WELCOME TO KENILWORTH ROAD

Well, what a week it was. After the win at Everton and subsequent cup draw that paired us with holders Manchester City, it just got better and better didn't it? The 4-0 win over Brighton under the lights will live long in the memory for a multitude of reasons – plenty of which are explained throughout today's programme. Then Newcastle. Oh Newcastle! The boys put in another fantastic shift to score four more and give us memories to last a lifetime. Today, Sheffield United are in town for a massive game that could go a long way to helping decide our destiny so bring the noise and get behind Rob and the team.

Good afternoon and welcome back to Kenilworth Road for what is a huge day and a massive game for us as we entertain Sheffield United in the Premier League.

The last time we were here against Brighton was a really, really special occasion. It began with welcoming Locks back. It was fantastic for him to go out onto the pitch and get the hero's welcome he deserved. It was a touching, poignant moment for you all to show him your love and appreciation. You could see it in his eyes how much that meant, couldn't you? He was probably a bit overwhelmed by it all and I know it was special for him.

You sung his name all night and what a night. For the lads to then perform in the way they did, to lead 2-0 after two minutes and be three goals to the good at half-time, was as a complete performance as we've had this season.

At half-time it was great to see the ovation Daiki Hashioka received from you and I'd like to welcome 'Hashi' to the club. He's a player we think very highly of and we're looking forward to seeing his contribution to this club.

After the break we continued to play some fantastic football and it was wonderful to see Eli grab the matchball with his third and final goal to cap a truly memorable night under the lights.

Then came last Saturday and the mad game at St James' Park. I'm not sure where to start to be honest, but it was a match in which both teams were going for it. It was Premier League football at its best.

Among all the chaos, what pleased me most was the lads' character, to twice come from behind and then hold on in the face of late Newcastle pressure. For us to weather that storm when it got back to 4-4 and then to almost win it at the end left us feeling a mixture of emotions

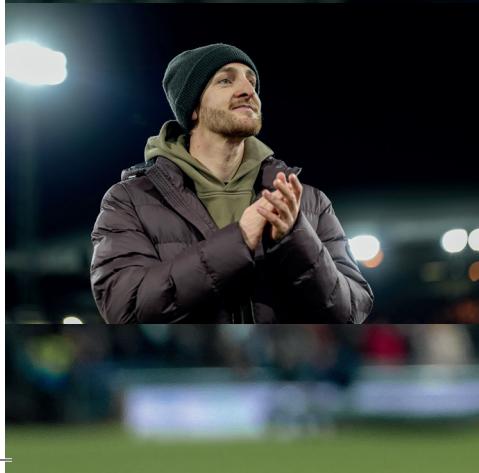

I have been really proud to have been involved in the last two games but attention now turns to today and Sheffield United. I'd like to welcome Chris Wilder and his staff and players to the Kenny for what is a big game for both clubs.

Thanks to our results and performances of late we go into this game in great shape but today we're going to need your support more than ever. Your backing is massive for us, I really, really can't overstate it. The atmosphere you have generated here this season has been first class. The noise levels have made it an incredibly intimidating place for visiting teams to come and I urge you all to get behind the boys once more for the next 90-plus minutes.

Finally, a huge thank you to those of you who made the long trip up to Newcastle on Saturday. It was incredible, and even though you were up in the gods, we heard you loud and clear. I hope we gave you something to remember.

We'll be aiming to give you more memories this afternoon so bring the noise and enjoy the game.

WELCOME BACK LOCKS!

There was an emotional reunion for Tom Lockyer with his teammates, the Hatters staff and the fans last week.

The Town captain made his first visit to The Brache after suffering a cardiac arrest at Bournemouth in December last Monday before then being introduced to the Kenilworth Road crowd prior to the 4-0 win over Brighton.

“It was amazing to see him back,” said manager Rob Edwards. “We had a really good morning seeing him around the place.

“We handed out the debut Premier League balls with John Still and Mick Harford. It was a nice presentation; it was a special moment and great to see.

“I managed to hold it together [emotionally] but it was emotional. It’s been a really difficult time for his family first and foremost, but for us it was great to see him.

“He’s an unbelievably brave man and someone who has an unbelievable handle over all of it. I wouldn’t be how he is.

“He’s such an impressive and focused person. There’s a rehabilitation process but he’s taking it slowly, he’s got a baby on the way and that’s his main focus.”

It was great to see you again, Locks!

FROM THE BOARDROOM

WITH CHIEF EXECUTIVE
GARY SWEET

If today is as exciting as the previous week has been then one thing's for sure, we're going to be in for yet another amazingly memorable afternoon.

Speaking as a long-standing fan, I'm not sure there have been many more optimistic times we've enjoyed as Luton Town supporters.

We've just experienced a week which began seeing us through to the fifth round of the FA Cup courtesy of an away win at Goodison Park, earning a home tie with the current cup holders, followed by perhaps one of the most electrifying performances here at Kenilworth Road for decades, before finishing with an eight-goal thriller draw at St James' Park.

Eight days, three matches, 860 miles, ten goals, seven scorers, four points and a prize cup draw!

Exactly 14 years before the victory over the Seagulls, any such optimism would barely seem plausible as we watched on in horror as Ebbsfleet United beat us 3-2 here in the Conference National. Looking back at such moments can be a cathartic experience. Often, we have spoken of how playing in non-league gave us an undivided resolve, a thick skin and, importantly, enabled us to humbly learn to keep our feet on the ground and never take the upsides for granted too much.

"Never too high when you win, never too low when you lose", as a great man once said.

The most refreshing aspect of the victory over Brighton – a thriving club who have shared a similar rise from League Two to breaking into European competition – was the manner in which we won the game, with an evolving style of football that has become a joy to watch in recent weeks.

For that to roll on to Newcastle United in their grand, atmospheric cathedral of football (which we could almost see through the blizzards from the open terrace at Gateshead), was an enthralling experience which enriches one's love for the game. There have been few 4-4 draws in our history – eight now, I'm reliably informed. So, to be first up on Match of the Day and be involved in a game considered to be one of the most exhilarating in the top-flight this season, shows how far we've come, especially when there's a tinge of disappointment that we didn't take all three points!

In those three matches last week, our starting line-ups were collectively assembled for way less than £10m with a few acquired on free transfers and most who had been a part of our journey from the Championship. Not only is this a real testament to our first team coaches and sport science team for their excellent care and development of those players, but clearly the strength of our recruitment team in how we identify top characters that fit into our structure and culture.

Usually, the January transfer window is our most hectic time of the season and the window we've seen slam shut by Sky felt somewhat like a damp squib. Whilst we were more active than ever behind the scenes, it was probably the quietest market in memory with only 10 per cent of last year's expenditure changing hands between clubs.

We always see January like a scene from an Indiana Jones film – an obstacle course full of traps and danger that carefully requires navigating to the safety of February. We always enter it feeling that if we can keep our squad intact, we become stronger. Statistically, the fewer changes a club makes in this period, the stronger they perform in the back end of the season, so unsurprisingly, our business this year was very tactical and financially positive.

We safely exited the bear pit in a better place with minimal day-to-day disruption to our momentum.

Of course, we were delighted to unveil our newest face, Daiki Hashioka, to you at half-time against Brighton and are excited at the impact – on and off the field – ‘Hashi’ will have with us. If his performances are as excellent as his warmth and friendliness, then we’re in for a treat.

Earlier in the window we secured the signing of Tom Holmes from Reading, before sending the defender back out on-loan to the Royals. Tom is a player we've looked at in each of the last four windows so we're more than happy that he can be involved in our future. And we ended the window by welcoming the highly-rated young attacker Taylan Harris to the club, who will be a terrific longer term prospect for us to monitor. ➤

Like any transfer window, we tried to be creative, trying a few bits of 'brave' business which didn't quite come off, but we often returned to the same question – "...but who would he replace in the squad?"

We also said our goodbyes to Ryan Giles, who left us for Hull. It was difficult for us, and Rob in particular, to stand in the way of Gilo given his desire to play first team football. The performances of Alfie Doughty, the continuous development of Joe Johnson (how good was it to see him get minutes at Goodison?) and the effective squad replacement of Hashi, made the decision an easier one to take.

The lack of activity in the transfer window is symbolic of the nervousness shown by so many clubs who are operating financially, close-to-the-bone, pushing the boundaries of the Premier League's Profit & Sustainability rules, which are being treated more seriously than ever now our authorities are delivering some long-awaited sanctions.

As you would expect, but for your peace of mind, I can inform you that we are nowhere near such scrutiny and would most likely exhibit a greater expenditure headroom than any other Premier League club.

By the time you will have read these notes (albeit after me writing them), David Wilkinson and Tom Schofield, our finance director, and I will have been involved in various meetings addressing the future of cost controls in the Premier League, the New Deal For Football, which sees more equitable distributions throughout the pyramid, and other important matters.

We are optimistic that these ongoing discussions will result in an improved competition with a great level of financial sustainability than ever before and when punishments for financial misconduct can be dealt with almost in real-time, rather than have cases drag on for months or even years.

And now, with the window shut and with football looking to repair itself, we can push forward with more confidence than ever on other matters, such as Power Court. Yesterday, some eagle-eyed supporters may have seen that we submitted a regular planning application for groundworks on the site which will see us materially begin moving earth in the next couple of months.

This encouraging milestone comes after receipt of a definitive programme to move the sub-station by UKPN, which will see this vitally important project begin next month and which will allow us to synchronise our schedules for detailed planning for the stadium and plan the programme for its construction.

Further details on a redesigned stadium itself will become evident as detailed planning draws nearer.

Back to the present day, today we welcome the players, officials and supporters of Sheffield United, to whom I extend a warm Bedfordshire welcome to our home this afternoon, for a game which the Blades will see as a 'must win' if they are to survive this season. With the quality and grit and determination they will have in their side, it will also be a game which we will see as a big challenge that will require our full attention.

After the excitement of the past few weeks, it is only going to get more and more fascinating, with Manchester United here in front of live Sky Sports cameras a week tomorrow, a trip to Anfield a week next Wednesday and an FA Cup fifth round tie against Manchester City the week after that.

So, enjoy it and drink it in. Has there ever been a more exciting time to be a Luton fan? Well, we hope this is just the beginning.

Enjoy the game and get behind the lads – not only have the noise levels here this season been intimidating for opposition players but the rising decibel levels have given greater encouragement to our own players and staff. So more of the same this afternoon, please.

Come on Luton!

