drop was in 2016/17 when they came third under yet another former Old Trafford favourite in Dutchman Jaap Stam. They lost the play-off final on penalties at Wembley against Huddersfield Town.

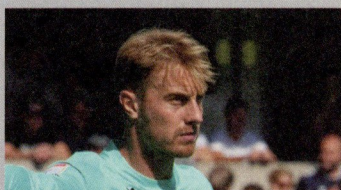

Last May, Reading travelled to Kenilworth Road for the final match of the regular Championship season. The Hatters won the game 1-0 to seal a place in the play-offs after Reading goalkeeper Orjan Nyland lay the ball down to kick up field, before Harry Cornick came from behind him to steal the ball and placed it into the net with one of the cheekiest goals seen at the Kenny for many a year.

PAUL INCE

MANAGER | After a glittering playing career that took in Manchester United, Inter Milan and Liverpool as well as 53 caps for England, Ince retired from playing at 39 years of age, becoming the manager of Macclesfield Town. After saving the Silkmen from relegation, the 55-year-old became manager of Milton Keynes, where he won League Two. He then managed Blackburn, Notts County and Blackpool before taking charge of Reading in February after eight years out of the game.

JOE LUMLEY

GK | The Englishman is currently on a season-long loan at Reading from Middlesbrough. Last term, Lumley made 34 appearances in the Championship, and five appearances in other cup fixtures. In the FA Cup, he started in wins against both Manchester United and Tottenham Hotspur. The 27-year-old has made 15 appearances so far in the current campaign, managing to collect four clean sheets along the way.

ANDY YIADOM

DEF | Before joining the Royals four years ago, London-born Yiadom had experience in the EFL, playing for Barnsley in League One and Barnet in League Two. The right-back started in Watford's youth system, before gradually making his way to the Championship, initially via spells in Non-League with Hayes & Yeading and Braintree Town. The 30-year-old has made 15 appearances so far this season and has 26 caps for Ghana.

TOM INCE

ONE TO WATCH | Ex-Town loanee Tom Ince was part of Liverpool's reserves before signing a contract with Notts County, and eventually landing a transfer to Blackpool in July 2011. The 30 year-old seems to have landed his feet with the Royals this season, picking up four goals and three assists in his opening 17 games. His best performing years so far were 2015/16 and 16/17, where he scored 26 goals for Derby, as well as picking up 14 assists over the two seasons.

JEFF HENDRICK

MID | The 30 year-old was a summer signing for Reading, on a season-long loan from Newcastle. He had made 16 appearances and scored once for the Royals before the weekend. Internationally, the Dublin-born midfielder has played 75 times for the Republic of Ireland, contributing two goals. Hendrick began his playing career at Derby before moving to Burnley £10.5m, and then Newcastle, from where he also had a loan spell with QPR last season.

LUCAS JOAO

ATT | The Angolan international began his playing career for CD Nacional, in Portugal's First Division, picking up a tally of seven goals and nine assists as a 21-year-old. The following season João made a move to Sheffield Wednesday, and has stayed in the Championship ever since. The 29-year-old had netted three times for the Royals in 13 appearances this season prior to the weekend. In total, he has scored 38 and assisted 13 since joining in 2019, and has one cap for Angola.

LUTON TOWN v READING
TUESDAY NOVEMBER 1ST 2022 | KENILWORTH ROAD

Under the spotlight is a player with a connection to both the Hatters and today's visitors, with club historian ROGER WASH looking back at their first and last appearances for the Town.

Born in Chiswick in 1942, John started at QPR on leaving school and signed professional forms for the West London club in August 1959. A clever forward who made a name for himself as a scorer of important goals, John played 172 League games and netted 46 goals before having a brief stint at Oldham in 1966.

He did not stay long in the north and signed on for Reading in August 1967, where he was virtually ever present over the next two seasons. A change of manager at Elm Park and the lure of ex-QPR boss Alec Stock, now at Luton, saw John move to Kenilworth Road for £11,000 in August 1969.

Stock knew what he was getting and the fee proved a bargain as John netted ten goals, mainly from the right wing, as the Town won promotion to Division Two (now the Championship) in 1970. John left Luton for Cambridge United in February 1971 where he enjoyed two seasons before hanging up his boots.

After finishing playing, John was assistant to old colleague Mike Keen at Watford and coach at Fulham with Alec Stock, before running a building firm in West London.

FIRST GAME: LUTON TOWN 3 BARROW 0. (9/8/69)

John Collins, making his Luton debut on the opening day of the season alongside other new boys John Ryan and Malcolm Macdonald, saw the Town ease past Barrow on a humid afternoon.