Gary.

DUO UP FOR JANUARY AWARDS

Town manager Rob Edwards and striker Elijah Adebayo are both in the running to scoop monthly Premier League awards for January.

Edwards has been nominated for the Barclays Manager of the Month – and he's in great company, as the boss faces competition for the prize from Mikel Arteta, Pep Guardiola and Jurgen Klopp.

Adebayo, whose hat-trick blew away Brighton in our last match here, is on the shortlist for the EA SPORTS Player of the Month. The frontman is in the running alongside Conor Bradley, Kevin De Bruyne, Diogo Jota, Gabriel and Richardson.

Head to the Premier League website to register your vote for Rob and Elijah – voting closes on Monday.

The Hatters also picked up an award last week for their efforts against Brighton, winning the League Managers' Association Performance of the Week for the 4-0 thrashing off the Seagulls.

NEW DATES FOR YOUR DIARIES

The Town's Premier League match at Liverpool has been rescheduled for Wednesday 21st February with a 7.30pm kick-off.

The game was originally in the diary for the following Saturday but has been moved due to the Reds' involvement in the Carabao Cup final on the Sunday.

And following the FA Cup victory at Everton two weeks ago, the Town will host holders Manchester City in the fifth round with the tie televised on ITV on Tuesday 27th February.

BARKLEY WINS DIAMOND AWARD

Midfielder Ross Barkley's sparkling performances have seen him voted the diamond season card holders' Player of the Month for December.

Diamond Season Ticket holder Andre Barzilay was drawn to present the trophy to Ross in the Eric Morecambe Suite after Tuesday's 4-0 win over Brighton.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

Happy Birthday to William Handford who celebrates his 13th birthday today. He is pictured at Everton away earlier in the season. He is at the match today with his dad and two friends. Happy birthday, from all your friends and family. Here's hoping for three points on your special day. COYH.

Big birthday wishes also go to Town fan Arthur Turner. He sits in the Kenilworth lower with his dad Carl, his brother and grandad, and absolutely loves coming to the games. Arthur's favourite player is Alfie Doughty. Have a great day!

REST IN PEACE

It is with great sadness we announce the passing of Town supporter David Hamilton.

David was born and raised in the Sundon Park area in Luton. Attending schools locally. Subsequently spending part of his working and family life in Luton before moving away to the Kent area. A life-long follower and supporter of the Hatters, David was a loving father to Gary, Lee and John and was also a much-loved father-in-law, devoted granddad (dad-dad), uncle (to Richard) and brother to Cora, Rachel and Tom.

The Club were also saddened to hear of the passing of Raymond 'Ray' Pratt. Ray was a season ticket holder in the main stand enclosure until 1992. Afterwards he always kept a keen eye on the team's results and progress. He'll be fondly remembered but sadly missed.

We also offer our sincere condolences to the Wootton family following the passing of lifelong Luton Town fan Dean Wootton. His wife Sarah and son Harry are both in attendance for today's game and we would like to wish them well whilst coming to terms with the passing of such a special caring man. Dean fought a five-year battle against Myeloma, attending as many games as his health allowed including our special day at Wembley and our match at home to Arsenal. Rest in Peace, Dean.

FORMIDABLE HATTERS THRASH SEAGULLS

There have been many great nights at Kenilworth Road down the years.

But this was a night to rival the very, very best.

It began with Tom Lockyer whipping up the crowd up moments before kick-off on his first return since Bournemouth – and it continued for 90 unrelenting, unforgettable minutes.

It was one of those nights which we all didn't want to end.

Unbelievably, the Town led after just 20 seconds and it was the cue for a remarkable night under the lights – Elijah Adebayo glancing a close-range header home after Carlton Morris had knocked on Chiedozie Ogbene's right-wing cross.

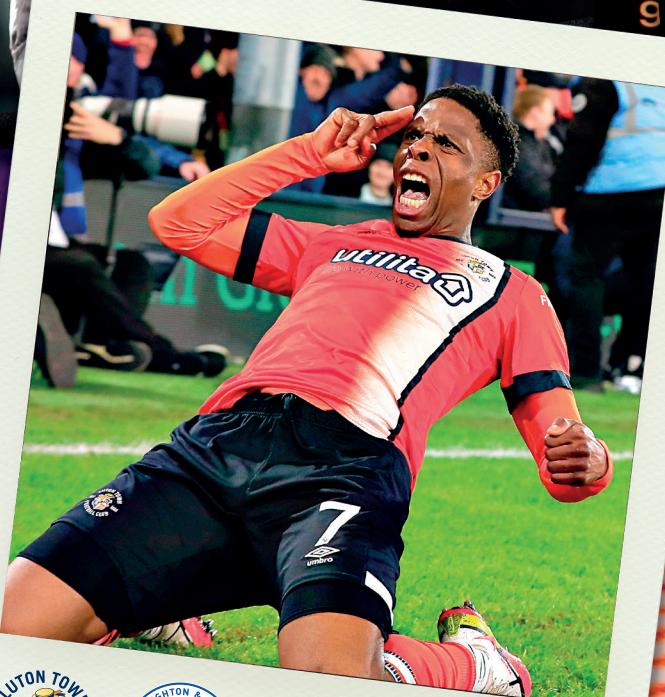

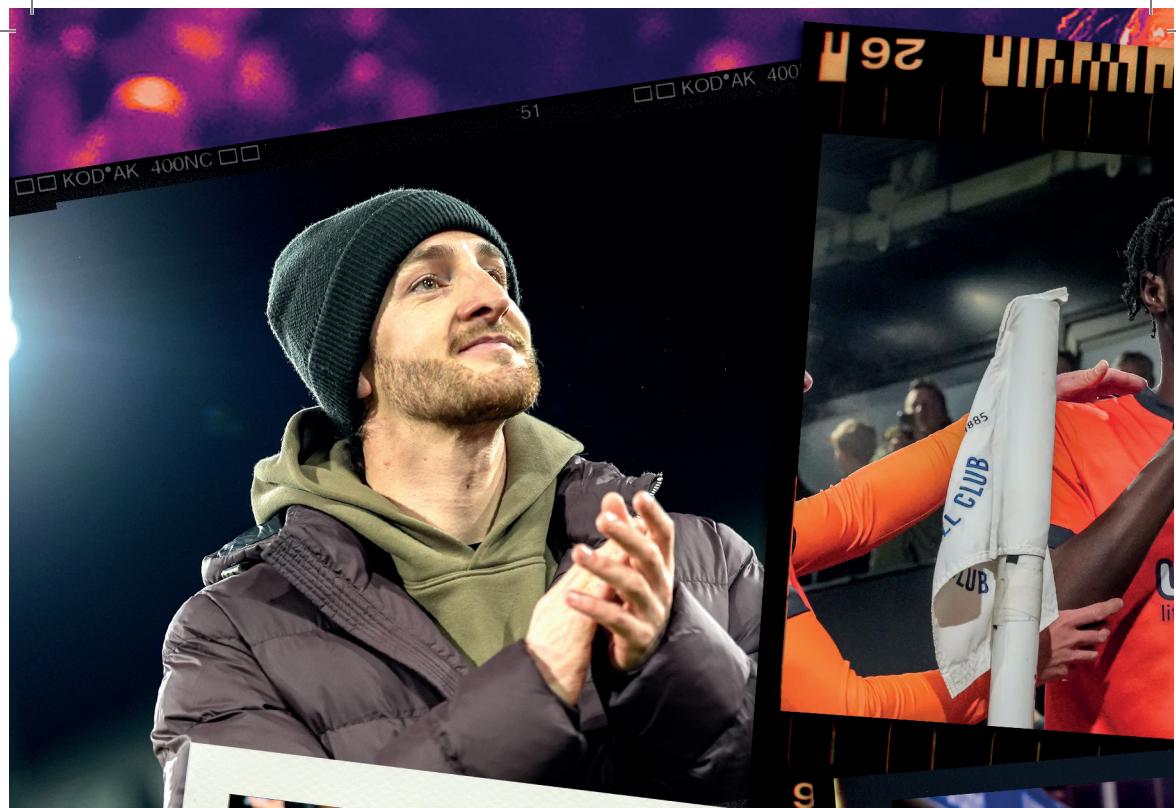

If those inside the Old Girl thought that was the perfect start, then one minute and 57 seconds later it, somehow, incredibly, got even better when Ogbene seized on Sambi Lokonga's superb raking forward pass, rounded Jason Steele, the Brighton goalkeeper, and passed into an empty net at the Oak Road end.

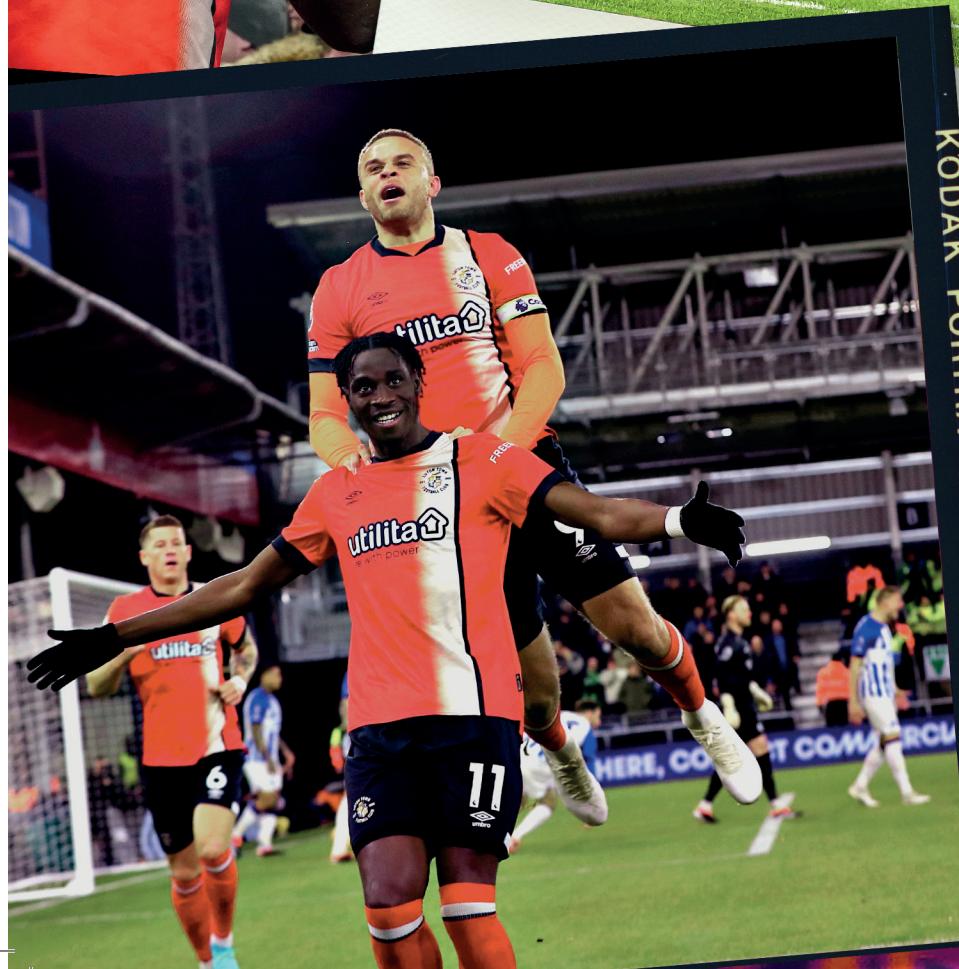

It was beautiful chaos. Brighton, wide-eyed, shell-shocked, had no answer. It wouldn't be until the 77th minute when Thomas Kaminski saved Danny Welbeck's effort that Brighton registered a shot on target.

As half-time approached the Town upped the ante. And they were rewarded with a third and Adebayo's second when Ross Barkley slipped the striker through, gave Steele the eyes and tucked home. 3-0. There were almost no words.

After half-time it did get better, especially for Adebayo, when he scored his first Luton hat-trick to bring the house down. Sublime play from Barkley fashioned a chance for Ogbene and from Alfie Doughty's corner the ball bounced into the striker's path and he made no mistake from close range.

A DREAM COME TRUE

A first Premier League hat-trick. It really couldn't get any better for striker Elijah Adebayo after the striker's treble helped the Hatters blitz Brighton the last time we were at Kenilworth Road.

Having come through the ranks at Fulham and following spells in non-league at Bognor and Slough, the three goals against the Seagulls were sweet reward for the 26-year-old's efforts in getting to the top.

"It's been a dream for me for me, many years to score a hat-trick and it's a fantastic feeling for myself and for this team, because I couldn't have done it without them," he said afterwards.

"I'm so proud of everyone, including the fans, they were fantastic. We know what this place is like under the lights, it's a fantastic place to come and it's a hard place to come, but it's what dreams are made of. I'm so proud. It's a surreal feeling, but I can't take all the credit, the boys were fantastic. We were told to start sharp and boy did we."

On an unforgettable night, Adebayo got the ball rolling after just 20 seconds when heading home from close range before Chiedozie Ogbene doubled the lead barely two minutes later.

"The first goal is always crucial, no matter what league you play in, so getting the first was good and then getting the second not long after definitely gave us a platform even more so," said the frontman.

"Then it was about not being complacent as a group. These boys know not to be complacent, we've been down two and then had to come back, so being in this position is unfamiliar in a way, but that's credit to the boys, they stuck at it and then it was just about making a statement, go and score more, and we probably could have scored more."

The Hatters needn't have worried as before the break Adebayo got his second and the Town's third to truly put Rob Edwards' team in the driving seat for three important Premier League points.

"Going in 2-0, they're going to come out and that next goal is crucial as it either kills the game off or allows them back in. To go in 3-0 was the icing on the cake, not to say that we're going to rest on our laurels, it was, 'okay, we're going to go and score more'. Luckily for me it was me again and I'm delighted for everyone."

The striker then completed his hat-trick – his first since a treble for Bognor against Canvey Island six years ago – after the interval to cap an incredible night

"I didn't actually know much about it, it just hit me in the face to be honest, but you've got to be in there to score," he smiled. "You've just got to keep getting in there and things will fall for you."

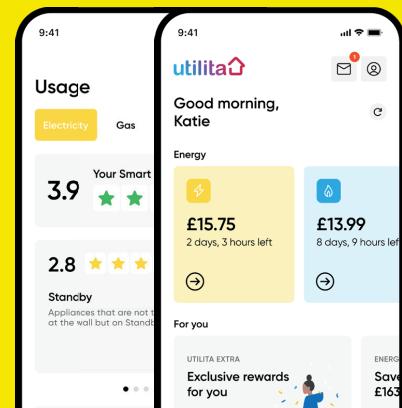

"A lot of people have told me over my career, that's where goals are scored, in the penalty box, and you've just got to be in there to get on the end of them. I didn't know how to react at the time, it was new to me, but scoring goals is one of the hardest things to do in football, so I've just got knuckle down and get ready to do it again."

HATTERS EARN POINT IN PULSATING EIGHT-GOAL THRILLER

The story of this game would take a novel to tell. We don't have the space for that.

But it all began so quickly when Newcastle took the lead on seven minutes. At that point it looked as though the Town might be in for a long afternoon when Sean Longstaff rifled home to finish an intricate home move.

Yet the Town's response to going behind was truly excellent. Settling into the game as if nothing had happened, they were soon level when Gabe Osho rose highest to nod on Carlton Morris' flick to deservedly bring the Hatters level.

However, no sooner were the Town on terms they trailed again two minutes and three seconds later when Longstaff restored the Magpies lead, converting after Thomas Kaminski had parried Anthony Gordon's effort.

Undeterred, the Hatters built once more and, as they seized control of the football, their efforts were rewarded with a second equaliser five minutes before the interval thanks to Ross Barkley.

As the game swung from end to end in the early stages after the restart, suddenly, on 57 minutes, Rob Edwards' side finally wrestled destiny into their own hands when Carlton Morris converted a twice-taken penalty after Chiedozie Ogbene was fouled.

It was good. It was great. But things got even better three minutes later when the Town stunned St James' with a fourth when Elijah Adebayo rolled home his fourth in a week to make it 4-2 after Barkley's pass.

Two goals ahead, the Magpies, who had thrashed PSG in the Champions League earlier this season, upped the ante and got to within one goal on 68 minutes when captain Kieran Trippier found the target.

And the turnaround was complete six minutes later when substitute Harvey Barnes dispossessed Barkley and sent a low finish beyond Kaminski from the edge of the box.

Yet this Luton Town team is stacked with resolve and resilience. A period where holding onto your hats was a genuine necessity followed as the hosts pushed for a fifth. Kaminski came to the rescue with eight minutes left to turn away Barnes' goal-bound shot and the Magpies came even closer two minutes later when Jacob Murphy spurned a chance at the back-post after a wonderful cross from Bruno Guimaraes had dissected the Town backline.

Once more, the Hatters responded brilliantly to adversity and when ten added minutes were added by the officials the Town found a second wind and it was Ogbene who had the game's final glorious chance. Barkley was the architect, pinging a ball to the back-post but the Irishman's fine side-foot effort was held by the relieved Dubravka.

BARKLEY REFLECTS ON NEWCASTLE EPIC

After a goal and an assist in the 4-4 draw at Newcastle, midfielder Ross Barkley felt there were plenty of plus points to the Town's performance at Newcastle last Saturday.

The 30-year-old played an instrumental role in the draw, scoring the Hatters' second equaliser at the end of the first half and then teeing up Elijah Adebayo to stroke home his fourth goal in five days to make it 4-2.

"It was an end to end game, entertaining for the fans and good to be a part of," said Barkley. "Four goals for us, four goals conceded, we could have done better with some of the goals, but it was a good game to be a part of and a lot of positives for us to take."

"Away from home at St James' Park... Newcastle are a top side. They've got players who are returning from injury, so over the next few weeks they're going to improve because they're a top side and they've been unlucky with some of the injuries. They've got Callum Wilson back and they're improving again as they had a bit of a drop off, but for us it's been a great week."

"Every one of the lads in the changing room is feeling positive, a little bit disappointed to concede a few goals, but we know they are a good side."

The former England midfielder was also happy with his own contribution to the cause on the day which saw him net for the third time this season after goals against Arsenal and Chelsea.

"Yes, it's great to score goals and great to assist goals but in general it's great to just get on the ball and try and make things happen," said Barkley.

"It was a brilliant game for the fans; sure, at times both benches were probably nervous as we went up by two goals and then they got two goals, but we're all positive as we just want the next game to come around."

Barkley almost had a hand in a late, late Hatters winner – picking out Chiedozie Ogbene in the 98th minute.

Even though the flying wing-back could not convert the chance, Barkley was proud of how the Town stood up to the challenge after Newcastle had battled back from 4-2 down.

"At 4-4 here with ten minutes added time, most teams in the league – when they've just scored two to get back into the game – probably cave in and maybe concede in the last minute and Newcastle win 5-4," he said.

"The way we were able to manage it and then we had the best chances in the last ten minutes when Chiedozie hit the target, if we had scored there, you would say we created the best chance, but what a good game it was, there were so many positives still to take."

WELCOME SHEFFIELD UNITED

The Blades are in town as Luton welcome Sheffield United to Kenilworth Road. It's a huge match at the bottom end of the table as both sides are desperate for three points. Chris Wilder's have had an indifferent season so far and sit bottom of the table.

United got their season off to a poor start as they lost their first three league games of the season under Paul Heckingbottom. These losses were against Crystal Palace, Nottingham Forest and Manchester City.

The Blades were then knocked out of the Carabao Cup by Lincoln City on penalties before picking up their first point of the season in a 2-2 home draw with Everton. This was followed by a cruel 2-1 defeat to Spurs after two extremely late goals won Tottenham the match.

After this, United were heavily beaten 8-0 at home against Newcastle United and after this, there were a further four defeats to West Ham, Fulham, Manchester United and Arsenal.

Then, the Blades picked up their first win of the season. Cameron Archer and Oliver Norwood were on target as United beat Wolves 2-1 at Bramall Lane. In the next game, United picked up a solid away point against Brighton before losing at home to Bournemouth.

Soon after, Heckingbottom was sacked after a disappointing 5-0 loss against fellow struggling Burnley. Chris Wilder's first game back at the helm was a 2-0 loss to Liverpool. This was followed up with a crucial 1-0 home win over Brentford.

The Blades picked up a crucial point away at Aston Villa before losing at home to the Hatters on Boxing Day. Two late own goals from United gave the Town the 3-2 win and a pivotal three points.

Since that afternoon, the Blades have picked up one point in the league, a draw with West Ham. A close 3-2 loss defeat to Crystal Palace was sandwiched between two defeats where United conceded five goals has really put Wilder's team in a pickle at the foot of the table.