John reacted first to a saved Brian Lewis penalty to open his Luton account, adding to goals from Keith Allen and Mike Keen and send the crowd of 12,080 home happy.

LAST GAME: NORWICH 1 LUTON TOWN 1. (19/12/70)

After being virtually ever present during the promotion campaign of 1969-70, John found it difficult to stake a claim in the Division Two (now Championship) side in the following season.

His only start turned out to be his last game for the club. Replacing the injured Roger Hoy, John was part of a team that lay in second spot in the division and an early goal from Malcolm Macdonald instilled confidence. Sadly, a last minute penalty, converted by Ken Foggo after Jack Bannister punched away a goalbound header, saw the Town fail to rise to top spot.

TONY READ... THE ULTIMATE SHOWMAN

Followers of Luton Town of more than fifty years standing will go all misty eyed when recalling Tony Read, a showman goalkeeper who saw off many pretenders to his throne, as well as displaying a more than adequate ability at centre-forward as proved when he once scored a hat-trick in a league game.

Now 80, Tony lives in north Norfolk and still looks back with affection to his days at Kenilworth Road where he was a crowd favourite for seven years.

Born in Haydock in 1942, Tony had early trials with both Wolves and Liverpool, but after rejection returned to an apprenticeship in engineering before being snapped up in 1960 by Sheffield Wednesday, then one of the powers in the land.

Unfortunately, the Owls boasted England international Ron Springett between the sticks and as well as being remarkably consistent, he was also virtually injury free, leaving little chance of a first team place for a third or fourth choice keeper.

Although admitting to learning a lot while at Hillsborough, Tony needed to move on if he wished to gain first team experience. His eventual move to Peterborough in 1964 turned out to be a case of 'out of the frying pan' as Posh ended up with five goalkeepers on their books, and the only way Tony could get a game was to display his hidden talents as a striker.

Although the Hatters signed Tony as a goalkeeper, he is convinced that it was because of a goal he scored against Pat Jennings at White Hart Lane during a Tottenham versus Peterborough reserve game!

Coming to Luton in March 1965, just as the team was about to sink to the old Division Four (now League Two), it was soon discovered that the new signing was suffering from a broken bone in his foot which was typical of the luck, or more likely malaise, creeping through Kenilworth Road at the time.

As the Town started the 1965/66 campaign in the football basement for the first time in their history, manager George Martin had managed to bring together a team blending youth and experience centred around tough ex-Blackburn centre-half, Matt Woods, and prolific goalscorer John O'Rourke.

With Colin Tinsley claiming the goal-keeping slot, Tony was left kicking his heels until the manager, feeling that O'Rourke needed someone to take the weight off his shoulders, decided to play him up front.

With this move a legend was born! Tony went goal mad and netted twelve in only 20 starts, including a hat-trick against Notts County at Kenilworth Road in a 5-1 win.

"I remember mis-hitting a free-kick and seeing the ball somehow trickling over the line for my hat-trick goal, with Matt Woods' groans turning to congratulations in an instant. Towards the end of the season the goal supply had dried up, but I was now looking on myself as the complete centre-forward. After a game at Notts County where, looking back, I missed several sitters, George Martin announced in the changing room that I would never make a striker (or words to that effect!) and I moved back into goal, where I stayed for the next six years apart from an emergency spell in the forward line over Easter 1967."

The Town should have won promotion in 1966, but a row over bonuses as the season drew to a close meant several senior players only went through the motions in a vital game at Newport, which was lost, and with it the chances of a quick return to Division Three.

With the Hatters offloading the dissenting players that summer, the following season was always going to be a struggle with no experience in the side, but new manager Allan Brown, appointed in November 1966, was determined to take the club back to its former glories. This included seeking out a better goalkeeper.

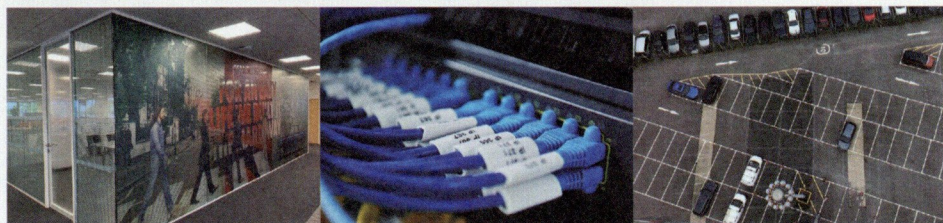

"Allan had a thing about Scottish goalkeepers, even though they were looked on as a joke at the time. Many a recruit came down for trial games and to a man they were all super fit athletes, but could not come out for, or catch, crosses."