A warm welcome to all associated with Sheffield United this afternoon.

CLASSIC CLASH

LUTON TOWN 2-1 SHEFFIELD UNITED.
5TH DECEMBER 1970.

When the Town were promoted from Division Three (now League One) in 1970 the new season was looked on as a period of consolidation as far as most Luton supporters were concerned.

We all thought it would be difficult to mount a meaningful promotion challenge again as our Fourth Division days were only two years before.

Manager Alec Stock had other ideas, however, and could see he had the basis of a squad every bit as good as the one at QPR he had taken from Division Three to the top-flight in successive seasons.

To boost the side he had signed Jim Ryan and Don Givens from Manchester United, Roger Hoy from Crystal Palace and David Court from Arsenal, all men of experience and in the case of Givens a full Irish international.

The season got off to a disastrous start with a 4-2 defeat at Burnden Park against a Bolton side who were to suffer relegation at the end of the campaign. This was followed by a sterile 0-0 home draw with Norwich, who had settled for a point before leaving Norfolk, as the team struggled to come to grips with Second Division (now Championship) defences.

MALCOLM MACDONALD FIRES IN A SHOT

CLUB HISTORIAN ROGER WASH LOOKS BACK ON THE TIME THE TOWN PUT THE BLADES TO THE SWORD

The first sign of better things to come arrived in the next game, away to Birmingham, where we battled for a point winning an equaliser in the closing minutes. Those of us who were at St Andrews that day could sense that promising times were ahead and we were proved correct when Oxford were hammered 4-0 at Kenilworth Road the following Tuesday evening. We had arrived!

As the Hatters pushed up the table the crowds rose, and the media became aware that something was stirring at Kenilworth Road and turned up in ever increasing numbers to see what was a very good side, playing with confidence and, in the case of star striker Malcolm Macdonald, a certain amount of arrogance.

As autumn turned to winter the league table began to take shape and the leading pack was made up of Leicester, Sheffield United, Cardiff, Hull and the Town, and these five clubs gradually nosed ahead of the rest to set up one of most exciting promotion races in years.

During the first part of the season we had lost 1-0 at Leicester in a game where we deserved a share of the spoils, won 2-0 at Hull in front of the Match of the Day cameras, and battled out a 0-0 draw at Cardiff in front of a crowd of 26,689.

It was about time we took on one of the promotion challengers at Kenilworth Road, and the first was Sheffield United who were our guests at the beginning of December. At that stage in the season we stood in second place with 26 points (two points for a win in those days) while the Blades were one point and two places behind us after an unbeaten run of 16 matches.

The Town were missing the injured John Moore who was due to play his 200th league game in Luton colours, while United were luckier, with Colin Addison passing a late fitness test on a twisted knee.

A best of the season crowd, at that point, of 19,665 had turned up which was regarded as disappointing by Alec Stock in view of the importance of the clash.

Luton were first to show with Macdonald going close with a header, but Blades' Tony Currie was giving the Town defence problems and shot over when well-placed following a smart pass from Len Badger, and then forced goalkeeper Tony Read to tip over a header which looked destined to open the scoring.

It was the home side who took the lead though. On 28 minutes full-back John Ryan charged down the wing and whipped in a hard cross from the by-line which caught the United defence on the wrong foot. Macdonald met the centre with a bullet header which was half stopped by ex-England international goalkeeper Alan Hodgkinson but still trickled over the line.

At the start of the second half the Blades brought on Gil Reece for Addison who had aggravated his knee injury, but almost from the restart the Town went two-up with a clever effort from winger Jim Ryan. A long throw from Macdonald was hit into the air by a United defender and Ryan waited patiently for the ball to drop before sending a looping header over Hodgkinson.

United understandably threw caution to the wind and attacked with a purpose but were unable to break down the strong Luton defence. Read saved well from Alan Woodward and John Tudor, while at the other end Macdonald nearly made it three, going close with an overhead kick.

A goal was pulled back with 13 minutes left, when Moore's replacement Jack Bannister was harshly adjudged to have fouled Billy Dearden in the area with Currie reducing the deficit from the spot. The last action of the game came when Read was pulled up for 'steps' (whatever happened to that law?) but the resulting free-kick came to nothing.

Luton had proved they could live with the 'big boys' and were seemingly well on their way to achieving Alec Stock's dream of promotion in successive seasons. However, the Town's form would tail off which would eventually lead to a more than respectable sixth place finish. For the Blades, however, promotion was secured as runners-up to Leicester.

A HATTER AND A BLADE

Trained chartered accountant Peter Anderson was happily playing for Hendon when he was given the opportunity to go full-time at Kenilworth Road.

He did not regret the decision though, making 181 League appearances for the Hatters as a tenacious and competitive midfielder, helping his side to promotion to Division One in 1974.

As Christmas 1975 approached, the Town were in dire financial straits and the transfer of Peter to Antwerp saved the club from liquidation. He moved to the US in 1978, joining Tampa Bay Rowdies but then joined the Blades on loan in the Autumn of the same year.

He notched 12 goals in just 30 games at Bramall Lane but broken his collarbone late in the season. A surprise choice as player-manager at Millwall, Peter lasted two years at the Den. After leaving football Peter became a successful businessman in Florida.

CULT HERO

CULT HERO: TONY CURRIE

Few Blades fans would realise at the time but when Tony Currie set foot in Bramall Lane after joining in 1968 he would go onto become club legend. A talented London schoolboy, Tony represented Hendon Boys before joining QPR as an amateur, whilst working for a building firm. He then joined Chelsea as an apprentice but was released and moved to Watford to complete his apprenticeship, earning England Youth honours in the process. He turned professional in May 1967 and made his league debut the following season. For a fee of £26,500, Tony moved to United in 1968, scoring on his debut and immediately became a favourite with the home fans. 'Top Cat', as he was affectionately nicknamed, became idolised at Bramall Lane, scoring 54 goals in 313 appearances as well as captaining the side in 1974.

TOWN 4-0 SHEFFIELD UNITED

27TH DECEMBER 1977

The Kenilworth Road faithful see the Hatters score more than one goal for the first time in three months when, in a powerful performance, Ron Futcher starts the rout with a far post header and Lil Fuccillo nets from the spot after Tony Kenworthy palms Futcher's shot over the bar. Brian Stein scores his first Town goals.

Town: Aleksic, Price, Buckley, West, Carr, Jones, Stein, Hill, Futcher, Fuccillo, Boersma.

CLASSIC KIT

A simple internet search for 'classic Sheffield United shirts' brings us to the Blades' effort for the 1992/93 – the first season of the Premier League. Their red and white striped effort was made by Umbro and featured their iconic 90s sponsor Laver, the local timber merchants. The hints of yellow and the laced collar detail are the real winners here, though. The shirt also has a little place in history as the first ever goal in the Premier League was scored in it. In fact, the shirt worn by Brian Deane – who scored that goal – went up for auction at Sotheby's in New York. It fetched £31,250.

VIEW FROM THE OAK ROAD

SHEFFIELD UNITED MIGHT VISIT KENILWORTH ROAD ROOTED TO THE FOOT OF THE PREMIER LEAGUE BUT, AS LOYAL BLADES FAN MATT CASBOLT TELLS US, THERE'S MORE TO LIFE THAN RESULTS WHEN FOLLOWING THE CLUB YOU LOVE.

What does it mean to be a Sheffield United supporter?

Wow, not sure where to start on this! I've been a fan since the day I was born thanks to my Blades mad Dad, Paul. Like any true football fan who has seen their side up and down the leagues will give testament to, being a fan is much more than what happens during 90 minutes on a Saturday. The daily exchanges in group WhatsApp chats, scouring the internet for the latest news and transfer gossip, through to small talk with the bloke at the corner shop - it's fairly non-stop in a football crazy city such as Sheffield.

How important is watching the Blades to you and why?

Watching the Blades both home and away, with my Dad and several friends is a massive part of my life. When that all stopped during Covid you really do realise how big an impact it has on your weekly routine. The Blades have, and will always be, a major part of my life.

Like Luton, Sheffield United have experienced a rollercoaster existence – describe how the ups and downs of following the club have impacted your life.

It's no wonder I'm heavily balding at the ripe old age of 34 is it! As Luton fans can truly sympathise with, I've seen my team finish mid-table in League One, to finishing in the top half of the Premier League and numerous trips to Wembley along the way. There really is never a dull moment. I always expect the unexpected when it comes to United!

Of all the players that have worn the red and white stripes, who stands out for you and why?

Easy one for me this. Chris Basham. No one encapsulates what it means to be a Blade more than this man. Over his decade long spell at the club, he's played over 300 games, in three divisions and about seven different positions across the park. He's a great leader who leaves everything out there and has made the very best of his talents to have a wonderful career. His famous winner at Elland Road that propelled us to promotion is one of my favourite ever Blades memories. We're all wishing him a speedy recovery for his terrible injury he sustained at Craven Cottage. Get well soon Bash.

What matches against Luton do you remember?

Luton 1-1 Sheffield United, 22nd April 2006. My first ever visit to the famous Kenilworth Road away end. It was a baking hot day and just a few weeks after our promotion to the Premier League under Neil Warnock was confirmed. I remember Rowan Vine blazing a penalty high over the stand and then Michael Tonge rifling in a free-kick at the death to rescue an (undeserved) point. It was a great day out with thousands of Blades adorning some fantastic fancy dress outfits to celebrate our recent promotion.

Can you put into words the feeling of being a Sheffield United fan right now – winning promotion last season, the expectations going into this campaign and how the current season has panned out?

It's evident for all to see that it has been a really difficult season on and off the field for all connected with United. From the highs of last season, to the various lows of this season and facing world class opposition week in week out. There's been lots of change in both the playing and management team which has no doubt impacted things, but despite all that, there's been some great drama along the way. Two 100+ minute penalties in front of the Kop against Wolves and West Ham to secure a win and a draw respectively, and a screamer from James McAtee to claim all three points against Brentford at home have been real highlights.

How has life supporting the Blades changed during your lifetime following the club?

On the last count I think I'd gone to 88 different grounds watching United. From the early days in the family stand with my Dad, my best mate Paul and Uncle Keith. To away days with my mates Jon, Carly and Kirsty and all on Pickard's Tours. From watching us lose away at Stevenage, to numerous trips to Wembley. It's been some ride!

Finally, what's your favourite ever Sheffield United game and why?

Sheffield Wednesday 2-4 Sheffield United, 24th September 2017. The Bouncing Day Massacre! As you will have seen from viral clips, this was the ultimate derby day at Hillsborough. John Fleck's third minute free-kick. Leon Clarke's double. Mark Duffy's immortal goal that literally deflated three sides of Hillsborough. Glorious.

HASHIOKA

WELCOME <sup>FREE</sup> 7
THE NEW BOYS!

Daiki Hashioka and Taylan Harris were the Hatters' two pieces of transfer business before the deadline closed last week.

Hashioka becomes the first Japan international to sign for the club after putting pen to paper and passing his medical hours before the Brighton game.

The 24-year-old joins for an undisclosed fee from Belgian top-flight club Sint-Truiden, where he had been impressing since arriving in Europe from Japan in December 2021.

On his newest recruit manager Rob Edwards said: “‘Hashi’ is a versatile defender who can play anywhere along the backline and, having met him I know he’s going to fit into the group really, really well.

“He’s got a great attitude and has a real desire to come and play for Luton Town. He understands we’ve got a good squad, and knows he’s got to fight for his opportunity. And he will – he’s really looking forward to the challenge of being here.

“He’s someone who is comfortable in possession, aggressive, and wants to defend. I’m delighted he’s with us.”

The Hatters’ new man said: “It’s always been a dream of mine to play in the Premier League. It’s physically and technically a top league and very intense, so I know it’s going to be difficult but I’ll give my all for the team.

“My strengths are heading, one-versus-one situations and I like to do a lot of running. I’ve only scored twice this season, but I want to score more. I can’t wait to celebrate in front of the Luton supporters.

“I’m so happy to be joining and I can’t wait to play as soon as possible.”

Born in Urawa, a northern suburb of Tokyo, Hashioka started his career at hometown club, Urawa Reds, where he would go on and play 74 times in the Japanese top-flight.

He made his international debut for his country in a 2-1 win over China in October 2019 – one of seven caps to his name.

Meanwhile 18-year-old Harris had been a regular for Reading’s under-21 side this season and made a goalscoring senior debut for the Berkshire club in the EFL Trophy in September.

Hatters head of recruitment Mick Harford said: “Taylan is technically very good; he’s a winger or forward who’s very quick, has a real eye for goal and likes a shot from range.

“He’s also a good dribbler, who likes to beat players and make things happen. We’re looking forward to working with him and are excited to see how he develops.”

The only piece of business the Town concluded the other way saw wing-back Ryan Giles move to Championship side Hull City on loan with an option to buy.

EVERY DAY I ENJOY COMING TO WORK

Sambi Lokonga is loving life at Luton Town – and who can blame him?

The midfielder, on loan from Arsenal, has really found his feet after returning to the Hatters starting XI having missed three months of the campaign with hamstring injury sustained in the draw with Wolves back in September.

The 24-year-old made his comeback in the 2-1 defeat at home to reigning champions Manchester City on 10th December and has played a huge role in helping the Hatters move out of the relegation zone.

“I’m loving it here, I’m so happy to be here,” he told our official YouTube channel.

“There’s nothing but good vibes and every day the atmosphere here is great. There’s not one day when I don’t enjoy coming into work.

“For me, it was important for to get back playing and important to play game by game – it gave me my confidence back and that’s beginning to show on the pitch.”

Lokonga’s success in the middle of the park goes hand in hand with the performances of the player alongside him: Ross Barkley.

The duo have built a fine relationship in the centre of the Hatters midfield and the Arsenal loanee couldn’t be happier playing with the former Everton and Chelsea man.

“We have a connection,” says Lokonga. “He can trust me with the ball, and knows he can give me the ball anytime. It’s the same the other way around – I trust him to use the ball and play to a high standard.”

With the Town going into today’s game with Sheffield United on a run of just one defeat in nine games in all competitions, Lokonga knows the importance of backing up their recent form at Kenilworth Road.

“We love playing at the Kenny,” he says. “The atmosphere is amazing. If nobody has been to Kenilworth Road, they should because the stadium has a feel that you can almost taste!”

That was backed up in our previous home fixture when Brighton were put to the sword in a scintillating display that saw the Hatters two goals up inside two minutes and 17 seconds.

“It was an amazing victory and that was down to that quick start,” Lokonga adds. “We were very happy with that result. We know that playing at home suits us, especially with the fans behind us.”

Lokonga was pivotal to the Town’s second goal against the Seagulls. His stunning cross-field pass found Chiedozie Ogbene who surged past Jason Steele to send the old ground into raptures.

“I could see Chieo bending his run and I just put the ball into space,” he says modestly. “The ball landed in the right area, he took a touch and score, I’m happy with the assist of course but all I had to do was place it in the right area.”

While Lokonga took plenty of plaudits on the night, the game belonged to one man.

“Elijah was fantastic,” says the midfielder. “What a game he had. He was amazing. His numbers tell their own story.

“He was the player of the match and took home the matchball. There are no words left to describe him.”

KITS FROM THE PAST

2008 Anniversary Special

It was 20 years since that famous Littlewoods Cup final in which the Town beat Arsenal 3-2 thanks to that last-minute winner by Brian Stein. A wonderful time in our club's history, and that 1988 Adidas shirt is one that goes down in history.

Fast forward to 2008 and the club was in a very different position. Starting the season with minus 30 points, not knowing if we even had a club to support and having only a few players on the books a few days before the first game of the League Two season.

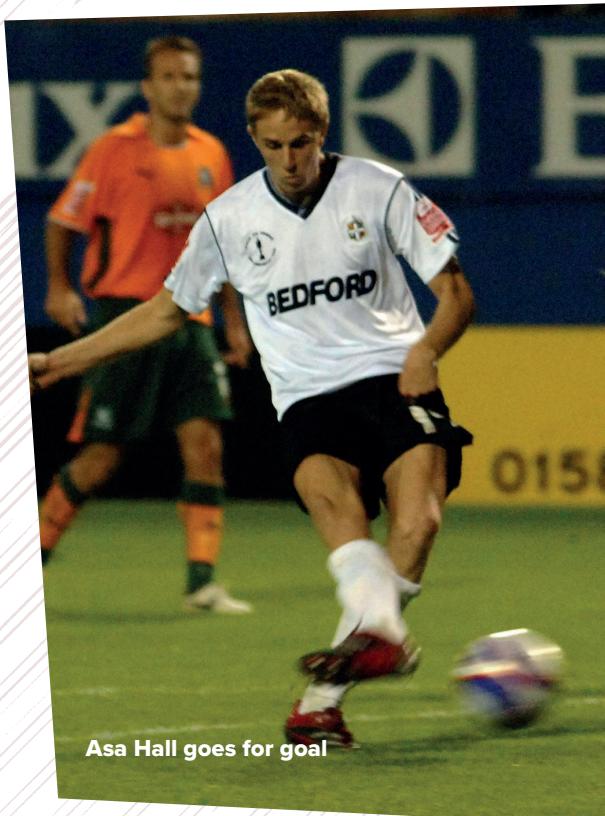

Our new kits for the 2008/09 season were not ready. By co-incidence, the club had released a special 20th anniversary retro shirt in the summer of 2008. Good job that did too, as that proved to the shirt, we started our campaign in.

The 2008 anniversary shirt features the famous Bedford sponsor on the front, and the Adidas logo was replaced with a lovely silhouette of the Littlewoods Cup trophy with "League Cup Winners, 20th anniversary 2008" embroidered around the trophy. It was smart, very smart!

But it looked even better with the official Coca-Cola League patches on the sleeves and the Football League approved name set for those first few games. The big red patch really stands out, and the name set font was bold, black in colour with a gold outline. Lovely stuff and complimented the shirt well.

As for results on the field in this shirt – a home loss on the opening day of the League Two season against Port Vale (3-1, Sam Parkin with our single goal), was followed by an away win at Gillingham (Parkin again getting the goal).

A one win, one loss record for this beauty, before it was finally replaced for the home game against Notts County with our official Carbrini home shirt for the 2008/09 season.

Asa Hall goes for goal

ON THIS DAY

10TH FEBRUARY

GREAT GAME LUTON TOWN 4 ROCHDALE 1

The Hatters recall the mercurial Graham French to mastermind a magical display by the forward line to earn their first win since Boxing Day. Barry Hutchinson misses an open goal in the second minute but the Town then go goal-crazy against the Dale and former Luton skipper, John Reid, is unable to contain the wave of attacks.

Bruce Rioch opens the scoring before skipper Terry Branston doubles the advantage. Keith Allen makes it three before Ian Buxton has the final word. A few months later the Town would be crowned Division Four champions.

Town side that day: Read, Dougan, Jardine, Slough, Branston, Moore, French, Buxton, Allen, Rioch, Whittaker.

THE RECORD

If history's anything to go by, it's likely to end all square today with nine draws dominating the 19 games played on this day in the past.

That includes a draw against today's visitors on this day at Kenilworth Road when Wayne Turner's goal earned a 1-1 draw.

The first time we played on this date, in 1900, was a draw – 1-1 against Burslem Port Vale (as Vale were known as in those days) and last time was, too. A James Collins penalty earned the Hatters a 1-1 draw at Stevenage in League Two in 2018.

It was also a draw the last time the Hatters played at home on this day, a Mark Cullen brace earning a 2-2 draw against York City in League Two in 2015.

However, all these draws means the Town go into today's game unbeaten on this day since a 1973 defeat Brighton, with Hatters sides from the past winning three and drawing four of the next seven matches played on this date.

THREE IN A ROW

The Town's first win on this day came over Wellingborough in the United League in 1901 and it wasn't until the win at Rochdale mentioned on this page in 1968 that the Hatters would win again on 10th February.

It wouldn't be another 28 years until the Town won on 10th February when beating Grimsby 3-2 in a topsy-turvy game at Kenilworth Road in Division One (now Championship) in 1996. Goals from Graham Alexander, Bontcho Guentchev and Dwight Marshall were on target for the Town in a game best remembered for the post-match story that saw the Grimsby boss throw a plate of sandwiches at their star striker in the dressing room.

In 2001 the Town were again fighting relegation, this time from Division Two (now League One) with Joe Kinnear masterminding a 1-0 win at Northampton thanks to Stuart Douglas' header in the manager's first game in charge.

Three years later the Hatters' final win on this day took place under the lights here in 2004 as a Kevin Nicholls penalty and a strike from Peter Holmes earned a 2-0 win over Brighton in Division Two (now League One).