HATTERS TALES WITH ROGER WASH CLUB HISTORIAN

[ LUTON TOWN v READING
TUESDAY NOVEMBER 1ST 2022 | KENILWORTH ROAD ]

Tony heads for goal
against Southport in 1967

During his time between the posts at Kenilworth Road, Tony saw off goalkeepers Colin Tinsley, George Ramage, Ron Swan, Bob Taylor, Sandy Davie and Alan Starling, who were all seen as his replacement.

It was, of course, a golden age for the Hatters with the championship of Division Four won in 1968, a near miss at further promotion in the following season, runners-up in Division Three in 1970, followed up by the narrow failure in a bid to return to the top flight 12 months later.

Tony was the regular goalkeeper throughout this time, hence the affection held by all Luton supporters of that era. Extremely athletic and a spectacular shot stopper, he also showed the ability to claim crosses and would be regarded as priceless today because he also possessed the additional talent of being very comfortable with the ball at his feet.

During his 229 first team appearances for the Town he witnessed the skills of Graham French (who was sent to live next door to Tony in a hopeless bid to curtail the errant winger's partying habits), Bruce Rioch, Chris Nicholl and Malcolm Macdonald, and became a bit of a legend himself with his ability to save penalties.

It was one such penalty save, against Geoff Hurst of West Ham in a cup tie at Upton Park, that bought belated national recognition for Tony with the flying dive being shown for weeks on television afterwards. It was soon after that Tony lost his place to Keith Barber, and this time it was for good.

Although there was the chance to move to Millwall, Tony decided to concentrate on his many business interests and retire from the game completely.

Tony's last Kenilworth Road appearance took place during the club's centenary celebrations in 1985 when he turned out for an 'old' Luton X1 against Watford. The lasting memory is of Tony, ever the showman, leaning against a goalpost being interviewed by a television reporter while the game was in full flow!

Hatters' Heritage trustee Andy King and myself visited Tony last month to record an interview with the great man. The video is now on the Hatters' Heritage website - hattersheritage.co.uk - and does not disappoint as he talks about his toughest opponents, memorable games, his penalty saving technique and Graham French!

Nathan said: "I've got to be honest with you, I'd have been proud to reach 30, but to reach 300 is a fantastic achievement and I'm very, very proud of that at a wonderful club like this. When you set out as a manager you want to survive first and foremost. You don't just think 'I want to survive and I want to impact', but the way that the game is, then it's very, very difficult and to be surviving in the Championship now means that you're doing something right. I've got a great club, a great group of players and a great support staff all around me, so to get to 300, you don't do that on your own. To get to 300 at one club is fantastic. When I set out, it is 299 more [matches] than I thought I would get."

LUTON TOWN LADIES

LUTON TOWN LADIES 4 AFC SUDBURY 1

Luton Town Ladies were back in action Sunday as they had a repeat fixture against AFC Sudbury, this time in the FA Cup and at home.

It was a fast start from Rob Burton's side as Lil Sanders (pictured) came close after only two minutes, rounding the keeper only to be denied by a goal line clearance. However, the resulting corner, swung in by Jess McKay, found Lil at the back post to break the deadlock.

The Hatters continued to push and on the 20 minute mark Leyah Maddix came close, but was denied by a great save from the Sudbury keeper.

However, Luton dropped their guard and 35 minutes in AFC Sudbury found an equaliser from a mistake at the back and then an error from the keeper, Holly Kennard netting.

The ladies went in at half-time disappointed to be level at the break and knowing that more was needed to progress to the next round.

In to the second half and Adi Milton was replaced by teenager Shanice Lewis for her debut.

A minute later the game took its biggest turn, as an AFC Sudbury's Aliyah Lambe was shown a second yellow card for a deliberate foul and putting them down to ten players.

Luton pounced on this opportunity and 60 minutes in found their second goal. A Fiona Constable corner picked out the head of Kiera Palmiero, another of the Town's teenagers.

The ladies continued to press but were forced in to a change, Leyah Maddix being replaced by another teenager, Sapphire Rohan, who on 81 minutes put the Town further ahead after a great delivery from Shanice Lewis to set up the goal up.

Deep in to added time and on her debut, Shanice Lewis got in on the goal action, slotting home with a lovely composed finish.

The result meant that the ladies have progressed in to the first proper round. More importantly, all four goals came from some of the youngest players within the squad, all teenagers!

Next up Luton Town Ladies will be hosting Colney Heath at Kenilworth Road this Sunday, 6th November. Tickets are on sale now with all the details on page 57 of tonight's programme.

ACADEMY UPDATE

LUTON TOWN v READING
TUESDAY NOVEMBER 1ST 2022 | KENILWORTH ROAD

ALAN McCORMACK

U18 LEAD COACH

I was appointed U18 Lead coach in the summer, and since my appointment, the players have been excellent in everything asked of them.

We began our pre-season campaign with a 3-0 win against Peterborough with a very strong display. The players' performance showcased they had taken on board the information we gave them. The most pleasing thing we saw was their trust and belief in the new system we adopted this season.

Results continued to be firm with a 2-2 draw against a strong Tottenham team in which we dominated large parts of the game. We finished pre-season unbeaten, and performance levels were starting to look strong for the upcoming league season.

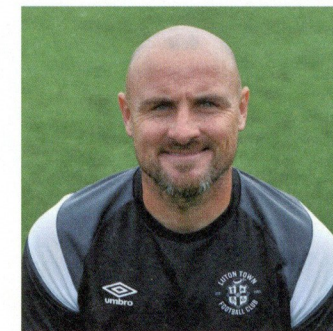

Throughout my career, I have always wanted to win. It was a significant driver in my mentality, and I want to install this in any team I am lucky enough to coach.

A big message to all academy teams this year was to win games. Yes, the development of the players is key and the primary objective of academy football. Still, I believe that players develop quicker when in a winning environment.

So as the season began, we set out to focus on one game at a time and win the next game. The players have shown they have bought into this.

We opened our season with a hard-fought 1-0 against AFC Wimbledon. Three more wins followed against Leyton Orient, Stevenage, and Gillingham in the league, scoring 12 and conceding 2.

In between this, we had a 3-3 draw against Colchester in the PDL cup and another 3-2 friendly win against Chelsea at their Cobham training ground.

Games came thick and fast, with further successes in the league against Cambridge, MK Dons, Brentford, Northampton and Sutton United, scoring 26 - which included an 8-0 win against Milton Keynes and 7-0 on Saturday against Sutton - while only conceding three.

Meanwhile, our EFL Youth Alliance Cup campaign ended early with a 5-4 loss on penalties to Southend United.

The season has been going very well, but there is still a long way to go. We want to push the players daily to give them the best chance to make the next step to pro footballers.

I was also delighted to see Zack Nelson on the bench for the first team on a couple of occasions. While winning matches is important to me, seeing players progress to the development squad or first team is an achievement I will be very proud of.

Enjoy tonight's game and COYH!

LUTON TOWN COMMUNITY TRUST

ADULT HEALTH SESSIONS

One of the growing areas at Luton Town FC Community Trust, and something we're very proud of, is our work in the health sector. We have had enormous success with Fit Hatters; an EFL Trust funded 12-week programme that focuses on classroom based sessions educating participants around making healthy lifestyle choices, alongside a varied fitness regime taking place within the stadium at Kenilworth Road.

We have run multiple cohorts of Fit Hatters within the last couple of years and will soon be opening up our next male and female groups. Alongside Fit Hatters, we have a number of other health based sessions that are open to adults that we'd love you to attend. On Wednesday evenings between 6pm and 7pm we run a circuits session at Beech Hill School. This is a mixed session allowing participants to build up their stamina and fitness through a number of stations focussing on endurance training, resistance training and high intensity aerobics.

On Thursday evenings we run football sessions at Beech Hill School, offering participants the opportunity to improve their skills, boost their mental and physical health, whilst also taking part in small sided games. These sessions are open to over 35s of all abilities, with a male session at 6pm and female session at 7pm. We also run a very popular session on Saturday mornings, Away Day Hatters. Taking place at our Ely Way base in Leagrave, these sessions run on Saturday's where The Hatters are either playing away from home, or if there is no game at all. Away Day Hatters focuses on fitness, strength and conditioning and are open to all, regardless ability or fitness aims.

Health Lead for Luton Town FC Community Trust, Beth Drake, said: "We're very proud of our varied health programme. We ensure our programmes are accessible and open to as many people as possible. We like to encourage a positive and supportive group atmosphere at our activities, and often find that friendship groups are formed over the weeks the groups spend together."

All sessions mentioned attract a small charge to cover the cost of venue hire. For further information and to reserve your place on any of these programmes please email health@lutontown.co.uk or call Beth Drake at the office on 01582 561 622.

HALF TERM FOOTBALL CAMPS

Over the period of the October Half-Term, our football holiday camps welcomed over 500 children across the week across our seven centres across Luton itself, Bedfordshire and North Hertfordshire. As always, it was great to see many Luton Town fans attend our camps.