BARKLEY AT HIS BEST

ALL OF A SUDDEN
EVERYONE OUTSIDE
KENILWORTH ROAD IS SITTING UP AND
TAKING NOTICE OF
ROSS BARKLEY. AS THE MIDFIELDER
EXPLAINS, ALL IT TOOK WAS A BIT OF PATIENCE – AND HAPPINESS.

“Ain’t nobody like Ross Barkley.”

It’s a song that rings around the walls of Kenilworth Road and is shouted from the rooftops at away grounds packed with Hatters fans.

A blood-twisting Cruyff turn here, a delicious diagonal there. An audacious attempt from outside the box. Or, simply, a well-weighted square pass that can be devastating in its simplicity.

While the Town support lap it up, enjoying every slick pass and dazzling piece of skill, there’s one man who is enjoying it even more: Ross Barkley.

“I’ve probably never been part of a team that’s so close and that’s a credit to the manager and the staff as well, keeping us so close, everyone’s great at the club,” Barkley says.

For a man who has played for Everton, Chelsea, for England at a World Cup, that is high praise indeed.

When you love what you do it, it’s easy, right? That special, tight-knit bond is clearly paying dividends. In his last six games, the 30 year old has scored twice and set-up three more as the Hatters have lifted themselves out of the bottom three to put pressure on several teams above them in the table.

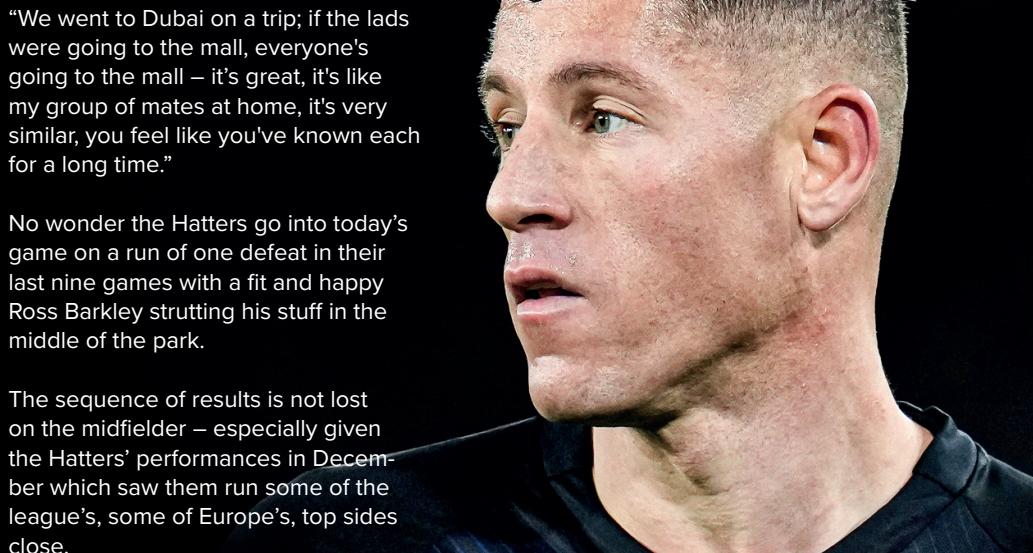

It’s stark contrast to when Barkley first arrived at Kenilworth Road when the Town were very much new to the top-flight and were light on Premier League experience.

“The change is night and day,” he says. “At the start of the season the lads were new to the league, getting used to new players like myself.

“We wanted to add a little bit of a different style to the team – that we were used to being a more direct team that was effective last season. However, in the Premier League, we’ve added a few things while maintaining directness as well and we’ve grown and we are still growing now. We’ve got great togetherness in the changing room.”

That team spirit has been a key factor in the Town’s resilience – and results – in a season in which many pundits predicted a campaign of woe before a ball was even kicked.

“It’s different, the togetherness,” Barkley says. “If the lads are playing Uno, everyone’s together, if the lads are cracking jokes everyone’s involved with it, there’s no cliques everyone’s together.

"We went to Dubai on a trip; if the lads were going to the mall, everyone's going to the mall – it's great, it's like my group of mates at home, it's very similar, you feel like you've known each for a long time."

No wonder the Hatters go into today's game on a run of one defeat in their last nine games with a fit and happy Ross Barkley strutting his stuff in the middle of the park.

The sequence of results is not lost on the midfielder – especially given the Hatters' performances in December which saw them run some of the league's, some of Europe's, top sides close.

"I don't think teams are surprised by us and how we play," he says. "But now going forward, we're no surprise to any team. We've scored against all the top sides, scored four against Newcastle, three against Arsenal, we went ahead against Man City, went ahead against Liverpool, beat Newcastle at home, so I think teams know what they're coming up against now."

After what many outsiders perceived to be a surprising move to Kenilworth Road in the summer, all of a sudden Barkley's performances have got people taking notice.

Column inches and podcast minutes have been dedicated to the Liverpudlian with some quarters tipping him for a recall to England.

Regardless of that, Barkley is just happy. Happy to be playing and contributing to a team that makes him... happy.

"I've always had the belief that if I'm afforded time to find my rhythm, play game after game I'll find my best," he says.

Unlike most players, when it's stop-start it's really hard to be at your best. You've got to perform in training and when you get your chance, but for me I'm just made up to be on the pitch again as I've had a few years when I've been in and out and not been able to find consistent minutes and performances.

"I'm just enjoying my football and I'm in a great place now."

RADIO 1 ANNOUNCES LUTON AS BIG WEEKEND DESTINATION LIVE FROM THE KENNY

Kenilworth Road was the scene for BBC Radio 1 to announce that Luton will host the station's Big Weekend event in May.

BBC announced its flagship Radio 1 Big Weekend music festival will be held in Stockwood Park during the second May Bank Holiday weekend (24-26 May).

As one of the UK's most popular music festivals, attracting global artists, with thousands in attendance and millions watching on television, it is set to be Luton's biggest weekend in living memory.

Cllr Hazel Simmons MBE, Leader of Luton Council, said: "The fact that BBC Radio 1 has chosen Luton to host the Big Weekend is fantastic news for our town, especially our young people, and will showcase all the wonderful things about Luton.

"This event will give a multi-million pound boost to Luton's economy and provide a number of opportunities for local young people and businesses, with tens of thousands in attendance and millions tuning in across the BBC. It gives us an opportunity to step forward and showcase the very best of our ambitious, brilliantly vibrant, wonderfully diverse and transforming town."

Hatters Chief Executive Gary Sweet said: "We are so proud to host the BBC at Kenilworth Road today to make this announcement, which is huge for Luton.

"There are so many great things happening here on a daily basis, and we saw the overwhelming feeling of positivity flowing through our streets when we celebrated our promotion to the Premier League last May.

"That feel-good factor has continued as we've welcomed the world's top footballers to Luton this season, and hosting Radio One's Big Weekend and some of the world's top music artists is sure to give everyone in our town another few days to remember.

"Luton is now officially cool."

Luton Council is working in partnership with the BBC and Festival Republic to deliver this fantastic festival and is committed to maximising the opportunities to the town and minimising the disruption of the event.

Luton's new place brand Step Forward Luton, and its ambassadors and influential voices from across Luton will be ensuring that the increased profile is used to show what the town has to offer and makes Luton so special.

While the event itself is being paid for by the BBC, the council will need to pick up some elements such as the traffic management plan for the weekend. This will be paid for using government grants and sponsorship, including from the council's airport company Luton Rising.

WHO?

Arguably the world's most famous club make the trip to Kenilworth Road a week tomorrow as Manchester United visit for the first time in a league fixture in 34 years. Formed as Newton Heath 146 years ago, the club have won more top-flight titles than any other English club – a record 20 times. The club have won the FA Cup 12 times and the European Cup/Champions League three times. With a glittering history, United won the treble in 1999 and some of the world's best players have graced the Old Trafford pitch.

KNOWING ME, KNOWING YOU

The Town's overall record against United is not something we'll sing from the rooftops about. It's just three wins from 35 in all competitions, with the Red Devils winning 26 of those, including the last two meetings. It's been 37 years since the Hatters last beat United, with goals from Mick Harford and Brian Stein giving the Town all three points in the top-flight at Kenilworth Road in March 1987. While United won on their last trip in the League Cup in September 2020, it finished all square in our last home league meeting in April 1992 when a Mick Harford goal earned us a 1-1 draw.

THE UNITED OF TODAY

United are the most decorated club in the modern era of the Premier League with 13 titles since the division was founded in 1992, but their performances in recent seasons have left their fans yearning for a return to former glories. Their last title came back in 2012/13 and last season they finished a distant third behind their cross-city rivals. United currently sit in sixth place in the table, winning their last two outings in the Premier League, 4-3 at Wolves and 3-0 at home to West Ham last Sunday.

WATCH OUT FOR

He might not have scored a Premier League goal in his first 14 attempts but Danish striker Rasmus Hojlund is now a man in form. He took his seasonal tally in all competitions to 11 with a goal in United's win over West Ham – his fourth in as many top-flight matches. The 21-year-old joined in the summer, making the switch to Old Trafford from Atalanta in Italy for an initial £64 million. He began his career with Copenhagen before moving to Sturm Graz in Austria and then Atalanta.

A-Z THE NON-LEAGUE YEARS

HATTERS HISTORIAN ROGER WASH REMEMBERS OUR OPPONENTS DURING OUR CONFERENCE DAYS

The Hatters spent five seasons in the non-League wilderness after being cruelly relegated in 2009 until a final glorious promotion under John Still in 2014. All part of our rich history which should never be forgotten!

Part Twelve. N is for Newport and Nuneaton.

We of course met Newport County in the Football League many times in their previous incarnation, but following the new club's rise from the bottom we clashed at Kenilworth Road at the start of the 2010/11 season for the first time.

In a feisty affair which saw Mathew Barnes-Homer miss a penalty, Keith Keane dismissed and future Hatter Charlie Henry net for the Exiles, we forced a 1-1 draw. The away game that season produced the same result with Newport levelling from the spot in the last minute.

Continuing the theme, ex-Hatter Ryan Charles was sent-off for the visitors in the 2-0 home win the next season while at Spyty Park Danny Crow's late winner did little to raise any enthusiasm amongst the Luton faithful who sat freezing in an open temporary stand. Rodney Parade is paradise compared to Spyty Park!