Over the course of the week, the children took part in different footballing activities throughout the day, ranging from warm-up activities, specific drills aimed at improving technique, penalty shootouts, and of course tournaments and matches at the end of each day. Not only did our participants improve their football skills, but they also had the opportunity to make new friends each day.

As part of Black History Month, our Luton participants studied our 'Did You Know?' fact sheets, celebrating the achievements of former and current Hatters, as well as discussing the challenges overcome in order pave the way for the next generation.

On Thursday, we saw a visit of six Luton Town first team players who came out to our Luton, Flitwick and Dunstable centres. They were happy to answer football related questions from our eager Luton Town fans, took part in some light activities and then posed for photos with our participants, a great memory for those who attended when they grow up!

We were joined by James Bree, Harry Cornick, Pelly-Ruddock Mpanzu, Fred Onyedinma, Carlton Morris and Elijah Adebayo, who all took time out of their busy schedules to drop in. Although it was only five days, the October Half-Term has been a massive success and us coaches as well as our participants all had a great time at our camps and we can't wait for the next set of camps.

We are having a break during the Christmas period but we will be back with our camps during the February Half-Term with some news which we can't share just yet, but are very excited about!

70 YEARS A HATTER!

Today marks a significant landmark for Luton-born Graeme Johnston in his life as a Hatter. It is exactly 70 years to the day since his first match on 1st November 1952 vs Lincoln City, which Town won 4-0.

His passion for the club, despite moving to Norfolk in 1970, has never wavered. What a rollercoaster ride over the past 70 years, and one that his eldest daughter and grandson have joined him on as they hope to see a repeat of the 4-0 score-line this evening. Once a Hatter, always a Hatter!

Graeme has selected his all-time favourite team from those 70 years supporting the Hatters, managed by David Pleat:

Baynham; Stephens; Donaghy; Anderson; Owen; B. Rioch; Bingham; G. Turner; Macdonald; Hill; Moss.

‘LOVE FOOTBALL. PROTECT THE GAME’

A message about anti-social and criminal behaviour

To mark the new season, we want to make you aware of new measures being taken across all of football to ensure everyone can have a safe and enjoyable experience. We are supporting strong action from the FA, Premier League and EFL to tackle anti-social and criminal behaviours that put all of us at risk.

This reflects the seriousness of the risks to fans and staff – pyros can burn at 2000 degrees Celsius and cause lifechanging injuries, while entering the pitch endangers players, managers and match officials.

We know those who commit these illegal acts do not represent the majority of supporters.

THE LAST WORD

MIKE SIMMONDS
LUTON NEWS SPORTS EDITOR

Town boss Nathan Jones achieved something that only two others have done in the rich and lengthy history of Luton Town Football Club at the weekend, and that was to make it to 300 games as manager of the Hatters.

To say he is closing in on the two above him in the leaderboard is a bit far fetched for the time being, Dally Duncan sitting second on 514 matches and David Pleat way out in front on 609.

Catching Pleat would mean that Jones would have to stay at the helm for at least another six seasons, taking him almost into 2030, and while not impossible, is a fair way off.

If he continues the level of improvement that he has overseen since first taking over back in January 2016, then Luton would probably be looking to retain their Premier League title and push for Champions League glory by then, as Town's upward trend since he was appointed has been nothing short of remarkable.

There have been the odd down days during his tenure, none more so than the recent defeat at Watford, although that has been covered more than enough now. But the good times, of which there have been 140, far outweigh them.

The League Two promotion at Carlisle won't be forgotten, plus the following celebrations at Notts County, while his achievement in keeping Luton in the Championship when they were odds-on to go down, something no other manager could have done, should never be underestimated.

Since then it's been a gradual progression, finishing 12th and then a fine sixth last term, where had Town not suffered so badly with injuries, they could have been sitting back at the top table of English football once more this season.

It didn't happen though and the Hatters found themselves in the second tier yet again, which if you cast your minds back to when Jones strode down the tunnel for that first 0-0 draw with Cambridge, would have been perfectly acceptable to the 9,227 supporters in attendance that day.

Players have come and gone since then, naturally, although two remain, Dan Potts and Pelly-Ruddock Mpanzu, the latter now determined to get back to his best following a long spell out of the side with injury.

Another fine achievement for Jones is that he has now managed 118 matches at Championship level for Luton, which as mentioned recently, is a startling effort considering the number of comings and goings in the division this term.

Town's home form has been the only sticking point between the Hatters' going into tonight's contest with Reading higher than the ninth place they occupy, giving up the lead in five of their nine home matches this term, something they did once more against Sunderland on Saturday.

The Royals are yet to draw on the road this term though, suffering six defeats from their eight matches, so fingers crossed, here's to victory number 141 at 9.30pm!