In 2012/13 Newport won promotion to the Football League while we suffered, never really looking like challenging for even a play-off spot. The 5-2 defeat at Spyty Park, with former Hatter Aaron O'Connor scoring twice, represents one of our low spots in non-league and makes the climb back to the top all the more sweeter.

We came up against Nuneaton in our last two seasons of non-league football. Two late goals from Alex Lawless confirmed a 2-0 victory at Kenilworth Road in October 2012 while at Nuneaton the two sides battled out a dull 0-0 draw in new manager John Still's second game in charge.

Our promotion season of 2013/14 saw two rather more entertaining games. In the home clash at the end of January 2014, a second half hat-trick from Andre Gray secured a comfortable win and sent us three points clear at the top after a run of twenty games without defeat.

The return was played a month later with the unbeaten run extended still further. A 7-0 home win over Hereford preceded the 5-0 victory at Nuneaton with Paul Benson netting twice, as the Town strode on to the championship.

HATTERS IN THE COMMUNITY

LUTON TOWN COMMUNITY TRUST FEBRUARY HALF-TERM FOOTBALL CAMPS

With February half-term now just around the corner, we are fast approaching our first holiday camps of 2024.

Running throughout the week commencing 19th February, the camps take place at a variety of venues both in and around Luton. As well as Luton itself, we'll be heading to Flitwick and Dunstable.

Our camps are open to anyone in school years 1 to 6 regardless of ability and previous experience of the game. Our camps are all run by professional coaches and offer opportunities for young people to learn new skills and work on their technique in a positive, fun and safe environment.

Our day starts with warm up activities where we specifically focus on individual SAQ (Speed, Agility and Quickness) skills as well as ball mastery. We then focus on individual and team games where the participants learn to use their social skills to work effectively with their team mates. In the afternoon all participants take part in football tournaments and matches, with the main focus being having fun and not specifically winning games.

To see a full list of our venues please visit www.lutontowncommunity.co.uk. For further information please contact us community@lutontown.co.uk or call 01582 561622.

GREEN FOOTBALL WEEKEND

Last weekend was Green Football Weekend. This is an annual campaign where football clubs and their associated club community organisations are encouraged to educate young people on the positive impact their actions can make on the environment.

We led school assemblies across Luton, engaging young people in a number of topics around environmental issues. The main focus for this year's campaign was around food and the benefits to the environment of introducing more meat-free meals into our diets.

During our assemblies the children explored four key topics within environmental sustainability: transport, nature, energy and food. Pupils were also introduced to the Planet League, an online portal where young people can score goals and gain points for the Hatters by taking part in a variety of green activities. These can be as simple as unplugging unused electrical devices or having a screen free evening, right through to making a journey by foot that would usually be done by car.

ACADEMY UPDATE

WITH LEAD ACADEMY SPORTS SCIENTIST JACOB WARDLE

I recently joined Luton Town at the start of 2024 as lead academy sports scientist from Forest Green Rovers where I spent two years in the same role.

Born and bred in the pride of the West Country, Bristol, I completed my undergraduate degree in Sports Therapy at Hartpury University, where I stayed on to complete my postgraduate studies in Strength and Conditioning. During my time at university, I represented the men's football team, claiming promotion and a league title in my final season.

As previously mentioned, my previous role was at Forest Green Rovers, at which, in my first game, we came up against a formidable Luton Town under-18s side in the EFL Youth Alliance cup, which saw Luton run out 8-1 victors.

As a keen sportsman myself, I grew up playing football as my winter sport, at which I reached the dizzying heights of Step 5. During the summer months, most of my time was spent on the cricket field, a sport in which I represented Gloucestershire CCC on two tours of Jersey at youth level. I also dabble in the occasional round of golf, in which I somehow play off of 7, proving that a single digit handicap can't be that hard!

My role at the club is full-time and I am predominantly based with the under-18s age group. My main responsibilities include delivering pre-training warm ups and activations, as well as designing and delivering post training gym sessions for the players. This is also the case on game days, where I also ensure the players are properly fuelled and hydrated for the game.

Alongside my time with the under-18s I also deliver on the under-13s to under-16s sports science, helping them through their growth, and preparing them to enter a full-time program.

As a department, spearheaded by Dan Taylor, we work together to ensure our players are physically ready, not only for the level they play, but also for the tough demands of the Premier League. Working alongside DT, and the rest of the staff has been thoroughly enjoyable so far during my tenure. All the staff have been very welcoming and helpful in assisting my transition. I've enjoyed fitting into the new environment at Luton Town, although I have spent most of my time so far trying to find a way not to be confused with under-16s coach Craig Alcock! (Apparently, we look like brothers...)

Overall, I'd say my time at Luton has gotten off to a brilliant start, which will hopefully improve as the under-18s look to secure the Youth Alliance title, which would be a proud moment for all of us as staff and the players. I look forward to getting myself down to Kenilworth Road in the near future to watch the boys fight for, and secure, Premier League survival.

Up the Hatters.

GETTING TO KNOW... DOMINIC DOS SANTOS MARTINS

NAME: Dominic Dos Santos Martins

DOB: 13/10/2005

Place of birth: England

Position: Midfielder

Year joined the academy: As an under-18

What boots do you wear? Adidas Copas

My aim for the season is to be involved in the first team and make my debut.

The proudest moment of career so far is signing my contract.

In the playground, I was always scoring and doing lots of skills as I enjoyed it as that's all I thought of as a young kid.

At school my favourite subject was business studies as I would like to have my own business when I'm older.

A career outside of football would see me open up my own business as I would learn and meet new people on a daily basis as this helps me improve my own skills with working with other people.

The one teammate who I'd say is the most talented is Claude Kayibanda – he is a leader on and off the pitch.

Of the first team squad, the player I look-up to most is Pelly Ruddock Mpanzu.

The best thing about Luton Town is the history of the club, building its way into the Premier League.

If I was to describe myself, I would say I'm very talented and hard working and always strive to get the best out of myself every day.

THE LAWLESS REPORT

"Dom is a holding midfielder who likes to dictate the play in the middle of the park.

"Playing in this position demands bravery and this is a big attribute of his: he is not scared to get on the ball.

"This is particularly the case in tight spaces and scenarios on the pitch where he uses his good technique to get on the ball and use it well."

"When he is on the ball, he also demonstrates his good range of passing, which can cause opposition defences plenty of problems."

DEVELOPMENT SQUAD LOSE OUT TO COLCHESTER

The Town development squad couldn't get off the mark in the Premier League Cup as Colchester ran out 2-0 winners at Kenilworth Road in their last competitive fixture.

First half goals from the visitors' Chay Cooper and Hakeem Sandah were enough to send the points back to Essex.

On a blustery night the Town came mighty close to taking the lead on 18 minutes only for Josh Phillips' deflected effort to be acrobatically headed clear off the line.

Nine minutes later, however, Colchester led when Cooper thumped a wonderful effort past goalkeeper Oliver Camis, making his Hatters debut after joining on deadline day.

Adrian Forbes saw his side respond positively to that set-back. Joe Johnson's dangerous low cross – after good play from Archie Heron and Josh Allen – was held by the visiting goalkeeper before Jacob Pinnington saw a shot deflected into the side-netting.

However the Hatters' hard work counted for nothing two minutes into first half stoppage time when the visitors doubled their lead when Sandah smashed a left-foot effort past Camis.

After the break the Hatters pushed for a way back into the game only to be frustrated by U's keeper Ted Collins.

Pinnington's goal-bound effort was turned away well by Collins seven minutes after the restart and four minutes later the keeper saved Zack Nelson's follow-up after Oli Lynch had hit the crossbar.

The chances kept coming for the young Hatters. Lynch fired wide and then was denied by Collins before Lynch and Aidan Francis-Clarke both shot the wrong side of the post.

It was not to be the Town's night and with two minutes left Nelson had the final chance direct from a free-kick which was comfortable for Collins.

LUTON TOWN LADIES

LADIES STORM INTO LEAGUE CUP SEMIS

Luton Town Ladies progressed into the semi-finals of the Eastern Region Women's Football League Cup as a Fiona Buttigieg brace and a dazzling Elizabeth Sanders goal helped the Town to victory over St Albans.

As expected, Luton Town Ladies started off on the front foot with Sanders picking up some free space on the right hand side of the St Albans defence with an impressive show of quick feet. However she was halted by a Saints defender an in an attempt to make a quick recovery.

After sitting back for the opening exchanges, St Albans broke down their right side but Jess McKay brilliantly slid in to stop the attack before the halfway line. More impressive defending followed a minute later after a fantastic show of pace from Rebecca Ferris prevented a St Albans chance just inside the 18 yard box.

The Town then had a spree of chances. First from McKay whose volley on the edge of the area was caught well by ex-Luton keeper, Angelika Kopec-Knurek. Then it was Shanice Lewis' turn, but from a tight angle her effort is dragged wide of the post. The third was a mirrored shot of the first, McKay firing a volley from outside the box and yet again was saved by Kopec-Knurek.

Ferris, this time on the right side of the Luton defence, then did brilliantly to come across and intercept a dangerous looking pass from St Albans. The next stage of play saw Ferris involved yet again, blocking a St Albans shot that the rebounded straight at goalkeeper Amy Butler.

With ten minutes left of the first half, the Hatters made the break through. Buttigieg sents a deep corner towards the back post which incredibly flew straight past the St Albans defence and goalkeeper and into the net.

Ahead at the half-time the Town wasted no time in doubling the lead after the break with a fantastic strike. Sanders picked up the ball just outside of the box, danced her way through multiple St Albans defenders before slotting expertly past Kopec-Knurek.

The next 20 minutes of the match saw the Hatters dominate although they had no goal to show for it. With 20 minutes to play St Albans had their first real chance of the match but Amy Butler was equal to it making a magnificent reaction save..

However with seven minutes left the Town wrapped up the tie with a third goal. A corner from Amber Pearson caused all sorts of trouble in the St Albans defence. A defender cleared the corner off the line but the ball falls to Buttigieg and she made no mistake from close range to set-up a semi-final meeting with Real Bedford.

WITH WITH EVENTS SECRETARY HELEN GATWARD

Hello again. I am back for my second column of the season, and boy can I say I am proud of the results we have had since then!

I last wrote in the Crystal Palace programme, a game which we won, and since then, we narrowly, and heartbreakingly, just lost out on points against Arsenal, Man City and Chelsea but we've also had crucial wins against Newcastle, Sheffield United and a massive win against Brighton, the latter coming on my birthday – what a birthday present that was!

We've also taken important points from Newcastle and Burnley in draws and progressed in the FA Cup to set up a tasty tie at the Kenny against Man City – who knows where that could lead!

We have improved so much since the start of the season, with every game we play you can see the confidence growing amongst the whole team. To score four goals against Brighton and to then go to St James' Park and score another four in the space of week is just brilliant.

I hope the momentum we have now continues to help us get through the remainder of the season. The boys have just got to keep believing, as do all of us Hatters... we can do this!

I feel privileged to have recently been elected as Events Secretary for the Trust, a sub-committee I've been part of for many years now. I'm looking forward to getting my teeth into planning plenty of events that you can all get involved with.

Our next event is our annual Quiz Night which has been rearranged for Tuesday 5th March in the Eric Morecambe Suite from 7pm. It's always a fun night where you can test your knowledge against fellow Hatters fans – you don't have to be an Trust member to come along either, so why not get a team together and join in. Tickets are on sale now, so I hope to see some of you there. Please see our social media pages for ticket information.

LTST Podcast

I also joined hosts Kev Harper and James Cunliffe on the Trust podcast after the Burnley match and to preview the Bolton cup game. Thank you for all the kind comments.

Speaking of the podcast, the boys continue to take it from strength to strength. They now have over 1,000 subscribers on our YouTube channel and have recently had Hatters chairman David Wilkinson on for an informative chat. If you haven't watched or listened to that episode it is well worth doing so.

Social Media

Finally, if you don't already follow us on social media please take a minute to do so. You will find information on all of our events and everything we are doing. Our handle on X, Facebook and Instagram is @lutontownst.

MEET THE FANS WITH HATTERS SUPPORTER MICK KENT

How long have you supported Luton for?

57 years and counting

Where do you sit at home matches?

I'm a diamond season card holder in a noisy back row of main stand block E.

Who is your all-time favourite player and why?

Mick Harford, no question. That man is the face of Luton as a player, coach, manager, fan and scout.

What does it mean to you to be a Luton fan?

I was born in Luton, moved away at five and since lived in the North, Midlands, Scotland, USA and now the Cotswolds - but, at 71, the Kenny always feels like 'coming home'. I love the way Luton and 2020 go about their business; feet on the ground, stay humble, friendly and inclusive, role model club who attract staff and players with the right attitude.

What are your favourite memories of being a Luton fan?

As an older fan, winning promotion away at Halifax in 1968 with a Brue Rioch left footer and Graham French's dazzler versus Mansfield are all up there. But last May at Wembley is the best - financial salvation, redemption, against all odds.

How has your support of Luton been seen by your friends (did they make fun of little old Luton etc)?

Living up north, friends and family understood and tolerated my Hatters' allegiance - two or three even joined in the away day escapades. Non-league days were different - you're going to Welling, Dartford, Nuneaton.

Has it changed now that we are in the Premier League compared to say the Conference?

Now it's full circle and the joy, congratulations and warmth from friends, supporters of other clubs who see that we've done it the right way. We are now known and admired across the world - I'm writing this from a ship in New Zealand, where a Tunisian crew member on hearing I'm from Luton came straight out with: "ah, Luton have a great team, won the shootout at Wembley, play good football. I love them."

What were your feelings when you saw Luton walk out in the Premier League for the first time?

Sooooo proud of our boys - Brighton away was special, wore my shirt from the 90s that I wore at that awful away defeat at Notts County which deprived us of a Premier League start... but I also thought a lot that day of those Hatters that never made it, likes of Alan Adair and Nigel Martin, aka Father Christmas, even though I like to think they're up there now, revelling in our current form.

How do the experiences of seeing Luton in the Premier League compare with the lower leagues?

Amazingly large and packed stadiums, among best in the world and multi-talented athletes at the peak of their game BUT the atmosphere at most grounds is dreadful, anodyne and sterile. That gives us a big advantage at home and I hope we carry that through at Power Court.

What are you most looking forward to for the rest of the season?

Roaring the boys on into 12th position by season's end, out-singing Anfield, and winning in front of 60,000 plus at Spurs new ground. You have to travel with belief.

WHO'S YOUR PREMIER LEAGUE TEAM?

It's a big game today as the Hatters host Sheffield United in a crucial home match in the Premier League – but let's rewind to the 2018/19 season when Luton hosted high-flying Doncaster Rovers in League One as Luton looked to strengthen their title bid.

The Hatters had a tough match ahead of them against play-off hopefuls Rovers. Barnsley played in the early kick off against Walsall and won 1-0 thanks to a last-minute Jacob Brown winner. This meant Luton needed a win to calm down the pressure from the Tykes who were chasing them.

Mick Harford put out his usual full-strength team but was missing Hatters talisman James Collins as he received a call up to the Irish National team. An exciting attack of Elliot Lee, Danny Hylton and Kazenga Luala set the match up to be a thriller.

Luton got off to a decent start and were on the front foot. Doncaster managed to withstand the pressure for as long as possible, but it wasn't going to last. After 33 minutes, the Hatters took the lead. Some neat work by Luton led to Luala playing a smart backheel to Pelly Ruddock Mpanzu and he rolled his effort into the bottom left corner to put Luton ahead.

It was more of the same in the second half for Luton as the Hatters kept piling the pressure on. There were chances but Luton just couldn't find the back of the net a second time.

That was until the 75 minute when it was finally 2-0. Some unbelievable work on the right by Jack Stacey saw his cut back fall to Luke Berry and his shot was directed in on the line by Hylton.

The wheels started to come off for Doncaster when Luton made it 3-0 after 82 minutes. Some brilliant work by Stacey again allowed him to play a through ball to Luala who made no mistake with his finish and celebrated with some acrobatics.

But the Hatters weren't done and it was 4-0 in injury time. Some superb individual work by Berry meant he could sneak his way through the Rovers defence before rifling his shot into the top left corner from the edge of the box.

It was an amazing win for the Town who really cemented their spot on the top of the table. A crucial win and a real stepping stone for what was to come. Let's bring the noise today!

ROUND-UP

The 4-4 draw at Newcastle saw the Hatters move out of the relegation zone and put further pressure on the teams around them in the Premier League table after the last round of fixtures.

On what was the highest-scoring weekend in the competition's history, the Town leapfrogged Everton after they earned a last-gasp point in a 2-2 draw against Champions League chasing Tottenham at Goodison Park.

On Saturday night the Hatters actually stood a season's best 16th place in the table, a position we would surrender 24 hours later after Nottingham Forest earned a point from a 1-1 draw away to AFC Bournemouth.

Two teams the Town did make ground on were Brentford, who sit two places and two points away after they were defeated 3-1 at home to reigning champions Manchester City at the Gtech. Neal Maupay had the Bees ahead only for a Phil Foden hat-trick move City to within two points of the top of the league, with a game in hand.

Another side the Hatters are chasing are Crystal Palace, who sit in 14th spot and four points above us in the standings. Palace's run of form has frustrated their supporters but after beating Sheffield United in the midweek before, they failed to build on that result as they went down 4-1 at Brighton in their derby match at the American Express Community Stadium.

Sitting six points above the Town are Fulham. The Londoners looked to be coasting to an away win at Turf Moor only for Burnley to storm back and secure a crucial late point. Burnley remain in the relegation zone on 13 points.

Our visitors this afternoon were on the receiving end of a thrashing on home soil as Aston Villa's fine season continued. Villa, who sit in fourth place and just five points off the top, were ruthless in front of goal, running out 5-0 winners at Bramall Lane. The Blades remain bottom of the table and ten points below the Hatters.

At the other end of the table, Arsenal's 3-1 win over Liverpool blew the title race back open with Mikel Arteta's side two points behind the Reds.

In games we've yet to mention, Manchester United – the visitors here next Sunday – beat West Ham at Old Trafford while Wolves stunned Chelsea at Stamford Bridge.

The Hatters' Premier League fixture at AFC Bournemouth has been rearranged for Wednesday 13th March.

The match at the Vitality Stadium will kick-off at 7:30pm, with further information on tickets to be released in due course.

The original fixture on Saturday 16th December was abandoned when our captain Tom Lockyer suffered a cardiac arrest in the 59th minute.

We were all so happy to welcome Locks back to the training ground and Kenilworth Road last week, when his return inspired his team-mates to a 4-0 win over Brighton & Hove Albion.

Have you looked up the dictionary definition of the word 'brave,' lately? My sources say it now just reads 'Luton Town, 2023/24'.

Then again, one of the most glorious goal-laden weeks of football has left many of us feeling delirious, so there's a good chance I fever-dreamed this 'fact'.

The Oxford English big book of words could do a lot worse, but speaking of banging the drum for previously unheard of causes, there's one that seems to be gaining some much-deserved momentum. Ross Barkley for England, anyone?

Not to blow one's own trumpet but this has been a regular discussion we've had on the Luton Town Supporters' Trust Podcast for months now, no doubt mirroring conversations you've had too.

But as Match of the Day last week discussed, a Three Lions call-up for the midfielder we can start to rule out simple orange-tinted spectacled giddiness, though Mick Harford's Sky Sports endorsement of his Euro 2024 credentials may rubber-stamp it for many Hatters. We hope, but it's out of all of our hands.

Instead we gather here today for the next chapter in Rob Edwards' masterplan for achieving the Premier League survival.

We've all witnessed what's going on before our very eyes with the remarkable form of not just the midfield Renaissance man, but the whole squad. TV's fictional coach Ted Lasso was bang on when he said: "Living in the moment, it's a gift. That's why they call it the present, ya'll!"

In the recent past, however, we've had the Championship Great Escape under Nathan Jones - and good luck to him at Charlton - but similar (and hopefully not last day) success in the top-flight would likely surpass that by a magnitude of Joe Payne-level lore.

The Great(er) Escape; The Great Escape 2 - Escape Harder; The Greatest Fairytale in Football - A Force Awakens. Hollywood is welcome to any of those ropey back-of-an-envelope movie titles for a feel-good summer blockbuster, should the Hatters do what many thought was impossible! Except us, eh?

Indeed, before Christmas, Barkley told me that 40 points was achievable, and who are we to argue with him? In fact, to quote my podcast pal, Kevin Harper, "If Ross Barkley told me I could fly to the moon, I'm getting some astronaut gear!"

When it comes to turning doubters into believers - whether that's Garth Crooks or Gareth Southgate - building on the brave (and a little bit bonkers) football we've witnessed of late is the order of today. And a result against Sheffield United will be one small step for this team, but one giant leap towards survival.
